VOLUME 1, NUMBER 1

MARCH 30, 1993

A New Paper Rises From PHOENIX LIBERATOR'S Ashes

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

This Volume 1, Number 1 issue of CONTACT: THE PHOENIX PROJECT marks the launching of a brand new newspaper risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, which was pulled down by dutiful puppets of the "Evil Empire". We are deeply thankful for and proud of this new beginning, and we look forward with great expectations to the CONTACTing with all of you that shall undoubtedly be taking place as the Phoenix "ground crew" continues to solidify through becoming informed of THE TRUTH.

While we naturally hope you will read CONTACT from cover to cover, there are two stories in this issue worthy of your very special attention and concern.

The first story begins on Page 2 and deals with the startling implications of all the ongoing—and largely secret—genetic research that the hidden Satanic Elite Controllers have been directing and orchestrating for many years now to gradually make You-The-People "good programmed citizens" of the New World Order. You may never be able to face another tomato or glass of milk again!

This "horrors of Genetic Engineering" theme is carried forward in several other later articles in this issue. You will probably find yourselves getting better and better able to read between the lines as this perverted subject really sinks in.

The second provocative and genuinely irritating story begins on Page 21 and concerns the gifted visionary and geophysical predictor Gordon-Michael Scallion. His "coming incredible Earth changes" message was, after several delays, finally scheduled for Fox Broadcasting's TV show SIGHTINGS for Friday evening, March 26, 1993—BUT WAS PULLED AT THE LAST MINUTE AND REPLACED WITH A RECENT REPEAT! Wonder why??? Hint: Buckle your seatbelts.

Our continuing readers from THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR can rest assured that cherished, familiar contributors like geophysicist Commander Soltec, Nora's Research Corner, Nevada Corporations and sporadic fits of humor will continue herein. Moreover, we are happy to report that we shall be gaining regular input from the Supreme Commander of the Earth Transition Project, Esu-Sananda, most popularly known and historically misnamed as "Jesus", as well as from Little Crow of the American Indian Lakota tribe.

Please let us hear from you as this new publication takes wing and makes you mad. Makes you mad? Yes, look at the new motto in the masthead. The old paper, THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, used to say, "THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE". And it may well eventually do that, but probably not before it makes you mad first! Welcome aboard.

The Sobering TRUTH About Genetic Engineering

3/21/93 #1 CERES 'ATONN

We have written time and time again on the presence of clones, genetic restructured things and beings, reproductions and DNA replicas and cross-hybrids. This has been the one most denied subject from readers across the world—and yet, the most practiced one thing to deceive you of all projects assaulting your brain-washed (or actually brain-dead) minds. I do not make light of anything herein—for you are a mesmerized, hypnotized people unable to handle anything other than what the culprits present to you. When ones now make cute sayings, say, about your politician: "He must not have a soul!" it is now likely to be quite TRUE in actuality. Hard to believe? Why? If you can change, absolutely, a tomato and program its very existence—why think ye that a human mechanical organism cannot be structured and programmed? The human vehicle even has data banks to enhance the ease of programming—a tomato has nothing and yet see the results. In order to not seem "far-out" or blast you out with "armies of clones" and "little gray replicas", etc., I am going to reprint major portions of information from a Journal published in at least six languages. This will be from the English translation of a Special Edition (No. 10) of Christusstaat, P.O. Box 5643, w-8700, WUERZBURG, GERMANY. (August 1992)

The following will be QUOTATIONS as is our practice. Comments will be in brackets, but I don't believe there will need to be many. KNOW that this is NOT NEW—it has been ongoing for decades and now the perfected work is going to be produced in the form of political leaders, enforcers, armies, etc. This is, however, one of the best organized presentations of the "picture" I have seen. It will be lengthy but at the least, interesting, I believe.

QUOTING:

GENE ENGINEERING THE TOTAL MANIPULATION

The last act of violence against God's creation!

The demonic interferes with our physical hereditary material in order to block our spiritual heritage—the breeding of a human being without a soul.

Dear Reader,

Almost unnoticed, gene technology started its attack on life itself. Gene engineers—adherents of a science without God and without soul—now intrude directly into the building elements of life. They want to force the laws of life to be at their service in order to repair the damages which man has caused: incurable diseases, impending famine, destruction of the Earth's atmosphere, nuclear contamination and pollution of large parts of our planet Earth.

But the bio-technologists have not only repairs in mind. This time much more is involved. The "old" human being, "homo sapiens erectus", has failed. Ever since one can remember, there have been only wars and destruction—all of this a result of man's egoism and deeply rooted aggressive instinct. A new human species has to come. With the help of genetic manipulations, the building elements of life shall be fitted together in such a way that there will finally be peace and quiet. A new type of man is needed for the "One World" in which the master man governs, The New World.

As Christians and world citizens, we may ask: Who among us could have created himself? Who among us can add even one hair to the hair on his head? Where does the power of order come from which coordinates three billion information bits in each cell of our body? Who controls the communication between the twenty trillion cells of the human organism?

Many a renowned physicist confesses that only a cosmic intelligence, which he calls God, could have created this miracle.

A Christian, or believer in a Higher Source, knows that this God dwells within himself. Through the one called Jesus of Nazareth to all other Christed Beings, He taught the way to transform step by step the aggressions and egoism of mankind. Today, He teaches this path, the actualized Sermon on the Mount, anew through Christ in the prophetic word. [C: Please do not be put off if you do not consider yourself a Christian—for the term is badly abused and misused. What we are going to offer you herein, is that "Christ" consciousness is universal. "Christ" is not a person's name; it IS the state of "being" in Godness (Creator). It is difficult, however, to deal with your languages and divisions of "belief" doctrines. Therefore, please do not accept this information as being simply a "Christian" presentation and therefore NOT FOR YOU if you consider yourself something other than indoctrined "Christian". This term includes, actually, all who believe in higher resource/source, soul presence and that term in English is "Christness" and therefore we shall effort to use the term when typical words to express that thought are utilized. ANY BEING CONSIDERING HIMSELF TO BE IN RECOGNITION OF HIGHER SOURCE OF CREATION IS A "CHRISTIAN" BY ANY DEFINITION AND IT HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH "RELIGION"!

We primordial Christians in Universal Life seriously endeavour to follow Christ. No one of us is perfect. However, we take seriously the demand of Jesus to become perfect. We know that God IS and that every human being is DIVINE because he is a creature of God. But man will never BE God. The one who makes himself a god, or even places himself above God in his attempt to "improve" God's creation through gene manipulation, will fail. There is nothing in creation which needs to be improved. Only we have to become "better" in order to unfold our spiritual heritage again, which says: We are children of infinity, sons and daughters of God.

Many scientists agree that earth and man are not able to survive in their present condition. Again in this case science does not ask for the spiritual causes, but has started to technically "correct" the wrong course of events, without a real diagnosis. Gene technology works feverishly to find solutions. In the meantime, it is no longer the question of merely repairing damage to plants, animals and mankind. Those with power in this world pursue a goal which reaches far beyond to create the subhuman being, the inhabitant of the "Brave, New World" under the "New World Order".

What few people know and many can't even imagine is already reality: Modern production of food and drugs has become unthinkable without gene technology, which has unforeseeable consequences for soul and body. Whether tomatoes remain "fresh" for weeks, cheese no longer moulds, chips are crisp, or chocolate bars are soft enough to melt on the tongue is now in the hands of food gene technologists. The fruits of the field often are nothing but building blocks for "improved" foodstuffs. In laboratories, plants and animals are "constructed" in a way that nature would never bring forth.

How wonderfully far we've come!

When years ago science came to know the first facts about genetic correlations, there was the hope that it could remedy many evils of this world through the direct change of genetic programs. The arguments were the following: Isn't it for a good cause, if illnesses can be healed this way? If one can produce more food in order to stop worldwide hunger. If one can make animals and plants resistant to ecological poisons. What could be more obvious than to vigorously pursue the research of the entire hereditary material of man?

PROJECT "HUGO"

[C: Yes indeed, we have written extensively about this but most denied the very evidence in front of you.]

In 1988, the US Congress decided to carry out a gigantic research project, the so-called genome project of the Human Genetic Organization (HUGO). Scientists all over the world work on this project with the goal to decode the hereditary material of man. Within ten or at the most twenty years, the information catalogue about the genes, their defects and the resulting health disorders will be completed. Professor James T. Watson, who discovered the structure of the DNA together with another scientist, said about the aims of this project, "Similarly as in 1961, when President John F. Kennedy decided the realization of the moon-landing programme, the USA has set for itself a very important goal of high official interest. The cost of sequencing the approximately three billion base-pairs, which form the human DNA, is admittedly lower than the expenditures for the exploration of the moon. However, the effects of the human Genom Project on the life of man will be far greater. Never has man opened up a more important source of information. The decoding of the genetic message, which is encoded in the DNA molecules, will supply definitive information about the chemical structure of human life."

Until now, about three thousand human genes have been decoded, but the work goes forward ever more quickly.

"Knowledge increases exponentially," says Professor Hans-Gunter Cassen, director of organic chemistry at the Darmstadt Institute of Technology. Meanwhile, autoanalyzers have been developed which are able to decode a thousand or more bits of information per day. Within a year, an expert can make accessible a hundred pages of the total genom "library". This library would consist of a total of a thousand volumes with a thousand pages each—with three thousand information bits on each page in the form of letters. If possible, it should be complete by the turn of the millennium. Research of the genom is the most relevant, fundamental science for the so-called gene technology, which is the scientific discipline that deals with gene manipulation—for whatever reason. Professor Gassen wrote about the principles and goals of gene technology the following in his book Gene Engineering. "Gene engineering allows us to synthesize every genetic programme as a DNA-segment in any desired amount and to determine its information content through sequencing. Similar to a construction set, we are able to alter living beings through the addition of smaller and bigger DNA-elements. The decisive advantage of gene engineering is therefore the gain of time. The methods of gene engineering are awfully fast. Just as the splitting of the atom led to the atom bomb and to nuclear power plants, just as modern electronics change our business world, so the new biology, and especially gene engineering, will accelerate the construction of living beings according to specifications determined by us."

Of course, the initiators of the genom project expect a return for the great financial expenditure. The gene know-how, which the scientists involved acquire, should pay off in cash. Thus, the American brain researcher Craig Venter, on behalf of his employer and the National Institutes of Health, has already submitted a patent application in order to protect, for later commercial use, a good 300 genes which his team discovered.

Considerable economic interests are behind the explosive data of the genom analysis. For example, the one who does not hire employees because their genes indicate a low physical or psychic tolerance, can spare himself financial trouble in the future. The decoding of the human genes could also have a lasting impact on the insurance business. In the event insurance companies demand gene analysis of future clients, they can calculate the risks more precisely. (Wirtschaftswoche No. 1/2, 1992).

In scientific journals there are daily reports on progress in gene analysis. On January 22, 1992 one could read in The German Medical Journal that the center for tumor research in Lyon, France localized several cancer genes.

In the newspaper Frankfurter Rundschau on January 18, 1992, we find a comment that an Australian institute has submitted a patent application at the European Patent Office for a gene from the ovary tissue of a pregnant woman to be patented. This gene controls the human hormone, Relaxin, which in turn influences delivery.

A most interesting report concerning gene research appeared in the German VDI-Nachrichten on February 21, 1992, under the title "Eternal Life from the Gene Laboratory". American research teams succeeded in doubling the life-span of flies and threadworms through gene manipulation. This means that man has found the gene that influences aging. The enzyme that controls the process of aging is the so-called super-oxide-dismutase. The American geneticist, Thomas E. Johnson, happily reported that due to the results of his research human beings could possibly live 130 to 150 years.

WHAT ARE GENES?

Just as our soul contains the divine heritage, so is our physical hereditary material stored in the genes. Each of our body cells has a nucleus, which in turn contains the chromosomes. Each human cell has 46 chromosomes, which are arranged in 23 pairs. Within them we find the hereditary material, a long chain molecule, tightly rolled up in the form of a twisted rope ladder. The substance which forms this molecule with its hereditary information is a chemical compound by the name deoxyribonucleic acid, abbreviated, DNA. Each of these chain molecules averages 2,000 segments, the so-called genes. This amounts to about 80,000 to 100,000 genes per cell.

The molecular substance DNA is made up of four different bases—the nucleotides: adenine, thymine, guanine and cytosine. These four components join together in pairs. Each gene consists of a combination of thousands, up to millions, of base-pairs. In a human cell there are approximately three billion such base pairs. The various information results from their specific arrangement. This can be compared with the arrangement of letters in different words.

For the regulation of all of our vital processes, information data are needed, which are interchanged within our body. The carrier of these data are the genes. Thus, they have a fundamental significance for our life. If our genes are altered, the vital processes which are controlled by the genes will be altered. If these alterations are done arbitrarily, one calls it gene manipulation.

By the way, the genetic make-up of man—above-mentioned chemical substance DNA—is the same as that of the animals and the plants.

Each gene has a certain function. Genes contain instructions for the production of proteins. According to these instructions, chain-like molecules are composed as needed. The products are proteins. They are active substances which execute the commands of the genes in all parts of the body. Such substances not only control the metabolic processes and other functions of the body, but also our emotional life. [C: And so—does not Gaiandriana begin to make sense to you? You have a cellular mechanism which modifies itself to your own personalized DNA blueprint for the perfecting of any damaged cell within a given living organism.]

INTRUSION INTO THE GENES

The demon again and again finds his accomplices on this Earth. And so he has already manipulated many so that they carry out further manipulations. The food is genetically manipulated and much more. Noxious radiation, which reaches the Earth through the atmosphere that is becoming thinner and thinner, has an increasingly damaging influence on the human genetic make-up, i.e., on the genes. [C: Except in the presence of Gaiandriana-restructured cellular mass—therein the cells respond positively to the ultra frequency light rays which are damaging to the otherwise unenhanced body.

The adversary even goes so far as to make people believe that due to their interventions in the genes they can heal illnesses. But to act on an illness in such a way means to push the illness back into the soul.

The adversary of God tries all means to prevent man's return to God and thereby does not even shy away from genetic manipulation.]

We know from the history of science that everything which has been tried out on animals, sooner or later will also find its application on man.

Finally, one is urged to think about WHO in reality profits from the discoveries of gene research. Is all of this really for the benefit of mankind, as science claims?

If, due to gene manipulation, a human body can live 130 to 150 years, the question arises: who will then live in such a body? We know through the prophetic word that each soul incarnates for a certain span of life. When the clock has run out for this soul—who will then think, speak and act through the body which continues to exist? If it is no longer its own soul, which energies keep such a body alive? We know that the demon tries with various methods to influence mankind. These are just some points to ponder.

END OF QUOTING, THIS SEGMENT.

Let us leave off here in order to keep the segment at reasonable length. We shall continue immediately on Genetic Control.

QUOTING:

GENE ENGINEERING

Gene engineering has already taken control over many areas of our lives, without the individual being aware of it. The following reports from the media give proof of this in a very impressive way.

"Researchers created human-sheep. Was this the will of God?"

This was the first-page headline of an article about gene manipulation on sheep, which appeared in the German newspaper Bild, on February 18, 1992. The Bild added, "Is it the will of God that we interfere in such a way with creation?" What happened? The gene researchers of the Scottish firm, Pharmaceutical Proteins, implanted certain human genes into the body of a sheep in order to produce from sheep's milk the protein alpha-1-antitrypsine, which is used as a medication against a certain lung disease. This will create the possibility of using animals, so to speak, as bio-reactors for the production of drugs. One speaks in this case of "gene farming".

Due to progress in gene research, the function of individual genes becomes increasingly clear. Gene technology's function is now to implant a foreign gene into a "host"-organism in order to make this organism produce a certain protein which it normally would not produce. This is how it happens:

First of all, the researchers identify a gene and examine its effectiveness. Then this section can be cut out with so-called restriction enzymes and implanted into a plasmid, a ring-like bio-molecule. The plasmid will then be incorporated into a host-organism which starts the production of the medicine. Host-organisms are, for example bacteria, yeast cells, hamster or mouse cells. The genetech production of medicines always follows this principle.

For example, one assumes that ten transgene cows, that is, gene-manipulated cows, are enough to cover the entire world demand for insulin. In this way, cows become "pharmaceutical factories". Is there anyone who really cares for these animals? It is a known fact that they are sick, that they are so damaged that they can no longer walk in a normal way. When one observes these animals, one feels that their whole life is just suffering, because they are forced into biological productions that have nothing to do with their nature.

Here, man intrudes into the creation of God. He abuses the animals for the "welfare of mankind". He lets animals suffer and does not grasp what he does to himself with these actions. For the following law is valid, "You will reap what you have sown." What we do to the animals we will reap one day.

The newspaper Wirtschaftswoche reports in its edition No. 7 of February 7, 1992 on the extensive activities of the big international pharmaceutical companies in the field of gene technology. Medicines produced by gene engineering are, for example, interferons to fight tumor, the hormone erythropoietine (epo) for the formation of blood, the preparation Tissue Plasminogen Activator for the treatment of an acute heart attack and for the prevention of thrombosis.

According to Wirtschaftswoche, scientists presently work in biotechnical enterprises and research institutes all over the globe on the development of a further 250 medicines. The engagement of the big pharmaceutical companies in the field of gene technology has become a multi-billion-dollar business, with the result that European market leaders such as Sandoz, Hoffman La-Roche and Ciba-Geigy spend about one third of their research and development budget on biosciences. In the US, this trend is even stronger. Big pharmaceutical companies recently have converted to exclusively biotechnology enterprises.

Our food, too, is already affected to a great extent by gene technology. A lot of food is manipulated by gene engineering. Which "delights" already come out of the gene lab? In its special edition "Biofach 92" the newspaper "Umwelt Direkt" reported some facts about this.

Through manipulation with the genetically produced bovine growth hormone BST, COWS, for example, shall produce more MILK—the target is up to 20,000 liters a year. In view of the overproduction of milk, this is completely unnecessary. These so-called "turbo"-cows are already programmed in such a way that they produce antibiotics. Consequently, the one who drinks their milk takes in the ANTIBIOTIC at the same time and thereby is also exposed to gene manipulation. This means that milk becomes a "medicine". CARPS implanted with the growth hormone of trouts will have a 21% weight gain.

American and Swiss firms tinker with a COCOA-BEAN which produces at the same time the low-calorie sweetener thaumatococcus.

Starting cultures which multiply explosively will shorten the ripening time of YOGURT, CURD and CHEESE. Genetically altered fungus cultures, for example, cause Roquefort blue cheese to ripen within three days, whereas its natural process of ripening takes half a year.

As we all know, mould forms quickly on cheese. For this reason, a so-called "killer-cheese" is being produced now, this means that gene-manipulated micro-organisms which produce an antibiotic are added to the cheese. As a result, cheese will no longer mould. Thus, cheese becomes a producer of antibiotics, which one consumes unsuspectingly.

Due to gene technology, the beer purity regulations as well become a farce. Today, there are already gene-manipulated yeasts which produce less alcohol content in beer. The result is the up-to-date "light beer".

In the meantime, even the rennin of calves, which is needed for the production of cheese, comes from the gene reactor. Already in 1982, a genetech rennin was patented and came on the market. "Maxiren" is the name for the chymosine, which is produced with gene-manipulated yeast and is now admitted on the market in Switzerland, Sweden, Spain and Great Britain. In the US, 35% of HARD CHEESE is already made with genetech preparation. You won't find any note for this gene manipulation on the packaging for genetically altered foods do not have to be labeled. Why should they? After all, the "welfare of the consumer" is concerned, that is your welfare, dear reader.

All of this is no exception. In these weeks one can read more and more reports in the media on gene manipulation in nearly all categories of food.

Last Year, a California company submitted an application to the relevant US authority for permission to sell a TOMATO. This tomato contains the gene of a fish which blocks a ripening enzyme. In England, genetech BAKING YEAST produced in the gene laboratory has already been admitted on the market. This yeast lets the dough rise more quickly.

Even wine arouses the interest of gene engineers. As with beer, here too, "optimized yeasts" are developed for the fermenting of WINE or CHAMPAGNE. One estimates that within a few years nearly all industrial enzymes will be produced via gene technology.

ALREADY MANIPULATED?

Are not all those who carry out, approve of and profit from such experiments already manipulated themselves? Although they call themselves Christians, they treat animals like machines—assuming, of course, that they have no souls.

GENES OUT OF CONTROL

Potatoes, tobacco, sugar beets, corn, wheat: worldwide gene experiments are made on approximately 30 domestic plants. A countless number of these manipulated plants grows in the open, on experimental fields. Who can still prevent manipulated genetic material from being spread?

Japan works on the gene-manipulative preparation of RICE; in the US, CORN is gene manipulated. Corn and rice are staple foods in these countries.

In Holland, outdoor experiments are made with genetech POTATOES. In the meantime, worldwide, 300 outdoor experiments with PLANTS have been carried out—with unforeseeable results for the surrounding nature. For it is known that gene fragments can be easily transmitted. What is not known is the extent of the uncontrolled co-manipulation of all of nature.

What happens when nature and the fruits it brings forth are manipulated with gene technology? Will the people who eat this food not be automatically manipulated, too? Science contests this. But no one has thus far supplied evidence that this is not a real danger. At best, this could be examined and proved in an experimental study over decades. But we know nothing about this kind of test, in which scientists intend to research the effects of genetically altered food on man.

Cynics could argue that the test has already begun by bringing the products on the market without any restrictions. Science calls this a "blind study". The consumers are the experimental subjects—without knowing it.

A special domain of the gene engineers is MEAT PRODUCTION. The great demand for meat, especially in the West, can be met only through the "production" of animals which double their weight in half the time. To this category of animals belong genetically "boosted" GIANT PIGS, living mountains of flesh. Since the consumption of meat has already proved to be hazardous to health, what then is to be expected if gene engineering is now interfering in the giant food sector as well? No one knows how gene fragments from the manipulated meat of animals affect the human intestines. Maybe the intestinal flora will be changed; maybe the human intestines themselves will be genetically changed.

Due to gene manipulations, SHEEP in Australia produce a wool which breaks off by itself and is collected with nets, while before shearing was necessary. Furthermore, these animals are capable of producing substances in their wool which repel insects and, in addition to that, keep off negative influences from their wool. The result of this is a wool which can be processed with less effort.

Disregarding any ethical and moral values, animals are changed in such a way that they yield the greatest economic profit for man. His principle is to obtain the greatest possible profit with the least expense.

Are not all those who carry out, approve of, or profit from such experiments already manipulated themselves?

Meanwhile, consumer organizations increasingly warn of "optimized foodstuffs". The magazine, Umwelt Direkt writes in its special edition that the refusal of such foodstuffs would be well-founded, because the risks to health and ecology, provoked by such manipulated foodstuffs, cannot be foreseen at present. Gene manipulations in organisms can produce unknown new substances. For example, in the US, severe side-effects were caused by the sleeping pill L-tryptophan because a strain of bacteria optimized by gene engineering was used for the production of this "drug". Five thousand people became chronically ill and 27 died from the effects. (Biofach 92) Genes implanted in domestic plants can, upon their release, be transmitted to wild plants. As a result of this, new plants could possibly become resistant to their natural enemies and thus spread in an uncontrolled way.

Gene-technically altered enzymes could trigger new, unknown allergies in people without a physician being able to determine the cause. In the meantime, the exchange of genes between micro-organisms is scientifically proved.

All living things underwent and undergo genetic alterations in the course of evolution. They are necessary for the adjustment to the environment and survival of the species. Gene engineering now wants to considerably shorten the often long time intervals between natural mutations by directly changing the hereditary material.

"The decisive advantage of gene engineering," said Professor Gassen, "is the gain of time. Genetic methods are awfully fast."

The attitude which becomes evident in this statement reveals the goal of the gene engineers. They want to create living beings according to human specifications, according to conditions which man dictates. They no longer accept the natural, divine order. They consciously want to change life. And in this context, man is not excluded.

In the US, concrete interventions in the genetic make-up of man are already being carried out. Eleven human gene therapy experiments have been applied for and seven more are in preparation. (Der Spiegel, 9/91) More and more illnesses are treated with gene therapy.

In a large university clinic near Washington D.C., human cells are being genetically manipulated to fight against cancer, for instance. Also in cases of various hereditary diseases—for example the so-called ADA-syndrome—genetic experiments were carried out in the US in September 1990. Presently, one speaks of treating the hereditary illnesses cystic fibrosis and the Lesh-Nyham-Syndrome with gene engineering. Thus, we have reached the point in human medicine, too, where the barriers against gene technology are being gradually removed.

A research team from the universities of Freiburg and Mainz has studied the development of the brain in flies. Genes were found which control the development of brain structures and influence certain cerebral functions.

What is possible with flies does not necessarily have to be successful in man. But experience has shown: Everything which is feasible shall be done. This could mean that genetech interventions in the human brain will soon be possible. [C: It is not only possible but is widely utilized!]

Shall a new man spring up? Do we approach the breeding of a new species? [C: You have ALREADY CREATED IT!]

The Christ-of-God Spirit explained to us in His revelation:

"So recognize and become aware of the fight between the light and the darkness. The darkness does not give up as long as it still has accomplices. And the accomplices are all those who live with the world... The adversary, who wears many a garment, now tries to manipulate the people. This happens in manifold ways. He intrudes into the genes of man. Substances are in the air, in the water, substances are in the food and in beverages."

Christ also tells us what the consequences of gene manipulation are:

"When the darkness holds sway over man through the substances which manipulate the genes, then, in the end, man will no longer know who he is for he can hardly grasp his thoughts any longer. His sensations will also be eliminated and thus man no longer finds access to his emotions." [C: This same end can also be accomplished by the external application of pulsed beam wave frequencies.]

Do we want to be manipulated? Do we want to get to the point where we can no longer recognize our feelings, sensations, where we can no longer grasp our thoughts so that we no longer know what we do and who we are?

MICROBES WILL BE OUT OF CONTROL

Microbes, out of control, can't be collected again or disposed of. On the contrary: They are able to multiply and they have no natural enemies.

It is too late to change what has come upon you—can you not see that by and large the masses of humanity can no longer grasp their thoughts and no longer KNOW who or what they are? The masses are already totally manipulated in every way—physically and spiritually.

Meanwhile, we have to assume that we are exposed to gene-manipulated microorganisms or DNA-fragments in all areas of life. What can we do in order to escape manipulation? Here, too, Christ gives us an answer in His revelation:

"Behold and recognize in your hearts. Many of you still have enough to eat and to drink. But do you know what certain foods contain? Do you know what certain beverages contain? It could be that foods and beverages already contain the manipulation. Happy the one who raises himself over these satanic, that is, demonic, vibrations through the fulfillment of the Inner Life. For even the words 'I will set out to walk the path, I will strive for...', will gradually fall in the dust. Now the motto is 'fulfil'! For the one who does not do so, is together with the serpent, that is, the dragon. How can man accept the divine blessings? This is only possible if he opens himself for the inner blessings through a pure way of life. And the pure life in turn begins with your feelings, sensations, thoughts, words and actions."

For more information about the blocking of the emotions, with which the darkness tries to eliminate the fine impulses of the spirit of God for man, also read the article, "Genetic Manipulation Blocks Our Emotional Life". (To follow.)

WHY IS GENE ENGINEERING SO DANGEROUS?

What are the real risks? One can recognize from the condition of our planet, which many already believe can no longer be saved, that the human species has failed. We need a new kind of man. And thus, now is the hour of gene engineering as wished by the Illuminate: The building blocks of life, the genes, shall be arranged in such a way that a new man emerges who at last functions in the "right way". We asked a medical expert about the "blessings" of gene engineering.

Question: "Finally, with gene engineering all possibilities are open for us"—this impression is created in the public opinion by the media. What is then so dangerous about a gene-manipulated, long lasting, juicy tomato?

Answer: One has to differentiate between several levels of danger. It is relatively harmless when a gene is inserted which, for example, makes the tomato resistant to pests or keeps the tomato fresh longer. Such genes probably only trigger allergies in the human body. More dangerous is if human genes are implanted, for instance, the gene for the human growth hormone, which is already routinely done with pigs.

Question: Why is it so dangerous to implant a human growth hormone? Why shouldn't the pigs grow faster?

Answer: Because man can develop acromegaly, which means that his fingers, his nose, his chin grow. He could then look like Pharaoh Echnaton (Akhnaton) who had this disease. [Wokini: And now I know!]

