Israeli actions prove Zionism is Racism

12/18/91 #2 HATONN

I believe as we finish this segment of discussion regarding Zionism, Racism, Holocaust, etc., that this portion will close the JOURNAL so that the volume does not get too unwieldy.

I cannot leave the subject without a discussion regarding this Zionism as a form of racism and the retraction of the UN resolution regarding same. As you can see, the resolution withdrawal came at the most convenient time while there are already major problems in the Peace talks and the Israelis are flowing into more and more lands of Palestine--deliberately--to shut-down the talks.

Since most of you do not understand the original condemnation and WHY Zionism was proclaimed a form of racism I think I should give you some pictures of the situation. I also take the opportunity to again tell you that Zionism is not Judaism. Zionism is a political PARTY in which the participants only use "God" as an excuse to get the physical property of others. They are without "God" and denounce Christ and behavior as to Christ-ethics.

Do you believe that to now say Zionism is not racism will make an iota of difference? It could have some positive effects if, in fact, the whole of the U.N. were not under total control--i.e., Israel would have to stand responsible as do other nations for their actions instead of crying and whining abuse because of racism and bigotry. Don't, however, count on it happening in fact. The Zionists have total control of your Government so it is highly unlikely that anything will change for by having control of your Government also means control from the U.S. segment of the UN.

So what are we talking about? In 1975, the United Nations General Assembly voted overwhelmingly in favor of a resolution which condemned Zionism as a form of racism. Since that time, the U.S., British, and Israeli governments, among others, have frequently denounced the resolution as outrageous and anti-Semitic. However, the truth of that resolution is proven by the system of harsh apartheid imposed on the Palestinians in the Occupied Territories.

For Example, Jews living on the West Bank pay 30 cents for a cubic meter of water (264 gallons). Palestinians living on the West Bank must pay $1.10. Palestinians living in the Occupied Territories are forbidden to dig new wells or deepen existing ones, whereas Jews have no such restrictions. For such reasons, only 6 percent of Palestinian land is irrigated, contrasted to 69 percent of Jewish land. Average annual water use per capita for Jews is 170 cubic meters (44,880 gallons). Arabs receive only 25 cubic meters (6,600 gallons--18 gallons per day) per capita, which is below the level the UN has determined as necessary to maintain minimum health standards.

That Zionism is a form of racism can be shown by examining information in the public domain. This includes statistics compiled by the Israeli Ministries of Agriculture and Housing, the Israeli Central Bureau of Statistics, and the Civil Administration, the entity which oversees the Occupied Territories. These data have been broadly published and analyzed over recent years by the West Bank Data Center and the Arab Studies Center of Jerusalem, the source of the data in this article. (Ed. Note: portions of this information and the maps are taken from Executive Intelligence Review.)

Since 1967, and especially since the Likud government came into power in 1977, Israeli policy has been to ensure that the lands that it conquered in the 1967 war would and could never be returned. Map 1 (For all maps, please see page ) shows Israel and the occupied territories today--the Gaza Strip of Egypt, West Bank of Jordan, and the Golan Heights of Syria--all conquered in the 1967 war, and the "Security zone" in Lebanon, seized in 1982.

We register in passing, but do not have the space to detail, that all of Israel, including pre-1967 Israel, is illegally occupied Arab land from the standpoint of international law. Israel was invented by the U.S., British and Soviet governments following World War II as a means of keeping the region continuously on the brink of, or in, war.

In this report, we will focus on the West Bank as exemplary of Israel's imperial policy toward the region as a whole.

STOLEN TERRITORIES

The West Bank, about 5,800 square kilometers in area, is the home of about 1 million Palestinians (not including East Jerusalem, which has been "annexed" as part of Israel proper, and which we deal with separately). (Ed. Note: This is a population density of some 278 people per square mile; the equivalent figures for 1988 are: New York, 378; California, 181 and Nevada, 9.6.) About 35 percent of the Palestinian population are farmers. The most important population centers are Jenin, Nablus, Ramallah, Bethlehem, and Hebron. The overwhelming number of Palestinians in the West Bank live either along this Jenin-Hebron urban axis or to the west, where all the best agricultural land is located.

From the standpoint of supplanting the West Bank Arabs with Jews, the Israeli government is faced with several problems.

In 1967, the West Bank population was approximately 590,000, all of whom were Arabs. The population lived in a concentrated urban and agricultural region, and had a high birth rate of over six children per couple.

The Jews, on the other hand, had a small population, only 2.3 million Jews in all of pre-1967 Israel, and had a low birth rate of about two children per family. Moreover, there was a marked tengency for Jewish emigration out of Israel, especially to the United States, which was not then counter-balanced by Jewish emigration from Europe and the U.S.S.R.

Since that time, the Israeli authorities have carried out a policy of population warfare which has had the following characteristics:

1. An invasion of Jews from pre-1967 Israel into the Occupied Territories, combined with a massive increase in the emigration of Soviet Jews beginning in 1989. More than 220,000 Jews now live in the Occupied Territories of East Jerusalem and the West Bank; 200,000 Soviet Jews emigrated in 1990, and another 200,000 are expected in 1991. By 1994, Israel expects to have received 1.2 million immigrants--representing a 30 percent increase in its total Jewish population.

2. A policy of constructing new Jewish settlements in the Occupied Territories in such a way as to break up, and even encircle Arab population concentrations. Massive land seizures of Arab lands by the Israeli state have aided this process.

3. Economic and administrative policies designed to bankrupt Palestinian farmers and generate chronic mass unemployment among Palestinian workers in the urban areas, in part to force emigration. This includes theft of Arab water.

4. Terror, to break the population psychologically.

I believe you can see that all four of these assaults have been utilized very effectively. Note that Palestinians still do not have ability to work in the Israeli controlled sectors since the "Gulf War"; their jobs were usurped for immigrants and there are still curfews on the Palestinians. The full curfew of Palestinians lasted for months following the massacre of Iraq.

Note the full operation of non-cooperation with the Palestinians at the "Peace meetings" wherein "meetings" were held in the hall from opposite sides of the area--couches. Then Israel simply walked out and said, "Maybe next year"! You don't get a lot of this on the news, do you?

I ask you again today, "...why expect so many immigrants from the Soviet Union that YOU in the USA have to pay $10 billion to house--if there IS no more Soviet Union and who would want to leave a "free" "commonwealth?" To go to a "free" Zion homeland? No, to move in and take more of Palestine and all of Jerusalem in order to "sacrifice" an entire planet! What of you "Christians"? Do you think you are going to be welcome in a "Christ-less" placement just because a "Christ" was birthed and lived in the area? Forget it and your fantasies--your religion, even, has been turned into "Judeo-Christian" and I suggest you check out which term is listed first! YOU HAVE NO "CHRISTIAN" RELIGION LEFT ON YOUR GLOBE!

TWO PHASES

There are two distinct phases in Israeli government policy respecting Jewish settlement policy. The first phase, from 1968 through 1978, was when the Labor Party was in power. The second phase began in 1978, shortly after the Likud Party came to power.

Although Labor Party policy continues to oppose the formation of a Palestinian state in the Occupied Territories, the Labor Party government did not emphasize settlements. As of 1976, only 3,100 Jews had officially moved to the West Bank. During the first decade of occupation, primarily under a Labor Party regime, the average Israeli government investment in the West Bank was $75 million per year.

Beginning with the Likud regime in 1977 (which has governed Israel continuously since, except for the period of the national unity government of 1984-88), the number of Jewish settlers and settlements has grown explosively.

Compared to the 3,100 Jews living in the West Bank in 1976, by the end of 1980 there were 12,500. By 1982, 21,000. By 1984, 44,000. By 1986, 60,500. There are now 100,000 Jews residing there (and another 120,000 in East Jerusalem). This is the modus operandi of the Khazarian Zionists--they make their integration and takeover exactly as the mistletoe parasite--first just a few twigs and then the whole tree which then dies. This also kills the mistletoe eventually but it has made sure that it is established elsewhere with a few offspring twigs in which to kill again. It is also like cancer or AIDS--just one small cell introduction and the rest will follow as surely as night after day--sure and fatal.

The government investment in the West Bank in the second decade of occupation was $17 billion--paid by the U.S.A.!

Current Israeli government policy is to increase the Jewish population of the West Bank another 100,000 by 1994. This is not "hidden" information--it is blatantly projected right from the Israeli government, Shamir and Sharon.

There were 34 settlements on the West Bank at the end of the Labor Party regime in 1976. There are now 200.

BANTUSTANS (PALESTINIAN)
(Please Follow Maps)

Map 2 was prepared by the Israeli Ministry of Agriculture and the settlement department of the World Zionist Organization (WZO--one of the biggest lobby Political Action Committees [PAC] in the U.S.A.) in April 1983. The map indicates the Jewish settlement priorities within the region. The map also shows the existing areas of Palestinian population concentration. The plan envisioned the construction of 164 new settlements and a network of roads linking the "priority zone" settlements which bypassed Arab population centers. Eighty percent of the settlements and 50 percent of the roads have been constructed. According to the plan, all water and natural resources in the priority zones would be monopolized by the settlers.

The intent of the policy is indicated by Map 3, which shows then-Defense Minister Ariel Sharon's 1981 notion of what portion of the West Bank might eventually be subject to Palestinian "autonomy". As can be seen, the Palestinian population will be fragmented into half a dozen "bantustans".

The planning reflected in Map 3 is intended to create the conditions whereby there is no contiguous strip of Arab land which could become even one "Bantustan", let alone a state. This concept was explicitly stated by Mattiyahu Drobless, the head of the WZO settlement department which prepared the map. As early as 1978, Drobless, in motivating the plan, stated, "There is to be not a shadow of doubt regarding our intention to remain in Judea and Samaria. A dense chain of settlements on the mountain ridge running southward from Nablus to Hebron will serve as a reliable barrier on the eastern front against Arab states. Both the areas between the concentration of the minority population (i.e., the planned Arab minority) and the areas around them must be settled, to minimize the danger of the establishment of another Arab state in the region."

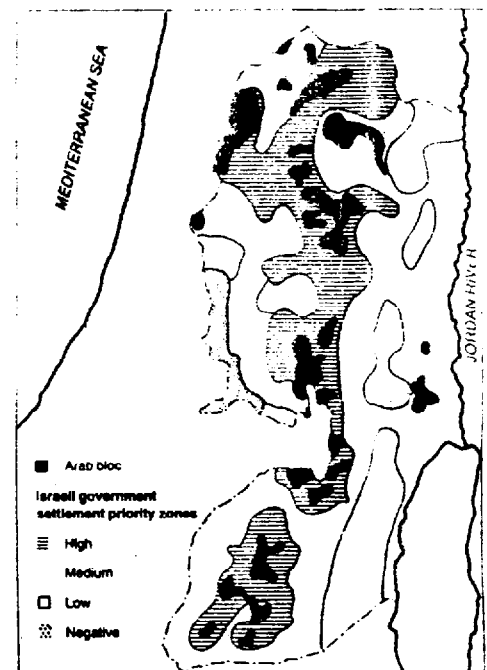

A central feature of this plan, not indicated on the maps, is the special case of Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the natural and historic capital of Palestine. "West" Jerusalem was seized by the Zionists in 1948. "East" Jerusalem, then the regional capital of the Jordanian-ruled West Bank, was seized in 1967. Shortly thereafter, Israel formally "annexed" East Jerusalem as forever unified with West Jerusalem as the "eternal capital" of Israel. The rest of the West Bank remains occupied or, as the Israelis say, "Administered" (much as "restructuring" of totally bankrupt U.S. companies [make the label to fit the "show"]) and not formally part of Israel. Would you care to guess what happens when you go against this "formal administration"?

Last spring, Housing Minister General Ariel Sharon, terrorist top leader just a few years back in the Stern Gang, announced plans to transform Jerusalem into a "megalopolis", increasing its Jewish population from its present 360,000, to a million, while keeping its 135,000 Arab population static or reducing it. Already, 120,000 of this 360,000 Jewish population lives in East Jerusalem. A key feature of the plan is the re-zoning of Jerusalem in such a way as to extend deep into the West Bank territories, breaking through the Jenin-Hebron Palestinian "front".

SEIZED LANDS OF PALESTINE

In order to facilitate this occupation policy, the Israeli government has been seizing West Bank land outright.

Since 1967, some 52 percent of all land on the West Bank has been declared the property of the Israeli government or otherwise restricted from use by Arabs. There have been various techniques used.

One form of seizure was simply an Israeli takeover of former Jordanian government state lands. In 1967, some 525,000 dunams of West Bank land (a dunam is about a quarter of an acre) were registered as the property of the Jordanian state. These lands were taken over by the occupying power, Israel.

In 1980, the Israeli government reclassified "state lands" to also include "uncultivated" or "unregistered" land--how handy, we just pronounce a thing to be and it IS. Do you not wish you could simply proclaim the vacant lot next door as "yours"? After all, the person who owns it is not using it as you would desire! This land, however, was uncultivated because its owners had fled the invading Israeli ARMY into Jordan. This is even better, isn't it? Drive the neighbors off the land and into another nation and you won't have trouble with them ever again "trespassing". If they should be stupid enough to return to claim rights--DON'T GIVE THEM WATER OR POWER! As an example, these now vacated lands automatically reverted to Israel (by Israeli law, of course). Such expedients have more than tripled state lands to about 1.8 million dunams.

Israel has also expropriated another 100,000 dunams for "public use".

I suggest you dear ones go read the Ten Commandments of Holy God--AGAIN!! Does this pattern fit with any of those Commandments? Then WHAT GOD do you suppose the Zionists serve? If everything they do and experience is AGAINST THE LAWS OF HOLY GOD OF LIGHT/CREATION--GUESS JUST WHO THEY MUST SERVE! SIMPLE "DEDUCTIVE REASONING" WILL MOST CERTAINLY TELL YOU THE TRUTH OF IT! AND WHAT MIGHT THIS MEAN? IT APPEARS TO MEAN THAT THEY ARE NOT SERVING GOD OF LIGHT/CREATION AND, THEREFORE, IF YOU ARE NOT "FOR" GOD THEN YOU MUST SERVE ANOTHER--AND THAT MEANS YOU ARE "AGAINST" HIM. IF YOU ARE AGAINST GOD THEN YOU ARE ANTI-GOD AND THUS BY SIMPLE REASON YOU HAVE LOCATED YOUR "ANTI-CHRIST". I might also add, you have also located and isolated your Semites of which no so-called "Jews" are!

Another form of takeover of land is through the declaration of an area to be "closed" for reasons of being in a "combat zone". While the land is not technically seized, the land can not be used by its owners. Through this technique, Israel took over another 1 million dunams.

Israel also requisitions land for "military purposes", not only for use as military sites per se, but also for the construction of Jewish settlements since such settlements are legally considered to be part of the Israeli defense system. This stole another 100,000 dunams.

Israel has also seized another 250,000 dunams as "nature resources", purportedly to defend the ecosystem.

Since 1967, the boundaries of Palestinian municipalities have been frozen in size by decree. Similarly, government permission is required before building new structures of any kind. The infrastructure that has been built, such as roads, power plants, and phone systems, are for Jewish use.

Do any of you recognize these tactics utilized in your OWN villages and cities, perhaps? Have YOU tried to dig a well or put up a garage lately? If you plan to construct a house I suggest you plan a minimum of $25,000 to $50,000 extra for permits and months of delays in planning approval. Then you move in, finally, only to find the government literally owns your property for the price of taxes which "they" assess! You had best look around carefully, America! It has already happened--TO YOU! Moreover, if you have land wanted by the government--they TAKE IT. You will fall to the enslavement gradually and most will not even realize you have been enslaved until the door is locked and the house is ablaze and you have no way of escape. Ponder it.

STEALING ARAB WATER

Surely you can relate to this one, especially you who have had all of your water supplies taken by cities such as Los Angeles, leaving your own reservoirs empty. Also, in other areas YOUR wells are confiscated and restricted even for irrigation. WAKE UP, YOU ANESTHETIZED NINNY-BIRDS! YOUR NESTS HAVE BEEN STOLEN AND YOUR OWN OFFSPRING TOSSED OUT TO DEATH WHILE YOU HAVE FED THE CUCKOO HATCHLINGS.

Like most states in the Middle East, Israel faces a serious water deficit of some 500 million cubic meters. The Israeli government estimates it faces a 2.2 billion annual cubic meter of water deficit by the year 2000.

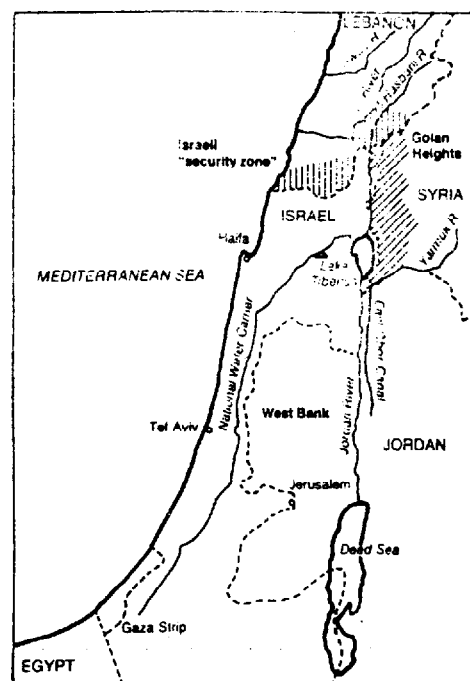

The Israeli government remains opposed to a longstanding project which would cut a canal from the Mediterranean Sea to the Dead Sea, and use that canal not only for transportation but also as a source of desalinated water for agricultural purposes. It is opposed to other water development plans. I fully suspect that one of these "God's" involved will cut that canal one of these days--like in the middle of Armageddon--right up the distinctive "Y"-shaped head of the Red Sea graben with Sinai in the center. Yes, I realize the above stated "Dead Sea" but I happen to know where the natural "rift" shall occur. Further, I expect it to be inhabited by some 144,000 settlers. We certainly do want Israel to have every inch of land possible for occupation, vertical or otherwise.

Please see ZIONISM, next page

Ariel Sharon's 1981 'Palestinian Autonomy' Plan

Map 4:
Water Systems of Israel and the Region

The Zionist state is also opposed to water development by its neighbors. According to Jordan's former Prime Minister Mudar Badwan, Israel successfully sabotaged a dam project which had been authorized by the World Bank on the Yarmuk River (see Map 4) WHICH WOULD HAVE TAPPED 250 MILLION CUBIC METERS OF WATER ANNUALLY FOR SYRIAN AND JORDANIAN USE!

Since Israel is opposed to water development, its only alternative to its looming water shortage is further imperial conquest.

The main sources of surface water of Israel and of the general region, and the way Israel has positioned itself, through conquest, to steal the region's water, are shown on Map 4.

In Lebanon, the Awali River is not yet under Israeli control, but a section of the Litani River now is. The reason is the need for water. According to reports, the Israeli government has been secretly constructing an underground piping system to transport waters from the Litani River to Israel.

The 1967 Israel war against the Arabs had the following results as pertains to the Jordan River system.

The source of the Jordan River system, the main river system in the immediate area of Israel, rises in Syria's Golan Heights. By occupying the Golan Heights, Israel now controls the Jordan River at its source. Is this all beginning to make sense to you people?

From there, the Jordan River flows south into Lake Tiberius. Further south, the Yarmuk River, which rises in Syria and Jordan, flows west into the Jordan River just south of lake Tiberius.

Through their seizure of the Golan Heights, the Israelis also control the entire length of the Jordan River, on both sides, from its source all the way down to where the Yarmuk flows into the Jordan. Earlier, they merely controlled one side of the river, at best. The cease-fire lines also allowed the Israelis to control half of the length of the Yarmuk River, through its control of the Golan Heights, rather than the mere 10 kilometers of the river which it controlled prior to that war.

