Our Sordid Government's Coverup of POWs And MIAs

(Editor's note: In the January 19, 1993 issue of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR we printed the Senate Deposition testimony statement by Col. James "Bo" Gritz for Senator John Kerry's recent U.S. Senate Select Committee on POW-MIA Affairs. Col. Gritz' powerful and insightful report was "just a bit" at odds with the official conclusions and ended up being conveniently "missing" from the good Senator's official final bound Report.

The following writing, in a manner of speaking, picks up where Gritz's implications leave off. Seems there were a few other "adjustments" to the "official truth" that you readers ought to know about. Let's not let this tragic deception die!)

A NOTE ABOUT RUSSBACHER: GLIMPSES INTO A SICK AND SORDID GOVERNMENT

In follow-up to "Russbacher", please see to it that he is given audience in the LIBERATOR if he would wish to express himself. [See p. 26 for story.] We are not herein offering to run his "story" but rather, his pertinent experiences of personal realization. For instance, on the next sitting I fully intend to give you readers information regarding the Iran affair and Bush's presence, very integrally involved—from before Reagan's election through Iran-Contra. Iran is the FEAR in the Middle East right now militarily and you had best become aware of it. Iraq is simply a decoy and a distraction. You will find public information coming out right now by very dependable and involved persons who were actually against agreements regarding Iran-Contra, etc. Try Sec. of State Schultz for starters!! Bush was in the loop alright and was equally involved with CIA involvement and Government conspiracy for drug dealings all over the globe—but specifically significant in the Golden Triangle of Southeast Asia and totally involved in the POW-MIA cover-up. The real nasty culprit, of course, is and was, Henry Kissinger.

Let us speak of these things before closing for this morning—evidence is provided in "fact"—and no longer simply speculation. It seems "old hat" now that you have new puppets on the throne—but the same puppet-masters pull the strings so NOTHING IS OUT-DATED!

We shall share with you what is now published. It requires going back in time and actions but you can't ever see the "whole" from only the tiny denials and "case-closed" reports. This is in honor to James Gritz whose testimony is buried but shall never be put to death. We shall continue to nag, rag and print everything we find regarding these men who gave their lives in every horrible fashion imagined—right to desertion by the treasonists in your Government.

By Rep. Louis T. McFadden

The subject of that entire JOURNAL is the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Reserve Banks. And, as Commander Hatonn says in the Foreword, "This is the one most important deception and subterfuge ever foisted upon the world. It actually is only the conduit through which the Conspirators have perfected their PLAN."*

Dharma, allow us a rest please. This man is great enough to devote at least two chapters to this great energy. He made a speech to the House of Representatives on June 10, 1932, and it is worthy of complete reproduction herein and so shall it be.

I shall await your return to the keyboard. The pressures are great on you ones, Dharma, but you shall be sustained and Light of Truth shall be your legacy to a darkened land and people. YOU DO NOT WALK ALONE AND THOSE WHO HAVE COME BEFORE AND BROUGHT FORTH TRUTH SHALL BE HONORED FOR THE DAY OF THE LORD IS AT HAND. GLORY AND TRUTH IN THE FREEDOM OF THAT WHICH IS SHALL AGAIN SHINE ACROSS

THE LANDS. "TAKE MY HAND AND I SHALL SHOW YOU THE WAY", IS THE PROMISE. YE SHALL DO OF THE FULFILLING! SO BE IT IN THE POWER OF THAT WHICH I AM.

TOLD LIKE IT IS

Rep. Louis T. McFadden rose from office boy to become cashier and president of the First National Bank, Canton, Pa., before being elected to the U.S Congress. There he served with distinction for 20 years, including 12 years as Chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency, making him one of the foremost financial authorities in America. Relentlessly he fought for fiscal integrity and a return to constitutional government.

On June 10, 1932, in the midst of the great Depression, he addressed the House of Representatives. His historic speech was included in his testimony later before the Rules Committee, in connection with his Herculean efforts to obtain a sweeping investigation of the entire Federal Reserve System, and has been widely reprinted since then—unfortunately, it seems to have made little impact on the populace who have since stopped reading—well over 65 percent of the American public DO NOT EVEN READ ONE BOOK A YEAR. HOW MANY HAVE YOU READ THIS YEAR? AND, HOW ABOUT THAT ONE YOU HAVE BEEN TRYING TO GET TO READ THESE JOURNALS? Well, relax, for it was planned that way by your adversaries against the day this information would flow forth for the remaining media is TOTALLY CONTROLLED, as are almost ALL publishing outlets. To get to the top of the "best seller" listing—you the people will have to demand it be put there, because the word has gone forth from the powers that be to ban publication and distribution of the Phoenix Journals. IT SHALL NOT HAPPEN—THE INSTRUCTIONS AND TRUTH OF GOD SHALL GO FORTH THROUGHOUT THE LANDS AND THE LANDS SHALL BE RE-CLAIMED UNTO HIS KINGDOM. SO SHALL IT COME TO PASS—AND IT SHALL BE WITHIN THIS GENERATION THAT IT SHALL BE MADE, OR BROKEN, THE COVENANT WITH GOD.

For you researchers and confirmists, it will be found on pages 12595-12603 of the Congressional Record:

QUOTE:

Mr. McFADDEN: Mr. Chairman, at the present session of Congress we have been dealing with emergency situations. We have been dealing with the effect of things rather than with the cause of things. In this particular discussion I shall deal with some of the causes that lead up to these proposals. There are underlying principles which are responsible for conditions such as we have at the present time and I shall deal with one of these in particular which is tremendously important in the consideration that you are now giving to this bill.

Mr. Chairman, we have in this country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. The Federal Reserve Board, a government board, has cheated the Government of the United States and the people of the United States out of enough money to pay the national debt. The depredations and the iniquities of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks acting together have cost this country enough money to pay the national debt several times over. This evil institution has impoverished and ruined the people of the United States; has bankrupted itself, and has practically bankrupted our government. It has done this through the defects of the law under which it operates, through the maladministration of that law by the Federal Reserve Board, and through the corrupt practices of the moneyed vultures who control it.

Some people think the Federal Reserve Banks are United States Government institutions. They are not government institutions. They are private credit monopolies which prey upon the people of the United States for the benefit of themselves and their foreign swindlers, and rich and predatory money lenders. In that dark crew of financial pirates there are those who would cut a man's throat to get a dollar out of his pocket; there are those who send money into states to buy votes to control our legislation; and there are those who maintain an international propaganda for the purpose of deceiving us and of wheedling us into the granting of new concessions which will permit them to cover up their past misdeeds and set again in motion their gigantic train of crime.

Those 12 private credit monopolies were deceitfully and disloyally foisted upon this country by bankers who came here from Europe and who repaid us for our hospitality by undermining our American institutions. Those bankers took money out of this country to finance Japan in a war against Russia. They created a reign of terror in Russia with our money in order to help that war along. They instigated the separate peace between Germany and Russia and thus drove a wedge between the allies in the World War. They financed Trotsky's mass meetings of discontent and rebellion in New York. They paid Trotsky's passage from New York to Russia so that he might assist in the destruction of the Russian Empire. They fomented and instigated the Russian Revolution and they placed a large fund of American dollars at Trotsky's disposal in one of their branch banks in Sweden so that through him Russian homes might be thoroughly broken up and Russian children flung far and wide from their natural protectors. They have since begun the breaking up of American homes and the dispersal of American children.

It has been said that President Wilson was deceived by the attentions of these bankers and by the philanthropic poses they assumed. It has been said that when he discovered the manner in which he had been misled by Colonel House, he turned against that busybody, that "holy monk" of the financial empire, and showed him the door. He had the grace to do that, and in my opinion he deserves great credit for it.

President Wilson died a victim of deception. When he came to the Presidency, he had certain qualities of mind and heart which entitled him to a high place in the councils of this Nation; but there was one thing that he was not and which he never aspired to be; he was not a banker. He said that he knew very little about banking. It was, therefore, on the advice of the others that the iniquitous Federal Reserve Act, the death warrant of American liberty, became law in his administration.

Mr. Chairman, there should be no partisanship in matters concerning the banking and currency affairs of this country, and I do not speak with any.

In 1912 the National Monetary Association, under the chairmanship of the late Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, made a report and presented a vicious bill called the National Reserve Association Bill. This bill is usually spoken of as the Aldrich Bill. Senator Aldrich did not write the Aldrich Bill. He was the tool, but not the accomplice, of the European-born bankers who for nearly 20 years had been scheming to set up a central bank in this country and who in 1912 had spent and were continuing to spend vast sums of money to accomplish their purpose.

The Aldrich Bill was condemned in the platform upon which Theodore Roosevelt was nominated in the year 1912, and in that same year, when Woodrow Wilson was nominated, the Democratic platform, as adopted in the Baltimore convention, expressly stated: "We are opposed to the Aldrich plan for a central bank." This was plain language. The men who ruled the Democratic Party then promised the people that if they were returned to power there would be no central bank established here while they held the reins of government. Thirteen months later that promise was broken, and the Wilson administration, under the tutelage of those sinister Wall Street figures who stood behind Colonel House, established here in our free country the worm-eaten monarchical institution of the "king's bank" to control us from the top downward, and to shackle us from the cradle to the grave. The Federal Reserve Act destroyed our old and characteristic way of doing business; it discriminated against our one-name commercial paper, the finest in the world; it set up the antiquated two-name paper, which is the present curse of this country, and which has wrecked every country which has ever given it scope; it fastened down upon this country the very tyranny from which the framers of the Constitution sought to save us.

One of the greatest battles for the preservation of this Republic was fought out here in Jackson's day, when the Second Bank of the United States, which was founded upon the same false principles as those which are exemplified in the Federal Reserve Act, was hurled out of existence. After the downfall of the Second Bank of the United States in 1837, the country was warned against the dangers that might ensue if the predatory interests, after being cast out, would come back in disguise and unite themselves to the Executive, and through him acquire control of the government. That is what the predatory interests did when they came back in the livery of hypocrisy and under false pretenses obtained the passage of the Federal Reserve Act [December 23, 1913].

The danger that the country was warned against came upon us and is shown in the long train of horrors attendant upon the affairs of the traitorous and dishonest Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Look around you when you leave this chamber and you will see evidences of it on all sides. This is an era of economic misery and for the conditions that caused that misery, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks are fully liable. This is an era of financed crime and in the financing of crime, the Federal Reserve Board does not play the part of a disinterested spectator.

It has been said that the draftsman who was employed to write the text of the Federal Reserve Bill used the text of the Aldrich Bill for his purpose. It has been said that the language of the Aldrich Bill was used because the Aldrich Bill had been drawn up by expert lawyers and seemed to be appropriate. It was indeed drawn up by lawyers. The Aldrich Bill was created by acceptance bankers of European origin in New York City. It was a copy and in general a translation of the statutes of the Reichsbank and other European central banks.

Half a million dollars was spent on one part of the propaganda organized by those same European bankers for the purpose of misleading public opinion in regard to it, and for the purpose of giving Congress the impression that there was an overwhelming popular demand for that kind of banking legislation and the kind of currency that goes with it, namely, an asset currency based on human debts and obligations instead of an honest currency based on gold and silver values. Dr. H. Parker Willis had been employed by Wall Street bankers and propagandists and when the Aldrich measure came to naught and he obtained employment from CARTER GLASS to assist in drawing a banking bill for the Wilson Administration, he appropriated the text of the Aldrich Bill for his purpose. There is no secret about it. The text of the Federal Reserve Act was tainted from the beginning.

Not all of the Democratic members of the Sixty-third Congress voted for his great deception. Some of them remembered the teachings of Jefferson; and, through the years, there has been no criticism of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks so honest, so outspoken, and so unsparing as those which have been voiced here by Democrats. Again, although a number of Republicans voted for the Federal Reserve Act, the wisest and most conservative members of the Republican Party would have nothing to do with it and voted against it. A few days before the bill came to a vote, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, wrote to Sen. John W. Weeks as follows:

SENATOR HENRY CABOT LODGE

New York City, December 17, 1913.

MY DEAR SENATOR WEEKS: * * *

Throughout my public life I have supported all measures designed to take the government out of the banking business***. This bill puts the government into the banking business as never before in our history and makes, as I understand it, all notes government notes when they should be bank notes.

The powers vested in the Federal Reserve Board seem to me highly dangerous, especially where there is political control of the board. I should be sorry to hold stock in a bank subject to such domination. The bill as it stands seems to me to open the way to a vast inflation of the currency. There is no necessity of dwelling upon this point after the remarkable and most powerful argument of the senior Senator from New York. I can be content here to follow the example of the English candidate for Parliament who thought it enough "to say ditto to Mr. Burke". I will merely add that I do not like to think that any law can be passed which will make it possible to submerge the gold standard in a flood of irredeemable paper currency.

I had hoped to support this bill, but I can not vote for it as it stands, because it seems to me to contain features and to rest upon principles in the highest degree menacing to our prosperity, to stability in business, and to the general welfare of the people of the United States.

Very sincerely yours,

HENRY CABOT LODGE.

In the 18 years which have passed since Senator Lodge wrote that letter of warning all of his predictions have come true. The Government is in the banking business as never before.

Against its will it has been made the backer of horsethieves and card sharps, bootleggers, smugglers, speculators, and swindlers in all parts of the world. Through the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks the riffraff of every country is operating on the public credit of the United States Government. Meanwhile, and on account of it, we ourselves are in the midst of the greatest depression we have ever known. Thus the menace to our prosperity, so feared by Senator Lodge, has indeed struck home. From the Atlantic to the Pacific our country has been ravaged and laid waste by the evil practices of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and the interests which control them. At no time in our history has the general welfare of the people of the United States been at a lower level or the mind of the people so filled with despair.

Recently in one of our states 60,000 dwelling houses and farms were brought under the hammer in a single day. According to the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, who has lately testified before a committee of this House, 71,000 houses and farms in Oakland County, Mich., have been sold and their erstwhile owners dispossessed. Similar occurrences have probably taken place in every county in the United States. The people who have thus been driven out are the wastage of the Federal Reserve Act. They are the victims of the dishonest and unscrupulous Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Their children are the new slaves of the auction block in the revival here of the institution of human slavery.

In 1913, before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, Mr. Alexander Lassen made the following statement:

'But the whole scheme of a Federal Reserve bank with its commercial-paper basis is an impractical, cumbersome machinery, is simply a cover, to find a way to secure the privilege of issuing money and to evade payment of as much tax upon circulation as possible, and then control the issue and maintain, instead of reduce, interest rates. It is a system that, if inaugurated, will prove to the disadvantage of the States. It will mean continued shortage of actual money and further extension of credits; for when there is a lack of real money people have to borrow credit to their cost.'

A few days before the Federal Reserve Act was passed Sen. Elihu Root denounced the Federal Reserve Bill as an outrage on our liberties and made the following prediction:

'Long before we wake up from our dreams of prosperity through an inflated currency, our gold, which alone could have kept us from catastrophe, will have vanished and no rate of interest will tempt it to return.'

If ever a prophecy came true, that one did. It was impossible, however, for those luminous and instructed thinkers to control the course of events. On December 23, 1913, the Federal Reserve Bill became law, and that night Colonel House wrote to his hidden master in Wall Street as follows:

COLONEL HOUSE, AGAIN

I want to say a word of appreciation to you for the silent but no doubt effective work you have done in the interest of currency legislation and to congratulate you that the measure has finally been enacted into law. We all know that an entirely perfect bill, satisfactory to everybody, would have been an impossibility, and I feel quite certain fair men will admit that unless the President had stood as firm as he did we should likely have had no legislation at all. The bill is a good one in many respects; anyhow good enough to start with and to let experience teach us in what direction it needs perfection, which in due time we shall then get. In any event you have personally good reason to feel gratified with what has been accomplished.'

The words "unless the President had stood as firm as he did we should likely have had no legislation at all", were a gentle reminder that it was Colonel House himself, the "holy monk", who had kept the President firm.

The foregoing letter affords striking evidence of the manner in which the predatory interests then sought to control the Government of the United States by surrounding the Executive with the personality and the influence of a financial Judas. Left to itself and to the conduct of its own legislative functions without pressure from the Executive, the Congress would not have passed the Federal Reserve Act. According to Colonel House, and since this was his report to his master, we may believe it to be true, the Federal Reserve Act was passed because Wilson stood firm; in other words because Wilson was under the guidance and control of the most ferocious usurers in New York through their hireling, House. The Federal Reserve Act became law the day before Christmas Eve in the year 1913, and shortly afterwards the German international bankers, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., sent one of their partners here to run it.

In 1913, when the Federal Reserve Bill was submitted to the Democratic caucus, there was a discussion in regard to the form the proposed paper currency should take.

The proponents of the Federal Reserve Act, in their determination to create a new kind of paper money, had not needed to go outside of the Aldrich Bill for a model. By the terms of the Aldrich Bill, bank notes were to be issued by the National Reserve Association and were to be secured partly by gold or lawful money and partly by circulating evidences of debt. The first draft of the Federal Reserve Bill presented the same general plan, that is, for bank notes as opposed to government notes, but with certain differences of regulation.

THE LEGACY OF WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

When the provision for the issuance of Federal Reserve Notes was placed before President Wilson he approved of it, but other Democrats were more mindful of Democratic principles and a great protest greeted the plan. Foremost amongst those who denounced it was William Jennings Bryan, the Secretary of State. Bryan wished to have the Federal Reserve Notes issued as government obligations. President Wilson had an interview with him and found him adamant. At the conclusion of the interview Bryan left with the understanding that he would resign if the notes were made bank notes. The President then sent for his Secretary and explained the matter to him. Mr. Tumulty went to see Bryan and Bryan took from his library shelves a book containing all the Democratic platforms and read extracts from them bearing on the matter of the public currency. Returning to the President, Mr. Tumulty told him what had happened and ventured the opinion that Mr. Bryan was right and that Mr. Wilson was wrong. The President then asked Mr. Tumulty to show him where the Democratic Party in its national platforms had ever taken the view indicated by Bryan. Mr. Tumulty gave him the book, which he had brought from Bryan's house, and the President read very carefully plank after plank on the currency. He then said, "I am convinced there is a great deal in what Mr. Bryan says", and thereupon it was arranged that Mr. Tumulty should see the proponents of the Federal Reserve Bill in an effort to bring about an adjustment of the matter.