Question: Does this mean that a gene can get into the human body via the tomato or the meat and can promote growth in different parts of the body leading to deformity?

Answer: Yes. And the third level of danger is when genes are deliberately implanted into the genom of the tomato which don't become active in the tomato, but are aimed at the human brain, for example, certain brain-genes.

Question: Is it already possible to introduce accompanying genes which only become active in a human being?

Answer: This is no problem for gene engineering. The only problem would be to keep this gene inactive in a tomato and that could be done with another accompanying gene.

Question: If the brain-gene has no purpose in the tomato at all, why is it then inserted?

Answer: So that one absorbs this gene. The gene is then received by the corresponding receptors in the brain and goes into the DNA of the person. The destination of such brain-genes is first of all the original parts of the brain, especially the limbic system. [C: "Limbic System": A group of brain structures, including the hippocampus, amygdala, dentate gyrus, cingulate gyrus, gyrus fornicatus, and archicortex, and their interconnections and connections with the hypothalamus, septal area, and a medial area of the mesencephalic tegmentum. The system is activated by motivated behavior and arousal, and it influences the endocrine and autonomic motor systems.]

Question: This is outrageous, that genes implanted in tomatoes don't make tomatoes grow, but manipulate man. Did I understand that right?

Answer: YES, this is outrageous. One has to assume that this happens in a controlled and very intentional way, just to produce a new generation of mankind, which fits in with the plans the demons have for this earth.

Question: It seems, then, that the scientists pretend to create nice vegetables and, in reality, they are insiders who carry out a certain plan.

Answer: Not the average scientist, but the highest level. Of course, the reasons for a planned brain manipulation can be explained in a logical way to a gene engineer. They are told that: Certain characteristics of man have caused the desolate state of mankind which is known to every one. And that everything destructive coming out of the world of feelings has to be blocked, if things are going to get better for mankind. That an emotional, impulsive kind of man is no longer acceptable for the earth. And that only people with neutral feelings, or better yet, with no feelings at all, are acceptable.

Question: Does this mean that the foreign brain-genes aim at producing a human being who no longer has any "disturbing" feelings?

Answer: Right.

Question: How does one produce such genes which leave a person without feelings?

Answer: At first, you only have to identify them. And this has already been accomplished with 3000 human brain-genes. If the alkaline structure has been decoded, it is only a routine matter for the DNA machines to produce these genes. And they can do this by the billions.

Question: And the brain-genes in the limbic system shall now make sure that feelings and impulsive reactions are blocked?

Answer: That is one possibility. But if one wants to produce a soldier-type, one could eliminate empathy and sympathy and instead activate aggressive reactions like rage and the desire to attack.

Question: What is so negative about human feelings for the Illuminate?

Answer: Because feelings are the prerequisite for understanding and empathy and thus for the practising of loving one's neighbor. Self-recognition, as well, is only possible through sensing ourselves; this means, when the communication between the soul and the rational mind is possible only through the world of feelings. When the world of feelings is blocked, I am without feeling, heartless. I can no longer feel remorse and thus no longer clear things up. I also cannot feel the longing for the divine, because the idea prevails in me that I can understand and manage everything with my rational thinking and my intellect.

Question: But doesn't this mean that life on Earth has become useless for me because I can no longer repent and clear things up? On the contrary, don't I burden myself more and more?

Answer: Yes, this is inevitably so. Even if I am not aware of what is happening in me, because I am of the subjective opinion that I am doing everything right, I am still responsible for my wrong attitude and the wrong actions which I carry out, because I have attracted the manipulated genes like a magnet, according to the principle "like attracts like", and I am responsible for what happens in me. My life on Earth has thus become a vegetating one on the one hand and, on the other, a constant burdening myself anew.

NOTATION: "Anyone seeking a horror picture of today truly needs no fantasy. Take a book on veterinary medicine and while reading it simply substitute the word 'man' for the word 'animal'. What happens every day is no longer utopia, it is everyday business." Professor Henning Beier, Univ. of Aachen, member of the Central Commission on Ethics of the Bundesärztekammer. (Federal Medical Assoc. of Germany.)

Question: With the implanted genes (which are foreign programmes) I can only burden myself more. Why isn't it possible to clear things up?

Answer: The burden of the soul is also recorded in the physical genetic make-up. There is a resonance between a gene of the body and information in the soul. Clearing up always starts in the soul. In this process, the soul radiates in such a way that a certain burden becomes active in the genes. Then the clearing up can happen.

A foreign gene which has been implanted in the body is a jamming station. It is not identical with a cause in the physical genetic makeup and thus, neither does it correspond to a burden of the soul. The soul cannot reach the jamming programme because it vibrates differently. The result is a jumble of vibrations in the body.

A picture can make this condition clear. My own path of error is recorded in the soul and in the genes. Starting from the soul, I can clear it up, step by step. However, the path of error which is foreign to me (the foreign programme which was implanted into the DNA) is also not in the soul. And so, the soul cannot activate the steps to clear up. The consequence is that the soul cannot work on and clear up the foreign programme until it has burdened itself through the new programme, because this burden goes into the soul at the same time.

Question: Does this mean that there is actually an unavoidable force to burden oneself, because it is only then that the soul can recognize and erase the foreign programmes?

Answer: From the point of view of the demonic, this is exactly the purpose. The soul cannot clear up things unless it first burdens itself through the foreign programme. Only after this new burdening does the soul have the opportunity to clear up this burden.

Question: What happens now, when a soul goes into the soul realms with such burdens? Can it atone for them there?

Answer: Yes, this is possible, but one can imagine that at first the soul will rebel against this. A soul will have a hard time accepting that it is responsible for a wrong attitude which it took on unknowingly, but with which it has nevertheless burdened itself, and that it has to expiate and suffer through this burden. The rebellion of the soul may thus prevent for a long time the dissolving of the guilt. This can lead to rebellions in the spheres of purification against those who, in the opinion of the souls, are responsible for this.

Question: Now, there is no injustice. Whatever happens to me, be it as soul or as human being, was caused by me. How could I have avoided becoming a victim of the gene manipulation? Or, putting it differently, how can I protect myself against being influenced without my noticing, which would then have the mentioned consequences?

Answer: Actually, I can only protect myself by seriously striving to actualize the divine commandments, as they are written in the Sermon on the Mount, every day. This means, that I am walking the Inner Path. This brings my soul into a vibration which is higher than the vibration which is higher than the foreign genes. The result, at best, is that the foreign genes do not find a hold in me. If the implantation of foreign genes has already taken place, then the repair-enzymes can recognize them right away and can eliminate them from the body. The third possibility is that the suppressor genes recognize the foreign genes and that they will inactivate them. The mentioned possibilities exist only if the soul has the necessary strength for this.

Question: Thus, a protection against gene manipulation is possible only when I increase the strength of my soul through daily actualization? Only in this way can the penetration of dangerous gene parts into one's own DNA be avoided or repaired?

Answer: Yes, that is correct.

END OF QUOTING, THIS SEGMENT.

I can see that at this point I have some very concerned readers. This is SERIOUS stuff and makes that awful movie, INVASION OF THE KILLER TOMATOES a bit more attention worthy, doesn't it?

Well, chelas, I don't know how to soften the truth of these presentations—I just suggest you keep sipping and supping your Gaiandriana (no matter how many tell you it is "just water"). You will raise your own DNA vibrations to the level of being able to overcome these invaders—or you shall not make it in wholeness of body

AND soul.

It is noted already that there is a potato and a tomato strain which has been made resistant to insects in the gene laboratory. It produces a poison in its cells, which has a lethal effect on the individual pest. In the long term this can produce incalculable damage to the health of man. I would guess that our people are going to eventually find feasting on untampered chlorella, red lentils and Spelta bread most inviting—to be washed down with a nice blend of juice and Mo-gu. "Wishing" will no longer make any of these things "just go away". This is a massive plan UNDERWAY by the Elite One World Order. It is done and in use for the purpose of control of the masses and destruction by death to the unwanted population.

I, too, would have it be different—BUT I HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH THE EXPERIENCE OF MAN UPON A PHYSICAL PLANET. THE ADVERSARY OF GOD INTENDS TO HAVE ALL THINGS PHYSICAL—AND THAT INCLUDES MANKIND!

THE LIE OF "HARMLESSNESS"

A last thought before giving my scribe rest: It is claimed again and again that the release of transgene, that is, gene-manipulated micro-organisms is completely harmless. A scientist from the University of Pennsylvania (German newspaper Welt, February 15, 1992), however, found that already one hour after the release of gene-manipulated sewage sludge the gene fragments of manipulated bacteria were transmitted to non-manipulated ones. So we can say that within a very short time bacteria nearby are gene contaminated, or gene manipulated!

Have a nice dinner!

Salu,

Ceres to clear, please.

TRUTH

"The truth shall make you free." Ah, indeed the headline on the paper has caused ones to rush to Bibles and quotation dictionaries to find if it is "will" or "shall" or, or --. Does it matter a whit? Either way—IT SHALL/WILL MAKE YOU MAD!

There are many ways to "express" truth: "Truth is a flower in whose neighborhood others must wither." So what is "truth"? It is that long clean clear simple undeviable unchallengeable straight and shining line, on one side of which black is black and on the other, white is white. But in your day of expression—it has become a long and confused angle placed in definition upon "opinion"—which is usually uninformed and lacking most aspects of Truth itself.

There is only ONE Truth—but an infinite number of ways to reach it. One thing is surely Truth: you will never get Truth from your Government, your Media or a Lawyer! So be it.

Wokini, please, this week is filled to overflow with lawyers and harangue, lawsuits and lies—so, shall we move directly into our subject so that we can have readiness for contribution to the new paper? I find that we are now approaching the most important material for the fundamental experience of life itself as expressed in the physical manifestation. The very life structure is now altered, obliterated, changed and manipulated. You MUST KNOW IF YOU ARE TO SURVIVE WITH "SOUL" INTACT—THE PLAN IS TO OBLITERATE SOUL FROM LIVING STRUCTURES.

Also, Wokini, it is time to begin to restructure the PLEIADES CONNECTION banned JOURNALS. I am not going to delve into the "God" subject as is presented in four of them—but we will start with one of the ones most desired banned at this time of experience—AIDS, THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE. The HIV virus is nothing more than a manipulated structure and you can do nothing about it or any of the other "last plague" organisms until you know THE TRUTH. There are some exceptional volumes in print which bear reading but I have not time nor inclination to offer them here. We shall effort to integrate the "old", updated, along with this information being offered herein. We shall effort to get this back into print as quickly as we find interruptions in the legal scheduling. I am weary of the "Evil Empire" in the form of proclaimed "friends" who stab the backsides—but we shall play it out as necessary. IF TRUTH FALLS, READERS, WHO SHALL PICK UP THE PIECES? OR, WILL THEY LAY TO DUST AND RUST WHILE SATAN ENSLAVES YOU—WITHOUT SOUL OR MIND? THE CHOICES ARE ONLY YOURS.

I believe, in this newspaper edition, the staff is presenting an idea of "sponsorship" of JOURNALS. You will have to check it out for I haven't paid attention. I believe, however, that what is suggested is that one or a group sponsor the publication of given JOURNAL printings or reprintings. Someone has mentioned prices but you will have to check it out, please, for I don't attend those things very closely.

I MENTION IT HERE BECAUSE: THE REWRITING AND THEN PUTTING TO PUBLICATION OF THE ABOVE-REFERENCED JOURNAL IS BEING SPONSORED BY DR. PIERRE CLOUTIER—A BELOVED FRIEND AND "SPARRING PARTNER". HE HAS MADE GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS IN SHARING AND SUPPORTING THIS WORK FROM ONSET. THERE ARE NO WAYS TO ACTUALLY ADEQUATELY THANK THESE FRIENDS—BUT WE SHALL TRY.

WE CAN REFERENCE SUCH PARTICIPATION IN ANY WAY A SUPPORTER WISHES—EITHER WITH NAME, INITIALS OR ANONYMOUSLY. I HONOR YOUR PRIVACY AT ALL TIMES. "I" CHOOSE THIS PARTICULAR VOLUME IN HIS HONOR BECAUSE HIS WHOLE EXISTENCE IS IN THE HEALING ARTS AND FEW REMAIN WHO SERVE IN TRUTH IN THOSE PROFESSIONS, CALLED HEALING. YOU ARE CONTROLLED BY THE VERY MANIPULATORS OF THAT WHICH WE HEREIN SPEAK.

THE DEMONIC GOAL: GENETIC MANIPULATION BLOCKS
"OUR EMOTIONAL LIFE"

Direct interventions in the genetic make-up are already common practice in veterinary medicine and stock-breeding. However, they are legally forbidden on man. And yet the technical know-how could already now be used on man. Hasn't it always been so, that what is technically possible will soon be put into practice? Does this possibly take place in secret already?

In a recent television film there were two kinds of human beings: naturally-fathered ones and others whose genetic make-up was manipulated beforehand in test-tubes. The naturally-fathered ones were people of inferior quality; the others who were fathered in test-tubes were the great ones, the leaders and the scientists.

The possibility of a direct intervention in the human body cells has already BECOME REALITY TODAY. This direct manipulation is thus a supplement to the indirect one which takes place via substances in medicines, in the food and in the air. The intervention in our physical genetic make-up gives the demonic forces, the opponents of God, the possibility to block our spiritual heritage. How can we understand this relationship?

In all probability, gene fragments which are smuggled into the human genetic make-up can change the programmes which are stored in the human brain. One knows, for example, that our emotional life is controlled by so-called neuropeptides. [C: KNOW that in the Gaiandriana these "peptides" are brought into perfection of the original "natural" cellular structure of your individual DNA blueprint. It will be from the protection of your own cellular "mind" (brain) structure that you will be able to exist unaltered. Therefore, neuropeptides (peptides by any label) are very, very important.] {See the next-to-last pages for Gaiandriana ordering information.} Peptides are elements of proteins. Our genes have the task to produce elements of protein—also the kind found in neuropeptides. If the DNA-composition of certain genes is changed, the production of peptides will also change accordingly.

If, due to such a manipulation, the above-mentioned neuropeptides which influence our brain are changed, then the following can happen: The substances which control our emotional life are no longer produced correctly—and this will lead to a blockage of our emotional life. This could, for example, mean that one loses the inhibition to hurt another person, or that someone is blocked in his readiness to help a suffering person or someone in need, or that one carries out the orders of an authority against one's own morals, because the conscience is eliminated.

Indeed, the feelings and sensations are the bridge to the divine within us. If we no longer discern our feelings, that is, if we no longer can feel ourselves, then it is no longer possible to recognize our selves. This means that we no longer get to the causes which are still in our soul. An additional consequence is that, since the sensations and the conscience are blocked, man continues to violate the divine laws without having the feeling that he sins (errs). Through this, he burdens his soul more and more.

This is exactly what the demon wants, because in this way he receives energy. If the path of self-recognition and clearing up of causes is blocked, we no longer have access to our divine heritage, to our true being. Clearing up causes, therefore, needs recognizing one's guilt, repenting, forgiving, asking for forgiveness, making good and no longer doing the same or similar mistake again.

Repentance, however, implies: To feel without our own hearts the pain which we have caused to our neighbor. This repentance can only be reached via the emotional level. However, if our feelings and sensations are blocked, we no longer recognize our sins and, even more, we no longer repent of them. A person in such a state is spiritually dead, because he is manipulated.

And still another aspect has to be taken into consideration: Man and his soul form a unity and thus have a well-defined life programme which they bring along into this world. The burdens of the soul from previous lives, therefore, are of great significance. In fact, the genetic information which differs from man to man forms the link between soul and body. Changing the genes also changes the life programme of man and is thus an interference with the soul debt of man. It cannot be dissolved this way, but is pushed back into the soul and will break out at a later time. Thus, man has inflicted a new and additional burden on his soul.

The interference with the human genetic make-up is another attempt of the demon to gain control over the people and thereby over this Earth. After all the demonic seductions he has staged thus far in the history of mankind—including the splitting of the atom—he now tackles gene manipulation.

It will be his LAST ACT. It will not bring him the desired rule over GOD, but the decline of the old world.

STOP QUOTING FOR THIS SEGMENT.

RETURN TO Q & A's

As ones began to read on the prior material I am now flooded with inquiries which bear inserting here regarding past writings on the dissemination of Gene Fragments. The matter is no longer calculable but we shall offer studied responses to some questions:

CONTINUE QUOTING:

Question: What might be the effect on me, if I eat cheese which contains genetically produced rennin enzymes for breakfast?

Answer: Of course, the gene engineers say that it has no effect whatsoever on human life. This, however, is unlikely for we know, for example from tests on insects, that genes are transferable. We speak here of a horizontal gene transfer. This means that foreign DNA components can be implanted into other cells. This, however, has unforeseeable consequences for life.

[C: If the body system is enhanced through its own strong immune system and cellular structure is continually reproducing and cleansing each cellular structure within the body—NOTHING will happen unless totally overwhelmed or deliberately overwhelmed technologically by injection into the very cells themselves. These manipulated genetic structures are not strong in themselves and can only flourish wherein there is already mutation and weakness present. It is known that with the increased ultra-high frequency light rays which are becoming ever more prevalent (being now produced from some of your space satellite beam systems as well as the entrance of Earth into the fringes of what you refer to as the photon belt), that the mutations will increase exponentially according to desired results in the masses.]

Question: Does science know about this?

Answer: In individual cases perhaps not. But the horizontal gene transfer, that is, the implantment of foreign DNA into the body's hereditary substance is scientifically PROVEN.

Question: Can the dissemination of gene fragments be controlled at all?

[C: The next is basically TRUE, readers, so harken up to possibilities and probabilities as you play with the Adversary and this New World "Dis"order.]

Answer: IT IS NO LONGER CONTROLLABLE "NOW", because the dissemination of genotech products has already reached an extent which can no longer be clearly seen. Today, gene technology already presents a considerable economic factor in the Western world. One can no longer talk about supervision or even control in this field.

Question: How can gene fragments gain entry into the human being: Are there other possibilities than via the food?

Answer: By now, there are gene fragments in the water, in the sewage and in the air. There are many other possibilities of taking them in, not only via the food. Once they are inside the body, they then go where they fit.

[C: The point of Gaiandriana is that it takes on the DNA (original blueprint) of any normally structured cell which has been invaded or in any way altered through manipulation. The Gaiandriana simply moves within each cell and in the case, for instance, of a virus, destroys the zinc atom which holds the "cap" on a virus—destroying the virus by its "collapse" and THEN, uses the debris as food for fuel. There is nothing very scientific about it—it is a totally natural thing. The body immune system builds itself to proper levels of function and simply takes care of foreign DNA elements. It simply reproduces the perfection of the original blueprint structure and destroys the alien intruder. It's a perfect plan of GOD to protect His creations—whatever they be. {Again, see next-to-last pages for ordering information on Gaiandriana.}

Would this not simply enhance an intruding genetic implant? NO—because there is an original blueprint as individual as is every fingerprint. In a "clone" for instance, the cellular structure may well be qualified—but, in a clone, you have already severed the "soul energy" ties to the being in point—or, at the very least modified the connection to give the same sum total.

This points out what I have said regarding soul and physical. One is NOT the other. ONLY GOD OF CREATION CAN BREATHE THAT WONDROUS BREATH OF REAL "LIFE" SOUL EXPRESSION INTO A PHYSICAL BEING. GOD IS CREATOR WORKING FROM

CREATION OF DNA BLUEPRINTS THEMSELVES. THE ADVERSARY MUST WORK FROM THAT WHICH IS ALREADY CREATED! Therefore, GOD CREATES—MAN AND SATAN CAN ONLY "MANIPULATE" THAT WHICH IS ALREADY CREATED!

SET A GOOD EXAMPLE!

The author proposes the following:

What would happen if our brave scientists, our politicians who are positively convinced of gene engineering and our "responsible" churchmen were the first ones to volunteer for such gene-manipulative experiments so that within the next five or ten years we can observe on them the benefits of gene manipulation? For example, our politicians who have just passed the new regulation, "NOVEL FOOD", could share at all receptions and banquets that they prefer to eat gene-manipulated foods. Since they claim that gene engineering has no side-effects whatsoever, they could set a good example. They certainly have to be afraid of nothing. What do you think, dear reader?

A GLOOMY FUTURE

If ethics and morals of a truly Christ-type of life are no longer taken into account in science and technology; if the only question remains what is technically feasible, but no longer what is Christian—then we have to be afraid that mankind will face a gloomy future. A future which will no longer be subject to the divine order but to an order made by people. And this means: a satanic order. Whoever is prepared to submit to this slavery, can do so. The one who does not war* to, should become attentive and protest against each kind of manipulation of the human genetic make-up. FOR IF MAN PLACES HIMSELF ABOVE GOD, THEN HE HIMSELF HAS BECOME THE DEMON!

PUSHED BACK INTO THE SOUL

If we allow our genetic make-up to be tampered with, then we may outwardly become healthy. If, however, every illness is determined in our soul, how can a gene-manipulated person then regain his health? This means that through the manipulation of the physical genetic make-up, the illness is again pushed back into the soul. The causes we have created are still there; they even increase, because we continue to think and to do the same or similar things.

Would you buy groceries if they were labelled "gene-technically improved"? If not, then you KNOW the reason why such labels are missing!
[C: NOW FOR A TOUCHY SUBJECT:]

THE "GENE-DIPLOMACY" OF THE CHURCHES

We pose the question: Is gene manipulation in the will of God? If not, what do the guarantors of the ecclesiastical institutions then say about this? Why does not, at this point, a storm of indignation break out? For the one who wants to live in a Christian way cannot sit back and silently watch how man once again intrudes heinously into God's creation and how our soul shall be bound to the satanic for eons.

From the churches we find statements such as the following: In 1986, the Protestant Lutheran Church of Germany formulated ten theses on gene technology. In a summary by the bishop in charge, Dr. Karl-Heinz Stoll, we can read among other things, "It is neither possible nor sensible, or even an ethical necessity, to dispense with all technical-scientific possibilities and to go 'back to nature', nor is it responsible to blindly affirm progress."

In the Protestant Sunday paper of December 16, 1990 on the subject, "Are the genes our fate?" Erhard Ratz, the commissioner for natural science and technology of the Protestant Lutheran Church in Bavaria, writes the following:

"We can no longer do away with or forbid gene engineering, as several people suggest. It all depends on us and society how we will deal with the possibilities which it offers to us. The scientists have a great responsibility, but ours is not minor. In order to assume responsibility, we have to inform ourselves beyond all exaggerated optimism or pessimism."

What is meant by the expression "exaggerated pessimism"? Does it perhaps mean that a bit of gene engineering for "humane" purposes is permitted from the Christian point of view?

The position of the Catholic Church shows a similar quality. Pope Pius XII already gave a basically positive comment on genetics in general in his speech to geneticists on September 7, 1953:

"The basic tendency of genetics and eugenics for influencing the hereditary process, in order to further the good and to eliminate the bad, is blameless from the ethnic point of view." With regard to modern gene technology, Pope John Paul II said in his speech of October 23, 1982, in front of the Papal Academy of Sciences that one can hope "that the new techniques for the modification of the genotype in special cases of genetic and chromosomal illnesses present a cause for hope to the majority of people affected by such illnesses. One also has to consider that specific illnesses, such as sickle-cell anemia, can be healed through gene transplants... The research of modern biology gives cause for hope that the transplantation and transmutation of genes are able to improve the state of health of those who are affected by chromosomal illnesses; in this way the smallest and weakest human beings can be treated still in the womb or immediately after birth." (quoted from Reiter, Johannes: Ethical Implications of Genetic Research n.d.).

"Transplantation and transmutation of genes" thus is authorized by the Catholic Church! And so the church breaks its own teaching: For where is it written in the Bible that we are allowed to interfere with the creation in order to become "sound" through this crime? Rather, it is written, "And God saw everything which He created, and behold, it was very good." (Genesis 1:31). By affirming the transmutation of the components of life, the church corrects God and places itself over Him.

It is known that in the field of gene engineering, animals have to suffer as production centers for manipulated medicines. What would Jesus of Nazareth have answered to the question whether it is according to the law of God to let a cow suffer as a bio-reactor for all its life?

Wouldn't He possibly have said: "What you have done to the least of My brothers, you have done to Me?" For the animals, too, are our neighbors, are our brothers.

In case the churches have misjudged the development, wouldn't a clear "NO", at least now, be required in view of the eery scenario of an expanding gene technology? Why is it still lacking? One cannot help thinking that gene technology is already in the hands of big business. IT IS KNOWN THAT ESPECIALLY THE CATHOLIC INSTITUTION HAS INVESTED ITS UNKNOWN FORTUNE IN THIS BIG BUSINESS.

Does it once again seem that birds of a feather flock together?

WHEN COMES THE "PATENTED" MAN?

[C: Let me remind you, if you have studied our lessons, it is already "so". It is not even an imperfed possibility—there are thousands upon thousands of "patented" people among you—worse, you have no way except through "actions" to identify them.]

The patent is a document which grants a monopoly for the use and commercial production of an invention. In order to be patentable, an invention has to be new; it must not be self-evident for acknowledged experts in this field; it must be useful in its commercial application. In this point there is mutual agreement.

But scientists, industrial companies, politicians, legal experts, environmentalists and philanthropists disagree over the question of what is patentable. In the 70s the line was still clear: The European patent agreement ruled out the patenting of plant varieties as well as animal species and animal breeds.

Were their consciences still active at that time, or was it simply not imaginable what gene engineering would render possible one day? For some years now, it has become apparent that gene research and its application will become a multi-billion dollar business. What has happened after that? The legal conception that plants and animals are not patentable has undergone an amazing change from the former express banning to the current licensing.

The European courts have changed their conception after the US Supreme Court was first in deciding that everything under the sun is patentable. For gene technology this means: Genes, too, are patentable, and thus so are transmuted plants, animals and human cells. In Munich, for example, the American company Dupont was granted a German patent for a so-called "transgene" mouse.

According to a US report, the American brain-researcher J. Craig Venter of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda has identified over 2,300 human genes, for which patent applications have already been submitted. The same is true for the gene which regulates the composition of human milk. With the manipulation of this gene the mother should become a producer of medicine and the child should already take his "medicine" with the mother's milk.

There is no longer a big step from genetically transmuted mice, cows and pigs to genetically transmuted human beings. The legal barriers begin to sway or have already fallen. One may eagerly anticipate the time when a patent application will be submitted for the first gene-manipulated human beings. [C: Why? "They" own the patent office!]

If years ago someone had uttered fears of this kind, they would simply have been dismissed as science-fiction stories. But the possibilities might become reality. It is an eery development with gigantic consequence. It is initiated by those who—on their part manipulated by darkness—pull the strings in the background of world events. It is their aim to prevent man and his soul from returning to God and to create the insensitive and controllable human being which serves its demonic interests.

Even the supporters of gene engineering who only want to see "progress" should give more thought to it in view of the unforeseeable consequence for human life, unless they only have an eye for the billions of dollars which gene technology begins to yield.

Consumer groups and environmentalist organizations have begun to establish some sort of "militia" against the gene lobby. It's doubtful whether their protest will have any effect. Their adversaries in politics, science and industry are all too powerful. And they determine the line of gene politics.

In this sense, the European Community (EC) Commission for example, intends to propose to the EC-Council of ministers a "decree about new (i.e., gene-manipulated) foodstuffs and new food ingredients". Why should it be a EC decree and not a EC directive? The answer is simple:

An EC directive has to be incorporated by each of the twelve member state's parliaments into a national executive law. This would swirl up more dust. An EC decree, however, is a law which becomes directly valid in the member states as soon as the European Parliament does not reject it with absolute majority and the EC Council of Ministers approves it.

[C: Is there still anyone NOT understanding which way the gene-infested wind blows?????]

"WELL, I'LL NOT GET TRAPPED!"

[C: No? Does this mean that you will only eat "natural" foods and wear "natural" fiber clothing? Watch it: "Even the wearers of allegedly healthy natural materials are not free from the risk! The Freiburg Hydrotax Laboratory determined in every fourth test made on silk and every tenth test made on cotton serious reactions and thus indications of a possibly existing potential for changes of the genetic make-up." "Natur" 9/90]

THE BORING FACTS!