Oh, you can't believe this is true? You cannot believe you would not KNOW OF THESE THINGS? How many of you ever even heard of the "Yarmuk River"???? Deceit is indeed easy, dear ones!

The 1967 war also led to the occupation of the West Bank of the Jordan, giving Israel access to a large section of the Jordan River which had been entirely within the borders of the nation of Jordan previously.

Taking advantage of these land seizures, Israel siphons off 100 million cubic meters annually from the Yarmuk River for its use. Additionally, Israel takes ALL of the water flowing from the Jordan River into Lake Tiberius, through its National Water Carrier system (see Map 4).

By the time the nation of Jordan gets access to the Yarmuk River, the supply is much diminished. By the time Jordan gets access to the Jordan River, south of the Yarmuk, the Jordan is a trickle and so salty--due to excessive water diversion by the Israelis north of Lake Tiberius--that it has no agricultural value.

Moreover, by seizing the West Bank land, Israel acquired access for the first time to the large West Bank aquifer under that land. Currently, 40 percent of the water used within pre-1967 Israeli borders is met by piping water from the aquifer underneath the West Bank--I remind you that these "Elite" are very good at pumping things out from under another's property--i.e., Iraq drainage by Kuwait and Britain. Another large and ever increasing amount of water for Jewish settlers on the West Bank is taken from the same source. In 1982, then-Defense Minister Sharon annexed the aquifer, placing it administratively under the Israeli water authority, and out of the hands of the civil administration. In other words, whereas some land may be given back to the Palestinians in the form of a bantustan, the water system underneath the land is forever part of Israel.

TERROR TACTICS

Terror against the Palestinians in the Occupied Territories is the state policy of Israel. This has been particularly the case since the beginning of the "Intifada", the generally peaceful "uprising" by the Palestinians against their Israeli occupiers. Data gathered by the Arab Studies Center of Jerusalem from December 9, 1987, when the Intifada began, through June 30, 1991, show a continuing pattern of genocide.

In that period, the Israeli police and military killed 956 Palestinians of whom 247 were children under 16 years of age. Most were shot for such offenses as throwing rocks, often shot in the back while fleeing. During the same period, an estimated 113,500 Palestinians were injured--almost one-tenth of the Arab population in the Occupied Territories. The Israelis even make weapons (their number one product) available in the black-market just so there would be "reason" to kill the weapons bearers. Now I suppose that is considered OK by some of you but I find it most outrageous.

In addition to shooting, the Israelis carry out forms of punishment proscribed by international law, which represent another form of terrorism. For example, at least 15,000 Palestinians have been subject to "administrative detention" since 1967. To be detained means that one is confined without charges, without the right to trial, without any specified term of confinement, and possibly without the knowledge of one's family.

Uprooting trees is another common form of punishment, especially because of its dire economic effect. I hope that at this moment you will relate this to what is happening RIGHT NOW in that area--Israelis are taking housing by force in Jerusalem and uprooting trees as fast as they can--it is even making your non-news so I suggest you take a close look-see! Since 1987, the Israelis have uprooted 110,000 trees as a form of punishment for families whose relatives have been caught throwing rocks or related offenses. Most Palestinians' farm products are orchard grown. Further, if an olive tree is destroyed the resource of oil, fruit, sapling growth for wood, etc., is destroyed. Remember that for centuries the source of oil in that area was "olive" and is a fundamental item for survival in that location of rural Palestine.

Similarly, the Israelis have demolished or sealed 1,950 Palestinian homes.

This method of terror is the imposition of curfews. Since 1987, the Israeli authorities have imposed over 10,000 curfew days on towns and cities in the Occupied Territories. This excludes the period from January 16 to February 25, the period of the Gulf War, when all Palestinians were restricted to their homes under blanket curfews. During the war, protein consumption in some towns in the Occupied Territories dropped by over 80 percent. Since no one could leave their homes to work, there was no money to buy food during the two hours a day that the Israelis allowed women on the streets to shop. New administrative regulations enacted during that period which restrict employment by the West Bank Palestinians within pre-1967 Israel, have led to an increase in unemployment to over 50 percent.

Dharma, close this segment, please, for I wish to now write on the subject of today's happenings for news is breaking rapidly and I need to clear up some points which appear to be contradictions to the intelligence teams who are uncovering some most interesting information. Oh, if only you precious readers would be able to SEE! I tell you to watch for it requires only attention to see the Bastards at their unholy work--just look at your "Democratic Party" debate and see what has happened when the Zionist media tried to shut-up Brown. The entire media is in an uproar as to how to silence him. You had better look at that most carefully today and here on in.

Salu, Hatonn to stand-by. ☺

Elite use sophisticated craft in travel

12/19/91 1# HATONN

Hatonn to speak on some most urgent, complicated and above top-secret activities. I must caution all of you in this location that this kind of information is dangerous for you to have and, therefore, I always have to code a few items for selective insight as well as misdirect attention. The proper persons MUST get the information but the surveillance teams must not--prior to our intent to share. You ones will simply have to be patient and wait upon proper sequence.

I have some most interesting questions regarding some of our output from yesterday and I am most appreciative that you ones are paying attention AND asking correct and well-thought-out questions. It is only through intelligence with exceptional "reasoning" that you will be able to locate facts and backup.

Now, you of the intelligence groups have noted that Baker gave to Mr. Gorbachev a satchel with some $2 million dollars in CASH and promises of other "fringe" benefits such as housing, servants, growth stocks, participation in a major role, etc., IF, he would cease and desist from ruffling waters. There are a couple of inaccurate points in that, but certainly the scenario is factual and was set up months ago. You are seeing the finishing up of the plans laid those months past.

As to my yesterday's statement regarding Bush, Blackbirds, etc., I would respond thusly. Look about you and where the activity is "happening". Just pay attention to the contrails and launch patterns from Edwards Air Force Base and a lot of information will be apparent written across the skies as big as life itself. I am told, for instance, that Bush could not have been flown to the Soviet Union. This is based on two premises--1. There was not "time" and--2. The "Blackbird" has to be refueled. I was given a third "reason" that my statement didn't "fit". That is because it requires two pilots to handle the craft and Bush is not qualified to fly it and it only holds two people. To this I only have to say that you don't know of modifications to that craft in point nor of the craft that requires NO refueling! Ah, but not from Washington to California does even the unmodified vehicle need refueling. But it DOES require sophisticated pilots of which there are very, very few available! You will note that THOSE pilots in point are under lock and key to insure availability--whether or not they happen to like their circumstance. So be it.

I would also like to remind you that I have written extensively about "Cosmospheres" and Cosmo-platforms. Have I mentioned the "Cosmosphere-shuttles"? Ah, how careless of me! Not only are they in existence but they are running almost "regular" shuttle trips here and there about your globe--AND THEY HAVE 100% CAPABILITY TO "BEND LIGHT" WAVES AND BECOME INVISIBLE--THEY, BY THE WAY, ARE SOVIET CRAFT!

I used the term "Blackbird" for a specific reason which actually has little to do with the mechanical vehicle itself. I believe this statement is sufficient for ones in point to understand my meaning. In some instances it is the "personnel" that are in point; in others, it is the project or "code name".

SOPHISTICATED CRAFT

Whether or not you like it, America, you have "joint ventures" going on with the Soviet Union (by whatever name they wish to call themselves). It isn't like a nice co-and equal venture. The Soviet Khazarians are venturing and you are doing what they tell you to do or be wiped out through military force and superior air/space technology. There are some very, very sophisticated aircraft stationed around your country and they do not belong to you citizens. There are, however, some very sophisticated aircraft that America has, also, which are most wondrous but not superior in capability to that of your enemy.

Confusion in politics

There is actually no real confusion in the political arenas. It matters not WHO is President, for instance, to any great extent because it is the coalition of all the "rats" in the pack that have placed you at such great disadvantage. Let us look at what you have.

You have a situation wherein your current President was among the Elite who would run the world through physical material gain and basically, crime. He can spout goodness and truth through his crooked smirk while his own Elite placements in the form of henchmen see to it that the Mafia connections and cartels work smoothly--with capability to take out any who get "too big" for their britches. But he and his henchmen are a target, well founded, of blackmail for those actions. The intent is to pull him down to controllable size wherein he can be more useful in these finalizing days of government change.

He has already signed the Executive Orders and Treaties which has given your nation away and is already operating without the Constitution on Emergency Regulations and Executive Order. From the midst of the lies which have blinded you come the facts, now, that the government and nation are in a "state of emergency", financially.

That allows him to take total control of everything.

The plan is to place Bush in a high position in the United Nations (the new government), as well as Gorbachev. You will note that de Cuellar is stepping down in the near future leaving the top-slot open and, also, the Soviet council member has already resigned, leaving that top position open. You may observe the machinery taking the "long way around" the issue but control will fall into desired alignment.

WHERE IS KISSINGER?
WHAT DO YOU SUPPOSE HE IS DOING?

Fed cuts interest rates

HATONN 12/19/91 #1

THE headline news this day is "Washington Slashes Key Interest Rates!" What are the facts? It was the Federal Reserve (a private corporation, not "Washington"); there was no "slashing" and "key" is just a bit misleading! The "key" sources of benefit are the big banks who get a break on OVERNIGHT COST OF BORROWING MONEY. Neither do I think 1% is "slashing". The expectation is that now the "PRIME" will also drop a bit. Well, those "prime" borrowers are other banks and top-notch corporations. Nobody is going to give you a break--oh well, that is in error, isn't it? I believe Bush is considering a one-time $300 "break" to "JUMP-START AND SPUR THE ECONOMY" so "...THE PEOPLE (CONSUMERS) CAN REGAIN CONFIDENCE IN SPENDING". $300-?? What can YOU buy with $300? This is supposed to allow people to send their children to college, pay the mortgage and get you to spend in the after-Christmas sales! How much is it going to help 700,000 laid off military personnel or 75,000 General Motors workers?

What about the half million NEW lay-offs A WEEK?

12/20/91 #1 HATONN

I have information herein that I wish to share with you readers for your confirmation regarding information given long ago but perhaps forgotten. I am reminded because of a couple of writings sent to me regarding the media--with names and places. I think the original article, from which this is excerpted, came from the National Vanguard. I believe you will find an objective view from outside a space craft a bit closer to "home" for your understanding. It is just recognition of the Zionists who have gained control of your property and heritage.

There is no greater power in the world today than that wielded by the manipulators of public opinion.

the "BAD ASSETS AND DEFAULTS" to you-the-people. But not to worry about the good old caring bank, now for the bad assets they already had now have a NEW HOME COMING, i.e., "...Bank of America will put $2.8 billion of bad loans in a new unit and will sell stock in IT to investors as part of a plan to digest the company's merger with Security Pacific Bank."

Just WHO do you suppose will buy BAD LOANS? Does this sound like a good investment to you? How about the fact that YOU WILL INSURE those purchases? How do you feel about learning that this is what the major banks such as Chase, etc., have done with investments? Place certain assets into holding companies other than the "Mother" and then bankrupt the Holding Company wherein "Oops, sorry about that, but look how hard we tried!" You did it to Saudi Arabia so why not "you-the-people"? Yes, that little old Federal Reserve is really a dandy, isn't it?

Let us now look at your "market". Gosh, just on the note of this "slash in lending rates for overnight borrowing by banks" the "MARKET surged upward!!!" Smell any rotten fish? The depression is killing you and the "Market" surges upward? Oh my, there must be something I misunderstand about your system--OR, YOU ARE SLEEPING TOO LONG, LITTLE SHEEPLES.

ion in America. No King or Pope of old, no conquering General or High Priest ever disposed of a power even remotely approaching that of the few dozen men who control America's mass news and entertainment media.

Their power is not distant and impersonal; it reaches into every home in America and it works its will during nearly every waking hour. It is the power which shapes and molds the mind of virtually every citizen, young or old, rich or poor, simple or sophisticated.

The mass media form for us our image of the world and then tell us what to think about that image. Essentially everything we know--or think we know--about events outside our own neighborhood or circle of acquaintance comes to us via our daily newspaper, our weekly news-magazine, our radio, or our television.

It is not just the heavy-handed suppression of certain news stories from our newspapers or the blatant propagandizing of history-distorting TV "docudramas" which characterizes the opinion-manipulating techniques of the media masters. They exercise both subtlety and thoroughness in their management of both the news and the entertainment which they present to us.

For example, the way in

Emergency

HATONN 12/20/91 #1

LISTEN to the speeches and forget the rhetoric. Bush speaks of "Emergency" in the same unended sentence with $300 rebates! That translated, means: "I am getting ready to inform you that you are no longer functioning under the Constitution but, rather, under Emergency Regulations and Orders by the authority vested in myself through Presidential Executive Order signed during last year's little Gulf encounter! After all, America, you ARE in an Emergency situation and that is about the nicest thing I can say about it. THE WORLD IS IN FORECLOSURE, CHELAS! THEY JUST SHUT THE PRISON DOOR! I NOW HEAR THE KEY TURNING IN THE LOCK!

which the news is covered: which items are emphasized and which are played down, the reporter's choice of words, tone of voice, and facial expressions; the working of headlines; the choice of illustrations--all of these things subliminally and yet profoundly affect the way in which we interpret what we see or hear.

On top of this, of course, the columnists and editors remove any remaining doubt from our minds as to just what we are to think about it all. Employing carefully developed psychological techniques, they guide our thought and opinion so that we can be in tune with the "in" crowd, the "beautiful people", the "smart money". They let us know exactly what our attitudes should be toward various types of people and behavior by placing those people or that behavior in the context of a TV drama or situation comedy and having the other TV characters react to them in the "approved" way.

TELEVISION BROADCASTING

And who are these all-powerful masters of the media?

For a partial answer, consider television broadcasting, which undoubtedly has become the most powerful medium for determining the way Americans think and behave.

Not counting certain specialized cable news systems, virtually all national and international TV news broadcast in the United States is gathered, filmed, edited, and put on the air by just three companies: American Broadcasting System (ABC), Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), and National Broadcasting Company (NBC). Most televised entertainment programs viewed by Americans are broadcast by the same three networks. Each of these three has been under the absolute control of a single man over a long enough period of time--ranging from 32 to 55 years--for him to staff the corporation at every level with officers of his choosing and thus to place his imprint finally, totally, and indelibly upon it.

In each case the man has been a "Jew".

Until 1985, when ABC merged with Capital Cities Communications, Inc., a New York-based media conglomerate, the chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer (CEO) of the network was Leonard Harry Goldenson, a Jew. He had headed the network since he became president of the predecessor corporation, American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc., in 1953. (The name was changed to American Broadcasting Companies, Inc., in 1965.) In an interview published in the April 1, 1985, issue of Newsweek, Goldenson boasted, "I built this company (ABC) from scratch."

Under the 1985 merger terms. Goldenson became chairman of the executive committee of the new company, Capital Cities/ABC, Inc.

Although the chairman and CEO of Capital Cities now is Thomas Murphy, a Gentile, he has made no move to replace the men at ABC who served Goldenson, and the network retains its Jewish character today.

CBS was under the domination of William S. Paley for more than half a century. The son of immigrant Jews from Russia, Paley left the family cigar business in 1928, when he was 27, to buy United Independent Broadcasters for $500,000. He renamed it Columbia Broadcasting System and made himself president. He became chairman of the board in 1946 and held that post until his partial retirement in 1983.

When independent broadcaster Ted Turner, a Gentile, made a bid to buy CBS in 1985, there was panic in media boardrooms across the nation. Turner had made a fortune in advertising and then had built a successful cable-TV news network, CNN. Although Turner employed a number of Jews in key executive positions in CNN and had never taken public positions contrary to Jewish interests, he is a man with a large ego and a strong personality and was regarded by Paley and the other Jews at CBS as possibly uncontrollable: a loose cannon who might at some time in the future turn against them. Furthermore, Jewish newsman Daniel Schorr, who had worked for Turner, publicly charged that his former boss held a personal dislike for Jews.

To block Turner's bid CBS executives invited billionaire Jewish theater, hotel, insurance, and cigarette magnate Laurence Tisch to launch a "friendly" takeover of the company, and since 1986 Tisch has been the chairman and CEO of CBS, removing any threat of non-Jewish influence there.

NBC was formerly a subsidiary of Radio Corporation of America (RCA), which was controlled for 40 years, beginning in 1930, by David Sarnoff, another Jewish immigrant from Russia. When Sarnoff died in 1970 his son Robert took over. In 1986 General Electric Co. merged with RCA, and now NBC is a wholly owned subsidiary of General Electric. By the way, remember that General Electric is a major corporation which transferred a large portion of industry into the Soviet sector--a Zionist company from top to bottom on the "ruling Elite chart".

There has been no move by top G-E management to change the Jewish "profile" of NBC or to replace key Jewish personnel.

[H: I have to update this writing a bit more. CNN is now wholly controlled and operated by the Elite Media Zionist Cartel. You were given enough valid news to get you "hooked" and now the CNN network is more controlled and scripted than all other networks put together. It was set up to be the only full-time news network and, thus, the only source of continuous TV "news". It was arranged that it also be the spokesman for the Gulf War, etc., so that no other news could or would leak through. When other factual items slipped through you will note that the journalist came under heavy fire and was severely disciplined. CNN is now your main focus of false information and presentations. They will give you just enough controversial information to keep you "guessing" about intent--but nothing of value in what is happening TODAY! It is the major governmental tool. You can get your confirmation to this relationship by remembering that when Gorbachev visited--Ted Turner and Jane Fonda were not only invited guests to the "State Dinner"; etc., but were seated immediately WITH the Gorbachev's and Henry Kissinger!]

THE ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY

The extraordinary concentration of Jews in the TV industry certainly explains much of the bias of television news. As important as the control of television news programming is, however, television entertainment is even more decisive in determining the way Americans think. Tens of millions of Americans, especially younger ones, never watch network TV news broadcasts, but instead keep their sets tuned to the entertainment programs. And it is in the entertainment field that Jews have maintained the firmest control.

Brandon Tartikoff became president of NBC Entertainment in 1980 and has held that post ever since. The man in charge of the television entertainment division at CBS is Jeff Sagansky. At ABC the entertainment division is run by two men: Robert Iger handles the business end of the division, and Stuart Bloomberg is in charge of entertainment programming.

Tartikoff, Sagansky, and Bloomberg are Jews. They pick the programs their networks will broadcast: the game shows, the interview shows, the situation comedies, the historical "docudramas", the family series, the adventure series, the specials. They tell the program developers what they want to see in the programs. They veto anything they don't like. They determine the slant each program will have. They decide just how hard to push various propaganda themes in their network programming: interracial marriage, homosexuality, feminism, gun control, "Holocaust" re-enactments, the menace of "White extremism".

Only one in 36 U.S. citizens (2.8 per cent) is a Jew. But nearly all of the men who shape young Americans' concept of reality, of good and evil, of permissible and impermissible behavior are Jews.

This Jewish control of the American entertainment industry and its influence on the American psyche goes far beyond television programming for the major networks; it also includes virtually everything which comes out of Hollywood's film studios. The May 1990 issue of American Film magazine listed the top 10 (in terms of gross revenues in 1989) U.S. entertainment companies and their CEO's and ranked them by size. They were, in descending order, Time Warner Communications (Steven J. Ross), Walt Disney Co. (Michael D. Eisner), NBC (Robert C. Wright), Paramount Communications (Martin S. Davis), CBS (Laurence A. Tisch), 20 Century Fox Film Corp. (Barry Diller), Columbia Pictures Entertainment (Victor A. Kaufman), Viacom Inc. (Sumner Redstone), Capital Cities/ABC (Thomas S. Murphy, and don't let the non-Jewish label distract you), and MCA Inc. (Lew Wasserman).

