Mike Tyson's Unconstitutional Trial

3/13/92 #1 HATONN

Hatonn present to continue with our writing. I apologize for starting so early this morning but the tape had to be done for the Constitutional Law Center regarding Tyson.

TYSON: UNCONSTITUTIONAL TRIAL

I make no judgment as to the man's innocence or guilt. I do say that the young man did not have fair hearing under his right of protection under the Constitution--and THAT is what you are about; not judging. The child in point went to this man's room of her own accord in the wee hours of the morning and regardless of what is "said"--she expected to have, and did so, sex.

The Judge, then, in jury instructions disallowed all evidence regarding "actions" which would indicate to the jury that the sexual encounter was simply consensual. This is what is wrong with the trial. The young man in point did not have a just trial or hearing. If you are going to be worthy of having Constitutional justice in your courts--you must set aside all predisposed notions of personal feelings and go with the Constitutional LAW. If there was a law broken--fine, allow that to be identified justly. If the laws of God are in point--that is between God and individual. Yours is to bring back Constitutional Law unto the people and the judicial system. A person has a right to a "fair" trial by a jury of "peers".

You, Gene Dixon, as Acting Dean of the Law Center, must act NOW--before that sentencing hearing on the 26th. Do not let this young man go to jail, if at all possible, for his crime is not worthy of such treatment. The young lady is making great attention and payments in this "lie" and it is a good example of injustice--regardless of what the man's "habits" may be. I think you will find that the bad habits will improve right quickly. Pushing women around seems to be his great pleasure--I believe he will find that is no longer acceptable.

One major point of injustice is the 911 phone call made some 26-27 HOURS after the fact. That was obviously staged for wrongful purposes. A call which is NOT EMERGENCY made to a 911 number is punishable by discipline and fine. The 911 system is for emergency assistance when the crime is "in progress" or immediately thereafter--not after a day to make plans to "frame" another.

Keep in mind, as the Constitutional Law Center--YOURS IS TO INSURE CONSTITUTIONAL JUSTICE--NOT JUDGE, FOR THAT IN ITSELF IS A QUITE DIFFERENT MATTER.

I ask that the information regarding the Law Center and the paper regarding the Tyson trial be inserted, separately if necessary, in this issue of the LIBERATOR for justice will have to be fought for in the pages of other than the establishment press which set up the injustice in the first place, for political reasons. Tyson made some enemies in the gaming circles and, regardless of actions, for that was he brought down into this injustice.

House Of Representatives Banking Scandal

3/13/92 #1 HATONN

Is there new information regarding the misuse of the Bank set up for the House members? No. So I believe if you look carefully at timing, you will see this scandal comes at a time to add confusion and chaos into the election system. It is an effort to swing more Republican balance into the Congress in the upcoming elections. You are watching the pulling down of a government right in front of your eyes.

Are the actions good? Of course not, and this type of action must be stopped if you are ever to have a free nation and an honorable government. With every political "game", you-the-people can make gain if you will pay attention to "what" is happening and "why"--then act accordingly--in wisdom.

You must bring back sovereignty unto individuals and unto the States where it belongs. Not even your nation is longer sovereign and the housecleaning must be done if you are to recover your working Constitution and freedom.

Annihilation of South Africa

This is all the watching I wish to indulge in this morning with one exception: Africa. You are watching the total annihilation of a nation. I cannot take time to cover that subject today and yet, it is extremely important.

Donald S. McAlvany has done a brilliant review in the McAlvany Intelligence Advisor newsletter--last published. Dharma doesn't have access to the copy so I have to simply suggest that you get a copy. It is a very long dissertation and I would guess a copy

Introduction To Hatonn

1/13/92 #1 HATONN

I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander in Chief, Earth Project Transition, Pleiades Sector Flight Command, Intergalactic Federation Fleet. You may call me Hatonn. I am come in service unto the ONE GOD of Lighted Creation, and as "Host" unto His people who will be brought into His places long prepared for you. My own "Captain" is Sananda, the Christed Being you have called by many names--now one totally with Creator/Creation. [Sananda: simply meaning of/with God]. We are not "mystical" nor even "mysterious" aliens. We are the "Hosts" sent in preparation for His return, bringers of Truth according to His promise and to reveal the lies foisted upon you to claim your souls for the physical evil Elite controllers. We come in total love and without intent of force, coercion or judging. "Judging" is a state of evaluation of self in the presence of Creator in which actions in the physical experience are evaluated.

The information within the documents revealing Truth, THE PHOENIX JOURNALS and LIBERATOR, are the outlays of lies and hidden facts for which you can find confirmation. If you don't know the problems and the source of the problems, you can have no solutions.

I do not "channel"; I transmit on a frequency attuned to my "receiver" who is simply a translator of the pulses into English. This is true of all receivers who receive from any of this Command come forth with God for this transition of species and planet.

The receivers mostly have no reference for material given until after the giving and then, only for their own confirmation and yours. My petition is that you pay no attention to this resource if it is confusing and uncertain unto you--LET TRUTH STAND ALONE IN ITS PRESENTATION--THE REST WILL FOLLOW IN PROPER SEQUENCE.

Espionage and Counterespionage. Part I.

3/13/92 #1 HATONN

Neither the U-2 reconnaissance flights nor the first missions of American photographic satellites confirmed the fears of the analysts, but the U.S. government took no chances, and pressed fervently ahead with its own strategic strike programs, especially the Minuteman ICBM and the Polaris submarine. By 1963 it was abundantly evident that the only "missile gap" which existed was in America's favor, created by the rapid deployment of U.S. systems. Khrushchev and his colleagues had deliberately attempted to mislead by cleverly implying a nuclear attack capability which the Soviet Union did not possess; apparently, they were somewhat encouraged by those U.S. intelligence estimates secretly provided by Colonel Whalen which showed how worried U.S. officials were by the Soviet bluff. But even though deception was at first successful, in that U.S. officials believed the Soviet claims, it ultimately backfired as the United States chose to accelerate its own missile-development programs, thereby placing the Soviet Union in a position of still greater strategic disadvantage than before.

Elderly Rip-Off

This is to act as a "notice" please, to ones of our readers who have senior assistance from the government on your health care. Millions are being "had" by the government "secrecy" regarding benefits applicable to many of you. Somehow the government just hasn't reached most of you with the changes in coverage and you are paying for care and services which are actually covered. Somehow the news just didn't make it to all as some seem much more "equal" than do others. For instance, almost all ones eligible in Washington state--know it and have applied properly. Over 127,000 eligible ones in California have not even heard of added benefits. I suggest that ALL of you who may be eligible simply contact your proper offices and find out because the government won't come knocking on your door until forced to do so. If you know of ones who may be eligible--please spread the word. This is a way in which the government can save and glean millions of dollars--at your expense. This is something which has been available for a very long time and yet, eligible ones were simply not notified.

dantly evident that the only "missile gap" which existed was in America's favor, created by the rapid deployment of U.S. systems. Khrushchev and his colleagues had deliberately attempted to mislead by cleverly implying a nuclear attack capability which the Soviet Union did not possess; apparently, they were somewhat encouraged by those U.S. intelligence estimates secretly provided by Colonel Whalen which showed how worried U.S. officials were by the Soviet bluff. But even though deception was at first successful, in that U.S. officials believed the Soviet claims, it ultimately backfired as the United States chose to accelerate its own missile-development programs, thereby placing the Soviet Union in a position of still greater strategic disadvantage than before.

Perhaps an even greater service which Colonel Whalen unintentionally performed for his country while spying for the KGB came during the Berlin crisis of 1961. At that time, in addition to building the wall to separate the east and west portions of the city, the East Germans attempted, with obvious Soviet support, to reduce access to Berlin from West Germany. The U.S. intelligence estimate was that the Communists were toughening and unlikely to back down. This gloomy but influential estimate was passed to the KGB by Colonel Whalen, probably along with other information that the United States would stand absolutely firm. When the Soviets suddenly and unexpectedly eased their position, both the White House and the intelligence community, although pleased, were confused by Moscow's turnabout. Only years later, during the preparation of the Whalen damage report, did the analysts get a better idea why their original estimates of Soviet behavior had proved to be wrong in 1961. With the benefit of hindsight, the analysts reasoned: The Soviet leaders had decided to ease their stand when they realized the US government would not back down despite the estimate of Soviet intransigence. Apparently afraid they might be on the verge of provoking a major military conflict, the Soviets abruptly softened their demands.

U.S. EMBASSY FILLED WITH "BUGS"

The unexpected benefits to the U.S. government stemming from the Whalen penetration, while clearly fortuitous, are not unique in clandestine operations. In 1964 it was learned that the American Embassy in Moscow had been thoroughly bugged by the KGB. Scores of Soviet audio devices were found throughout the building. Counterespionage and security specialists determined that the equipment had been installed in 1952 when the embassy had been renovated, and that the bugs had been operational for roughly twelve years. The damage report asserted that during this entire period--at the height of the Cold War--Soviet intelligence had probably intercepted every diplomatic cable between Washington and the embassy.

6 LINES DELETED

U.S. suspicions about the Soviet eavesdropping were apparently aroused early in 1964 when Nikita Khrushchev made a remark to Ambassador Foy Kohler about Kohler's role in blocking the shipment to the Soviet Union of steel for an important pipeline. Taken in context, Khrushchev's remark indicated to Kohler that there was a leak somewhere in American security. Kohler started a massive investigation, and, within a month or two, found forty-odd bugs embedded in walls throughout the embassy. Although Kohler would later claim there was no connection between the discovery of the bugs and the investigation he ordered after his conversation with Khrushchev, the timing would seem to indicate otherwise.

13 LINES DELETED

Today the likelihood of the KGB eavesdropping on the activities in an embassy code room is extremely remote. Most State Department communications overseas are handled by the CIA. The machines and other equipment are cushioned and covered to mute the sounds emanating from them. The rooms themselves are encased in lead and rest on huge springs that further reduce the internal noises. Resembling large camping trailers, the code rooms now are normally located deep in the concrete basements of embassy buildings. Access to them by sound-sensitive devices is, for all practical purposes, impossible.

The CIA's counterespionage operators not only try to recruit secret agents in opposition services like the KGB, they also work against the so-called friendly or allied services. Off bounds for the most part--in principle, at least--are the intelligence agencies of the English-speaking countries, among which there is a kind of unwritten agreement not to spy on each other.

52 LINES DELETED

Attempts are made by the Intelligence Directorate to restrict the dissemination of highly classified analysis to foreign services, but for the most part these are limited to relatively minor deletions of references to collection sources. In some instances, the practice involves simply cutting out with a razor a few words here and there from the text of, say, a National Intelligence Estimate on Soviet missile capabilities. Usually this is done on only a few documents being given to the British or other English-speaking services.

DOMESTIC OPERATIONS

[H: The next information is perhaps the most important aspect of activities for you-the-people. Your police departments are utilizing Special Forces in the guise of CIA operatives and are integrating at present, KGB and Soviet police into and within the very training process of your various policing departments. This is perhaps the most urgent and obvious change in your nation. Note the violence with which officers are increasingly being subjected to and subjection onto citizens. The force for maintaining public order is already into practice against the day of needing to control the public. Please pay very close attention to this next subject and I believe you can update the information with that which is presented to you every day in every city and now, township. The Rodney King beating in Los Angeles is but one visible piece of evidence of what is happening. Surely you do not think that if there had not been a video tape of that incident that it would have ever even come to your attention! That kind of behavior is more the "norm" than the "abnormal"--listen to the reports as they are shared with you. It may be a black man today--but the police are not really selectors of color if they wish to abuse someone--it is simply, sad but true, easier to get away with the action in your bigoted society.]

CIA TRAINS LOCAL POLICE

On December 17, 1972, the New York Times revealed that the CIA had secretly provided training to fourteen New York City policemen. At the time, agency spokesman Angus Thuermer acknowledged that other American police departments had received "similar courtesies", but he would not specify how many. Thuermer said to the Times, "I doubt very much that (CIA Officials) keep that kind of information." But New York Congressman Edward Koch persisted in seeking precisely "that kind of information" from the agency. On January 29, 1973, the CIA's Legislative Counsel, John Maury (himself a longtime clandestine operator and former station chief in Greece), admitted to Koch that "Less than fifty police officers all told, from a total of about a dozen city and county police forces, have received some sort of Agency briefing within the past two years." But again the CIA was being less than forthcoming, for its police training (which consisted of much more than a "briefing") had been going on for considerably more than two years cited by the CIA--at least since 1967, when Chicago police received instruction at both the agency's headquarters and at "The Farm" in southeastern Virginia. When queried by newspaper reporters in 1973, police authorities in Chicago denied that any of their men had received any such agency training. But Richard Helms, then recently departed as Director, specifically told a secret session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee at the beginning of February that Chicago police had been included in the agency training effort, and his disclosure subsequently leaked out to the press.

It was significant that when the CIA publicly owned up to training sessions in Maury's letter to Koch, the only time period mentioned was "the past two years"; it was likely true that in "the past two years" fewer than fifty officers from a dozen localities had been trained. But if the CIA had confessed to the full extent of its pre-1971 police-training activities, the figures would have been much larger. More important, the agency could not have justified its domestic police-training program, as it did, on the grounds of a provision of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, well after the CIA training had started. Of course, once the agency had been shown to have carried out this domestic activity, it needed such a justification or excuse: the National Security Act of 1947 had forbidden it to exercise any "police, subpoena, law-enforcement powers, or internal security functions".

DOMESTIC DECEPTION NORMAL

The tactics used by the CIA to cover its tracks in this instance were typical of the kind of deception that the agency has generally used to conceal its numerous activities inside the United States. The subject of domestic operations is a particularly sensitive one in the CIA, and probably no other program is handled with greater secrecy.

CIA training of local police departments may seem like a relatively harmless activity, but it does raise several questions. Why did the agency at first try to cover up and then mislead Congress, the press, and the public about its activity? Why could the same training not have been given by the FBI, which maintains facilities and has legal authorization for that purpose? (Helms told the Foreign Relations Committee that the police requested CIA assistance because the agency's techniques in keeping intelligence files and in performing certain kinds of surveillance were more advanced than the FBI's.) And why have subsequent CIA Directors James Schlesinger and William Colby not specifically ruled out any future police training, even after the press and the Congress have raised the questions of illegality and impropriety?