[C: And so, what are you stuck with? Well, it shall be one or the other, good friends. You will come within the shelter of the Laws of God and Creation by your actions and your soul intent—or you will fall to the hatchet-men of Satan. I do not make the rules, readers, I just pass on the information. I think this next portion might be considered the most important thing you will read this week—but again, it is your decision alone.]

CHRIST-NESS WITHIN US, THE ONLY SUPPORT IS THE ACTUALIZATION OF THE "TEN COMMANDMENTS"

(From: The Inner Path)

In view of the unforeseeable dangers which gene manipulation will bring to mankind, the only thing we of Christ consciousness can do is to purify our soul from its burdens; this way our body can be protected, too. The only path to this end is the actualization of the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount. By putting into practice the teaching of these ways, we follow God. Thus, our soul is being purified, and the Light of God irradiates the physical body, strengthening it. Therefore, the only support, the only salvation, in this time is the Christed pathway—through the actualization of the lessons given as within the Ten Commandments and such other teachings as follow the Sermon on the Mount. These teachings are given forth by every God-valid religion, race or creed on the globe as far back and shall be as far forward as perceived “time” exists.

Christ has revealed, anew in the present time, the Inner Path to mankind. The Inner Path shows us how to put the divine laws into practice in our everyday life, so that we become divine again. This is the lived Sermon on the Mount.

On the Inner Path, the journeyer learns to recognize himself—his human ego—and to let go of it, step by step: his human feelings, sensations, thoughts, words as well as his passions and longings. The one who seriously walks the Inner Path and works on himself day by day with the help of Christ will gradually cast off his human heritage, the upper communications and subcommunications of his human ego.

Christ shows everyone the path to inner freedom:

“I said: ‘follow Me!’ This is why each soul has to recognize this Inner Path and also to walk it. Happy the soul which—already in the earthly garment—in the life limited by time and space—walks this path of purification and completes it for the most part! There is only one path to God, our eternal Father, the path within. As the Christ of Nazareth said: ‘The Kingdom of God is within you.’”

In the final analysis, this path offers the only alternative in this time, which is a mighty time of radical change.

The demon once again stands up with might in order to save his territory, the Earth. But from the revelations of the Old Covenant, from the Secret Revelation of John, and from today’s revelations of the spirit of God we know that the end time will not bring the rule of the demon over God, but a new Heaven and a new Earth.

END OF QUOTING.

Thank you, Maurine, for your sharing and again, we thank you for the beautiful painting of our brother sent some years past. I am greatly honored as you ones find truth and substance within the piles of “nothing” save garbage material. Blessed are your leaders in Truth for ye shall show your brothers home.

That you need God more than anything, you know at all times in your heart. But don’t you know also that God needs you—in the fullness of His eternity, YOU? How would man exist if God did not need him, and how would you exist? You need God in order to be, and God needs you—for that which is the meaning of your life. So be it.

As the problems seem insurmountable in the instance of God’s people and within each fragment reflecting unto God His own image—let us share a thought put forth by a writer of your day, regarding problems.

“What makes life difficult is that the process of confronting and solving problems is a painful one. Problems, depending upon their nature, evoke in us frustration or grief or sadness or loneliness or guilt or regret or anger or fear or anxiety or anguish or despair. These are uncomfortable feelings, often very uncomfortable, often as painful as any kind of physical pain, sometimes equaling the very worst kind of physical pain. Indeed, it is because of the pain that events or conflicts engender in us that we call them problems. And since life poses an endless series of problems, life is always difficult and is full of pain as well as joy.

“Yet it is in this whole process of meeting and solving problems that life has its meaning. Problems are the cutting edge that distinguishes between success and failure. Problems call forth our courage and our wisdom; indeed, they create our courage and our wisdom. It is only because of problems that we grow mentally and spiritually. When we desire to encourage the growth of the human spirit, we challenge and encourage the human capacity to solve problems, just as in school we deliberately set problems for our children to solve. It is through the pain of confronting and resolving problems that we learn. As Benjamin Franklin said, ‘those things that hurt, instruct.’ It is for this reason that wise people learn not to dread but actually to welcome problems and actually to welcome the pain of problems.”

Important Updates On Local Operations

3/26/93 #1 CERES ‘ATONN

In this morning bewilderment, I must spend just a minute with Wokin (note this is NOT “walk in”). “Walk-in” is a NEW AGE term that means NOTHING! IF THERE BE CLAIMED “WALK-IN” STATUS—BE VERY, VERY CAUTIOUS—FOR GOD CREATES—THE ADVERSARY USES THAT WHICH ALREADY EXISTS FOR HIS OWN PURPOSES. If you have one who passes through a “death experience” or instant “change” of attitude—it does not mean a different soul has entered—it means that direction toward God has often been gained in insight and Truth through such experience—and it’s the SAME OLD SOUL IN DIFFERENT EXPRESSION. DO NOT CONFUSE THE TWO! In this instance it is neither—the change is for the protection of the work having come through Dharma to this point in journey.

You must understand that George Green is expressing on radio and through ones, even abroad, that HE IS THE RECEIVER FOR “HATONN” SINCE LAST SUMMER (1992) AND MUCH OF THAT WHICH HAS COME THROUGH DHARMA (AND NOW, ESPECIALLY) ARE LIES AND NOT THROUGH HATONN. I must give you a way to recognize the falseness of that statement and allow you to realize the flexibility of energy form. IT IS THE ENERGY FORM, NOT A LABEL, WHICH IS AT POINT. GOD DOES NOT MAKE ERRORS IN HIS PLACEMENT OR PERSONNEL JOINMENT—MAN IS THAT WHICH TAMPERS WITH EVERYTHING PHYSICAL OR IN PHYSICAL EXPRESSION.

George is even offering “good deals” to distributors on the PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL and demands to hold two of the JOURNALS isolated to his control. He even now says he will reprint the “MANUAL” and EDIT IT. What could that mean? It means the same thing that has happened to all of your Biblical LAW books. [See “Nora’s Research Corner” elsewhere in this week’s CONTACT for a good example of this purposeful tampering activity, in the Bible, on the “missing” subject of reincarnation.] Someone in human physical form doesn’t like the contents, authors, or, or, or. Oh, it will still house Druthea’s writings, I am quite sure—for as George has also told the whole wide world in his tirades lately—that Druthea is Desireé. So be it, George, if this is love for your spouse in the danger fields, then I question your intent and-or loyal integrity. Indeed it is so—and truth comes from any who accept the conduit responsibility of that truth. But I ask, George, what are you trying to do? Will THIS make your word more OR LESS valid in the eyes of readers?? Does this make Desir e more acceptable, OR LESS? BLESSED BE THOSE WHO STUMBLE AND ALLOW HELP IN RECOVERY—WOE UNTO THOSE WHO CONTINUE TO EXPAND THE PEBBLE INTO A MOUNTAIN CANYON FROM WHICH THEY CANNOT MOVE.

It is impossible to understand why you cling to the JOURNALS when you denounce them at every turn—OR, IS THERE INTENT TO DESTROY THEM—NOT UTILIZE THEM PROPERLY?

FOR YOU READERS

I realize that George continues to contact ones and I also realize, as do the people at this location, that he is efforting to get full information—well, he can read the old LIBERATOR or new CONTACT and get all the information because we simply print it. However, we are going to taper off on that for we have already gone to near 70 pages of print in the LIBERATOR alone and now we must integrate new information space for our brothers in truth-bringing effort.

Dharma Wokini confronts material which must be done which will amount to two or three HUNDRED pages, THIS MINUTE, of critical information. She has two JOURNALS which I have asked be ready for press by mid-week next. We have constant attorney matters to solve. We are in full-blown effort to get Gold assets back to the original owners (not for selves—not even for the Institute, to the owners!) We are trying to get the JOURNALS into security at the least: George told at least two people, yesterday, that he believed he would just DESTROY THE WHOLE INVENTORY OF JOURNALS, THAT THEY WERE LIBELOUS IN MANY INSTANCES AND, YES, HE BELIEVED HE MIGHT JUST DISPENSE WITH THEM ALL.

If this be the attitude, why does he not simply release them which would also allow cancellation of his monetary debt for, if books are not selling at any rate (as he has continually stated to the author), then why would he desire to keep this insane battle raging?? Could it be that he has joined with the US&P in some sort of joint venture to destroy the whole of the work of the God team? What motives push one into deeper and deeper mire? Is he so intent on destroying the Ekkers, for their services, that he distracts at any possible instance? So be it—for he cannot DISTRACT OLD 'ATONNI! I believe the attorneys are listening pretty well, NOW—although it did take a few of his antics to cause them to realize the situation instead of listening to the lies. Do what you like, George, because it seems each move you make only helps our cause.

THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE

Under such attack it requires explanation and reminding of activities, intent and application of that which is under discussion. Therefore, I have no alternative other than to clear the decks and tell the people still wishing to participate—what are the directions taken, system of operation of the Institute itself, etc.

In the beginning of the opening of the Institute for the reader's participation, it was made explicitly clear that we were not then, never would be and would be considered in NO WAY A METALS DEALER, BUYER, STORAGE FACILITY OR ANYTHING ELSE SIMILAR.

George Green was an early-on founder of the Institute's funding plan—before even moving his residence to Tehachapi. As America West began publication of JOURNALS it was necessary to have some operating capital as George had been helping fund the publications. At first he bore the expenses for he said he had plenty of resources and a publisher "does fund publication of books". Distribution would be handled through America West Distributors (Desir e's "sort of" company). George let it be known from onset that HE RAN BOTH!—MADE THE ULTIMATE DECISIONS FOR BOTH—and demonstrated as much.

Now, came the Institute "plan". As economic times deteriorated and it began to become obvious that hundreds of banks and the economy were in trouble, people asked constantly for a means by which they could "help us" and yet not lose all their retirement and security funds. It would be that they had some problems with their own sums and some had even lost massive amounts in the S&Ls and stock market.

It became evident that ones could not invest in projects which were still in preparation for start-up phase and, also, many desperately wanted to help in some large (or tiny) way to get THE WORD out as we put it to press.

There was great discussion about how to do this and George proclaimed to know all there was to know about everything! He argued that he knew this would not represent a problem with SEC (Securities Exchange Commission) because no-one would be purchasing securities. THIS IS A FACT. But still, E.J., being overworked at the time, still decided he would not leave this in the hands of one George Green. Therefore, he took the responsibility of searching out established, well-recognized dealers, brokers, banks and vault facilities. He further said that there would be NO PARTIES in participation who would not incorporate so that there was no implication of unsophisticated investors, etc. There would actually be no securities involvement—but nonetheless, for the protection of any and all participants there would be required incorporation or already existing trusts.

Mr. Green proceeded to bring some ones within who either said they "would incorporate" or arranged with HIM to not do so. E.J. had no way to tell what Mr. Green was telling people and when asked personally to set aside the rules in some instances he did so—ON THE REQUEST AND WORD OF MR. GREEN. It is THOSE PARTIES now efforting to destroy the Institute—along with those who obviously listened to George Green and never understood the system—OR, HAVE BECOME A TOOL AND NOW CLAIM TO MISUNDERSTAND.

George Green was an original member of THE INSTITUTE BOARD OF DIRECTORS. It was discussed openly as to whether or not Mrs. Green would also serve. Mr. Green decided that since Mrs. Green did not want to be in Tehachapi and was a stickler for participation and detail and all was "long distance" at the time, that only Mr. Green would be a member of the Board. This was never changed until a brief few weeks ago when the Institute Board requested his resignation. He was also titled Vice-President and officer and did in fact even have access to the Corporate Bank Account on signature.

At the time it was further decided that all proceeds from the writings would be handled in a flexible manner. It was originally planned that Dharma would receive a minimum "up front" amount for each JOURNAL. That didn't work because she never received anything to speak of and the books were coming forth at a speed unreasonable for Greens to carry such a load. So, it was decided that all proceeds would be placed back in the publishing system until such time as something else could be worked out. Almost 70 JOURNALS later it is obvious NOTHING ELSE was worked out, even though agreement was made for 50% of all profits after a JOURNAL would break even. Therefore, assuming misunderstanding, in the reprinted volumes—would there not have been some expression of remuneration to the writer? Then, as the Greens moved to Nevada—it was agreed that Greens would help with expenses on the newspaper and JOURNAL personnel. This never happened—so, then there was a promise of 10% of the gross sales of the JOURNALS—this never happened—not a dime. Even some $24,000 in LIBERATOR subscription fees was NEVER TURNED OVER FOR CONTINUING PUBLICATION OF THE NEWSPAPER.

Mr. Green stated that Ekkers could get money from the Institute and he needed everything for his operation. Fine? Every cent used by Ekkers not only has had to be borrowed at up to 18% interest-bearing notes—but the Institute was the LAST place they would go for funds for personal use. For goodness sakes, the Ekkers became totally destitute with house in constant litigation (with now some $200,000 gained in new loans at over 12%) on top of continuing to work with no income from publisher or distribution of dozens of volumes of work and a weekly newspaper. That outside "note" for legal services has now risen to well over $300,000 and now the property has been confiscated so Ekkers ARE LOCKED INTO A LAWSUIT TO RECOVER THOSE DAMAGES FOR THE LENDER—EVEN THOUGH IT APPEARS IT MAY WELL COST THEIR VERY LIVES TO CONTINUE THIS LITIGATION AGAINST THE CRIMINAL ELEMENT THAT GOES TO REAGAN, BUSH AND THE GOVERNMENT GANG OF THIEVES.

This does not mean by any measure that it has been EASY for Greens. We sincerely appreciate everything Greens did. The problem comes from the Greens connecting with the ADVERSARIAL forces—whether or not they will admit it or even understand it. It does, however, take a very BLIND person not to SEE THIS FOR WHAT IT IS!!

So, back to the INSTITUTE. I believe, further, that every reader who has had anything to do with the Institute (unless deliberately misled DIRECTLY FROM GEORGE GREEN) WAS INFORMED EXACTLY AS TO HOW THE INSTITUTE "INVESTMENT-LOAN" PROGRAM WOULD FUNCTION.

A "participant" could place funds into the Institute through personal, or business corporation. Only persons who wanted to PARTICIPATE IN THE WORK GOING ON THROUGH PROJECT ASSISTANCE, PUBLISHING, DISTRIBUTION, ETC., WOULD BE ACCEPTED. The ONLY point in play was to be allowed to participate and still protect assets "borrowed". The funds would come in, gold would be purchased with the funds, loans (via a line of credit) against the gold (now collateral) and the proceeds of the loans to the Institute could be utilized as cash flow for input to projects. Project proposals had to be written, people had to live who were hired for this purpose, projects had to be instituted which could not await major funding, etc. This was FULLY EXPLAINED.

So how did the "protection" come about? Well, as you know if you read anything from any economic source (good or bad), Gold is predicted to move upward rapidly as the economy worsens. AND, the economy is about ready to blow-out. The market MEANS NOTHING—IT IS A COMPILATION OF MANIPULATED HIGH-ROLLER KHAZARIAN ONE-WORLDER OPERATIONS.

The agreement was and remains: Put in whatever funds you wish, gold is purchased, money is borrowed by the Institute against that gold collateral for "NOW" utilization. In return a "demand" note AND A SIDE AGREEMENT is issued to the party participating—corporate or individual.

The agreement EXPLAINED AND AGREED UPON was that money, barring disaster and need for removal in emergency, would be left in the Institute (banks, collateral, etc.) until the price of gold was near double the investment price at original transaction. It would have to DOUBLE in value to cover brokerage fees, principle and interest. Now, after the doubling of the investment price at time of transaction, any profit above that doubled price would be handled in either of two ways: 1. A participant could take interest or regular withdrawals of funds and the profit would be split with the Institute by 50%—or, 2. The funds would remain and all 100% of the profit would be given to the participant.

NEVER was the Institute to be a metals dealer, a storage house for anyone's gold assets, an investment program of any kind, a securities or stock option plan—NOTHING OF THE SORT. It was for persons who wanted to make contribution and we do not accept CONTRIBUTIONS as such into the Institute. Even ones who asked to make contributions have received (if E.J. knew about them) NOTES in exchange—whether or not the people participating wanted them. If contribution was ultimately desired, then it could be handled from that point—not at onset.

There were ones who DID WANT TO CONTRIBUTE "ONLY" and there were other ways structured to allow for that.

It seems strange to me that Mr. Green now claims he had nothing to do with it and yet he holds (secretly) untold amounts of gold which he advised people to purchase and send to him for management. He has borrowed against that (secret gold stash), carried it interstate (illegal) and now conspired to "PULL DOWN AND BLOW UP THE WHOLE OPERATION OF THE INSTITUTE, THE EKKERS, AND ALL THAT HAS BEEN BUILT."

This does not damage ones like the Ekkers—they don't have anything anyway—they even use foodstamps. This action DESTROYS THE INSTITUTE AS A WHOLE—AND THAT MEANS ALL OF YOU PARTICIPANTS. HE WOULD HAVE HIS PEOPLE PULL OUT THEIR PARTICIPATION IN FULL AT THE ORIGINAL PRICE, OR IN GOLD COIN, WITH INTEREST, AND GUESS WHAT—PLACE THE "STUFF" WITH HIM FOR HIS PROJECTS IN WHICH THEY COULD THEN PARTICIPATE AS SHAREHOLDERS.

Will this happen? No, because the Institute is sound corporately and a "run" will not be legally tolerated. Mr. Green will stand responsible for any variance of instructions by those he brought into the funding process, and will also stand fully responsible for all repercussions brought forth by any of his "now legally defined conspiratorial partners".

It was originally Mr. Green's plan—but obviously meant by him for other personal use—and he was a corporate part of the Institute. He was accepted as an "authority" on SEC rules and regulations and shall be responsible for those to whom he misrepresented this Institute participation. Ones who have joined with Mr. Green in this attempt to bring down the Institute will be held fully responsible as CONSPIRATORS in this illegal assault on a Corporate entity in excellent standing.

WHAT NOW? IS THE INSTITUTE CLOSED FOR BUSINESS???

NO. It is under protection of a "run" by the conspirators—NOTHING more. Participants will be totally protected against such criminal actions. Including, I might add, the ones who demand withdrawal—their funds are more safely guarded than prior to this take-over attempt by Mr. Green. Their assets sit safely and securely waiting the same course of action and increase as any. They will find, however, in some instances, the costs of such conspiracy to destroy others' assets will be very high—considering the costs of attorney's fees.

So what of gold, investments, participations, etc.? NOTHING has changed from the original plan—the stock market is ready to self-destruct and RIGHT NOW IS THE MOST INCREDIBLY VALUABLE TIME TO UTILIZE GOLD AS STRUCTURED ABOVE FOR FUNDS. BANKS ARE STILL IN TROUBLE BY THE SCORE; THE RTC IS ASKING FOR MORE BILLIONS TO DIG OUT; NEW CURRENCY IS PRINTED AND READY TO CLAIM "RECALL" OF THE OLD AND, ACTUALLY, PART OF THE PLAN OF DISRUPTION AT THIS TIME WAS TO CAUSE YOU READERS TO BE TURNED AWAY FROM OPPORTUNITY TO PROTECT SOME OF YOUR ASSETS IN THIS MANNER—AND, USE YOUR FUNDS AT THE SAME TIME TO HELP INFORM YOUR FELLOW-CITIZENRY. IF INFORMATION DOES NOT REACH THE PUBLIC—THERE IS NO PRAYER OF RECOVERY OF YOUR NATION AS YOU KNEW IT ONCE TO BE—IT IS OVER, DEAD AND SIMPLY NOW BEING BURIED.

Do we need help? Indeed we do—we have had to close the LIBERATOR, the RTC got the property and Mr. Green still has possession of the JOURNALS as he threatens to DESTROY them, and the court has possession of D.O.'s GOLD while the bastards try to lay claim to the gift and will not even allow the gold to be returned to the original owner for his own use or decisions.

Now Mr. Green calls bunches of you every day—being "sick of the pile of lies of the Ekkers, the LIBERATOR, and thus and so".

So? When asked "what lies" specifically? He has no answer!

I do not wish to fight with anyone, much less Green. WE have work to do—piles and piles of it and my people are tired and frankly so assaulted and fatigued as to just about celebrate at a "shutdown". I suggested a week or so off while a new entity picks up the paper—and they proclaimed "No, they would get the work done, the shift made and a paper out any way necessary." God bless these precious children for they give all without restraint or barter. Dr. Young, for instance, who lives on unemployment from a brilliant career in the scientific front-edge world, has been bedridden lately from illness and pulse assault—and still gets the work done. I can say this same essential thing about EACH and every individual—including YOU READERS. There is no point in printing a paper—IF NO ONE READS IT. You accept it and petition for continuation and that is all that is needed for the ones here to work around the clock, if necessary, to be bringing you critical information and instructions. I don't know about you ones—BUT I WITNESS MIRACLES EVERY MOMENT OF EVERY DAY, AS THAT WHICH IS "IMPOSSIBLE" IS DONE!

SO WHY DO I "WASTE" TIME ON THIS DRIVEL?

Because it is the best example I can give you as to the depths your society and brother has dropped into enslavement. We also have ones petitioning to utilize the Institute as they have in the past—AND YES, IT IS OPEN FOR SHARING—UNDER EVEN TIGHTER SECURITY AND THE MAGNIFYING-GLASS OF THE CORPORATE BOARD AND ADVISORS. YOU SEE, THIS HAS ONLY STRENGTHENED THE ENTITY—BECAUSE I DEMANDED THAT STRICT UTILIZATION OF ALL LAWS BE ADHERED TO IN ALL INSTANCES. IF ONES DO NOT SEE FIT TO FOLLOW THOSE GUIDELINES—SO BE IT—THEY SHALL REAP THAT REWARD FOR THAT WHICH IS SOWED BY THEMSELVES.

No one at this location set out to do anything TO Greens or America West—we even offered publishing funds in assistance—only to find these things bursting like bombs on heads—FROM SECRET HIDDEN CONSPIRACIES. IT IS NOT ALL OUT AND OPEN YET—BUT I AM PAST WEARY OF THE WASTE OF TIME ON THE MATTER—WE SHALL MORE AND MORE TURN IT INTO THE HANDS OF THE EXISTING LAW INJUSTICE ARTISTS FOR IT IS TOO TIME-CONSUMING WHILE THE REST OF YOUR NATION IS IN EQUAL-TO-WORSE CRIMINAL UNCOVERING.

Allow us to leave this now, I believe I have answered your barrage of questions about again participating in the Institute—and the answer, if elusive above, is "YES INDEED, WE ARE HERE AND ACTIVE". THE AGREEMENTS MAY WELL BE DIFFERENTLY "STATED" ACCORDING TO NEW "LAW-YER" INPUT—BUT YES, WE ARE FOUND WHOLE AND FUNCTIONAL. IT IS THE TIME TO CONTINUE TO COVER YOUR BACKSIDES, READERS—IT IS BEYOND SERIOUS TIME IN YOUR ECONOMY AND ENTRAPMENT ACTIONS OF THE PLANNERS 2000.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER

We are going to have to cut a long way back in support of that entity. The more visible operations center will be in Nevada as originally structured. The office in Sacramento, California will continue to be a receiving point for mail and contact in some instances, but the central offices and operations must be out of Nevada. We refuse to take any more guff from the California business community and/or the thieves in our midst.

There are some ongoing cases which cannot be abandoned and there is such a need for this entity that we must keep it going on its own a few more months—then there is expected income enough to allow it to carry itself. Readers, when the going gets tough—the ones with good intent and input—get tougher and keep right on keeping on. We find our Center into the midst of one of the biggest unfolding actions in the United States this day. It is going to be a full disclosure of the RTC, BANK FIASCO (BCCI, BNL, ETC.) politicians and involved conspirators as to shock even you readers who have already felt "beyond shock".

WE MUST CONTINUE PUBLISHING THESE THINGS!! FURTHER, WE MUST CONTINUE PUBLISHING SOME THINGS THAT YOU, AS READERS, MAY FIND BORING OR PERCEIVE AS "JUST INDIVIDUAL" SITUATIONS WHICH YOU FEEL YOU COULD "DO WITHOUT" KNOWING. NO, YOU CANT—BECAUSE AS THESE THINGS HAPPEN TO THE "LEAST INDIVIDUAL", SO TOO ARE THEY HAPPENING TO YOU! MOREOVER, PUBLIC DISCLOSURE AND RECOGNITION OF THESE PARTIES BRING SOME LEVEL OF SAFETY TO ONES MARKED FOR DESTRUCTION—IF ENOUGH OF YOU "KNOW", IT GETS HARDER AND HARDER TO COMMIT MURDER AGAINST THEM. We have one we are efforting to get out of the clutches of the "Big Boys" planning a "liquid lobotomy" on him in Colorado as we write here. No matter, chelas, what you THINK you know—it is NOT YET ENOUGH!

DON'T FALL FOR DARE SCHAUT AND WACO, TEXAS CONFRONTATION

As a for instance, many of you will have gotten a Fax emergency summons from one Dare Schaut through what will appear to be the sanctions of the Council on Domestic Relations. NO—it is NOT! He has done this and you shall have backup information, but the point is—he has called to ARMS you ones who will go to Waco PREPARED for militia duty. This is insanity—this incites to war. For "Prepared" means bring your weapons and anyone who will use them against the Feds. You do not yet know your enemy and his workers—even if we are telling you constantly who they are. I have warned you about Dare Schaut, Gritz has warned you about Dare Schaut—COSMOS has stated nothing but rebuttal to that which Dare Schaut has given forth publicly—so might it be possible that Dare Schaut is up to no good?! I have even warned you to the point of full assault from ones supporting the CDR, that even if intentions be good—the set-up is dastardly and will only MARK YOU!

NEW CONTACT NEWSPAPER EVOLVING

WELL, WHAT ABOUT OUR OWN GROUP? WE HAVE NO GROUP! We offer hearing in a newspaper for all valid and timely presentation. We advocate (yea, indeed, demand) no weapons, no civil disobedience, no lawbreaking (of the land as well as God) and effort to help you with enough information for confirmation to back up what we offer—when secure to ones presenting—to the best of our ability. We have to protect ones through initials or anonymity if necessary and we effort to ALWAYS utilize their own perceptions and experiences so that YOU can come into discernment of the TRUTH of things.

We, further, do not even give Editors a time to do their jobs in their own perception of perfection. We simply put it out to you as quickly and as "is" as possible. We choose, even when there are myriads of dollars to run hundreds of pages, to stick to only a tiny, tiny few contributors to the paper itself—because it is a guide to HOW MUCH MATERIAL YOU CAN HANDLE. WE FIND ONES NOT BEING ABLE TO FIND TIME TO GET THROUGH THE ISSUES AS IS. IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT YOU GET ALL THE INFORMATION—NOT JUST A FAVORITE ARTICLE OR TWO—SO WE WILL CONTINUE AS IS UNTIL WE FACE OTHER NEEDED CHANGES. Please give us allowance to make this immediate changeover before we have to restructure layouts and input. We are given much freedom of the press outlay to get through this integration period in order to allow continuity of publishing uninterrupted—any changes can come with working evolvement. We are being blessed with understanding and total support and we are prayerfully grateful.

CONTACT NEEDS MORE SUBSCRIBERS

To be allowed continuation until we can receive expected funding—WE DO NEED MORE SUBSCRIBERS—just to keep printing. Then, after a while, as funding (for which a proposal has been approved but yet unavailable) we shall subsidize so that prices can drop and allow more independent subscribers. Meanwhile, we can only struggle along and hope you continue to share, share, and share—if you can do nothing else. If “just reading” is all you can do—it is as blessed as the largest gift for it is what you can do and is precious unto God for the service. KNOW IT.

THE SMALLEST MESSAGE OF SUPPORT IS PRICELESS

I have a remarkable message from a friend who writes to lend credence to our writings in a most personal way—he finds that he has PERSONAL family connections to the very places of which we have written about in ancient Khazarian times. This is priceless for it unfolds history in such a way as to allow proof and understanding. In this instance the place no longer exists but the HISTORY writings present the line of happenings.