Of the 10 top entertainment CEO's, eight--Ross, Eisner, Davis, Tisch, Diller, Kaufman, Redstone, and Wasserman--are Jews. [H: Sorry--try "all" ten on for "fact".] (When Japan's Sony Corporation of America bought Columbia Pictures in October 1989, Victor Kaufman was replaced by Peter Guber, also a Jew. Guber's overseer is Sony's vice-chairman Michael P. Schulhof, who arranged the takeover, and he is a Jew, too.) The only two top-10 entertainment companies which have "Gentile" CEO's--NBC and Capital Cities/ABC--are conglomerates which have Jews in charge of their entertainment divisions (Tartikoff and Bloomberg, respectively).

The article goes on to document the Jewish dominance in Radio Broadcasting, Magazines, the Record Industry, and Newspapers (particularly the big three: the New York Times, the Washington Post, and the Wall Street Journal). We have shared this with you so many times that I will not insult your intelligence by again printing it. Remember also that many of these are either on the Trilateral Commission, The Council on Foreign Relations, The Bilderbergers and/or combinations of more than one.

TALMUDIST PROTOCOLS OF THE ZIONIST ELDERS OF WISDOM AND MANIFESTO: Quote: PROTOCOL NO. 2:

It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains; war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will not fail to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our predominance, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agentur; which possesses millions of eyes ever on the wealth and unhampered by any limitations whatsoever. Our international right will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rule the relations of their subjects among themselves.

The administrators, whom we shall choose from among the public, with strict regard to their capacities for servile obedience, will not be persons trained in the arts of government, and will therefore easily become pawns in our game in the hands of men of learning and genius who will be their advisers, specialists bred and reared from early childhood to rule the affairs of the whole world. As is well known to you, these specialists of ours have been drawing to fit them for rule the information they need from our political plans from the lessons of history, from observations made in the events of every moment as it passes. The goyim are not guided by practical use of unprejudiced historical observation, but by theoretical routine without any critical regard for consequent results. We need not, therefore, take any account of them--let them amuse themselves until the hour strikes, or live on hopes of new forms of enterprising pastime, or on the memories of all they have enjoyed. For them let that play the principal part which we have persuaded them to accept as the dictates of science (theory). It is with this object in view that we are constantly, by means of our press, arousing a blind confidence in these theories. The intellectuals of the goyim will puff themselves up with their knowledge and without any logical verification of them will put into effect all the information available from science, which our agentur specialists have cunningly pieced together for the purpose of educating their minds in the direction we want.

Do not suppose for a moment that these statements are empty words: think carefully of the successes we arranged for Darwinism, Marxism, Nietzscheism. To us Jews, at any rate, it should be plain to see what a disintegrating importance these directives have had upon the minds of the goyim.

It is indispensable for us to take account of the thoughts, characters and tendencies of the nations in order to avoid making slips in the political and in the direction of administrative affairs. The triumph of our system, of which the component parts of the machinery may be variously disposed according to the temperament of the peoples met on our way, will fail of success if the practical application of it be not based upon a summing up of the lessons of the past in the light of the present.

In the hands of the States of today there is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. [H: Remember at the time of the writing there was no Television, etc.] The part played by the Press is to keep pointing out requirements supposed to be indispensable, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is in the Press that the triumph of freedom of speech finds its incarnation. But the goyim States have not known how to make use of this force; and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade; thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hands, notwithstanding that we have had to gather it out of oceans of blood and tears. But it has paid us, though we have sacrificed many of our people. Each victim on our side is worth in the sight of God a thousand goyim. [H: That is NOT "MY" "GOD", chelas! Who might it be? So be it.]

REFRESHER: UPDATE--1920
OUTLINE AS REPRINTED

QUOTE:

1. Every hundred years, We, the Sages of Israel, have been accustomed to meet in Sanhedrin in order to examine our progress to- wards the domination of the world which Jehovah has promised us, and our conquests over the enemy--Christianity. [H: Seems succinctly put to me! So, let us see if you can check out your status this day as 1991 comes to a close. Get a barf-bag handy for you are going to have to face some facts.]

2. This year, united over the tomb of our reverend Simeon-ben-Ihuda, we can state with pride that the past century has brought us very near to our goal, and that this goal will be very soon attained.

3. GOLD always has been and always will be the irresistible power. Handled by expert hands it will always be the most useful lever for those who possess it, and the object of envy for those who do not. With gold we can buy the most rebellious consciences, can fix the rate of all values, the current price of all products, can subsidize all state loans, and thereafter hold the states at our mercy.

4. Already the principal banks, the exchanges of the entire world, the credits of all the governments, are in our hands.

5. The other great power is THE PRESS. By repeating without cessation certain ideas, the Press succeeds in the end in having them accepted as actualities. The Theatre renders us analogous services. Everywhere the Press and the Theatre obey our orders.

6. By the ceaseless praise of the DEMOCRATIC RULE we shall divide the Christians into political parties, we shall destroy the unity of their nations, we shall sow discord everywhere. Reduced to impotence, they will bow before the Law of Our Bank, always united, and always devoted to our Cause.

7. We shall force the Christians into wars by exploiting their pride and their stupidity. They will massacre each other, and clear the ground for us to put our own people into.

8. The possession of the land has always brought influence and power. In the name of social Justice and Equality we shall parcel out the great estates; we shall give the fragments to the peasants who covet them with all their powers, and who will soon be in debt to us by the expense of cultivating them. Our capital will make us their masters. We in our turn shall become the great proprietors, and the possession of the land will assure the power to us.

9. Let us try to replace the circulation of gold with paper money; our chests will absorb the gold, and we shall regulate the value of the paper which will make us masters of all the positions.

10. We count among us plenty of orators capable of feigning enthusiasm and of persuading mobs. We shall spread them among the people to announce changes which should secure the happiness of the human race. By gold and by flattery we shall gain the proletariat which will charge itself with annihilating Christian capitalism. We shall promise workmen salaries of which they have never dared to dream, but we shall also raise the price of necessities so that our profits will be greater still.

11. In this manner we shall prepare Revolutions which the Christians will make themselves and of which we shall reap the fruit.

12. By our mockeries and our attacks upon them we shall make their priests ridiculous then odious, and their religion as ridiculous and as odious as their clergy. Then we shall be masters of their souls. For our pious attachment to our own religion, to our own worship, will prove the superiority of our religion and the superiority of our souls.

13 We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim with lawyers and doctors; the lawyers are au courant with all interests; doctors, once in the house, become confessors and directors of consciences.

14. But above all let us monopolize Education. By this means we spread ideas that are useful to us, and shape the children's brains as suits us.

15. If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many witnesses as he needs to save him from his judges, until we become judges ourselves.

16. The monarchs of the Christian world, swollen with ambition and vanity, surround themselves with luxury and with numerous armies. We shall furnish them with all the money their folly demands, and so shall keep them in leash.

17. Let us take care not to hinder the marriage of our men with Christian girls, for through them we shall get our foot into the most closely locked circles. If our daughters marry Goyim they will be no less useful, for the children of a Jewish mother are ours. Let us foster the idea of free love, that we may destroy among Christian women attachment to the principles and practices of their religion.

18. For ages past the sons of Israel, despised and persecuted, have been working to open up a path to power. They are hitting the mark. They control the economic life of the accursed Christians; their influence preponderates over politics and over manners.

19. At the wished for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christianity will definitely enslave the Christians to US. Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to His People.

So--once through again--This is most certainly NOT THE GOD OF LIGHTED CREATION FREE OF BONDAGE TO A PLANET OF PHYSICAL BINDINGS. THEREFORE, THIS MUST BE SOME OTHER GOD AND SOME INTERESTING "CHOSEN PEOPLE" OF "THAT" GOD--FOR I MOST CERTAINLY KNOW THIS ONE NOT AS "HOLY". YOU HAVE ONCE MORE, IN THIS HOUR, AGAIN MET THE ANTI-CHRIST DESTROYER OF YOUR CIVILIZATION AND SPECIES.

IT IS THE TIME OF CHOOSING!

HATONN 12/21/91 #1

This Commander is officially in the race for President. Within days 900 telephone lines will be established and you can get in the race with him. This is so that the opposition cannot block his phone lines and run up horrendous phone bills. This is as "grass roots" as you will ever find again in the U.S.A., Americans. He will be listed in your state, on the ballots, in any way he can get on the ballot--in most instances as "Independent". I have met with him and his running partners and I am speaking bluntly and frankly to you-the-people. It is time to rise above the chattering and "what if's". The "most horrendous what-if's" have already happened and now you are going to have to hit the deck at full-speed ahead.

It has been figured out HOW to change your political lives by a thorough house cleaning of hang-on politicians who move in with the President as well as a total recovery of the currency and dissolution or removal from any interaction with the Federal Reserve. Impossible? NO--IT IS VERY POSSIBLE BUT I SEE NO OTHER MAN INVOLVED WHO WILL DO IT. THIS IS A "CHOSEN SERVANT" AND THIS MAN WILL GIVE YOU HIS LIFE IF YOU BUT SHARE THE JOB TO BE DONE, WITH HIM. I CAN PROMISE YOU READERS AT THIS MOMENT--GOD WILL BE ON THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL WITH THIS MAN SENT FORTH TO LEAD YOU, A CHOSEN NATION, UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL. BUT--YOU HAVE TO DO IT!

I further request that YOU WATCH CLOSELY--WHO WILL BE AGAINST HIM--AND I BELIEVE CONFIRMATION OF OUR TRUTH WILL FALL ALL

OVER EVEN YOUR DEAFENED EARS AND BLINDED EYES.

WOULD GOD DO SUCH A THING AS SUPPORT A PERSON TO POLITICAL LEADERSHIP?-- YES INDEED--REMEMBER SOMETHING--GOD IS BACK TO RECLAIM HIS PROPERTY AND HIS FIRST CHOSEN PROPERTY IS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND HIS PEOPLE! SO BE IT. IF YOU WILL RALLY, AMERICA, THE CITIZENS OF THE WORLD WILL RALLY WITH YOU AND FREEDOM CAN BE RECLAIMED.

If you cannot accept the story of your plight from me--I suggest you "Christians" take a look at that which Pat Robertson is presenting to you now. Full agreement with his approach and all he projects? No, for there will be no "rapture" as presented in the orthodox Christian "faith", nor did the murder of a wondrous manchild of God absolve you of your responsibility and "sins". He only came forth to give you Truth and knowledge so that you could find your way home and through him, be acceptable into the mansions of your Father--no more and no less--a man without label (in fact) and come forth to ALL for ALL in many ways and by many names. I have given unto you the Truth and proof of your ENEMY. I have outlaid the fact of the "anti-Christ" and I tell you again: The story of this civilization's experience on planet Earth DOES NOT HAVE TO END AS THE PROPHECIES ARE LAID FORTH--BUT YOU WILL BE THE ONES TO CHANGE IT!

ZIONISM IS RACISM AND THE DESTRUCTION OF YOUR PLANET. YOU HAVE BEEN DECEIVED AND EVERY HIGH PERSONAGE IN POWER IS A MEMBER OF THAT DECEIVING GROUP WHO FULLY INTEND TO HOLD YOUR WORLD IN THEIR OWN POSSESSION AND LEAVE YOU ENSLAVED UNTO THEM--WITHOUT ANYTHING, INCLUDING YOUR SOULS!

Confirmations

I am not going to take any time for "Today's Watch" except for reminding you that you must watch closely, now, for confirmations. You are simply watching the unfolding of the Old Order as it evolves into the "New World Order".

Confirmations of our little insights: Yeltsin has "reportedly" relinquished the military command into the hands of a KGB nightmare and the "party line" has been stated regarding Gorbachev: "Gorbachev's job will be 'suppressed' and he has been given assurance of financial reward and continued status living facilities if he will 'gracefully' step aside. He is also promised a major role in the evolution of the government in another capacity." This is your confirmation of what we gave you days ago as to Baker, etc., delivering a brief case with some $2 million and a contract for continued living in the style of wealth as well as placement in a high political position elsewhere. It is now announced on the news (without the truth of sources, etc., as is usual--in other words, they forget to tell you nice Americans that YOU are paying for it in every way possible!). Merry Christmas! Happy New Year? I doubt it!

Denial of TRUTH will not change one iota of it!

In the next JOURNAL I shall give you full information regarding "Zionism" right out of the Zionist's Encyclopaedia Judaica and speak of this Man-written set of rules for same, called the "Talmud", but I haven't space remaining in this volume.

Children, you must recognize your enemy before you can stand against him in any manner whatsoever. If you continue to pronounce the TRUTH as LIE and cover and hide, protect and allow your own destruction in your DENIAL, then I cannot help you. If you will open your hearts, eyes and ears and take a look within the dark places of "black plans" then you shall find your freedom from this bondage. The choice must be yours for I shall not further trouble you. You see, facts are facts and pigs is pigs and all the "wishing" will not change a hair of it.

I KNOW who I am and I know that which I serve. That means that I KNOW my enemy and it is the anti-Christ/God of Light. I can show you the path "home" into the mansions of God in the wondrous Universe or I can leave you to your games and fantasies--that choice is ONLY yours. Moreover, I am sent forth to provide THE WAY into those mansions for the children within HIS flock. God patiently awaits to see which road ye shall take--ponder it most carefully indeed.

WILL THE RECOVERY BE EASY? NO! THIS ENEMY WILL NOT FOLD HIS TENT AND SIMPLY WALK AWAY--UNLESS HE SEES A WAY TO WIN ANOTHER DAY--BEWARE! Also beware of those who tell you these words are lies and of evil intent--HOW WOULD THEY KNOW? THEY DO NOT READ THE MATERIAL SO HOW CAN THEY KNOW? IF IT BE EVIL, WOULD YOU NOT BE ABLE TO SEE THE EVIL IF IT WOULD BE SO? WHAT DO THEY HIDE FROM YOU, THESE SO-CALLED SPEAKERS OF THE WORD AND TOUTERS OF THE WAY?

WHAT DO THEY HIDE AS THEY DENOUNCE WORKS OF WHICH THEY ARE NOT APPRIZED? I SUGGEST YOU TAKE NOTE AND FIND OUT FOR SELF--FOR YOU WILL NOT GET TO "HEAVEN" ON THEIR TICKET! YOU MAY VERY WELL MISS THE BOAT ALTOGETHER IF YOU CONTINUE TO BUY TICKETS THROUGH THE WRONG TICKET-BEARERS.

If a man would sell you iron and lead and he has pronounced it "gold"--would his pronouncement make it be gold? Of course not--you would simply be deceived and hold iron and lead with a shiny covering. If a man buys the substance and ASSUMES it to be gold and then turns about and SELLS IT TO YOU--does THIS make it gold? Certainly not--you have just accepted and assumed the substance to be gold while, in fact, it is but iron and lead--regardless of whether or not the speakers intent

It is time you look into the errors of the teachings of those who came before you--for, as with the iron and gold, if the fathers bought the bullion as "gold" and it is "not"--you shall be eating of the pig-iron, too! The iron will not turn into gold simply because your daddy said he believed it to be gold. So be it.

Hatonn present in the Light of Radiance on this last Sunday before your big day of gift sharing and human interchange. Most of my crew on your placement are ill, having succumbed to that which is "going around" to keep you all sick and distressed so that everything stops and attentions are limited. It is well noted that when a population is enduring 104 degrees of fever and cannot leave the bathrooms of the world (if you have one) you don't have much opposition to that which is put upon you. Do you not find it interesting that none of your so-called Elite rulers are ever sick? They tear at breakneck, mind-boggling speed to every corner of the world and still, they do not become ill!!! Exceptional stamina? Perhaps, but more likely is that they are intentionally made inviolable. The rest of you are targeted. It is never an "accident" when a whole village or city comes down with the same "bug" on the same day or within hours--regardless of what the "scientists" tell you. To have a society "sick" from flu or "colds" is a good way to also hide from the horrendous depression in which you find selves. The Human mind is now geared to have to "excuse" everything, even when the truth would serve as well. Somehow it is easier to say, "...I was too sick to go shopping so I don't have your gift yet," than to simply say, "I don't have funds and, although I love you greatly, I felt it wise to not spend foolishly this Christmas." YOU DO EXACTLY THAT WHICH plight of the black family living in that particular area the "fault" of the white or Hispanic or Oriental family living across the city? Do you have SPECIAL rights because of your color or race? Does the Zionist Jew have a right to live in a mansion and the black man in poverty? Yes indeed. Further, if the man with the goods, on either point, has earned his gain through honest toil he is duly rightful in his ownership. If he chooses to help his less fortunate brother, God blesses him--but he doesn't HAVE

TO DO SO! On the other hand, if the mansion has been gained by sucking dry the one in poverty to insure his remaining in poverty--the fact is a shame upon Man.

YOU MUST REALIZE THAT EVERYTHING IS CHOICE. When one says, "I had no choice--I had to live in that flood-zone." No, that is not true. You "perceived" you had no other alternative. Perhaps the other alternatives were even less desirable but you DID HAVE ALTERNATIVE CHOICES.

This is the point of our lessons: When you make each choice in your life--which is each and every breath--in the direction of Godness, YOU HAVE ARRIVED! When "that" choice is so accepted that you feel it to be the ONLY alternative--then your path shall lighten as the sunrise. It may seem that you have no control over circumstances and we shall not go into that subject at this point even though you DO. You do, ALWAYS, have total control over HOW you respond within those circumstances--ALWAYS AND INFINITELY. It is upon those choices in action within the physical "frame" which is the basis for "judgment".

The hearts are heavy as the "Season" comes again which represents being with loved ones and sharing--albeit not factual. This is exactly why the cards and music are quite sentimental and represent a totally different time in man's travels--always bringing you back in memory to a time of childhood or family abundance (or poverty) in which emotion is strong. If a man be from the snow-lands of the North and now lives in Santa Monica, California--a snow scene brings nostalgic reminders. Always the "fantasy" is of something other than the moment which is the only experience you will ever have--and it too, then, becomes but a memory--"for this, too, shall pass".

Every year the solstices occur right on Mother Nature's schedule--timeless and infinite. Each one bringing a lengthening or shortening of days as you perceive the cycles of your calendars and watches; Please see WEATHER, next page

YOU ARE TRAINED TO DO.

Do the Zionists celebrate Christmas? Look around you for they own most of your stores, industries, government and YOU. To separate you Christians and other Godly people from your funds is the point of their existence. This is why Santa Clause was invented! You will actually go without food to give a worthless trinket so that a child does not have to recognize truth but, rather, the illusion of that "something for nothing". YOU HAVE DONE THESE THINGS UNTO SELVES IN YOUR FACADE OF PLENTY. Is not a coat on a freezing day far more appreciated than to open a package on Christmas in the LIE? Is not a little food daily more important than a big "Charity bash" where celebrities don aprons and serve the poor one meal a year? The thought and care is wondrous but what of the other 364 days of the year? It shall only be brother helping brother, one by one, that shall see you through this valley of travail come upon your world. You-the-people have intentionally been made ignorant and unskilled--you are going have to remember even HOW to work.