None of these questions has an obvious answer. In general, however, the CIA does not like to admit that it has been doing something it shouldn't have, and deceptive public statements by the agency are as much a standard reflex action as an indication that something particularly unsavory has occurred. Another explanation might be that during those days in December 1972 and January 1973 when the police-training incident was being exposed, the Watergate cover-up had not yet come unglued and the CIA might have been trying to keep investigators away from its domestic activities. A few months later, of course, the press would discover, and various public officials would reveal, that Richard Helms had been "most cooperative and helpful" in helping to organize the top-secret White House plan for domestic surveillance and intelligence collection; that the CIA had provided "technical" assistance to the White House plumbers in their 1971 burglary of the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist; that the agency maintained "safe houses" in the heart of Washington where E. Howard Hunt was clandestinely provided with CIA-manufactured false documents, a disguise, a speech-altering device, and a camera fitted into a tobacco pouch; that five of the seven Watergate burglars were ex-CIA employees, and one was still on the payroll and regularly reporting to an agency case officer; that in the week after the break-in at the Democratic party's headquarters, high White House officials tried to involve the agency directly in the Watergate cover-up; and, perhaps most significantly, that top CIA officials remained silent, even in secret testimony before congressional committees, about the illegal activities they knew had taken place. In fact, Helms' answers to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's questions on Watergate in February and March 1973 proved to be so evasive and misleading, particularly as subsequent disclosures were made, that the Washington Post's Laurence Stern wrote on July 10 of the same year "that the word perjury was being uttered in Senate offices by those who were privy to the secret testimony given by Helms...."

At a February 7 hearing, for example, New Jersey's Senator Clifford Case told Helms it had come to his attention that in 1969 or 1970 the White House had asked the various government intelligence agencies to pool resources to learn more about the anti-war movement. "Do you know anything," Case asked Helms, "about any activity on the part of the CIA in that connection? Was it asked to be involved?" Helms replied, "I don't recall whether we were asked, but we were not involved because to me that was a clear violation of what our charter was." Case persisted, "What do you do in a case like that? Suppose you were?" Helms answered, "I would simply go to explain to the President this didn't seem advisable." Case: "That would end it??" Helms: "Well, I think so, normally."

1970: CITIZEN SURVEIL- LANCE?

Four months later a memorandum written by former White House aide Tom Charles Huston leaked to the New York Times. It outlined a program for domestic surveillance of U.S. citizens that had been approved by President Nixon on July 15, 1970, and then rescinded by him five days later. Huston noted a series of meetings with top officials of the FBI, the CIA, the DIA, and the NSA, and the service intelligence agencies, and said, "I went into this exercise fearful that CIA would refuse to cooperate. In fact, Dick Helms was most cooperative and helpful." According to the Huston memorandum, the authenticity of which has been confirmed by the White House, the CIA was slated to be a full participating member.

But the facts and suspicions to emerge from the Senate Watergate hearings during the following months suggested that this is not at all the way such matters are worked out behind the scenes in the executive branch of the government, raising still more questions as to the reliability of the CIA's clandestine leadership--and the agency's role in U.S. domestic intelligence operations.

[H: Please remember that the Watergate Committee is/was a direct working operation of the Committee of 300.]

THE CIA AND THE FBI

The CIA has always conducted clandestine operations within the United States, although for the most part these have been related to its overseas activities or their support. It was for this purpose that the agency originally established, a number of years past, a special component of the Clandestine Services, the Domestic Operations Division. But the separation between foreign-oriented covert operations and those considered essentially domestic is often vague and confusing in the intelligence business. Thus, over the years there had been constant bureaucratic friction between the CIA and the FBI, which has primary responsibility for internal security. Compromises and other working arrangements have had to be evolved, allowing the CIA a certain operational latitude within the U.S.A. and giving the bureau in return special privileges abroad in the agency's sphere of responsibility.

The Domestic Operations Division (DOD), with a staff of a few hundred people and an annual budget of up to $10 million, is a well-established part of the Clandestine Services. Division headquarters for Domestic Operations is not at the main CIA installation at Langley, but in an office building on downtown Washington's Pennsylvania Avenue, within two blocks of the White House. This is also the Washington "station", and its subordinate "bases" are situated in major American cities. These offices are separate from the agency's other facilities for routine personnel recruiting and overt contact with American overseas travellers. The "secret" DOD offices serve as springboards for the Clandestine Services' covert operations in American cities.

The DOD is surrounded by extreme secrecy, even by CIA standards, and its actual functions are shrouded in mystery. The extent of the agency's unwillingness to discuss the Domestic division could be seen when the CIA officer preparing the agency's annual budget request to Congress in 1968 was pointedly told by the Executive Director not to include anything about the DOD in the secret briefing to be given to the Senate and House appropriations committees. In at least one other instance, Director Helms was specifically asked in a secret congressional session about the "Domestic Operations Division". In his answer to the unsuspecting legislators, he described the functions of the "Domestic Contact Service"--the overt agency office that recruits American travelers to be unofficial CIA eyes and ears abroad--which at the time was a complete separate entity housed outside the Clandestine Services.

The Domestic Division's task, like all agency clandestine area divisions, is the collection of covert intelligence and the conduct of other secret operations--but in this instance inside the United States. It operates some of the espionage programs aimed against foreign students and other visitors to the United States, but by no means all of them. Recruitment of a Soviet diplomat at the United Nations or in Washington would fall under the Clandestine Services' Soviet Bloc Division. Programs with Cuban-American in Florida would be handled by the Western Hemisphere Division, the Covert Action Staff, or the Special Operations (paramilitary) Division--depending on the agent's intended role.

There is relatively widespread feeling among observers of the CIA's Clandestine Services that the DOD would like to do more on the American scene than it apparently has up to now. It is also believed that if the Nixon Administration's domestic-security plan of 1970 and the related surveillance of American dissidents had ever been put into operation--which the White House has denied but various press accounts have suggested [H: Now in full operation for over a decade.]--the DOD probably would have become deeply involved. The rationale used by the CIA would most likely have been the same one mentioned by Director Colby at his confirmation hearing: that the agency can rightfully spy on Americans "involved with foreign institutions". To the mistrustful minds of the Clandestine Services, the problems caused in the United States by dissidents, civil-rights activists, and anti-war protesters certainly conjured up the specter of foreign influences. After all, the covert officers reasoned, the dissident political groups in the United States were obviously receiving financial support from somewhere, and the sources could be foreign. The clandestine operators familiar with the CIA's secret efforts to aid and strengthen anti-government groups in Eastern Europe and elsewhere easily calculated that somehow the Communist countries were now getting even by using American groups to stir up trouble in the United States. CIA support for dissident movements in Eastern Europe never made any less real the source of their grievances, but that did not prevent the agency from using them to put pressure on the Soviet government and perhaps even to divert Moscow's attention from its struggle with the West. And in the late 1960's and early 1970's American dissidents were certainly causing difficulties for the U.S. government. Since the Clandestine Services knew it had exploited similar circumstances in Eastern Europe, its operators naturally looked for KGB involvement in the United States. Clandestine Services had sympathizers everywhere. H.R. Haldeman, in a secret memo made public during the Senate

Watergate hearings: "We need our people to put out the story on the foreign or Communist money that was used in support of demonstrations against the President in 1972."

BIG BROTHER ALREADY HERE

The Johnson White House, however, had chosen not to involve the CIA deeply in domestic clandestine operations at the time when it first asked, back in the beginnings of the anti-war movement. The Domestic Operations Division was given only a small piece of the action--namely, to increase its surveillance of the movement, and its activities against direct foreign involvement in the movement. The FBI, too, was instructed to expand its domestic political-intelligence capabilities. But the lion's share of the responsibility in the matter was given to the Pentagon--in particular, the Army--apparently under a newly discovered, but outdated, emergency law granting the President special power to utilize the military and take whatever measure he deemed necessary to put down domestic unrest and conspiracies. Literal legal justification probably was not the sole reason why Army intelligence was assigned as the main instrument with which to attack the domestic targets; size was another consideration. Neither the CIA nor the FBI had the manpower for an all-out clandestine offensive against the radicals. Nor did either have available large numbers of young intelligence personnel who could actually penetrate the movement. But Army Intelligence soon blundered, and its domestic surveillance programs were exposed in January 1970 by ex-agent Christopher Pyle, writing in the Washington Monthly. During the following year the military services were forced to withdraw from their massive attack against domestic dissidents; the field was once again left to the "professionals"--the FBI and the CIA.

This situation, however, soon resulted in an open break between the agency and the bureau. The New York

"for the wakan; for Tatuye Topa". This, Dharma is why we write weary hour upon hour. For our relations which are ultimately only ourselves

Times attributed the split, in late 1971, to a minor event involving jurisdictional control over the handling of an informant/agent in Denver, Colorado. But shortly afterward Sam Papich, the FBI's officer in charge of liaison with the CIA, and a member of J. Edgar Hoover's immediate staff, was dismissed by the bureau chief. And only weeks later William Sullivan, head of the FBI's Division of Internal Security, the bureau's representative on the U.S. Intelligence Board, and a good friend of the CIA, was locked out of his office and fired by Hoover.

In the aftermath of the troubles at the FBI, the press carried a series of reports of Hoover's and the bureau's incompetence. Some comments, attributed to "authoritative sources" in the intelligence community, accused the FBI of having done a poor job of protecting the nation's internal security in recent years. These same sources also noted that the bureau had uncovered only a handful of foreign spies in the United States during the past several years, and described the FBI as lacking in the "sophisticated" approach to modern counterespionage. Such statements, in substance and in phraseology, clearly originated with, or were inspired by, the CIA.

What the public was unaware of at the time, however, was that since 1970--long before the open CIA-FBI split--the White House had been planning to expand domestic intelligence operations. And while the CIA had gone along with and encouraged the secret policy, the FBI had resisted it. It was, in fact, Hoover's personal refusal to support the new policy that resulted in the collapse of the White House plan. And it was in these circumstances that a paranoid President then established the infamous "plumbers" squad, with which the CIA was evidently quite willing to cooperate--and with which the FBI seems to have been reluctant to become involved.

and for the wondrous spiritual and spiritual mystery unto the four quarters of the universe. Chela, there is nothing save the circles within the circles of infinity. All are of God, the Wakan Tanka, splitting into the fragments which all together make up the whole of ALL.

As one who marks upon the stones, the story of Truth, ones come to think of you as would the Lakotas think upon the being called "owl woman". This one stands watch at the door; the road to the spirit lodges. She looks at symbols and, in checking out the various markings upon a being, allows the being to pass or will refuse him entry--cast aside and "over the cliff", so to speak, to become a ghost traveler to roam the earth endlessly as a wanagi (ghost).

We of the winged tribes cannot fit our circled symbols within the limitations of the "square" which represents human of the white race. Those squares represent prison--cell doors, money papers, buildings and rooms of separation, televisions, radios--boxes upon boxes with nothing of value trapped within save the souls of brothers who are in prison within those boxes.

But why "you"? Why not "you"? If not "you"--WHO? You would leave it to the Red Eagle? Leave it to the Little Crow? Leave it to the Phoenix? How about the Cuckoo Bird? That is where it IS in your life at this time--your nest has been taken by the Cuckoo who has thrown your own hatchlings over the cliff to their doom while you feed the monstrous evil creatures and serve them while they take all of the physical experience into their evil traps. You have forgotten to watch for the signs and see the writings upon the mind--the stones, the moss, the winds--you fail to see the Raven with his black stone, symbolizing the winds which bear misfortune.

Red Eagle/White Eagle with sharing of heart so that the work can be done--the journey finished in wisdom and not left to the heyokas--those sacred clowns. When ones come to seek clarity of vision, to most you only represent a friend who has ear with which to hear more clearly. This is because ones do not yet understand for man is still only beginning to remember who he is and the assault against him is constant. Man reaches for his addictions to prevent the seeing of Truth as he blinds his eyes and ears and the feelings of touch leave and the soul is placed in limbo where for a moment in perceived "time" a being can physically escape. But the time allowed for "escape" has passed and reality in the remembering must be confronted.

You cannot pass your "work" on to another--for who is "another"? Who but YOU? You are but all of "them" and "they are but you". It is only through the Great Spirit within that you find higher wisdom reflected in your growth and unity as the symbols on the paper become the language of communication. This is why the symbols--so that you can recognize your brother--yourself. Choices are made and ones must choose and decide whether or not to sit forever within the boxes of the physical or fly free within the circles of infinity.

Critical world events such as: The details of the phoney Soviet coup. What their new (old) plans are and who their new (old) leaders are. How the Soviets pretend weakness while they increase their preparations for war, and "blackmail" us for more billions of dollars of aid while we disarm and can't feed our own hungry people. Remember, America, decades ago they said we would give them the rope to hang us?

That part of Man latches onto that which "seems" real--the things he can only experience in the physical manifestation of thought--"things". The soul longs to regain its freedom with its wondrous flight feathers--but the "golden" feathers weigh him down and keep him binded. Can you not see, wacasaska, that you are but a feather on the wings of God? You ARE a part of that which allows the whole to fly again--only "knowledge" can allow the proper remembering and we are among those who will bring the remembering as it IS--without the lies which entrap the soul and have plucked all the feathers from your being and trapped you in the tarpits of physical squares--holding gold in place of Spirit and binding you by the sheer weight of it to that which cannot be held except for a brief time of Great Spirit's allowing.

The message is simple--the task simple--and the "knowing" simple--so simple indeed, that man cannot remember.

Why would I speak to your heart in this language versus another? Because we are of the tribes gaining insight and knowledge through the experiences of and among the higher constellations--so that we can recognize one another when the sacred stones are laid upon the sacred altar (owanka wakan)--that holy place of Great Spirit--universal; infinite. It is only a part of the remembering and each of you are only allowed to hold a portion so that you can awaken into alertness and not hide your heads beneath the blankets and refuse to see and do your work.

Your work is only different from that of another--for without the contribution of each--in perfection to his/her best ability--the whole is but a tattered flying machine which cannot soar. A wing without flight feathers is a useless thing and yet, to build a glider wing--one must know why another's did not work, what you have done to keep it non-functional and what will allow it to buoy up the whole into flight.

If you accept all the responsibility of all the feathers then you have caused them to be unable to know their own value--so you must not DO IT FOR ANOTHER. The "Owl Woman" at the crossing point is only "self" recognizing that it failed to gain the wisdom suitable to pass on into the mysterious and wondrous places beyond the door. Man will always conjure an "owl woman" to decide his fate for he desires to bear no responsibility and then, he will effort to kill his own creation because it represents that which he failed to attain. What another thinks of you is none of your business, Dharma--anyone--for that is the problem or treasure of the one in the thinking. Man hates Truth for it reflects his soul failures for he reaches the point that he only hears the negative aspects of reflection and forgets that he is a reflection of the total perfection as well as that of the negative and dark aspect of being. There is no way to "judge" another for none have privy to the contracts of the "other". So, you can only discern direction from the guidelines given forth from Great Spirit and Creation to guide you according to "Truth" unto the lighted places of freedom. Imperfection is that which allows growth for when perfection is achieved--there needs be no further experience--honor the imperfections that allow you to experience and grow into wisdom that you might soar again within the Light as the Light which you ARE.