More pertinent to my instant discussion, however, is a note shared regarding an 11 YEAR-OLD son of one J.G. in Nevada. (I honor parents who will allow their children insight and truth enough to experience information causing discernment, etc.) I have shared many, many letters lately as the opinions and assaults, excuses and input have flowed. I published a letter from one, B.P. and one L.F. Quoting the young man after reading the paper with these differing-in-perspective letters: “Bill sounds like someone who loves God in his heart. Leon is someone who loves the IDEAL of loving our Father.” I asked for clarification, says the father, and son said: “Dad, loving the IDEAL is just another way of avoiding using the free will we all have to CHOOSE THE LIGHT.” This father also encloses a “piece” on FREE WILL which I shall effort to find space to share with you—for it hits the subject squarely on the target. It is, however, a bit over 7 pages in length, so perhaps we shall need to save it for next time. Its title is “Understanding the Mystery of Free Will” and certainly is extremely important to understanding. Thank you for taking time to write such insightful information to help all with understanding the meaning of Free Will—for it is indeed hard for mortal man to grasp.

I need to make one last observation before closing this segment.

GAIANDRIANA AND INSTANT RESULTS

First, DO NOT JUMP OFF INTO WRONG CONCLUSIONS. Some of you ones are treating and “taking” Gaiandriana as if it were some type of antibiotic—with expectations of never feeling so much as “queasy” the rest of your unnaturally long and youthful perfectioned span of mortal existence. GOOD GRIEF, NO! SURVIVAL AND ETERNAL LIFE ARE TWO VERY DIFFERENT THINGS.

Gaiandriana IS NOT an antibiotic. When you, even after perfection of cellular structure, are exposed to bombarding foreign substance—be it poison or biological impact—which hits your systems—YOU WILL GET SICK. The point is that if you have built up your natural cellular structure and immune system—the body will adjust to the foreign intruders and you will be able to “throw off” the invader as the body cells created for such a task DO THEIR TASK.

This is like thinking that if you are shot at, hit with a lead bullet—that somehow you are protected because you took something. If the body can survive the trauma of a lead bullet—but the bullet remains lodged in the system—you may well perish from lead poisoning—perfection of cellular structure or not.

Some people are so compromised already as to not be able to counter the assaults. Others won't stop intaking things such as caffeine, alcohol, drugs of various types, etc., long enough to even perfect the body at any rate—so help and healing slowly is all that can be expected. YOU HAVE TO DO SOMETHING, TOO, YOU KNOW! BUT THIS SUBSTANCE IS A NATURAL THING WHICH RE-CREATES CELLULAR STRUCTURE OF A BODY BY DNA RE-CREATION OF ORIGINAL STRUCTURE—NOT AN ANTIBIOTIC FOR KILLING OFF BIO-ORGANISMS. The immune system must be upgraded and THEN IT does the housecleaning. How well it does the structuring and housecleaning is up to you—we can offer the product—we cannot precipitate miracles—YOU are the miracle if there is to be one. Often, if you are sick and feel offended by that insult—THINK HOW SICK YOU “COULD HAVE BEEN”! IT OFTEN BRINGS THE THING INTO PERSPECTIVE PRETTY QUICKLY—FOR PEOPLE ARE NOW DYING OFF PRETTY FAST AND UNDER PRETTY AWFUL CIRCUMSTANCES THESE DAYS.

GOD IS THE SHIELD!

In ANY instance where you feel you are put upon or this is not working—STOP USING IT. We force no one to do anything—much less use something against his wishes. If you expect to substitute us out for the trained medicine men—then you expect the wrong things. In your world TODAY—you are under such assault that you are going to be sick from time to time—even unto death for that IS the assault upon you. We only offer you that which shall help you MAKE IT THROUGH! No more and no less. Gaiandriana is NOT A SHIELD FOR YOU—GOD IS THE SHIELD! YOU ARE THE BEARER. GOD, FURTHER, DID NOT PROMISE YOU A JOY-RIDE ON ROSE PETALS—HE HAS TOLD YOU THERE WILL BE MISERY, PLAGUES AND TRIBULATIONS PUT UPON YOU. There is a great difference in “goal setting” and fantasy-land daydreaming. We will effort always to give you that which can assist in your “survival”—we can do no more for the rest is up to you. When overwhelmed, a thing is brought down—there is no magic. If a tidal wave washes over you—you will drown. If assault of massive measures of microorganisms hit you, you will be sick or perish—or, often you WILL be able to respond sufficiently to have no symptoms or only brief encounter with sickness—but, if you think you are going to walk in perfection just because you are working at protection of your system—you perceive incorrectly—UNLESS YOU WITHDRAW FROM EVERY IMPACTING PARTICLE ABOUT YOU OR TAKEN WITHIN. You all still want the magic wand approach of hocus pocus—and that, dear ones, is that which does not exist in any dimension!!

Please understand that if you have been intaking Gaiandriana and you or your family become ill—KNOW that it could have been far worse for what is put against you ones now—is intended to give you fatal infections—be the incubation period short or too long to trace cause until too late. Now, in addition, you must confront every kind of gene, DNA manipulation imagined and unimagined.

HUMAN GENOME PROJECT

In this edition of the paper will be lengthy discussions regarding the biggest gamble in biology. Know that within every cell in your body is a gigantic DNA molecule about 5 ft. long and 50 trillionths of an inch wide. Spelled out in the structure of each strand is the recipe for yourself. Without it, you would be nothing more than a soup of commonplace chemicals.

Not to even count prior work and expenditures in producing things like the HIV series of viruses, etc., and prior replication and DNA alteration-manipulation phases, you are in for more. Right now your U.S. Government, along with several others, is getting ready to spend over $3 BILLION on the Human Genome Project, an effort to find out every word of what this voluminous molecule says. It is the biggest biology project ever BROUGHT PUBLIC. I can only effort to inform you, chelas, and offer some help—I cannot perfect it FOR you.

Please, further, take time to UNDERSTAND the instructions when you undertake anything. All of you, make sure you reread and study and KNOW what you are doing. This is most flexible but you would be ASTOUNDED at the letters we get and what people are actually DOING. First, read and reread, and then check it out. We have people using this stuff, a drop or two AS THEY TRANSPLANT PLANTS, in pet food, etc., with incredible results in responding health and sturdy growth—but do not believe you are dealing with medicine, drugs, antibiotics or even herbs—YOU ARE NOT.

Thank you for your attention.

Recent Volcanoes & Earthquakes: Prelude To BIG Trouble Ahead!

3/25/93 SOLTEC

I am Commander Ceres Anthonious Soltec, henceforth known as "Toniose", in charge of the Geophysical aspects of this Earth-Shan planetary transition project, come as the Hosts and present in the Radiance of the Holy God of Light. Yours has been a busy week, geologically speaking, as you have experienced both volcano eruptions and earthquakes, and now the promise of yet more strong storms approach your western areas.

It has also been a very busy week at the offices of the newspaper and we are well pleased to be invited at the beginning of a new and great stage of the mission. You celebrated the beginning of your Spring Season with a real good "spring cleaning" and the house is clean, fresh and aired out as you are readying yourselves for the Warm Summer Sunshine.

We shall not mourn that which has passed away, for a great metamorphosis has now taken place, as you can well see from this new newspaper publication. We salute all those who are "hanging in there" — for the rewards, though not of the worldly kind, hold great promise. It has been a long and difficult road that you ones have traveled and you have certainly received more than what you feel is your fair share of the slings and arrows and, though your burdens have been great, there have also been many good times and great lessons. Both shall serve you well in the coming days.

MOUNT MAYON, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

But, now on to the subject of this message. The volcano eruptions of which I speak are those of Mount Mayon in the Philippines, as it erupted on Sunday last, March 21, not just once, but seven times in one day with the last of the seven having been the strongest. The smell of sulfur is strong in the air, indicating that more magma is rising and forming yet another volcanic dome, which will lead to more eruptions. This is almost a foregone conclusion as this part of your globe is a hotbed of geologic activity and promises only to bring more as time goes on. The eruptions are still ongoing, so LOOK OUT! This is but the heralding of yet greater seismic and volcanic events to follow in this and other areas of that Pacific Rim.

That little tectonic plate, on which this chain of islands lie, is literally teeming with renewed volcanic and seismic life. The magma chambers below the surface are rising as the heat and gases from beneath exert pressure causing the magma to build into another dome, priming the mountain for yet another explosive display. Please recall our previous writings regarding this area of your globe as we, at that time, told you ones that it was a mere matter of a short period of time before this volcano would continue with its eruptions. Recall, also from previous lessons, that these islands are of volcanic origin, and with the renewed activity in the Pacific Ring of Fire, more and more intense seismic and volcanic activity is to be expected.

The Philippine Plate is caught between three other great tectonic plates—they are: the Pacific Plate to the East, the Indian-Australian Plate to the South, and the Eurasian Plate to the West. As these other plates move toward the Philippine Plate from all directions, they are slowly subducting beneath the little Philippine Plate, causing it to push upward, or uplift. The subducting masses, then, also place pressure on the already full magma chambers, causing the magma and the gases to push upward and out the vents—in this case, Mount Mayon. As the subducting process continues, the magma continues to rise, creating more lava domes within the crater.

The strong odor of sulfur in the area indicates that gases are still rising and in most cases it is the precursor to more eruptions. Keep also in mind that these gases are extremely volatile and explosive in nature so the eruptions of these volcanoes are explosive and spectacular. It was reported by your own scientists that the ash cloud extended approximately thirteen miles upward—that is 68,640 feet—quite an explosion, would you not agree? All that I can tell you is that it "ain't over till it's over". And believe me, it ain't over by a long shot! This part of your world, as I have taught previously, has entered a new geologic cycle and you are now beginning to see part of the awesome power that lies within the Earth.

This volcano is but a tiny glimpse of what was experienced when the Island of Krakatoa was destroyed by three thought-to-be-inactive volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean in 1883. Only about one-third of the island was left after the eruptions. This, too, was an Indonesian Island and rose approximately 800 meters [about 2500 feet] out above the water before the eruption. After, there was a 300 meter depression where the island had formerly been. This explosion was felt over 5,000 miles away. On the island of Java, thousands of people died in a tidal wave that resulted from this tremendous volcanic eruption. That type of potential still exists in this place today, Chelas. Will an eruption of that magnitude occur? That is a difficult one to call, as many variables are in effect. I am just informing you that the potential does exist—the statement is not meant to be prophetic in nature.

PORTLAND, OREGON EARTHQUAKE

Let us now cross the vast Pacific Ocean to the East and examine the site of an earthquake which occurred just today near Portland, Oregon. It measured 5.7 on your scales, was felt for approximately 45 seconds, was reported as a rolling sensation, and felt as far away as 120 miles. To you who reside in California, this should sound very familiar to you as it was the same type of shock wave that has rocked your place several times in the past year. Recall your past lessons regarding this type of rolling motion earthquake—it was very deep within the Earth, so that the 5.7 would actually equate out to nearer a 6.0 shock.

What you should find most interesting about this earthquake of today, if you have been following my lessons at all, is that it occurred in a place where much the same type of conditions exist as in the Philippine incident. You once again have a plate (the Juan De Fuca Plate) which is subducting beneath another plate (the North American Plate) and this mass, pushing below, is exerting pressures on magma chambers beneath the Cascade Mountains in the area. Look at the similarities.

Prior to the eruptions of Mount Pinatubo and Mount Mayon, there was a series of moderate to strong earthquakes. The causes of these occurrences were when one or more of the opposing plates moved against the Philippine Plate and pushed land mass beneath it. The little Juan De Fuca Plate is moving against the North American Plate as the Pacific Plate pushes against it, causing it to dive beneath the North American Plate. This exact scenario has been covered in recent previous writings and we have shown you ones that the potential for seismic and volcanic activity in this place not only exists, but there is a very good chance for such events to accelerate with greater amounts of energy releases. This potential for more activity grows with each passing day, as your world is now experiencing the time of changes foretold by many, both past and present.

What is concerning your scientists is that this area has been so quiet for so long, that they fear another event such as that which occurred with Mount St. Helens several years past. One scientist even admitted that what they are concerned with is that this is a subduction zone. Fill in the blanks, and you have exactly what we have been informing you of prior to this event. Your scientists may have been caught off-guard, but you who had been following the now-deceased PHOENIX LIBERATOR should not have been caught unawares, for there have been numerous warnings and instructions given regarding this possibility.

CALIFORNIA AREA ACTIVITY

In addition to these two events, you have had and are continuing to experience small to moderate earthquake activity all up and down the Pacific Coast along not only the San Andreas Fault, but on adjacent and parallel faults, as well. And now you are once again inundated with strong storms bringing more heavy rains to the area, causing yet further soaking of the already over-saturated ground. That entire area is so unstable that all the water is merely adding to that instability as the ground below the surface is as a muddy sea upon which you are literally floating at this time. Any seismic activity, regardless of how small or large, has a great potential for destruction of massive proportions. THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS AN INSIGNIFICANT EARTHQUAKE AT THIS TIME, SO STAY ALERT! The slightest tremor could be enough to start the chain reaction because the entire area is in a frenzied state, geologically speaking.

There have also been very small earth tremors inland in Eastern California, Nevada and Arizona, though not strong enough for most to even notice that they are occurring. Many of you have not actually physically felt the tremors, yet you have sensed them on a more subtle level by such things as rapidly changing frequencies in the pitches heard within your ears. You should be able, from all this, to see just how widespread the activity has become and should be able to draw some of your own conclusions regarding same. Remember how the energy waves travel through the Earth and the effects they carry with them.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Are these natural events? Does it matter when the earth beneath your feet suddenly becomes so unstable that you cannot stand on your own two feet? Of course it is not all of natural origin! The games of the Elite are ongoing and, in fact, are accelerating, which is another reason you can anticipate more and greater occurrences of this kind.

However, it is our intention to bring you to a place in which you are able to discern that which is going to occur by knowing that which has taken place and by giving you the hard facts of science and history from which to draw your own conclusions, as well as nudging you ones to draw from your own inner knowings about such things. The information and knowledge exists there, within, and each has the ability to draw upon that information and knowledge.

Suppose that you were completely cut off from all other sources of information and all that was available was that which you drew from God and from within. Are you at the stage of your development where that is all that you would need to guide you? If not, then I would advise you that it is high time that you got yourself right with and closer to God, especially in these perilous times which are at your door. There is no delicate way to say that you are going to need that type of relationship with Creator and the Hosts in the VERY near future. The time for preparations is nearly past, for you are rapidly approaching the time of application of that which you should by now be prepared for. THE NEXT TIME JUST COULD BE MORE THAN A PRACTICE RUN. ARE YOU READY?

SOLTEC DENOUNCES ORNERY GEORGE GREEN

I want to take this opportunity to respond to claims made by one Mr. George Green, and then I shall leave the subject alone. Let it be known that Ceres Anthonious Soltec (Toniose) does not now, and has not in the past, associated with that one. If he is claiming that Soltec is traveling with him, it is certainly someone other than myself. Though I am in contact with others than this particular scribe from time to time, that group does not include Mr. Green. His state of dilution is a sad thing indeed.

HIGH TIME FOR PRIORITIES!

Let us draw this writing to a close. We have allowed for several interruptions this evening and now the hour grows late. In closing, I want to admonish each and every one of you who reads this to examine your relationship with the Creator, as the time is such that there are not words sufficient to stress the necessity for this.

Chelas, this is not a game that we are playing with you, and the Elite are certainly playing for very high stakes. This is deadly serious and you need to get yourselves in right relationship and rethink priorities for, in the final counting, there is but one thing that matters, and that is your relationship with God and your journey back to that Source.

Take the time to meditate upon these things as you go about your duties and lives in the coming week. Take conscious note of your thoughts and actions and judge them for self so that others need not judge them for you. Allow the Radiance of Holy God to illumine your path and your life and hold not bitterness in your hearts. You stand at the dawn of a great new day. Greet the warmth of it with a pure heart.

Toniose to clear. Salu.

TRACES OF THE DOCTRINE OF REINCARNATION IN THE BIBLE

(Part I in a Series on the Doctrine of Reincarnation and on Sananda in India)

This series is intended to pull together more information from Earth resources regarding Sananda's time in India after his crucifixion as well as take a look at the Doctrine of Reincarnation which is so much a part of the Indian culture. It is not intended to cover again the groundwork already put forth by Sananda in books now in print. For the background story of the one now known as Sananda and then known as Esu-Immanuel-Isa I refer you to PHOENIX JOURNAL #2 called, AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL, I AM SANANDA. This book gives the account of Esu's life the way it was, according to Esu-Sananda himself.

As an aside at this point, for those of you who have not yet read my articles on the names "Esu" and "Isa" I refer you to THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, issues 11/3/92 and 11/24/92. The name "Esu" is the English translation of the Aramaic name "Eshoo", it means "Lion". Esu spoke Aramaic. "Isa" is the translation of "Eshoo" used by the Islamic or Arabic-speaking people.

Esu traveled to India as a young man and studied there before returning to Palestine and teaching. After his crucifixion, from which he recovered, he returned to India, married, raised a family, taught people God's Laws, and died at an old age.

A review of the trade routes at the time of King Solomon (1,000 years before Esu) should make it easier for everyone to realize that travel to and from many foreign countries was not in the least unusual at the time of Esu. That he went to India, and was therefore likely thoroughly surrounded by the Doctrine of Reincarnation, can be shown.

On this subject of reincarnation, a most interesting fact should be noted right away: There is no direct reference to the Doctrine of Reincarnation in the Bible. This is because it was removed by persons not yet identified, for reasons not identified either — but easily guessed, when the true teachings are known and when more of the history of the world and the church becomes generally known.

Also on this subject of reincarnation, many teachers, including Ceres and Sananda, as well as others, especially within the last thirty years, have taught that this Earth is a school. Think of a father with many children, all equally beloved but each unique and at a different level of development. The Earth provides each with opportunities to gain the lessons, knowledge and experience necessary in order to “graduate” and become responsible members of the universe.

To prepare the reader for this idea of a “progression” through this Earth school via reincarnation and many lives, I present some Biblical statements which may help. I do not know how these statements came to be included in the Bible. I am only considering the validity of reincarnation and the fact that our lives here, without a doubt, are providing each of us with opportunities to grow. Whether the particular references in the Bible which I will be quoting are themselves valid or the best way of presenting the matter I do not claim. It is only a way, but one you may be more familiar with or able to accept with some comfort.

In my opinion the following Biblical references suggest (albeit briefly) the idea of man’s progression on Earth: (King James Version of The Bible)

1. Luke 16:16

“The Law and the prophets were until John (John the Baptist): since that time the Kingdom of God is preached and everyman presseth into it. (Immanuel-Jesus-Esu speaking.)

2. I. COR. 15:45

“And so it is written, the first Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.”

3. Rev. 19:16

“And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a new name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.”

There is a progression of the “teachers” from prophets to the “son of God” (Esu). Esu taught that the “Kingdom of God” is within each person, and “everyman presseth into it.” Since everyman is included, how could that be, since not all men follow or even try to follow or accept God’s Laws (the prerequisite for entry)? The only way is through reincarnation, where the soul has opportunity to learn. That Adam “progressed” is hinted at in the statements that “the first Adam was a living-soul”, and the “last Adam was a quickening spirit.” That Esu (the Christed Teacher) progressed or “graduated” is indicated in his “NEW NAME”. Esu left Palestine after a severe rejection. Esu is returning as “KING OF KINGS”. I cannot, of course, state the message that was intended, and-or whether the original message was tampered with. Nevertheless, for those who are “Bible believers”, the above will provide some possible clues.

If one allows the possibility that the Bible has been tampered with, and goes through it looking for circumstances that are not explicit (because the Doctrine of Reincarnation was banned and written out of the Bible) but can only be explained by the doctrine, they will garner some food for thought.

I searched the New Testament and found the following references. Ceres has said that some of the true teachings “were left in because the editors and translators didn’t recognize them for what they were.”

1. Luke 20:34,35 & 36

These verses say that those who are accounted worthy to obtain the resurrection “do not die anymore”, which leads to the question—how many times have they lived and died in the past?—and, how many times in the future until they are counted worthy?

2. Luke 21:30,32,36

This is the parable of the fig tree which tells us the signs of the end times and includes that controversial statement, “this generation shall not pass away till all be fulfilled.”

The group Esu was talking with lived almost 2,000 years ago. Among Bible Students the question has arisen many times—does the statement apply to the people Esu was talking with, or to people who would be present at the end time? Of course, there could be problems with the translation, perhaps “generation” was not the original word. Some difficulties with the statement are obvious. Why would Esu make the statement to this particular group of people if it did not apply to them? The further problem is, of course, “those people” lived and died, and the “end time” has not yet happened (at least the “end time” expected by Bible students in the 20th century).

If reincarnation had been an accepted fact by the people, as well as a teaching of Esu’s, the statement would not have posed a problem in understanding to the people present—although, naturally, the present Bible version of the statement makes it more obscure than necessary.

Consider this point of view: If those people knew that each of them would experience the “end time”, and that all that had been said about that time would be fulfilled before it occurred—then the statement is not at all perplexing. It is only perplexing when it has to stand on its own in an atmosphere of those who do not understand or believe in reincarnation.

3. John 9:1,2,3

A question was asked of Esu about whether a man was blind because of his parents’ or his own sin. Since it is also said that the man was blind from his birth, he would have had to have lived a previous life to have incurred this debt or challenge or “karma” from previous sin. (I used the word “karma” because people are familiar with it. Ceres does not like the word—God does not “punish” us—the idea of “karma” carries the idea of “punishment”. It should be replaced with the idea of eventually having to learn our lessons via this “Earth classroom” experience.)

Even though the Biblical account tells us that Esu said the man did not sin, but was blind “that the glory of God could be revealed”, still — the concepts of reincarnation and “karma” were present in the minds of the questioner or that particular question would not have been asked.

Many would argue that “the glory of God” was revealed when the man was healed by Esu. Think about that though—would God make a man blind just to show off Esu’s ability? No — the blindness was a circumstance which focused or led the man to the “Kingdom of God” within himself — he was healed because the lesson (whatever it was — patience, compassion, etc.) had been learned.

Note that Esu did not dispute this concept of reincarnation obviously present in the minds of the people. He merely stated the man’s circumstances in answer to a question (as far as we can know from the Biblical account.)

4. Malachi 4:5; Matthew 16:13-16; 17:10-13

Malachi, one of the last Books of the Old Testament foretells Elijah’s return. In Matthew, the first Book of the New Testament, Esu, in response to the people’s question, tells them Elijah (AKA Elias) has already returned as John the Baptist. Neither Esu, the scribes, nor the people question the idea of the return. The question was only about the identity of the "returned" Elias!!

The common counter-argument to the idea that the above is a clear case of reincarnation described in the Bible is generally that the people were only expecting someone "like" Elijah to return—not an actual return via reincarnation. If you seriously look at that possibility it is obvious that people would not be looking for Elijah and his new identity if any prophet might be the one!! All they would have to do is look for a prophet, not Elijah!

In any event, let us just call it a working hypothesis that Esu knew the principles of reincarnation and that even the average citizen in Palestine (through the goods traders and their "cultural pollination") must also have known about reincarnation. Then compare this circumstance of the people in Palestine asking about Elijah's return with, for example, the people in Tibet trying to identify the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama. It certainly appears to be the same situation.

It is believed in Tibet that the Dalai Lamas are all reincarnations of the previous Dalai Lama. After the Dalai Lama dies a search is made among young children to find and identify the returned Dalai Lama. The entity suspected of being the one must answer certain questions and tests pertaining to the previous Lama's life before being accepted as the Dalai Lama. I see no difference in this example and an expected return of the prophet Elijah. People have just been unwilling to see it — or really look carefully at it — for what really is implied about reincarnation.

Reincarnation was a well-known doctrine, at least of Eastern beliefs, in Palestine at the time of Esu. To use some common sense, it is actually quite surprising not to find the doctrine in the Bible! It is a teaching people would have talked about and asked questions about, even if it was not already an accepted fact. People would have known about these teachings from India, and they would have wanted answers from Esu regarding the matter. Instead, we are left with the curious (and suggestively incriminating?) fact that we can find no direct reference to reincarnation in the Bible. Don't you find that just the least bit strange?

5. Rev.3:12

"Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out."

What is said above appears to me to mean that until an entity "overcomes" he will continue to "go out", or reincarnate again and again until all his lessons are learned!

By "overcoming", I believe, is meant the overcoming of our errors and ignorance, and all else that holds us back, so that we become enlightened do-ers of God's Laws. This is accomplished by personal application of the teachings of God's Laws—which, through the lessons imparted on this "Earth school of hard knocks", we eventually come to realize are in full harmony with our true selves, the "Kingdom of God" within.

I now add one more singularly important Bible reference — but this is not one generally thought of when the subject of reincarnation is discussed: It is the TEN COMMANDMENTS (see Mat. 19:18,19).

Our permissive and decadent culture has pretty much dismissed the Ten Commandments as being impossible-to-follow "Thou Shalt Nots" given out by an equally impossible-to-believe authoritarian God. The Scriptures tell us that the Law of God is perfect. How can the two views be reconciled?

It is true that Ceres has taught that the Laws have been tampered with in the Biblical accounts. Briefly, the negative way they are stated is a problem, and the rules regarding the sabbath and tithing were added by power- and money-minded very human priests. In addition, much "inconvenient" truth was omitted.

Moreover, we cannot know why a particular translator chose the particular words of any translation, but the sensitive and sometimes complex exercise of translation, itself, should be kept very much in mind as an important consideration. Along this "technical" line of questioning, it occurred to me that the verb, shall, is a future tense verb, in the first person. In the second and third person it carries the idea of authority and inevitability. (Refer to the American College Dictionary.)

If God's Laws are thus considered in the sense of the future-focused action of the verb "shall", I believe it lends an interesting "spin" to implications about the doctrine of reincarnation, though in no way takes away from the authority of the teaching (the Law) itself. For, as each person gains in wisdom and understanding of how to conduct their lives within God's Laws (through the "hard knocks" process of learning that goes on from the living of many lives), they also find themselves automatically also gaining in their ability to live those Laws, and in their appreciation and love for those Laws. Thus the choice of the verb "shall" just may have been made carefully — with some amount of intelligent and conscientious appreciation for the dynamics of reincarnation.

Suppression of the doctrine of rein-arnation in the West has served to focus our attention on "now", which is undeniably important. Nevertheless, it also helped confuse our understanding of Scriptures and certainly limits perspectives on Scriptural matters. The principle of reincarnation provides the necessary means to balance the extremes of permissiveness (God gave man free-will to choose) and authoritativeness (God's immutable Laws). To wisely reconcile these seeming opposites requires much experience at living, although the final outcome is not in doubt. God knows us better than we know ourselves. He made us. Eventually, all of us shall follow God's Laws, and love doing so—for we shall find they serve us so well and allow exquisitely for our further growth.

What seemed like an "impossible, authoritarian God", turns out to be a God who is just telling us the way it is! The shall is not only a word of authority, it has the meaning also of inevitability, an inevitability that takes a while to work out!

At this point it is important to mention a most interesting subject having a bearing on any modern discussion of reincarnation. The last thirty to forty years have witnessed the development of the study of near-death experiences. Many, many people have related their stories of passing out of the body during a severe trauma or illness to a newer, freer and warmly loving state. In fact, they were usually reluctant to return to the body after such an experience!

Primarily, these experiencers lost their fear of death in the process. This article is not intended to elaborate on this subject, as there are a number of books on the market which detail the accounts and all the theories of explanation. What is important to our present discussion is to understand that, as both Ceres and Sananda state, there is no death! When the body can no longer sustain physical life, it is dropped! The real life-energy-being goes on. Death is simply a transition from one state of existence to another. The entity goes, euphemistically, to "the other side" until such time as he reincarnates onto this Earth schoolroom again or graduates to other realms.

Thus, the planted teachings and beliefs that would make us fear death (for example, only one life to live and hellfire afterwards) are, without a doubt, clear means of psychologically controlling us through intimidation! This hardly sounds like something that would come from the God who gave us free will and the "space" in which to learn to use it wisely.

Rather, these planted terrifying consequences amplify our own very human fears to the point where we would do anything to soften the consequences of our lives and, of course, prevent our own deaths. And, while we are definitely responsible for our bodies and our lives, our overwhelming fear of death has led us to accept many unacceptable things. This "psychological control" factor is one of the reasons the elite controllers removed the doctrine of reincarnation from the Bible, and have denounced the belief in Eastern religions ever since. There may be other reasons as well, such as artificially creating differences to keep people from understanding and respecting each other. Indeed, it is the Adversary who authors chaos!

Of course, one is responsible for the present life, and there is no getting around the need to learn to follow God's Laws. Thus there is no sense in not making the best use of the precious gift of that present life. Nevertheless, life and lives do continue beyond the present one we are experiencing and it is that larger perspective which provides the foundation and the courage to make good use of every moment of experience...wherever that may be.