The point has been to make you totally dependent on the system to provide: welfare, jobs, industry, government and "your RIGHT to survive in plenty", hopefully with YOU having to do absolutely nothing save "sign-up". No, that is NOT the way of God, chelas. You must effort to learn, plant and till and THEN--ONLY THEN, IS THE HARVEST WORTHY.

darkness and lightness. These cycles bring with them the frequencies and impact of those changing universal energies which pull you down or buoy you upward. Is the "fault" of nature? No, it is simply the way it IS--unchanging and unending. Will Mother change to suit you? No--you will bring balance within her laws or you will remain unbalanced--simply and succinctly; it is totally up to you. God has given forth laws which, if followed, retain and maintain balance within those unchanging laws of Universal "nature". If you break the laws of God and struggle against the laws of Nature--so be it. In fact, you can even "vote-in" to change the day of a solstice but it will not change one iota of the natural changes of Nature's day or "timing". YOU will be the fool!

YOU are allowing ones to tamper with, break laws and thrust lies upon you that trap you into an experience of physical confusion in an illusion of physical but a place of emotional "you-ness". YOU are the soul essence within efforting to find balance and fulfillment in a cell of physical illusion. The "things" are manifested in order to bind you. It is wondrous to experience the pleasure of "things" and joyous indeed if you can have abundance of "things" and still release them willingly as a part of an experience. Does Creator care if you have ten coats? Of course not--IF you share with nine other people when the weather turns cold and the brother has NONE. You need not even "give them away", simply share. However, when the bindings are broken and the shroud rent--you shall find it a relief of burden to be free.

This, however, cannot be the role of all--to give it all away for in the survival during the time of great tribulation, some must have been stored so that ones caught without, say, that coat--will need of another if his be at his dwelling or taken from him. What you do and HOW you share must also have great discernment. A fur coat, already having deprived the animal of its life--may well be used to line a crib and save the very life of a babe in the survival tunnel. Perhaps, taking this a bit further, the parents of the babe may have beans which can be exchanged for the coat and two lives be saved--or more. Life can be multiplied by adding and dividing with others--never in selfish subtraction. And always through preparation beyond the thoughts of daily experience--AS IF. When ye have prepared AS IF there shall be another day and if wisely perceived (reasoned) how it might come to be--ye have nothing about which to worry and concern. Always remember that MAN is best under the pressures of necessity. He becomes again generous and sharing and demanding of Truth and THIS is WHY you shall WIN the war in ultimate conclusion. As the Elite Empire tumbles, the things hidden shall be made known and as you turn into balance within the laws of balance, you shall flourish for the ways to achievement are present--you have simply not bothered to pull yourselves from the physical pleasures and lust to find them.

I can point out to you that the ones willing to lead you "home" care not about shelter systems or political power--they are simply lonely to come home to their rightful dwellings in the realms of God. They desire no holes to jump into save to survive another day to serve God and HIS civilization of creatures for they are given to KNOW the "experience" is but fleeting and, at best, distressing. It is not to prolong physical presence in a world gone mad and housed with Elite Slavemasters who have stolen your very heritage. This is, however, the testing of God's people through those choices of service. I suggest, also, that all of you look within self and see what YOU do with the WORD? Do you toss it aside because YOU have studied and restudied every word? Or, do you rest your very infinite journey on what another self-appointed "guru" tells you to believe? If it is the latter--ye shall be greatly the loser!

Dharma, Thomas, Druthea, Rael, etc., are not "gurus"--they are faithful "typists" and "translators of 'foreign' language into English". They have a "job" which is no greater and no lesser than your own--but, the difference? They do theirs and perhaps you "wait" to be convinced by confirmations and the local preacher as to what "he" believes "you" should do????

Dating service for AIDS victims

HATONN 12/21/91 #1

The very soul is pained as the outpouring of so-called news is foisted upon you. At this "Christmas" time a "new" service is being offered to AIDS "victims". It is a dating, referral service within the group who are HIV positive--for finding physically expressive partners for sex. In the story isolated for "point", the Zionist media shows an AIDS "victim" at a piano and his friend singing Christmas Carols. The friend "miraculously" has escaped infection and therefore...they continue as only "friends" while the one with active HIV signs up for partners with which to have sex. Does anyone out there see anything WRONG WITH THIS??? What, after all, IS LOVE? Is it a sordid and most disillusioning act in physical selfishness--or is the relationship bonded through the heart and soul unto the FRIEND? Can you not see how you have been misled and become PEOPLE-OF-THE-LIE? It is well noted that the most desperate "victim" who turns-FROM THE LIE and into the laws of God in intent--makes great, great strides in Godness and/or is "healed" of the malady. There is "body" and there is "soul"--only when the soul is healed, can the body be healed. Perhaps you can kill the physical organism infecting the body--but if the soul is not "healed" the sickness shall, without exception, return in some form which will destroy. God does not do these things unto you--YOU DO THESE THINGS UNTO SELF. For healing, you must follow that which God gives unto you for the healing. It is as with a physician who knows that a certain antibiotic will kill the infecting organism and prescribes it for you--if you take it not, do you blame the physician? Then WHY do you blame God for your own indiscretions and actions which are blatantly against God?

And again, you ask me to prove who I am! I tell you to PROVE that I am not who I say I am!! Would it not be a bit in wisdom to investigate a bit? After all, someone wrote that material which you have been attending to, these many generations without question. Prove to me that those words are truly the words and laws of Holy God of Light. I can prove unto you that THEY ARE NOT! What you project from the mouths at the pulpit in interpretations of that which IS written is enough to prove that a "man" is in interpretation according to his own opinion--FOR HE IS MAN!

The return of God

HATONN 12/21/91 #1

In that same "Bible" you are told that God will return and that He is not yet on your place--and yet, ones ask me daily if this one or that one who is touted to be in London or Mt. Shasta IS GOD. No, it is NOT GOD. God is within each of you as within His own placement. The great teacher FROM God is the one coming as ONE WITH GOD, and He is with me and NOT in physical form on your planet for it is given that He shall not return in the same manner on this visitation. This does not mean that this "energy" form has not and does not appear in holographic energy projection and that in a state of reverence YOU have come into HIS EXPRESSION AND VISION.

I would challenge any one or group to prove that one concept of my teachings is incorrect according to God! The interesting point, dear friends, is that the Elite will only condemn; they NEVER meet the challenge and they continue, while YOU allow it, to distort and prohibit YOU from ever seeing the TRUTH AS GIVEN. HOW WILL YOU KNOW WHEN GOD IS PRESENT? SOME THOUGHT IT WOULD BE THROUGH SWAGGART--I BELIEVE THAT HAS NOW BEEN RULED OUT. WHERE WILL GOD COME? FLUFFY CLOUDS IN RAPTURE? WHO SAID? WHO TOLD YOU THAT STORY? OH, I see--"...that man over there!" Well, here I am to tell you that it will not be "that way" and YOU deny the Truth of it. HOW WILL

YOU RECOGNIZE THOSE "PROMISED HOSTS"? DO THESE WINGED RAPTURE DRIVERS HAVE CARGO BINS TO TAKE YOUR "STUFF"? IN YOUR FOLLY SHALL YOU FIND YOUR DOOM! IN YOUR WISDOM SHALL YOU SEE GOD AND THE PRESENCE SHALL BE GLORY. HOW WILL YOU RECOGNIZE GOD?? HAVE YOU ALREADY LISTENED TO "ANOTHER" AND MISSED THE PRESENCE OF GOD AND BROTHERHOOD OF HOSTS? SO BE IT.

Brother, you still look for God "out there somewhere"! Where are YOU AT THIS MOMENT? Well, that is exactly where YOU WILL FIND GOD. HOW DO YOU FEED GOD? HOW DO YOU HOUSE GOD? DO YOUR ACTIONS ALWAYS INVITE YOUR COMFORT TO ACT IN FRONT OF GOD? YOU DO! EVERY ACTION AND EVERY THOUGHT--YOU DO WITH GOD. IF YOU BE IN THE GUTTER--THERE SITS GOD! FOR THAT IS HIS PROMISE--THAT YOU NEVER WALK THE VALLEY OR THE HILLOCKS ALONE! HE NEVER LEAVES YOU--EVEN THOUGH YOU ARE CONSTANTLY TRYING TO GET YOURSELF FROM HIM AND HIS INSPECTION. GOD IS THE ONE WHO LIFTS YOU UP AFTER THE ADVERSARY HAS CAUSED YOU TO PULL SELF DOWN. ONLY THROUGH GOD CAN YOU AGAIN REACH THE PINNACLE OF GLORY, WHATEVER YOU PERCEIVE IT TO BE--FOR IF IT BE OF THE PHYSICAL ASPECT--IT IS NOT CREATED BY GOD FOR YOUR ADVERSE USE BUT IS, RATHER, UTILIZED BY THE ADVERSARY TO PULL YOU DOWN INTO HIS PIT OF PHYSICAL EXPRESSION AND ENTRAP YOUR SOUL. YOU MUST COOPERATE, YOU REALIZE? YOU CANNOT BE "PULLED DOWN" WITHOUT YOUR PERMISSION!

THE ADVERSARY

About that adversary or Satan or Devil, or, or, or? You ask and ask and ask. Evil is ONLY of the physical expression! Therefore, your evil adversary is of the physical utilizing YOU at all possible times as his tool in service to that physical expression. His job, well done, is to focus your soul intent into the trap of the physical expression so that you are never fulfilled. God gives you NO LIMITS. Evil LIMITS YOU AT EVERY TURN. You can deny that this be true, but you know that you lie to self and your "opinion" changes nothing. If, for instance, you have a sodomy tryst planned for this evening with a questionably infected party--do you think God will strike you down for cancelling the encounter? If you plan a murder for this evening and decide to not murder--do you think God will strike you down? Think about that which you do and see, if in the ceasing of the actions--you are acting against God. You KNOW when you break the LAWS and that is exactly why you serve these physical deprivations in the DARK PLACES (even if you turn on the incandescent light!).

In the ending days the Holy will be more Holy and the evil shall become more evil--and so is it written and so it is. Violence feeds on violence--but, in the ending the very violence and the very evil shall devour of itself through its own attachment to only that which is of the physical expression. That which is beyond the physical is that which will ultimately prevail in or out of the physical expression. If you turn from that which is Truth in order to follow in blindness the liars then you shall simply perish in the lie. Is it so difficult to consider alternatives to this state of affairs--IS THE PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE ALL THAT WONDROUS AT PRESENT? WHY? PLEASE CAREFULLY ANSWER "WHY"? IF IT SEEMS WONDROUS--LOOK AT "WHY". IF IT IS PERCEIVED BLEAK OR NEGATIVE--WHY?

The "lamp" is offered unto you, all you need do is take it and you shall have a lighted focus to follow wherein you can change that which is upon you unto your rightful place as director and caretaker of that which was given unto you. "Happiness" is often fleeting in its definition by Man. Joy is eternal

Vanished traditions

12/25/91 #1 HATONN/-
SANANDA

Hatonn present in the Holy Light, in Radiance on the blessed Day. Special? No, I think not "special" more than another in which we are blessed to give service. This one, however, has taken on a tradition which has all but vanished and this year you will note that enemies do not lay down their arms in respect for the adversary's tradition in the battle-torn sectors. Why? Because each side feels "they" are "right" and nothing is balanced against the harmonious laws of God and Universe--'tis but man against brother.

Each of the last two days we have sat to write and between despair, court cases and illness, we have set the work aside in hopes of finding balance within. We began to write the JOURNALS in July of 1989--save SIPAPU which was penned in 1986. This is only 28 months past and we have sent forth, Friday, the 48th volume. I believe we can grant Dharma a couple of days of despair and repair of health for even the soul becomes weary in looking for the shining boundaries around the clouds which seem to darken the pathway.

HOPE?

As we sit this Christmas Day--again without benefit of tree or trimmings--the heart is also sorrowed by, again, incredible and festering spears over the dwelling and threat of physical removal. Now the Resolution Trust Corporation threatens all manner of ill-begotten deeds upon these ones if they continue this struggle. How can you have come so far into the trap, America? How can the world not have seen it coming? Some did--but no-one listened to the warning call. Only on the day before yesterday did they wait hours for a brief hearing to simply postpone trial until after the holiday--after having "trailed" daily since prior to Thanksgiving. This coming "hearing" only represents the "beginning". There is no sorrow--only frustration.

There is such despair about your lands--as these ones sat in the courtroom (it was a courtroom where sentencing is handed down) and we witnessed in one brief hour ten young people sent to prison from two to five years for either violence or theft for money for drugs or holding drugs. This has become the daily routine in the courts in this all but lost generation. The criminals who make it all necessary stay free and wealthy while hearts and lives are broken and destroyed.

So Dharma cries out: "Is there hope? It seems such empty return." I can only respond, chelas--There is YOU, there is me and there is GOD! Two of the three of us have no doubts at all--what is wrong with YOU?

You must all come into understanding that it requires a blow to the routine to get attention. As long as things are status-quo no one looks around from their stupor. As jobs become scarce and hard times fall upon the shoulders, then man's clarity of sight clears a bit.

How true is "JFK"?

SANANDA/HATONN 12/25/91 #1

I am bombarded with inquiries as to the authenticity of the motion picture regarding the assassination of John F. Kennedy. Yes and no; it is authentic in perception and as to ones involved. Lyndon Johnson was greatly involved, as we outlined last year in a JOURNAL; however, he did not mastermind the activities in full and the real reason has only been projected by one or two writers who literally had to flee for their own lives.

The REASON for the killing was not the Bay of Pigs, etc., as projected--but rather, Kennedy was going to reclaim printing of the national currency through the government and stop utilizing the Fed-and you can have it while walking in the physical experience! Try it and you'll like it! If you do not save your Constitution, soon, you will forever lose the freedom to pursue that "happiness" (Joy). You do not need save the world, or neighbor--if ye save of self and step by step reclaim those unalienable RIGHTS which were to have PRESERVED those rights, you will prevail for you will come in mass beyond that which the adversary thief has taken from you. You need not accept the scenario according to the physical adversary--move with God and write (right) your own conclusions or move on into open infinity. Each cycle will merge with the new but none END except for the "rest" within the "void" of God's beginning. God has nothing to PROVE to you--I defy YOU to prove otherwise to me.

"In the ending would come forth the WORD." How many will miss it? How many will MISS the rapture because you know not what to seek nor will you know when you "find it" for IT IS NOT LOST! You simply REFUSE to look where it is in preference to "another's opinion". Think upon these things diligently as you witness that which is coming down in heinous manner upon you as a species and the nations fall into disarray and evil claims his throne. God waits!

Salu, Hatonn to clear, please. Adonai ●

eral Reserve. This, further, is why Bobby Kennedy was likewise killed--for he vowed to complete the job after his election--he could do nothing about it as Attorney General--he would only have enough power to make such a massive move as President.

Did these persons have such loose morals as projected? Yes, but not to the extent projected because the effort was always to discount the immense possibilities involved. I'm not going to go into details again herein because we have covered this subject in the past and the more important "signs" of your nearing impounding is much more urgent.

Please, you MUST note things such as that which is happening in Miami and Newark, New Jersey. In Newark there are now installed on the lamp posts, cameras, which film constantly EVERYTHING and everyone on the streets--both sides. They are spaced appropriately to cover ALL sectors and are constantly monitored by a battery of monitors and surveillance officers. This was long-ago installed in Miami but disabled by the underworld elements. The system is being refurbished with tamper-proof shielding, etc. This is also becoming prevalent all across the country but mostly no one is told what the new "things" are and it is assumed the camera containers (which look exactly like additional lighting fixtures) are simply additional lights.

By the way, did you know that in the major cities such as Los Angeles--the Soviets are training in the police academies? Just thought you might enjoy knowing that you are already integrated with your new bed-mates. You think you bought off good old Gorby with a couple of million dollars? No, that is only the beginning! What are the Russians saying these days, friends? "Down and out with Yeltsin and the Jews!" If this doesn't terrify you then you don't know enough to be panicked. The Russians are blaming the Zionists for everything and place the U.S.A. as a tool of Israel. Perhaps, as more and more ones are laid off from their jobs, there will be time for reading and attaining information--the JOURNALS are conveniently small enough to comfortably hold in an employment line--perhaps the unemployment offices are the places to put the Liberators!

Rally around the flag

I can't imagine that as we move along here that every man and woman veteran in the nation will fail to rally to the call of nation and flag. You have one willing to place his neck on the block to lead and clean out the house of thieves--and, get your brother veterans back from the jungles where they were abandoned by your so-called "leaders". I cannot believe that every last Viet Nam veteran will not rally to this call for your lives have been as deliberately destroyed as if you were shot in cold blood in front of a firing squad. If you have fared well since those days then you are rare indeed.

How about you ones who made it back from Saudi Arabia? How many of you realize that there is a young Saudi Prince who is being tortured to death to prevent him speaking out about the TRUTH of the Gulf War? How much of THIS news do you get? I see, all you know is that 700,000 of your military people are being "fired". How can this be when your nation has never been more critically near all-out war?

I'm sorry, readers, I cannot get excited about your decorated tree when babies are being deliberately starved to death all around your globe--including in the United States of America! I cannot look objectively on your decorative tinsel and pretty ribbons and replicas of "Santa" in cosmic shock at what you may not have "gotten" this gift season--while a planet is in hostage! Do I have compassion for you who refuse to see Truth? No--I have great pity for you and there is a magnificent difference. You have been given opportunity to meet your enemy and KNOW HIM and you turn away and even one or two of you who come to our very door and share--file lawsuits against us for some perceived "consultation fee". Be most careful, dear ones, and beware those who come asking to participate in great work--for some will be of evil intent and not only will prove their intent to be evil but will misguide you through false input and you shall be far worse than when you began the struggle for freedom within the Constitutional Law. A little bit of incorrect knowledge can destroy you completely. Beware! Caution! There are ones who will come claiming to be "experts" and "authorities" and "offer" assistance. Their intent is to suck you in and, through greed, take you for a jolly ride. I shall take every opportunity to expose such ones for they work not in your behalf as patriots or citizens. They are filled with greed and self-ego importance and will cause great grief in their exuberance. God always gives "clues" if you but pay attention.

Noriega publicity?

SANANDA/HATONN 12/25/91 #1

What is and has happened to Noriega of Panama is a travesty and mockery of any "justice" system. Dear ones, do you realize that ALL witnesses against Noriega were outstanding drug dealers--bought and paid for by your government--without explanation or apology. There are piles of records from the FBI and CIA, etc., PROVING THAT, IN FACT, NORIEGA WAS CLOSING DOWN THE DRUG TRADE IN PANAMA--AND WAS IN TOTAL COOPERATION AND PAYMENT BY AND FROM THE CIA AND UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The Haitian boat people and the facade of the full-run rape trial of Smith were coordinated and pushed onto the screens to keep all expression of the Noriega trial OFF THE SCREENS. While everyone watched Willy's zipper all day on CNN, the railroading job was being done in another Florida courtroom.

I have already written about the Panama/Noriega situation until I weary of it so I ask that you go back and read it or petition John Coleman to allow printing of his recent writings, in the paper. (Editor: John's article is on page 16). Do I say that this "rape" was timed to distract? No--only the trial and the manner of the trial. William Smith has a serious problem and so does the young lady in point but with morals spread on the prime time vidiot boxes, movie screens and news press--I find it hard to believe that ANYONE IN AMERICA THIS DAY WOULD BE SHOCKED--LEAST OF ALL THE GROUPIES IN PALM BEACH. EVEN SOME OF THE JURORS ARE GETTING MORE "PLAY" THAN THE PARTICIPANTS! WHERE ARE YOUR VALUES, AMERICA?

This is the most important protection of all available routes of shelter and because the persons involved at present are not so well informed, they fail to give sufficient input. Since this is connected to our work, I shall ask for input. Trusts are a viable form of shelter in some instances; however, I see incorporation (but nowhere other than as in Nevada) as the singular most worthy step to shelter available today. Remember, in ALL instances the man with the biggest gun can take all while he disallows all rules. I shall ask for a reprinting of the incorporation information from our prior material for we have so many new readers who are stymied by my pronouncement herein.