The remainder of this story may be told in the words of Senator Glass. Concerning Bryan's opposition to the plan of allowing the proposed Federal Reserve Notes to take the form of bank notes and the manner in which President Wilson and the proponents of the Federal Reserve Bill yielded to Bryan in return for his support of the measure, Senator Glass makes the following statement:

The only other feature of the currency bill around which a conflict raged at this time was the note-issue provision. Long before I knew it, the President was desperately worried over it. His economic good sense told him the notes should be issued by the banks and not by the government; but some of his advisers told him Mr. Bryan could not be induced to give his support to any bill that did not provide for a "Government Note". There was in the Senate and House a large Bryan following which, united with a naturally adversary party vote, could prevent legislation. Certain overconfident gentlemen proffered their services in the task of "managing Bryan". They did not budge him. * * * When a decision could no longer be postponed the President summoned me to the White House to say he wanted Federal Reserve Notes to "be obligations of the United States". I was for an instant speechless. With all the earnestness of my being I remonstrated, pointing out the unscientific nature of such a thing, as well as the evident inconsistency of it.

"There is not, in truth, any Government obligation here, Mr. President", I exclaimed. "It would be a pretense on its face. Was there ever a government note based primarily on the property of banking institutions? Was there ever a government issue not one dollar of which could be put out except by demand of a bank? The suggested government obligation is so remote it could never be discerned," I concluded, out of breath.

"Exactly so, Glass", earnestly said the President. "Every word you say is true; the government liability is a mere thought. And so, if we can hold to the substance of the thing and give the other fellow the shadow, why not do it, if thereby we may save our bill?"

Shadow and substance! One can see from this how little President Wilson knew about banking. Unknowingly, he gave the substance to the international banker and the shadow to the common man. Thus was Bryan circumvented in his efforts to uphold the Democratic doctrine of the rights of the people. Thus the "unscientific blur" upon the bill was perpetrated. The "unscientific blur", however, was not the fact that the United States Government, by the terms of Bryan's edict, was obliged to assume as an obligation whatever currency was issued. Mr. Bryan was right when he insisted that the United States should preserve its sovereignty over the public currency. The "unscientific blur" was the nature of the currency itself, a nature which makes it unfit to be assumed as an obligation of the United States Government. It is the worst currency and the most dangerous this country has ever known. When the proponents of the act saw that Democratic doctrine would not permit them to let the proposed banks issue the new currency as bank notes, they should have stopped at that. They should not have foisted that kind of currency, namely, an asset currency, on the United States Government. They should not have made the government liable on the private debts of individuals and corporations and, least of all, on the private debts of foreigners.

The Federal Reserve Note is essentially unsound.

As Demmerer says:

The Federal Reserve Notes, therefore, in form have some of the qualities of government paper money, but, in substance, are almost a pure asset currency possessing a government guaranty against which contingency the government has made no provision whatever.'

"* * * They are obligations of the government for which the United States has received nothing and for the payment of which at any time it assumes the responsibility looking to the Federal Reserve Bank to recoup itself.'

If the United States Government is to redeem the Federal Reserve Notes when the general public finds out what it costs to deliver this flood of paper money to the 12 Federal Reserve Banks, and if the government has made no provision for redeeming them, the first element of their unsoundness is not far to seek.

Before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, while the Federal Reserve Bill was under discussion, Mr. Crozier, of Cincinnati, said:

MR. CROZIER, AGAIN

In other words, the imperial power of elasticity of the public currency is wielded exclusively by these central corporations owned by the banks. This is a life and death power over all local banks and all business. It can be used to create or destroy prosperity, to ward off or cause stringencies and panics. By making money artificially scarce, interest rates throughout the country can be arbitrarily raised and the bank tax on all business and cost of living increased for the profit of the banks owning these regional central banks, and without the slightest benefit to the people. These 12 corporations together cover the whole country and monopolize and use for private gain every dollar of the public currency and all public revenues of the United States. Not a dollar can be put into circulation among the people by their Government without the consent of and on terms fixed by these 12 private money trusts.'

In defiance of this and all other warnings, the proponents of the Federal Reserve Act created the 12 private credit corporations and gave them an absolute monopoly of the currency of the United States, not of Federal Reserve Notes alone, but of all the currency. The Federal Reserve Act provided ways by means of which the gold and general currency in the hands of the American people could be obtained by the Federal Reserve Banks in exchange for Federal Reserve Notes, which are not money but merely promises to pay money. Since the evil day when this was done the initial monopoly has been extended by vicious amendments to the Federal Reserve Act and by the unlawful and treasonable practices of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks.

Mr. Chairman, when a Chinese merchant sells human hair to a Paris wigmaker and bills him in dollars, the Federal Reserve Banks can buy his bill against the wigmaker and then use that bill as collateral for Federal Reserve Notes. The United States Government thus pays the Chinese merchant the debt of the wigmaker and gets nothing in return except a shady title to the Chinese hair.

Mr. Chairman, if a Scotch distiller wishes to send a cargo of Scotch whisky to the United States, he can draw his bill against the purchasing bootlegger in dollars; and after the bootlegger has accepted it by writing his name across the face of it, the Scotch distiller can send that bill to the nefarious open discount market in New York City, where the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks will buy it and use it as collateral for a new issue of Federal Reserve Notes. Thus the Government of the United States pays the Scotch distiller for the whisky before it is shipped; and if it is lost on the way, or if the Coast Guard seizes it and destroys it, the Federal Reserve Banks simply write off the loss and the government never recovers the money that was paid to the Scotch distiller. While we are attempting to enforce prohibition here, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks are financing the distillery business in Europe and are paying bootleggers' bills with the public credit of the United States Government."

[H: I will interrupt this dissertation at this point, please. I ask that all you readers fully understand the contents of this speech for it is the Truth in outline and detail of that which has destroyed your nation and pulled down your people. Please look most carefully at these parables for in seeing the Truth, you can slay the dragon. Your nation, your populace, your Constitution and your planet are now in final death throes. What will you do? There will be no knights in shining armor, no space cadets to whisk you away aboard ships of silver to save your assets—YOU ARE GOING TO SAVE YOURSELF FROM THIS ENTANGLED NET OF IMPRISONMENT AND IMPOVERISHMENT OR YE SHALL PERISH AS A NATION AND PEOPLES WITHIN ITS DEATH-GRIP. McFADDEN'S SPEECH CONTINUED

CONTINUE QUOTING:

Mr. Chairman, if a German brewer ships beer to this country or anywhere else in the world and draws his bill for it in dollars, the Federal Reserve Banks will buy that bill and use it as collateral for Federal Reserve Notes. Thus, they compel our government to pay the German brewer for his beer. Why should the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks be permitted to finance the brewing industry of Germany, either in this way or as they do by compelling small and fearful United States banks to take stock in the Isenbeck Brewery and in the German bank for brewing industries?

Mr. Chairman, if Dynamit Nobel of Germany wishes to sell dynamite to Japan to use in Manchuria or elsewhere, it can draw its bill against its Japanese customers in dollars and send that bill to the nefarious open discount market in New York City, where the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks will buy it and use it as collateral for a new issue of Federal Reserve Notes, while at the same time the Federal Reserve Board will be helping Dynamit Nobel by stuffing its stock into the United States banking system. Why should we send our representatives to the disarmament conference at Geneva while the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks are making our government pay Japanese debts to German munitions makers?

Mr. Chairman, if a bean grower of Chile wishes to raise a crop of beans and sell them to a Japanese customer, he can draw a bill against his prospective Japanese customer in dollars and have it purchased by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and get the money out of this country at the expense of the American public before he has even planted the beans in the ground.

Mr. Chairman, if a German in Germany wishes to export goods to South America or anywhere else, he can draw his bill against his customer and send it to the United States and get the money out of this country before he ships or even manufactures the goods.

Mr. Chairman, why should the currency of the United States be issued on the strength of Chinese human hair? Why should it be issued on the trade whims of a wigmaker? Why should it be issued on the strength of German beer? Why should it be issued on a crop of unplanted beans to be grown in Chile for Japanese consumption? Why should the Government of the United States be compelled to issue many billions of dollars every year to pay the debts of one foreigner to another foreigner? Was it for this that our national-bank depositors had their money taken out of our banks and shipped abroad? Was it for this they had to lose it? Why should the public credit of the United States Government and likewise money belonging to our national-bank depositors be used to support foreign brewers, narcotic drug vendors, whisky distillers, wigmakers, human-hair merchants, Chilean bean growers, and the like? Why should our national-bank depositors and our government be forced to finance the munition factories of Germany and Soviet Russia?

Mr. Chairman, if a German, in Germany, wishes to sell wheelbarrows to another German, he can draw a bill in dollars and get the money out of the Federal Reserve Banks before an American farmer could explain his request for a loan to move his crop to market. In Germany, when credit instruments are being given, the creditors say, "See you, it must be of a kind that I can cash at the reserve". Other foreigners feel the same way. The reserve to which these gentry refer is our reserve, which, as you know, is entirely made up of money belonging to American bank depositors. I think foreigners should cash their own trade paper and not send it over here to bankers who use it to fish cash out of the pockets of the American people.

Mr. Chairman, there is nothing like the Federal Reserve pool of confiscated bank deposits in the world. It is a public trough of American wealth in which foreigners claim rights equal to or greater than those of Americans. The Federal Reserve Banks are the agents of the foreign central banks. They use our bank depositors' money for the benefit of their foreign principals. They barter the public credit of the United States Government and hire it out to foreigners at a profit to themselves.

All this is done at the expense of the United States Government, and at a sickening loss to the American people. Only our great wealth enabled us to stand the drain of it as long as we did.

I believe that the nations of the world would have settled down after the World War more peacefully if we had not had this standing temptation here—this pool of our bank depositors' money given to private interests and used by them in connection with illimitable drafts upon the public credit of the United States Government. The Federal Reserve Board invited the world to come in and to carry away cash, credit, goods, and everything else of value that was movable. Values amounting to many billions of dollars have been taken out of this country by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks for the benefit of their foreign principals. The United States has been ransacked and pillaged. Our structures have been gutted and only the walls are left standing. While this crime was being perpetrated everything the world could rake up to sell us was brought in here at our own expense by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks until our markets were swamped with unneeded and unwanted imported goods priced far above their value and thus made to equal the dollar volume of our honest exports and to kill or reduce our favorable balance of trade. As agents of the foreign central banks, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks try by every means within their power to reduce our favorable balance of trade. They act for their foreign principals and they accept fees from foreigners for acting against the best interests of the United States. Naturally there has been great competition among foreigners for the favors of the Federal Reserve Board.

What we need to do is to send the reserves of our national banks home to the people who earned and produced them and who still own them and to the banks which were compelled to surrender them to predatory interests. We need to destroy the Federal Reserve pool, wherein our national-bank reserves are impounded for the benefit of foreigners. We need to make it very difficult for outlanders to draw money away from us. We need to save America for Americans.

Mr. Chairman, when you hold a $10 Federal Reserve Note in your hand you are holding a piece of paper which sooner or later is going to cost the United States Government $10 in gold, unless the government is obliged to give up the gold standard. It is protected by a reserve of 40 per cent, or $4 in gold. It is based on Limburger cheese, reputed to be in a foreign warehouse; or on cans purporting to contain peas but which may contain no peas but salt water instead; or on horse meat; illicit drugs; bootleggers' fancies; rags and bones from Soviet Russia of which the United States imported over a million dollars' worth last year; on wine, whisky, natural gas, on goat or dog fur, garlic on the string, or Bombay ducks. If you like to have paper money which is secured by such commodities, you have it in the Federal Reserve Note. If you desire to obtain the thing of value upon which this paper currency is based—that is, the Limburger cheese, the whisky, the illicit drugs, or any of the other staples—you will have a very hard time finding them. Many of these worshipful commodities are in foreign countries. Are you going to Germany to inspect her warehouses to see if the specified things of value are there? I think not. And what is more, I do not think you would find them if you did go.

Immense sums belonging to our national-bank depositors have been given to Germany on no collateral security whatever. The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks have issued United States currency on mere finance drafts drawn by Germans. Billions upon billions of our money has been pumped into Germany by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Her worthless paper is still being negotiated here and renewed here on the public credit of the United States Government and at the expense of the American people. On April 27, 1932, the Federal Reserve outfit sent $750,000, belonging to American bank depositors, in gold to Germany. A week later, another $300,000 in gold was shipped to Germany in the same way. About the middle of May $12,000,000 in gold was shipped to Germany by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Almost every week there is a shipment of gold to Germany. These shipments are not made for profit on exchange since German marks are below parity against the dollar.

Mr. Chairman, I believe that the national-bank depositors of the United States are entitled to know what the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks are doing with their money. There are millions of national-bank depositors in this country who do not know that a percentage of every dollar they deposit in a member bank of the Federal Reserve System goes automatically to the American agents of foreign banks and that all of their deposits can be paid away to foreigners without their knowledge or consent by the crooked machinery of the Federal Reserve Act and the questionable practices of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Mr. Chairman, the American people should be told the truth by their servants in office.

In 1930 we had over half a billion dollars outstanding daily to finance foreign goods stored in or shipped between foreign countries. In its yearly total, this item amounts to several billion dollars. What goods are those upon which the Federal Reserve Banks pledge several billion dollars of the public credit of the United States? What goods are those which are hidden in European and Asiatic storehouses and which have never been seen by any officer of this government, but which are being financed on the public credit of the United States Government? What goods are those upon which the United States Government is being obliged by the Federal Reserve Banks to issue Federal Reserve Notes to the extent of several billion dollars a year?

The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks have been international bankers from the beginning, with the United States Government as their enforced banker and supplier of currency.

But it is nonetheless extraordinary to see those 12 private credit monopolies buying the debts of foreigners against foreigners in all parts of the world and asking the Government of the United States for new issues of Federal Reserve Notes in exchange for them.

I see no reason why the American taxpayers should be hewers of wood and drawers of water for the European and Asiatic customers of the Federal Reserve Banks. I see no reason why a worthless acceptance drawn by a foreign swindler as a means of getting gold out of this country should receive the lowest and choicest rate from the Federal Reserve Board and be treated as better security than the note of an American farmer living on American land.

The magnitude of the acceptance racket, as it has been developed by the Federal Reserve Banks, their foreign correspondents, and the predatory European-born bankers who set up the Federal Reserve institution here and taught our own brand of pirates how to loot the people—I say the magnitude of this racket is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $9,000,000,000 a year (1932). In the past ten years it is said to have amounted to $90,000,000,000. In my opinion, it has amounted to several times as much. Coupled with this you have, to the extent of billions of dollars, the gambling in United States securities, which takes place in the same open discount market—a gamble upon which the Federal Reserve Board is now spending $100,000,000 a week.

Federal Reserve Notes are taken from the United States Government in unlimited quantities. Is it strange that the burden of supplying these immense sums of money to the gambling fraternity has at last proved too heavy for the American people to endure? Would it not be a national calamity if the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks should again bind this burden down on the backs of the American people and, by means of the long rawhide whips of the credit masters, compel them to enter upon another 17 years of slavery? They are trying to do that now. They are taking $100,000,000 of the public credit of the United States Government every week in addition to all their other seizures, and they are spending that money in the nefarious open market in New York City in a desperate gamble to reestablish their graft as a going concern.

They are putting the United States Government in debt to the extent of $100,000,000 a week, and with this money they are buying up our government securities for themselves and their foreign principals. Our people are disgusted with the experiments of the Federal Reserve Board. The Federal Reserve Board is not producing a loaf of bread, a yard of cloth, a bushel of corn, or a pile of cordwood by its check-kiting operations in the money market.

A fortnight or so ago great aid and comfort was given to Japan by the firm of A. Gerli & Sons, of New York, an importing firm, which bought $16,000,000 worth of raw silk from the Japanese Government. Federal Reserve Notes will be issued to pay that amount to the Japanese Government, and these notes will be secured by money belonging to our national-bank depositors.

Why should United States currency be issued on this debt? Why should United States currency be issued to pay the debt of Gerli & Sons to the Japanese Government? The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks think more of the silkworms of Japan than they do of American citizens. We do not need $16,000,000 worth of silk in this country at the present time, not even to furnish work to dyers and finishers. We need to wear home-grown and American-made clothes and to use our own money for our own goods and staples. We could spend $16,000,000 in the United States of America on American children and that would be a better investment for us than Japanese silk purchased on the public credit of the United States Government.

Mr. Speaker, on the 13th of January of this year I addressed the House on the subject of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. In the course of my remarks I made the following statement:

In 1928 the member banks of the Federal Reserve System borrowed $60,598,690,000 from the Federal Reserve Banks on their 15-day promissory notes. Think of it! Sixty billion dollars payable upon demand in gold in the course of one single year. The actual payment of such obligations calls for six times as much monetary gold as there is in the entire world. Such transactions represent a grant in the course of one single year of about $7,000,000 to every member bank of the Federal Reserve System. Is it any wonder that there is a depression in this country? Is it any wonder that American labor, which ultimately pays the cost of all the banking operations of this country, has at last proved unequal to the task of supplying this huge total of cash and credit for the benefit of stock-market manipulators and foreign swindlers?

Mr. Chairman, some of my colleagues have asked for more specific information concerning this stupendous graft, this frightful burden which has been placed on the wage earners and taxpayers of the United States for the benefit of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. They were surprised to learn that member banks of the Federal Reserve System had received the enormous sum of $60,598,690,000 from the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks on their promissory notes in the course of one single year, namely, 1928. Another Member of this House, Mr. Beedy, the honorable gentleman from Maine, has questioned the accuracy of my statement and has informed me that the Federal Reserve Board denies absolutely that these figures are correct. This Member has said to me that the thing is unthinkable, that it cannot be, that it is beyond all reason to think that the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks should have so subsidized and endowed their favorite banks of the Federal Reserve System. This Member is horrified at the thought of a graft so great, a bounty so detrimental to the public welfare as sixty and a half billion dollars a year and more shoveled out to favored banks of the Federal Reserve System.

I sympathize with Mr. Beedy. I would spare him pain if I could, but the facts remain as I have stated them. In 1928, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks presented the staggering amount of $60,598,690,000 to their member banks at the expense of the wage earners and taxpayers of the United States. In 1929, the year of the stockmarket crash, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks advanced fifty-eight billions to member banks.