Scallion NOT On TV's SIGHTINGS What Do YOU Think That Means?!!

(Editor's note: A little background is needed here to fully appreciate what just happened in terms of the Elite Controllers' power to manipulate our TV programming and their decision to suppress some incredibly important information.

Gordon-Michael Scallion is a truly gifted visionary and geophysical predictor whose monthly EARTH CHANGES REPORT is read by many people around the world. On Page Two of his Issue 18 for March, 1993 — which was written in later February — he said, under the heading MEDIA WATCH—SIGHTINGS PROGRAM: "This month I will be featured on Fox Television's program, SIGHTINGS. When Fox's producer called and asked me to do the show and share my message of Earth changes, I agreed if they could air the show as early as possible, preferably in March, so I could use this opportunity to warn the citizens of California. They were gracious and not only agreed to do it in early March, they also asked if they could present my Future Map of the United States on this show. I could not think of a better way to reach so many California people, as well as informing the nation of these changes. Once again the power of spirit is at work. SIGHTINGS will air this episode on Friday, March 5 or 12."

Well, SIGHTINGS never aired the episode on those promised early-in-the-month dates, nor was it aired on Friday March 19. However — ray of hope — TV GUIDE had it listed for airing, finally, on Friday, March 26. TV GUIDE said, "A report on Gordon-Michael Scallion, who predicts major changes for U.S. cities by the year 2000, including the disappearance of New York, Miami and Chicago." We even include the TV GUIDE page herein for you real doubting Thomases.

I noted the listing for this impending program prominently for THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR readers, on pages 26 and 28 of THE LIBERATOR'S final issue of March 23, where no one interested could miss the information, surrounding Commander Soltec's geophysical article.

So...we sit and wait for Friday night and this incredibly important program. But, come Friday night, as airtime reached each time zone across the country, what was run on SIGHTINGS, instead of Gordon-Michael Scallion, was a repeat of an episode from just a few weeks ago! The Elite Controllers had obviously given some "kill that show" orders, especially after incredibly confirming recent seismic and volcanic events had just transpired earlier in the week. See Soltec's article on page 17 for more on these happenings.

So, knowing our readers would want to know whatever THE TRUTH is that the Elite Controllers are so desperately trying to block, CONTACT asked "Professor" Soltec to comment on this matter and he has enthusiastically taken to the podium for a most comprehensive discussion, below, covering all of the important points of this suppression.

At the end of Soltec's writing is information for you readers interested in acquiring Gordon-Michael Scallion's fine publication and sobering map, as well as information on where to complain to Fox Broadcasting for their empty promises. Go for it! And tell them CONTACT sent you. Who knows, maybe the program will finally get aired if enough of a stink is made!

3/26/93 SOLTEC

Good evening, Toniose present in the Light of Holy God of Creation. We write again this evening in response to that which DID NOT occur, rather than that which did occur, as we find it most interesting that this took place on this date. Was it just one of those strange coincidences, or yet another case of the Elite controlling you ones through your video viewing habits?

That of which I speak is the non-airing of the Gordon-Michael Scallion installment on your television program SIGHTINGS this evening. Your program guide magazines published that this show would be aired on this date. Instead, a re-run of a program on UFOs from just a couple of weeks ago was on. Now, normally, this would go completely overlooked, but in this case, we can only assume that it was pulled from the airing because of the show's content, and geologic occurrences of the past week.

Just yesterday, Thursday, March 25, 1993, an earthquake was experienced in the state of Oregon. This earthquake has even your scientists concerned and confused and, at this time, you can rest assured that they are scurrying around trying to come up with what you will swallow as plausible explanations of this event. Yesterday, California was shaking as well and this week the volcano in the Philippines erupted. These geologic events prompted the network to pull the scheduled program and replace it with something less "suspicious" in nature.

Why would I say suspicious? Well, you see, it is suspicious in nature because Mr. Scallion's material deals strictly with the present and future Earth Changes and some of his visions, as he calls them, are that the Pacific Northwest is awakening, seismically and volcanically. It would have been real difficult for the Elite Controllers to discount these visions with what has occurred this past week and it very well could have had the effect of waking up a great part of the sleeping masses in California, Washington and Oregon. This, as you are well aware, is just not on their agenda.

Had this show aired in the scheduled time slot, there is a very good possibility that you ones would have experienced a great exodus from these Western States, as people shifted into a state of semi-panic. These people have been hearing for years about the "big one" from all different sources; however, had Mr. Scallion's show been aired, and had people viewed the map that he has produced, based upon his visions, and had they been made aware of his time frame for these occurrences, then I would estimate that you would have seen the population in California decrease at an alarming rate over the coming few weeks, especially after the sudden earthquake in Oregon and the shaking of California yesterday, combined with the volcano eruptions across the ocean. There is, after all, a limit as to how much people will ignore before they finally hear and believe THE TRUTH and even the Elite are smart enough to figure out that one.

For those of you who are not aware of Gordon-Michael Scallion's material, I shall give a short overview of what I am speaking about. I would also encourage you to get hold of his material, especially the map, if at all feasible. His predictions of the Earth Changes match and parallel many of those that we have been bringing to you ones for some five and one-half years now. [Again, the Scallion ordering information is at the end of this writing.]

In the March issue of THE EARTH CHANGES REPORT (Scallion's monthly publication), he speaks of Earth Changes in Washington State. In 1991 and 1992 he warned of volcanic activity in the Cascade Mountain Range region of Washington. Now, he is seeing visions of eruptions occurring in March, April or May from an already existing volcanic cone, or cones—Mt. Baker and/or Mt. Rainier. He sees this as a result of the predicted North American plate upheavals causing magma to rise to the surface at the weakest points. (For further verification and confirmation on this, please go back to the final several issues of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, as well as yesterday's writing on this subject [on page 17 of this current publication] and re-read the columns that deal with the tectonic and geologic condition of this area.) He sees volcanic ash in the atmosphere and he sees several thought-to-be dormant volcanoes awakening and erupting IN THIS YEAR and at least one new one being created. He also sees earthquakes throughout the West Coast states and also earthquakes in Colorado, Nevada and Arizona during 1993 in the 6.0 to 7.0 range of magnitude.

He has seen the strange and erratic weather patterns which have been plaguing your globe these past few months and sees high winds, mud slides and extensive flooding, also, in the western part of your country that are yet to come about. Judging from storm build-ups off coast and those which have taken place in the past two days, there is a great potential for these predictions coming to pass as well.

Do you now see why the Elite could not allow this information to be aired at this time? This type of material, in your world, is considered threatening to them, and they will go to any means to divert your attention to other, less volatile subjects. UFOs, at this time, have become a common-place subject, so few of you would have even paid attention to this program. You are meant to remain asleep at the wheel, Chelas, and the un-aired program would have altered that plan.

So, not only was Mr. Scallion dealt a blow, but You-The-People were also dealt what just could turn out to be a deadly blow, if the Elite have their way about things. And believe me, they certainly have every intention of having it their way!

Do not forget, also, that the canceled space shuttle mission of this week has only been postponed [Remember, Soltec has often reminded us to pay attention to the earthquake activity that "just happens to occur" whenever the shuttle is in orbit! and could very well be in orbit during the critical time that Mr. Scallion has predicted for the next month and one-half. For those not familiar with his information on this, he has seen three tremendous earthquakes striking the Western Coast of the United States, with the first of these 8.0+ quakes to occur prior to May 9, 1993. According to his information, this first quake could very well be the one that causes California to break apart and the greater western portion to sink into the sea.

Two armed robbers assume their actions

However, if this event does not take place prior to this date, DO NOT GO BACK TO SLEEP! It is part of the cat-and-mouse games that are being played with you ones. The trick has happened before: allow the "magic date" to go past, which has the effect of discrediting the prediction and, once the slumbering masses have drifted back off to lala land, the Elite strike when it is least expected.

The non-airing of this program was also done in hopes of discrediting this source of information, as well. However, we will just see who finally has the last laugh when all the upheavals are over and done with and final counting is made.

I am not in the habit of advertising for any so-called psychics upon your placement, but Mr. Scallion is a gifted man and, whether he realizes it or not, is offering a great service unto mankind in these times of your history. His work is some of the most accurate information coming from your place and, as we have stated many, many times in the past, it matters not from what source you garner THE TRUTH, for TRUTH is TRUTH is TRUTH and shall stand upon its own merits. There are some upon your globe who are sensitive to "The Knowledge" and are in touch with the Higher Sources. However, you do have just as many charlatans so DISCERNMENT is the order of the day when you begin to deal with such things.

You are entering a time when the doorways to the Higher Source are opening, and from time to time some of you are getting a glimpse through those portals. These experiences shall increase the nearer to the transition you get for it is part of the process. It is time to be open, but be DISCERNING. There are more lies about you than TRUTH and it is up to each of you to discern which is which. This, too, is part of your learning process—a very valuable and important part. And, as with all things, the more you exercise the discerning abilities, the stronger they shall grow.

Let us draw this session to a close. We shall all be watching and waiting to see if that program is ever aired, and if so, when. My, but it is becoming fun, do you not agree?

Toniose to clear. Salu.

Basically just to let you know that we're not sure WHY they didn't show the program last Friday, but they did call us on Thursday to let us know that it would not be aired, and did give an alternate date of April 9. I just wanted to call and leave that message with you. Thank you very much. Goodbye." So, we'll see if SIGHTINGS airs the show on that Friday evening of April 9...and wonder what geologic "events" might be PLANNED before that time!)

Nevada Corporations

CORPORATIONS AND REAL ESTATE

There are many, many advantages today for holding real estate in a Corporation. Corporations allow owners of real estate the attractive features of privacy and asset protection which can make all the difference when that unexpected lawsuit comes up from nowhere or when the IRS decides to make you their next victim for whatever reason (usually they don't need one). What you will find with most large landholders, is that they will never hold property in their own name. If they do, they have not been in the game for very long.

Liability risk should be on the mind of everyone today. It has become common today for a court to say that a motorist, involved in an accident, who has no fault in that accident, can be partially responsible. If an injury occurs on your property the injured party will usually sue the owner of the property. If the owner of that property has other assets in the same name, all of those assets could potentially be lost in the suit.

Lawsuits need to be a concern of everyone today. Real estate held in a corporation can spread out your risk to the point where judgements against you as an individual cannot be easily attached to a corporation, and if a suit comes up against your corporation all that the suing party can go after are those assets held in the corporation's name. This can be some pretty valuable "insulation" in today's greedy, litigation-crazy world.

Privacy is another area where a corporation can provide you with the cover for owning real estate yet remaining hidden. In Nevada your ownership of a corporation can become very hard to determine if you use all of the protection that Nevada allows with their Corporation statutes.

Let's use this story as an example: Three partners were the owners of an apartment complex and the partners were in constant disagreement. One of the partners, with enough financial ability, made an offer to the other two partners to buy them out. The other two partners were being given a very good price for their share, but would not sell because they did not want to sell their share to this third partner; let's just call the problem here "ego differences".

Now, this third partner, being crafty, created a corporation and hired a man to represent it. This unknown corporation then came in and made an offer to all of these partners. The partner-owner of the corporation put on a good show and said that he didn't want to sell out but would if the other partners decided that it was a good deal. This then allowed this partner to buy the complex for about the same price, but without having the ego-locked other two partners know that they had just sold to him!

This same strategy can work for you in your day-to-day life. Isn't it true that people who appear to have a lot of wealth will attract all kind of attention and trouble? This is an unfortunate situation, but it is nonetheless true. Keeping a low profile can make your life much more peaceful.

Real estate held in a corporation keeps the focus off of you and on this unknown corporation. Normally, no one will know who the owner of the corporation is. Just always remember the saying, "I just work here" or, in this case, "I just represent That There Corporation, Inc." and play dumb. It's satisfying and taking this approach really works. You will disappear and this new name will show up.

Many states now have statutes where real estate that is sold is automatically reappraised (like California's Prop. 13).

Well, if a corporation is the owner of the real estate, and you sell your property by selling your shares of stock in that corporation, the deed on the property is never changed. This sale of personal property, not real estate, would never be recorded and therefore...no reappraisal.

Now, if every Californian who has seen his real estate value grow and grow could offer a buyer a corporation for sale, that would be a very nice incentive to pay a higher price. This strategy, of course, has many beneficial implications with the tax system that we won't get into here.

For these and many other reasons, holding real estate in a corporation can be very attractive. By properly structuring what you own, you can save a tremendous amount of grief and financial exposure in the long run. Plan today for the unexpected tomorrow.

From The Supreme Commander Of Project Earth Transition

3/27/93 SANANDA

Greetings, my child. I am Sananda, the one and same that you were taught to call Jesus Christ. Though this is not my name, and never was, labels matter very little for we are all but different patterns of energy and, however you call upon me, when the thought is of that energy pattern by which you know me, I shall answer. I have been known by thousands of titles, and called upon by millions, yet I hear each by the love that is in the heart. I care little about that which is displayed on the outside for it is but the illusion of the experience and the true identity and nature of the individual lies within the spirit of each; I answer the voice that calls from the intent of the heart. There is not one upon the planet whom I cannot hear and speak with for I have the agape love for each and every one, be they man, woman or child; black, white, yellow or red.

THE SUPREME COMMANDER

I now sit in the position as Supreme Commander of this mission, Project Earth Transition, and I serve in this position because I have the responsibility of preserving the remnant from your place who serve the true and Holy God of Light. I come at this time with my Host to complete this most important mission for you are in the time upon Earth that I spoke of so many times in the past, when I was here before, nearly two thousand years ago. I promised then that I would return, and I have kept that promise unto you.

NEW PHASE, NEW DIRECTIONS

The message that I want to bring to you this day is so very important to you ones at this time. You find yourselves having entered a new stage of this mission, now, and new phases bring about new directions. The goal has not changed, yet it is time that you move forward in your own development. You have spent the last several years reaching out from that little location, bringing the remnant together, getting the teachings and the word out to the masses, and you have done well and accomplished much amid the troubles and attacks hurled at you by the Adversary. We told you that you would be victorious, and by all counting, the victory has been won, though at times you may have doubted that it would be so.

There was but one thing that brought you through to this point, and that is FAITH. Without that faith you could not have gone on as you did in the face of adversity for you have struggled against much. Yet, through these struggles, you have grown stronger and much wiser. It was necessary that these things be experienced by you for, without the adversity, you would not have had the fire needed to continue. Many have come and gone from your midst in these past years and for many you still grieve their departing. Yet, you must know that even these experiences have caused each of you to grow and develop wisdom. It has always been the way of man to learn best from that which he has experienced, be it good or bad by standards. Many of you have lost much in the way of material possessions, but even this was necessary for in the loss came greater rewards—not that of greater material things, but greater spiritual awareness and an even greater level of faith in trusting God. For you are learning that there is but one absolute and unchanging thing in the Universe and that is Creator God—always the same, yesterday, today and forever. The cycle is eternal, and you are an integral part of that cycle.

Through these experiences of the past, you have learned that you are responsible for that which you create and that you have the power and ability to create and manifest whatever you desire. Every thought and every word that issues forth from you creates that of which you speak or think. Every desire of the heart shall be made manifest unto you so it is important that each thought be guarded and each word spoken be judged before it is issued forth. For, you see, the judgment comes from self as you create and manifest your own reality about you, and only you have the power over your own destiny.

WHY YOU ARE HERE

Many of you have become very aware of why you are here during this time and that you did the choosing before entering into this present life experience. You knew that you were coming for this exact purpose, just as I knew what my purpose was prior to coming into the life here two thousand years ago. But, just as you, it took several years of that life before I came to a conscious realization of the knowledge. In the same way, many of you have been searching for many years and have now finally had conscious realization of your purpose. Others are still searching, and there are still a small number which shall awaken in their hearts.

Through your religions, you have been taught many falsehoods about my life and about my purpose and about my true identity. One of the purposes of this mission was to bring unto the world the Truth about man's relationship to Creator, and my relationship to the world. The Truth has been told and has been offered to all, without any prejudice whatsoever. A few have heard—more have rejected the Truth. There is great sadness over the number that have chosen to ignore the Truth and continue their journey into the darkness. Yet, it is the path that they have chosen for selves and no one can change their choices save themselves.

So, it is good to grieve for a period of time but then you must take your attention from the dead and attend to the living, for it is these that shall be the remnant that shall be brought through the tribulation and on into the promised glory of the New Earth and into the Age of the Light.

As you grow ever nearer to that Light, you are beginning to see the process of manifestation speeding up. You will find that the law of return is fulfilling in a shorter period of time, and this is because of your approach to that transition. Once into the Light, the manifestation shall be instantaneous. In other words, every thought and every word shall be fulfilled immediately, even before the words or thoughts have been completed. And this process will take place without any effort on your part for it is completely natural for you as you are also a part of the Creation and therefore possess the creative abilities.

CREATIVE THINKING AND LIVING

Now, a large part of your new direction will be the learning process of creative thinking and creative living. As you learn, you will begin to find that the process of manifestation is more natural than you could have ever imagined. But, as with all things, there comes with this a greater degree of responsibility. Remember, to whom much is given, much is required. You are still experiencing in the heavier dimension which is still under the strong influence of the darkness and, for this reason, it can be very seductive to utilize this ability for all the wrong reasons—personal gain, lust, greed and the like. It is also very tempting to utilize the abilities to gain control over others. So, in this manner, you must guard yourself and be ever vigilant, for usurping another's free will is known as witchcraft and this is against the law of God and shall be judged as such. Many of you have, in the past, had this ability before and have misused it. That is why you are here at this time, participating in this mission, and it is part of your personal learning process.

Did I not speak unto you, that all the things that I have done you shall do—and even greater things shall you do because I have gone unto my Father? My precious children, you shall do greater things than what I did in my journey upon Earth for you are experiencing in the greatest of all the ages and you have so many wonderful opportunities before you.

THE WORLD FALLS APART

The world as you know it is about to crumble and fall apart. All your nations are in turmoil and nearly all your leaders are corrupt. Your money is all but worthless, your air and your water are poisoned. You have weapons capable of destroying every bit of life on the planet. Your world is experiencing upheavals of every kind from earthquakes to strange weather anomalies, diseases of the most hideous kinds, wars and famine.

A REMNANT WILL COME THROUGH

And, you were told that all these things would be the precursor to my return and that out of all the masses a remnant would be saved. Many are awaiting my return but shall miss it because they will not believe that I could possibly return in a space ship and will turn away, believing that I am their adversary because of the means of transportation that I offer. This is part of the strong deception that you were warned of. Many have been deceived by those who wanted control over others, and for this they shall have to answer to God for the lives of all those that turn away from me because of the lie shall rest upon their heads.

But let us go forward and continue and complete this mission so that each of you who serve God, Wakan Tanka, may return to your true roots and rejoin your family who await you. It is with deepest honor and love that we hold each and every one of you. Go in love and in peace.

Salu.

Gold, like the sun, which melts wax, but hardens clay, expands GREAT SOULS—and destroys CONFUSED AND SMALL ONES. Gold can be slave OR master. Where in this statement do YOU fit? So be it!

Cort and Jenny have brought joy and "light" into our world in these last few hours. Last evening (instead of supper) they brought forth a fine and beautiful SON. Surprise!! Never underestimate the surprises still allowed unto God!

They speak of the naming, for more sure were they of a feminine label—ah, but they think of "Luke"—be it known that if this be the birthright it is glory for Luke means LIGHT! Blessings are upon the children as they bring forth the servants of God that the tasks may be fulfilled according to the promise of God. God sends forth Himself as

He gifts His children with the promise and fulfillment of "life".

Man is but a reed, the weakest thing in nature, but a thinking reed. It does not need the universe to take up arms to crush him; a vapour, a drop of water, is enough to kill him. But, though the universe should crush him, man would still be nobler than his destroyer, because he knows that he is dying, knows that the universe has got the better of him; the universe knows nothing of that.

All the dignity then consists in thought. You must look to that in order to rise aloft in wisdom; not to space or time which you can never fill. Strive then to think aright; that is the first principle of moral life.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. Blessings rest secure and surrounding to those who hold the LIGHTED WISDOM within and give unto others that glorious allowance of Truth and WORD that confusion enters not lingeringly upon the pathway. Amen.

(Editor's note: Cort is the author of our regular Nevada Corporations column. Any congratulatory wishes can be directed in care of the address listed at the end of his article on page 24. They are now indeed happy, if exhausted, parents of a healthy and lively new son, already with a full head of dark hair, whose full name is Luke Elion Christie.)

Biology's Horrifying Deceit: More On Genetic Engineering

THE LIBRARY OF LIFE

For you who will find much of the writing in this issue of CONTACT a bit elusive and all but without your ability to take within—I feel we should offer this following evidence from something quite Earthly and accepted in your realms of daily observation, Popular Mechanics, May 1991.

The human recipe, or genome, is written in rungs that span the spiraling strands of our DNA's double helix. Each rung, or base pair, may be one of four possible types. These form the 4-letter alphabet of the genome. In all, the genome contains approximately 3 billion base pairs—enough to fill a library of 15,000 200-page books.

An exact duplicate of this entire library is found in every cell of the body, except for reproductive cells and mature red blood cells. Each cell's library is divided into 23 pairs of chromosomes, and each chromosome holds one complete molecule of DNA. The DNA molecules are further divided into genes, of which there are somewhere between 50,000 and 100,000 in the entire genome.

These genes are what concoct the ingredients of a human. Each contains a sequence of up to 2 million base pairs that is the recipe for a protein. When the gene is active, it directs the manufacture of one of these highly complex polymers within a cell. The nature of the proteins determines the nature of the cell. And we are the sum of the cells from which we are built.

Although individual people may seem strikingly different to us, there is actually very little variation within the human genome. The fact that 99.9% of one person's genes are the same as those in any other person is a testament to the overriding similarity of all humans. Yet the differences can be profoundly important. Among the possible consequences of variation are about 4000 genetically related diseases, ranging from arthritis to Alzheimers, color blindness to cancer. [C: GO BACK AND READ THAT AGAIN! SINCE, THEREFORE, THERE IS EVIDENCE RIGHT HERE OF TAMPERING OR ALTERATION FOLLOWING BIRTH PROGRAM. THIS IS WHY GAIANDRIANA (BY THE WAY, THIS IS NOT A TAKEOFF ON ANOTHER SUBSTANCE—THIS "IS" THE NAME OF THAT CELLULAR ENTITY IN POINT) IS VALUABLE—NOT AS ANTIBIOTIC MISINTERPRETATION OR ANYTHING OTHER THAN A NORMALLY OCCURRING SUBSTANCE IN ALL THINGS—BUT AS SUPPLEMENT TO GIVE COMPONENT UNDAMAGED RESTRUCTURING OF A MUTANT OR DAMAGED CELL. WHEN GENES GO AWRY

If we could refer to a correct, indexed copy of the human genome, the process of finding these typos would be greatly simplified. The result would be easier prediction or diagnosis of disease, and eventually treatments that get to the genetic root of the problem.

Without such a reference, the difficulty of finding a defective sequence among the 3 billion base pairs of an afflicted person's genome is staggering. As it stands now, we know where only about 1500 of our genes are located. Thus, there is a mind-boggling amount of material to be sifted through in the search for any abnormality.

Because of this, it has been possible to find the typos to blame for only a handful of illnesses. In each case it has taken years of labor, aided by inspired guesswork. The Human Genome Project seeks to change this once and for all by focusing tens of thousands of man-hours on one massive 3-phase effort.

BREAKING THE CODE

Phase one will have as its goal the completion of what is known as a genetic map. Such maps are based on the fact that sequences of base pairs located near each other tend to be inherited together. For example, people with hemophilia (a disorder that prevents the blood from clotting normally) very often are color-blind as well. Through a rigorous process of observation and inference, such groupings of characteristics can be turned into a sort of map indicating which genes are close to each other and which are far apart.

Built upon the framework of the genetic map will be a more useful index called a physical map. This second phase of the genome project will pick out milestones along the human DNA, state the order in

QUOTING:

BIOLOGY'S BIGGEST GAMBLE

By Abe Dane, Science/Technology Editor

Coiled inside virtually every cell in your body is a gigantic DNA molecule about 5 ft. long and 50 trillionths of an inch wide. Spelled out in the structure of each strand is the recipe for yourself. Without it, you would be nothing more than a soup of commonplace chemicals.

The reason I bring this up now is that our government, along with several others, is getting ready to spend about $3 billion over the next 15 years on the Human Genome Project, an effort to find out every word of what this voluminous molecule says. It's the biggest biology project ever. But if you understand how and why it's being done, you're ahead of a fair number of scientists. [C: I would suggest that you are ahead of ALL the "scientists" who work truly in the scientific arena for and of understanding of life in moral definition. This article is "explanation" of what genes and DNA "are"—not a qualification of some project or another. You must understand the seriousness of that which is now tampered to the absolute ability to reproduce and reprogram MAN HIMSELF. But—the programming and reproduction is NEGATIVE for it is intended to enslave and destroy MAN according to the wishes of the Evil Empire.]

That's not because there aren't good reasons for it, but more because the reasons are veiled by the fast changing complexities of modern molecular biology. So here are the basics you need for a serviceable understanding of the Human Genome Project. [C: No, it is "basically" what "they" WANT YOU TO KNOW AND THINK.]

which they are arranged and say how many base pairs lie between them. Completing the map within the five years allotted will demand considerable advances in biotechnology.

Because a whole molecule of DNA is too big to handle, physical mapping begins by chopping up the molecule with chemical scissors known as restriction enzymes [see Page 30 for all of the illustrations gathered together]. These recognize certain sequences of base pairs, and snip the DNA where they occur. The result is a noodle soup of different-length strands called cosmids. [C: If this doesn't strike terror into your hearts—you didn't read it well.]

The cosmids are sorted by a process called electrophoresis, in which an electric current forces them through a slab of gel. Shorter pieces move farther than longer ones, leaving an arrangement of segments sorted by size. Once measured in this way, cosmids are put back in their original order by matching up the severed ends. At the end of the process, it is clear where along the original strand of DNA all the sequences of the type cut by the restriction enzyme were located. The unknown stretches between these milestones can be shortened by using DNA probes, which seek out sites along the genome that match their own known sequence.

PHASE THREE

With our DNA thus marked off, the actual sequencing of every one of the 3 billion base pairs in the genome can begin. Scheduled for completion in 2005, this phase is the third, final and most technologically demanding of the Human Genome Project. Although current technology is capable of base-pair-by-pair sequencing, it is far too slow and expensive to contemplate for a stretch of material as long as the human genome. Numerous efforts are under way around the world to refine the technology of mapping, sequencing, storing, organizing and accessing the genome's message.

Although the technical challenges are formidable, an even greater threat to the genome project's success is the controversy over ethics. There is great concern that while the genome would be a boon to medicine, it could also do great harm if used improperly. [C: Read it again!] Sometimes, it might serve only to notify people of impending illnesses that they can do nothing about. Worse, if that information falls into the wrong hands, it might lead to discrimination by employers or insurance companies. [C: OH GOD FORBID! It has already fallen into WRONG HANDS—it began and will end the species in the WRONG HANDS. Yes, indeed, IT IS TOO LATE TO CHANGE THE FACTS OF THIS,

FOR WHAT YOU THINK IS UNDER STUDY—IS ALREADY PERFECTED! As we have shown you in other articles—it is DONE, OVER, FINISHED—your choices now are to effort to perfect your own individual and original blueprint. The intent is to produce a totally programmed (programmable) mechanism, destroy the over-population of seemingly living people—and OWN LOCK, STOCK AND BARREL, THE CREATIONS ORIGINALLY OF GOD. REMEMBER: GOD CREATES—MAN AND EVIL USE THAT PERFECT CREATION TO MANIPULATE AND RESTRUCTURE THAT WHICH HAS ALREADY BEEN CREATED—THE PHYSICAL DIMENSION CAN DO NO OTHER. THEREFORE, THE PUPPET-MASTERS MUST SEPARATE MAN PHYSICAL FROM SOUL CONNECTION—AND THAT CAN ONLY BE DONE THROUGH DNA/GENETIC MANIPULATION—LITERALLY, BREEDING “OUT” SOUL CONNECTION.]