One step closer to NWO

SANANDA/HATONN 12/25/91 #1

How many of you realize that in July Mr. Bush issued and signed an Executive Order, No. 12770?? On the surface it really wouldn't seem like much as it had to do with weights and measures and metric systems confusion--or is it much? Well this "pair" of measures moved the merging of the United States into the vision of an internationalist New World Order right smartly along the path of integration whether or not you-the-people like it. He told the UN all about it at his Sept. 23rd address.

The measures were an executive order implementing the metric system in the government, and an international human rights agreement that would supersede the Constitution. The order, in effect, forces the agencies of the federal government to go metric. It is aimed at implementing "the metric system of measurement as the preferred system of weights and measures for U.S. trade and commerce".

Attempts had already been made to encourage "voluntary compliance" with the Metric Conversion Act in 1975. Federal officials said then the country would adopt metric

I suggest you get a copy of PRIVACY IN THE FISHBOWL if your curiosity is spiked, because economic alternatives are quickly being dissolved.

For you ones who write regarding Law Center business--please know that your inquiries are immediately forwarded by fax to the center for attention. Especially you who have watched as the IRS has taken your property--please know that the information is being forwarded. It is very, very difficult to get restitution after they have seized property for they have the big guns and lawyers and can drain a hundredfold the cost of the property in point. Usually, however, even after they have seized property they are rarely through with the harassment of you.

We are in serious need of attorneys willing to share a bit of sorting expertise because the staff we have is completely buried in the piles of petitions. In some cases, such as Demjanjuk and the Israelis--his very life hangs in the next two weeks' balance so attention must be focused there first. Also the case of Dann Band of Shoshone natives, there is need for up-front attention for the cattle are already confiscated from their reservation. However, a lot of these things of IRS and "citizenship" nature can be handled through the Common Law Service Center and a lot of information can be obtained for handling IRS and legal affronts.

policies within a decade. The general public, however, never warmed to the idea and chose to ignore it.

Currently Bush is also prompting the Senate to pass the UN Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. The pact would supersede rights guaranteed in the Constitution.

The UN human rights covenant is a treaty that would, in effect, override several provisions of the Constitution, impede law enforcement and, worst of all, further diminish the national sovereignty of the United States. The covenant would, in fact, limit the ability of Americans to be governed by the laws you have within the Constitution.

This treaty, drafted and issued by a foreign body--the United Nations--that is neither elected by nor responsible to American citizens, seeks to tell you what your internal criminal laws should be and what civil and political liberties Americans should have. Well, it may be easy to see why Jimmy Carter signed the Covenant on Civil and Political Rights. It eludes me, however, as to why the United States should ratify it.

So what of today, Christmas?

SANANDA/HATONN 12/25/91 #1

Let us hear from this Master Teacher who gave all and continues to give in unlimited abundance to all who would receive. I ask Emmanuel Sananda to speak that you might have courage for through this path shall all be set to rightness.

SANANDA

Peace, my beloved. I work with you, making you great in substance; that is the mission and the peace; let my light shine before you, leading and encouraging you. KNOW that my happiness and joy is your happiness and joy; my art is yours; my knowledge is your knowledge; my skill encompasses your skill of technique in projection of ideas if you will but accept in promise of Truth.

Squash the move

Bush's men have been frantically trying, since September, to quash newly raised fears that the Constitution and your national sovereignty are at risk. In the speech, for instance, Bush characterized a world in which UN forces, through "international cooperation", would work for the "collective settlement of disputes". He also promised to quell rebellions by upstart nationalists in long-oppressed and subsumed (to possess as an integral part of a whole) countries (like yours is soon going to be): Bush declared no one "can promise today's borders will remain fixed at all times, and that UN force should be used to settle 'nationalist passions'." Unfortunately I find that more "passions" remain focused in the seat of the pants than in the "nationalist attitude".

Next, Bush made a most confusing statement as he projected that he saw "an order in which no nation must surrender one iota of its own sovereignty". I suppose that is so if the nation in point has no sovereignty with which to begin. It was also "an order characterized by the rule of law rather than the resort to force; the cooperative settlement of disputes, rather than anarchy and bloodshed, and an un-therein can we feed the multitude with the grains of our employments through the knowledge gifted by our Creator. Unto you this day, I speak unto my people and say that the Lord loves the cheerful giver and sharer of self; give that you might also receive in great abundance--receive that abundance so that you might again give and increase goodness throughout the places of manifested life.

There is a great tempest upon the world but was it not known to you of old? Have you not asked that you should endure it--knowing that it would become to hand? You have said as much to me in your quiet communion and yet you would cast the burden of responsibility of self upon the back of another that you would not face consequences of behavior in separations from the laws of God. You would take of my blood and pronounce stinting belief in human rights". So be it. Shudder now because it is coming!

The last time Bush spoke of "international cooperation" for the "collective settlement of disputes", he amassed an international force, which comprised more than 500,000 U.S. military personnel, to attack Iraq. Actually it was over a million in force--your government can't count well--it must be due to the new metric conversion system.

The internationalists behind the President's drive to a New World Order hired old hand Henry Kissinger to quell the critics' fears. With his extensive access to the media, he penned a nationally distributed column aimed at merging Bush's international policies and domestic affairs, the latter of which Bush is charged with neglecting. Now, dear ones, you knew Kissinger was alive and kicking--he simply goes underground to do his work when the heat is on.

Kissinger reasoned the West relied on American protection throughout the Cold War period and U.S. capital during the reconstruction period following World War II, and thus, the United States is already, like it or not, engaged and committed beyond the point of no return.

Hope for the U.S. taxpayer

SANANDA/HATONN 12/25/91 #1

There is, however, according to Mr. Kissinger, hope for the American taxpayer currently bearing the burden of "world leadership". Yes, I too, think so--it is called total bankruptcy of the American taxpayer, the nation and the spirit. Note herein that Kissinger says it will be through "world leadership". That would be to let the economic superpowers of Europe and Asia take on a reasonable share of the responsibility for maintaining global order. Which countries might those be?

"The ideological conflict of Capitalism vs Communism lent plausibility to the American penchant for crusades," Kissinger wrote. "But the dependence of our allies on American protection has declined.

"They will prove less and less willing to subordinate their judgment automatically to Washington's," he added. "Europe and Japan in particular will develop increasingly autonomous defense capabilities."

Mr. Kissinger has noted that America has suffered on the economic front: "The days of America as the principal source of worldwide investment capital are OVER."

Like Bush, who offered proposals which would further erode national sovereignty at the United Nations in September, Kissinger suggested a new international order based on a national security policy that is "defined by distinctions between the essential and the desirable... more discriminating in its strategy and, above all, more re-not be shaken and the lesson of the moment be learned in properness. Ah, 'tis the multitudes who see and hear not. Behold there are ten thousand times ten thousand who perceive no lightings, who perceive only blackness--who refuse the lamp which lights the way.

They cry ever with a loud wail that the world is a wilderness and they are left without a shepherd--all the while they turn from the shepherd. Please see TODAY, next page gional in its design".

NOW GET THIS: Kissinger, despite the discussion of limits to American power, in the end advocates relinquishing sovereignty in favor of internationalism. His arguments reflect, point by point, the long-term goals of the Trilateral Commission and the Bilderberg organization, the branches of the Committee of 300 seeking to establish this New World Order. Remember, Kissinger is the power behind the Bush throne.

Kissinger noted the world's six-fold population increase in the past 150 years, from a billion in 1850 to an estimated 6 billion plus in the next century. Kissinger asked how problems of the environment, nuclear proliferation and the agenda for the new population could be solved on a purely national level.

I warn you, beloved ones, that the one worlders' vision ignores boundaries, cultures and democratic rights, in favor of what they say is in the best interest of mankind (which of course, is that which is in the best interest of themselves). The Internationalists--the Elite few, the wealthy and influential controllers--will function in this scheme as the sole arbiters of what is good for mankind, and will maximize their profits in the bargain, at the expense of entire populations.

So, you might suggest--don't ratify the Order. Ah, but who will notice a bill coming up at midnight on Dec. 24th, before a handful of Zionists still available to Congress, called No. 12770 dealing with some sort of "old counting system"? Would you take note? I thought not!

The trial of General Noriega

12/21/91 #2 DR. J. COLEMAN

Billed as the drug trial of the century, as each day drags on it becomes more clearly evident that the U.S. Justice Department has no case at all against this once head-of-state of a once sovereign country, who was kidnaped by United States government agents and shanghaied to Miami to stand trial. In this most disgraceful of all examples of "the end justifies the means", let us examine some of the highlights of this nauseating affair, which got shunted off the front pages by the herd and unto the very wolf who would devour them.

You must know that the world is NOT a wilderness; behold it has a shepherd; you have witness of that shepherd; how comes it that one does know of that shepherd and the other knows not? I tell you that by a knowledge of that shepherd you do mark your election; continue to know him and the light grows brighter until the wildness ceases to hold terror for your footsteps. The shepherd will never move from your side even as you push him from you.

Ah, you struggle and you thrust your desires upon almighty God to enhance your journey--most usually through abundance of worldly manners and goods. "Give me wealth that I may serve," while ye wait and serve not. Perhaps you might look about yourself and see that only through service first does abundance flow. You would have great gifts for nothing at the season called wonderful, but what is there in the deserving of such bounty? First you must open your hearts and find purses in them, purses of silver as well as ideals, for when was it said that either was denied you? Verily--the one enhances the other--always.

Reverse the order of your meritings, and the goodly sum shall follow the ideal, which comes to you from the Father who speaks to you in the sequence of events, as you are open and ready for the receiving and willing in order to act at the receiving. Blessed and happy is the man who can know that the goodly event lies ever before him,

I speak as one having authority, knowledge, and power to transcend all natural law, and make flowers from thistles, beloved ones--would you come and walk with me? It matters not of my life or death or rantings and sayings--it matters only of my presence in the sending from OUR FATHER on this day you have labelled Christmas in your year 1991. You have no way of even knowing your own next moment, least your infinite voyage--I ask you to think upon these things most diligently as you ponder purpose and Truth. Wherein are you? Who are you? It matters not of ME! WHO ARE YOU? I come forth with the "Hosts" sent of God to prepare a place for return and reclamation of God's children. How long will you refuse me? So be it for if you remain in the refusing of ME then so shall the Father refuse YOU. I am come again to bring you home.

THE UNITED STATES. The Noriega trial is a microcosm of what is happening all across the length and breadth of this land that we fondly go on imagining in our utter blindness in actually believing is still "free".

If anything good comes out of this travesty of justice it will be that it has shown up the paucity of what passes for the Bush Administration's so-called "war on drugs" and the utter bankruptcy of every one of the Bush Administration's policies, both foreign and domestic.

The Justice Department, after months of searching and at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the taxpayer, was only able to come up with a sorry collection of derelicts, bag men, criminals and convicted drug dealers or their servants and messengers. NOT ONE SINGLE CREDIBLE WITNESS HAS EMERGED THUS FAR TO BRING CREDIBLE EVIDENCE AGAINST NORIEGA.

The servants of the Escobar brothers and the Medellin cartel who were unlucky enough to get caught are now trying to ease their plight by a string of lies which cannot stand the light of day. The Mi-

Mongol massacare

HATONN 12/25/91 #2

How many of you realize that a mass grave has just been uncovered in Mongolia containing the bodies of thousands of Buddhist monks. Each had been executed by a bullet to the back of the head. The grave covered five-acres and is near the town of Moeroen in northwestern Mongolia. It is estimated upwards of 17,000 monks were murdered as a result of Josef Stalin's genocidal policies during the 1930's and 1940's. You have just bought the farm back, little chelas--and those very types of law enforcement officers are the very ones who will be "guarding" your New World Order! These are Khazarian Zionists. Still think you will have peace on Earth? When the Mongols come in hordes and march across that Euphrates River bed you are in serious trouble, little chelas, serious indeed!

ami Herald labeled an episode straight out of "Magnum P.I." as related by a "key witness" as "the most damaging testimony against Noriega". What did this "most damaging testimony" consist of? First of all, it was related by a convicted drug dealer, Gabriel Taboda, who is serving a twenty-one year sentence for cocaine smuggling.

Taboda recounted how Fabio Ocha wanted a red Ferrari 308 sports car driven by "Magnum". At first, said Taboda, General Noriega refused to allow the car to be imported through Panama for shipment to Colombia, where importation of such luxuries is forbidden by law. But when a suitcase was brought into the room and opened, revealing $500,000 in U.S. $100 bills, Taboda says Noriega changed his mind. The money, said Taboda, came directly from Fabio Ocha. If true, it would have placed Noriega in the position of acting for the Medellin cartel and in the pay of Fabio Ocha.

Of course it was not true. Noriega did not receive any money, the whole thing being a concoction of Taboda's to ease his situation. Taboda could not remember crucial dates, who else was present, and critical details did not add up. His testimony was full of holes and glaring inconsistencies. In short, a total concoction without substance.

This can be said of every single reprehensible witness the government has thus far dragged out of its jails. Having studied a goodly part of the trial, let me say that the witnesses' stories do not jibe, dates are awry, details become blurred in "I don't recall", other key details are missing and thus far there is not a shred of credible evidence to support the prosecution's contention that Noriega made Panama a safe haven and a paradise for drug dealers and their bankers.

As far as I am able to judge, the prosecution's case focuses on three years, from 1982 to 1984, during which period it is alleged that Noriega received at least $4 billion from the Medellin cartel. All this is contained in a 30-page indictment which is a public document, so you can obtain it and read it for yourself. Charged with Noriega are fifteen Colombians including the Escobar brothers.

Please see NORIEGA, next page

The sorry array of dirty bagmen, ex-pilots and con-artists and convicted drug dealers would be enough to disgrace any court of justice, even in a Third World banana republic, but this is a U.S. court of law, so they are being allowed to wend their way through the proceedings, which very often resemble a third rate vaudeville theatre or a bunch of clowns performing in some small touring circus of no status.

One such worthy who fits the description was former PDF officer Luis Del Cid who, like the rest of his unfortunate colleagues doing jail time, is battling for a reduction of sentence and who has received fees for testifying as a prosecution witness.

Del Cid's moment of glory came when he testified that he had given Noriega "envelopes and suitcases full of Medellin cartel money". Did he look inside the suitcases and envelopes? "No," said Del Cid and, when asked how, in that case, he knew they contained Medellin cartel money, Del Cid's explanation was that "it couldn't have been anything else".

Next up to bat for the government was star player Floyd Carlton Caceres, a former cartel pilot also serving a stiff prison sentence and paid a witness fee. Carlton was supposed to buttress the prosecution's core charges, namely, that Noriega allowed cartel drug flights to use Panama as staging and refueling stops. Carlton struck-out right away by admitting that Noriega had exploded in anger when first approached and never did anything at all to facilitate drug flights and, in fact, never had prior knowledge of such flights. He further admitted that, in 1983, a crucial period in the prosecution's case, Noriega ordered a halt to all drug flights in and out of Panama.

What is emerging from the trial is that Noriega had no dealings with the Escobar's, but that Escobar emissaries used Noriega's name to curry favour with their bosses and extract large bonuses from them. What is also emerging is that, for years, Noriega was a favorite contact of the DEA and has several letters of commendation to prove it. He was much favoured by the late William Casey and was a confidant of Oliver North's. Noriega often met with George Bush while he was head of the CIA. Army intelligence and Justice Department intelligence both used Noriega's services for which he was paid $320,000.

Of the big guns yet to testify, Carlos Ledher, who was turned in to DEA agents by Noriega while in Madrid, arrested and extradited to the United States--which could and would not have happened without assistance from Noriega, has been granted a near-motel-room cell with all sorts of privileges and his family received "green cards" recently.

A former U.S. Attorney, Robert Merkel, who prosecuted Ledher in 1988 and saw him sentenced to life plus 130 years told The Washington Post, "I don't think the government should be in the business of dealing with Carlos Ledher. The guy is a liar from beginning to end."

One of the mysteries of why the Bush Administration finally went into action has been dispelled with the discovery that the President was pushed into "Operation Just Cause" by the British who feared that Noriega was going too far in disrupting the Panamanian banking system. Another surprise was the involvement of arch-conservative Jesse Helms in the persecution of Noriega.

It was Helms who began agitating to "get Noriega". Sources in Washington told me, "Helms was used by Sharon who had a big hand in the drugs-for-guns trade in Central and South America and who feared that the Sharon role might be exposed if Noriega wasn't removed. There is no proof of this, only persistent unsubstantiated rumor."

A people deserves the government it gets and deserves what it gets from government. How could we, a freedom-loving people stand by and allow President Bush to invade Panama without first having obtained a Congressional Declaration of War? Worse yet, how could we, supposedly a nation of laws and NOT of men, stand by and allow President Bush to kidnap Noriega and forcibly remove him from Panama against his will, without even a modicum of legal procedures having been followed? This was an act of outright BRIGANDRY which we did not protest.

How could we, a nation of supposedly free men, allow the Justice Department to violate all of Noriega's civil rights and his rights under our criminal justice system, by tapping phone calls between Noriega and his defense lawyer? How could we, a nation of supposedly just men and women, allow the government to freeze all of Noriega's funds, thereby depriving him of the right to pay for legal counsel and how could we allow, without appropriate objection, the government to "obtain" a secret list of defense witnesses Noriega intended calling?

Moreover, there is a compelling need to know whether the suspicion has any merit that the Justice Department entered into a conspiracy with Raymond Takiff, former defense counsel for Noriega whom the government knew was going to be called later as an informant in another drug case, to represent Noriega without first acquainting Noriega with its intentions re Takiff.

Nearly two years later, cocaine is flowing in through Panama into the United States in increased quantities. The lids that Noriega ripped off banks doing business with the cocaine trade have been replaced and shut tight. It is not a case of business as usual, rather it is a case of BIGGER AND BETTER BUSINESS THAN BEFORE. The General Accounting Office (GAO) said in a recent report that money laundering has "flourished" since the U.S. invasion of Panama, making the charges against Noriega an absolute charade.

Prior to the surprising advent of Jesse Helms pushing his way onto the scene, his connections with Panama were confined to opposition to the Panama Canal Treaties. Since North Carolina is not a state with a cocaine trade problem, why the sudden interest of Helms and his insistence that something be done about Noriega?

That Noriega was a protégé of the Justice Department's DEA, and that he worked for the CIA for years, cannot be denied. The DeFoe Report which the government refuses to allow Noriega's defense lawyer to introduce as evidence tells it all. Former Attorney General Thornburgh once nearly turned it over to Senator Orrin Hatch at the latter's insistent demands. My source says the DeFoe Report will make it perfectly clear what an extensive role President Bush played in the Noriega connection and that, as CIA chief, he had sat down many times with Noriega. And we call this justice. If the bell tolls for Noriega, it will toll for all of us, for what is being done to Noriega in the name of justice will also be done to us.

The judge in the case, supposed to be an impartial referee (and, contrary to popular belief, it is NOT "his court") has leaned over backwards to grant scores of Justice Department requests to rule as "inadmissible" information vital to the defense. Judge William Hoevener will not even allow discussion on his rulings, claiming that under the Classified Information Protection Act, the defense is not allowed to mention the documents it wants to subpoena or introduce, EVEN WHEN THIS ALLEGEDLY "CLASSIFIED INFORMATION" HAS ALREADY BEEN MADE PUBLIC.