In 1930, while the speculating banks were getting out of the stock market at the expense of the general public, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks advanced them $13,022,782,000. This shows that when the banks were gambling on the public credit of the United States Government as represented by Federal Reserve currency, they were subsidized to any amount they required by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. When the swindle began to fail, the banks knew it in advance and withdrew from the market. They got out with whole skins and left the people of the United States to pay the piper.

On November 2, 1931, I addressed a letter to the Federal Reserve Board asking for the aggregate total of member bank borrowings in the years 1928, 1929, 1930. In due course, I received a reply from the Federal Reserve Board, dated November 9, 1931, the pertinent part of which reads as follows:

My Dear Congressman: In reply to your letter of November 2, you are advised that the aggregate amount of 15-day promissory notes of member banks during each of the past three calendar years has been as follows:

1929: $58,046,697,000
1930: $13,022,782,000

Very truly yours,

Chester Morrill, Secretary.

This will show the gentleman from Maine

the accuracy of my statement. As for the denial of these facts made to him by the Federal Reserve Board, I can only say that it must have been prompted by fright, since hanging is too good for a government board which permitted such a misuse of government funds and credit.

My friend from Kansas, Mr. McGugin, has stated that he thought the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks lent money by rediscounting. So they do, but they lend comparatively little that way. The real rediscounting that they do has been called a mere penny in the slot business. It is too slow for genuine high flyers. They discourage it. They prefer to subsidize their favorite banks by making these $60,000,000,000 advances, and they prefer to acquire acceptance in the notorious open discount market in New York, where they can use them to control the prices of stocks and bonds on the exchanges. For every dollar they advanced on rediscounts in 1928 they lent $33 to their favorite banks for gambling purposes. In other words, their rediscounts in 1928 amounted to $1,814,271,000 [Chelas, do you hear this? And this was in 1928; what think you it is today?], while their loans to member banks amounted to $60,598,690,000. As for their open-market operations, these are on a stupendous scale, and no tax is paid on the acceptances they handle; and their foreign principals, for whom they do a business of several billion dollars every year, pay no income tax on their profits to the United States Government.

This is the John Law swindle over again. The theft of Teapot Dome was trifling compared to it. What king ever robbed his subjects to such an extent as the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks have robbed us? Is it any wonder that there have lately been 90 cases of starvation in one of the New York hospitals? Is it any wonder that the children of this country are being dispersed and abandoned?

The government and the people of the United States have been swindled by swindlers de luxe to whom the acquisition of American gold or a parcel of Federal Reserve Notes presented no more difficulty than the drawing up of a worthless acceptance in a country not subject to the laws of the United States, by sharpers not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States courts, sharpers with a strong banking "fence" on this side of the water—a "fence" acting as a receiver of the worthless paper coming from abroad, endorsing it and getting the currency out of the Federal Reserve Banks for it as quickly as possible, exchanging that currency for gold, and in turn transmitting the gold to its foreign confederates.

END QUOTING FOR NOW.

We shall continue with this speech tomorrow, taking up with the exploits of Ivar Kreuger.

Thank you, Dharma, it has indeed been a very long day of work this Sunday; let us continue on the morrow. Good-day and peace walk with you, chela. AHO.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A COUNTRY FORSAKES ITS CONSTITUTION AND GIVES ITS SOVEREIGNTY OVER THE CURRENCY TO PRIVATE INTERESTS

CONTINUE QUOTING:

Such were the exploits of Ivar Kreuger, Mr. Hoover's friend, and his hidden Wall Street backers. Every dollar of the billions Kreuger and his gang drew out of this country on acceptances was drawn from the government and the people of the United States through the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. The credit of the United States Government was peddled to him by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks for their own private gain. That is what the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks have been doing for many years. THEY HAVE BEEN PEDDLING THE CREDIT OF THIS GOVERNMENT AND THE SIGNATURE OF THIS GOVERNMENT TO THE SWINDLERS AND SPECULATORS OF ALL NATIONS. THAT IS WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A COUNTRY FORSAKES ITS CONSTITUTION AND GIVES ITS SOVEREIGNTY OVER THE PUBLIC CURRENCY TO PRIVATE INTERESTS. GIVE THEM THE FLAG AND THEY WILL SELL IT.

The nature of Kreuger's organized swindle and the bankrupt condition of Kreuger's combine was known here last June when Hoover sought to exempt Kreuger's loan to Germany of one hundred twenty-five millions from the operation of the Hoover moratorium. The bankrupt condition of Kreuger's swindle was known here last summer when $30,000,000 was taken from American taxpayers by certain bankers in New York for the ostensible purpose of permitting Kreuger to make a loan to Colombia. Colombia never saw that money. The nature of Kreuger's swindle and the bankrupt condition of Kreuger was known here in January when he visited his friend, Mr. Hoover, at the White House. It was known here in March before he went to Paris and committed suicide there.

Mr. Chairman, I think the people of the United States are entitled to know how many billions of dollars were placed at the disposal of Kreuger and his gigantic combine by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and to know how much of our government currency was issued and lost in the financing of that great swindle in the years during which the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks took care of Kreuger's requirements.

Mr. Chairman, I believe there should be a congressional investigation of the operations of Kreuger and Toll in the United States and that Swedish Match, International Match, the Swedish-American Investment Corporation, and all related enterprises, including the subsidiary companies of Kreuger and Toll, should be investigated and that the issuance of United States currency in connection with those enterprises and the use of our national-bank depositors' money for Kreuger's benefit should be made known to the general public. I am referring, not only to the securities which were floated and sold in this country, but also to the commercial loans to Kreuger's enterprises and the mass financing of Kreuger's companies by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and the predatory institutions which the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks shield and harbor.

A few days ago the President of the United States, with a white face and shaking hands, went before the Senate on behalf of the moneyed interests and asked the Senate to levy a tax on the people so that foreigners might know that the United States would pay its debts to them. Most Americans thought that it was the other way around. What does the United States owe to foreigners? When and by whom was the debt incurred? It was incurred by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks when they peddled the signature of this government to foreigners for a price. It is what the United States Government has to pay to redeem the obligations of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Are you going to let those thieves get off scot free? Is there one law for the looter who drives up to the door of the United States Treasury in his limousine and another for the United States veterans who are sleeping on the floor of a dilapidated house on the outskirts of Washington?

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad is here asking for a large loan from the people and the wage earners and the taxpayers of the United States. It is begging for a handout from the government. It is standing, cap in hand, at the door of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, where all the other jackals have gathered to the feast. It is asking for money that was raised from the people by taxation, and it wants this money of the poor for the benefit of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the German international bankers. Is there one law for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and another for the needy veterans it threw off its freight cars the other day? Is there one law for sleek and prosperous swindlers who call themselves bankers and another law for the soldiers who defended the United States flag?

Mr. Chairman, some people are horrified because the collateral behind Kreuger and Toll debentures was removed and worthless collateral substituted for it. What is this but what is being done daily by the Federal Reserve Banks? When the Federal Reserve Act was passed, the Federal Reserve Banks were allowed to substitute "other like collateral" for collateral behind Federal Reserve Notes but by an amendment obtained at the request of the corrupt and dishonest Federal Reserve Board, the act was changed so that the word "like" was stricken out. All that immense trouble was taken here in Congress so that the law would permit the Federal Reserve Banks to switch collateral. At the present time behind the scenes in the Federal Reserve Banks there is a night-and-day movement of collateral. A visiting Englishman, leaving the United States a few weeks ago said that things would look better here after "they cleaned up the mess at Washington". Cleaning up the mess consists in fooling the people and making them pay a second time for the bad foreign investments of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. It consists in moving that heavy load of dubious and worthless foreign paper—the bills of wigmakers, brewers, distillers, narcotic-drug vendors, munition makers, illegal finance drafts, and worthless foreign securities out of the banks and putting it on the back of American labor. That is what the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is doing now. [H: Is this not EXACTLY that which the Resolution Trust Corporation is doing right now to your populace? Perhaps you might explain it to me otherwise if you disagree!] They talk about loans to banks and railroads but they say very little about that other business of theirs which consists in relieving the swindlers who promoted investment trusts in this country and dumped worthless foreign securities into them and then resold that mess of pottage to American investors under cover of their own corporate titles. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is taking over those worthless securities from those investment trusts with United States Treasury money at the expense of the American taxpayer and wage earner. [Note that they didn't even bother to change the title hardly at all—and they derived great humor in so-doing; the room was rocking with laughter as they put that one over on you Americans. One of your great Senators said, "The suckers will never even notice!"]

It will take us 20 years to redeem our government, 20 years of penal servitude to pay off the gambling debts of the traitorous Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and to earn again that vast flood of American wages and savings, bank deposits, and United States Government credit which the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks exported out of this country to their foreign principals.

The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks lately conducted an anti-hoarding campaign here. Then they took that extra money which they had persuaded a trusting American people to put into the banks and they sent it to Europe along with the rest. In the last several months, they have sent $1,300,000,000 in gold to their foreign employers, their foreign masters, and every dollar of that gold belonged to the people of the United States and was unlawfully taken from them.

Is not it high time that we had an audit of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and an examination of all our governments bonds and securities and public moneys instead of allowing the corrupt and dishonest Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks to speculate with those securities and this cash in the notorious open discount market of New York City?

Mr. Chairman, within the limits of the time allowed me, I cannot enter into a particularized discussion of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. I have singled out the Federal Reserve currency for a few remarks because there has lately been some talk here of "fiat money". What kind of money is being pumped into the open discount market and through it into foreign channels and stock exchanges? Mr. Mills of the Treasury has spoken here of his horror of the printing presses and his horror of dishonest money. He has no horror of dishonest money. If he had, he would be no party to the present gambling of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks in the nefarious open discount market of New York, a market in which the sellers are represented by ten great discount dealer corporations owned and organized by the very banks which own and control the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Fiat money, indeed!

After the several raids on the Treasury Mr. Mills borrows the speech of those who protested against those raids and speaks now with pretended horror of a raid on the Treasury. Where was Mr. Mills last October when the United States Treasury needed $598,000,000 of the taxpayers' money which was supposed to be in the safe-keeping of Andrew W. Mellon in the designated depositories of Treasury funds, and which was not in those depositories when the Treasury needed it? Mr. Mills was the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury then, and he was at Washington throughout October, with the exception of a very significant week he spent at White Sulphur Springs closeted with international bankers, while the Italian minister, Signor Grandi, was being entertained—and bargained with—at Washington.

What Mr. Mills is fighting for is the preservation, whole and entire, of the bankers' monopoly of all the currency of the United States Government. What Mr. Patman proposes is that the government shall exercise its sovereignty to the extent of issuing some currency for itself. This conflict of opinion between Mr. Mills as the spokesman of the bankers and Mr. Patman as the spokesman of the people brings the currency situation here into the open. Mr. Patman and the veterans are confronted by a stone wall—the wall that fences in the bankers with their special privilege. Thus the issue is joined between the hosts of democracy, of which the veterans are a part, and the men of the king's bank, the would-be aristocrats, who deflated American agriculture and robbed this country for the benefit of their foreign principals.

Mr. Chairman, last December I introduced a resolution here asking for an examination and audit of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and all related matters. If the House sees fit to make such an investigation, the people of the United States will obtain information of great value. This is a government of the people, by the people, for the people, consequently nothing should be concealed from the people. The man who deceives the people is a traitor to the United States. The man who knows or suspects that a crime has been committed and who conceals or covers up that crime is an accessory to it. Mr. Speaker, it is a monstrous thing for this great Nation of people to have its destinies presided over by a traitorous government board acting in secret concert with international usurers. Every effort has been made by the Federal Reserve Board to conceal its power but the truth is the Federal Reserve Board has usurped the Government of the United States. It controls everything here and it controls all our foreign relations. It makes and breaks governments at will. No man and no body of men is more entrenched in power than the arrogant credit monopoly which operates the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. These evil-doers have robbed this country of more than enough money to pay the national debt. What the national Government has permitted the Federal Reserve Board to steal from the people should now be restored to the people. The people have a valid claim against the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. If that claim is enforced, Americans will not need to stand in breadlines or to suffer and die of starvation in the streets. Homes will be saved, families will be kept together, and American children will not be dispersed and abandoned. The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks owe the United States Government an immense sum of money. We ought to find out the exact amount of the people's claim. We should know the amount of the indebtedness of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks to the people and we should collect that amount immediately. We certainly should investigate this treacherous and disloyal con- duct of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks.

Here is a Federal Reserve Note. Immense numbers of these notes are now held abroad. I am told they amount to upward of a billion dollars. They constitute a claim against our government and likewise a claim against the money our people have deposited in the member banks of the Federal Reserve System. Our people's money to the extent of $1,300,000,000 has within the last few months been shipped abroad to redeem Federal Reserve Notes and to pay other gambling debts of the traitorous Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. The greater part of our monetary stock has been shipped to foreigners. Why should we promise to pay the debts of foreigners to foreigners? Why should our government be put into the position of supplying money to foreigners? Why should American farmers and wage earners add millions of foreigners to the number of their dependents? Why should the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks be permitted to finance our competitors in all parts of the world? Do you know why the tariff was raised? It was raised to shut out the flood of Federal Reserve goods pouring in here from every quarter of the globe—cheap goods produced by cheaply paid foreign labor on unlimited supplies of money and credit sent out of this country by the dishonest and unscrupulous Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks. Go out in Washington to buy an electric light bulb and you will probably be offered one that was made in Japan on American money. Go out to buy a pair of fabric gloves and inconspicuously written on the inside of the gloves that will be offered to you will be found the words "made in Germany" and that means "made on the public credit of the United States Government paid to German firms in American gold taken from the confiscated bank deposits of the American people."

The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks are spending $100,000,000 a week buying government securities in the open market and are thus making a great bid for foreign business. They are trying to make rates so attractive that the human-hair merchants and distillers and other business entities in foreign lands will come here and hire more of the public credit of the United States Government and pay the Federal Reserve outfit for getting it for them.

Mr. Chairman, when the Federal Reserve Act was passed the people of the United States did not perceive that a world system was being set up here which would make the savings of an American school-teacher available to a narcotic-drug vendor in Cacao. They did not perceive that the United States was to be lowered to the position of a coolie country which has nothing but raw materials and heavy goods for export; that Russia was destined to supply manpower and that this country was to supply financial power to an international superstate—a superstate controlled by international bankers and international industrialists acting together to enslave the world for their own pleasure.

The people of the United States are being greatly wronged. If they are not, then I do not know what “wronging the people” means. They have been driven from their employments. They have been dispossessed of their homes. They have been evicted from their rented quarters. They have lost their children. They have been left to suffer and to die for the lack of shelter, food, clothing, and medicine.

The wealth of the United States and the working capital of the United States has been taken away from them and has either been locked in the vaults of certain banks and great corporations or exported to foreign countries for the benefit of the foreign customers of those banks and corporations. So far as the people of the United States are concerned, the cupboard is bare. It is true that the warehouses and coal yards and grain elevators are full, but the warehouses and coal yards and grain elevators are padlocked and the great banks and corporations hold the keys. The sacking of the United States by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks and their confederates is the greatest crime in history.

Mr. Chairman, a serious situation confronts the House of Representatives today. We are the trustees of the people and the rights of the people are being taken away from them. Through the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks, the people are losing the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution. Their property has been taken from them without due process of law. Mr. Chairman, common decency requires us to examine the public accounts of the government to see what crimes against the public welfare have been and are being committed.

What is needed here is a return to the Constitution of the United States. We need to have a complete divorce of Bank and State. The old struggle that was fought out here in Jackson’s day must be fought over again. The independent United States Treasury should be reestablished and the government should keep its own money under lock and key in the building the people provided for that purpose. Asset currency, the device of the swindler, should be done away with. The government should buy gold and issue United States currency on it. The business of the independent bankers should be restored to them. The State banking systems should be freed from coercion. The Federal Reserve districts should be abolished and State boundaries should be respected. Bank reserves should be kept within the borders of the States whose people own them, and this reserve money of the people should be protected so that international bankers and acceptance bankers and discount dealers cannot draw it away from them. The exchanges should be closed while we are putting our financial affairs in order. The Federal Reserve Act should be repealed and the Federal Reserve Banks, having violated their charters, should be liquidated immediately. Faithless government officers who have violated their oaths of office should be impeached and brought to trial. Unless this is done by us, I predict that the American people, outraged, robbed, pillaged, insulted, and betrayed as they are in their own land, will rise in their wrath and send a President here who will sweep the money changers out of the temple.

END QUOTE.

The only comment I shall make prior to closing this chapter is to request that you go back and read every paragraph of this speech again and mentally add the burden of increased tampering and total control for over sixty years and ask yourself: WHERE ARE WE TODAY???

You are in all but irreversible circumstances, dear ones, for you have waited too long for action. Your gold, for instance, is all gone—moved away, confiscated!

What have you done with your wondrous one nation, UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE—WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE? YOU HAVE SOLD IT, INCLUDING YOUR SOULS, TO THE DEVIL!

Salu, and may God grant you wisdom and power to reclaim that which is your birthright.

Our World Elite Rulers: The Bilderberg Society

1/25/93 #2 HATONN

THE BILDERBERG SOCIETY

One of the most frequently asked questions today, with the fact that “The Bilderberg Society groomed and put Clinton in office,” is, “Tell us again, just who are the Bilderbergs.”

We have carefully, in detail, with membership listings, covered this on several occasions prior to this but, realizing we have new readers daily, we shall attempt to continually remind and update as we can. This is important for they are powerful as the major right hand of the Committee of 300 Elite Power-One World Government. The easiest way is to simply give you a “re-run” of what it is and “who” “they” are as well as run a partial listing of members. This organization is the great step above and beyond the troops within the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR).

QUOTING: The following comes from a nameless person and there is no evidence of publication resource or date (however, it refers to 1992 information so it is valid and fairly current in content). I find it comprehensive, but brief, and shall therefore utilize it with appreciation to sender.

WHAT IS THE BILDERBERG SOCIETY?

Founded in 1954, the Bilderberg Society is one of the most important gatherings of the ruling elites of Europe and the United States, and functions as an “informal” forum for developing and planning the broad strategic policy goals of the NATO countries.

The existence of the Society—not to mention its importance—is not generally known by the public, but its influence on policies on both sides of the Atlantic is so great that an American congressman several years ago denounced the Society as “an elite international group comprised of high government officials, international financiers, businessmen and opinion makers”, all of which form an “exclusive international aristocracy”. In addition to its meetings, which are held for three days in complete seclusion at least once a year, the Society operates as a channel for regular, ongoing communication between the European and American Establishments.