The National Institutes of Health [C: TOTALLY evil in concept, production and on-going facade of manipulations.] which has the largest genome budget of any agency, has pledged to spend 5% of it in the coming fiscal year on research into the ethical dimension of the genome. Certainly, the issues are knotty. But proponents of the project respond that abuses can be avoided in the same way as with currently available medical tests. [C: Now doesn't that make you feel all better about it?!]

If ethical safeguards can be established, the odds are good that the human genome will be not only one of the most powerful medical tools ever developed, but also among the most beneficial. [C: And whomever, among you readers, believes it is ethical, I have a fox-pen who plans the safety and security of chickens kept isolated within that same fox-pen. And, furthermore—beneficial to WHOM?? MAY GOD HAVE MERCY!]

END OF QUOTING.

As we move along it would seem so very wonderful to have capability of changing disease into wellness when a child is birthed and bears damaged genetic structure which gives physical mutation or impairment. Would God object to the allowance of beauty instead of deformity—strength instead of weakness? Of course not—but do you believe your greedy controllers of the planet are Godly enough to use these magnificent and insightful gifts ONLY for goodness and healing? Come now, the whole intent of the adversary is control, enslavement and power. Therefore, if the power-brokers can alter a gene which allows perfection—WHO WILL BENEFIT? WILL THE CHILDREN

BEING METHODICALLY DESTROYED IN GHETTOS OF DISEASE BE SALVAGED, OR, THE CHILD OF THE ELITE? IN THIS OVERPOPULATED WORLD WHEREIN THERE IS THE PLANNED ANNIHILATION OF OVER 6 BILLION PEOPLE—DO YOU THINK THE “AVERAGE” CHILD OF A GOD-RESPECTING FAMILY WOULD BE “SAVED”?

IF GENES CAN BE CHANGED FOR BENEFIT—THINK HOW EASY IT IS TO CONSIDER THE WIPING OUT OF MASSIVE NUMBERS OF PEOPLE! Not only is this possible and EASY TO ACCOMPLISH, but is methodically being accomplished already. I am going to offer you another observation through another article shared with us from The Plain Truth with a dateline of September 1990. I will begin by pointing out, in the early reading of this article, some thoughts and perspectives so that you can REALLY READ this material.

QUOTING:

THE GENE HEALERS Curing Inherited Diseases

Medical technology is slowly prying open life's genetic control panel and offering us new weapons in the fight against disease.

[C: Please note as you go along here that regardless of how it may at first “seem”—with only one or two exceptions—the people referred to are Khazarian Zionist New World Order workers.]

In the near future [C: Always means, already done.], doctors may be able to insert new genes into our bodies, replacing defective ones. Medical science hopes to then cure our diseases [C: or create new and incurable ones], not just treat them.

Within a century we may [C: already have, do, are.] have the ability to prevent a wide range of human genetic ailments [C: Or, create new ones which are manipulated.] We might even be able to redesign the genetic inheritances of our children before they are born. [C: !!!]

No one can say if all these things will be possible, of course. But scientists already speak, in general terms, about how they might be done. [C: Don't “bite” on this—it is already perfected and mass cloning underway with fully adult bodies on your streets with programmed enforcers of the manipulations of social, political and medical ramifications upon you unaware species, still individual MAN.]

FIRST GENE THERAPY EXPERIMENT

One example of how far we have come is now occurring.

Committees of experts of the U.S. National Institutes of Health are considering a landmark proposal by Dr. W. French Anderson [C: Name altered over four generations ago.] of the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute and Dr. R. Michael Blaese and their colleagues. The proposal is to treat children who have a severe genetic disease by inserting corrected genes into their blood cells.

Even before this, in May 1989, at the U.S. National Cancer Institute, Dr. Steven A. Rosenberg injected genetically engineered cells into humans. He spliced a foreign gene, taken from a bacterium, into terminally ill cancer patients' white blood cells. [C: I think you get the drift so I won't interrupt to comment—just turn the statements to TRUTH and you will perhaps see what is REALLY taking place here. AIDS viruses were developed EXACTLY IN THIS MANNER—EXACTLY!!]

The gene had no therapeutic powers, however. It was intended to act only as an inert marker. Researchers wanted to track the effectiveness of Dr. Rosenberg's [C: not altered] innovative cancer research and to test whether or not a foreign gene could safely function in the human body.

Many scientists hail such experiments as the beginning of a new era in biomedical research. They say gene splicing and THERAPY will become a solid part of the future physician's arsenal of weapons against disease.

Gene splicing is the creative technique of the genetic revolution. It allows scientists to rearrange, remove and add genetic material.

Scientists already manipulate genes for a wide variety of purposes [C: Can't resist waving the warning flag right here!] They have developed genetically engineered crops and animals, drugs and VACCINES and have identified the genetic causes of a number of hereditary diseases. [C: And, as well, developed more and bigger ones.]

POWER TO PLAY GOD

The possibilities for better health that gene splicing and therapy offer are creating a climate of hope. [C: ???]

In his best-seller, MEGATRENDS, author and futurist John Naisbitt expressed that excitement. He called gene splicing "the most awesome and powerful skill acquired by man since the splitting of the atom".

Molecular biologist Richard Mulligan of the Whitehead Institute for Biomedical Research sums up the potential meaning of gene splicing: "Given the power of modern molecular biology, we can use gene transfer to essentially make a cell do whatever we want it to do." In short, "We can play God in that cell."

Before scientists can treat disease through gene splicing, they must first identify those genes that are defective. They have already found markers or genes responsible for dozens of hereditary diseases. Researchers are also trying to identify genes that may predispose individuals to cancer, alcoholism, arthritis, schizophrenia—AND EVEN CRIMINAL BEHAVIOR.

One example of their spectacular progress occurred in the summer of 1989. A team of Canadian and American researchers found the long-sought genetic flaw responsible for cystic fibrosis. [C: Does this not indicate, likewise, that they have found and manipulate the one that STOPS the allowance of cystic fibrosis—and ALL other disease and genetic malformations????] They had to probe for the gene among three billion base pairs of genetic bits. [C: Do you think they found nothing else while probing those three billion other base pairs?]

It was like "searching for a leaky faucet in a house somewhere in the United States", said one writer. After seven long and tedious years of genetic sleuthing, researchers found the faucet. Those who have cystic fibrosis lack only three of 250,000 individual chemical base pairs that make up the gene.

When scientists pinpoint specific genes such as the one responsible for cystic fibrosis, they open up the way for genetic screening. Carriers of defective genes, newborns and even fetuses can be tested for defective genes.

GENETIC FORETELLING

The power of genetic screening has been applied to a number of diseases. Tay-Sachs syndrome is one example. This fatal disease strikes only Jewish people from Eastern Europe and their descendants. These people throughout the world can now have their blood tested for evidence of the errant gene.

Such carrier and prenatal screening tests have virtually eliminated Tay-Sachs from the United States and Canada.

Similarly, in the Northeast Thames region of London, the number of Indian and Cypriot children with thalassemia, an inherited blood disease, fell by 78 percent after prenatal tests became available in the 1970s.

To spot defective genes for all inherited diseases, researchers believe we must map and sequence our entire genetic makeup—our genome. Biochemist Robert Sinsheimer of the University of California at Santa Barbara defines the human genome as "the complete set of instructions for making a human being".

The goal is to map the position of each of the 50,000 to 100,000 genes contained in the body's 46 chromosomes. To date, researchers have mapped or roughly lo-

calated about 2,000 genes. [C: POOH!]

THE GENOME INITIATIVE

To speed this research, the Office of Human Genome Research was established at the U.S. National Institutes of Health in October 1988. Their task has been called the largest and most important undertaking in the history of biology.

"The objective of the entire initiative," says Victor A. McKusick, of Johns Hopkins University Hospital, "is to create an encyclopedia of the human genome." Many scientists consider the U.S. genome initiative a more monumental effort than both the Manhattan Project, which created the A-bomb, and the Apollo moon-landing program. [C: Indeed!]

Many scientists view the mapping and sequencing of the human genome as a sacred scientific endeavor. Harvard biologist and Nobel Laureate Walter Gilbert says obtaining the human genome blueprint is the "ultimate answer to the commandment 'Know thyself'." [C: Commandment????!?] He calls it the "Holy Grail of biology".

READING OUR GENES

The genome project will allow scientists to identify more and more of the defective genes responsible for the perhaps 4,000 known human genetic diseases.

Eventually, says Mark Guyer of the NIH's Human Genome Office, people might have access to a computer readout of their own genome.

[C: Let me pause here for a moment of comment. Can you not see that THIS is the method of placing the MARK OF THE BEAST, chelas? A tattoo is nothing—you will be marked genetically and therein lies the incredible plight of it all—NO ONE WILL HAVE CHOICES IN THE MATTER—FOR THERE WILL BE MARKING BY INVISIBLE (EXCEPT TO THE "READERS") MEANS THROUGH MYRIADS OF TECHNIQUES.]

Another question which is flooding through from masses of you readers: "But won't the Gaiandrianas simply reperfect the mutant cell structures? No, not unless the many generations of mutations are continued by foreign transplants. By this I mean that "if" there is mutation or damage present—the being would not survive if ALL cells were in mutation. Harken back to the origin of the article prior to this one—there is a "Human Genome" blueprint. This in turn means that EVERY body will have some of the original Human Genome imprint—Giandriana will only work with

DNA: A BLUEPRINT FOR LIFE

THAT cellular structure—not the mutation of alien cell. The perfect “Human” cell, with a working immune system sovereign and individual to EACH production—will overtake the problem cells and actually utilize them for fuel for the perfect (or original) recipe cells.

Won't the “enemy” then be able to pick out the “perfect” unaltered beings? Yes, but it is through the very perfecting process which cannot be prevented fruition that protection comes—for the ADVERSARY will ALSO recognize the HIGHER POWER OF CREATOR AT WORK—THAT MEANS PROTECTION!—FOR WE TOO ARE GIVEN TO READ THE BLUEPRINTS FAR BETTER AND MORE QUICKLY THAN CAN A BUNCH OF DEAD-HEAD SO-CALLED SCIENTISTS. Furthermore, in the rehabilitation of the cellular structures, as the Cosmic rays increase in frequencies—so too will the rehabilitated participants lift the being out of and into a higher functioning environment—which can no longer be easily manipulated by MAN—scientist or otherwise! Now back to the quoted article.]

* * *

Our personal genetic blueprint might be coded like the information in the magnetic strip on the back of a credit card, said one medical newsmagazine.

This would be “a personalized genetic map” with all of our “health ‘land mines’ demarcated”, augurs Dr. Nancy Wexler, president of the Hereditary Disease Foundation.

The ultimate goal is to have accurate diagnostic screens and effective therapies for all diseases with a genetic factor. “Knowing where the gene itself is,” explains Dr. Victor McKusick, “you can walk into it and see what is wrong with the piece of DNA that is causing the disease.”

HOPING FOR GENE THERAPY

Possibilities are staggering. An unexpected breakthrough here and another one there could propel genetic engineering to a new achievement plateau.

The possibility that diseases may be truly prevented, cured and eliminated will continue to drive the genetic revolution. Victims and their families will want new genetic therapies and doctors will try to provide them.

Webster Cavenee, director of Montreal's Ludwig Institute for Cancer Research, reflects the concern doctors have for children suffering from genetic diseases. For example, he says of retinoblastoma, a childhood eye cancer: “[It] is a terrible disease. It's not fair. Those kids don't deserve it.” Dr. Cavenee adds, “Whatever we do, whatever advancements we make, are for them.”

To help such children, scientists are engaged in a war against defective genes. Dr. Philip Leder, head of the department of genetics at the Harvard University Medical School has put it bluntly. “We need to reach in and lay our hands on the gene,” he says.

Doctors are still frustrated when fighting and struggling to remedy diseases. “Drugs and everything else we use today...treat symptoms,” explains Dr. W. French Anderson.

“The only way to get at the basic disease, if the disease stems from a defective gene,” he says, “is to correct the genetic defect.”

MEDICINE'S GOLDEN AGE COMING?

The genetic revolution is one of the most important creators of the hope that disease may be conquered. That's because it allows us to get at what futurist thinker Marilyn Ferguson once called “the control panel of change”. Genetic engineering allows us to manipulate the very blueprint of life—our genetic makeup.

Dr. W. French Anderson calls this ability to engineer our genes the basis of “medicine's third revolution”. [C: Wouldn't you guess, further, it to be the last?] During this revolution, scientists hope diseases will be cured. “Not just treated with blood transfusions, but cured,” Dr. Anderson emphasizes.

Others are equally excited by the promises of genetic revolution. “We are just beginning a golden age of genetics,” said University of California medical geneticist Robert Sparks. Molecular biologist Kenneth Kidd of Yale University calls advances in genetics a medical renaissance.

Scientists, lay people, observers and journalists often speak in hushed tones about the potential of biotechnology.

Pathologist Marc Lappe, in his book Broken Code, said science is acquiring “almost Godlike POWER”. Dr. Lappe foresees a kind of second genesis or creation. During this time the scientific community will gather the “biblical power to shape and control life on earth”. [C: How much more clearly spoken do you need it to be, readers?]

A NEW WORLD TOMORROW?

Howard A. Schneiderman, a senior vice president of research and development at Monsanto Chemicals, argues that genetic engineering may be “the most significant scientific and technological discovery ever made”.

Dr. Schneiderman visualizes an incredible place for genetic engineering in tomorrow's world. “Just try to imagine the earth a thousand years from now,” he asks. Steam power, electric power generation, nuclear power, fusion power, transistors, lasers, robots, microprocessors will all have long become “historical novelties.” However, biotechnology will remain “at the very center of much that we do” in this future society of a millennium from now, Dr. Schneiderman says.

Today, we can only see the faint outlines of what may ultimately be possible. [C: And now, hold your breath for the most astoundingly stupid statement intended to fool you poor unsuspecting children.] As of now, for example, science has not yet devised a way to stop, cure and eradicate AIDS. [C: “THEY” CREATED IT—HOW MANY OF YOU ACTUALLY STILL BELIEVE THERE IS NO TREATMENT AND CURE?]

But in our time there is, at least, progress toward a solution—and hope. Today, the carrot of living a disease-free life dangles alluringly before our eyes as the stick of disease drives us to manipulate our genes.

Parents of children with crippling or fatal genetic diseases look with hopeful reverence at gene therapy as another potential option for themselves or their loved ones. It is an understandable hope borne, perhaps, of desperation—a reaching out for something, anything that will help in the struggle against disease.

Dr. Sheldon Horowitz, a pediatric immunologist at the University of Wisconsin Hospital, has cared for children with genetic diseases. He says, “Parents look at their kids dying, and anything reasonable they would be willing to try.”

MAN AS GENETIC GOD?

[C: FROM HERE ON IN YOU HAD BETTER READ BETWEEN THE LINES VERY, VERY CAREFULLY FOR IT IS NOT EVEN WELL HIDDEN FROM YOU.]

Man is determined he will learn how to recreate the genetic universe and bring it under his own control. It will, of course, be under the considered intent of his ultimate quest for a disease-free world.

That is the most important principle for understanding the genetic revolution. Man is determined to end his helplessness before the sword of disease through the use of his own mind and reason. [C: This is almost too much for even me to wade through in hip-high boots.]

We are now living in an advanced phase of our human attempt to control the physical world. Alvin Toffler, who has had a profound effect on our thinking about social change, wrote: "Our century represents the Great Median Strip running down the center of human history."

We are, indeed, participants in the most crucial turning point of our civilization.

Today, man is the center of all things. Man himself is the new god. He will find a way to solve the problems that beset his race. At least, that is what he must convince himself of.

In 1930, the father of psychoanalysis, Sigmund Freud, observed that man had donned the mantle of the divine. [C: Oh barf!]

Once, humanity endowed wood and stone with its fears, needs and hopes—calling them gods. But in Freud's day, mankind was already bearing its own burden, however unsurely. Freud then looked ahead to our age—the time of the bioengineers he never knew of. [C: This "spokesman" is not even proficient at grammar, much less a fragment of "truth".] He said "unimaginably great advances" would "increase man's likeness to God still more" in the future. How right he was!

FIRST IDOLS, THEN MAN

Let's put this all in proper perspective. Some 3,000 years ago people like us actually believed that some wood and stone, man-made god such as Baal could bring the believers abundant harvests and long and healthy lives.

That was humanity's Option One. It took centuries of suffering for people to have their eyes opened. The gods didn't stop war, famine or disease. [C: HAS MAN?] The gods, after all, were stone dead. [C: And, it makes you wonder about "Man" also, does it not?]

A few hundred years ago, the Western World, realizing this, hit upon Option Two. Humans began to believe they had the solution to their problems inside their brain.

"Science" became a kind of generic term for the best brains—those working to solve our fundamental problems. They became our finest hope for eliminating disease, for example. Our real faith was in man—in his genius and ability. MAN HAD BECOME THE NEW GOD.

THE NEGLECTED OPTION

Hundreds of years from now humans will see themselves differently. They will look at our age and shake their heads in utter amazement in the same way we might at the ancient Baal worshippers. They will wonder how we could possibly have believed that man alone was capable of solving his own problems of disease, of the mind, of the social order, or politics and war.

Why will they feel this way about us? Because they will have Option Three—the healing work of the Creator God of the universe. The real God, not the one fashioned by man's religions and cloned in our image. [C: ANYBODY OUT THERE? SEE HOW CLEVER THE MANIPULATION? IF YOU CAN'T SEE THIS THEN YOU ARE "STONE DEAD"—BETWEEN THE EARS AND THAT'S THE VERY WORST SPOT, CHELAS.]

Today, humanity is hiding from God, though humans are not generally aware of this. For the moment, mankind is not ready to trust in him.

The result is that we are left on our own to devise whatever patchwork solutions we can. The promises of success are hopeful; the risks of failure or mistaken application are sobering.

Whatever the case, the time of an astonishing new awareness is looming for the human race. God intends to reveal himself and put Option Three into operation, saving humans from themselves and their problems.

A new civilization is destined to sweep over planet earth. But it will be the Creator God's way, not man's. In that coming new world, God will give us all the good things the genetic revolution promises—long life and health.

A Message About Little Crow Of The Lakota

3/28/93 #2 CERES 'ATONN

LITTLE CROW

In introduction to the following material and gathering information, please know that we are privileged to have offering of sharing from this brother, Little Crow of the Lakota. "Sioux" is a term foisted off by the "white" man and I do not accept it as valid for title.

From onset of our writings even unto the writing of our first JOURNAL called SIPAPU ODYSSEY we have spoken of that which will be brought forth by Little Crow White Eagle of the Red tribe. This is called THE SACRED HILL WITHIN but has not yet been put to public press for many reasons, but is yet eagerly awaited. This being has not been without work load during these years of interim and so many have asked for sharing that we gladly offer you a partial listing of some teachings and explanations of the Native American culture. These need to be obtained directly from the source shown [Please see pages 33 to 35 for the listing of Little Crow's outstanding informational offerings. We are very pleased to offer this information for your enjoyment from a great teacher of the Native American history of this planet and the Higher Spirit guiding all life. As Little Crow says, "This audio cassette series addresses the basic questions of what it means to live in a way that brings awareness of a greater whole-- a whole outside the self-serving 'me first' attitude of modern life.'] and I ask that all who can do so, please participate—FOR THIS INFORMATIONAL BACKGROUND IS NECESSARY FOR YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF THE EVOLVEMENT OF OUR OWN TRIBES—THE "BIRD" TRIBES (FLYING BROTHERS) OF THE "SILVER CLOUDS COME FROM DISTANT STARS WITH THE WINGED PEOPLE". I need not write more than is offered in the explanation guide given, at this time, for we will later share these visions and "knowing" and it shall indeed be a wondrous revelation of species, source and truth of our heritage and species of Creation.

Pagan? Oh dear chelas, before any "pagan" anything could develop—first had to come the perfection of God's unaltered Truth in Creation. If one becomes "pagan" it is because he comes to walk upon a physical plane of impact by physical senses. "Knowing" and "knowledge" are two very different things—one is an abiding recognition of that WHICH IS—the other is something gained but not necessarily even in Truth. "Knowledge" from "Knowing" is the ultimate test of MAN—in Wisdom and Understanding in TRUTH which IS God.

AHO!

Mitak' Oyas' In

by Little Crow
with Paul Apodaca

Mitak' Oyas' In, in the language of the Lakota people, means "for all our relations." This phrase, used in prayer and in greeting, directs attention away from the self, outward into the world at large. All things are related, and therefore, relatives. This relationship to all things creates a sense of belonging and underlies the four attributes of right living - Wisdom, Bravery, Fortitude, and Generosity. This audio cassette series addresses the basic questions of what it means to live in a way that brings awareness of a greater whole - a whole outside the self-serving "me first" attitude of modern life.

1. THE RED ROAD

This first tape of the series outlines the lifeway as put forth in the Oral Tradition of the Lakota people. The Red Road is the way of good living, the social rules and regulations for being a member of the community. In this discussion, Little Crow and Paul Apodaca discuss how this old way of living still has great validity in the modern world.

2. THE SAME SONG

Is there life after death? Is there death at all? These questions are basic to human thought. From the moment human beings became aware of time, they knew that they would ultimately die. What then? In this tape, Little Crow shows that indigenous people have always believed that there is no death - that life continues on, that all things are essentially spirit, and therefore deathless.

3. INDIAN RELIGION

Are all Indians shamans? Do Indian people all have mysterious powers? Can anyone learn to do magical things by becoming an apprentice? This discussion will show the reality of Indian religion - what it is and what it isn't.

4. SPIRITUALITY

What is Spirit? What is not? Is there a difference? This conversation asks questions which occur to many people. It provides the listener with a good foundation in basic spirituality.

5. STONE MEDICINE

What kinds of stones are magical, and which are not? How did the Indian people come to revere the stones as special agents of the spirit world? Did they do this at all? Find out for yourself.

6. OUR CHILDREN

It is often implied that Indian people raised perfect children, and had perfect parent-child relationships. What is the secret to this success? In a world in which success is measured in dollars, this conversation illustrates the meaning of true wealth - our children.

7. MAKA INA REVISITED

Maka Ina, Mother Earth. We may well wonder how we may come to a feeling of "revisiting" the planet on which all of us have been born. Little Crow shows us how it is that modern people have suddenly become aware that they live on a planet, and that as planetary citizens, all are responsible for the maintenance and care of the living being upon which all life depends.

8. ASSIMILATION: CULTURAL GENOCIDE

The arrival of the Europeans in the New World began a systematic attempt at the removal of the Indian people. Assimilation was the answer - absorb them into the white culture, and rid the world of a useless race. Did the Europeans succeed? You may be surprised at the answer.

9. TRIBALISM IS NOT UNITY

In this segment, Little Crow brings home his message of unity. By addressing the deleterious effects of tribalism as an artificial and divisive concept, he demonstrates the need for a spirit of unity among the diverse Indian Nations.

10. BLINDNESS OF WISDOM

What is the key to Wisdom? Does anyone ever achieve Wisdom? What happens when we believe ourselves to be wise, and lose sight of the most important human attribute? Is the answer here?

11. ZERO TIME

Why do we struggle over the past, holding on to those things which are totally painful? By learning to perceive an inner and an outer reality, we can move forward from any situation just by changing our perspective. Good and bad experience exist only in our attitudes toward them.

12. HEYOKA - MIRRORED REALITIES

Perhaps the most misunderstood concept of Indian cosmology is that of the Heyoka. Seen as merely a Contrary or a clown, the sacredness and sacrifice of the Heyoka is rarely comprehended. This is a rare opportunity to learn the true significance of what it is to be called upon by the Spirit, to give one's life for the people by living in a sacred and very different way.

Latest Incredible Information And Update On C O S M O S

3/28/93 #2 CERES 'ATONN

We are petitioned for update and ongoing information regarding "Cosmos". Yes, we have information—that which was promised by one of the signatories on the OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE which was the point around which the whole subject seemed to rotate. The following shall be HONORED as to content and any who would use this information from this document—are not welcome to do so unless authorized by the writer thereof. I do not wish to elaborate on the subject material offered but will attempt to reprint the letter with only occasional corrections of typographical errors, i.e., inverted letters, spelling, etc. Those will be offered only to facilitate ease of reading.

QUOTING:

This letter and the attached ELEVEN (11) pages, cannot, nor shall they be copied, sold on tape, video, or sold in book or other written form, other than the designated address of the Scrivener and the party to whom this letter is addressed; THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

March 19, 1993 (Received by P.L.: March 19, 1993)

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR

IT IS AMERICA FIRST...ALL THE WAY!

Dear Editor:

"I", V.K. Durham, am one of the 'two signatories' on the OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE which has created such a furor in the past few months. This is a personal letter, not a corporate.

Regarding the OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE, there has been no response from PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON—sad to say...

While waiting, as an INDIVIDUAL, a petition to MS. HILLARY RODHAM CLINTON, a famed and renowned Attorney and legal counsel in her own right, is being presented via the "attached eleven pages" with a request for her assistance, as we all know how busy the President is these days, with all the money problems plaguing the nation and so forth.

That OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE is the only thing left—out of a fortune—a fortune which had been worked for so long, and so damned hard. And, they have tried to steal THE GOLD CERTIFICATE also—it not being in the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, HOWEVER—they are having a damned hard time finding it...anywhere.

I, V.K. Durham, am writing this letter to all the many hundreds of you who wrote of your own problems, problems like my own personal and my Corporations had experienced during the past Administrations of Reagan and the BUSH BOYS CLUB. The U.S. Attorneys over in Los Angeles and San Diego have been wondering what the "BBC" is...It is the "Bush Boys Club"—complete with PARADOX THINKERS who think "NO ONE SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO HAVE THAT MUCH"...so let's KILL THEM AND STEAL WHATEVER THEY HAVE..." So, BUSH BOYS CLUB: "BBC".

My own losses to my personal and corporate holdings have been beyond a reasonable man's comprehension—they were not just my losses, but they were also the losses of: Children who could not afford to go to school (an estate had been formed to provide for their education). It was to provide for the homeless, the ill, the aged, also, and to protect the farmers who were having their lands stolen from the long family-held farms—it was to provide industry and jobs. There was to be an "800" number set up in order for ability of ones to call if a farm was being stolen, etc. The party on the other end of that number would have assisted the caller, paid off the loan which was being "called" due, left the farm in the family and would be repaid at only a very small fee. The grain would be stored, like in the old days, in the granges—to help another unfortunate. This was all planned for the American People. Not only have "I" lost but the AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE LOST. In the above mentioned stored grain—it would be representative of only a very small percentage of a crop.

The Corporations which I held were: Durham International Ltd., Durham International Exploration and Development Ltd., Gemstar Development Ltd., Tamarau Corporation Ltd., Triumph Enterprises Ltd., etc. There were also 13,520 acres of GOLD PROPERTY, which had assays of in excess of $35 TRILLION in reserves. A mill and a refinery was scheduled with a repository and a depository. The major portion of the profits were to be used as I explained earlier—TO RESTORE THE NATION.

Well, I suppose things like this only happen in UTOPIA. U.S. Senator Alan Cranston and the Keating Five boys decided THEY WANTED THE PROPERTY. They went so far as to have the Arizona BLM back-date a law which would not allow mining on the property. I was forced to release (confiscated) 9000 acres—because these crooked politicians wanted the property. The FEDS were contacted and responded: "This is not an area of our jurisdiction." Then, a package containing the assays was sent up to then-President George Bush. Bush was requested to turn the evidence contained in the package over to the U.S. Senate Banking Investigating Committee. GEORGE BUSH WITHHELD EVIDENCE IN A CRIMINAL TRIAL ON THE SAVINGS AND LOAN FIASCO.

The information was forwarded on to Washington to "Bush" and only later did I know that it was George Bush's SON who walked around the table in Phoenix (AZ) and said: "Don't the OLD FOOLS know, we can take ALL the property and not give them a damned thing!?" I suppose it would be a difficult choice to make, the American People taking it in the shorts over some crooked shenanigans my kid was involved in, or handing everything over to the U.S. Senate Banking Investigating Committee—which would be the honorable thing to do—if one were not prone to commit TREASONOUS acts against the PEOPLE.

I am saying to all of you who read this paper: THESE TAXES DID NOT NEED TO BE RAISED. THIS COUNTRY SHOULD NOT HAVE SUFFERED THIS MESS NOR SHOULD "BUSH BOYS CLUB" MEMBERS GO UNTRIED FOR TREASON AGAINST THE AMERICAN PEOPLE! Treason charges were filed in Gonzalez's office but nothing was done—nothing will ever be done—certainly NOT by Bush Boys Club members who sit in our Congress and Senate. They will just keep oppressing the people, ignoring the problem, and the people will suffer.