How do you want this play to end? Dharma, ponder a minute--how do you want this play to conclude? Let us assume you wish it to conclude with oneness again with God. How can you conclude your play in that manner if you know not what IS GOD? So, how do you wish this experience to unfold? Do you wish those underground facilities to be of the brotherhood of Light? Do you wish them to be your security when evil comes to confrontation? Then why do you not write that into your play? Why do you ones always allow the evil writers to write your play? This act within the play will unfold exactly as you desire it to unfold and as the players learn their lines and practice their roles--so shall it come to pass that the play will be exactly as you choose it to become and unfold. Do you think God not capable of holding those secure places in the underground for your safety? All that is needed is to give life unto His creatures manufactured by Man in his evil intent and the very tools of his manufacture will be his destruction.

When you speak of enemies, say, aliens--what mean ye? If these "aliens" be of God--are they YOUR enemies? If the thrust is that "they" are enemies of your governments and the business community of thieves and war-mongers--does that make "them"

YOUR enemy--or your salvation? It is up to you! Are "they" there? INDEED! I, personally, am as near as your breath and you would be surprised at where I might be in the holographic aspect at this moment of experience. Where would you have me be, scribe?? Would you have me within as your heartbeat or dancing on silver wings as thine enemy assaults you? It is wisdom and maturity that knows that for which to ask. God often allows you to have that for which you carelessly ask--for the severe lesson gleaned from the having thereof. I suggest, rather, wisdom in all things and most especially when asking God to fulfill a request--it might just happen and then where would you be?

Now as to confronting questions and ones who seek more clarity through the wisdom of higher and farther vision; we must be patient for where the personal response is concerned, Man is given to experience the multitudes of fool's games and the wisdom seems fuzzy. So, let us look in wisdom--say at E. Y. who is now again at crossroads of journey. What has changed in this place? What seems to be happening regarding transfer? Pay attention--if you can have the best of both circumstances--hear what God is saying to you in that inner knowingness. Be patient enough to wait upon the Spirit after you have turned your burden over unto His care. Seize the moment and the opportunity if it be reasonable. In this instance, E. Y. can have the positive of both--IF, he uses wisdom. He can continue to work with the ones who need his physical input--AND, in the allowing them their needs, he can require that if he needs "time" to journey or make presentation for his next experience--so be it. If the move is to be made sooner--the inner knowing will take care of the nudging.

You ones have worked hard and it is coming time for the return swing and some of the reaping of the harvest. E. Y. will be most invaluable in presentation of these project proposals to ones who decide that which will be invested and give credence from physical aspect to ones in the positions to make selections--be it for growing algae to type of housing. These are things that you ones must continue to foster and service until more magnificent decisions come to pass for too few will come into the safety awaiting them--they will turn away calling good--evil. God can fly in all directions and can do so anywhere and anyway He chooses. ASK AND YE SHALL RECEIVE--IF YE ASK IN

WISDOM AND SINCERE PETITION FOR YOUR RELATIONS AND NOT JUST TO SAVE YOUR OWN SELFISH ASSETS. IF YE ARE BOUND BY YOUR ASSETS THEN YOU SHALL BE LEFT TO THOSE ASSETS.

Who am I who speaks with such authority and reminds you of your journey and sometimes utilizes a good swift kick to thine assets? You need none of those "assets"--but you do need ME for I represent the strength and the knowing--in wisdom--of you--each of you. It is not important in the least as to "WHO" am I--"I AM" and that is that which is important. I AM the One through Whom you shall find your way or from Whom you will turn away. Perhaps "I" am the conjured "Owl Woman" at the gate--but to whom do "I" answer? To Myself and to YOU. I am not worthy to be a teacher if I do not know that which is God/Creator--that Mother/Father SPIRIT of ALL. For if I teach you only of the physical and that which the human consciousness DESIRES TO HEAR AND WANTS TO BELIEVE--I HAVE DELUDED YOU AND FAILED YOU WHICH MEANS I HAVE FAILED SELF AND I DO NOT INTEND TO FAIL SELF! DO WE UNDERSTAND A BIT BETTER HOW THIS WILL GO? YOU HAVE ASKED FOR THIS DIRECTION AND INSIGHT--AND YOU SHALL HAVE IT WITHOUT CHARADES NOR VEILS BEHIND WHICH TO HIDE TRUTH. YOU WILL DO YOUR WORK FOR IT IS YOUR WORK--NO MORE AND NO LESS--AND THE LESSON IS NOT JUST FOR A DHARMA OR A CHRISTOS OR SATAN HIMSELF IN PERCEPTION--IT IS FOR EACH AND ALL OF YOU FOR IF ONE PORTION OF THE LIGHT IS FALLEN--SO TOO ARE ALL THE VISIONS CLOUDED. WE DO OUR WORK BECAUSE IT IS OUR WORK AND AS LITTLE CROW TOLD YOU, CHELA, YOU WILL BE GIVEN STRENGTH TO FULFILL YOUR TASK NO MATTER WHAT THAT MAY BE. YOU MUST DO YOUR TASK OR YOUR BROTHER CANNOT DO HIS. HARD? YES AND NO--IF YOU DO YOUR WORK IT IS EASY, IF YOU REFUSE TO DO YOUR PORTION--THEN THE MISSION FALTERS AND STRUGGLES--IT IS UP TO EACH OF YOU AS TO HOW THIS PLAY UNFOLDS.

I wish to speak of the Law Center and Tyson and commitments, etc., but I wish to speak of it first in the meeting this afternoon for I wish to show you HOW things fit together if you allow God to unfold the vision and YOU see it. Then, timely, you must seize the moment, the hour and the day or the opportunity will pass you by as surely as you consider breathing for if you fail to grasp the breath as presented, the next may not come for you have wasted that which was provided. You must stop placing restrictions and limitations of your own expectations upon that which God provides in the answered petition. It is the love of one heart-soul unto another and back with the response of same that keeps you going and growing. What may seem as no contribution--is often the very thing that moves another one step forward and thus moves the "whole". It is YOUR prayer in earnest intent which moves the "whole"--can you not see? It is not Dharma writing--it is YOU reading and seeing the Truth which pushes the dream--dances the dream--awake and into reality of conclusion. Do you not see that on a most practical level--if you want the safety of the very tunnels and facilities built to exclude you--YOU CAN HAVE IT ALL? Can you not see it?

Do you think I gave you locations of your national intent to have exclusive life extension just to allow you to know where your enemy is? No--those locations at some time will be your very security--IF YOU CHOOSE TO HAVE IT THAT WAY. ALIENS FROM THE UNIVERSE ARE NOT EARTH HUMANS' PROPERTY AS THEY SEEM TO BELIEVE--YOU HAVE BUT TO RECOGNIZE FRIEND FROM ENEMY AND LISTEN AS THE INSTRUCTIONS COME BACK IN ANSWER TO YOUR PETITIONS FOR WISDOM. For instance, do you actually believe that we would allow tunneling and damage to the magnificent focusing crystal center for communications and navigation from your "star" to be damaged or controlled? This planet belongs to Creator and ones have taken possession and damaged this wondrous living "mother". Do you actually believe Creator shall tolerate such devastation, even in illusion of perception? You will come into Truth of the illusion of manifestation or you may well live to wish you had. If you are of God, what possible thing could you have to fear? If you are of God you will KNOW that you are protected and provided for as the babe in the womb. It is when you pull away and turn from God that you get into mischief and trouble--hold My hand and I will take you home. Deny me and ye shall search longer for your home. Home is much closer than you think for Man is given to think with that which IS WITHIN THE ILLUSION as he fails to TRUST that KNOWINGNESS within his being.

You ones want gurus and go-betweens. Why? Because you have been trained to think you are not sufficient unto self. Why would not your desire to have security be as fulfilling as that of your adversary? Moreover, if ye be of God--ye have infinite capabilities and ye shall breathe the breath of life into that which is needed for your army and "war" will not be in the realm of need. War is that which your adversary to "life" plans this day against the unwitting and innocents of nations.

Do some on your planet have worry and trouble with "aliens"? Oh my, indeed yes--we are THE enemy of those who have destroyed, enslaved and torn down that which is God's property. Wrathful is this God? No--JUST! FAIR? According to whose perspective? But remember something as you read these words--you must discern your own perception. How knowledgeable are you? Do you see this as a fearful revelation or one of wondrous security?

You think Dharma somehow has the gift of writing? If you understood not that which she writes--then you might well be as the rock-throwers and advise her that she knows not how to write at all and everything is beyond understanding. If you understand that which is the "word" or compilation of symbols and words--who is the revelator? The writer or the receiver? Communication is simply that which is understood in intent. The point is to bring the communication into focus so that all know "explicitly" that of which we effort to understand. When the focus is clear and all see the same understanding and vision--so then, can you manifest that vision into reality. Ones who do not wish to understand and come into vision of reality away from the humanistic experiences of the fleshly senses--will NOT understand nor will he come close enough to receive. He will insist upon being left as the ship leaves port--do you see? You do not know if God will send a life-ring, a spacecraft or a shuttle to take you underground beneath the horrors--WILL YOU KNOW WHEN GOD COMES? Will you be efforting to "ascend" when your security is to "descend"? Why must you make such foolish limitations on God and self as to follow a blind leader who teaches the limitations of God as he/she pronounces that they are teaching the unlimited qualities of God. If you are "with" God you will automatically ascend or descend as God discerns.

You want to cling to an idea of that which WAS--no, you are stuck with that which IS. Will you lose your very life in the need to hold to that which has passed and shall never come again as "was"? Do you want to experience the "crystal" of perfection from within as one with it--or always ponder the possibilities according to "another's" description of how it might be? If you have already decided in the negative of "I can't" or "it isn't possible", you have already decided--for you will not bring it into creation--you will fail for that was your decision from onset. If you get off your assets and decide it will be accomplished--anything and everything will come to be. If you take My hand I will show you where we are going but if you turn from Me--YOU SHALL NOT GO ON THIS JOURNEY WITH ME FOR YOU CANNOT TRAVEL IN BOTH DIRECTIONS AT ONCE. I CAN GIVE YOU GLORY--OR YOU MAY TAKE YOUR CHANCES WITH THE DECEIVERS WHO HAVEN'T TOLD YOU TRUTH YET AND HAVE GIVEN YOU LESS. THEY HAVE PROVED THEIR DECEIT AND YET, STILL, YOU CLING TO THESE ENEMIES.

There you have it, precious ones--glory and freedom or bondage and struggle. My path is only through effort toward goodness. I shall hold out My hand unto you and I shall hold the lamp aloft so that you can see in wisdom--but I will snatch you away to nowhere nor drag you anywhere.

If you deny God, God will allow you to do so and in the ending if you continue unto your transition to deny then be prepared for God to take leave of you until lessons are learned and vision clears a whole heck of a lot. Equal opportunity does not mean "the same" opportunity. You will claim that opportunity offered unto YOU--for another's is not yours to claim. How many of you will deny the glories and treasure of your heritage to cling to the dregs of an elusive, fragmented and binding dream experience?

It is the time of sorting and the decisions are made in the confusion of chaos because it is in that state of consciousness when Man makes his choices of life journey. It is the epitome of the battle between Truth and the lie. I did not say "good" or "bad"--I SAID TRUTH OR THE LIE. Which will it be?

Why do you concern, say, with those space aliens? If you are of God, you know the following: Evil cannot exist in the presence of God so if they be evil they shall be smitten down--if they be of God then you are in clover--right? The only thing I can give unto you as assistance in deciding--IT SURELY SEEMS WISE TO ME, TO STICK WITH GOD BECAUSE HE IS GOING TO WIN EITHER WAY.

I force no-one to take my portions. I force none to read my presentations. You can "argue" into infinity over the merits of one book above that of another--but if one book be wrong then your argument is unworthy. I argue not. I will always effort to give understanding--but I argue not so if you choose to denounce my gifts then I bless you and grant unto you your "right" to choice--it will be in the ending wherein the Truth shall be accounted and we shall see who brought Truth and who, the lie. Manifested experience is a game of choices, illusions and experienced actions. Only through those actions can one measure growth and reality of purpose. If your desire is to remain mired in the ignorance of human bindings--I cannot help you nor would I spoil your journey by my imposition upon your senses. But in the ending, dear ones, we shall most certainly see WHO was correct in the unlimited measure of God and Creation and who remained binded by the lies of that physical manifestation.

You see, if you are IN THE LIGHT, ye shall have no trouble becoming one with the Light and therein receiving your freedom--your "ascension" if you will. If you limit your training to the physical expression of diversification, separation and opinions of others regarding "your" status--then you shall remain incapable of the transition within that Light source. In your ignorance you will slay the very thing you are struggling to save--your physical form. Why?

All of you--answer this most important question--why? What do you want? You run hither and yon seeking "safety"? Safety from what? What for? Why do you desire safety, say from an earthquake or struggle or death? Why do you want to determine that special "safe place" in Idaho or

California, the mountain or the desert? Is it to prolong a bit of flesh in comfort--or to serve God's purpose? When you can honestly answer that question the insight will pour in upon you like the tidal wave you fear.

When you desire to survive only to serve your relations, then and only then have you found your place of safety for it matters not--you are simply--safe. If yours is only to save thine assets and necks--then you will search until you find the very place where you shall lose it all. I effort to give you ways of making this journey through the physical confusion a bit easier and viable while you make decisions. I give you instructions and the WORD so that you can come to trust Me in that farther vision. I do not come to drag you into anything for I only actually have the WORD to offer--THE WORD

OF TRUTH THROUGH WHICH YOU CAN FIND YOUR FREEDOM. GOD IS BUT LOVE, LIGHT, TRUTH AND THE WORD. GODNESS IS THE KNOWING AND BEING OF THESE TRUTHS. WHICH ARE YOU? WHO ARE YOU? WHEREIN IS YOUR SAFE PLACE? The great Gurus of Truth only tell you there is higher. The false guru s pronounce limitations so that you follow them. Who would you believe?