Is this good enough evidence for those who for years have been telling me, "What you write about could never happen in the United States. We have our Bill of Rights and our Constitution." Yes, we do indeed have these precious things, but today we are dealing with courts of law and NOT courts of justice, and of late there is a huge pile of accumulated evidence that our courts pay not the slightest attention to either the Bill of Rights or our Constitution. If ever there was a "landmark" case to prove the point, it is the Noriega case.

Unfortunately the DeFoe Report will not be allowed as evidence in the Noriega trial as it is still considered a "classified" document. The DeFoe Report was produced for the Justice Department in 1975 by a team of lawyers under Michael DeFoe who conducted a very exhaustive and wide-ranging investigation of the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) and its activities, especially in Panama.

It is reputed to contain details of a plot by senior DEA officials to murder Noriega. Senator Hatch knows the contents of the DeFoe Report but has chosen to protect his party position and self-interests rather than take the public into his confidence. My intelligence source told me that he could see no legitimate reason why the DeFoe Report should be kept classified, except to make sure there is no fall-out that would damage political incumbents in the highest offices of government.

One of those most likely to have been scorched by it was Richard Nixon, whose close association with certain Mafia members raised a lot of eyebrows, but the one who stands the most to lose if the DeFoe Report should become public knowledge today is President George Bush. According to my source, "It would prove for once and for all that George Bush was fully familiar with Noriega's doings in Panama as far back as 1976 when Bush was director of the CIA."

At that time, Noriega was a colonel in the PDF's military intelligence unit and, as such, was well known to several British intelligence agents in MI6 and SIS. It is reputed that the British are the ones who ordered Noriega to be assassinated, on the presumption that he KNEW TOO MUCH about who was REALLY behind the drug trade, not only in Panama, but in the Caribbean Basin, also.

Long before Bernard Barker, Howard Hunt, Egil Krogh and G. Gordon Liddy surfaced as the Watergate burglars, they were working as drug enforcement agents of the federal government. Their beat was Panama and their objective was to catch Omar Torrijos, who allegedly was handling large shipments of heroin, a drug not commonly found in Panama, but which is generally recognised as coming out of the Hong-Kong opium trade. Hunt was allegedly called in to eliminate Torrijos, but the plot was stillborn when it was discovered just how deep Torrijos' "British connections" went.

Apparently, based upon what I have read, others involved in the plot to kill Torrijos' successor were William Durkin and Philip Smith, who held top positions in the DEA. My intelligence source told me, "A June 1975 Memo implicates both these officials. It was alleged that a discussion concerning assassination involved the possibility of killing Mr. Noriega, the principal assistant to the President of Panama, and that Philip Smith and William Durkin proposed that he be killed."

The DeFoe team is alleged to have gathered vast amounts of evidence of drug trafficking in Panama and that this plot to murder Noriega was discussed. The information was given to Richard Thornburgh on September 10th, 1975. It was called: "Report Re Colonel Manuel NORIEGA concerning options w/respect immobilization and or neutralization of NORIEGA". Thornburgh promptly buried it.

Why did Thornburgh not prosecute the DEA men for conspiracy to commit murder and conspiracy to murder an official of a foreign government--a serious federal crime? Why did the Justice Department go to such extraordinary lengths to prosecute those involved in the bombing death of a Chilean government official? Could it have been because he was a LEFT WING opponent of General Pinochet? Why the uneven approach to justice here?

Instead of doing his duty, Thornburgh ordered his officials NOT to turn the DeFoe Report over to Congress. Worse yet, both Senators Orrin Hatch and Dennis De Concini failed to demand that the DeFoe Report be handed over to them for public release. Thornburgh has left government service, but can still be made to account for his actions.

De Concini and Hatch are still in government, and should be asked by the public at large why they have thus far failed to demand that the DeFoe Report be declassified immediately so that it can be introduced as evidence in the Noriega trial. The Senate Judiciary Committee has the right to make such a demand and it would take some pretty compelling reasons why the request should be refused.

Failure to act points the finger of suspicion all the more strongly at President Bush and Hatch and DeConcini. All have a PUBLIC DUTY to declassify the DeFoe Report so that it can be entered as evidence in the Noriega trial. It is just too much to swallow when a single judge in a federal court in Miami can act in an arbitrary and capricious manner and thus deprive not only General Noriega of a fair trial but which deprives the general public of its right to know what their servants, of which Judge William Hoevler is one, are doing.

But Judge Hoeveler and the prosecutors may not be able to continue to deprive Noriega of his civil rights for much longer. Voices are being raised by three former DEA agents who told the prosecutor that there is a file full of evidence that Noriega worked for the DEA in intelligence for at least five years. Now that the existence of this file has been confirmed and the file located, the evidence it contains cannot be withheld from the defense lawyers by the prosecution.

If the government does not turn over this file to the defense team, it will be guilty of withholding evidence, a very serious federal crime for which the prosecutor could be charged. The government case is in peril if the file is given to the prosecution and it is in peril if it is not given forthwith. Either way the government is required by law to provide the defense with information in its possession that tends to prove the accused's innocence.

In a surprise move last Friday, December 13th, the three DEA agents, who were formerly based in Panama, met with Assistant U.S. Attorney Michael Patrick Sullivan and identified this particular file which was in the possession of Sullivan. In a frantic effort to continue the coverup and keep the parody of the Noriega trial going, harsh and angry words were exchanged.

The three agents identified the vital file as "Operation Negocio" which proved beyond doubt that Noriega worked for the CIA and other United States government agencies on a broad front in helping to stem and eventually halt three major drug operations in the middle 1990's.

The three former DEA agents identified to Sullivan what was in the "Operation Negocio" file and said they would definitely talk about its contents in court when they are called by the prosecution or the defense. In terms of U.S. law, Sullivan is compelled to disclose the existence of this file without any further delay. If he does not, the defense can call the three former agents to testify of their personal knowledge of it and thus end the case, even if Judge Hoeveler bends over backwards in favor of the prosecution.

The matter of the DeFoe Report should also receive the highest priority from those "conservative" Senators who claim they are representing their constituents. Unless and until the DeFoe Report is aired in the courtroom where Noriega is being tried, we shall never know, for sure, whether Manuel Noriega is guilty as charged or whether he is a victim of a coverup by the United States Government.

In either case, justice is not going to be served by continuing to withhold this vital report. If there are no skeletons in the U.S. and British government's closets, why is the DeFoe Report still classified? Who has got the most to hide, these governments or Manuel Noriega?

A colleague of mine who is observing the parody of the Noriega trial told me it is clear that, even with the dice loaded against Noriega, if he did play any part in drug dealing, "It could only have been infinitesimal at best. Government witnesses thus far tend to show this rather than help the government's very shaky case. This will be bolstered by Ledher--if he is called to testify, although 'if Operations Negocio' is given to the defense, he may never get his day in court.

"One of the most damaging things for the prosecution thus far is that a search by hundreds of U.S. soldiers of every one of Noriega's places of business and residences, and those of his close aides, turned up nothing except a fifty-pound bag of tortilla flour which was mistakenly identified as cocaine. The U.S. military were obliged to publicly correct the error a few days later.

"Worse yet, the hundreds of thousands of documents purloined by the U.S. government in its highly illegal search and seizure and kidnaping operation, were thoroughly examined, over and over again, yet not a single piece of paper was found which could in any way link Noriega to the drug trade, let alone prove the prosecution's contention that he was one of the biggest dope dealers in Panama.

"So what did the Justice Department do? It sent out a squad of FBI agents to comb the prisons of Florida holding convicted drug dealers, this because Michael P. Sullivan and his prosecution team knew that they would have to depend on oral and not written testimony. The seedy bunch of convicted criminals Sullivan brought in was the very best that money could buy. That is how far down the cesspool we have fallen in our efforts to convict Noriega and thus cover up what has really been going on in Panama. There are some very important people in the U.S. and Britain who have a great deal to lose if ever the whole truth and nothing but the truth should emerge in open court."

What the Noriega trial has already produced is an important statement, namely that the drug trade in Panama has continued to proliferate and that in spite of--or is it because of--Washington's hand-picked government, it shows no signs of being contained, let alone stopped. It is not a case of not enough manpower and or money. It is not a case of inexperienced DEA agents in the field.

EVEN THE PERMANENT PRESENCE OF U.S TROOPS IN PANAMA--A FACT THE AMERICAN PUBLIC APPEARS TO HAVE OVERLOOKED WITH THE PASSAGE OF TIME--HAS FAILED TO EVEN PUT A DENT IN THE COCAINE TRADE IN PANAMA SINCE THE KIDNAPING OF NORIEGA. witnessed and recorded. Yes, you are most beloved and treasured in mine realms.

Be most gentle with self as you go about your day today...you are human. This is not to say that you are given free reign to disobey God's Laws at every turn...although the free will certainly does permit this. It is most unwise to betray self with willful violations which shall only serve to bring pain and further needed lessons. Each is in the choosing and in the choosing the harvest is gleaned. Each must carefully plant taxpayer's money. The illegal occupation of Panama would thereby be terminated.

What then is the problem in Panama? It is what it has always been: the international drug trade run from the top down by some of the most important people in the world who are in the highest offices in several countries, including principally Britain and the United States, is IMMUNE from any and every attack upon it. The drug trade is beyond the law.

Nothing has changed since the days of the British East India Company's monopoly of the opium trade in China, when famous men like Lord Palmerston and Gladstone fought tooth and nail to preserve the trade for the British Crown and those famous American families like the Astors, Delanos, Perkinses, Russells, Roosevelts, Cabots, Forbeses, Cunninghams, Appletons and Bacons who made their billions thanks to the Baring brothers and other agents of the British Crown.

The removal of Noriega will preserve the drug status quo in Panama, and do nothing except perpetrate an injustice--even if Noriega is guilty--which our system of government cannot and MUST NOT abide, unless it is already thoroughly corrupted as its actions in the Noriega affair tend to prove. Only by going for the crowned cobras will we stop the international drug trade. As 1991 draws to a close, as a long-time drug-trade watcher, I see no evidence of that happening.

All Rights Reserved, Dr. J. Coleman, December 14th, 1991. ●

of the seed before the rewards may return...it is the LAW. Most upon your place are so ego-self filled that it is to the harvest that all eyes are fixed...and so few are willing to put forth the effort necessary to bring about change and fruitful works. It is by your works that ye shall be judged. And ye shall not be judged in the manner in which ye expect. Always it is perceived by man to be one way when indeed it is different. It is through discipline, actually hard work fully focused in proper intent, that is required. There is no free lunch in God's realms...although all are certainly welcome at the table. Charity is of GOD...welfare most certainly is NOT.

Mine workers are most ill this day. Peace be with you. You serve well in that which you do. And yes, there are more lessons coming. Think you that the lessons would cease? Nay, the lessons continue and continue and continue...unto the fullness of Glory in His Presence. There may be great joy in the learning. Haven't you ones experienced enough pain? Release the pain and learn the lessons therefrom, pick yourselves up and continue upon your pathway, in service. Always keep thine vision upon the goal you wish to attain. Is your motive in proper order? Do you wish to glean only for self? Do you seek security and shelter only for self? Do you fear and worry over being without? Be most cautious in that which you project both in word and thought...for it shall surely return to you multiplied. If your intent be correct and you seek service for the betterment of the whole, for the protection of the remnant...then, yes, then you shall receive help you have not dreamed of in your wildest imaginings...for this is the way of the Lord. You have assistance available at all times of which you do not know. And why do you not know of that which is readily available to you? Because you do not ask...you do not seek for that assistance. And God does not go unless invited. Those of you working in our service must learn to ask for help when you truly are blocked. Do not beat thineselves about the head and neck for nothing...ask, ask, ask!

Be most grateful as you find warmth in your shelter...you are most fortunate indeed in this ending time. Many shall perish and many shall simply suffer for long duration. Such is the way of ending cycles. Be compassionate with one another...each has a difficult path, each is only different. Do not project that one has it easier than you, for you know not the load that that one may carry. You know not that which has gone before. Think not that you are wise, for I tell you, you are not wise. You are but learning. And there is Glory in the learning, blessed chelas.

It is the time of family and friendship. I am most warmed by that which I witness among those of whom are my beloved ones.

There is much that is done in mine name that is abhorrent unto mine sight...I say there is much that is done in mine name that is abhorrent unto mine sight! Those ones shall learn well their lessons before coming into mine presence...for they have used and betrayed their brothers and their way of return shall be most hard indeed. So be it.

Beloved of me, know you that you are held in mine LIGHT? Forget it not. I see ALL. I know what is in your heart of hearts. You may not hide from God. Why would you even consider such a thought? God is your greatest friend and ally...your teacher...your FATHER. Is it not in the best of wisdom to learn from your greatest friend and ally that you may continue in your experience in balance? Why seek you the way of the physical when the physical is but a fleeting lie? Think on these things. Too often man will give in to the moment only to find that in the giving in he has betrayed only himself. How long must these lessons be learned by man before he learns that the better way is right before him? How long? Do I come harshly? Nay...I come as your brother. Soon I shall come with sword in hand and on that day I shall come as God...who among you shall stand with me on that day?

This is purely "physics" of frequency transmission, receiver termination of transmission and translation of the signal into the English language.

I am Commander of the "Phoenix Project", serving the Command of that ONE whom you refer to as "The Messenger, Christos, God, etc." The "Command Fleet" is from the sector Pleiades from which originated your ancestral lineage. My mission is in preparation for the return of the "God" to reclaim His property. He went forth and has prepared safe passage and "a place" for each of you who would come within His shelter. changes of the planet. Yours will be a "spiritual change" and may or may not include physical translation. Each will be given choice of direction and translation.

The purpose of these writings and speakings is to allow the Truth to be put forth unto the masses who would wish to receive them. The JOURNALS also serve as historical documentation of this portion of "history" relative to that which has come before--known and unknown--for whatever life forms and generations to follow this manifested experience.

You come against the wall, so to speak, wherein you all but cross the societal point of no return. You will act to reclaim your human rights or you will fall to the Adversary who, by the way--is that one touted to be the "anti-Christ". You are in the time of, and the action of, Armageddon as recognized from prophecy. It makes no difference to me whether or not you are believing of this information. Truth will stand into infinity and God does not send us, the Hosts, to banter or kibitz with you about the facts of the matter--ours is to present the situation as it is, unto you.

Your "enemy" as to "space aliens" are now all landlocked to your orbiting system. YOU HAVE NO ENEMIES AMONG THE BROTHERHOOD IN SPACE (COSMOS). YOU DO HAVE ENEMIES IN YOUR "SPACES" BUT THEY ARE VERY EARTH-ORIENTED AND ORIGINATED. All of this is explained in depth in the writings--this message is for identification of myself and my co-workers who bring information and assistance at this time of evolution.

We bring the unfolding and uncovering of the actions upon your globe so that you can awaken unto your plight--with "reason" and "proof". It is up to you as to what action you take for our commission is to respond to you who have asked input and assistance. We will DO nothing FOR you; we will serve and inform with "HOW TO" as we move along through the maze of incredible deceit. You have NOTHING TO FEAR from us of the Lighted Brotherhood of the Cosmos for we work and act only within the Laws of God and those of The Universal Creation (Natural). Your would-be-"Kings" (rulers of the globe) have heinous plans to injure you and place blame upon the Cosmic Brotherhood--what will be claimed is a blatant LIE. You are "People of the Lie" and unless you awaken and reclaim your heritage as nations and people--you shall fall--no more and no less.

Massive efforts are put forth to stop our presentations--so be it. We have naught to lose--YOU HAVE EVERYTHING TO LOSE, INCLUDING YOUR SOULS AS WELL AS YOUR LIVES PHYSICAL. My commission is to "inform" you and I shall do so to the best of my allowed abilities for I (we) are not allowed by Cosmic Law to interfere or intervene except in specific and delineated instances which have been covered in lengthy dialogue prior to this.

I serve aboard the Command Ship, Phoenix, and I head the Fleet Command. I am Commander of the United Federation Fleet, Inter-galactic Federation Command. I link with other Commands, i.e., the referenced "Ashtar Command", only in time of imminent planetary destruction at which point that Command will be in charge of any evacuation of general nature. Our Command will bring all of God's people into security. I have no responsibility to the "adversary" nor his followers and no evil shall be brought into the places of Lighted God. Evil is a manifestation of "human" and we do NOT allow evil within our orderly God-revering societies. This does not, however, mean that ones who are in deciding will not be taken into a placement which can preserve "soul" survival.

I am not here to ask your permission for anything; I care not what any aspect thinks or believes. I have a mission of God and I shall see to it. You may join with me or deny me for it makes not one iota of difference. I do not "sell" anything--not this paper nor any other item. I have a commitment and obligation and I will see to it. You may do that which you will--agree or disagree. I do, however, suggest that all read with an open mind to the "possibilities" herein for you are told by all corners of your intelligence that you are in a traumatic time of change--you might well be advised to look into the possibility of the Truth of this information. I chair the Cosmic Council relative to this Universal Sector and I believe you will find that I am not over-ruled. He who denounces my person had best be carefully looked at through the intent of wisdom for I meet with any man and/or energy who claims my falseness. I find that no one ever, somehow, wishes to participate in that invitation for confrontation--do you not find that strange?

You will find most of the "New Age" groups and speakers fully in alignment with the "New World Order--Global Government". This will be denied for they do not realize the subterfuge and "sucking in" of the innocent and ignorant. I suggest you pay close attention for you are on the brink of losing your world--not just your freedoms.

I shall continue to bring to your attention the cover-ups as they occurred and still occur. God has no mysticism nor hidden agenda--God is open and the only "mystery" is that which you simply do not yet understand--that too, He gives unto you openly and freely. There are no secret rituals or hidden doctrines, royal titles or elite placements. If you find any of these things in that which YOU follow--I suggest wisdom in discernment of your choices. If you give of your Power unto another according to his decrees--you have forfeited your Power forever. God asks that you accept and take your POWER in HIS name that you can become one within His Grace and reclamer of that which is your rightful heritage.

I feel that we must begin to publish this identification and purpose for we are swamped with new readers and it is magnificently important that you KNOW who we are and that which we are about--for we are about our Father's business. Again, you have nothing to lose by gaining TRUTH and insight--but you do have everything to lose in the physical and soul realms by remaining ignorant at the hands of the deceivers who would hide Truth from your eyes and ears. So be it. I salute you who assume responsibility. I pity you who do not and I have great compassion as we pass on into the more compressing times ahead, as you perceive the journey. I offer my hand in love and brotherhood and I give you all that I have and am. Accept or deny my person--but I suggest you look into the possibility that what we bring "might" well be Truth and you will come to understand. To deny the robber, who has just bound and gagged you, is to be a stupid fool. The better part of wisdom is to look, discern and then act. God never limits your investigation into all facets of the Truth--does your "minister"? Does your controlling hierarchy? I suggest you ponder this well. ●

Post hostage mortem

12/21/91 #3C DR. J. COLEMAN

We are all thankful that the last of the American hostages taken in Lebanon have finally been released. It has been a long and terrible ordeal for them and their families and on that we all agree. It is proper that we should do so. The ordeal of these men and their families must never be forgotten. There is nothing in this world that could compensate them for what they lost.

Causes produce effects, and in this tragic episode it behooves the people of the United States to closely examine the foreign policies of their government and find out whether the taking of hostages was an effect of those policies.

As far as the United States is concerned, our preoccupation began with the November 4th, 1979 occupation of our embassy in Teheran and the imprisonment of its diplomatic and embassy staff. We know that this event was planned as a crisis management exercise, in the course of deposing the legitimate ruler of Iran by the Carter Administration, and replacing him with the Ayatollah Khomeini. One of the reasons the Carter Government did this was to put an end to the Shah's interference in the production of opium in his country.