The Bilderberg Society was originally conceived of in 1952, under the initiative of Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, and his good friend, Polish-born Joseph Retinger. Retinger, a leading official in Winston Churchill's pet-project Polish Government-in-Exile (along with the father of Trilateralist theoretician Zbigniew Brzezinski), is reported to have broached the idea of an informal gathering of NATO community leaders with the Prince, who quickly formed a small European group to study the proposal. Bernhard then proceeded with the organizing of an American contingent of the organization.

The first formal gathering of the Society took place in May, 1954 in a small town in Holland under a blanket of security provided by the host government. Prince Bernhard personally led the European delegation, while the Americans were led by David Rockefeller. Rockefeller has maintained a leading role in the Society since that time as a member of the Bilderberg U.S. steering committee.

From the beginning, representatives of the leading media of Europe and the United States have actively participated in the Bilderberg conferences, and have faithfully adhered to the agreement that the Society's activities—indeed its very existence—remain "off-limits" for publication in the international mass media.

Since the founding conference, the gatherings of the Society have occasionally included individuals not recognized to be "insiders" in the NATO community elite. In May this year the Society took the unprecedented step of inviting a large delegation from Russia and Eastern Europe to discuss policy issues concerning the region. However, a complex structure, led by a small Steering Committee and an even smaller Advisory Committee, ensure that the central direction of the organization is strictly controlled by the "inner core". From the American side, both the steering and advisory committees are dominated by the powerful New York Council on Foreign Relations, while the European members are generally associated with London's Royal Institute of International Affairs (or its off-shoots throughout the Continent), the International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), and the Rothschild interests.

In a late 1970s interview with journalist Robert Sheer of New Times magazine, Trilateralist North American Secretary George Franklin, a personal aide to David Rockefeller and staff director of the Council on Foreign Relations for 26 years, described the Bilderberg origins of the Commission:

"Franklin stressed that Bilderberg has been pivotal in hammering out a common Cold War stance between European and American corporate and political elite...It has been instrumental in determining new structures within which the elite can extend and flex its power. The Trilateral Commission, a more above-ground version of the Bilderberg, which recently received attention because of Jimmy Carter's attendance, grew directly out of the Bilderberg Conferences..."

It is important to point out that the Bilderberg Society has also functioned as a key "umbrella" organization for the U.S.'s most important think-tanks and foundations. The Brookings Institute, the Foreign Policy Association, the Carnegie Endowment and the Rand Corporation all maintain very close ties to the Society, as do the Rockefeller and Ford Foundations, and the Kennedy School at Harvard University. Meanwhile, Henry Kissinger, Gerald Ford, Helmut Schmidt, Baron Edmond de Rothschild, Robert McNamara, William F. Buckley, Margaret Thatcher, and Conrad Black have all been involved with the Society.

The founder of the Bilderberg Society, Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, a former Nazi SS officer, carefully revealed the philosophy of the Society over twenty years ago when he wrote: "Here comes our great difficulty. For the governments of the free nations are elected by people, and if they do something the people don't like they are thrown out. It is difficult to re-educate the people who have been brought up on nationalism to the idea of relinquishing part of their sovereignty to a supernational body... This is the tragedy."

Slick Willie's Bubbling Sexcapades

1/25/93 #2 HATONN

WHAT HAPPENED TO
BOBBIE ANN WILLIAMS?

"WHO is Bobbie Ann Williams?" most of you will ask. Well, she is the "lover" of Bill Clinton, a beautiful Black woman who has borne Slick Willie's child, now 8 years of age and the "image" of his father. She was neatly "buried" during the election every time her name popped up—but "if she lives" she is now preparing a paternity suit against our good President. It is OK because the time taken by Bill to fight the case won't matter—you actually elected "Hillary" anyway. Hillary doesn't care for Bobbie Ann even more so than she didn't care for Miss Flowers. After all, fortunately, there are plenty of extra bedrooms in that White House and the daughter will be off to expensive prestigious private school and out of the way most of the time.

SIGNING OF EXECUTIVE ORDERS

What do you suppose Clinton is going to do now? HE SIGNED THE "GAY IN THE MILITARY" EXECUTIVE ORDER BEFORE THE CAMERAS AND ALL OF THE WORLD—HIS FIRST PRESIDENTIAL "SIGNING". Now you are told he "hasn't REALLY signed the thing" but is holding up for further input. NO—AMERICA, he signed it as all America (and the nations run by deceit through CNN) watched while the lauders danced and applauded and Congressman Barny Frank grinned, groveled and handled the "leg work". Sure didn't take long for the lying to get under way did it? Campaign promises went by the wayside BEFORE the inauguration and the lying mish-mash began the same day. There was a lie at the original presentation of the "signing" OR "now". It simply CANNOT BE BOTH WAYS.

So what about little mulatto child, Danny? What a horrible life that little precious child has ahead of him—may God have mercy on these vipers of destruction. Why has Bobbie Ann not done something prior to now? For the same reason she probably will not have courage enough to do it now. She is terrified of Gov./President Clinton and his bodyguards and threat squads. She has already been thrown into prison once and warned to keep her mouth shut "or else".

The affair began in 1983 when Bobbie Ann Williams was only age 24. The most scandalized part of this sordid affair is that Gov. Clinton would take Miss Williams to his own mother's home when she was out of town. Then he would hold these illicit sexcapades. His mother is Virginia Kelly (her name by a second marriage. The whole family tree is most interesting—right to Rockefeller). The house would be guarded by then Gov. Clinton's chauffeur, Arkansas State Trooper Buddy Young. Mrs. Virginia Kelly's two immediate neighbors, Darlene Lewis and Effie Kirby, both love the attention and say that they witnessed Gov. Clinton taking such "friends" to the secluded house "plenty of times".

Clinton has been asked to take a blood test to settle the paternity allegation but has refused. Clinton's then press secretary, Susan Whitacre, says she has been instructed to refuse all comment on the subject.

Billy's lawyers are still desperately trying to settle out of court and cover up the whole embarrassing mess—but it looms nastily in the wings.

Why would I speak of such degrading "things"? Because Bill Clinton is responsible for a LIFE—a child—a PERSON WITH FEELINGS AND HEARTBREAK AND A BURDEN BEYOND BURDEN THROUGH THIS NEGLECT AND DENIAL. THE HARVEST SHALL BE REAPED IN THE SAME KIND AS IS THE PLANTING—IT CANNOT BE OTHERWISE. A NATION AND A PEOPLE WHO ALLOW AND SERVE THESE THINGS—SHALL PERISH OF THEM. How have you come to a place wherein a babe can be born and a mother kill it and it be murder—when if it be murdered while in the womb—it be legal "rights"? When you sort of these questions—then and only then shall you flourish again as a lamp unto the world!

HOLOCAUST STORY FLAK

Come down off your soapboxes, Readers—we wrote TRUTH and even the lying about it longer cannot change a breath of it.

Then you say, "...but you said something about that missile at the Rasheed Hotel being Israel's—or something like that." I SURE DID! And, guess what, within less than 24 hours YOUR PRESIDENT AT THE MOMENT, BUSH, WAS QUESTIONED ABOUT IT HAVING BEEN TRACKED TO PLACEMENT IN ISRAEL. What did he say? He said, "...well, you know that we have a massive stockpile of weapons in Israel for use in these conflicts." Then, the subject was buried forever if orders hold firm. But what is coming forth in spite of all they could do to shush it? That the missile was RIGHT ON TARGET deliberately aimed and fired deliberately AT THAT HOTEL—in which your own media personnel is housed! Don't whine to me about lies and wrong numbers—THIS is conclusive insanity! And, you never do a thing or raise a second question—woe be unto you if you change not your direction.

ISRAEL

You think Israel is just sitting and twiddling until the trumpets are put away and the bowing stops? Hardly—they are in the very thick of absolutely everything. It is amusing how, even now, the truth of the "Gulf Desert Storm" is coming out—from your own HEROES.

Retired Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf, commander of the allied forces during the war on Iraq, related in his book, It Doesn't Take A Hero, that the administration, in an effort to keep Israel hidden in the war, let Israel SUBMIT A LIST OF TARGETS IN IRAQ FOR AMERICAN AIRCRAFT TO STRIKE. Does that make it easier, now, to believe than when we told you about the involvement in the onset?

STILL NOT NERVOUS?

You don't need a shelter system? Cold war is off so you're safe? Oh? Since when are YOU safe? The "Russians are come", good buddies, and the world is less safe today than in any time since the beginning of time on this planet.

You have repeated declarations that the Cold War has ended the nightmare prospect of global nuclear annihilation—so WHY is the Swiss government (the heart of the Elite Bankster's One World Order) moving smartly along with improvement and updating of a system for security against pulse and nuclear attack? This is already costing over $105 million, and growing, to house the ruling Federal Council and their aides. They are also continuing work on a project that will provide blast and fallout shelters for every one of their 6.8 million people in the event of nuclear war. Still feel comfy-cozy? Will Clinton play the Sax at your funeral? I doubt it.

WANT ANOTHER LITTLE INSULT TO INJURY?

American taxpayers (YOU) shell out over $6 BILLION in grant money to fund scientific research at American universities. A recent General Accounting Office (GAO) study found that 499 foreign corporations had agreements with the top 35 federally (YOURS) funded research universities to obtain access to the research data even before it is published in scientific journals or made available to other scientists. Worse, these foreign firms are charged less than American companies seeking the same data. Rep. Robert Dornan (R.-Calif.), commenting on the GAO study, called it publicly a "national scandal". So, what is different from last year or the year before—or next year and the year after?

SO, HOW GOES MEXICAN FREE TRADE?

The last U.S. TV company has now moved operations to Mexico. Zenith is closing the last major TV plant in the U.S. and moving to Reynosa, Mexico. Another 1,000 Americans are without jobs. Their former U.S. workers were paid $10 to $12 per hour. The Mexicans will receive 75 cents an hour and work a nine hour day with no benefits. (This is called "progress"??)

Zenith was the last company which made TV sets within the U.S. Their new Mexican workers will average $75 per week which is higher than the $45 per week other U.S. companies pay their "slaves" south of the border. They give the workers two free meals a day consisting of cheap beans, tortillas and rice—just to keep them alive! Zenith will pay $1 million a year in taxes to Reynosa city officials who will pocket the money in this corruption pot.

The Mexicans survive in horrible slums. Most have no running water, electricity or sewage treatment. The company provides buses to haul them to work at 6:30 AM. Zenith already had 5 other plants there employing a total of 8,200 Mexicans.

MORE COMPANIES ALREADY IN MEXICO

Reynosa is a city of 750,000 impoverished people. However, other U.S. companies were already there exploiting these poor wretched people. They include Durkee-French Foods, General Electric Co., Sweetheart Cup Co. and Kraft, Inc. All these named are located in the same industrial park. It is fenced in like a concentration camp and surrounded by heavily armed guards. There are similar industrial parks all along the border which employ some 500,000 Mexican slave workers. The minimum wage in Mexico is only 48 cents an hour and this is all most of them will ever earn.

Zenith flew many of the Mexicans to Chicago for training. Most realize they are being exploited. One girl expressed it well: "I need the job and must work but the pay is unjust. I work the second shift and don't get off until 1 AM. People are afraid to ask for a raise and a strike would bring terrible retaliation."

STOP FREE TRADE

This is THE cry now coming from MEXICO! It is now recognized that Bush's Free Trade with Mexico will increase illegal immigration TO AMERICA. This is largely due to some actually paying their way into the US. The greatest danger now recognized, however, is that the small Mexican farmer will be wiped out. The huge corporate U.S. farms will put all of them out of business. It is estimated at this writing that Free Trade will force some million small Mexican farmers off their land. They will then be forced to cross into America (U.S.) in search of work to simply survive.

This one move is without a doubt the greatest threat to the standard of living for the people of the U.S. in history. It is all part and parcel of the New World Order—which, of course, is simply One World Government—ENFORCED.

AIDS: The Man-Made Satanic Holocaust

AIDS ESCALATING

In line with the Mexican poverty and enforced working rituals—comes the incredible punch-line: AIDS is moving to epidemic proportion in these poverty pouches of miserable humanity. This Man-made holocaust is ready to wipe out your world.

Yes indeed, we have something to assist in supporting better stamina and some measure of hope in the staving off of the invading organisms—but most will never have access to such. God offers you “Life cells” to counter the “Death viruses” created by MAN. But because Man created these diseases to destroy life—so too shall the same ones prevent widespread use of same.

I wonder how many of you even realize what we speak of? The book banned for distribution by our team is AIDS, THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE. It covers FAR more than AIDS—but it also speaks briefly about what to do to counter these diseases through Light frequencies and cellular re-structuring of the immune system and then the whole body. What does that little bit tell you? Others write on the subject, project its horrors and its source, etc.—but they have not known what to do about it! WE DO! We certainly DO NOT OFFER “CURE” OR “HEALING”—we give you something which will offer balance and allow healing of self through totally natural means with totally “available” natural and harmless substance. I suggest you, if you have any interest, look into GAIANDRIANA. [See the next-to-last pages for more information.]

I think since our book is no longer available widespread, we might well give you an insight into AIDS as a reminder or new information for you who do not know source.

AIDS — MAN-MADE HOLOCAUST

I will share with you a well done article from an Australian Journal, New Dawn, Jan. 1992:

The fact that AIDS is a man-made virus created in U.S. laboratories has been covered up. By Jason Jeffrey.

“America should withdraw from the Mediterranean, Europe and all foreign bases and it should save that money to create jobs for 12 million unemployed Americans, and contribute towards the elimination of the disease it manufactured like AIDS which was produced by the CIA at its laboratories and tested on American prisoners who took the virus with them to the outside world when released from prison and then it spread throughout the world.” Muammar Al-Quadhafi speaking at the International Conference for Peace in the Mediterranean, 4-6 May, 1990.

On July 4, 1984, the Indian daily Patriot published a horrifying report that the disease AIDS was believed to have originated from a virus created in the laboratories at the U.S. germ warfare research institute at Fort Detrick, Maryland. The editor explained that the information had come from a well-known American scientist and anthropologist who expressed the fear that India might face a danger from the disease in the near future. The American had to remain anonymous. He was obviously in danger for having disclosed so deadly a secret.

At that time, when the full horror of the incurable disease was not known, Patriot reported that the World Health Organization believed AIDS posed the gravest threat to the entire population of the world. More on the World Health Organization later.

The British Sunday Express, 26 October, 1986, with banner headlines, and an “exclusive” label, announced “AIDS made in lab. Shock.” The front-page story said that the virus was created during laboratory experiments which “went disastrously wrong”. It added that a massive cover-up had kept the secret from the world. The Sunday Express quoted a British expert, Dr. John Seale, who first reported his conclusion that the virus was man-made last August, 1986, in the Royal Society of Medicine Journal. He said that his report was met with a “deadly silence” from the medical profession, and that made him very suspicious. The editor of the Journal agreed, according to Dr. Seale, that “It sounded like a conspiracy of silence.” [H: Now, before we go further, run the “bill” to fund the creation of the HIV (AIDS) virus article HERE! [See next three pages.] It is past time you people open your eyes and see the facts. Some of these herein are totally incorrect but it gives you a good overview for important attention. Also, please, Dharma, find the little blurb on “Kissing” just come to our attention and place it right here. “KISS OF DEATH”: Dr. Helen Singer Kaplan, a professor at Cornell University Medical College, said in a recent interview with author Howard Fask, that AIDS can be easily spread by kissing, despite official pronouncements by the medical Establishment that it is impossible. “Saliva is an ideal environment for the AIDS virus,” she said. “You get denial from every side. They will say there are no reliable statistics, no scientific tests. They will tell you that my information is invalid, but I stand by my statements.” I stand behind her statements also—you have been lied to and “safe sex” through condom use is pretty hard to accomplish in the act of kissing.]

The second expert quoted by the Sunday Express was Prof. Jacob Segal, retired Director of the Institute of Biology in Berlin. It said, “Our investigators have revealed that two U.S. Embassy officials made a two-hour visit to Prof. Segal in his home two weeks ago questioning him about what he knows, what he thinks, where he got his information, and what he intends doing with his report.”

The Professor told the reporters, “One said he was a historian, and the other said he was a political consul. But I am positive they were from the CIA, and that they were deeply concerned that the cover-up over the origin of AIDS was going to be exposed.” I told them I had known that in the mid-70s experiments were being carried out at Fort Detrick, where the U.S. Army

Funding for Development of the AIDS Virus

The development of the AIDS virus was funded in 1969 (three years before the request for development by the World Health Organization) through funds obtained by the United States Defense Department. The Defense Department requested and received $10 million via House Bill 15090, which was reviewed in Hearings before the Subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives during the Ninety-First Congress in review of the Defense Appropriations for 1970.

Part Five of H.B. 15090 was entitled RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, TEST, AND EVALUATION, sponsored by the Department of the Army, the Advanced Research Project Agency (now DARPA), and Defense Research and Engineering.

The Feasibility program and laboratories were to have been completed by 1974-1975 and the virus between 1974-1979. The WHO started to inject AIDS-laced smallpox vaccine (Vaccina) into over 100 million Africans in 1977. Over 2000 young white male homosexuals (Operation Trojan Horse) were injected with laced Hepatitis B vaccine in 1978 through the Centers for Disease Control and the New York Blood Center. The development of the virus apparently had a dual purpose: (1) As a political/ethnic weapon to be used against black individuals and (2) one of the programmed efforts at de-population.

The session of the Subcommittee that took place on July 1, 1969, involved discussions about Synthetic Biological Agents. Part of the Congressional narrative (from HB 15090) is detailed below:

"There are two things about the biological agent field I would like to mention. One is the possibility of technological surprise. Molecular biology is a field that is advancing very rapidly and many eminent biologists believe that within a period of 5 to 10 years it would be possible to produce a synthetic biological agent, an agent that does not naturally exist and for which no natural immunity could have been acquired."

Mr Sikes: Are we doing any work in that field?

Dr. MacArthur: We are not.

Mr. Sikes: Why not? Lack of money or lack of interest?

Dr. MacArthur: Certainly not lack of interest.

Mr. Sikes: Would you provide for our records information on what would be required, what the advantages of such a program would be, the time and the cost involved?