Is Dharma the being in point, or the speaker/writer of the Word? Both--just as are you in that fragmentation of God Creator, in His desire that you experience and find your Truth and experience your journey to fulfillment. But WHO shares this WORD? God--for God IS THE WORD, is the LIFE and the WAY. If ye come into My places ye shall come through Me and according to the Laws given so that ye might abide in My places according to those ways which are acceptable. Fair? I care not about "fair"--this is simply the way it IS. If ye like it not--go away from Me and find your own desires and in the ending, so shall we see who guided you to perfection and who left you in the pits. I AM HE WHOM YE SEEK AND AWAIT AND SO IT IS WHETHER OR NOT YE WISH TO ARGUE THE POINT! Nobody even suggests you listen to Dharma in her physical garb for she is but YOU. I AM EXACTLY WHO I SAY THAT I AM--I AM ATON AND I SHALL SHARE THE JUDGING AND THE ACTIONS WILL HAVE SPOKEN ALL THAT IS NEEDED FOR THE OCCASION IN POINT. EVIL SHALL NOT BE BROUGHT WITHIN MY PLACES! AND, THAT, CHELAS, IS THE WAY IT IS WHETHER OR NOT YOU LIKE OF IT--IT IS NOT YOUR DECISION. Your only decision is unto whom and in what manner will you choose. MINE IS TO OFFER MY GIFTS--I DO NOT NEGOTIATE NOR COMPROMISE BY GIVING YOU LESS THAN PERFECTION AND YOU SHALL NOT LESSEN THE VALUE OF THE HERITAGE UNTO MY PEOPLE BY YOUR FOOLISH CONSPIRACY TOWARD COMPROMISE AND VOTED-IN MORALITY OF A PLANE OF EXPERIENCE INDEED LESS THAN PRIMITIVE. EVEN THE PRIMITIVE NATURE RECOGNIZED THE MAGNIFICENCE OF CREATION. PONDER THESE THINGS MOST CAREFULLY.

You had better begin to confront these final choices for it is about time for you to meet whichever it represents to you--friends or enemies. The thrust will be put upon you soon now as the next portion of your adversarial outlay begins to stifle you and bring terror into your consciousness. Will we, on our arrival--be welcomed or only bring terror? To each his own for the Hosts have come to prepare the way for the reclaiming of property of the Source of Perfection. Which side are you on? Do we represent terror or joy? It is time for you to be in the deciding for our presence will shortly be made evident. If you follow the path of the adversary and the criminals (and we have now outlaid ways to discern which is which) then you have MUCH, PERHAPS ALL, TO FEAR-- IF YOU WALK WITHIN THE INTENT OF GAINING AGAIN THE PROPERTY IN RECLAMATION OF AND WITH CREATOR--THEN I SUGGEST YOU ARE IN PROPER PLACEMENT AND AWAIT IN JOY. YE SHALL BE GIVEN THE DISCERNMENT TO RECOGNIZE THE ENEMY FROM THE BROTHER.

I once told this little band of brethren we call "ground crew" that one day the Phoenix material would save your lives--and it stands as stated: You who have unto selves "the word" shall have gained the security of the protection for ye shall bear the mark which is the sign of who is God's and who is desirous of remaining in the confinement of experience as is.

Ones who "will read it as soon as there is extra time" or "when I finish with whatever else I find to occupy me" are sorely ill-informed. There is NOTHING ON YOUR EARTH as important and you are running out of time. If you already have direction and KNOW--then it matters not--but if ye are filled with doubts and indecisions, ye had best be in the finding out. If your only intent is to "save your 'things'" then I suggest that you will surely lose them all for even in transition from the physical plane of housed body--you lose them all at any rate. If they are atomized by a nuclear bomb--are they not lost to you? What is it ye do not understand? YOU UNDERSTAND--YOU SIMPLY DO NOT WISH TO FACE IT AND IT IS TIME. THE TIME IS AT HAND FOR THE CONFRONTING OF TRUTH LEST YOU NOT HAVE A "TOMORROW" PAST THIS DAY.

I do not come to preach as such and certainly not to coerce--I COME TO TELL YOU HOW IT IS and you do whatever ye will do with it--but My people are going to come fly with Me in the glory of the universe. The tickets are available and are actually "free"--it is only your warped perceptions that causes them to seem too elusive and expensive--it simply means you have to give up that which "seems" real to get that which is of the only value but remains invisible. In other words, you cannot purchase this ticket home with anything on Earth in manifested form. So be it.

Dharma, it is time to leave this for we have a meeting waiting. I hope that all who read this document give most careful thought to it. If you are reading it--pause and give thanks that you had opportunity to find it at all for it indicates that you are given time to better discern thine own journey.

In love and blessings as you will accept. I am Aton--Grandfather--Mother/Father. I AM THE LIGHT AND YE ARE MYSELF, THEREFORE, I WOULD ASK THAT YOU CONSIDER THESE THINGS I OFFER UNTO YOU THAT YOUR JOURNEY LEADS TO THAT WHICH IS WONDROUS--BUT IT IS THINE TO JUDGE AND THEN, UPON WHICH TO ACT FOR WITHOUT ACTION THE BELIEF HAS NO MEASURE.

I AM ATON.

Once More Seeking Wisdom

3/16/92 #1 HATONN

Hatonn present in the Light and Radiance of a new day--a new opportunity for service. Blessings be unto our work that clarity can be given forth in this critical time of opening vision that wisdom may be our mode of response to all impacts. We only ask to survive so that we can remain representative of that which is God in Truth and for that we will always thank the Creator. We ask only the chance to pass on this Truth and our love for the Creator to you, our brothers, children and grandchildren. AHO. You must come into comfort in the knowing that God rules the universe and everything God created--in living--even the oldest rock. Honor and respect is due all creations and each is only worthy of utmost respect and reverence. In these days of chaos and darkened insight people seek "knowledge" (information) but only in that they know something that perhaps another does not yet remember--nay, you MUST SEEK WISDOM. Knowledge and information is simply from the past; WISDOM IS OF THE FUTURE.

And what is wisdom? A refresher: Wisdom is the realization of the Natural Laws and that all life is equal. You must respect life--all life, not just your own. It is beyond acknowledgment of other entities--you must respect THOSE OTHER ENTITIES. Unless you respect the earth, you destroy it. Unless you respect all life as much as your own life, you become a destroyer, a murderer. Man has come to think he has been elevated somehow, to be chief controller--ruler. But he is NOT. He is only a part of the whole. Man's job is not to exploit but to oversee, to be a steward. Man has responsibility, not power. I repeat a statement which I shall utilize again and again and again: Ye finally will learn that wisdom comes only when you stop looking for it and start truly living the life the Creator intended for you. In that practice and intent shall come security and glory in the passage. We are but come to tell you and show you how it IS--the actions and choices are up to you and in that deciding shall be your mode of transportation and protection in the days to come which are yet un-experi- enced--and there will be such remaining--in one manifestation or another. So be it.

ONE MORE CHANCE

Will you gain "wisdom" this day or will you dwell on the possibilities that I may be other than that which I propose unto you--that is what many are doing. I actually have ones who are going to "give you a chance" IF "you show up eye to eye" and/or, "...what happened to the blinding light? You are probably a phony but I will give you one more chance!" GIVE ME ONE MORE CHANCE? GIVE ME ONE MORE CHANCE? I come to prove nothing to you ill-advised and lied-to children of that lie. YOU will give ME one more chance? Touché: You do whatever you like, my friends, but YOU ARE RUNNING OUT OF TIME and I NEED NO MORE OF YOUR INSIDIOUS INDULGENCE--YOU SEEM TO MISUNDERSTAND THE ENTIRE GAME IN PLAY IF YOU ARE GOING TO GIVE "ME" ONE MORE CHANCE!

I am not come to indulge you in argument at any level--I am come to give you Truth of the WORD. I honor you each and respect your prattlings--but I certainly ask for "no more chances to prove something or another to you". I suggest it is past time you begin to prove something worthy and wise unto GOD for my fleet and Command are directly attached to THAT guiding Commander--not in any wise unto your opinions.

Ones of you who tout great self-proclaimed wisdom about our information and denounce us as "plagiarists" and simple "computer hackers", I welcome your uninformed statements as being about as "unwise" as you can be in this particular scenario for you are on the downhill swing of the time machines. If man needs information, I shall give it and you who disapprove--so be it. You who acclaim your own work as mighty and sacred--look again because in almost all instances you are misled and misleading any who listen to your precious sharing of your unwise opinions.

I specifically address you who have intention of service other than for SELF. If you go about getting yourselves unattached to the Federal Government--you are going to find yourselves in great disadvantage very shortly now. If you intend to serve only self--and lay low in the holes of the community--then you go get yourselves State Sovereignized--but if you wish to actually serve--you will not do such a blatantly foolish thing. Do you actually think the "beast" is going to honor any of YOUR "constitutional" rights as he takes control of every asset, man, woman and child? Already he honors not anything you have or action you take. You can win a few Constitutional battles in the courtroom, for instance, only as long as the outcome doesn't destroy his image of power and control. You must continue to battle that battle because it is through that route which you may be able to reclaim--but NOT THROUGH DROPPING OUT! It once would have worked--NO LONGER.

WITHIN THE LAWS OF THE LAND

I tell you, chelas, you can defeat this monster and remain within the laws as laid forth for you--BY THEM. Why would ye reduce self to no authority and no possibility of being attended by the wardens in their prisons by separating yourself from the flock? What will ye have gained? YOU CAN GAIN THE END YOU WISH BY DOING THINGS "THROUGH THEIR OWN LAWS!" BECOMING TOTALLY HIDDEN FROM THEM WILL ONE DAY PRECLUDE YOUR GAINING OF YOUR NEXT MEAL FOR THEY WILL DENY YOU ALL--AS EXAMPLE FOR THE REST OF THE INCARCERATED FLOCK.

I take no pleasure in announcing this fact because I have ones in my own crew who have chosen to go that route. I do, however, wish to point out as example--just assume that one, Gritz, decided to take such action: he would immediately be separated from an income gleaned from his years of service, but worse--he would be denied all possibility of running for President for he would be considered legally a non-citizen. You who go this route are following advice which once was valid--but it is past the time of making sufficient impact through that route--your only recourse NOW is to take action "within" those rules which allows you to continue to function within their own shielding apparatus.

Gold Will Rise

3/16/92 #1 HATONN

I am denounced because "gold is not rising--it is falling". How narrow your vision and foolish your reasoning. You are in a time of desiring instant gratification and instant assassination. I care not that which you do with your foolish funds--throw them away if you choose. I do, however, have responsibility to those who inquire and utilize wisdom in guidance.

The British are taking over South Africa--actually all of Africa. They intend to garner the entire world supply of gold and most especially that which is in South Africa--the largest reserves in the world. They are punishing the people at present and then when it "appears" they are coming into balance--again, to fool the masses--it will appear prosperity has struck thanks to their imposed actions. Gold will go up!!! How can you know? Because it is THE commodity upon which all other commodities are based. And, multi-thousands of tons of the precious metal are already contracted for at a price above $370/per oz. This is with London banks and it is not going to move in that particular massive lump until the price is at least to that level. THE BANKERS IN CONTROL OF YOUR GLOBE DO NOT MAKE THOSE KINDS OF ERRORS--THEY ONLY MISJUDGE GOD AND TRUE POWER THROUGH THAT WONDROUS ENTITY.

I challenge you NOT. I have given you methods for participation and your time runs very thin because as the banks fold, funding against anything--even gold--is very, very difficult to achieve.

Now we are getting back to our major subject in point. How is it that your Central Intelligence Agency is a world destroyer of other nation's sovereignty? Who allows such actions? The CIA is running a counterfeiting currency operation of massive proportion--didn't anyone tell you that that is illegal and internationally unacceptable? You call it destabilization of a government--Saddam's. Moreover, you boast unto the entire world of your illegal and unlawful behavior as if it is a badge of honor. YOU NO LONGER HAVE ANY HONOR--NONE AT ALL! YOU WERE ONCE A NATION WHOSE VERY NAME REPRESENTED HONOR--NOW YOU REPRESENT THE EPITOME OF EVIL DICTATORSHIP WHICH SURPASSES ANYTHING THAT ADOLF HITLER EVER EVEN THOUGHT OF DOING IN OPPRESSION--YOU ARE EVEN MURDERING AT RANDOM AND CREATING TOTAL GENOCIDE AGAINST HELPLESS MASSES--YOU ARE INTO THE BIGGEST HOLOCAUST OF ALL TIME.

of America. It is one of the major entities set, illegally I might say, to inherit the treasures of the fallen banks. It is the U.S. major representative of the Committee of 300 and therefore will stand if ANY does. The point is to bring the banking community into five banks--all functioning directly and worldwide from the Bank of International Settlements in Switzerland under the Committee of 300. The Japanese own a portion of the B of A bank as it is a compilation of facets of the Committee of 300 in that loyal fragments don't lose. The Japanese banks are at collapse.

The stock-market in Japan is now below 20,000 points and losing money faster than any central banking unit can shore up. There is nothing to back the economy for it was brought to this level of insanity by false Real Estate utilization and that can no longer shore up the system.

Companion Tapes From 3/14/92

3/16/92 #1 HATONN

I wrote at length on Saturday last. Then we met for over FIVE HOURS on that afternoon in which I laid forth quite definite probabilities and factual intentions.

I am not going to ask Dharma to repeat all that in print--as she spent over ten hours at the task of service on that day. I ask that in this paper information be given as to how you who wish those tapes in copy, can obtain them. (Editor: Meetings generally run 3-5 tapes and they are $10 per meeting shipping and handling included. Send to America West, P.O. Box 986, Tehachapi, CA 93581.) We will begin to have more oral meetings and we are not going to repeat it all in writing for we are out of time for such. You will find that I state that I refuse to further debate issues of contention and/or argue in any measure. I will give you that which I may and that which I can offer for your use. I force nothing and neither shall I "drag" you along like a cow to branding. It is not my business what you believe and if your opinion differs and intention of inquiry is to learn--fine, I shall take up those inquiries, probably in oral meeting wherein we can cover more subject matter more rapidly. In other words, I shall be responding more to your letters and questions in open forum--on tape. I will NOT be giving personal readings nor fortune telling. I will not be giving specific "safe places" other than as I write them as with the underground facilities. It is time you confront WHY you desire "safety". If yours is disagreement on topics--hold with your own opinion and we shall see who might have been correct.

War and the Illusion of Separation

3/16/92 #1 HATONN

You are at the point of all-out war and they are giving you blow by blow readings on the matter.