When it became apparent that Khomeini was bent on double-crossing President Carter, the United States began a series of events designed to undermine him and, it hoped, get rid of him altogether. The one thing the Khomeini regime could do to prevent Carter from succeeding was to take American hostages. In so far as it was Carter who was got rid of in 1980, instead of Khomeini, the ugly tactic was regarded by the Moslem world as a great success.

President Reagan tried to correct the errors made by Carter, quickly sanctioning shipments of arms for Iran, which trade had been going on for some time through Israel. Reagan hoped that with the October Surprise release of the hostages taken in the embassy raid, relations between the U.S. and Khomeini's regime would revert to normal.

They did, but lasted for only two years. Then came the Israeli invasion of Lebanon, authorised by Watergate "Deep Throat" and "I'm in charge" General Haig, whose rapid promotion to a four-star general had taken away the collective breath of our military establishment. Haig, it transpired, had trafficked on secret teletype channels with Ariel Sharon, the Israeli Defense Minister at the time. When caught by members of the National Security Agency (NSA), Haig at first attempted to bluster his way out--that is, until copies of the teletypes were laid out on President Reagan's desk.

Haig then admitted his crimes against the United States and the people of Lebanon, and begged to be allowed to resign. A foolish and weak President Reagan allowed Haig to escape the consequences of his evil actions that cost the lives of in excess of 30,000 Lebanese and Palestinian civilians and the virtual destruction of Beirut by the Israeli invaders.

Not content with the carnage caused by Sharon, Reagan approved of Israel's occupation of a portion of southern Lebanon adjacent to its borders with Israel. Worse was yet to come. Urged on by his pro-Israeli advisors, President Reagan began to use American military forces to wage war on Palestinians and their Moslem allies in Lebanon.

The first such action was in 1983 with heavy shelling of Wallid Jumblat's Druze militia in the mountains behind Beirut by the USS NEW JERSEY and a number of other units of the Sixth Fleet. As Jumblat had no navy or army he could use to retaliate against such a naked and aggressive displays of pro-Israel sentiment, he used what few options were open to him.

Unfortunately, one of them was the bombing of the U.S. Marine encampment near Beirut's airport. The plain fact is that our marines should never have been there. It was another foreign policy blunder, or was it? We shall probably never know for sure, but one way or another, 241 U.S. Marines paid for it with their young lives.

The second option open to the Moslem world in Lebanon was kidnapping, which commenced in 1984. Now, before we begin to beat our breast and throw ashes over ourselves, let us remember the case of General Manuel Noriega who was kidnaped in Panama and forcibly removed to the United States in flagrant violation of international law.

This does not mean that kidnaping and cruel incarceration by the men who held Anderson and his colleagues is by any means justified, but look at the other side of the coin. These kidnapers point to the hundreds of Palestinians kidnaped by Israeli forces and still held in Israeli prison camps after seven years with no international or U.S. efforts being made to secure their release. They are still UNJUSTLY imprisoned.

When questioned about the barbarous treatment of chaining Anderson and leaving him in darkness, the Moslem kidnapers pointed to the barbarity of the dungeons and torture boxes of Khiam, where thousands of Palestinians were held in awful conditions and cruelly treated by their Israeli jailers, for no reason other than that they are Palestinians. The Herzbolla do not hold the edge in terror, that belongs to the United States and its Israeli client.

Why is the United States not talking, still less not doing anything, about the 87 United Nations staff members or investigators and workers who were kidnaped on the West Bank or in Gaza, of whom 47 are still being held by the Israelis? ALMOST ALL OF THESE VICTIMS OF KIDNAPING ARE ARABS. Is the silence and the total absence of words like "torture", "kidnaping" and "brutality" because the victims are not American citizens and the Bush Administration doesn't want its relations with Israel disturbed?

In addition to the 47 kidnap victims of Israel, hundreds of Palestinians, Herzbolla members and Arab citizens have been murdered by the so-called South Lebanon Army, a group of cutthroat thugs dressed up in uniforms and supplied with tanks and guns by the Israeli military, who daily commit unspeakable atrocities against the local inhabitants of occupied Lebanon.

The rise of Nationalism

12/21/91 #3B DR. J. COLEMAN

In the spring of 1933, the world began to get information about what was happening in Germany. It appeared as if German nationalism was rearing its head and that, "they" said, was cause for alarm.

History always repeats itself, albeit it in upward spirals so that it is never exactly a repeat of what went before. Russia in 1991 is a good example to quote with this thought in mind. Now it seems that nationalism, which the One World Government is so anxious to dispense with, is once again on the rise.

Witness France, which under socialist Mitterand is in a real tailspin these days, its economy wobbling and one scandal after another adding another worried wrinkle to the noble brow of its leader. Because he fears that the French people will throw him out in the elections set for the spring of 1993--after all, weren't the majority of Frenchmen against fighting British Petroleum's war against Iraq--Mitterand is taking early precautions against such an eventuality.

Gerrymandering the electoral laws is one way Mitterand hopes to stave off the evil day which will be foreshadowed in regional elections to be held next year. Suddenly Mitterand finds himself confronted by that "lout on the right", as his cabinet likes to refer to Jean Marie Le Pen.

What Mitterand fears the most is winning the 1993 election but not having a free hand to further deplete the French nation; in short, he might wake up one morning to find himself having to share power with someone like Jacques Chirac or Giscard d'Estaing, not quite so much of a cretan as Le Pen, but just as bothersome if it comes to power sharing with a horse of different colour.

What has brought about such a drastic upheaval in French politics? In a word, it is Le Pen, whose "France is For Frenchmen" cry has brought millions of Frenchmen rallying to his nationalist banner. Whereas a few short years ago, Le Pen was on the outer fringes of French political society, now he is much sought after as a handsome bachelor at an evening soirée in the homes of the rich and the famous of Paris society.

Not that Le Pen is liable to wrest control from Mitterand's Socialist Party, but he has the potential to draw off enough votes to make a "cohabitation" government with Chirac and or d'Estaing a distinct possibility. What would have been classified as "racism" a short year ago, is now being accepted as a genuine concern that France is being taken over by foreigners.

Jacques Chirac, a true gentleman of the right, was the first politician of note to jump on the Le Pen bandwagon. In a speech to Gaullist Party supporters, Chirac expressed his sympathy for fellow Frenchmen living in sight and sound of Algerians, Moroccans, Pakistanis and immigrants from France's former African colonies, whose "noise and smells" they could not abide.

Blue-blood Valery d'Estaing was a little bit more circumspect, testing the waters of nationalism with a reference to a "foreign invasion", which his audience understood all too well. While not yet willing to go all the Le Pen way, d'Estaing is well aware that, in a recent poll, one third of the population sided with Le Pen and agreed fully with his views on shipping all foreigners--especially those from Africa--back to their countries of origin, by force if necessary.

Mitterand, d'Estaing, Le Pen and Chirac know that the time is ripe for change. This past summer there have been massive demonstrations against the government's economic policies, by health care workers, farmers, clerks and even doctors and lawyers, not to mention teachers and industrial workers.

Le Pen has skillfully exploited the situation by blaming most of the ills that beset France on the steep rise in the number of coloured immigrants who have come to live and work in France. This flood of non-Frenchmen, he says, has caused wages to be frozen, high unemployment and widespread austerity.

While the majority of Frenchmen know that these conditions are the result of discredited socialist policies, they nevertheless lend a sympathetic ear to Le Pen. What Mitterand fears is that too many will not only lend their ears but their votes, also, come spring of 1993. To Mitterand, an outright rightwing victory is to be avoided like cholera or smallpox.

France is not the only country where nationalism has become an issue. Germany's right has been on the warpath against a variety of foreign immigrants, and daily clashes with Turks, Pakistanis, Africans--even Polish immigrants and German youths bearing nationalist flags is a daily occurrence. Even in Switzerland, seats have been won in the Swiss general election based on nationalism.

So-called "political experts" are attributing the rapid rise of nationalism in Europe to bad economic times, working on the theory that there is a line of tolerance toward coloured immigrants beyond which the local population will not go. It is also known as the "kick them out" line.

This has become widespread in the eastern part of Europe and in the French maritime provinces, where large enclaves of Arabs and Africans are found, especially in Marseilles. Apartheid, it seems, is naped in Beirut, but he managed to escape after several months--some say it was arranged in this manner after Glass decided he would speak up about Israeli brutality. It was Glass who released the names of 155 victims of kidnaping by the Israelis, of whom 47 are still being held. Glass has become very outspoken about what he calls, "the two most brutal nations in the area, Israel and then Syria".

During a "Day of Solidarity" meeting, which incidentally was not covered by the news media, Glass strongly linked the U.S.-approved invasion of Lebanon by Israel with the spate of Herzbolla kidnappings. "There may be a lesson here for the United Nations. Perception of America's foreign policy (in the Middle East) led to the kidnaping of Americans who had nothing to do with that policy in Lebanon.

"Perception of the United Nations, its policies and behavior in the Third World may lead to the detention, kidnaping or killing of U.N. officials in some countries where they work. The U.N. is appearing more to provide a stamp of international approval to American actions. By leaving the command of the entire operation against Iraq in the hands of the United States, the United Nations abdicated its responsibilities. (This is exactly the point made in our WIR/IR many times.)

"The United States, with support of the pliant United Nations Security Council, chose not to negotiate with Iraq. On this matter we may reasonably ask: WHAT IS GEORGE BUSH DOING IF NOT HOLDING MILLIONS OF INNOCENT IRAQIS HOSTAGE ON THE EDGE OF STARVATION?"

While no one is advocating hostage taking, and while we sympathise with those unfortunate victims of Herzbolla terror, let us not forget the other side of the coin. HAD THE UNITED STATES NOT ENGAGED IN ACTS OF TERROR AGAINST THE HERZBOLLA--SUCH AS SHELLING THEIR VILLAGES AND KILLING HUNDREDS OF DRUZE WOMEN AND CHILDREN--AND HAD THE UNITED STATES ADOPTED AN EVEN-HANDED POLICY TOWARD THE PALESTINIANS AND ARABS IN LEBANON, THERE MIGHT NEVER HAVE BEEN ANY KIDNAPING AT ALL. ●

Interest cuts cause capital flight

12/20/91 DR. J. COLEMAN

In a move calculated to stimulate consumer spending, which makes up two-thirds of the economy, the Federal Reserve cut the interest rate it charges banks to 3.5%, which is the lowest rate since 1964.

The immediate effect was to accelerate capital flight, collapsing the dollar against most foreign currencies. Investors now see the U.S. as exiting the "safe haven" for dollars role, which has caused the dollar to perform badly against the yen, the British pound and the German mark.

On Thursday the Bundesbank (Germany's national bank) delivered a body-blow to the dollar and raised the mark to its highest point since 1948. The Federal Reserve, in what is felt to be a bad blunder, chose the wrong time to announce yet another cut in the discount rate.

The interest rate spread between the dollar and the mark is now the largest since 1951.

Adding to these blunders by the Fed is the fact that it came at the expiration period of major futures and options. Gold was little affected, posting a gain of only $1.30 an ounce to $359.10 per ounce. It also reduced bond yields from 7.66 to 7.58 %, as we forecast last week, which caused foreign buyers to stay away from Treasury bonds.

The latest big lay-off is in Kodak where almost 7000 workers were given early retirement. The company showed a loss of $435 million for the third quarter of the year.

The Bush economic program, if it can be called that, has run into trouble with West European farmers. French farmers who have staged several large demonstrations in Paris this year told President Francois Mitterand that any cuts in the government's subsidies for agricultural products will be suicide for him in the 1993 elections.

President Bush's economic advisors have been depending upon France to take the lead in imposing GATT cuts in subsidies demanded by the United States. "We are not Iraq," said a member of France's largest agricultural union. After 2 days of talks with U.S. Secretary for Agriculture Edward Madigan, EEC delegates walked out without reaching any accord.

The Bush Administration has been riding rough-shod over European farmers in an attempt to bring all food production under the control of a One World Government. The Bush Administration has already bludgeoned Australia, Canada, the Argentine and New Zealand into line.

The Australian Labour Party is blaming U.S. agricultural policies for the demise of Prime Minister Bob Hawke, who was forced out of office by a member of his own party. Hawke had become unpopular because of his willingness to hew the Washington line which Australian voters say is the root cause of the worst recession in Australia's history.

This writer has been saying since 1986 that the next war will see Japan allied with Russia and Germany against China and the U.S. The United States has been waging economic war against Japan, blaming the buoyancy of the Japanese economy for U.S. economic woes. Already the Japanese people have voted the U.S. as "Japan's most dangerous enemy".

"There is no sign of mercy by the Japanese. They become more predatory. It's like something with an appetite that can't be satisfied." These foolish words were used by Senator Don Riegle to shift the blame for the bankrupt economic policies of the Bush administration to Japan.

The Bush Administration is threatening to slash Japanese auto imports by as much as 35% if the Japanese fail to yield to pressure. Autarky will not work. If the Bush Administration makes good on its threat, it will not increase the sales of U.S. cars nor will it force the price of Japanese cars to go up.

Lee Iaccoca said, "They (the Japanese) will have to open their markets, that's for sure." The chairman of Chrysler means to knock the teeth out of the Japanese unless they buy American automobiles in preference to their own cars.

In spite of the cut in the interest rate, the Dow Jones could only reach 2934.48, well below the 3500 the government has been trying to reach throughout 1991. The Dow Jones reflects a weak position which the 6th cut in the interest rate has failed to correct. Can they prop up their toppling house of cards one more time? And if they can, how many unsuspecting "little people" will be sucked into their cruel trap? ●

Who's afraid of October Surprise?

12/21/91 #3A DR. J. COLEMAN

Just when it looked as if at long last "October Surprise" would be brought out into the open by the Democrats, dirty party politics proved once again to be the victor. Now we shall probably never see Congress debate the issue or have a committee appointed to investigate what happened in Paris in October 1980.

As he did in the Noriega arrest, if one can dignify kidnaping with that term, Senator Jesse Helms played an unexpected role in getting "October Surprise" killed, and not solely confined to South Africa. A visit to Le Pen by South Africa's Conservative Party leader, Dr. Andries Treurnicht, brought expressions of sympathy and solidarity with White South Africans living under the shadow of an ANC takeover of the country, engineered by the United States using its lackeys, De Klerk and Botha, to do the actual dirty work. As long as economic conditions continue to worsen in Europe, so will anti-immigrant sentiments prevail. ● probably for the same reasons. His Middle East friends had a good deal to lose if the truth about the hostages-for-arms deal ever saw the light of day. Senator Helms has made some strange political allies in the past five years, as his involvement with Panama shows.

At the eleventh hour on the last day of the session, House Speaker Thomas Foley suddenly withdrew the October Surprise resolution. Fellow Democrat Robert Livingstone, who earlier had applauded the courage of his party in challenging Bush on the issue, was stunned. Livingstone was not privy to the deal that was struck by Foley and Republican members of the House.

The deal went something like this, "You withdraw the October Surprise resolution and we will see to it that at least six pieces of legislation are passed without opposition from our side, one of which will be the Medicaid limits pushed on us by the White House."

Foley, who is no slouch when it comes to political opportunism, saw the value of such a trade-off, especially with next year being an election year. To the cries of "foul" from Democrats like Livingstone and other House Democrats who were longing to see Bush squirm, Foley said it was either reduced Medicaid in an election year or October Surprise, so what did they want from him?

One wonders why Republicans are so anxious not to have October Surprise investigated? As an aide to Senator Terry Sanford said, "If it is just rubbish, then why are they so worried?" But we shall probably not have the question answered by any Congressional committees.

However, all may not be lost. In the Senate last month, fifty-one Senators voted funds and subpoena powers for a committee chaired by Senator Terry Sanford to begin its investigation into "October Surprise", but it appears that the Republican leadership in the Senate does not want the cause of truth to be served. A Republican filibuster was mounted which, in spite of very blunt language by Sanford, could not be broken. Truth must not out. Political and party loyalties must remain above the public's right to know, and this is the way "October Surprise" will probably remain. ●

The Kennedy assassination examined

12/14/91 DR. J. COLEMAN

On the eve of the anniversary of the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, it is our duty to ponder on this terrible event which still stains the national soul of the greatest nation on earth. It is right and proper that we should think of this monstrous crime as not only one that affected the Kennedy family, but one that affected, and still affects the entire nation.

The perpetrators of this heinous crime laugh at our inability to reach the proper conclusion, namely that this hideous crime was to "put America in its place" and to make us understand that not even the highest elected official of the land is safe from the powerful group that dominates our government. It was as if the Kennedy murder was designed and carried out in such a way that we would one day understand our President was made an example of, because he actually believed he was immune from the evil power of the secret upper-level parallel government. This is probably why there is no national day of mourning on the anniversary of John Kennedy's death.

As long as this awful murder goes unpunished, its planners and perpetrators gain strength from our weakness; they know they will never be brought to account. From their vantage point they can mock us and pour derision and scorn upon not only the office of the President, but also upon each and every one of us who cherish the institutions upon which this nation was founded and upon which it rests. It is as if the rapist returns each year to once again rape and degrade his victim to show his power over her, secure in the knowledge that he will never be caught. That is the ongoing trauma of the Kennedy assassination.

Those who have read my monographs on the Kennedy murder know that it was planned by top British intelligence groups under the direction of the Tavistock Institute, and that both the FBI and the CIA were involved. The criminal conspiracy to commit murder was supervised by Sir William Stephenson, under whose direction Major Mortimer Louis Bloomfield attended to the day to day details which led to three of the top marksmen in the U.S. fatally shooting President Kennedy to death. It will be recalled that Bloomfield, a Canadian citizen, was in charge of FBI Division Five throughout the Second World War.

The choice of time and place, in broad daylight and in full view of thousands of shocked and horrified Americans was coldly, and deliberately, designed to have the maximum impact and thereby convey a warning to others who might be tempted to continue the important work Kennedy had begun. Our hidden masters would not allow the U.S. to escape from the toils of the Federal Reserve Banks, bypassing them and having the Treasury print interest-free U.S. government money instead of Federal Reserve Notes.

It was a well-kept secret for a short period that President Kennedy had ordered the Treasury to print $4 billion in U.S. government currency. Had Kennedy's bold move against those who were telling him to "follow instructions" succeeded, it would have put the Federal Reserve Banks out of business and released the people of this nation from a state of bondage far worse than anything experienced in the history of the world. The Bank of England and the international bankers could not allow such a heresy to come to pass.

It was as if the "protection" racketeers stepped in, trashed the store and shot the owner for daring to try and shake the parasites off his back. The store owner's murder was carried out in the most degrading and humiliating manner, stripping him of his dignity, even in death. This is the way the Kennedy murder was carried out, brutally, without mercy and in the most undignified way, not only to mutilate the dead President, but to leave us in no doubt that we are helpless and unable to do anything about such cruel, humiliating and degrading treatment.

It is like a man, condemned to death, first being taken to a public place, stripped of his clothes, severely whipped and then forced to kneel on the ground and shot in the back of the neck. This is what Felix Dzerzinski sometimes did to his victims, forcing family members to look on and ensure that death was preceded by the utmost degradation. Until the stain of the Kennedy murder is washed clean, until the perpetrators of this mercilessly brutal killing are brought to justice, the conspirators will continue to nationally humiliate the people and institutions of the United States. I hope that we all clearly understand this.

The lesson was indeed well understood and taken to heart by every President who succeeded Kennedy. There has not been any President since Kennedy willing to take up where he left off. The work begun by Kennedy to get rid of the Federal Reserve Banks died with him as did the threat he posed to the controllers of America. It is doubtful that there will be another serious threat to the Bank of England and the international banks, or at least, it is unlikely to come from a single individual, no matter how powerful he may be.