Dr. MacArthur: We will be very happy to. The dramatic progress being made in the field of molecular biology led us to investigate the relevance of this field of science to biological warfare. A small group of experts considered this matter and provided the following observations:

1. All biological agents up to the present time are representatives of naturally occurring disease, and are thus known by scientists throughout the world. They are easily available to qualified scientists for research, either for offensive or defensive purposes.

2. Within the next 5 to 10 years, it would probably be possible to make a new infective microorganism which could differ in certain important aspects from any known disease-causing organisms. Most important of these is that it might be refractory to the immunological and therapeutic processes upon which we depend to maintain our relative freedom from infectious disease.

3. A research program to explore the feasibility of this could be completed in approximately 5 years at a cost of $10 million.

4. It would be very difficult to establish such a program. The science of molecular biology is a relatively new science. There are not many highly competent scientists in the field. Almost all are in university laboratories and they are generally adequately supported from sources other than DOD. However, it was considered possible to initiate an adequate program through the National Academy of Sciences National Research Council (NAS-NRC). The matter was discussed with NAS-NRC and tentative plans were made to initiate the program. However, decreasing funds in CB, growing criticism of the CB program, and our reluctance to involve the NAS-NRC in such a controversial endeavor have led us to postpone it for the past 2 years. It is a highly controversial issue and there are many who believe such research should not be undertaken lest it lead to yet another method of massive killing of large populations. On the other hand, without the sure scientific knowledge that such a weapon is possible, and an understanding of the ways it could be done, there is little that can be done to devise defensive measures. Should an enemy develop it there is little doubt that this an important area of potential military technological inferiority in which there is no adequate research program.

Actual creation of the virus was done through the Department of the Army at Fort George Meade and through the Department of the Navy. The name of the individual who was head of the Naval development program is known but will not be released at this time.

Medical RESEARCH Command has its headquarters, on volunteer long-term prisoners who were promised their freedom after the tests. Almost certainly the scientists were unaware of the extent of their terrible creation—the AIDS virus.

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION INVOLVEMENT

The third expert quoted in the Sunday Express was Dr. Robert Strecker, an internist and gastroenterologist from Glendale, California, who stated, "It must have been genetically engineered." Strecker believes, after years of exhaustive research, that the AIDS virus is indeed manmade. Strecker has alleged that AIDS was engineered at the request of the World Health Organization and other scientific groups who, according to Strecker, injected the disease during preventative vaccines. WHO, he says, along with the International Agency for Research on Cancer and The National Institute on Health, requested the production of a virus that would attack the immune system's T-cells. AIDS, he says, is a hybrid of two animal viruses—bovine leukemia (found in cattle) and a sheep brain virus called visna. This new virus was given as vaccinations in Haiti, Brazil, Africa and the Caribbean by WHO in a 13-year campaign against smallpox in Third World nations, reports indicate.

Strecker, in his 97-minute videotape, "The Strecker Memorandum", cites specific documentation supporting theories that AIDS is a result of that direct request. For example, from Volume 47 of Bulletin of the World Health Organization (1972), page 259:

"The effects of virus infection of different cell types (e.g., Macrophages, T and B lymphocytes) should be studied in greater detail with morphological changes perhaps serving as an indication of functional alteration..."

"The possibility should also be looked into that the immune response to the virus may itself be impaired if the infecting virus damages more or less selectively the cells responding to the viral antigens..."

In fact, a May 11, 1987 front page article in the London Times, headlined "Smallpox Vaccine Triggered AIDS Virus", said WHO was investigating new evidence suggesting that "immunization from the smallpox vaccine Vaccinia awakened the unsuspected, dormant human immuno defense virus infection (HIV)."

Vaccinia was the actual vaccine given as smallpox deterrents during the WHO project. Were the AIDS infections intentional, accidental or coincidence? According to Strecker in his "Memorandum", a key part of the actual study "was to be the time relationship between infection and antigen administration", which suggest

WHO officials—and other agencies who were directly dependent on the United States government for research grants—had to have known.

The denials were not long in coming. But the British Sunday Telegraph exposed itself. It said the story (the Sunday Express article) was invented by the Russians "to smear the Americans", and recalled that it had appeared in the Soviet journal, Literary Gazette. It said this paper based its report on the Patriot—and the Patriot report did not exist!

Professor Segal describes as "ludicrous and scientifically incredible" the theory that the virus came from African green monkeys. One thing is certain, the controversy surrounding the AIDS virus will not die.

A WEAPON AGAINST BLACK PEOPLE?

Zear Miles, a Black industrial engineer who has studied the AIDS virus and its origins for about six years, has stated that he has proof from various documentation and letters from other AIDS researchers to prove that the virus was made in an American military lab as a means to suppress Blacks.

In his document entitled "Rape Africa", Miles researched the origin of the AIDS virus from 1952, when the federal government had enough blood types and characteristics of every nationality in the world up to the King Alfred plan which called for the extinction of Blacks in national security emergencies.

Miles learned that through National Security Council Memorandum 46, dated 1978, which called for a possible way to gauge and control the impact of the growing Black movement, the government was researching possible ways to suppress Black hostility toward the authorities. Later called the King Alfred plan, the scheme called for the extinction of Blacks by the year 2000 with an AIDS-like virus.

Miles said he also gauged the increase in number of AIDS cases in which the number of Black contractors has gone up significantly compared with Whites, citing that the AIDS virus attacked a Black person's immune system and destroyed it in six weeks as opposed to a White person's time of six months.

THE EVIDENCE

What is the evidence available to the layman? First the initial cases were reported in New York and there is no dispute that Fort Detrick was working on immunological defense against infection. The British Guardian reported on October 27, 1986, that in 1969 evidence was given to a Washington Appropriation Committee that "within the next five or ten years it would probably be possible to make a new infective micro-organism which would differ from any known disease-causing organism. Most important, that it might be refractory to the immunological and therapeutic properties on which we depend to maintain our relative freedom from infectious disease." "Refractory," means, according to the Oxford Dictionary, "not yielding to treatment." AIDS answers precisely to that description.

On September 24, 1986, the Daily Telegraph reported from Washington, "Enough of a debilitating virus to infect the whole world, disappeared from an American germ-warfare laboratory five years ago, and has never been traced, an environment group claimed yesterday in a Washington Court action aimed at halting biological weapons research."

In 1986, the J.D. Bernal Peace Library organized a conference on the dangers of biological warfare research. Ritchie Calder said then that among the weapons being stockpiled were some designed to bring about genetic changes. He said the "doomsday bug was under wraps" and that there was "a conspiracy of silence about germ weapons because the implications were so frightening."

He told the British Daily Mirror after his address that "somewhere in the world a germ is being cultured to which we would have no natural resistance and to which there would be no sure defense." [H: Ah so—and therefore there must be something presented which will create its own defense while targeting the very mutated cells introduced. Remember that the HIV virus MUTATES WITH EVERY INDIVIDUAL IT INFECTS—THEREFORE PROVING IT TO BE SELECTIVE IN ITS ABILITY TO CONFORM AS NECESSARY. SO, TO ALTER THAT PATH OF DESTRUCTION YOU HAVE TO INTRODUCE SOMETHING LIKEWISE CAPABLE OF INDIVIDUAL SELECTION WITHIN THE VERY CELLS CONTAINING THE VIRUS AS WELL AS GIVING FULL RESTORATION OF THE VERY IMMUNE SYSTEM AFFECTED. THAT IS WHAT IS OFFERED HERE—GAIANDRIANA—THE VERY STRUCTURE THAT CHANGES ITSELF INTO THE IDENTICAL PERFECTION OF THE DNA/RNA BLUEPRINT OF EVERY LIVING CELL. IT HAS BEEN RETURNED TO YOU—BY US, THE HOSTS—AND WILL BECOME EVEN MORE PROFICIENT IN ITS SELECTION AS YOU ENTER INTO THAT DAMNABLE "PHOTON BELT" AS IT THRIVES ON THE INVISIBLE HIGHER ULTRA VIOLET FREQUENCIES. {See next-to-last pages for more information on this.} Simple? Indeed! But, you aren't going to get it in a hospital ward, chemical house, pharmaceutical house of death drugs, or in the pits of Gay-ville or Lower

Somalian food lines. By the way, do you ones realize that almost NONE of the needy villages in Somalia have received any food help AT ALL? What might that tell you about that Somalian operation? Villages have been simply driven by and passed up to get to the media-directed towns selected for show and tell.]

A precise description of AIDS:

The British Observer, on June 30, 1968, quoted from an article in the Journal of General Microbiology by W.D. Lawton of Fort Detrick, and R.C. Morris and T.W. Burrows of the British microbiological research station at Porton.

One paragraph said, "By engineering the genetics of individual strains, microbiologists aim to produce a single strain containing the most deadly combination of properties." Again, a description of AIDS.

The article says that at that time Porton, according to the government, was concerned only with defense applications of research, but Fort Detrick was only committed to developing microbiological weapons for offense.

The Japanese carried out germ warfare research in occupied China during the war. Some of these criminals were captured by the Soviets and duly tried and sentenced. Others were given immunity by the Americans and taken to work at Fort Detrick.

In 1969, after the AIDS virus was loose, negotiations began on a Convention banning biological weapons, and it came into force in 1972. In its first review conference in 1980, it was reported that 80 countries had ratified. But there is no provision in the Convention to ban research or for verification.

A much more recent accusation against the United States for the manufacturing of the AIDS virus comes from the Libyan UN Ambassador, Mr. Ali Ahmed Elhouderi. On January 9, 1992, at a press conference, he stated that the AIDS virus was produced in a laboratory probably as a weapon. He said, "We think it is man-made and it was done in laboratories. And it was not, as suggested, coming from monkeys in Africa." He also suggested that the virus had been manufactured at the time of the Vietnam War. These statements fit perfectly into place as research would have been carried out at that time at Fort Detrick for offensive purposes against the North Vietnamese.

AIDS WAS MAN-MADE

On all the circumstantial evidence, the layman will almost certainly reject the idea that the escape of the man-made AIDS virus was the result of a disastrous error during innocent civilian research. We can assuredly conclude that it was the result of germ warfare research, and the finger of guilt points to the United States.

The scientists could not have visualized that they would let loose a so-far incurable disease that may and possibly will wipe out millions, particularly in the Third World, where the majority of the world's population lives. Never was the need greater for the nations to drop their differences and to concentrate all their skill and resources in a world-wide battle against this terrible threat, and to end the horror of germ warfare research.

THIS IS END OF ARTICLE BEING QUOTED.

This is NOT the end of the subject and I would hope if you have our JOURNAL dealing with this matter, you will refresh your minds about it as to causes and possible treatments.

I must take this more "private" route of contacting ones in Australia who have sent me petition for consideration. At this time I shall not respond directly for it is far too dangerous to you and to our projects here. However, yes indeed, MN, you shall be considered and when appropriate, contacted, as to ability to have the Gaiandriana. Your inquiry came regarding the other offered product—but this is so far more sufficient that comparison can hardly be made. There are too many immediate problems to be worked out and security set forth for protection but, indeed, we will not only welcome ones who will serve but we need you. There will be ways to handle the matter. The better approach would be a branch type of structure to safeguard the product and yourselves as to business venture as well as insuring total representation and not misrepresentation of the product. Until this can be worked out—you can get the product from here according to instructions elsewhere in this paper or JOURNAL I believe.

There are already ones in New Zealand and South Africa who will likewise have opportunity as well as in Canada, etc. We do, however, have to get this massive train off the side-track and rolling. Every day our developers are finding amazing responses to what I ask that they do—and therefore, please realize that WE HAVE ONLY JUST BEGUN!! To stop this will be the same as being able to prevent your getting food and water—it is so natural—bearing the very cell structure of life itself. We refuse to allow it into the hands of the international rip-off merchandisers of the world so we must work carefully. I ask patience and we shall "get there"!

There are other products which support and aid in the workings of Gaiandriana which we shall also make available, but, if you can only have ONE—get the Gaiandriana for it renews the very cellular structure of your own body and then, all the rest can be utilized to perfection.

We are receiving reports daily of ones who have witnessed improved function in everything from Parkinson's disease, Alzheimer's, to simple improvement in the feeling of "well-being"—and this in only a couple of days of intake. Miracle? YOU are the miracle! May insight be your guide.

Dharma, enough. This is far too lengthy but the days are so filled that we may not have another opportunity to write in this week early-on. The way seems hard and impassable in these times of trouble but know that if you do of thine work—we shall do of ours! Salu.

Hatonn to stand aside, thank you.

"HE-GOATS" AND A LITTLE HORN (Part III And End Of Series)

Goats, those useful, ruminant creatures, have been of great service to mankind. This article does not pertain to these of God's creatures, but to some of the symbology that has gathered around them through the associations of peoples, prophesy, and secret societies down through the years.

Surprisingly, the symbol of the goat is meaningful indeed in regard to the rise and fall of nations, their leaders and the End Times. It is necessary to take a very broad and comprehensive view of history in order to see the many, often subtle, connections. I think our general focus on what is happening "now" keeps many from realizing the importance of the world's historical past and its forgotten but significant events. We need to learn from history if we ever hope to reclaim our nation!

One thing that is obvious from my consumption of "history" books is that it is almost impossible to trace people — from whence they came, their leaders etc. The problems mount when countries and places and people change their names. Also, our world has a very violent past. Tribes and people were "wiped out" without a qualm and much history has been conveniently rewritten or even-more-conveniently erased! There has, nevertheless, existed a core group of wealthy, militant, greedy, power-seeking people throughout history. Unfortunately, this "core" still exists. This article is another attempt to show the truth of that statement.

A good place to start doing your own research is a history book with timetables. The number of wars listed is incredible. Most of them were instigated due to an expansionist policy of the leaders. (In other words, to move in with force and deprive a weaker brother of his life and property.) And as if this were not bad enough, these clever aggressors then assumed the name of those they have dispossessed and continue under an "innocent" label! I bring this to your attention so you will understand that, for instance, some of the prophecies in the Bible, while they deal with a particular manifestation of "power", do not necessarily indicate that these "powers" vanished, to be seen no more. On the contrary, it was the "good" guys who "left" (i.e., the Sumarians, the Aegeans, the Celts, etc.) or became subjugated to the aggressors. There is a statement in the book titled The People of the Secret, by Ernest Scott, which tells how a "defeat" suffered by these "people" is handled. Their policy is:

1. One-third of the group migrates (or moves to a more congenial host country).
2. One-third stays, but goes "underground" (i.e., changes their name, religion, habits, associations in order to conceal their identity).
3. One-third infiltrates or "joins" the new group in power in order to eventually subvert or modify that power and to regain their own when the time is right.

The above policy is said to have insured the survival of this "group" throughout the centuries. It can be stated loud and clear here that America has been that "more congenial host" to all too many who have not repaid the hospitality or generosity in kind. Indeed, we have all too innocently (and ignorantly) opened our doors to even our proclaimed enemies.

I was intrigued by discovering that, for example, Gothland means Goatland. Then I remembered that one of Daniel's prophecies in the Bible tells about a great HE-GOAT, and looked it up. The prophecy is found in the Biblical book of Daniel, Chapter 8. To shorten the story for you, I will summarize it: There is a great RAM before the river Ulai, having two great horns (Media and Persia). This Ram goes out to conquer and destroy. It meets with a great, rough HE-GOAT with one great horn (Alexander the Great, of Greece), and is moved with "choler" against it. The HE-GOAT wins the ensuing battle. When the "great-horn" is broken, the kingdom is divided among four of lesser capacity. Out of one of these four will, in the later days, arise "a little horn" which "waxes great, even to the Host of Heaven, and by him the daily sacrifice will be taken away and the place of his sanctuary cast down." (Dan 8:3-12) Further, Dan. 8:24 states, "And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power, and he shall destroy wonderfully and shall prosper and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and holy people. (8:25) And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart; and by peace shall destroy many; he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand." (Emphasis mine, Nora.)

From the above it would seem that the "little horn that waxes great", and who will fight the Prince of princes" in the later days will have his roots in the area dominated by Alexander the Great of Greece and be descended from one of those who gained a portion of that kingdom when Alexander died. That "kingdom" included Greece, Turkey, Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Iraq, Iran, Armenia, and parts of other areas, including that now known as Rumania and Bulgaria (Anatolia) and temporarily parts of what is now known as Afghanistan, Pakistan and India.

The book, The Timetables of History, lists the four leaders who gained the kingdom after Alexander thusly: Macedonia goes to Cassander as regent; Thrace (The Balkan area) to Lysimachus; Egypt to Ptolemy Soter; and Asia (Turkey, Medo-Persia) to Antigonus (in 311 B.C.). There is not much further detail regarding the lives and fortunes of these particular men. Alexander himself was descended from Phillip II of Macedon (Greece). It is interesting that one of the titles of Prince Phillip, the present consort of Queen Elizabeth, is Prince of Macedon! This does not mean that Prince Phillip is the one prophesied in the Book of Daniel.

What it does mean is that there may be a geneology table somewhere among the "ruling houses" that could tell us more. According to the above named history book, the Byzantine Emperor, Basil I, began the Macedonian dynasty and the compilation of the Basilian code. The ancestry of Basil I would be the next question, as well as the ancestry of the other three leaders. Such a search would probably be fruitless in any event because the one who "stands up against the Prince of princes" is obviously an incarnation of one of those very dark entities having not as much to do with the ancestors as with his own life choices.

On the other hand, close relatives of the Macedonian dynasty, and/or families involved with the three other leaders after Alexander, and their descendents, have been identified as the ones from whom this person comes. It is interesting too that Nostradamus identified the area of Hister (Anatolia) as the source of the problem of the Nazis, etc.

Therefore what comes from this area historically as well as currently, needs our attention, for the "seed" has obviously been spread throughout the various countries due to the intermarriages of the "upper class" and their hold-on power. The "House of Windsor" today is an obvious example of a long period of power and alliances with other powerful families. (I will have to make this house the subject of another article, for it plays a critical role in our present age.) My purpose here is to show that, it need not be as many have assumed, that the "Anti-Christ" (or one of them) will come necessarily from the immediate area of the Middle East. This person will have his roots in the Middle East, but obviously could also have become part of a well established "house" or “group” elsewhere!