You can know by the pattern. Every time there is immediate movement into war--you and Israel create the illusion of separation. Your quarrel is only a facade--your Elite are doing exactly that which is in the blueprint. However, note that Israel now says that if those major missile launchers are off-loaded and that technology passed around the Arab world--they will attack and not wait for the U.S.

Perhaps I should tell you about those weapons on those "stealth cargo carriers". (They must be "stealth" because 23 of your searching destroyers couldn't seem to locate them prior to docking. Perhaps you should be purchasing or stealing that "stealth" technology from North Korea since yours doesn't even begin to "work".)

TELL AND SHOW THE WAY--YOU DO WHATEVER YOU WISH WITH THE INPUT. MINE IS NOT TO ARGUE NOR PERSUADE FOR IF YOU WANT NOT TRUTH--IT IS YOUR FREE-WILL PREROGATIVE.

You ones mispronounce My label and it matters not but I suggest you be a bit attentive while we sort out some of the rubbish from the worthy content of beliefs. I am not tripping around on your physical habitat and "Dharma" does not proclaim to be anything except what she is--MY SECRETARY. I am not a "MAN" calling Myself some wishful thinking guru--I will, however, conclude who will and who will not be acceptable into My places and My guidelines are few and succinct--intention is the name of the ticket receiving. YOU HAVE NO POWER ON EARTH CAPABLE OF CAUSING IT TO BE OTHERWISE, FOR IN THIS, I AM THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY ON OR OFF YOUR PLACE OF EXPERIENCE--YOUR ENEMY KNOWS IT AND THAT IS WHY SUCH EFFORT IS MADE TO KEEP YOU BLINDED AND HELPLESS. THE LIES WILL INCREASE AND BECOME HORRENDOUS--AS YOU MOVE INTO CONJURED DEPRESSION, OPPRESSION AND WAR. REMEMBER, CHELAS, I WIN! SO, WHO IS YOUR ENEMY AND WHO MIGHT JUST BE YOUR ONLY WAY OFF YOUR PLACE OR SECURITY WITHIN YOUR PLACE? IT IS TIME YOU PAY QUITE CAREFUL ATTENTION TO POSSIBILITIES.

SORTING TIME IS HERE

THERE ARE REASONS THAT I COME IN THIS MANNER--AND UNTO THIS PARTICULAR LOCATION AND THROUGH THIS METHOD OF COMMUNICATION IN THIS INTERIM TIMING--BUT YOU ARE GOING TO DISCERN AND CHOOSE FOR IT IS THE TIME OF SORTING. VOTED-IN MAJORITY RULE MORALITY WILL NOT CUT IT ON MY SHIPS OR IN MY REALMS. YOU WHO CANNOT TEAR SELVES FROM EARTHLY PHYSICAL BINDINGS AND SHACKLES WILL REMAIN AMONG THEM--BUT NOT FOR LONG FOR IT IS DESTINED AND PLANNED BY YOUR ADVERSARY TO DEPOPULATE THIS PLANET AND THAT IS GOING TO ANNIHILATE OVER 6-1/2 BILLION PEOPLE. I speak of physical life--for when the adversary is through with you--you are finished in this expression. Souls of progression will be taken into proper placement--separate from physical manifestation in all cases for viable thinking beings with willingness to come within the universal laws governing the higher experience are all that will be acceptable in any other format. Evil will not be accepted within the places of higher understanding experience. Evil is restricted to the places of physical illusion of expression--and never higher than the very lowest of planes of experience. Mind intention expressed through thought and

I suggest you walk gently, beloved, for you tread upon that very thing which insures your safe passage--in those nifty "opinions" of self-proclaimed "authorities" and "experts". In your desperation not to lose anything--are you set to lose EVERYTHING? I suggest you ponder it quite rapidly now, for your Elite Conspirators have run you out of time and they plan to have it ALL--ALL ASSETS, PROPERTY--AND YOU!

Timing? Watch South Africa and watch the price of gold--therein lay the clues. We will work with you any way we can do so within the boundaries laid forth by higher councils--but we will work in behalf of no-MAN who oppresses a brother in any manner whatsoever. It, therefore, is time to confront your own reason for the "prayers" you send forth for if it be to gain control over another and/or

I have spoken to you regarding actions which will be taken when you reach a point of self-destruction. You had better start paying attention to "Star Trek" for you are THERE. We can either draw off that plasmic belt and ionize that particulate or we can increase it so that it contains the gaseous and/or barren star-matter which you will become. We will, at any rate, protect the orbiting order of universal function. I am appalled at your thought patterns. I am continually accused of arrogance. Arrogance?? I suggest the arrogance of the accusers is beyond my own comprehension--indeed, beyond any comprehension. YOU will not be in the deciding who will and will not come aboard my ships, or come into the safety of the places WE shall obtain or hold open for passage--YOU WILL HAVE ONE POSSIBILITY FOR SURVIVAL--THROUGH ME! If it be only things of flesh for which you petition and guidelines to simply hold onto physical expression--so shall ye be in the losing for it will bind you to the prison and you will deny your lifeboat come to bring you into safety.

Does this mean that you who are striving for security and safe places, should cease your work--absolutely NO. You must make a passage of interim survival and sorting, leadership and balance. In factual outlay--it is what and how you function which shall decide the play.

SELECTIVE INTENT

In the last meeting I had one express a suggestion that "we unify and cause speakers to misspeak and do foolish things so that they are shown for what they are." No--you cannot have right to function FOR or instead of another--always pray for change of self for only self can be changed--ask energy for better receiving, more discernment in wisdom of the listeners and then, only then, can the scenario be effectively CHANGED.

You all must come to realize that it is not even MY opinion or judgment of anything or any one which is in point. I am not anti-anything--even evil. I simply disallow any evil into My places and, therefore--it is solely your judgment of self and actions, evil or goodness which means anything. I simply remind you that I shall discern the intent and that is upon which will be concluded passage on My safety-ships. I certainly hope you keep in mind that physical expression is LIMITED TO PHYSICAL DIMENSION--AND NO OTHER "BOAT" CAN GET YOU FAR ENOUGH OFF YOUR PLACE (PLANET) TO FACILITATE SURVIVAL OF THE SPECIES.

THE BLUE TURBAN

Let us take a break at this point and then we shall dive right off into the reviewing of the CIA for as the "intelligence" services all become one functioning military machine--you must know the pattern so that you can understand what is taking place under the banner of the blue turban (flag). You had best go back and take a review of some of the seer's notations--try Nostradamus (the "old" original projections--never mind these "new" revelations for they are total hogwash and will mislead and distract you). The one in the "blue turban" is on the scene and it is representative of the flag of ONE GOVERNMENT UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS IN CONNECTION WITH THE ADVERSARY TOOLS OF ZIONIST BRITISH ISRAEL WHOSE COUNCIL OF ACTION IS THE COMMITTEE OF 300 UNDER DIRECT COMMAND OF THE ADVERSARY HIMSELF. MY TEAM SHALL MOST CERTAINLY "WIN" BUT THE BASTARD WHORE WILL TAKE MOST OF THE POPULATION WITH HIM INTO THE PITS OF DESTRUCTION. SO BE IT.

How long will this tired old planet last as is? I suggest you carefully consider the prophecies for as you are going at present--and without change in total revolvment--your hours are numbered in the time of this one generation.

The WORD is TRUTH and we bring the WORD. You shall choose as to your participation, acceptance, denial or simply remain in total refusal to see. Ignorance is one thing which is now past excusing for the WORD IS BROUGHT FORTH--deliberate refusal and denial of the WORD is your choice but who comes into My care is MY CHOICE--NOT YOURS, OTHER THAN YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE GOODLY LAWS OF CREATOR AND CREATION--EXCEPT THROUGH ME SHALL YE COME INTO THE KINGDOM OF TRUTH. IT SHALL IN NO-WISE BE THROUGH DEMOCRATIC VOTE--IN AS YOU WOULD DEMAND TO WALK IN A PARADE OR ACCORDING TO THE INJUSTICE OF A COURT OF MAN-RULES AND REGULATIONS. YOUR EVIL IS UNACCEPTABLE IN MY PLACES OF GOODNESS. THIS IS THE TIME OF FINAL SORTING--WHERE WILL YOU BE?

Close this please so that we can take respite and then we shall begin immediately following, on our subject in point. The CIA is taking great invasive (publicly) actions all around the globe and you must understand its purpose and intent. Thank you for your attention. I suggest that you carefully consider these things I lay forth on your banquet table and choose carefully the food--for thought. Salu.

Espionage and Counterespionage. Part II.

3/16/92 #2 HATONN

When CIA Director William Colby was asked at his Senate confirmation hearings, in the fall of 1973, what he believed to be the proper scope of CIA activities within the United States, his first response was, "We obviously have to run a headquarters here; we have to recruit people for our staffs, and so forth, and we have to conduct investigations on those people..." No one disputes the need for the agency to conduct certain routine administrative business within the United States, but few people realize that what the "headquarters" needs to be "run" includes dozens of buildings in the Washington area alone, large training facilities at several locations in Virginia, a paramilitary base in North Carolina, secret air bases in Nevada and Arizona, communications and radio intercept bases around the country, scores of "dummy" commercial organizations and airlines, operational offices in more than twenty major cities, a huge arms warehouse in the Midwest, and "safe houses" for secret rendezvous in Washington and other cities. While most of these are oriented toward foreign operations, some are used full- or part-time for purely domestic activities.

[H: At this point I would give you some information which will be coming forth in the press as if in shock treatment, as example, of buildings and front organizations for purposes of clandestine activities--right in Washington. This is to simply show you that it goes on constantly, urgently, secretly and right under your noses in the shadow of the White House for convenience.

There is a private, non-profit, historical and cultural association called the Confederate Memorial Association (CMA) which operates a museum and library in Washington. The intelligence community efforted diligently to take over the buildings and sham cover of that organization for money laundering and other clandestine operations. This will not "shock" you who are now versed in the strange world of covert intelligence, but it clearly illustrates how clandestine activities are hidden behind deceptive facades.

In this case, a legitimate, non-profit association was targeted for takeover by the intelligence community.

The association and the museum were struggling financially and the fact that the building was only eight blocks from the White House--it was immediately noted that funds would be made available "in exchange for - - -", etc.

Please understand, readers, that takeovers are usually done with great hidden dexterity. First, ones offer to help, then in exchange get a few members on the Board and then more and more until the organization ceases to function and the beast takes total possession. This one placement and operation was directly hooked to the Iran-Contra operations, Oliver North, money laundering and other covert clandestine operations. This goes on continually in all parts of your globe. As in this case in point--the intelligence connections come full circle--from the early, innocent-seeming involvement in the CMA, in this instance, to the current litigation in the matter with "fixed" judges and participating legal counsel set forth to "insure" proper judicial outcome in favor of the clandestine operations.]

Colby continued: "We have to contract with a large number of American firms for the various kinds of equipment that we might have need for abroad." Again, this is on the surface a legitimate function. The CIA every year purchases tens of millions of dollars' worth of goods from domestic companies--everything from office supplies to esoteric espionage equipment. But Colby carefully left out any mention of those other "purchases"--the services provided for by the CIA's contractual relationships with universities, "think tanks", and individual professors.

COLLEGE CAMPUS ACTION

Many of these came to light in the winter of 1967 after Ramparts first revealed the CIA subsidization of the National Student Association and as exposure followed exposure Richard Helms asked his Executive Director to report back to him exactly what the CIA was doing on American campuses. The Executive Director quickly found that he had no easy task before him, since nearly every agency component had its own set of programs with one or more American universities and there was no central office in the CIA which coordinated or even kept track of these programs. A special committee was formed to compile a report and its staff officers spent weeks going from office to separate office to put together the study.

The committee compiled data on the hundreds of college professors who had been given special clearances by the agency's Office of Security to perform a wide variety of tasks for different CIA components. The Intelligence Directorate, for example, had a corps of consultants on campus who did historical and political research, much like normal scholars, with the difference that they were almost never permitted to publish their findings; in a few instances, that rule was suspended on condition that the source of their funding was not identified, and if the work neatly coincided with a prevailing CIA propaganda line.

Similarly, the Directorate of Science and Technology employed individual professors, and at times entire university departments or research institutes, for its research and development projects. (This apart from the millions of dollars of work the S&T Directorate contracted out every year to private companies and "think tanks".) Research of this type included the development (commonly used).

In many cases, the CIA's research involvement on the campuses went much deeper than simply serving as the patron of scholarly work. In 1951, CIA money was used to set up the Center for International Studies at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A key figure at the MIT Center was Walt Rostow, a political scientist with intelligence ties dating back to OSS service during World War II who later became President Johnson's Assistant for National Security Affairs. In 1952, Max Millikan, who had been Director of the CIA's Office of National Estimates, became head of the center. This linkage between the CIA and research institutions on campus and in the private sector became standard practice in later years, just as it did for the Pentagon. But whereas the Pentagon's procedures could to some extent be monitored by the Congress and the public, the CIA set up and subsidized its own "think tanks" under a complete veil of secrecy. When in 1953 the MIT Center published The Dynamics of Soviet Society, a book by Rostow and his colleagues, there was no indication to the reader that the work had been financed by CIA funds and that it reflected the prevailing agency view of the Soviet Union. MIT cut off its link with the center in 1966, but the link between the center and the CIA remained, and the agency has continued to subsidize a number of similar, if smaller, research facilities around the country.

RECRUITING SPIES

The compilers of the 1967 study on CIA ties to the academic community also found that the Clandestine Services had their own research links with universities, for the purpose of developing better espionage tools (listening devices, advanced weapons, invisible inks, etc.). But for the covert operators, research was not the primary campus interest. To the Clandestine Services the universities represented fertile territory for recruiting espionage agents. Most large American colleges enrolled substantial numbers of foreign students, and many of these, especially those from the Third World, were (and are) destined to hold high positions in their home countries in a relatively few years. They were much easier to recruit at American schools--when they might have need for money, where they could be easily compromised, and where foreign security services could not interfere--than they would be when they returned home. To spot and evaluate these students, the Clandestine Services maintained a contractual relationship with key professors on numerous campuses. When a professor had picked out a likely candidate, he notified his contact at the CIA and, on occasion, participated in the actual recruitment attempt. Some professors performed these services without being on a formal retainer. Others actively participated in agency covert operations by serving as "cut-outs", or intermediaries, and even by carrying out secret missions during foreign journeys.