For the record: The "certificate" REQUIRES TWO SIGNATURES. I refuse to sign anything as long as the American people suffer, as long as there is a contract on my head. It's called EXTORTION and RACKETEERING and it's BEING DONE BY OUR CONGRESSMEN, EX-PRESIDENTS, SENATORS AND THE REST OF THE MUCK WE ELECT IN OUR OFFICES TO CONDUCT OUR AFFAIRS OF NATION IN AND ON OUR BEHALF.

I must apologize if I seem angry—I admit I am angry. I get very angry when I see Americans in the greatest nation in the world trying to sleep in a blizzard, outside in the cold and the elements. Yes, by damned, I get angry! I always think: "There but for the Grace of God go I." The sickness and the sadness is that THERE IS NO NEED FOR THE NATION TO SUFFER AS IT IS.

When you get to Washington, the ideals, principles, good thoughts all go out the window—and they all get caught up in the graft and the corruption. It makes you sick to your stomach just to think about it all.

Perhaps these attached ELEVEN pages addressed to: MS. HILLARY RODHAM CLINTON will pretty well explain what happened to ALL OF US IN AMERICA!

Thanks a million for taking your valuable time to read and hopefully, print, these pages. God bless.

It's America and Americans "First".

LETTER ATTACHED TO
MS. CLINTON

Note: Mrs. Clinton, You and the President are invited to attend a meeting at the Oakdale Village Hall at 2PM on Sunday, March 28, 1993 [C: Today—do you suppose they attended?]. We will be delivering this to "the people". NO "CIA" welcome.

That is OAKDALE, ILLINOIS, MRS. CLINTON—ITS ZIP IS 62268.

COME ON DOWN: IT'S THE FACTS MAM; WE ARE JUST PRESENTING THE FACTS....

March 19, 1993

Hillary Rodham Clinton
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
The White House
Washington, District of Columbia

20001

Re: This is an open letter requesting your assistance, and bounty of 50% on all moneys recovered in these FRAUDS.

Dear Hillary:

You, Bill and Al, all seem like nice enough young people, and seemingly, you "want" to straighten out this country's ills. One would think, if the ills are to be cured, one must first know the "extent of the illness", and it is doubtful that you young ones know what "we older" ones have experienced, or if you understand the depth of what we know—about the WHAT, WHY, WHEN, WHERE AND "WHO" these parties are who are causing the disease which is destroying our nation. WE DO, Mrs. Clinton.

Americans are becoming "wary", Mrs. Clinton. When they try to be Patriotic they are published. When Americans try to do their national "duty" and report criminal acts being perpetrated by the privileged few, politicians and their selected henchmen, they are punished.

The punishment, Mrs. Clinton, begins with putting the name of the individual(s) in the infamous "computer database dump". Then, the discrediting starts; nothing they say is credible or to be believed. Next, Mrs. Clinton, comes the oppression—as they are denied access to the courts and the spirit of the law known as "due process". If they have knowledge which helps the little guy whose property is being stolen under the guise of the 100 year flood plan, only at a later date to be developed by prime developers. They (meaning the ones who try to be good Americans) suffer from "attempted murder" by what is thought to be "auto accidents", then at a later time, in this instance, the insurance companies take over. They use doctors and officers of the court (judges and attorneys) who have used their paid trips over to Palm Springs to play with women who are not and were not their wives and who were then blackmailed by the insurance companies who initially paid for the "little excursions"—to oppress and misuse the law against such a person—who just tried to be a good American.

The plan is under such as the Rico Act, Murder Incorporated, Murder for Hire, collect insurance on unauthorized "Life insurances"—"Kill the old woman" and steal, steal, steal—but at all costs: KEEP A LID ON IT.

All of this is going on, and more, Mrs. Clinton, to a little old lady. They tried to kill me in an "alleged auto accident" in 1983, and continue to date, now using medicine denial to do the dirty work. They forced me into bankruptcy. "Bush" had Judge Goldberg in the court (this was denied). This was, however, all in the bankruptcy. It was "KEEP A LID ON IT" by orders of Bush

Well, guess "WHO" is one of the "signatories" on the OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE? Just the interest due could ELIMINATE THE NATIONAL DEBT and provide stability to the nation. Guess "WHO" is NOT going to sign until this mess is all straightened out! Yep, you guessed it—this "momma".

On the property, I had obtained a $300M IRREVOCABLE Turn Key commitment to a loan, to build a mill and a refinery. There were the same conditions on a $600M loan and on a $200M loan. Then, Mrs. Clinton, there was a $10M turn key commitment to loan which was also irrevocable. Did I obtain the loans? NO. Why? you might ask. Well, it's a story you need to fasten your seat belt for hearing—it goes as follows:

The first commitment to loan came in April of 1988, as is already stated. I was in the middle of "the" auto accident case whereas I was rendered disabled due to injuries sustained. The attorney, a Mr. Jay H. Picking, had been really enthused over the case, being Case 159758 in Riverside County for the State of California—UN-TIL—he was "accidentally" also caught between two semi-trucks. His car was a total loss and he abandoned the case stating: "I am afraid to discuss the case with you even on the telephone," and "At some time, you have to make up your mind, which is more important, the money or your life." (This IS recorded on tape.) The insurance companies are hard at work since there is a $10M "umbrella" policy on the business where I was insured in the event of any "bodily injury" and could no longer support myself. Then, Mrs. Clinton, there was the infamous SAFECO INSURANCE policy, C482687, where I was insured for $1M and also for $500K, which I have never been able to "access", and there was an additional $300K, Workman's Comp" policy—which I have also been UNABLE TO ACCESS.

After Mr. Picking abandoned the case within days of the discovery period of the legal action commencing—leaving me totally naked before the courts—suffering from memory loss, loss of vision, loss of use of the left hand, herniation of the L3-4-5 areas and walking was very difficult—I, Mrs. Clinton, was DENIED legal counsel and forced to represent myself in Case #159758. Mrs. Clinton, denial of counsel for any period of time during the "discovery" period defeats the fairness of EQUAL PROTECTION UNDER THE LAW AND DUE PROCESS. It violates the Constitutional provisions of EQUAL PROTECTION UNDER THE LAW and this is ongoing, Mrs. Clinton.

This "patriotic" American was denied medical attention and overheard a conversation between one doctor and THE attorney: "...leave her alone and the infections will kill her. Anyway, we don't have to worry too much longer." The attorney was the "patriotic" American's business partner who knew of the many "projects" the "patriotic" American had accumulated—and were in process.

One of the projects, Mrs. Clinton, was a 3x3x3 "Bonni Light Crude" sale: 376 millions of barrels per day. The contract was signed and the money was alleged to be in place. The contract was taken under the guise of "power of attorney". The contract was a 1980 contract. A 3x3x3 means: there is a three year contract, then the next three year increments are renegotiable. The contract, Mrs. Clinton, was signed in 1982. Nine (9) years later the OIL is NOT paid for AND nine (9) years later THE SAUDI PRINCE DEMANDS HIS PAYMENT FOR HIS "PRINCELY ALLOTMENT". The "Princely allotment", Mrs. Clinton, is demanded at "Port of Departure", ABU DAUBI, KUWAIT. The Prince demanded his payment—or the PORT—which was responsible for "his" oil. In 1991 he was then sanctioned by the "purchaser" of his Oil—to take KUWAIT. Result? DESERT STORM! The "Prince" was SADDAM HUSSEIN, the "Old Lion of the Desert's" son—ALL BROTHERS.

The Oil, Mrs. Clinton, was purchased by ZAPATA OIL and UNION OIL. Bush attempted to turn Saudi "Brother" against brother. In the meantime, Mrs. Clinton—back at the ranch, so to speak—$650 BILLION American dollars are being used TO BUILD UP SAUDI ARABIA using our own DEFENSE PLANES and other DEFENSE MATERIALS which would normally be used TO DEFEND AMERICA. The Army Corps of Engineers were used and "so on". NONE of the $650 Billion has shown up anywhere other than as a DEFICIT in the American Taxpayer's economy, Mrs. Clinton. Bush had to pay Saddam's brothers for the use of their lands on which to base equipment and to attack Saddam to keep from PAYING him!

Did "I" have a commission coming? I surely did: half a percent on the total sale. Did I get the money? NO. It was divvied up between all of the attorneys. One of whom is an ex-District Attorney of Chicago, representing the first Ward for DALEY—even married Daley's daughter. His offices were: 5210 ONE WORLD Trade Center. It is strange, because the law firm in the offices located at 5210 ONE WORLD TRADE CENTER—ALSO represent the ONASSIS shipping and KUNOKUNDOS Shipping. These WERE USED TO TRANSPORT OIL IN THEIR OIL TANKERS. It is thought that when Christina Onassis discovered HER oil tankers had been used to transport oil WITHOUT her knowledge—she demanded payment. Then she was simply "TERMINATED" when in Argentina.

Something seems very "funny" about all of this, because the attorney who represented the Onassis shipping was an M. Daniels (the "M" represented at times, "Marlene"). Later, a discovery was made that this same M. Daniels is an Israeli representative of ITEC, based in Tel Aviv. This same ITEC is covered by the Citi-Corp Group and the Chase Group. Needless to say, Mrs. Clinton, we have things going on in this country which are SUB-ROSA to the point of being SUBVERSIVE!

I WONDER IF THIS HAD ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE LATEST WORLD TRADE CENTER EVENT?

While all of this was going on, Mrs. Clinton, I had submitted a three month payment on the home I had rented over some 13+ years. By return mail I received an EVICTION NOTICE—this was ALSO right in the middle of this "Discovery" period. ALL of the records were in my home. The insurance companies had accessed Attorney Arthur R. Seidler, one of the Judges Pro-tempore, who had a propensity for jacuzzis, naked women who were NOT his "wife", and having expenses paid by INSURANCE COMPANIES. Seidler pressed the landlord and the landlord evicted me—just as simple as that.

"Now," you ask, "how did he access the Landlord?" Well, Mrs. Clinton, I was held in bondage and as a hostage in my own home from 1983 through October 1987 by a bastard who raped me repeatedly even while I was bleeding from injuries sustained in the auto accident.

This "Officer of the Court", a member of the "Old Boys Network" would come into my home (if I had gone out of the house), shake me violently screaming: "You need Me, you are nothing—do you hear me? Keep it up and I'll see that you starve to death on the God-damned streets! You are mine! Do you hear me? You are MINE!" Then he would scream: "Don't you ever try to match wits with me. I am an Officer of the Court! Who do you think they will believe—you or ME?" This would go on and on and on—it was a living nightmare.

This JUDGE PRO-TEMPORE also was an ex-District Attorney. According to him, and this is a direct quote: "Woodie (meaning Judge Elwood Rich) was out drinking one day, then he decided to drive his car home. On his way home, he hit a kid. The Riverside County Sheriff's Office called me to find out what to do. I drove over, WE cleaned WOODIE up and took him home. The kid was taken to the hospital and no one ever knew who hit the kid."

As it would be, "Woodie" was one of the PRIMARY JUDGES in the Riverside Court. He was also a fishing buddy. He, Bill Mortland, and Micelli, and there were others, but these are the ones I remember him talking about, these fishing trips were paid for by INSURANCE COMPANIES. The fishing trips would be in Alaska and some down in the Baja.

Then, there is a little matter of the "Fishing Camp" down at San Phillippe in the Baja. They had built their own "runway", had their own freezers and so on where they could and would smuggle drugs in the cavities of the fish—which were frozen. They kept them in the Hemet, California Locker up to and into 1987. I don't know what happened after that.

An awful lot of money was spent by these guys. Their BAR bill alone would be in excess of $5,000 a week. This did not include the trips, the "broads" or the extra booze.

What bank did they use? you might ask. Security Pacific Bank, First Interstate Bank, Western Community Bank and Bank of America. These were the "primary" banks. Seidler went from assets of (according to him) $500 to $600 thousand to his reported $30 million—from 1980 when he took my Real Estate Contractual Interference Case on the Franson Property (above) to 1985. In 1985 he was bragging, "Here I am now worth over $30 million dollars and can't even cash a damned check at 'Longs'." Longs was a local drug store we had gone into for my medicines. He wanted to buy a liter of booze and they would not cash his check as he was not a local nor did he have the proper identification they required.

It is interesting to note, from a period of time from Dec. 17, 1980 up through and including July 17, 1984, my Agent's copy of my SAFECO policy C482687 reflected: Bodily injuries, $10M. There was also a provision of 52 weeks in the amendments of the policy which stated: "In the event the injury(s) sustained shall prevent the insured from working in the regular employment for a period of 52 weeks, the injuries shall be deemed permanent"—and so forth. What is so interesting is that AFTER the "52 weeks" the Agent's renewal premium notice drops down to $1M and $500K on the Bodily Injury and is Under an Uninsured provision—of the policy. I think the SOB used a phony power of attorney and cashed in my policy and left me hanging out to dry. SAFECO denies me access to my own policy to recover insurances on my disabilities—and the California Department of Insurance, both present and past administrations—"have no area of jurisdiction". The latest, and which is in violation of their own insurance Code 704—they tell me to "get an attorney".

These "Old Boy Networks" and their buddies in the insurance business have denied me legal counsel. I was ordered to present the case myself and thereby having to settle for far less than the injuries and losses warranted—$52,021.12. Then, when I cashed the damned checks, a STOP PAYMENT ON THE CHECKS WAS ISSUED. SAFECO refused to assist me when apprised that I was without legal counsel and after the "STOP PAYMENT" they say: "You settled without us." Now, there is no way I can access my own insurance.

This goes on and on, deeper and dirtier, Mrs. Clinton. After the "eviction notice" and having pets, I was forced to purchase another house. I tendered an offer on address 24928 Girard Street, San Jacinto, California 92383. The "escrow" and all paper work was on a property in ANOTHER TOWN—with a like address. I took possession two days prior to the closing of escrow on the property in SAN JACINTO, CA.

The court case was going on, escrow was going on, Cranston and Keating were using the Arizona BLM at the same time, to force me to release 9000 acres of the 13,520 I held under "OPTION". It was a mess.

When escrow closed "allegedly", it was on the 17th day of June 1988. Narys Schaefer said, "There was only one document in escrow as 'Paul Ruggeri had thrown a temper tantrum and taken the escrow instruments out of the office.'" I didn't think too much about it as I was up to my fanny in alligators with the undergoing case. It did not dawn on me that they were "DUMMYING" up loans on non-existent properties, using sound-alike names, sound-alike addresses and so on. That didn't ever enter my mind as I was concentrating on my future and the outcome of the Case 159758 in which I had been denied legal counsel.

There I was, running all over to hell-and-gone on the case, depositions were being taken, the counsel for the defense was going through temper tantrums and ordering medical examinations on the same day as depositions and sometimes having TWO depositions on the same day—hundreds of miles apart at time. One deposition was even scheduled on a Sunday. It was run here, run there, copy this, do that—you know how it goes, you being an attorney and all...

During all this confusion, between moving, escrow, doctor's examinations, depositions, etc., the counsel for the defense, in March 1988 ordered by Set No. 3, "Inspection of Documents and Things". OK I hustle my buns, go down and spend approximately $310 at a nickle a page copying approximately 6,200 pages of tax records, bookkeeping records, business records for a period of 10 years prior to the 1988 period of demand of documents and other things—then the B... goes over, wiggles her buns in front of the insurance "Judges"—oh, you know, the OLD BOYS NETWORK, i.e., the OLD BOYS CLUB—and the Judge (Micelli) orders me to release "ORIGINAL" records as "copies do not suffice", in April, 1988.

In later time, it was discovered:

1. The social security records had been erased back to 1978 (exactly 10 years), then scrambled in the prior years.

2. Even though I had applied for my SSAD in April of 1984, the records contained in the computer data base evidenced me as DECEASED in 1989 and then

3. In 1990 we decided to run a credit scan. Seven damned loans showed up: 7 loans on 7 non-existent properties with 7 different spellings of names which alleged to be "me"—each of these 7 packed INSURANCE—LIFE INSURANCE, PROPERTY INSURANCE, BUYERS INSURANCE- -

4. Sound alike names, sound alike social security numbers, etc. I had Social Security No. 364-28-2566 stolen in 1974, just outside Knoxville, Tennessee. This was reported to the FBI, Immigrations and the Knoxville State Police, Evansville, Indiana, City and Indiana State Police.

5. A full set of identification, birth certificate, driver's license, social security card, credit cards—all the usual—

6. In 1974, SSA issued a new Social Security card and number: 364-(3)8-2566.

7. We discovered both of these social security numbers on these 7 phony loans which were being used to mop and launder money by what we discovered were some 22 insurance companies—all with a common denominator and/or set of denominators—UNDERWRITERS.

8. Mrs. Clinton, that home I purchased: as the key was handed over to me outside escrow after I tendered $5,000 to the sellers so that they might close their own escrow (as they were allegedly losing their escrow which was purchasing their own new home)—this was two days before escrow closed on June 17, 1988 (5103-N) at Ramona Escrow Company in Hemet, California.

9. On or about June 21, 1988 I received the "original" deed. It is an "Individual Grant Deed" in Fee Simple—Deed in Libre, Mrs. Clinton—a free, unencumbered INDIVIDUAL GRANT DEED on "my" home...

As both you and I are aware, "IF" there is a mortgage on the property, it must be noticed in the deed, a COPY of the Deed goes to the property owner, the original stays with the mortgage company or bank—after which time the mortgage is paid off and the deed must be redeemed. There is the redemption process whereas the mortgage is then deleted from the BODY of the deed, and the "original deed" is then delivered to the property owner.

In their moments of zest and zeal to steal, mop and launder money, they had so many properties—7 of them to be exact—they slipped up and sent the ORIGINAL "FEE DEED" to me—in LIBRE.

Being involved in the Case 159758, I paid no attention to the deed when I received it. I just stuck it in the cubbyhole of the old Jefferson desk and forgot about it.

I kept waiting for the closing documents, and the payment book. They never came. I waited and I waited and waited some more...

On or about September 1, 1988 I tendered a payment check over to the Riverside office of the "mortgage company". They REFUSED THE TENDER. The payment was made on 24928 Girard Street, San Jacinto, California 92383. (We had filed a Constitutional Homestead, No. 22790, on August 12, 1988 on the 24928 Girard Street, San Jacinto, California 92383 property.)

On or about September 17, 1988, I received a telephone call from this mortgage company and they said: "You must make a payment." I responded: "I am waiting for my payment book." Oh, "We don't give payment books," was the response. "OK," I respond, "what is it going to take to make a full year's payments as the doctors think my daughter has cancer and I will probably be in and out of the state during the year? So, how much will a full year's payments be?" "Approximately [C: Sorry, but right here it gets sticky for she has written $8,532,36. but it seems that perhaps she meant $8,532.36 (or maybe not)—it gets more complicated as you will see.] $8,532(,)36 (would have to look up the check) but the amount is approximate." So I said, "OK, I'll send you a check for a full year's payments of principal and interest and insurance."

The check was tendered for the full year's payments and the amounts were specifically spelled out on the check and in an accompanying letter. THE TENDER WAS REFUSED. The check had been made out as well as the accompanying letter to be applied to: 24928 Girard Street, San Jacinto, California 92382.

You know why they could not accept the checks? They did NOT have such an address in the portfolio! They had another property—one of the 7 OTHERS—and NOT my San Jacinto property. They responded in their "Refusal of Tender: "This is not a non escrow." [C: There is obviously something wrong with this statement as written, also, but I can't clarify.]

Foreclosure procedures began on the 7 "others" and they were sending me the foreclosure notices. My feelings were "go ahead and foreclose" on the other property for mine is in San Jacinto. It should be noticed at this time that I received a title report in 1989 on the property. There is an old deed of record which was to expire in 1990 on the water rights of that property.

In 1989, my Constitutional Homestead, over at 24928 Girard Street in San Jacinto, had been fully reconveyed back to "the sellers" by an instrument No. 318405. There was an existing First Trust Deed on the property when I purchased it and it was NOT paid off as alleged in escrow 5103-N. It was paid off AFTER escrow closed. That First Trust Deed's No. is 330419 for the curious and it was held by Hemet Federal Savings and Loan Corporation.

The fools allowed TWO First Trust Deeds to exist at the same time—while mopping and laundering the money on those other 7 properties.

But! The First Trust Deed which I was trying to pay off, I discovered in January of 1989—WAS NOT MY PROPERTY! IT WAS IN ANOTHER TOWN WITH A SIMILAR SOUNDING ADDRESS—IT DID NOT EXIST.

In 1989, it became necessary for all title instruments to be reaffirmed, re-recorded, Quitclaims, Notice of Death of Joint Tenant, on and on. As the chain of title was "bad" here I was running here and there just trying to save my Constitutional homestead as now the Title company refused to honor the TITLE INSURANCE. They discovered that I had a "Black" investment banker trying to purchase my home for $2,000,000. furnished. "It will be a cold day in hell when a 'damned nigger' buys that property," screamed Bud Whitner and Rich Macalussio of Orange Coast Title.

In 1989, forged and altered instrument No. 250298 was allowed to be recorded ON MY Constitutional homestead by the Riverside County Recorder. When confronted he said, "So what if it's altered and forged!? It's not a legal document—anyone can file anything, so sue me," he said.

In 1990, on January 16, Instrument No. 096503 a Mend of Title was filed on 24928 Girard Street, San Jacinto, California 92383. In that individual grant deed is contained the Constitutional homestead, all the quitclaims, the notice of death of joint Tenant, and so on. The title was mended.

On or about April 9, 1990, a gunman hidden under the window, behind the shrubs of my Constitutional homestead, did attempt to fire a pistol, which he held in his hand—and attempted to MURDER me. Subsequently, I fled to Illinois for my life. There WERE witnesses.

I called my insurance agent, Orvil Dennis, and he said, "I can't get involved. I have been told 'hands off'."

Later discovered; State Farm had allowed the forgers and alterers of Instrument NO. 250298 access to my Homeowner's insurance—and—without my authorization. State Farm told me in writing, "We refuse to pay you for the damages you say you suffered on your home you say you own, as we feel as though you could not have afforded to purchase the home." They paid the VANDALS instead of the Constitutional homesteader—to vandalize and rape the Constitutional homestead.

State Farm was shown all "original" title instruments and they refused to acknowledge the instruments saying, "We don't know, nor have we fully decided WHAT WE ARE GOING TO CHARGE YOU WITH!"

State Farm was apprised that NO homestead shall be sold or ordered sold for less than 90% of its fair market value. If ordered sold and the 90% is not obtained, it shall be put off for another full year then it shall be offered on the market again. If 90% is not obtained then it must wait another full year before going on the market and on and on but the 90% must be obtained or the property cannot, shall not, be sold. The Homestead Act is an Act of Congress adopted by these Mickey Mouse states—who forgot THEY ARE REPUBLICS BOUND TO THE PARENT OF THE UNION.

While I am battling for my insurances and my Constitutional homestead, the water rights are being illegally sold off for an amount in excess of $10 MILLION dollars. And, the County Supervisor's relatives are purchasing this homestead—which has never been assigned, sold or otherwise alienated by ME. Their deed is No. 283474. They allegedly bought my Constitutional homestead on Mend of Title by instrument No. 096503, a duly recorded County Recorder's Records instrument. None of the title instruments contained in that deed have been assigned, alienated or otherwise, by me, the disabled Constitutional homesteader.

By now, Mrs. Clinton, my losses are [C: Can't determine how much]. All insured.

While trying to save my Constitutional homestead, Mrs. Clinton, I was beaten to the ground by persons sent in from the mortgage company and insurance companies who were mopping and laundering money. I was actually physically beaten to the ground. The reports were filed with the Riverside County Sheriff's Department and the Riverside County District Attorney's office, along with the forged and altered documents which had been discovered. "We can find nothing worthy of our pursuit of prosecution," they responded—in writing.

Now, here it is, 1993; I still can't get my Social Security Disability because my records have been wiped from the insurance companies. I am owed $1,282.00 per month since April of 1984—plus the accepted 10% interest, plus the accepted 44% compounding of the compounds of interest on all the money since 1984.

Like "pucky" in the old bucket—they are still hounding me. Now they are attacking my Medicaid. I must take generic medicines instead of the "brand" medicines or Medicaid will not pay for the prescriptions and now as of yesterday, March 18, 1993—they have decided—that a doctor who prescribes the medications must be a "resident" of Illinois. My prescribing doctor knew what was going on with these insurance companies and just before he sold off his business and retired, he made certain my prescriptions were PERMANENT. He was afraid they would inject me with AIDS or something—he was afraid the S.O.B.'s would KILL ME.

Now, Mrs. Clinton, you might say that this is not an issue in which you would be interested—nor is it a "Federal" problem. Yes it is! Any time these crooked courts who are bought off by insurance companies who are attempting to keep from paying just and legal claims to the named insured—and the named insured winds up on SSI and Medicaid when SSA was paid—IT IS A FEDERAL PROBLEM!!

I am asking you for your assistance. I sent some documents to both the President and the Vice President—ask to see them. I need your assistance in obtaining my Social Security Disability and the back monies owed to me. After I obtain that—then the three of you come here; I have information that will save the three of you one hell of a lot of headaches. I know who the snakes are in the U.S. House of Representatives and can prove it.

By a small "coincidence", Mrs. Clinton, I happen to be ONE of the SIGNATORIES on that OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE you kids want and need to bail this nation out of this nightmare we are experiencing as a result of all this fraud. You and the President claim you are seeking an "insurance program". Just come on down—"you ain't seen nothin' yet". But, you have to help me in the resolution of this mess. You will clean up one big mess when this one is cleaned up. Americans will be able to breathe easier. I am not the only American who has gone through this mess of being run off the Federal Constitutional HOMESTEAD and been denied access to their insurances. You kids have a damned mess on your hands—but it can be cleaned up—you just have to know "where the bodies are buried" or, "who is pitching and who is doing the catching". We can help—if you help us get our mess straightened up.

Please respond.

Addition:

It was discovered in 1989 that I was in need of open heart surgery. I had health insurance with State Farm.

After the discovery of the other legal problems in 1990, the policy came due in the summer. State Farm Agent Eugene Raetz accepted a full year's payment, then decided I must "re-apply" with State Farm in Illinois—or be billed the California rates. They cancelled the insurance. I did not have the heart surgery of which they were aware was needed. That is "Health Providers" for you, Mrs. Clinton, BIG TIME, WORLD CLASS "FRAUD".

By the way, State Farm is THE Insurance Company who pays for the Judges and Officers of the court to pinch b...s and t.....s over at Sun Dance Villas in Palm Springs—then they blackmail the Attorneys and Judges. They do this all over Alaska as well as in the Baja—but I only have "pictures" of them in Palm Springs.

The "KEY" is "UNDERWRITERS"...

END OF QUOTING.

Wokini: I am sorry, readers, this was a very, very difficult letter to reconstruct because of the errors in presentation. It was conversational and I am confident that some of the "numbers" may be incorrect.

We do not KNOW this person but have no reason to believe her to be invalid as a source or resource. We present this as follow-up as you have requested. I will say that we having gone through the same "types" of harassment and miserable political and judicial corruption (in the same given area of Southern California), we are quite sure her problems are valid. We don't seem to have an OLD GOLD CERTIFICATE lying about but we recognize the threat to this person—for OBVIOUSLY THERE IS "SOME" REASON THEY WANT TO DESTROY HER, GET THE GOLD (SO THERE MUST BE SOMETHING VALID IN THE STORY), ETC.

She asks for some measure of protection and we do KNOW THIS—when petitioned for help and security—our brothers respond.

We have no further update on the "Cosmos" activities as such—but Dare Schaut is coming under constant and heavy fire for his activities and not the least of them is involved at the EXPENSE of this dear person and those who work with her. I seem to recognize the type of "helper" and "friend" as one, Dare Schaut—I seem to have one of my very own—George Green!

Better Than the Real Thing

Industry serves up the fruits of tomato biotechnology

By DANIEL PENDICK

Pity the supermarket tomato. Pale red and unyielding to the touch, it lacks the vibrant color and luscious flavor of a ripe, fresh-picked fruit. Yet, despite their dissatisfaction with mass-produced tomatoes, U.S. shoppers still buy an impressive 2.8 billion pounds of them every year.