Since the term, “rough he-goat”, was taken from a Biblical source, I consulted my Bible Concordance for more information. It is the Hebrew word, “tsaphir”, which is rendered as he-goat. Also, the Hebrew word, “attud” is translated as “chief ones”, which is the metaphorical rendering of “he-goats” in the R.V. margin. The Hebrew “sair” (rough, shaggy) is the term given to the goat of the sin offering, and another Hebrew word, “tayish”, means he-goat. The original Hebrew (as shown in the Concordance chart on animals) gives the word “yael” for wild goat! Any word which includes the word “el” in it indicates that it was considered a “god” at some time, for “el” means God.

It should also be noted, that as “attud”, and “tsaphir” are metaphorically translated as “chief ones” (or “chief princes”), we need to look at who are called by this term in the Bible. A very pertinent reference to consider, for our present time in history, is that of Ezekiel 38:1-3 and 39:1, where the “chief princes” of Meshech and Tubal, from the land of Gog and Magog (translated as China and Mongolia-Russia) are the ones who will invade the U.S. of A., according to Hatonn. They will come up from over the North Pole and invade Israel (with a small i), which means God’s people. (Meshech and Tubal were descendents of Japheth, according to Biblical accounts.)

My Bible Concordance has several maps which locate the various “kingdoms” of Biblical times, as well as where the various groups settled. Meshech and Tubal were in early times located in the area south of the Black Sea, or in what is now known as Turkey or the former Ottoman Empire. It is interesting, also, that during the hey-day of Phoenician trade with Palestine, Meshech was one of the traders (See Ezekiel 27) or merchants!

From the above it appears that, at the time of the fulfillment of Ezekiel’s prophecy (if it is fulfilled, and it need not be), either Meshech and Tubal will be already a part of Russia, or they will be aligned with the group that attacks the U.S. of A. The Scripture could also pertain more particularly to the “chief princes of Meshech and Tubal” — the merchants of the Black Sea area. It is the very wealthy or “upper class” who are part of the Elite Committee of 300, the group that controls our world. In all probability it will be this group, that has its roots in the former area ruled by Alexander the Great. It is likely this group that has put forth, supports, and is being directed by the Anti-Christ. (Ref: Conspirators’ Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300, by Dr. John Coleman.)

I know it is a little hazy about “who” is the “Anti-Christ”. From the Scripture regarding the “goat with the little horn that waxes strong” at the time of the end, we know that he will become great, but “not by his own power”. Therefore, the source of the problem is from his supporters!

As with Hitler, it takes money to run a war. (See my article titled “The Hister Connection” in the 1/12/93 issue of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.) Remember, too, that it is the barbarians and very wealthy class who become “chief ones” in the first place. They overcame vast numbers of people through war, took land and slaves, and set themselves up to rule the countries, taxing the people. That “rough he-goat”, metaphorically interpreted as “chief ones”, is itself a major clue to the true identity and nature of these people!

I did some review of Russian history in an attempt to find some link between the words used in prophecy with the Russian words for “chief one”, or perhaps “he-goat”. The “chief one” of Russia is called a “tsar”, or “csar”. It would be stretching a point to identify “tsar” with the Hebrew “tsaphir”, meaning “chief one”. Still, there is a decided connection here.

The New Larned History book has a very interesting article on the assumption (in 1547 A.D.) of the title “tzar” by Ivan IV (known as Ivan the Terrible). On page 7346 it states, “The name of TZAR is that which the books in the Slavonic language, ordinarily read by Ivan, was given to the kings of Judea, Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, and to the Emperors of Rome and Constantinople. Now, was not Ivan in some sort heir of the TSAR NEBUCHADNEZZAR, the TZAR PHAROAH, the TZAR AHASUERUS, and the TSAR DAVID, since Russia was the sixth empire spoken of in the Apocalypse? Through his grandmother, Sophia Palaeologus, he was connected with the TZARS of Byzantium; through his ancestor Vladimir Monomachus, he belonged to the Porphyrogeniti and through Constantine the Great to Cesar.... We may imagine what prestige was added to the dignity of the Russian sovereign by the dazzling title, borrowed from Biblical antiquity, from Roman majesty, from the orthodox sovereigns of Byzantium”. (— A. Rambaud, History of Russia, V.1, Ch. 15)

This title (TSAR) is not a corruption of the word “Cesar”, as many have supposed, but is an Oriental word which the Russians acquired through the Slavic translation of the Bible, and which they bestowed at first on the Greek emperors, and afterwards the Tartar Khans. In Persia it signifies throne, supreme authority; and we find it in the termination of names of the kings of Assyria and Babylon, such as Phalassar, Nabonasser, etc. — Karamsin.” (W.K. Kelly, History of Russia, V.1, p. 125 footnote: The opinion of a celebrated Russian historian differs from the preceding. He says: “The term ‘tsar’ is, I need hardly say, only a Southern Slavonic and Russian abbreviated form of the Latin ‘Cesar’, just as a different pronunciation of the same word has produced the German title of ‘Kaiser’.” — V.O. Kluchevsky, History of Russia, V.2, p. 20. “Von Hammer, in his last note to his 31st book, says “The title of CZAR or TZAR is an ancient title of Asiatic sovereigns. We find an instance of it in the title, “The Schar”, of the sovereign of Gurdisan; and in that of TZARINA...of the Scythians” E.S. Creasy, History of the Ottoman Turks, p. 213 footnote.” Don’t forget that the “Scythians” were the “Khazars”!

There are further references to be found in the Oxford English Dictionary, under the subject: Tsar, Csar — so in the Dictionary of Selected Synonyms in the Principal Indo-European Languages by Carl Darling Buck, under the subject: Social Relations, Emperors, 1934. (I am indebted to former Slavic Language and Linguistics graduate student, S.S., for presenting this valuable dictionary to me.)

If one applies the knowledge already given in my previous articles regarding the interchangeable consonants and vowels, one can see how easily the various written forms of the title TSAR or CZAR obtained their forms in other languages. A very good way, in my opinion, to look at these words is:

KHaZaR
KaiZeR
C eZaR
C ZaR

The consonants are capitalized, the vowels are shown in small letters.

According to Hatonn, it is the “Khazars” who are the problem, along with their adversarial cohorts who total 3% to 5% of our population. It cannot be insignificant that the Khazars came from Gothland (Goatland) which provides more clues to the symbolic meaning of “he-goat”, and the descendents of same!

You will notice, also, if you do read the full account in the Scriptures, that this great “he-goat” pushed north, south, east and west. That “Ivan the Terrible” had roots in Rome and Greece and Assyria came as news to me. Perhaps it should not have been as surprising as it was. It is one of the reasons I brought it to your attention. Further, that Ivan saw his country as being the “sixth beast of the Apocalypse” needs your full consideration. The numbers of the beasts described in the Bible are more than six, and I would hesitate to identify which “beast” Ivan identified with himself. There is mention of a Bear, there is also the Red Horse, etc. Beyond that the number 6 is itself significant. Did Ivan know something we didn’t know? It almost sounds like he had an advance program of the play!

Before ending this article I want to bring the "Goat of Mendes" or "Baphomet" of the Masonic Secret Societies to your awareness. It bears strong connections to the Khazars, or "chief ones" in symbolism and in purpose. Masonry provides that "opportunity" for furthering any secret group's ambitions for world control under a cloak of "PEACE", "brotherhood", "business" or "charity". Keep in mind that most persons who join these groups are not part of the problem. Nevertheless, the major enticement to membership is to further "business relations". It ends there for most people. Beyond that, there are some pretty horrendous oaths one must take in order to become a member — oaths which give total loyalty to an "unknown" head.

For me, the image of this "goat" is revolting. I expect that is a typical response. However, the image is probably promoted as more of an occasion for "hijinks" than in any other way. If you look up "goat" in the Oxford English Dictionary you will find succeeding subjects such as goat-beard, goat-god, goatish, etc., words providing ample opportunities to divert attention from this actually obscene image.

According to the dictionary, "goat-god" referred to PAN, a "god" of nature. Unfortunately, the symbolism has been used to further the doctrine of the "humanist", or "nature lovers" in the sense of "free-love", etc. That the Hebrews were formerly involved in "fertility cults" is well known. Now that we know they also had a "goat-god" named "yael", one can see some of the antiquity of Masonic symbolism and the place it holds in history. (Ref: The Encyclopedia Judaica and the Jewish Encyclopedia). It is true also that the Mongolian barbarians (Khazars) practiced magic and were "phallic worshippers". (There is an account of their practices and beliefs in the book The Vinland Map and the Tartar Relations.)

In Volume 19, #8 of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR a map was printed showing the Masonic Symbols in the Washington D.C. street layout. In explanation of the map we were told that the short streets behind the Capital, and the circle enclosing it, form the head and ears of what SATANISTS call the Goat of Mendes or Goat's Head. This article helps to show how early Masonry got a hold on the U.S. of A.

My only personal experience with the Satanists' Goat was in seeing a poster of it on the wall of an apartment where some runaway teenagers had congregated, and had totally demolished the apartment. What happened to the damaged property was a small matter in comparison to what eventually happened to the teenagers. The teenagers admitted to the police at the time that they were playing with witchcraft. The picture was the same as that shown later in this article.

More recently, a friend gave me an old copy of Albert Pike's book Morals and Dogmas. Albert Pike was considered one of the great figures in Masonry. The book was written in 1871. There are two passages identifying this "goat" in Mr. Pike's book:

1. (page 734): "There is in nature one most potent force, by means whereof a single man, who could possess himself of it, and should know how to direct it, could revolutionize and change the face of the world.

"This force was known to the ancients. It is a universal agent, whose supreme law is equilibrium; and whereby, if science can but learn how to control it, it will be possible to change the order of the seasons, to produce in night the phenomena of day, to send a thought in an instant round the world, to heal or slay at a distance, to give our words universal success, and make them reverberate everywhere.

"This agent, partially revealed by the blind guesses of the disciples of Mesmer, is precisely what the adepts of the middle ages called the elementary mother of the great work. The Gnostics held that it composed the igneous body of the Holy Spirit; and it was adored in the secret rites of Sabbat or the Temple, under the hieroglyphic figure of Baphomet or the hermaphrodite goat of Mendes...With this electromagnetic ether, this vital luminous calorie, the ancients and alchemists were familiar."

2. (page 818): "It is absurd to suppose that men of intellect adored a monstrous idol called Baphomet, or recognized Mahomet as an inspired prophet. Their symbolism, invented ages before, to conceal what it was dangerous to avow, was of course misunderstood by those who were not adepts, and to their enemies seemed to be pantheistic."

From the above it is clear that a "goat of Mendes called Baphomet" is an important symbol of Masonry. That it looks like the Devil Himself can be seen in Manly Palmer Hall's Book The Secret Teachings Of All Ages, Masonic, Hermetic, Qabbalistic and Rosicrucian Symbolical Philosophy, page CI. The title of this page is: "Ceremonial Magic and Sorcery." A copy of the picture is on page 24 for you to see. Understand that Mr. Hall was a Mason.

The Goat of Mendes, or Baphomet, appears to be the figure of a human with large black wings coming from the shoulders; a black goat's head with two long black horns and a central protrusion on top of the head emitting fire or light, there is a five-pointed star (or pentagram) on the forehead; the right arm has the word "salve" printed on it, the left arm "coagula"; the legs are covered with a cloth, and cloven hoofs protrude below; the lower abdomen shows an unknown (to me) symbol or device — perhaps relating to what Mr. Pike calls "electro-magnetic energy". The artist was Eliphaz Levi and the picture was taken from Levi's Transcendental Magic. The "universal life force", according to Mr. Hall's book, is the "astral light".

Read again what Mr. Pike said in 1871 about controlling the seasons, and sending universal messages, etc. Someone had access to, or was in touch with, some extraordinary knowledge by the year 1871! Where do you suppose it came from?

When you examine the picture of Baphomet, look closely at that "little horn" coming out at the top of the head. What does it symbolize?

Further, for those of you who are not aware of it, Hatonn told us that the "password" of the Masons is "Tubal-Cain". "Tubal" is one of those "chief princes" described in the Bible, who came up from the north to invade Israel (God's people). "Cain" was the son of Adam who slew his brother "Abel". (Gen. 4:8). According to my Bible Concordance, "Tubal-Cain" means: "producers of weapons." (Gen. 4:22).

In regard to the symbolism of that "goat with the little horn" coming from the descendants of the "chief princes" of Alexander's former kingdom, remember: it was the "crowned" heads of Europe who promoted Freemasonry through their agents. Most of these "agents" were themselves titled people. In reading Mackey's History of Freemasonry it is clear that Masonry did not really become widespread until after the "Royal" heads promoted it. The idea given out for the membership's consumption was the prestige of the "King's" endorsement and support. "Royal" heads were members! Let me ask you Freemasons, how many of you have met, much less been visited in your clubhouse by, any "titled" people? It seems to me, in fact, that when "Royalty" visits, the rule is "touch me not"! So—it was propaganda with a purpose — similar to the propaganda that led the elite "high Germans" to brainwash the "low Germans" into thinking they (the grunts who had to go to war and do the fighting) were also part of the "Master Race". "Chief Princes" never share their power or their prestige, they use it, and you! "Chief princes" are the rough he-goats! Further, America went through a Revolutionary War to get out from under those taxes and control of the "Royal Heads". Through Masonry, and the flattery of "royalty", many good men in America have, through fantastic oaths, given over their loyalty to someone "unknown", but not to the United States of America.

So—what exactly did the "chief princes" gain? From those in the lower grades of

From Levi's Transcendental Magic.

BAPHOMET, THE GOAT OF MENDES.

The practice of magic—either white or black—depends upon the ability of the adept to control the universal life force—that which Eliphas Levi calls the great magical agent or the astral light. By the manipulation of this fluidic essence the phenomena of transcendentalism are produced. The famous hermaphroditic Goat of Mendes was a composite creature formulated to symbolize this astral light. It is identical with Baphomet, the mystic pantheos of those disciples of ceremonial magic, the Templars, who probably obtained it from the Arabians.

Masonry, they took your time and money and, through the idea of “brotherhood”, influenced you toward the New World Order. From those in the higher grades, they exacted more. (For further reading on Freemasonry I suggest a number of Commander Hatonn’s writings in the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Also, Omni Book Club has many books addressing this subject. Write P.O. Box 900566, Palmdale, CA 93590.) This is not to say that many Masons have not also provided worthwhile acts of charity. Could this have been done in some other way?

I have a personal question for Masons: Were you influenced to wave yellow ribbons, and support the troops over-seas? I have no problem with the idea of “supporting the troops” It is the way it is done. How about questioning the wisdom of sending them in the first place? “Our” troops are now under Communist leadership. “Our” country is now at the mercy of Gog, Magog, and the Chief Princes of Tubal and Meshech!

Matters Of Priority To Set The Record Straight

1/30/93 #1 HATONN

PRIORITIES

I would remind you ones of MY mission so that you might better understand why our presentations do not always match your own perception of what should be done and in what order to accomplish same.

Ours is to prepare, bring Truth out of the shambles of the tampered-with disinformation and misinformation—in other words, we call it THE WORD.

Next, we must awaken the sleepy-heads who do not see that which has come down upon your globe through powerful, controlling influences in a totally humanistic issue of slavery/master.

We must speak of that which is WRONG, analyze it and then when we see and understand that which has come to be—consider what can be done to counter the rolling blob of would-be freedom and Truth killers.

The enemy must be identified and his modus operandi studied and a defense planned, orchestrated, and instrumented.

Players and leaders must be isolated and brought into the forefront in wisdom and working notice so that you-the-people can see that which MIGHT be accomplished in various segments of action. I.e.: what is probable, what is possible and what action might well sufficiently counter and then finally, turn the circumstances “about” (revolution if you will)—but without violence, overthrow or illegality.

NATURAL CHANGES

“NATURAL” is a misnomer. What you will undergo as the Earth upheavals take place—are both “natural” and “manmade”. The resulting situation will be the same in most instances as your survival and lives become more and more controlled by those happenings.

Our service is to offer to you who would receive, ways to defend selves. This does not mean with fisticuffs, guns or bombs. However, it DOES mean (first: in America where you still have a great Constitution to save) saving of your foundationed plans for government. Those original documented rules lacked perfection—but were corrected in the Bill of Rights. The fact that the laws have not been followed is not a mark of the measure of the original documents—but Man's tampering and bigoted rules set forth by “legislation”. For instance, as Amendments were added, the Native American citizen was given full rights—BUT, that did not exclude the laws of the “treaties” granting them their land rights. Actually, you see, in all instances—THEIR LAND was confiscated and, now, so are the lands set aside by “treaty”. But—you cannot just go take the land back and proclaim it to be OK. You are stuck, now, with having to do it through the “Constitution” or NOT AT ALL! You cannot take it with guns for the Elite have the BIGGER GUNS. I use this only as an example (a parable if you will), so don't go crazy.

Further, it means that to regain individual sovereignty—you MUST start where you CAN DO SO. You must see what can be done at community, county and then state levels of organization of government—THEN, you can bring pressure to bear on the Feds. The government has become totally topsy-turvy and you are now run by the government, not the government run by you-the-people. In addition—you are forced to pay for your slavery.

In addition to these insights, we are to point out some changes of natural evolution—i.e., this so-called “Photon Belt” now creeping upon you with very damaging X-rays (for lack of better definition in understanding). Yes, we can and have brought information and structured substance to allow you to do very well in those frequencies of light rays. The same thing will allow cellular good health and enhancement of the living immune system. [See pages 38 and 39 for product information, especially the Gaiandriana.]

I note that Chlorella was listed first in the discussion brochure regarding some recommended “things” to assist you to good health. That is error in placement for it would indicate its priority of importance—it is NOT first in importance—it might well be last. It is a natural algae and could be substituted out with other algae forms. ANYTHING with Gaiandriana (this is not just a trade-name) is FIRST and LAST in importance. If you had nothing other than this one substance you could do nicely.

Our staff, in an effort to “underplay” the significance of the offering to keep clear of regulators—are not ever going to give you more than a smattering of its importance. I am now, however, writing on the subject and shall continue to give you a full explanation of what it is and how it works.

I have given explicit and very technical details to the researchers so that testing and perfection of product can be accomplished. Phenomenal claims are pouring in from ones who suffer the debilitations of a myriad of malfunctions from Diabetes, Carcinomas, etc., to head-colds. I am happy to share the results but I remind EVERYONE—Man cures self and anything utilized by Man is simply a tool. It is simply a giving of the substances “missing” which accomplishes the ability to reclaim a measure of good health. If you go forth and claim “miracle cure”—you will be in gross error for you will simply make sure you DO NOT HAVE IT FOR YOUR USE.