The Clandestine Services at times have used a university to provide cover or even assist in a covert operation overseas. The best-known case of this sort was exposed in 1966 when Ramparts revealed that Michigan State University had been used by the CIA from 1955 to 1959 to run a covert police-training program in South Vietnam. The agency had paid $25 million to the university for its service, and five CIA operators were concealed in the program's staff.

DRUG PROGRAMS CONCEALED

The 1967 study on the CIA's ties with American universities covered all the activities described above, but the staff officer responsible for preparing it was told that no research program concerning the use of drugs was to be mentioned in the report. The agency's interest in drugs was more than a passing one; one officer was assigned to travel all over Latin America, buying up all sorts of hallucinatory drugs which might have some application to intelligence activities and operations.

The final study that the Executive Director presented to Director Helms was several inches thick, but the man who wrote it was still not sure that it was complete, less because he feared having overlooked some particular CIA component or proprietary organization which had its own university program than because he suspected that information had been withheld from him, particularly by the covert operators.

Because of its sensitivity, only one copy of the study was made, and it was turned over to the Director. Helms reviewed it and agreed with its conclusion: that all the CIA's campus activities were valuable to the agency and should be continued, except for a few individual contracts that had become outdated or too exposed. In the end, there was selective pruning of these programs, but essentially the CIA's activities with and at the universities continued as they had before the NSA scandal broke. They do so today.

The lone copy of the study was placed in the CIA Executive Director's safe for future reference. Within a few weeks after Helm's review, the report had to be pulled out; a controversy had erupted at a Midwestern university over alleged contracts between a certain professor and the CIA. When the study was consulted to find out if the allegations were correct, neither the professor nor the program he was associated with was listed anywhere in the bulky document. There was a collective sigh of relief in the agency's executive suite and some mumbling about irresponsible students making ridiculous charges. Shortly thereafter, however, the Director's staff found out that the espoused professor was genuine and had telephoned his CIA contact to discuss how he should react to the charges. He was told to get a teaching job elsewhere--and he did.

Soon after, another incident occurred.

10 LINES DELETED

Returning to Director Colby's explanation of the CIA's domestic activities:

We also, I believe quite properly, can collect foreign intelligence in the United States, including the requesting [sic] of American citizens to share with their Government certain information they may know about foreign situations, and we have a service that does this, and I am happy to say a very large number of American citizens have given us information. We do not pay for that information. We can protect their proprietary interest and even protect their names if necessary, if they would rather not be exposed as the source of that information. [H: That by any name represents turning in your brother, neighbor, etc. It was a typical ploy of the Nazi Secret Service and the KGB through Communist regimes. You have become that very thing which you claim to deplore!]

What Colby was referring to was the Domestic Contact Service (DCS). The DCS's primary function has traditionally been to collect intelligence from Americans without resorting to covert methods. Until early 1973 the DCS was part of the CIA's Intelligence Directorate, the overt analytical part of the agency. The DCS's normal operating technique is to establish relationships with businessmen, scholars, tourists, and other travelers who have made trips abroad, usually to Eastern Europe or China. These people are asked to provide information voluntarily about what they have seen or heard on their journeys. Most often they are contacted by the agency after they have returned home, but occasionally, if the CIA hears that a particular person plans to visit, say, a remote part of the Soviet Union, the DCS will get in touch in advance and ask the traveler to seek out information on certain targets. In the past the DCS has, however, shied away from assigning specific missions, since the travelers are not professional spies and may easily be arrested if they take their espionage roles too seriously.

COVERT ABSORBS DOMESTIC

On several occasions over the years, the Clandestine Services have expressed an interest in assuming control of the DCS--with the argument that in the interest of efficiency all CIA intelligence collection by human sources should be run out of the same directorate. During the late 1960's the Clandestine Services were specifically rebuffed after a crude takeover attempt, but as a compromise measure Director Helms allowed clandestine operators to be assigned to the DCS in order to better coordinate intelligence collection. The DCS itself remained under the Intelligence Directorate. But in early 1973 Director James Schlesinger approved the transfer of the DCS to the Clandestine Services. Although there was no public notice of this change and travelers were not informed they were now dealing with the CIA's clandestine operators, Senator William Proxmire somehow got the word and told the Senate on August 1, 1973, that he was "particularly disturbed" by the shift. "Mr. Colby says," Proxmire explained, "that this is to improve the coordination of its collection activities with those of the Agency abroad. I find this disturbing because of the possibility that the DCS, which has a good reputation, may now become 'tainted' by the covert side of the Agency." [H: This is all wrapped up and entangled with Proxmire later, at the time when shipments of gold were being secretly taken from your reserves. Remember also, that special arrangements were made which allowed Mrs. Johnson to even sell some of that gold in Mexico. The "web" goes beyond entanglements and into hard, permanent KNOTS which ever bind more tightly the whirling spiral of the cocoon enshrouding you-the-people.]

Again, Colby at the Senate hearing:

We also, I believe, have certain support activities that we must conduct in the United States in order to conduct foreign intelligence operations abroad; certain structures are necessary in this country to give our people abroad perhaps a reason for operating abroad in some respects so that they can appear not as CIA employees but as representatives of some other entity.

Here Colby was undoubtedly talking about the CIA's training facilities, weapons warehouses, secret arrangements with U.S. companies to employ "deep cover" CIA operators, covert dealings with arms dealers, and other back-up activities necessary to support paramilitary operations and other clandestine doings overseas. He may also have been referring to the CIA's use of American foundations, labor unions, and other groups as fronts to fund covert-action programs overseas, or to the proprietary corporations which operate for the CIA around the world. In this last category are the complex web of agency-owned airlines--Air America, Air Asia, Civil Air Transport, Southern Air Transport, Intermountain Aviation, (DELETED)--all of which have headquarters in the United States, and some of which maintain extensive facilities here. These airlines are run in direct competition with private companies, receive charter contracts from the U.S. government, and often operate domestically, in addition to taking on secret missions for the CIA abroad. [H: This bunch of thugs even infiltrates and utilizes the facilities of your environmental foundations such as Greenpeace, etc., to do their heinous and deviate work--all nicely sanctioned by your Administration. You must remember that Administration "advisors", etc., are CHOSEN by the President--not elected by you-the-people and they only serve the Elite Conspiracy--NOT YOU-THE-PEOPLE.]

4 LINES DELETED

All these companies--and others not yet revealed--do much more than provide cover for CIA employees, as Colby implied. They represent businesses worth hundreds of millions of dollars that can be used in all manner of operations by the CIA both at home and overseas.

Colby concluded:

Lastly, I think that there are a number of activities in the United States where foreign intelligence can be collected from foreigners, and as long as there is foreign intelligence, I think it is quite proper that we do this.

FOREIGN STUDENTS, VISITORS, IMMIGRANTS TARGETED

In this instance Colby was referring in part to the CIA's efforts to recruit foreign students on American campuses, and a similar program, operated with the cooperation of military intelligence, to suborn foreign military officers who come to the United States for training. But the CIA also targets other foreign visitors to the U.S.--businessmen, newsmen, scholars, diplomats, U.N. delegates and employees, even simple tourists. It is specifically for the recruitment and handling of foreign agents that the CIA maintains safe houses in Washington, New York, and other cities.

Another group of Americans who are very much targets of the CIA are recent immigrants. Almost from the moment Fidel Castro took power in 1959, CIA operators have worked closely with Cuban exiles, particularly in Florida. Most of the recruiting and some of the training for the agency's abortive invasion of the island in 1961 took place in the Miami area. Even after that fiasco the CIA has continued to use Cuban-American cans (few as celebrated as "retained" agent--and Watergate burglar--Eugenio Martinez) to carry out guerrilla operations against the Castro government. It has also been quite active among Eastern European emigrés in the United States. In November 1964, Erik Heine, an Estonian refugee living in Canada, sued for slander another Estonian named Juri Raus, a resident of Hyattsville, Maryland. Raus, who was American National Commander of the Legion of Estonian Liberation, was alleged to have denounced Heine as an agent of the KGB. Raus' defense in court was based not on the specifics of the case but on an affidavit submitted by then CIA Deputy Director Richard Helms stating that Raus was a CIA agent and had spoken out against Heine among Estonian-Americans under direct agency orders. Helms submitted two more affidavits to the court stating that the CIA had further ordered Raus not to testify in court, but explaining he had said what he had "to protect the integrity of the Agency's foreign intelligence sources". The federal judge, Roszel C. Thomsen, ruled in the CIA's favor and did not accept the plaintiff's contention that even if the agency had ordered that the alleged slander be committed, it had no power to do so under the National Security Act of 1947, which forbade the CIA to exercise any "internal security functions".

FUNCTIONS BROADEN IN U.S.

In his decision, Judge Thomsen wrote:

It is reasonable that emigré groups from behind the Iron Curtain would be a valuable source of information as to what goes on in their homeland. The fact that the intelligence source is located in the United States does not make it an "internal security function" over which the CIA has no authority. The court concludes that activities by the CIA to protect its foreign intelligence sources located in the United States are within the power granted by Congress to the CIA.

By extension, it might also be argued that any "foreign intelligence source" located in the United States, emigré or not, is fair game for the CIA. Clearly, American citizens traveling abroad are eligible; clearly, researchers in universities are eligible; and if the agency can come up with a reason--such as the threat of "foreign influence" in American politics--then everyone's eligible. And that eligibility extends not only to the honor of being consulted, cajoled, and financed, but to the privilege of being investigated, suborned, or whatever else the covert operators might wish to do.

CIA/KGB/MOSSAD ARE ONE--BRITISH CONTROLLED

I am told that we are concluding this Journal herein so I shall leave the subject in point as the conclusion. I will cover the "mentality" of these clandestine operatives as we continue with this unfoldment.

The work which has been done since this source information of 1974 and prior, is beyond your ability to comprehend. You are completely integrated (your CIA) into and within the KGB and Mossad of Israel.

Please look carefully at the scandals which pour in upon you, say, in the arms dealings around the world and specifically this day with Israel. All you have in such incidents as the Gulf War on Iraq is the U.S. military doing the dirty work of the British through the armed CIA and operatives backed up by your U.S. military machine. Remember that the major operations of the Clandestine Services ARE WITHIN THE MILITARY FORCES WITH THE NAVY BEING THE MOST DANGEROUS AND PERVASIVE.

You act incredulous and shocked that Israel would "sell arms" and "technology"! Why? You, through the intelligence community give them the wherewithal, the technology, the samples and the hardware--along with instructions and facility to ship to prearranged recipients. There is every reason to KNOW this is going on--to your deadly enemies for the point is to TAKE CONTROL OF THE WORLD!

Israel has been arming nations such as China and South Africa through shipments and sales of sensitive American weapons and technology for decades--why do you act shocked and quiver in your boots--NOTHING IS DIFFERENT.

There is overwhelming proof that this kind of "business" is flourishing. This is under full cooperation of your Administration and Intelligence community. The only ones not aware of even the details are you--the people and your greedy, worthless politicians who supposedly represent you--the people. I think you get the drift of their level of HONESTY by looking at the level of deceit and criminal activities in the House banking scandal of this day.

One of your major treasonists and criminals is Representative Stephen Solarz--I believe you will find him also among your top abusers of the banking overdraft show and tell. Moreover, you will find that he has at least one and a half MILLION dollars in his campaign larder which he will get PERSONALLY when he leaves office--ANY WAY HE LEAVES OFFICE, I might add. He serves directly as a tool of the Committee of 300 through powerful influence of the Israeli PAC via the Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission. We could run this on out further but we have given you listings and you can do that homework for yourself.

NO TIME TO STUDY

I receive your complaints of "no time to study" and "...too much stuff to catch up" and "I can't read all that stuff"--fine, don't. It is only your existence and that of your civilization and if you can't assume enough responsibility to catch up with what is what--then I cannot help you. I can give you the information as in the horse watering facility--I cannot force you to drink!

You ones can quarrel and protest and denounce me and disagree and on and on and on and it means NOTHING to me. I tell you how it is, what you can do and if you choose otherwise--so be it.

If you do not believe my presentation that is disadvantageous in itself--but if you don't wish to believe in my resources or aspect of being--then don't. If a dinner plate with food is set before you--do you fail to eat when hungry because of the source (the chef may or may not be from Istanbul or the French Chef's school)? I suggest you look AT TRUTH and then consider the possibilities of my position. It matters not one iota what you think about ME. It does, however, matter what I THINK ABOUT YOU! Hold it in your hearts.

By the way--the cute little toys the Israelis have sent include air-to-air missiles, anti-tank missiles and cluster bombs which have also made a large market in Ethiopia and Chile. There are also very sophisticated aircraft radars and jamming devices.

Don't fool yourself into the thought that Israel simply uses your technology and then builds their own for sale. The United States supports Israel--hook, line and totality. You give them in cash as much as your own budget.

It reminds me of them telling you they won't use the money guarantees to build in occupied territory. What difference--you send ALL their funding so what they call their investments is of little significance. So, they can use their traditional "food aid" for building and the new funds are diverted to "food aid".

KOREAN "STEALTH" SHIPS

By the way, the "stuff" from Korea which is under discussion from those "phantom" ships is most interesting. These are very long-range missile launchers which launch nuclear thrust warheads--which are mostly tipped with ANTHRAX. This biologic substance can kill a man in less than 30 minutes utilizing an amount less than a quarter of a pinhead in

Few know of the existence of this most secret society consisting of 300 people who control world affairs through a network of interlocking banks, financial institutions, insurance companies, newspapers, radio and television stations, Fortune 500 corporations who have at their service intelligence agencies of several nations. This book rips the lid off the top conspiratorial body in the world today who plan and direct all the events making the headlines.

quantity. This ALL originated from your own arsenals. Rest well tonight!! By the way, number two: THEY ALSO PLAN TO USE SOME OF THESE CUTE TOYS ON YOU-THE-PEOPLE TO BRING YOU INTO CONTROL. WHETHER OR NOT YOU EVEN HAVE AN ELECTION THIS YEAR IS TOTALLY UNDER QUESTION—IT DOES NOT LOOK PROBABLE AS THE CLOCK TICKS AWAY.

The important character to watch today, however, is that newly bought off friend, Assad of Syria--he is just really, really upset over your attempting to pirate his expected toys. It is never wise to trust one who could be bought for $4 million dollars into his pocket and who didn't even perform then--HE IS NOT YOUR FRIEND AND THIS "OLD BUDDY" SYSTEM IS NOT GOING TO WORK.

SPEAKING OF POLITICS

It is no secret that George Jr. is into the pot in full boil. You also must realize that Clinton is but a tool of the same factions.