Now, through advances in molecular biology, genetic engineers are gaining more precise control of tomato ripening and its effects on taste, texture, color, and shelf life.

The first of such gene-spliced products is well on its way to market. Genetic engineers from Calgene Fresh, Inc., have created the "Flavr Savr," an alternative to the beleaguered supermarket tomato. This engineered tomato, designed to resist softening, will have the fresh flavor consumers desire and an extended shelf life as well, Calgene contends. If and when federal officials issue a favorable opinion on Calgene's tomato, the Evanston, Ill.-based company will splice its genetically engineered fruit into the human food chain. This could happen as early as next year.

Reaction to the imminent arrival of Flavr Savr on supermarket shelves has varied. To promoters of biotechnology, Calgene's tomato heralds a new cornucopia of genetically engineered fruits and vegetables. Critics of gene-spliced food seem to fear a real-life enactment of the cult science-fiction film "Attack of the Killer Tomatoes."

Consumers may soon have the chance to decide for themselves, however. Several companies besides Calgene have developed their own gene-spliced tomatoes and intend to put them on the market in the next few years.

Much of this tomato tinkering aims at remedying the shortcomings of current tomato-farming practices. Growers of fresh-market tomatoes harvest their crop firm and green so it can be washed, sorted, packed, and shipped without suffering extensive (and expensive) bruising. Before shipping, commercial packers bathe the tomatoes in ethylene gas for several days to spur ripening.

The problem is, says Mark Stowers of the Monsanto Co. in St. Louis, these prematurely plucked and artificially ripened tomatoes just don't have the flavor consumers desire.

From a grower's viewpoint, the ideal mass-production tomato could be left on the vine to build up the sugars and acids critical to fresh taste and aroma, yet remain firm enough to handle without damage. This is exactly what Calgene claims to have done.

Using a technique called antisense genetics, Calgene researchers permanently endowed their tomato with a backward (antisense) copy of the gene for polygalacturonase (PG), a fruit-softening enzyme. Both copies of the gene produce messenger RNA, which carries genetic information from the nucleus to protein-making ribosomes in cells. However, the antisense RNA molecules bind to the normal, "sense" RNA. This prevents the tomato from making the usual amount of PG. As a result, the tomato can remain longer on the vine without getting too soft for handling, says Calgene, and it can also hold up longer in the produce department.

A favorite with home gardeners since 1949, the "Big Boy" hybrid tomato produces meaty, thick-walled fruits weighing up to a pound, says seed developer W. Atlee Burpee & Co. Genetic engineers hope to design tomato varieties for large-scale farming that have more of the flavor, feel, and color of garden-grown fruits.

Antisense genetics is more than just a tool for customizing tomatoes. Scientists have used the technique to discover some very important things about the ripening process, says plant molecular biologist Athanasios Theologis in a review article in the October PLANT CELL.

For example, Theologis and others at the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Plant Gene Expression Center in Albany, Calif., confirmed last year that ethylene is the master control hormone of ripening in many plants. Theologis' group used antisense genetics to cut production of ethylene to such an extent that green tomatoes remained on the vine for as long as five months, ripening only to a pale orange.

Tomatoes and many other plants produce ethylene to control the various biochemical processes that cause fruit to ripen, including the breakdown of chlorophyll, the synthesis of the red pigment lycopene, the buildup of sugars and acids, and the softening of tomato tissue by PG and other enzymes.

Some genetic engineers have chosen ethylene control as a means of tailoring tomato ripening to growers' needs. Monsanto's agricultural research group, for example, has outfitted its tomato with a bacterial gene whose enzyme digests an acid called ACC, the raw material that tomato cells convert into ethylene gas. Stowers, who is business director of Monsanto's tomato project, says that growers current varieties grown for processing. He and his collaborators report the results of their antisense experiments in the JUNE PLANT CELL.

Handa did not set out to build a better tomato. His group used the antisense technique to block the gene for an enzyme called pectin methylesterase (PME) so he could study its role in fruit softening. The high-solids trait, unexpected though welcomed, showed up during standard testing of the harvested fruit.

In tomatoes, PME works in concert with PG to break down pectin, a major cell-wall building block. During ripening, these enzymes slowly soften tomato tissues, leaving them susceptible to bruising and rot.

Currently, Handa does not know exactly why suppressing PME enriches the solids in tomatoes. He suspects, however, that the undigested pectin present in antisense-PME tomatoes becomes part of their solids content.

Handa expects to finish compiling the field-testing data on his high-solids to-for future efforts to ensure freshness through ethylene control.

If these products win consumers over, genetic engineering may generate as much new green stuff for supermarkets as it has on the stock exchange. But given public concern about food purity and past squeamishness about gene splicing, must the biotechnology industry gear up for a major defense of genetically engineered tomatoes?

Consultant Richard A. Herrett, a member of the board of directors of the Association of Biotechnology Companies (ABC) in Washington, D.C., thinks it unlikely that torch-bearing citizens will ever come looking for the Frankentomatoes of the future. On the contrary, Herrett believes consumers will respond positively if the industry makes clear the potential gains in quality and nutrition that genetically engineered foods may offer.

However, Jeremy Rifkin and his Foundation on Economic Trends in Washington, D.C., hope to generate an international boycott of genetically engineered foods. Says Ted Howard, leader of the group's boycott effort, "I really feel this is going to be an extremely hotly contested consumer issue."

W. Alton Burpee & Co.

Commercial tomato growers must pick mostly premature, firm tomatoes so they can be processed and shipped without large losses from bruising or overripening. Unfortunately, these "mature green" fruits don't taste as good as the farm-fresh tomatoes many consumers would like to have year-round.

can leave these ethylene-deprived fruits on the vine for three or four more days — just long enough to build up extra flavor.

In addition to the quest for a better fresh-market tomato, genetic engineers want to carve out a place for themselves in the tomato-processing industry — and the size of this market is impressive. Every year, U.S. processors transform 12 billion pounds of raw tomatoes into juice, sauce, paste, ketchup, and other products. Part of this crop goes into the 315 million cans of Campbell's tomato soup consumed annually in North America.

The best tomato for making these products is high in solids, chiefly the sugars fructose and glucose. And tomato solids are no small potatoes: Indeed, the tomato-processing industry estimates that a 1 percent increase in tomato solids could save $70 million to $80 million a year in processing costs.

Using antisense genetics, Avtar K. Handa of Purdue University in West Lafayette, Ind., serendipitously created a tomato with 10 percent more solids than tomato by year's end. At that point, a private company could begin shepherding the new tomato onto the market, he says.

Genetic engineers continue to search for patentable tomato genes. Researchers at ICI Seeds in Berkshire, England, for example, have isolated 13 tomato genes that affect fruit quality and have patented five, says Simon G. Best of ICI Americas, Inc., in Wilmington, Del.

Other genetically engineered crops will follow, Best promises. "Tomatoes are just the first crop, from which we've identified a lot of genes that have other uses in crops with related biochemistry," he says. ICI may eventually use its patented genes and techniques to create new kinds of peaches and melons.

DNA Plant Technology Corp., another company developing a genetically engineered tomato, also plans to deploy its gene-control techniques further afield. Robert Whitaker, managing director of research at the company's facility in Cinnaminson, N.J., envisions bananas, papaya, and cut flowers as logical targets

Although the Foundation on Economic Trends continues to demand additional regulation, recent changes in government policy have moved increasingly toward deregulation of agricultural biotechnology companies in the United States. For example, USDA last month significantly loosened restrictions on field testing of genetically altered plants.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is considering whether Flavr Savr should be treated the same as tomatoes produced by traditional breeding methods and whether the antisense gene added to the tomato poses any health risks, explains Eric Flamm in the FDA's Office of Biotechnology.

Andrew Kimbrell, attorney for the Foundation on Economic Trends, has already decided on one response to a favorable FDA ruling. "The minute FDA rules that this food does not need to be labeled, we will sue them," Kimbrell promises.

Should the FDA decide in Caigene's favor, the Flavr Savr tomato will take its place on grocery shelves and in history as the first genetically engineered whole-food product available to the consumer. Considering the hundreds of genetically engineered crops now in field trials, however, it will not be the last.

Even so, it is not clear yet that people's yearning for a better mass-produced tomato will translate smoothly into widespread acceptance of genetically engineered foods. In the end, gene-spiced tomatoes may prove as ripe for controversy as the technology that is creating them.

FAXCOM TRANSMITTAL

March 29, 1993

TO: US President Bill Clinton
US Attorney General Janet Reno
US FBI Director William Sessions
US BATF Director Steven Higgins

FROM: John R. Prukop, National Press Secretary

RE: WACO, TEXAS FEDERAL SIEGE AT THE BRANCH DAVIDIAN CHURCH COMPLEX

Dear Mr. President, Ms. Reno, and Messrs. Sessions and Higgins:

It is with a deep sense of reverence and urgency that I have the Honor of sending this transmittal to your good offices. As former National Press Secretary for the Bo Gritz For President Campaign 1992, I have been delegated the responsibility to call upon all of you to seriously consider a message from Lt. Col. (Ret.) James Bo Gritz.

The enclosed FAX represents a genuine offer to immediately arbitrate the serious and grievous situation that has occurred in Waco, Texas. As you will recall, Col. Gritz successfully negotiated with Randy Weaver in Northern Idaho this past summer which immediately brought to an end any further bloodshed. In that Federal siege, a mother of four, Vicki Weaver was shot and killed by a Federal sniper's .308 caliber exploding hollow point bullet that blew away the left side of her face into a bloody pulp; her 13-year old son Sammy Weaver was shot and killed by at least four rounds in the back from automatic weapons fire from six US Marshal's who had just before this, shot and killed his dog; Kevin Harris was seriously wounded by fragments of the .308 bullet that struck Vicki Weaver; Randy Weaver was wounded; and, a highly decorated US Marshal was shot and killed, perhaps, by friendly fire in the foray. Hopefully the American People will learn the truth of what really happened when the Weaver trial begins in April. In the meantime, we believe it is the paramount sworn duty of our public servants to seek a peaceful resolution to the events that have occurred in Waco, Texas - Federal Siege Number 2.

Mr. President, we urgently request that you seek the expertise of Col. Gritz to mitigate and bring to a peaceful end the Federal Siege in Waco, Texas, as offered in the attached two page memorandum. Col. Gritz is prepared to leave for Waco at his own expense, and on immediate notice, as soon as authorized to do so.

Constitutionally yours,

John R. Prukop
National Press Secretary

RE: Waco Standoff

Str:

The last time I sent a message to the President was exactly 12 years ago. That communication, while Top Secret (Special Intelligence) also concerned persons being held (U.S. POWs at Nhommarath, Laos). The memo, received by NSC Advisor Richard Allen, ended up with Al Haig as the President was almost assassinated in Washington, D.C. I wish you, our nation and the subject of this letter far better health and success than resulted from my March, 30 1981 note.

Here is a sketch of qualification for the what is being offered. I effectively commanded Special Operational Detachments (USASF A,B,C) both in war and peace (mentioned by General W.C. Westmoreland as "The American Soldier" in his book, A SOLDIER REPORTS); successfully served in responsible positions on the Army General Staff (Chief, Special Activities OCINFO) and within the Office of the Secretary of Defense (Chief, Congressional Relations, OSD-DSAA); completed a Bachelor of Law Enforcement & Corrections (University of Nebraska) and Master of Communications degree (The American University); received more votes than any independent candidate, other than Ross Perot, in the '92 Presidential election; moreover, I performed a key role to conclude the Randy Weaver (BATF/religious) siege in Northern Idaho, August 1992 (After getting through the bureaucratic thicker). Additionally, I was raised in Oklahoma Pentecostal churches and have a sensitivity for fundamentalist beliefs.

I believe that the Waco situation can be brought to a speedy non-violent conclusion if I am allowed to act directly as an "arbitrator" for justice. I know and have worked with Dick Rogers, FBI Hostage Rescue Team Leader, and the official negotiators. I am concerned that further loss of life may transpire if the siege drags on. Fred and the other federal negotiators are certainly well trained, but their parochial position only serves to polarize an ever grave situation between them and those in the compound.

Gene Glenn, FBI agent in charge of the Weaver site will agree, I believe, with this offer and has already recommended my course of action twice since the Waco mess began! Unfortunately, legions of gate keepers seem to separate decision makers from those who are not only willing, but capable of helping. I again extend my prayers and tender of service for a swift and safe end to the unfortunate debacle at the Branch Dividian outside of Waco.

As known by Gene Glenn, my proposal is at no cost to the government (except my boy scout troop received a dozen FBI caps after Weaver incident) and at recognized personal risk. Considering your concern for cost cutting, it seems that this counsel should have already been acted upon weeks ago when federal mediators lost and failed to regain the initiative. I can be reached at (702) 723-5266, or by FAX at (702) 723-5357.

I regret copying this personal suggestion to the media entities, but as a common citizen, it is about the only way we have to improve the odds that you, or responsible representatives may learn of our views. Please give my suggestion fair consideration. It seems we don't have a Marshal Matt Dillon anymore and I don't know what ever happen to Randolph Scott, but I am willing to do as much and more in the interest of justice as they would, if they were still around.

Sincerely and Most Respectfully, Ready to Serve.

P.S. I can't help but add this thought concerning an even bigger problem, our debt. Restore Constitutional currency. Reflect on our 7th President, "Old Hickory. Get rid of the compound interest paid on all Federal Reserve Notes. Stop the give away. Allow people to keep what they make. Revive the free enterprise incentives secured by our Founders. Serve us instead of making serfs of us! God be with you. We are all counting on your leadership to keep America solvent and sovereign!

RE : WACO, SIEGE and IRATEGATE SCANDAL

PRESIDENT CLINTON SEEKS "NO MORE BLOODSHED" AT THE WACO, TEXAS SIEGE DUE TO PRESSURE FROM THE IRATEGATE. LAWSUIT FILED IN DALLAS FEDERAL COURT MARCH 1, 1993, NO. 3-93CV0440-X (JUDGE KENDALL). DEFENDANTS INCLUDE THE IRAN CONTRA SPECIAL GRAND JURY, INSLAW SCANDAL LEADER MICHAEL RICONOSCIUTO, AND RUBY CREEK VICTIM RANDALL WEAVER. ONE PURPOSE OF THE LAWSUIT IS TO DEMONSTRATE WHY WHY WHY SO MANY MILITARIZED POLICE APPEARED IN THE RUBY CREEK, IDAHO SIEGE LATE AUGUST 1992, AS WELL AS WHY SO MANY APPEARED IN THE WACO, TEXAS SIEGE. THE MAIN PURPOSE OF THE SUIT IS TO BRING THE MOST IMPORTANT SIEGE AND GRAND JURY TAMPERMENT CASES IN THE COUNTRY TO THE TEXAS FEDERAL GRAND JURIES. THE LAWSUIT INCLUDES EVIDENCE PROVIDED BY WHITE COLLAR CRIME INVESTIGATORS ERIC LIGHTER AND LT. COL. (RET.) JOHN SALTER, AND JURY SELECTOR AND ADVISOR NANCY LEROSA. THE EVIDENCE IS SO INTENSE THAT NUMEROUS PEOPLE DIED AT THE HANDS OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE GOVERNMENT'S ATTEMPT TO PREVENT THE EVIDENCE FROM BEING PUBLISHED; THEREFORE THE EVIDENCE HAS BEEN FILED IN PUBLIC RECORD IN THE DALLAS FEDERAL SUIT AND IS BEFORE THE FEDERAL GRAND JURIES THERE. THIS IS EVIDENCE THAT EMPIRICALLY PROVIDES NAMES, DATES, PLACES, SECRET BANK ACCOUNT NUMBERS, MURDER VICTIMS AND DETAILS, ETC. OF THE MALICIOUS GOVERNMENT WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT. LEROSA AND LIGHTER JUST OBTAINED FROM ARIZONA DR. MICHAEL BRADLEY THE VIDEO DEMONSTRATING THE ANTIDOTE TO THE NEW WORLD ORDER POISONS AND CHEMICAL WARFARE, WHICH VIDEO (AND TRANSCRIPT) WILL BE FILED WITH THE TEXAS GRAND JURIES; ACCORDING TO THE DAVIDIAN CHURCH MORSE CODE, THE WACO, TEXAS SIEGE VICTIMS ARE BEING POISONED BY THE BATE/FBI. THE SUIT CONFIRMS THE AUGUST 1992 RUBY CREEK CITIZEN'S ARREST OF FBI DIRECTOR WILLIAM SESSIONS, WHICH APPEARS TO BE WHY SESSIONS IS NOW FINALLY ACTUALLY BEING SQUEEZED INTO EARLY RETIREMENT. CONSTITUTION COALITION AND ITS FOUNDER ERIC LIGHTER HAVE LEGITIMATELY ALSO BROUGHT THE IRATEGATE CASE--WHICH INCLUDES THE WACO, TEXAS SIEGE SCANDAL--BEFORE CONGRESS WITH AUTHENTIC STANDING AS CONGRESSIONAL WITNESSES. CONSTITUTION COALITION CAUSED THE IRS COMMISSIONER TO RESIGN, AND TRIGGERED THE IRAN CONTRA INDICTMENTS OF TOP CIA BUREAUCRATS. THIS IRATEGATE SUIT FORCED DUSH INTO GRANTING THE IRAN CONTRA PARDONS IN ORDER TO FORCE CLINTON TO ADDRESS THE IRATEGATE ISSUES AND EVIDENCE. THAT EVIDENCE HAS NOW CAUSED THE WHITE HOUSE TO STOP THE BLOODSHED AT WACO, TEXAS AS EARLIER, REPEATEDLY ASKED FOR ON NATIONAL RADIO BY LEROSA. CONSTITUTION COALITION IS STILL WAITING FOR A RESPONSE TO ENTER THE CHURCH COMPLEX TO BRING MEDICAL AND OTHER RELIEF. A PROGRAM FIRST ORGANIZED BY CONSTITUTION COALITION; AS FORMAL EFFORTS TO MEDIATE REEL CONTINUE. CONSTITUTION COALITION CONGRATULATES THE COURAGEOUS SIEGE CONTROL TEAM (SCT) MEMBERS WHO HAVE RISKED SO MUCH. THE GRAND JURIES IN ARIZONA AND STATES NATIONWIDE ARE ALSO BEING ACCELERATED INTO US CONSTITUTIONAL FIFTH AMENDMENT PRESENTMENT ACTION. PATRIOTS, TELL THE BATE, FBI, ETC. THAT THEY STILL CONTINUE TO HAVE PERSONAL LIABILITY BEFORE THE FEDERAL GRAND JURIES NOW SCRUTINIZING THEIR ACTIONS, WHETHER UNDER ORDERS OR OTHERWISE.

WACO: TIME FOR THE MILITIA

Yes, I've put my name on this paper, and I'm proud of it. Who am I? Nobody special, just a dime-a-dozen lawyer. But I know the legal "justice" system and our government are corrupt, worse than you can ever imagine. And I know that we are headed toward martial law in this country, soon, unless we do something about it now.

It doesn't get much worse than U.S. Army tanks circling the front yard of your house, like David Koresh has right now at his home in Waco, Texas, for supposed "crimes" the government won't reveal. It isn't a crime in this country to be a religious "whacko" or to own guns (yet), but 27 days ago, armed federal agents broke in on David Koresh's home, throwing concussion grenades at the door and shooting men, women and children. Ever since, David Koresh and 75 other people have been tortured and deprived of all communication, food, and even legal assistance, as the FBI and BATF, armed with machine guns, and military tanks circle the house. The media is kept 4 miles away. The Waco federal court has denied every application for assistance, sealed the original search warrants, and is even holding arraignments in secret. The only story we hear is the story the media gets that comes straight from an FBI press briefing each day at 10:30 a.m., period. But the government claims all this is okay because he's a "religious nut" and "was stockpiling weapons."

Well, it's not okay - David Koresh and every other member of the Branch Davidians is a citizen. Even a prisoner of war would deserve to be treated humanely. We simply must take a stand now. There is no other choice, except to be slaves, living in fear of our own government.

You are probably already a member of the militia¹ and even if you are not, please JOIN US!

The Unorganized Militia of the United States of America¹ will assemble², with long arms, vehicles (including tracked and armored), aircraft, and any available gear, for inspection for fitness and use in a well-regulated militia,³ at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 3, 1993, on Northcrest Drive, off I-35, going east on Northcrest Drive off the interstate in Waco, Texas.

If you are afraid to go, ask yourself, "Why? Why should any citizen be afraid of his own government?" Whatever your answer is, that is exactly why you should go! If you really can't go, please send money to help others go and to buy equipment for the militia.

This Certified letter, from two elderly local people George had been seducing into his web, was just returned to them UNCLAIMED. Commander thought this publicly-revealing route might be a way to get through to tricky George. How did George know this wasn't a monetary "donation" or a normal business letter? Could it be that George knew exactly what flavor of deceit he has been furiously promoting and that he might not slick-talk his way out of this one?)

All About Electricity

by Keith Waterhouse,
British novelist

Reprinted from the January issue of The Toledo IEEE News,
Russ Kinner, editor

Most electricity is manufactured in power stations, where it is fed into wires that are then wound around large drums. Some electricity, however, does not need to go along wires: that used in lightning, for example, and in portable radios. This kind of electricity is not generated, but is lying about in the air, loose.

Electricity makes a low, humming noise. This noise may be pitched at different levels for use in doorbells, telephones and electric organs. Electricity has to be grounded. That is to say, it has to be connected to the ground before it can function, except in the case of airplanes which have separate arrangements.

Although electricity does not leak out of an empty light socket, that light socket is nevertheless live if you happen to shove your finger in it when the switch is on. So, if it is not leaking, what is it doing?

Electricity is made up of two ingredients, negative and positive. Each ingredient travels along a wire covered with black plastic. When the two wires meet in what we call a plug, the ingredients are mixed together to form electricity. Electricity can be stored in batteries. Big batteries do not necessarily hold more electricity than small batteries. In big batteries the electricity is just shoveled in, while in small batteries (transistors) it is packed flat.

Incurious people are content to take all this for granted. They press a switch and the light comes on—and that is all they know about the miracle in their homes. This has never been enough for me. I have to know how things work; and if I cannot find out from some technical handbook, then I combine such information as I already have with simple logic.

Thus it is easy to deduce that the light switch controls a small clamp or vice that grips the wire very hard, so that the electricity cannot get through. When the switch is switched on, the vise is relaxed and the electricity travels to the light bulb where a bit of wire, called the element, is left bare. Here, for the first time, we can actually see the electricity, in the form of a spark. This spark is enlarged many hundreds of times by the curved bulb, which is made of magnifying glass.

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well!

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, Aquagaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

Aquagaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of Aquagaia, with its assimilable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA AND AQUAGAIA:

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

Aquagaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male/female DNA structure which release many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take-out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery following infection by other viruses than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms. If you really want to witness remarkable growth in plants and good stamina and health in pets and other animals—try a little of these additives as you would vitamins or fertilizers. Use in a mildly vitamin C based solution on same. At transplant time for garden plants and houseplants—soak their little root systems in this natural and mild solution. Just add a tablespoon of Gaiandriana, a few drops of liquid vitamin C or C-crystals to a quart of water and let set for 48 hours—then it is ready for use. It will not negatively interact with anything other than perhaps harbored viruses and disease spores and organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor—it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and Aquagaia, together for storage as the Aquagaia (mitochondria) is aggressive and begins to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. They go about their appointed tasks once ingested, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the Aquagaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is begun and maintenance is followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health.

Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, the metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes, and thus the cells themselves. The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as hardening of the arteries.

One area of Aging Research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being byproducts of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we also generate significant levels of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and beta-carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glytathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents, alone and in combination.

GINKGO BILOBA

(Ginkgo Biloba extract 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba, or Maidenhair tree, is one of the oldest living species on this planet. Ginkgo has flourished almost unchanged for 150 million years, and its ancestors can be traced back 250 million years. It is because of this antiquity that the Ginkgo Biloba tree is called "the living fossil". Individual trees are believed capable of living 2000 to 4000 years. During the last ice age, Ginkgos nearly became extinct. These trees survived only in China and other parts of Asia, where they stayed until approximately 1,000 years ago. At that time, Ginkgo trees were also planted around monasteries in Japan, where they still live today.

The name Ginkgo may come from the Chinese Sankyo or Yinkuo (Yin Guo), meaning "hill apricot" or "silver fruit". The word biloba means "two lobes" and describes the young leaves. Although modern medical research focuses mainly on the leaves of Ginkgo, the Ginkgo fruits and nuts have been used in China since time immemorial as a delicacy and tonic food. Ancient Chinese texts record Ginkgo's use as a medicinal agent as far back as five thousand years ago.

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

MO-GU ELIXIR

The first recorded use of Mo-Gu Elixir was during the Chinese Tsin-Dynasty in 221 B.C. It was referred to as "The Remedy for Immortality" or "The Divine Tsche".

It has been well documented that there are certain people who live to be well past a hundred years of age. These people live in such areas as the mountainous Caucasus, Yakutia in Siberia, the Poltava District of the Ukraine, Tibet and Spain. There is an area in Russia called Kargasok where the people are a dairy- and vegetable-eating populace. Centenarians are common among these people. They attribute their longevity to the Yeast Enzyme Tea (Mo-Gu Elixir) which has been in their diet for hundreds of years. It is said that Mo-Gu and yak butter are staples among the dwellers of the high Himalayas.

Mo-Gu has been used throughout history in China, Japan, Russia, Korea, and India. It has been said to promote a feeling of well-being and overall physical restoration. It has been known by many names, some of which are: Fungus Japonicus, Fungojapon Kombucha, Pichia Fermentans, Cembuya Orientalis, Combuchu Tschambucco, Volga-Spring, Champignon de Longue Vie, Teekwass, Kwassan, and Kargasok.

The Mo-Gu fungus constructs in a membrane form and is a symbiosis of yeast cells and different bacteria. Among these bacteria are: Bacterium Xylinum, Bacterium Gluconicum, Acetobacter Ketogenum, and Pichia Fermentans.

The Mo-Gu fungus needs to live in a solution composed of common (black) tea and sugar. In the proper temperature environment they multiply constantly. They do not build spores as yeast normally does, but instead multiply by a process of branching.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a single-celled, fresh-water algae. Believed to be the first form of life with a true nucleus, chlorella dates back approximately 2.5 billion years, making it pre-Cambrian. Through the process of photosynthesis chlorella cells reproduce themselves by cell division at the rate of four new cells every 17-24 hours. It was not until the 1890s that chlorella was identified under the microscope. In naming it, the prefix chlor was selected to signify green, while the suffix ella, indicates small. Chlorella is the most researched algae in the world and remains the most popular with millions of consumers worldwide.

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: Vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll a, chlorophyll b, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.

ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS with American Ginseng

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia). The genus name is derived from the Greek echinos, (hedgehog or sea urchin) referring to the prickly scales of the dried seed head. Echinacea was widely used medicinally among Native Americans, particularly in the Plains. It is a product which is now used widely throughout United States and Europe.

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin/complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is generally placed in the buttercup family. The name Goldenseal was adopted in 1880, previously having been known as Yellow Root. Goldenseal was widely used among the Native American population, particularly among those in the East. The Cherokee used the roots as a wash for local inflammations, for general debility, dyspepsia and to improve appetite. The Iroquois used it for whooping cough, diarrhea, liver trouble, fever, sour stomach, flatulence, and pneumonia. Benjamin Smith Barton first referred to the use of Goldenseal for rattlesnake bites as early as 1793. Clinical recognition of the use of Goldenseal came in the early 1850s and has continued to this very day.

Goldenseal is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Ginseng can be literally translated from Chinese as "the essence of man" or "man-shaped precious root." Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.

References to the use of Reishi in the treatment of a variety of complaints date back as far as 2700 B.C. in Chinese literature. It is referred to by a number of names, including the "ten thousand year mushroom". The rarity of this particular mushroom has increased its value. The Chinese emperor Shih Huang Ti (250-210 B.C.) mounted expeditions of hundreds, even thousands of men to find the Reishi. Recently techniques have been developed for the cultivation and harvesting of the Reishi Mycelium. Writings about Reishi place it in the category of "fu zheng" herbs and claim it is a medicine that improves the ability of the body to maintain balance by strengthening natural resistance and generally improving health.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