GAIANDRIANA

These improvements in health and well-being are nice—but the thing we need attended is that allowance of the cellular structure as is to be able to speed up its frequency levels to more nearly match the rays pouring in upon you—that is what is made possible with gaiandriana—a living cellular structure which duplicates any DNA blueprint in every and all living cells. Instead of mutations when attacked by something or other such as a virus—the cells are able to destroy the virus because of the capabilities naturally of a strong immune system. These little friends match an individual's cellular DNA according to body location and individual. The cells can cross cellular walls and reach the invading virus, etc. It acts just the opposite of what could be exemplified as the HIV virus which mutates to every individual attacked. The invading virus, for instance, is a “foreign” influence and must be discarded or devoured—the gaiandriana perfects the cells and does the foreign body removal—just as do the normally operating immune system cells. EVERY “disease” is caused by “foreign” invasion and/or MALFUNCTION. This can occur at any time from conception to day of death of the body. If genes are damaged then some cells will not produce and reproduce. If this occurs in formation of a fetus—obviously you have malformations. Nothing is apt to help that which is not formed—but anything formed and caused to malfunction by foreign body intake—can be given proper recovery of itself. This will not, however, be true of some heavy metal poisons, radiation death of cells, etc. However, it can allow restructuring and recovery of all DAMAGED cellular structure. This will assist in all sorts of a myriad of incapacitations. [Again, please see the next-to-last pages for Gaiandriana information.]

THE LIBERATOR

We must find ways to allow the LIBERATOR to be insured printing with priority information even if I am unable to participate because of the lack of time for my scribe. This, for instance, is only the second time this week that we have been able to give any time to such material. Dharma has had a massive load of more eviction deadlines, federal court misery over the America West/University of Science and Philosophy mess and meetings in which I must make presentation and instruction as to all of these other things.

I have to ask you readers to be patient as errors slip through. There is one major error in "hot-line" information which is worthy of recognition herein. HOWEVER, AS THINGS BEGAN TO HAPPEN I INSISTED ON WAITING TO CORRECT THE MISINFORMATION. I WILL, HOWEVER, OUTLAY IT HERE AND GIVE YOU MY REASONS FOR DELAY.

GUNTHER RUSSBACHER

We were informed that through the "Cosmos"-gate that there would be a forced release of one Gunther Russbacher—before Christmas. Then, we were told from very dependable authority that it would not be prior to Christmas but immediately thereafter. In early January, we received a hurried call from a good friend, Ray Renick, who came by information from a radio station person that Gunther had been released on Dec. 29, and Rayelan (wife) and Gunther were gone to Germany and would be returning to both being on board for interviews. I am remiss; I KNEW that the very act of "Cosmos" wags making the statement—caused an immediate shut-down of his release. My own assumption was that the release had been made after the original date presented. I knew that Rayelan had gone to Germany—to hopefully get support to continue Gunther's battle.

The day that the error was noted, came another call from Ray stating that there was error in some of the details and that Gunther was NOT released and Rayelan went alone to Europe. On that day there was a mandatory court hearing and then these other massively important and urgent assaults hit my crew. Dharma was beside herself to correct the error and, yes indeed, I said "No, hold up—things are happening just like I want them to unfold." Then we got a very nice letter from one RA (MO) noting the error. Dharma was now in a state of agitation over it and I again said, "No, hold up—I know that which I do." I could see the route taking shape—I wanted Gunther to come into recognition of this matter and respond to our glaring error. I needed to see the path of information flow and, chelas, I will bait my snares however I see fit and most worthy.

It has come full circle now and I can write about this matter—Gunther has written to us. I am touched by his correspondence and, frankly, we need to see what KIND OF MAN IS THIS! Gunther is interesting, to say the very least. He pilots an SR-71 and other sophisticated aircraft. He is extremely dangerous to the Administration (old and new) and resides in a long-term prison-setting on fully trumped up charges. That is beside the point because all charges against such persons are "trumped up".

He has not said anything about these things—he just wants out, now, and finds his way blocked at every turn. Therefore, he is most interested in the Constitutional Law Center. I have already spoken on the unfortunate disadvantage of being, actually, a foreign citizen FIRST. He is an officer in the U.S. Navy (regardless of how the records are written) but Constitutionally the case is most tedious.

This is a case of pretty much unforeseen circumstances. He was literally (if this ever comes out) set up to set-up and keep an eye on Rayelan. She had been working with ones on the October Surprise book and knew quite a lot (it turns out that Gunther flew Bush back in an SR-71 from Paris). She had also been married to a very high ranking Naval officer. Gunther was (I guess only a bit more buffered now) a rather dashing "James Bond" who was having a great time in all the subterfuge and antics of the Special Forces, CIA, etc., intrigue. This story is much better told by participants—so I shall not spoil it here.

Rayelan has another "calling", however, that was once most clear and noted by us of this Command—she even received to some extent from ME. This did not make her way easy and immediately ones of the "New Age" community were sent in to dash those connections. Same ones were sent in to ruin Dharma's capabilities—only we were a bit stronger in this instance for needs and connections were different.

So, what of Gunther Russbacher? Well, I will tell you this much—for our own connections are not for your inspection, any more than mine with any other brother, such as Gritz. Man must come into his own recognition and acceptance—and these ones who have served in such incredibly "different" manners—are most cautious, testing and must come into MY truth by confirmations—not games or token magic. They will play charades but rarely lie to SELVES—for they well know the game and the serious consequences of illusion and delusion. I have to remind everyone—that we whisk very, very few out of their circumstances—because circumstances must be rectified by MAN to suit the needs—and that means through Constitutional means. But, working WITH us often means there is a WAY and WE can find it. WE DO NOT,

HOWEVER, SERVE OUR ENEMY. Born-again Christians do not impress us—but in spite of magic salvation of some sort—we can come to a very workable relationship because ones of such stature KNOW THERE IS GOD and KNOW THERE ARE ALIENS IN NICE SHINY CRAFT! THEY ALSO KNOW THE LIES ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAMS OF DECEIT AND REPLICATION, INFILTRATION AND DIRTY TRICKS OF ALL SORTS. They also have to realize the helplessness AGAINST the system when it is decided for the security of the crooks and criminals, treasonists and war-mongers—that the individuals in point—STAY FOREVER AWAY FROM PUBLIC ABILITY TO TATTLE. They are often "bought off" but if there is too much riding on the security—promises are made and then broken. The men are then, as they are no longer necessary (as in piloting an SR-71) physically debilitated or mentally damaged—according to the ongoing plan. They knew this before they got in so deep but the game was good and the excitement wondrous for the youth—and always was pounded home—the "good of the whole". Too late realization strikes—and most often it strikes without having a "Rael" (Rayel) willing to give up everything and everyone to hopefully spring the trap. Actions were taken which went against the orders of the "Elite order givers" and so, the price was named and now being paid for such disobedience. I'm sure Gunther would agree that his time "behind" the incarceration has been damned near as interesting in many ways as it was "outside" and, often, no difference at all. The game now is different?? Oh, indeed. Too late smart? Not necessarily—it usually works out to God's perfect timing! So be it.

I would like to share Gunther's letter with you readers without further comment. He isn't sure who I am in factual expression—but he honors me exactly as I honor him; he says he is Captain Gunther Karl Russbacher and therefore I shall call him Captain Russbacher. If you tell me your name is Jesus Christ—I shall refer to you as Mr. Christ, if you be a male. I also note many things about the document as well, for instance, that the address and date-line were done separately from the body of the letter and such other nonsense. Chelas, we are sleuthing—we are hearing a MAN share with us. Judgment is left to GOD, discernment comes from information and knowledge as gleaned through experience. The expression is gracious and I happen to know that this is not the first interaction through the LIBERATOR.

I AM NOT EVEN GOING TO TELL YOU WHAT HAPPENED THROUGH THE HOLIDAY SEASON—WAS HE "REALLY" OUT OR "REALLY" "IN"? WHICHEVER, IT IS NOT YOUR BUSINESS AND WAGS AND PRATTLERS, INCLUDING THE LIB-

ERATOR IF NOT VERY, VERY CAREFUL—CAN DESTROY PERFECT PLANS. RAEAL HAS BEEN ON THE AIRWAVES SINCE THE “INCIDENT OR NON-INCIDENT” AND THAT SUFFICES FOR THE CURIOUS. WHY DO YOU ONES ALWAYS DESIRE TO SATISFY YOUR CURIOSITY AT THE COST OF ANOTHER’S VERY SAFETY?? IN OTHER WORDS, BLUNTLY, IT IS NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS—NOR MINE!

QUOTING:

Jan. 20, 1993

Dear Commander Hatonn,

This day I received a letter from a friend, one of your avid readers, who apprised me of an article, which had appeared in your issue of 01-01-93. It stated that I, the undersigned, had been released from confinement, on 12-29-92. It also stated that my wife, Rayelan and I, immediately left this country, traveling to the Federal Republic of Germany. Please know that your information is inaccurate! Regretfully, I am still very much a political prisoner, held in tight custody, by the sovereign State of Missouri.

At this writing, I cannot state with any degree of certainty when I shall be released from confinement, even though the conviction was based upon faulty and erroneous information. Permit me to go on record and affirm, once again, my absolute innocence with regard to the charges levied, and brought against me by the office of the Prosecutor of the County of St. Charles, St. Charles, Missouri.

Please be aware of the fact that an appeal had been filed, immediately after the sentence was pronounced, and that said appeal was filed upon my insistence of innocence, by the office of the State Public Defender. Although almost an entire year has passed, I receive notice from my defender, that a motion for Summary Judgment had been filed, and that such “Motion” shall be heard by the Court, on or about February 7, 1993, by the Circuit Court of St. Clair, Missouri. At that time I shall know whether I am to be set free, or be forced to continue the appeals process.

On occasion I manage to receive an old copy, well read several times over, of the PHOENIX LIBERATOR. Without doubt it is a very worthwhile and fine source of information. It is received, by me, most enthusiastically. Its contents are up-to-date, diverse, and extremely interesting.

I am also very interested in your Constitutional Law Center. Obviously, a number of my former associates are presently incarcerated and in dire need of any assistance your CLC can make available to them. I, of course, am one of these. No doubt, after having had contact with my beloved wife Rayelan, you are aware of our situation. We have risked much, and lost all of our assets fighting the machine of “Mad Power”. They have brought us to our knees, and permitted us no hope for a better future. Yet we yearn to strike a blow for freedom; a blow which can be heard by all those who have been used and discarded by the very government they have ever so faithfully served. We, who have shed our blood on the battlefields of the world have become the enemy within. The reason for our demise and incarceration is really quite simple: We have done too much; seen too much, and know too much to be trusted, accepted, or permitted to live or retire in peace. Artificially and, actually without true malice, they have made us into the enemy of the TRUTH, and the AMERICAN WAY. Yes, we have sinned against the Supreme Codex of Life. However, who among us is to cast the first stone? Surely, not those who issued the orders which brought about such chaos and wanton destruction among the peopled nations of the world.

Many of us have changed and are intent to atone for our respective part of the atrocities committed under the guise of freedom and democracy. Permit us the right to go quietly, and live our remaining years with our families, at peace with the Supreme Judge, the Creator of our world. Surely that is not too much to ask.

Many of us, myself included, are not physically well. We suffer from all the illnesses usually associated with men returning from battle. Many of us have been Prisoners of War, or Political Prisoners, held by foreign powers, in the dungeons of their waste receptacles, called jails and prisons. We have endured physical, as well as severe emotional torture at the hands of the “so called” enemy, only to return to our country to find that we have been the victims of a cruel hoax! Those whom we called enemy nations had become the friends and selected bedfellows of the present administration. I do not excuse our behavior, but respectfully urge you to consider both sides of this terrible coin. All of us, whether government officers or civilians, have been betrayed by those whom we have faithfully served under arms. We wish for nothing more than the right to find a little of the precious peace we have, for so long, fought and died for. Please, I beg you please, don’t let prisons and fugitive status be our legacy. Permit us to walk this land as free men; men who have given their all for the cause of their corrupt masters—these men of government and political power.

May this letter convey my (our) feelings, well and properly. May it be a true measure by which you and your readers can judge our sincerity and absolute loyalty to you—the people of these United States of America.

Help correct the wrong committed and perpetrated upon these servants, the many men in dark clothing, looking for a friendly face among the humanity of the world.

Your respectful servant,

Gunther K. Russbacher

END OF LETTER

Readers, when the soul of a brother cries out for hearing—and you listen not—YE be the one who is harshly judged in that ending judgment. This is the situation with all “prisoners” of the government Elite “Kings”. Even the “King” would be first to say—“Golly, I’m sorry, Gunther, but it’s either you or me and so, since I am King—it is you who will rot in prison for your actual act of serving nation and King.” This is very, very sobering on the realization of the Man in the trap. Indeed, son, I certainly DO HEAR YOUR CALL AND WE SHALL RALLY THE BROTHERS WHO WOULD WALK WITH YOU AND NOT FORGET THAT—EXCEPT FOR THE GRACE OF GOD CREATOR—GO THEY! EVEN THIS LITTLE GRANDMOTHER WHO TYPES AT THIS KEYBOARD LIVES IN TOTAL JEOPARDY OF THEIR FANGS. BUT YE WHO WOULD BE FREE MUST FIND FREEDOM FOR ALL CITIZENS AND NOT JUST FOR SELF! Gritz said it well—I wish I could just go live my life and care about who wins the Super-Bowl. I hear your call—but you must realize that the price of freedom is the willingness to turn away from the Super-Bowl and into the responsibility of freedom for all who are so falsely incarcerated and those headed for total slavery at the hands of the Kings.

We shall begin this day for I hear your petition and we start wherein we must always start—WITH YOUR BROTHERS WHO GIVE A DAMN!

I am asking, Readers, that you again respond wherein YOU CAN! Let us take one lighted step at a time. Prisoners of War are not simply those in some Vietnam dungeon or rice paddy. They are far more frequently in the cell next door to another within your good old Federal Districts. Some of them are let out on “tethers” to continue to serve with promises or hints of promises or threats against their loved ones as most prisoners soon care not for selves for theirs is such an orchestrated disaster as to lose meaning.

We have to be most discerning for some would sell their souls to these bastards to just get "out" and slay this old troop of Hatonn's. These are the ones, however, who in service to God and Nation can change this old world into a land of freedom worthy of that lamp unto that very world. God cares not about the words upon the lips—but rather, that which resides in the intent and heart within.

I am going to continue the subject of POWs as we have our next sitting for much information from excellent writers is available from very high-ranking inside sources who see the black skull and crossbones on the chests and shields of the "would-be rulers". I need not look far to have that Truth which serves you BEST. As you come into TRUTH of that which IS, you will see the TRUTH of my mission and that of GOD.

Lack of funding denies the CLC the ability to just jump into each fray—but as one step following another builds the foundation—so too shall funding begin to trickle and then to flow. The point of the Planners was to disable you ones from the very aspects of life which would insure their winning. Very early on would come the corruption of the very Justice System and then take away capability to financially fight anything to the point of winning. First they take control of the wealth, then the "Spirit", gain total control over the law, health and morals of the citizenry—AND THE GAME IS OVER! Well, the game IS NOT OVER—GOD WINS, REMEMBER? THIS OLD GAME IS NOT OVER BY A LONG-SHOT!! The demons, living and dead (we wish), attack ever more diligently as the skirmish becomes full-blown battle. What would you expect? NO THORNLESS ROSE GARDEN THIS FIELD OF DREAMS AND KILLING NIGHTMARES—YOU ARE MOVING INTO THE REALITY OF EXPERIENCE AND EXPRESSION—FROM THIS ILLUSION OF FLESH MANIFESTATION FOR GROWTH AND CHALLENGE TO SOUL.

I ask that each and every one of you who can hold a pen and afford $.29 in a stamp—WRITE TO GUNTHER RUSSBACHER. SHOW HIM THE SAME SUPPORT YOU GIVE UNTO OTHERS OF YOUR BROTHERS IN TROUBLE—LET HIM KNOW THAT HE AND THE OTHER COMRADES OF BATTLE ARE NOT FORGOTTEN AND THAT YOU WILL NOT LET THEM DOWN OR WALK AWAY FROM THEM. FIRST, GIVE THEM HOPE—LET US CALL THIS OUR OWN

"RESTORE HOPE" PROJECT. IN THE SEEING AND THE HEARING OF THE CALL AND BLESSINGS OF THE FAITHFUL, SHALL THEY COME FORTH IN BATTLE-GEAR TO BATTLE AGAIN ON THE TURF OF GOD AND NATION! THESE ARE THE VERY ONES TRAINED AND ABLE IF YOU-THE-PEOPLE DO YOUR PORTION.

"Many come but few are chosen"—when the commitment is made, however, GOD EXPECTS THE SERVICE! So be it. Lessons are learned in many ways—discern the man; judge the actions. Through his works shall a man be known. THE VOICE OF TRUTH SHALL BE HEARD ABOVE THE WHIRLWIND AND THE ACTIONS OF MAN SHALL BE SEEN FOR THAT WHICH THEY ARE—MAY YOUR VOICE AND YOUR ACTIONS ALWAYS REFLECT GOODNESS—FOR THEY WILL ALWAYS REFLECT YOUR GOAL—THEREFORE, IT IS BEST TO ATTEND YOUR "GOAL".

"MOSES", "JESUS" AND ROSAH

I have a brief notice to you who will find missing the messages of Rosah. We have been informed that unless we print ALL that is given—in order and in total, we shall not be welcomed to use any of the writings. I find it most unfortunate for I see that "Moses" is telling her that he shall be soon ceasing to write through her and the "Jesus" energy seems to be giving the edict of all or nothing at all. I would question this carefully indeed. It is fine, we shall not print more for we honor all requests as such. The LIBERATOR is a voice "for" and "of" THE PEOPLE in regaining of LIBERTY. My ONLY mission, actually, is your Spiritual fulfillment—however, we take one step at a time and regain first your ability to function in a measure of freedom long enough to have choice of spirituality. The paper is much too lengthy and we cannot print all that is written by others—or even ourselves. If this is not suitable to guest writers then we have to bow to their wishes. This was a "threat" and I refuse to play that game regardless of what label these energy forms pull down around themselves as in robes of bleached white image and pious speech. Truth can come from the depths of Hell, chelas, and you must learn to discern which is which.