It is all entangled with the bunch from BCCI, Clifford Clark (personal member of the Committee of 300) and other ones such as Hatch of Utah, etc.

The Public Broadcasting Service intends to present Frontline in early April--outlaying the structure of this tangled mess. Let's see if anything of value can actually be given unto you viewers. I do suggest ALL OF YOU partake. The only way to dismantle the web is to untangle the strands one at a time. I think it a worthy subject to cover in more detail but I have no more time for such in this writing. Perhaps I can cover it prior to pushing forward on the CIA at next session. It will be interesting for you to have more of the players in mind and where they fit--and then, perhaps you can find some confirmation regarding these JOURNALS and offerings.

May insight be your gift as you digest this information and process it properly within your minds. How many of you will pass this test which follows: Will you dance always, to the good and not evil, and when it is all over--will you not have the feeling that you might have done better?

Desiree Green Documents And Shares Her Insights Gained From Recent Canadian Journey

2/3/92 DESIREE

DESIREE GREEN DOCUMENTS AND SHARES HER INSIGHTS GAINED FROM RECENT CANADIAN JOURNEY Seminars January 23 and 24, 1992

Since I have been "bursting" inside myself with so many feelings about our recent seminar trip to Canada, Father has guided me to share these valuable "lessons" with all of you.

This sharing is especially for those of you here in our tiny circle who have consciously chosen to serve God and have been so very loving and gracious in assisting the semination of this great work, the Word going forth.

My part in dealing with our Canadian "experience" began before we left California on Tuesday January 21, 1992. This was when a newspaper article about our upcoming trip to Vancouver and Victoria from the Canadian "Times Colonist" was given to me. The headlines read, "UFO parley carries anti-Semitic twist". Truthfully, my heart sank to the pit of my stomach. The article was done by Richard Watts from a phone interview he did with Sandy at our office. The first two paragraphs put it in a nutshell. It read:

"Victoria police and the city's Jewish community are investigating a couple who believe they communicate telepathically with space aliens trying to warn them of a Zionist-Jewish conspiracy to take over the world."

"George and Desiree' Green of Tehachapi, Calif. will be at the Harbour Towers (Victoria, B.C.) this Saturday for a conference on UFOs.

"Conference topics include the new world order, global conspiracy and how Zionist Jews are trying to take over the world.

"Word of the couple's visit has some members of Victoria's Jewish community worried about the racist nature of parts of the Green's message.

"Michael Peters, a member of the joint community relations committee of the Jewish Community Centre, said his group will discuss the visit to see if any action should be taken.

"I take this sort of thing very seriously," said Peters.

"Victoria Det. Insp. Fred Mills said police have received a complaint and are examining the information.

"Neither of the Greens were available for comment on Monday. (When the interview took place.)

"But Sandy Green (no relation), office manager for the company that publishes the Greens' materials, said from California that the couple is in constant communication with space beings called the Pleiadians, who live 500 light-years away from Earth.

"Green said everybody at America West Publishers talks to the aliens using either telepathy or the universal language of the solar system, which comes across as a pulsating sound.

"This is their mission, to watch over the planet Earth," she said.

One of the problems facing the human race is how Satan uses Zionist Jews to create a new world order where they can rule the planet with an iron fist, said Green.

"It's not the Jews that are the problem. It's the Zionists that are the problem," said Green.

"She said the aliens are now warning humanity that the world is on the verge of a "big change."

"The change will bring forward a great cleansing period, with lots of death, but human beings can change things if they take some action.

"Louis Hoolaeff, the Victoria resident who has been helping to bring the Greens to town, said he didn't know anything about any anti-Jewish sentiments expressed by the space communicators.

"I guess you would have to find out what [the Greens] are really talking about at the conference," said Hoolaeff." UNQUOTE.

Well, I was quite shocked by the tone of the author and the fact that the police and the Jewish Community were investigating US!! I instantly became acutely aware of the danger we were in.

After George gave the information to Hatonn, he (George) called the columnist, Richard Watts, and explained our position more thoroughly and that we are not anti-Semitic, or racist. In fact we are Semites. We (the Hosts) are exposing Evil in all of its hiding places and that includes political Zionism. So the ONLY thing we are against is God of Light's Adversary. We are anti-EVIL!!

I waited for Hatonn and my own guidance to tell me we did not have to go. Instead I was guided by both to go with "THE SWORD OF GOD TRUTH" and we will be safe.

We arrived on Wednesday, January 22 and the problems in Victoria had begun. W.M., our sponsor told us that the Hotel manager at "The Harbour Towers Hotel", Mike Lewis, had cancelled our seminar because of extreme pressure from the "Jewish" community.

We found out how all the problem started. One of W.M.'s helpers in Victoria had made our authorized flyer for the seminar and decided to put the New Release copy of the JOURNAL, "Destruction of a Planet; Zionism is Racism" on the back of the Seminar flyer. Essentially the description describes how "...the great deceiver (Satan) has pulled off the greatest deception ever on this planet by using the "Jews" as his main characters with Zionism as their cover. Many of his henchmen even changed their names so they could hide their "Jew" heritage so they could better play their games of deception.... It is important to know the difference between the Sephardic "Jew" and the Zionist "Jew" for the Zionists are continuing to eliminate the Sephardic Jew after stealing their heritage." and so on along that line. L.H. passed these posters out ALL over Victoria including businesses and the University.

Michael Peters, I believe, was the first to file a complaint and then a whole bunch of "Jews" under direction of a Rabbi Martin Cohen (phone 271-6262) and Marilyn Bergen of the "Canadian Jewish Congress" (phone 261-8101) began harassing and intimidating the Hoteliers first in Victoria and then on Thursday, Farida Sayani, co-owner of "The Executive Inn" in Richmond, a suburb of Vancouver, cancelled us after receiving the flyer by FAX from Marilyn Bergen. Keep in mind our Seminar at that Hotel was to be held the following night, Friday, January 23.

When George threatened her with a lawsuit, she said she did not care, she knew her rights as a business to cancel if she felt her business would be harmed. She (Mrs. Sayani) thought there could be a riot! She didn't know or care about laws denying Canadians the right to question the Holocaust. When I asked her if she had been threatened by any ones in the Jewish Community, she said no, but she was afraid of stirring up their wrath. Her concern, in my opinion, was losing her business, her money.

We subsequently found out that they (Jewish Community) threatened The Manager (Mike Lewis) of the "Harbour Towers Hotel" in Victoria with cancelling Banquets, reservations and called them anti-Semites and on and on.

We found another Hotel called "Delta Pacific" in Richmond, Vancouver on Thursday afternoon to take our seminar. We briefly explained the problem with "The Executive Inn" cancellation, showed Mr. Jack Pascoa, Catering Manager, our authorized flyer and he took it and the information to David Crawford, Director of Sales, who approved and booked us for Friday, Jan. 23. We checked in and all seemed well for a short time there.

Meanwhile, Mike Lewis cancelled our booking at The Harbour Towers, and Gene, from The Constitutional Law Center in Sacramento, called him and after the call, Mr. Lewis agreed to allow our seminar BUT, he asked us to please try to find another place because the pressure was terrible. On Friday morning He faxed us a list of 8-9 other hotels and recreation centers. W.M. called them all and do you know that all, save one REFUSED to have our seminar? One agreed on Friday about 1 pm. "The Victoria Municipal Hall Parks and Recreation Center". Then, we received a fax at 4:20 pm by Doug Henderson, Deputy Director, with the following message, "Please be advised that as we are now aware of sensitive nature of your requested booking, the Recreation Centre is no longer available on Jan. 25, 1992."

W.M. continued to call other hotels and it became quite obvious that the "Jewish Community" had been very busy trying to shut us down. He found no one who would take us. Reluctantly, "The Harbour Towers" agreed to take us.

Meanwhile back in Richmond, Vancouver, Mr. Pascoa called our room at 2:30 pm on Friday, FOUR hours before our seminar, and asked for George or Desiree' or both to please come to his office he needed to talk. George was taking a bath, so I went. Both Jack Pascoa and David Crawford were waiting for me. My heart sank because I knew what was coming. I will paraphrase. David Crawford says, "We want you to be aware that we have been harassed all day long by members of the 'Jewish' community about the nature of your seminar. Not only that, the local newspaper published your move from

"Executive Inn" to our hotel in the early Morning Paper! We don't know how they got that information so quickly! Anyway they have already done the damage to us with all their false accusations in that article that WE (Delta Pacific) are anti-Semitic by allowing your seminar, so I want you to know that we are NOT cancelling your booking. They are ridiculous in their accusations because THIS hotel is half Jewish owned!"

I briefly explained our side of the story and promised that we would stick to the subjects on the flyer we gave him. We would not speak about Jews or Zionism or the Holocaust since that was illegal. He seemed really shocked about that information (Holocaust propaganda being illegal to challenge). And he was genuinely concerned about us. He suggested that perhaps we should hire bodyguards, and I said that we are under God's protection and we would not stir anything up. He joked with me and said that he would not return that woman's call (Marilyn Bergen) until Monday when the dust had settled. He said they (Jewish community) threatened to cancel business bookings and to riot the hotel and he thought the whole thing was ridiculous and he would not allow them to intimidate him. He also said the "Jews" were calling and lecturing all of his staff and trying to intimidate and confuse them. He warned us to be very careful since he was sure they would send spies and people to try and cause a problem. He also said he expected a lot of media to be there.

He was very understanding and helpful and I am grateful that God opened the door for us to do our seminars. All we needed was courage and determination.

We did our seminar at Delta Pacific and over 200 people came to listen. Although we were all pretty nervous, other than a few obvious spies, we were not harassed or bothered, nor did any public media show up.

The next morning, we checked out of Delta Pacific Hotel and took the ferry to Victoria. Since we were unable to locate another speaking cite, Mike Lewis agreed to have us. We checked into the Harbour Towers. W.M. had a friend of his who was a local radio announcer start publicizing that our seminar was indeed on at The Harbour Towers. He did this all Saturday afternoon. Then Michael Peters of the Jewish Community began harassing Mike Lewis, the manager of our hotel. Our seminar began at 6:30 pm and Peters harassed and intimidated poor Mr. Lewis up until 6:00. Mr. Lewis told Peters to come to the seminar and monitor it himself.

He did come with two of his friends and they bitched and moaned about having to pay $20.00 to come in. One of them said to me, "I have come to hear about the Zionist conspiracy. I am a 'free speech' journalist." I said, "Well I am sorry, but we will not be discussing the Zionists tonight, that is our agreement with the hotel. You will hear generally about the Conspiracy of the Elite. If you wish to know more about the Zionists, come to our seminar on Tuesday in Washington where we will speak freely about it because in the U.S. we still have FREE SPEECH, you do NOT in Canada." Finally all three did pay to come in and they sat on the very back row in front of W.M. and I and the book table.

Meanwhile about 10-15 others, apparently from the "Jewish" community congregated outside the seminar room and complained and looked quite unhappy. The media did show, TWO different TV stations Greg Morin of CFX News (604-381-6397) and Mijung Lee of Check 6 News (604-389-6400). Morin of CFX interviewed George before his presentation and then set up cameras inside. Mijung Lee of Check 6 News came about 6:30. So before and DURING the seminar she and the CFX TV guy were interviewing the Jews and the attendees of the seminar outside the room. They had their cameras at the registration table and the Jews would come up and indignantly try to intimidate poor T who was registering the people. I was going back and forth between the book table and the registration table to assist morally and physically both W. and T. because they were quite upset by all the accusations and intimidation.

One Jewish guy came up to the registration table where I was standing with T. and he brought the CFX TV cameraman with him and asked very arrogantly, "I want to buy the book about 'Zionism is Racism'. Do you have a copy of that for me to buy?" I said, "I am sorry, we did not bring that book tonight. You may order it by mail from our office if you wish." He looked at the cameraman and said, very spitefully, "You see! Are you recording THIS?" and the camera guy recorded T. taking money and registering people and then they all walked about 10 feet away to the rest of their group, which did consist of both men and women.

At 6:30 George began his presentation, a little worn and harried. We had around 80 people inside that seminar room. His presentation lasted roughly two-hours. While he was presenting, the three Jewish "spies" in the back had a tape recorder and mobile telephone which they used. We allow anyone to tape, so that was no problem. They snickered throughout George's presentation and W. and I made the mistake of leaving the book table uncovered, so they stood by and rummaged through every book picking out of context what I presume were subjects about Jews, Zionism, Israel etc. In the beginning I went up to them and asked them to please sit down during the presentation that we would have the book table open during the break and after the presentation was done. One guy, who called himself "Fred" looked at me very spitefully and said, "What are YOU going to do about it?" As if he wanted to start a fight with me or something. I said, "Nothing, I am asking you to please sit down." At that moment his friend, I believe it was Michael Peters, said, "Come on let's sit down. Don't cause any trouble." And they all sat. Within fifteen minutes after the slide presentation when the lights were turned back on, they were at it again. It was disruptive to those in the back and of course the media people, Mijung Lee, in particular was doing the same thing. Looking through the books for what they considered to be "racist" or anti-Semitic information.

At one point Mijung Lee asked me, since I was sitting by the table, where the information came from and were George and I publishers or did we write it, etc. She then asked me if I would go outside the conference room so she could interview me. I agreed.

When I went out, there were still the Jewish crowd waiting, looking troubled and they moved within hearing distance towards me and Ms. Lee. The camera was not on yet. She said and I will paraphrase since I don't remember it exactly. "I want to hear YOUR side of the story." What do you know about your anti-Semitic books?" I thought, MY side? She has already judged me guilty! But I said, "You are mistaken. We are not racist, nor are we anti-Semitic. I will not speak further about it. If you read the books you will find out exactly the Truth which Hatonn brings." She said, "What does George say about the Jews and the Zionist conspiracy?" I said, "Why don't you ask him?" She said, "I do not have time to wait until he's finished." I said, "That is too bad. If you did listen and read the books you would understand exactly our feelings. In fact I speak entirely on Spirituality and God. If you would listen to my presentation, you would learn that our spiritual understanding revolves around the ONE Creator. And that each of us, no matter which race, religion or sex are equal fragments of THE ONE. Therefore bigotry is not of GOD and we do not support it (bigotry). And I rambled on for a few minutes more about God and Creation, Hatonn and the Hosts and she just stared at me. She seemed to listen and then she said, "You don't want to tell me what George says about the Jews and Zionism?" I said, "I do not speak for my husband. And I do not wish to offend anyone. The Jews have nothing to fear from us. We are bringing the Truth as it is offered by Space Command." You have to remember they were all staring at me waiting to jump on me if I said anything they deemed offensive! I was quite nervous.