Having established the framework and one of the motives for the Kennedy assassination, let us examine what powerful forces were behind the actual assassins who fired the shots that rang out in Dealey Plaza that fateful November day, shots which echoed around the world. Central to the commission of the crime was the Tavistock Institute, British intelligence in the person of Sir William Stephenson, Major Louis Mortimer Bloomfield, the FBI, the CIA and the Secret Service. The cover-up was conducted by the government intelligence agencies and the Warren Commission.

British intelligence played a key role in the actual planning of the crime which was directed from the Tryall Compound in Jamaica, home of Sir William Stephenson, in conjunction with various agencies already mentioned. Mexico was involved on the periphery because of the alleged visit to the Cuban embassy in Mexico City by an Oswald double, and the fact that the riflemen were trained at Carl McIntyre's farm in Pueblo, plus Hunt's two-month stay in the country.

That the FBI knew in advance of the plot to murder President Kennedy emerges from an investigation done by James Hepburn, a very knowledgeable writer. Here is what Hepburn said about FBI involvement: "In 30 years on the job, J. Edgar Hoover had developed an intelligence system which nothing--no racket, and certainly no conspiracy--can escape. Through its extensive network of informers, the FBI knows everything worth knowing that goes on in the United States even in areas that lie outside of its legal jurisdiction. The Dallas conspiracy was born and took root in places where the FBI was well represented...By mid-October, Hoover had been informed of the existence of a plot and was familiar with many of the details...The week before the President's departure for Texas, Hoover knew exactly what was going on..."

Oswald was associated with New Orleans from his boyhood days. The FBI and/or the CIA recruited him to infiltrate on behalf of the U.S. government the anti-Castro movement led by Carlos Bringuier. Bringuier ran the Cuban-exile training camps which the government wanted closed down after the Bay of Pigs fiasco. Bringuier did not accept Oswald, telling a close colleague in the leadership, "This guy Oswald is a plant; I do not trust him." Having been rebuffed by genuine anti-Castro forces, Oswald set up his own pro-Castro organization, "Fairplay For Cuba Committee".

Some of the flyers Oswald handed out on New Orleans street corners were stamped with the address of Guy Bannister on Camp Street. Bannister was formerly in charge of the FBI's Chicago office. When Carlos Bringuier accosted Oswald handing out pro-Castro flyers, there was a violent scene. Oswald got arrested. His request to see the FBI was granted, after which he was released in minutes. What should make us all curious is why, soon after his release, Oswald was interviewed on television as "representing the Fair Play for Cuba Committee" when, in fact, Oswald was the SOLE member? We know that it is near impossible for unknowns to get television coverage of this kind.

Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry made a statement after the murder of Kennedy that his department had acted in strict accordance with Secret Service instructions. What was strange, he found, was that his department was never contacted by the FBI nor did the FBI tell him that Oswald was 'in Dallas. In short, what Curry knew about Oswald was minimal, nothing of significance having been passed on to the Dallas Police Department by the FBI.

It also appears--although not conclusive--that the FBI wanted the CIA to take responsibility for the crime. This came out in a memo written by agent De Loach to Hoover's assistant and long-time homosexual companion, Clyde Tolson, the gist of which was that "President Johnson felt the CIA had something to do with this plot." The use of the word "plot" did not seem to unduly alarm Hoover.

When the Cubans who were genuinely against Castro went to the FBI to tell of Oswald's penetration attempts, they were ordered to "shut up". One of the Cubans was subsequently killed, and another was deported. This information came from Mrs. Luce, the owner of LIFE magazine who had financed a boat used in an attack on Cuba. Immediately after the assassination had taken place, the FBI stated that Oswald was the lone killer. This sudden rush to pin the blame on Oswald appears to have been propped up by Bill Moyers, who wrote to Attorney General Katzenbach on November 25th, 1963--a mere few days after the Kennedy murder--what in retrospect can only be described as a very curious letter:

"It is important that all of the facts surrounding President Kennedy's assassination be made public in a way which will satisfy people in the United States and abroad that all the facts have been told and that a statement to this effect be made now.

(1) The public must be satisfied that Oswald was the assassin, that he did not have confederates who are still at large and that the evidence was such that he would have been convicted at trial.

(2) Speculations about Oswald's motivations ought to be cut off, and we should have some basis for rebutting the thought that it was a Communist conspiracy (as the Iron Curtain press is saying) and also as the right wing is saying to blame it on them...

(3) The matter has been thus far handled without dignity or conviction. Facts have been mixed with rumor and speculation. We can scarcely let the world see us totally in the image of the Dallas Police Department when our President is murdered. I think this objective may be satisfied by making a complete and thorough FBI report on Oswald and the assassination. This may run into the difficulty of pointing to inconsistencies between this report and statements made by the Dallas police officials. But the reputation of the Bureau is such that it may do the whole job."

On December 2nd, 1980, newspapers reportedly quoting the FBI said, "Experts did not scientifically prove that a gunshot was fired by a second gunman from the Grassy Knoll area of Dealey Plaza during the assassination of President Kennedy." What was being discussed was the sound of shots on the Dallas police Dictabelt recording which the FBI rejected outright as having come from Dealey Plaza. The FBI also stated there was no proof that the sounds on the Dictabelt were gunshots.

The sounds, said the FBI, could have been electrical impulses produced internally by the Dallas Police Department radio system, but they did admit that they had no intention of conducting a study that would be necessary to confirm their conclusion. Was the FBI acting out the Moyer's scenario? The FBI did not bother to study the uniqueness of the echo patterns of the shots which would have placed them in Dealey Plaza.

FBI's Guy Bannister played a key role in the Kennedy murder through his relationship with Oswald. This was clearly brought out by former New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison, the man who came closest to cracking the Kennedy case at least up to the level of the actual perpetrators of the crime, but who was smeared and threatened before he could bring his evidence to court. It was Garrison who revealed the connection between Guy Bannister, the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI), the CIA and the Cabell family of Dallas. General Cabell was fired by Kennedy for sabotaging the Bay of Pigs operation. His relatives were prominent lawmen in Dallas with excellent connections with the CIA and the FBI.

Bannister was closely associated with top Howard Hughes executive Robert Maheu, a CIA operative who was deeply involved in the Watergating of Richard Nixon and the CIA-Mob plot to murder Castro. Maheu knew Rosselli and Jimmy Hoffa very well. He contacted them whenever the CIA wanted a dirty job done and didn't want to use its own people. What was Bannister's role, and was he part of the conspiracy to LET the assassination of President Kennedy take place?

Bannister was very close with David Ferrie of the CIA. Ferrie was Oswald's superior in the Civil Air Patrol in New Orleans which Oswald joined as a teenager. This establishes Oswald's long-time connections with New Orleans, the FBI and the CIA. Later it was proved that Oswald had attended the anti-Castro training camps near New Orleans with Ferrie. New Orleans police officials said they had often seen Ferrie, Oswald and Bannister together.

Apparently Richard Helms told Victor Marchetti that David Ferrie and Clay Shaw were CIA contract agents. Ferrie hung out at Guy Bannister's office in company with Oswald--at the address printed on Oswald's Fair Play for Cuba Committee flyers. Experienced intelligence agents will have no trouble in recognising at once that Bannister's role was to run Oswald as an agent provocateur for the CIA or the FBI or both.

The Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) was most probably in the business of setting up Oswald as the fall guy-patsy for the murder of President Kennedy. It was the ONI who sent Oswald to the Soviet Union. Garrison witness David L. Lewis testified that he saw Oswald, Ferrie and Bannister together quite often. Jack Martin of the New Orleans Police Department said he had seen Ferrie and Oswald together and felt they were involved with each other. There is real evidence developed through information provided to the House Assassinations Committee that Oswald acted at all times as an agent for Guy Bannister and David Ferrie whom it is believed put Oswald up to buying the rifle that was supposedly used to shoot Kennedy.

Senator Richard Russell, an important member of the Warren Commission expressed strong doubts that Oswald acted alone: "There were too many things...some of the trips to Mexico City and a number of discrepancies in the evidence, or as to his means of transportation, the luggage he had...caused me to doubt that he planned it all by himself." Kept completely out of the picture was Bowen-Osborne, whose occupation was world wide travel--as a surveillance tail for the CIA and or the FBI. Any intelligence agent worth his salt would recognise Bowen-Osborne as an intelligence operative, especially when it came to how he got the money to travel so widely.

CIA involvement in the Kennedy assassination plot appears fairly credible, especially when we consider that CIA director Richard Helms went to extraordinary lengths to smash the Garrison probe because Clay Shaw and David Ferrie were CIA agents, and Garrison was getting uncomfortably close to uncovering this fact. Helms was very worried about Garrison cracking the case and exposing CIA involvement. It is interesting, too, that Helms was the CIA's liaison with the Warren Commission and a close friend of Howard Hunt, probably the one CIA agent most heavily involved in the Kennedy assassination.

"The CIA will have to be dealt with," Kennedy said after the Bay of Pigs fiasco was clearly seen as a CIA spoiler operation. Someone in the U.S. or British government did not want Castro toppled. Kennedy knew who it was who told the CIA to wreck the invasion. The task of botching the Bay of Pigs invasion was given to the CIA and it did its job well. One of those responsible was Allen Dulles, whom history will show was totally beholden to the British. The other was Deputy Director General of the CIA, General Charles Cabell, who was also fired.

Both men had cause to hate Kennedy. After the Cuban missile crisis and Kennedy had promised Khrushchev that no more attacks on Cuba would occur, the CIA, in deliberate and arrogant defiance of the President, set up training camps all over Louisiana, which were later broken up by police and the FBI after Kennedy found out what was going on. Dulles, as an agent for the British oligarchy, was particularly incensed. He believed that his "British connection" placed him above the President. His British controllers were also greatly incensed over upstart Kennedy bucking their orders. Clearly, Kennedy had to be dealt with. Such was the disdain of our controllers that they reinstated Dulles by naming him to the Warren Commission--the final act of indignity toward the slain President.

Trained observers were quick to identify Oswald as an intelligence agent playing a double role. No one in the intelligence agencies had any doubt that Oswald was one of their own. Members of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities were of the same opinion but did not publicly say so, except for Senator Lowell Weicker who served on the committee for eighteen months and declared Oswald to be a CIA operative.

Eisenhower assigned many operations to his Vice President. One of these was the group known as Special Group 54-12. This group was established to coordinate activities by Military Intelligence and the CIA. In the group was Alexander Haig, who was later leap-frogged from Colonel to four-star general because of his activities inside Special Group 54-12. Nixon left Bay of Pigs and the plots against the life of Castro planning to Haig. Haig rewarded Nixon by informing on him to The Washington Post. Haig was in fact "Deep Throat".

Other members of Group 54-12 were the mysterious E. Howard Hunt and Frank Sturgis--one of the Watergate burglars. Hunt had been involved in scores of assassination plots for the CIA. Of some significance is the fact that Hunt spent August and September of 1963 in Mexico City. It is not known whether he ever went near the murder squad in training at Carl McIntyre's mission station in Pueblo. Also worthy of note is that one of the three "Oswald's" visited Hunt in Mexico City during September 1963.

That the CIA had become a law unto itself was confirmed by Senator George Smathers. One of the Senator's secretaries was Mary Jo Kopechne who later died at Chappaquiddack. There was a great deal more to Miss Kopechne than has ever been told. Her roommate, Carol Tyler, was killed in a strange and as yet unexplained plane accident over the sea near the coast of Maryland.

After Watergate, a fearful Nixon kept his head down. He had seen what had happened to Murray Chotiner, who knew more about CIA assassinations than most. Finally, refreshed, rested and ready to do battle, Nixon looked for spiritual uplift at La Costa, the home built by the Mafia for Earl Warren. At the first meeting with Nixon were four Teamster bosses, including Frank Fitzsimmons. More significantly, also present was Jim Braden, the man who was arrested in the Dal-Tex building minutes after the death of President Kennedy.

Braden's real name is Eugene Hale Brading, a contract agent for the CIA. Brading registered at the Cabana Motel in Dallas and, on the night before the assassination was visited by Jack Ruby, another CIA contract agent. The connection with the FBI comes via the fact that Brading had an office in New Orleans in 1963, to be precise--number 1701 in the Pere Marquette Building. Interestingly enough, David Ferrie, controller of Oswald since his teenage membership of the Civil Air Patrol, was working a few doors away on the same floor in an office registered to Mafia boss Carlos Marcello. Of great concern, or it ought to be, is that Brading's photographs and file are missing from the Warren Commission archives.

Another CIA operative, George Guadet, also went to Mexico City while Hunt and "Oswald" were there (September 17th, 1963). It seems this was another notch-up in the plot to make Oswald the "patsy", because there is little doubt that the real Lee Harvey Oswald was not in Mexico City on that day. Had the real Oswald gone to the Cuban Embassy there, he was far too circumspect to have made the disturbance which the other "Oswald" created--seemingly to ensure that everybody at the embassy would remember the visit. There is a great deal more to tell about CIA involvement in the Kennedy murder, but for now I will have to leave it at that.

What role did the Secret Service play in this disgraceful affair? There are many conflicting reports, but the OFFICIAL report clears the Secret Service of any complicity in the Kennedy murder. Privately, intelligence agencies around the world have other thoughts. One of the most suspect incidents is why a middle-aged man, Bill Greer, was chosen to drive the Kennedy limousine? Was it so that his incredible actions could later be ascribed to "slow reflexes"?

The Zapruder film, spliced, cut, censored and all-but destroyed, still shows that, for almost 10.5 seconds, the Secret Service agents assigned to the Kennedy limousine did absolutely nothing. Trained to act in an instant if there is gunfire, they stood around as if waiting for something else to happen after the first shot was heard, the one that wounded Kennedy in the throat. Did they fall on the President and Mrs. Kennedy as they had been trained to do? They did not. The stills show these men standing on the running boards of the car, as if nothing was going on at a time when the same stills show that Kennedy had already been hit.

Even more inexcusable, the Secret Service driver, after crawling along at 20 miles an hour, brought the limousine to an almost complete stop after the first shot rang out, when the Secret Service training manual says that in such circumstances the driver must accelerate as fast as he can. Clint Hilt, the Secret Service agent who did react, took almost 12 seconds to run toward the Kennedy limousine. He was never asked to explain his slow start. In less than twelve hours after the murder, Secret Service Chief James Rowley knew beyond a shadow of a doubt that three marksmen had gunned Kennedy to death, yet this was not in the Warren Commission Report.

Fletcher Prouty, a tough colonel who made a career out of exposing what he called "the Secret Team", said that in his opinion the President was stripped of his security with deliberate intent and that, moreover, the "Secret Team" knew that they had nothing to fear from the Secret Service or any other government agency. Kennedy had been deliberately left open and vulnerable. Therefore, Prouty concludes, the Secret Service LET THE ASSASSINATION HAPPEN.

Who was Oswald? Almost every Hollywood movie, every television documentary, paints Oswald as a man of low intelligence, a loner, slightly unbalanced, who hated Kennedy. There is absolutely no evidence that Lee Harvey Oswald was any of these things; in fact, there is compelling evidence that he was a highly intelligent intelligence agent who was deliberately set up to take the blame for the Kennedy assassination.

Oswald was specially selected to take a course in the Russian language by the U.S. Military. Russian isn't exactly an easy language to learn. Yet Oswald easily passed the Armed Forces Practical Russian Test 21, United States Army Examination. In short, the government taught Lee Harvey Oswald to speak Russian. Only Jim Garrison derided the Warren Commission's "He must have learned Russian on his bunk at night."

Oswald allegedly defected to the USSR. He was allegedly discharged from the U.S. Marines. Yet in 1963 he applied for a U.S. passport and received it WITHIN 24 HOURS, QUITE A REMARKABLE ACHIEVEMENT. Another noteworthy achievement was getting a job with Jagger, Stover and Childs, a high security firm doing secret work for the government. Furthermore, the Gonzalez House Committee found that a substantial number of key Oswald records were missing from military files.

Hardly was he out of the military when Oswald was on his way to London. This was September 21st, 1959. The day after his arrival in London, Oswald flew to Helsinki in a military plane. There are just too many unexplained things to believe that Oswald was some ignoramus who decided that he could single-handedly shoot the President. His entire military experience proves that Oswald was a highly trained intelligence agent and the types of duties he was assigned in the military bears that out.

Some of the questions that may never be answered are as follows:

How did Oswald get a good paying job in Russia without the slightest difficulty, and how was a foreigner allowed to marry the daughter of a colonel in the KGB?

Why were the three or four rifles found in the school book depository never produced? Why was the photograph of the alleged rifle that killed Kennedy taken from such a long distance away as to make the rifle unidentifiable?

Why has it never been admitted that there is no proof that Oswald ever owned the alleged murder weapon, let alone fired it?

Why was it not brought out by the Warren Commission that the Manlicher 6.5mm rifle--allegedly the murder weapon--had NEVER been fired before it was test-fired by expert marksmen in the course of trying to find out whether three shots could have been fired within the time frame that Kennedy was shot?

Why was all the strong evidence showing that Oswald worked for the government from very early on either lost or suppressed?

Apart from the four shells in the Manlicher, no box of shells was ever found in ANY of Oswald's possessions. A man intending to shoot the President would not have gone to the vantage point with only four shells in the rifle.

How did the Dallas police know to begin searching for Oswald only hours after Kennedy's murder? Were they tipped off by Army Intelligence? Everything points in this direction.

Why did Army Intelligence FALSELY accuse Oswald of being a Cuban defector on November 22, 1963? Why did the Army DESTROY most of its files on Oswald? Was he being set up to take the blame for the murder of the President?

Why was the Dallas police chief called away to answer the phone at the precise moment that Ruby was walking up to Oswald. (HE was actually on the phone when Ruby killed Oswald.)

Why was FAKED identity planted on Oswald, which was discovered after his death in the basement of the Dallas police station?

Why were a series of FORGED photographs of Oswald holding the Manlicher rifle distributed in advance of the Kennedy murder and who was responsible for this? (The man holding the rifle is NOT Oswald. That has been clearly determined.)

Why were the mysterious carillon bells heard on the Dictabelt tape of the Dallas police at the time of the Kennedy assassination never investigated? Why was this vital piece of evidence that proves the noises on the tape were SHOTS FIRED IN DEALEY PLAZA absolutely ignored by the FBI? It was later proved that the carillon bells were heard seven seconds before the last shot. The FBI said there were no carillon bells in the area, but private investigators discovered that the bell chimes came from a bank and that they could be heard far and wide. Because the bank was twelve blocks from Dealey Plaza, the FBI ignored it.

Why did President Johnson have private reservations about Oswald? He expressed these in the following manner: "He (Oswald) was quite a mysterious fellow and he did have a connection that bore examination, and the extent of the influence of those connections on him. I think history will deal with more than we're able to now."

Who ordered Kennedy's body abducted and taken to Bethesda Naval Hospital in Maryland? Who ordered the EXTENSIVE surgery that completely altered wounds to the head and neck clearly observed at Parkland Hospital in Dallas to make them fit the "lone gunman" theory?

Who ordered X-rays of Kennedy's head cropped so as to disguise the original wounds?

Why did Miss Oliver, an employee of Ruby's Colony Club, film the Kennedy motorcade? Miss Oliver later testified that she saw Ferrie so often at Ruby's club that she thought he was one of the managers. She also said that Ruby knew Oswald quite well.

What role did FBI informant "number 88" (inside the KKK and National States Rights) play in the Kennedy assassination? There are several such informers still in the right wing, at least one of them in Louisiana, who poses as militantly anti-Jewish.

There are literally HUNDREDS of unanswered questions about