Then she said she was ready to go on camera now. I said oh again! I thought I was already interviewed. So we moved to the corner where I was then surrounded by these frightened, angry people. The lights went on and her first questions was, "What do you have to say about the anti-Semitic material distributed by Frontier Enterprises?" (That is W.M.'s company.) I was caught off guard because I thought she had understood my position. "I stutterd for a fraction of a moment (although it felt like eternity) and recovered and said "I don't believe that is true. It is your accusation and it is not true. It is not anti-Semitic." She softened a bit and asked me what my presentation was about and I told her, actually repeated much of what I had told her off camera. I think I was in shock because I cannot remember exactly all that I said, only that as I spoke I became more and more God-centered and thus much calmer.

What I found interesting is that she did come back in the room. She did not listen to George, but she did root around the books and write down sentences and showed them to the three Jewish guys in the back. It was really like she was working for the Jewish Community, not the Truth for all Canadians as an unbiased journalist. But that is my opinion and I have not seen the results of either her nor CFA's interviews. She left right before George ended his presentation which was really ironic since she wanted ME to tell her what HE thought!

By the time it was my turn to speak, I was totally calm and centered and I felt more comfortable up there than ever before. Strange! I feel I did one of my better presentations in the face of adversity and I was deeply surprized and moved by my sense of inner power, security and strength. I know Sananda and others were with me and George and I felt wonderful and grateful to be able to do our job in spite of my fear and the harassment we endured. I give my deepest gratitude and love to Sananda and all the others who assisted us from the Cosmic realms!

Most of the Jews left during my presentation, except one guy, the one who said he was a journalist for "Free Speech" (Ha!). He stayed until question and answer period and then left. The cameraman for CFA missed a goodly portion of my presentation, but came for the last 20 minutes or so. He sat in the front row with his arms crossed in front of his chest and a smirky stern look on his face.

All and all the group was interested and nice. We went to bed about 1:00 am and I did not sleep well at all. I was hyper and agitated thinking about everything that has happened and how I responded, and I could have done better. I was relieved it was over. SOOO relieved. We drove up North for a day to Nanimo and visited friends. Then we took the ferry back to Vancouver on Monday morning and were followed.

We decided to drive straight to Fife, Washington where our next seminar was on Tuesday, Jan. 29. This in spite of the fact that we were to be interviewed live on CKNW radio in Vancouver Monday night. We decided it would be wiser to do so by remote from Washington.

When we stopped for lunch after making it across the Canadian/U.S. border (WHEW!!!), George called Ian at CKNW to tell him of our changed plans and request a remote interview. He asked why. I said I refuse! So George told him that "Desirée refuses to come back because of all the trouble we had there." When he said, "What trouble?" We were really suspicious since we were on most of the radio and TV as anti-Semitic Americans etc. When George said we were attacked by the Jewish community, he said, "Well you are just running away!" You are damn right, brother! I refuse to go to jail in a foreign country. I draw the line there. We called Sandy and she called him and he reluctantly agreed to have us remote. We went to a lot of trouble at the hotel in Fife to get two phones on one line and Ian never bothered to call and cancel.

I felt at the time and I still feel it

Special Report On Iraq And Libya

3/18/92

DR. JOHN COLEMANHOT WAR FOR ELECTION

President Bush is clearly planning to unleash United States military action against Iraq, this time on the pretext of forcing Iraq to comply with U.N.-ordered disclosure of the whereabouts of its alleged machinery for the manufacture of ballistic missiles. As in the case of Libya, which is also under threat of a U.S. terrorist attack, NO PROOF has been offered that such machinery exists for the sole purpose of manufacturing weapons.

What was voluntarily shown to the

was a set-up. So I am glad we didn't go and listened to our guidance on it.

Well that is about it. We did our seminar in Fife. It was a success with over 100 people attending and we came home rather exhausted and traumatized. We will not be going back to Canada or any other Foreign country for that matter. Thank you for reading this and allowing me the opportunity to share our experience.

There were a total of Four News articles done in Canada about the seminars which we have copies of and which I believe Oberli was given. If not we have other copies.

so-called U.N. inspection team led by ex-CIA agent turned nuclear armaments "expert" David Kay, was dual-use machinery that could be used for several purposes. This has not satisfied the New World Order Court of the U.N. Security Council, which has become, in effect, the judge, jury and prosecutor for the United States; a very dangerous development which free people and nations who still believe in national sovereignty as non-negotiable, ignore at their peril.

As this is an election year in the United States, while there will be a rush to judgment by the Security Council rubber stamp for the U.S., the Security Council will not make haste to carry out its sentence. This will be left to the discretion of President George Bush, who will leave it to his advertising executives to tell him when to launch another war of genocide against an already crippled nation of Iraq.

Obviously the President will make sure that his image as a tough guy will be burnished at a time when it will count the most in the polls. Such illegal warfare--and it is illegal because the President did NOT receive a mandate from Congress in accordance with the strict terms laid down by the Constitution for a legal declaration of war--will happen when his Madison Avenue public opinion makers tell him "now is the right time."

Thus will millions of dollars once again be poured down the rat hole of the Middle East and possibly American lives will again be put on the line, not to mention the new misery such an attack will bring on a people already suffering from hunger, disease and poverty. The Madison Avenue public relations sub-culture, or perhaps CULT would be a better word, will determine the future of Iraq and Libya which will cost millions upon millions of dollars; all this while the U.S. economy is in ruins and 40 million Americans are without jobs and 4 million are homeless.

SIMULTANEOUS ATTACK ON LIBYA?

The new offensive against Iraq is thus no more than a political ploy, and it would not surprise me if, for good measure, a new U.S-terrorist attack is simultaneously launched against Libya. It is a political opportunity for strong-man Bush to flex his muscles and too good to be missed. Afterwards Bush can tell the voters that when it comes to smashing "terrorist nations" he has been weighed in the balances and found to be the man for the job.

Thus will be revived the "popularity" (misguided Madison Avenue Nayirah inspired patriotism) of "Desert Storm", which was shipwrecked beneath the towering waves of the worst depression this country has ever experienced. Also, Bush has to do something drastic to erase the memory of his hideous economic and diplomatic defeat at the hands of the Japanese. President Bush hopes this new attack on Iraq--and most likely Libya also--will translate into votes to put him in charge for another 4 years.

The diplomatic mission by Iraq to the United Nations Security Council scheduled for mid-March will be an exercise in futility. The Security Council, made up of the very nations intent on destroying Iraq, are the ones who will make the judgment. It is exactly as if the prosecutor in a case suddenly dons the robes of the judge who then vacates the scene leaving the prosecutor to declare a "guilty" verdict. Is this international justice? Is this what the American people want? What ever happened to our sense of fairness, and who is to say that this very machinery will not one day be turned against the United States itself?

United States Fears A Resurgent Islam

1/92 DR. JOHN COLEMAN

The glow of an imagined victory in the Gulf War has faded. In the wake of the war of genocide against Iraq comes a new threat to the New World Order, the rapid rise of Islamic Fundamentalism. It will yet prove to be the nemesis of the United States and those in the West who have failed to recognize and respect Dar Al Islam (the House of Islam). It stretches from North Africa through the Middle East to Central Asia and the Far East, comprising 184 countries.

One of the most powerful Islamic nations emerging from the confusion of the Iraq-Iran War and the Gulf War is the nation of Iran. While Israel refuses to discuss Palestinian issues; while it goes on building more and more settlements on the West Bank, and while President Bush plays his little games of holding back on the $40 billion loans guarantees for Israel, Iran is getting on with the serious business of strengthening its position. This will bring it into direct conflict with the United States.

The nation with the most common sense that does not live under the shadow of an Israeli lobby is Germany. United and strong, Germany is once again taking its rightful place among nations as the powerhouse of Europe. Germany's leadership role toward Iran makes United States foreign policy look positively stupid. On January 22nd, Germany announced that it was granting credits worth $880 million to Iran. The deal is being handled by the Berliner Handels-und Frankfurter Bank (BHF). The cash is earmarked for importation of German goods.

What has the United States been doing to better its relations with Iran? Precious little. Like Germany, the Ukraine has agreed to exchange ambassadors with Iran. Part of the agreement is that Ukraine will import Iranian oil and natural gas. The deal was arranged by Iranian Foreign Minister Ali Akbar Velayati and Ukrainian Foreign Minister Anatoly Maximovitch Zienkov. The Ukraine is fortunate that it does not have an Israeli lobby to contend with.

Iran, in a smart move, recognized Ukraine a day after the Soviet Union formally ceased to exist on December 25th, 1991. Since then, Iran has ignored the United States completely and acted swiftly and decisively to recognize all of the Islamic states in Russia and establish air, rail and sea links and open joint chambers of commerce to boost trade and industrial cooperation. A military defense pact is high on the agenda of both countries.

Iranian President Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani has been invited to visit the important state of Turkmenistan, which has the second longest common border with Iran. Iran has already opened embassies in Azerbaijan and Tajikistan. In progress, and a high priority of Iran, Turkmenistan, Azerbaijan and Tajikistan, is a mutual defense pact.

If the United States and Britain succeed in their ongoing efforts to divide and conquer the Russian military, then that could benefit Iran. The Ukraine and the Islamic states in Russia would be left with considerable military and nuclear forces. When a confrontation between Israel and Islam does erupt, it could be the beginning of the Battle of Armageddon. One way or another, the United States will be FORCED to choose sides.

Iran is also seeking to strengthen ties with Syria. On January 21st, Syrian Vice President Abdel Hallem Khadam met with President Rafsanjani. High on the agenda were details of the talks Iran has been holding with the Ukraine and the Islamic states in Russia. Khadam stressed the importance of cooperation between Moslem countries. It is known by intelligence sources that Syria and Iran are presently working on a mutual defense pact. President Rafsanjani described his meeting with the Islamic leaders in Russia and his discussion with the Ukrainian Government and Syria as "a turning point in regional cooperation".

In an attempt to blunt the progress of Iran in its march toward becoming the superpower of the Islamic world, the United States has been very busy fomenting trouble in Algeria. Why Algeria? The United States fears that Algeria may be in the process of acquiring technical knowledge that would enable it to make nuclear weapons. Actually, as in the case of Iraq, this is not true.

Following the December 26th election in Algeria, the Islamic Salvation

Front (FIS) emerged as a leading political force. The FIS scored major victories in all elections, both local and parliamentary, over the past two years. Strong Iranian support enabled the FIS to capture 188 of the 430 parliament seats, only 28 short of an absolute majority. The elections were certified by EEC observers (the United States did not participate) as "fair and equitable, without fraud or duress." This has greatly alarmed the Bush Administration, the leading proponent of the New World Order. The New World Order is opposed by most Islamic states.

Knowing that the FIS would sweep the board in the January 16th parliamentary election, the United States began adopting measures that would stop the FIS from capturing a majority in the Algerian parliament. When it became clear that the FIS would gain the necessary two-thirds majority needed to change the Algerian constitution, President Chadi Benjedid was forced to resign on January 11th and the election was canceled.

Did President Bush cry "foul"? Did he rush in and demand that "democracy be restored" in the manner of his bellicose threats against Iraq? Did James Baker III mount an alliance in the United Nations to seek approval for a U.S. attack on those standing in the way of democracy in Algeria? Nothing of the kind. The arrest of 500 activists and ranking officials of the FIS, including its leader of the moderate faction, Abdelkadir Hachani, did not cause even a faint murmur of protest from Washington. In fact, only after intense pressure by a group of Senators did the State Department, haltingly and grudgingly, declare its "regret" that the elections were canceled. It seems the Bush Administration wears two or three different faces when it comes to endorsing democracy. One official in Washington said that "democracy was assassinated and we are so afraid of Islam that we actively encouraged it."

The United States and the New World Order cannot afford to let Algeria become a secular Islamic state. In order to drive a wedge between Iran and Algeria, United States intelligence agents persuaded the military junta in Algiers to move against Iran on the diplomatic front. This began with the Algerian military junta canceling visas for Iranians and for those holding diplomatic passports. The Algerian rulers then asked the Iranian ambassador to return home and recalled its ambassador to Teheran.

After a 24-hour silence, the Algerian regime announced it had taken the action because of a campaign of criticism in the Iranian media against Algeria's military rulers. The Teheran Times, which always reflects the views of President Rafsanjani, stated that the army officers who seized power "had much to fear from the Islamic Salvation Front, and as a result of their actions in stopping the election, Algeria has been pushed to the brink of civil war." Not reported in the Teheran Times were the comments of a senior Mullah in the Iranian Parliament who said he "fixed the blame for events in Algeria squarely upon Washington foreign policy makers."

Clearly, the United States has intervened in Algeria in a dangerous manner that has not gone unnoticed in the Islamic world. Particularly in Pakistan, which has nuclear weapons and is watching with a jaundiced eye the efforts by the Bush Administration to reverse its two decades of hard-line policy against India.

It is quite obvious that the United States will attempt to use India, which is largely Hindu, as a brake on Islamic Pakistan. "We might even see a conflict in which India attacks Pakistan in the manner of the U.S.-Israeli engendered attack by Iraq on Iran," said a senior intelligence contact. On November 26th, 1991, Carla Hills, Club of Rome-CFR Trade Representative in the Bush Administration, urged that long-standing trade sanctions against India be dropped and called for closer relations with the Hindu state. Of great significance was the agreement that an Indian/U.S. Army steering council be set up. There will be Indian Army participation in the Pacific Command U.S. Military program, and reciprocal visits by high-ranking military staff officers.

The United States, while it leads in concerns about the rise of Islamic Fundamentalism, is not alone. Many EEC countries are alarmed about the Islamic challenge being mounted against U.S. foreign policy in the Middle East. There can be no doubt that the specter of Islamic Fundamentalism dividing the world, as Communism did before it, is frightening a number of countries allied with the New World Order.

The religion of Islam is unique in that it provides strict rules that govern society at every level based on rigid spiritual beliefs taught by the Prophet Mohammed. He founded the religion in the 7th century. Western societies would do well to emulate secular Islamic states. Had we followed the teachings of Christ in our everyday government affairs and our private lives, the United States would not be in such an unholy mess.

We have allowed our birthright to be stolen from us by those who propounded the false doctrine of "separation of church and state". That has led to our decline and imminent fall. As long as the United States continues to blindly back Israel, and as long as this country refuses to recognize the legitimate interests of Islamic nations, we continue on a journey that will inevitably lead to war between the Western World and Dar al Islam.