If I am not permitted to "Edit" and discern that WORD—it shall not go into this PAPER!—Good or perceived "bad". "Moses" referred to our readers and citizens in general as slovenly, gluttonous pigs. Man is simply "sleeping"; this does not make him either a swine or a fool—simply unknowing and unwise in ignorance. I chose not to print those writings and did, in fact, simply leave out the couple of subjects for we had no agreement to print ANYTHING—much less everything, from that source. We found MUCH worthy of sharing and did so—we will now, as ordered, reluctantly not utilize the material. I believe the writings can be gotten from a Bulletin Board or something—I believe the LIBERATOR was the only paper which was utilizing the writings. Our Editors see no alternative other than to fully honor such edict.

This in no way renounces Rosah—she is a valid scribe but it does mean that clarity and clearing of energy forms MUST BE ATTENDED CONSTANTLY! How better to lose the ability to be heard than by doing exactly this—pulling the WORD in total? Ponder it. None shall come into the space of the Hosts of God and make demands. These games can be played anywhere you can gain hearing—but NOT IN MY COMMAND WITH MY SPACE AND MISSION. "If God be with you who can be against you?" Almost EVERYONE! If God be with you, however, NO ONE SHALL PREVAIL AGAINST YOU! You might well get pretty battered and tattered in the battles—but stay the course and you shall WIN.

Also, beloved friends, I SHALL NOT BEND TO THESE PRESSURES—AND FURTHER, YOU WOULD NOT CONTINUE TO BE READING THIS IF YOU WANTED A WISHY-WASHY COMMANDER—YOU HAVE HAD ENOUGH WHO BEND TO BRIBES, THREATS AND LYING ASSAULTS. WE STAND THIS GROUND AND STAY THIS COURSE—A REMNANT IS GOING TO GET THROUGH FOR IT IS THE WILL OF GOD AND TO DO SO THERE MUST BE PREPARATION AND UNBENDING INTEGRITY IN CONCEPT AND ACTION. WILL WE STAND ALONE? NAY, NAY—FOR MAN HAS WAITED LONG FOR THIS DAY OF THE LORD AND WE ARE THE HOSTS COME TO PREPARE THAT WAY AGAINST THAT DAY OF COMING INTO GLORY! THAT MEANS WE HAVE TO GET A LITTLE CONSTITUTIONAL FREEDOM GOING HERE, BROTHERS. TODAY IS AS GOOD A DAY TO GET ON WITH IT AS YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE—IT WON'T GET BETTER UNLESS YOU MAKE IT BETTER. If you wish me to call a "spade" a "cute little shiny garden dirt lifting instrument" I can do so—if you wish me to call it a "hoe"—NO THANK YOU! YOU CAN ACTUALLY "HOE" WITH A SPADE—BUT IT IS THE DICKENS IN INCONVENIENCE.

Let us close now, Dharma, as we have a meeting in a few minutes and we can talk on these matters. Thank you.

Hatonn to stand aside.

Soltec's Superbowl Special: Stay Alert To The Real Game!

1/29/93 SOLTEC

Good evening, child. Soltec present, as always, in the Light of Holy God. May our presence and the message we bring serve as the beacon of Light in your darkened world and bring many into that Light of Holy God. As we press forward, there is only promise of a load of work for those of you who have chosen to serve the Light. It grows ever increasingly important that you work closely together and in total love and support of one another, as your enemy is all about and even, at times, comes into your midst to do their dirty deeds. Your attackers would cause division among those serving as ground crew, thus weakening a link in the chain, which compromises the integrity of the entire chain. We would caution each of you to keep your space cleared at all times, being on guard against such infiltration. Though you would turn away no one who hungers for the Truth, know that some come proclaiming themselves in service only to undermine the foundation.

Discernment is a must in these times as the enemy struggles to maintain control. Allow not the small disagreements to divide; rather, recognize them for their reality—the attempts of the darkness to interrupt the good work that is making strides in your world. There will, undoubtedly, be those who will turn away and follow the darkness, though it be in ignorance. Grieve for them, but do not lose sight of your mission; Chelas, for grief, left unchecked and allowed to run rampant, is destructive energy. In these times, keep your sight on the Light and your feet firmly on the Path toward Holy God. In these things, also, are there lessons to be learned, even though they be painful ones. For each must follow his or her own path. Reach out to guide, carry them from time to time if it be necessary, but know that you cannot drag another down their path. It must be walked willingly by each.

CHINA EARTHQUAKE

This week there has been a large earthquake in China, near Beijing, in the Hunan Province. It was measured by your methods at 6.3 and caused considerable damage, including a dam. Earthquakes have become such commonplace events that few pay attention to them anymore. This plays right into the hands of the enemy—that is, to have such things be ordinary, everyday events that no one notices. That way, Chelas, they have the advantage over you ones and are able to cause earthquakes and such right under your noses without detection. DO NOT FALL ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL! KEEP EARS AND EYES OPEN AND STAY ALERT. THE ENEMY IS AT YOUR DOOR AND YOU HAVE RECOGNIZED HIM NOT!

SUPERBOWL THOUGHTS

You have scheduled, this weekend, the largest sporting event on your planet—you call it the Super Bowl. It will take place Sunday in Los Angeles. It brings with it many visitors to the area, most of whom bring with them an aggressive, lower-order energy. It has many implications, on multiple levels. This place already suffers greatly from the effects of the energy of its inhabitants. Only a few on your world are beginning to understand the power associated with the unseen energies created by your thoughts and lifestyles and most of them are still of the belief that these energies only affect the unseen. Not so. The physical experience utilizes the higher frequency light energy of pure thought, but pushed outward and brought to manifestation into the denser places. The thought process is one of the most powerful energies that there is and, even though you do not have conscious understanding of such things, thoughts are very real and have very real effects upon your world. That is why discipline of thought is so foundational important! You have no idea what you create for selves by your very thoughts!

Los Angeles is about to multiply that aggressive, lustful, greedy energy a thousand-fold, for this game of football is extremely aggressive and it begets yet greater aggressive energy, proportional to the masses. The hyper-energy that precedes the event itself only serves to exaggerate the situation. It stirs the fans into such a frenzied state of excitement that, by the time of the game, the energy has built to a state of critical mass. The energy, when released, explodes with an energy equal to that of a nuclear blast. That, then, combined with what is already in existence in Los Angeles, pushes aggression through the roof. Add to this, now, the effects of the extremely low frequencies that are continually bombarding the entire globe, and you have the potential for some very unsettling things. Now, should the Elite have any plans for some of their dirty tricks during this event, you will have a real mess on your hands.

CALIFORNIA ACTIVITY

California has been, this week, once again experiencing blasts, an added attempt to bring about more earthquake activity. It is also meant to be a show of force against our people, to remind you that the enemy is still alive and well. Besides, keep in mind that since your recent heavy rainfalls the ground both at and below the surface is extremely unstable and the dams are bulging from the pressure of the added water. You definitely do not need any help from them right now. You ones are concerned, and rightfully so. Today, you experienced blasts so strong that your dwellings actually began to give way under the pressure. They are not finished playing with you by a long shot and they will continue the games with you until the very end of it. You see, you are opening the eyes and ears of many and are providing the knowledge for people to liberate themselves from the bondage of slavery. You are helping many to find the path of self-responsibility which is in opposition to the plans of the enemy. You are bringing Truth to the dying masses and giving hope to many who had given up. In addition, you now are providing methods by which the physical body can live as it was intended. [See next-to-last pages for product information that Soltec is referring to here, especially the Gaiandriana.] You are, to the Adversary, an enemy to be reckoned with, for you are standing in the way of his advance. YOU ARE LIGHTING THE WAY THROUGH THE DARKNESS!

We did not promise you that the road would be smooth and easily traveled, and you also knew this upon accepting the tasks. Keep in mind, however, that the smooth road offers little in the way of

A Meditation On The Teacher's Ways

1/31/93 #1 HATONN

THINKING ABOUT "THINGS"

As we sit to pen on a beautiful Sunday morning the mind must wander through the myriads of happenings and possibilities—each being individual, unique and responsive, as only such a wondrous being can be. Perceptions will be as varied as the number of beings experiencing the very same perceived incident. Each "thought" has a reaction in each individual—each cause, an effect. One cannot hold another's thoughts in fullness—even the brainwashed and trained individual shall have his own thoughts as well. You await "miracles" from GOD—this IS the miracle of GOD. Moreover, as the thought takes form and direction and the goal for achievement is set—so shall it come to pass for it MUST! The mind shall find the way as it makes the connections and decisions which lead unto that goal.

Many come unto a path and teacher only to need further experience in differing settings and with other experiencers but if the GOAL be unto GOD—the individual will RETURN to that One Path wherein the actual truth of journey lay. God shall never force but will always respond to the honest call from the soul within.

DECISIONS ALONG THE PATH

It comes back to me, for instance, that one in this very Valley stays "only for business arrangements" perceived made with me in the yesteryear. This obviously has changed as this very one has chosen another path of experience and feels not comfortable to work in this vineyard. This one had good connections for employment elsewhere—but the area is most dangerous and there is another precious being who must abide within that one's immediate circle—one who has earned reward and companionship by many who love and respect this entity greatly. I must suggest, however, that there can be no "business" arrangement if that one will not come within my presence except when particularly summoned. The choice is already made, do you see? Does this mean that this "choice" is "forever"? No—in this instance it has no necessity of being even for 10 minutes—for it is the attachment which makes the decision in actual action. Is this bad? No—only distracting for when the heart has set its goal—so shall the consciousness be torn until the path is relocated. But, shall the ones remaining on the pathway—allow of this one's re-entry? I don't know for the damage to trust and faith in discernment in favor of the "physical" will always be present—even between friends. Full trust comes most slowly indeed, once denounced. God never turns from a searching heart—NEVER.

In this instance, however, I would not delay in releasing this wonderful brother to his calling in career for I can ask no more and obviously the bindings are being stated and therefore I must accept the mental separation. I am told that this one has "trouble with accepting Hatonn". Then, chelas, this is not the placement for fullness in expression. One must go whereat the journey is fulfilled—if it means taking of the dependent "other"—so be it. I suggest, further, that each and all (yes indeed, this one too) look most closely at that which you practice, how you practice expression and who is offended and pained by your choices. If YOUR expression is beyond and before the comfort of another who has no choices in the matter—then are YOU fully accepting responsibilities or are you using that one as excuse? Always it is the responsibility of only ONE—YOU. If another can pull you away from the focus by any means of worldly excuse or rationalization—who is at fault—the one who manipulates or the one who falls within the trap? Either way, the one in the trap is the one who suffers greatest pain in this dimension of experience for both the physical is hurt and the soul is tragically at unrest. So be it for EACH must walk his own road. All the rationalizing, lashing out, denouncement, turmoil of thought—will not change an iota of it.

There need be no "responsible" messengers to perceive WHO might be in point for the messenger is most often blamed as an assaulting enemy and slain—at least in death of a friendship. When ones isolate themselves unto the "fringes", who disclaim and denounce without positive action and solutions—only touting abuse and misuse—when the facts are OBVIOUS—it bears careful inspection, for God will only effort to retrieve for a very short while and then the lessons are left to the growth, but the uphill, rocky road is the one that will net the most growth. You are quite capable of the journey, Chelas, otherwise you would not have chosen it. Take another deep breath and hold on tight.

These blasts were targeted at the ground well below the surface on the weakened faults, which is explanation for the strength of the blasts that you experienced. It would be very easy at this time to begin a chain reaction of seismic activity.

THE POWER OF THOUGHT

I have spoken of the power of thought in this writing for a specific reason. It is to get you ones in the habit of watching closely what it is that you are allowing to flow forth from you as thought. You have the ability to create or destroy with thought—you have the ability to heal or to remain ill in the same manner. And, because you and your planet exist in a symbiotic relationship, the thoughts of Earth's inhabitants have the ability to create or to destroy the very planet itself. You are the very essence of God, which is Light, which is energy. Thought is also light energy, which has the ability to create. Yet, you exist on a planet which is under the veil of darkness; therefore, that same thought energy, used in darkness, carries with it the forces of destruction. It is part of the lessons of this expression of existence to learn to discipline the process of thought. The combined thought energy of many people increases the strength of the energy. And, as you travel nearer to the Time of Light (Photon Belt), the light energy will seem to magnify and become more powerful. The magnitude of the energy will not have altered—only your perception of reality will have changed.

I bring this subject unto you ones because, as I have told you in the past, there are many things which affect your physical existence and all is a part of the whole. It is important that you ones become knowledgeable of what is considered to be "etheric" or "unseen", which is nothing more than another state of existence. These "unseen energies" have great effects upon you and your planet and cannot be separated from the whole of the problems which you are experiencing at this time. It is difficult to teach of these things when the language of communication is so limited and lacking words which convey the entire concept of meaning. But we will do the best we can, given the limitations.

Let us draw this to a close now, precious. Continue to press onward and upward to the Light of Holy God.

Soltec to clear. Salu.

learning without the support system of walking WITH God's workers. In this place—there are no other kind of co-journey travelers—either tag-alongs for the ride and experience without positive input (only “reasons” why “not”) or ones who are working toward a goal and have not the time to bear up the tag-alongs. For a while many tasks can be performed without any direction whatsoever; however, as the words and denials, confusion and non-reconciliation linger—it becomes impractical for the “team” to wait. This does not cast aspersion on ANYONE—it simply has to do with jobs and responsibility and inability to wait and wait for possible decision changes.

If that “other” keeps you from your committed task and away from the brothers who served with you—who is at fault? The brothers are doing the same—INCLUDING your task. When you finally find disagreement (after the romance and honeymoon is past) WHO will leave you and move on to greener pastures, bigger security and another who is fully controlled by the individual direction of an impossible dream? If a thing be against the laws of God—it be against your path into Light.

If actions are chosen against those laws for any reason—it be fine with ME for I have no judgment about YOU or your other. I do have observation about the actions AND, further, you must always look at the circumstances. Let us suppose you live with another and practice all the pleasures of marriage—but without marriage. WHY? Why do you do this? Is it because the COMMITMENT is the same binding as the marriage—or, is it rather that decisions regarding the relationship are convenient, pleasurable and mutually GIVING? A marriage is NOT that piece of government control as issued for the law. Is that “other” in tune with your deepest path of service? “Can two walk together if they not be agreed?” What relationship have you if you cannot walk together in ALL THINGS? IS this a RESPONSIBLE arrangement or a selfish one? Is anyone HURT from the illusion? Then why protest so loudly to proclaim your righteousness? I have a secret for you—no one who is attending his own journey gives a damn!

I take this time for discussion on these subjects for I AM come with God and this IS my mission to bear Truth and self confrontation—ALL OTHER ACTIVITIES ARE BUT MY SECONDARY TASKS OF SERVICE. WE JUDGE NOT AND “ALLOW” ALL—WE DO NOT, HOWEVER, ACCEPT ALL WITHIN OUR TEAM—ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO DENOUNCE US AND ACTUALLY WORK AGAINST US IN THEIR OWN WORLDLY OPINIONS ABOUT HOW THEY PERCEIVE THINGS “OUGHT” OR “SHOULD” BE, TO MAKE THEIR OWN DECISIONS ACCEPTABLE. IF A THING BE AGAINST THE LAWS OF GOD OR CREATION THEN IT MATTERS NOT WHAT “I” OR WHAT YOU “WISH” IT TO BE OR WHAT IT IS YOU PREFER TO “PRACTICE”. IF YOU PRACTICE A “THING”, ACTION OR RITUAL—THEN FOR GOODNESS SAKES, BE RESPONSIBLE FOR IT. DO NOT CLAIM SOME “BUSINESS” ARRANGEMENT—ESPECIALLY WITH ME!

IS GOD YOUR SECOND CHOICE?

How many of you will sacrifice a bit of your soul perfection by your actions in physical preference of expression this day? Will the price you pay for that selfish act be worth the price paid for it? How many of you have relationships which are actually a total lie?? Why? Are you so weak as to allow the very taking of your soul truth in exchange for this brief respite of physical expression? If your answer is Yes—then why would you expect GOD to wait while being totally second in choice? Remember—“Thou shalt have no other GODS BEFORE ME!” and, “YOU CANNOT SERVE GOD AND THE DEVIL”—even little innocent looking cuddly, soft and warm spirits who dance on the fringes of the pathway of Light. CANNOT YOU BE STRONG ENOUGH TO BRING THAT ONE INTO THE LIGHTED PATH WITH YOU WHEREIN THEY MAY FIND SOMETHING WHICH ALLOWS THEM TO LEARN ALTERNATIVES TO THEIR OWN OPINIONS? WHO IS THE WEAKER EXPRESSION? WHO ALWAYS “GIVES IN”? LOOK AGAIN IF YOU PERCEIVE IT BE “BOTH” OR “NEITHER”—WHAT “WERE” YOU DOING AND, NOW, WHAT “ARE” YOU DOING? These are simply points to ponder as you make this journey through this manifest passage of experience—this expression of illusion.

I would like to remind you of something the Great Teacher taught in the never changing expression of physical manifestation to the growing children not yet learned in their lessons: I ask that you sit with “that significant other” who teaches you the “other” ways of acceptance and journey and REALLY study this next writing. See what that one does in response—agrees “sort of” and “in part”, disagrees according to own “opinion” of how it might be said “better”, refuses to talk about it at all, agrees but actually changes not within—but only states agreement to benefit the moment and continue the charade of manipulation:

“Ah, My children, if you will spend but one-tenth of the time and energy you have wasted in seeking without among the husks of human knowledge and human teachings, in earnest, determined efforts directed within to find Me;

“If you will devote but one hour each day thus to Me alone, imagining and practicing the Presence of Me within you;

“I here promise you that you will not only soon, very soon find Me, but I will be to you an exhaustless fount of such Wisdom and Strength and Help, as your human mind now cannot possibly conceive.

“Yes, if you will but seek Me thus, making Me FIRST in your life seeking, never resting until you do find Me, it will not be long before you will become conscious of My Presence, of My Loving Voice, speaking constantly from out of the depths of your heart.

“You will learn to come to Me in Sweet Communion, and you will find yourself abiding in My Consciousness, and that My Word is abiding in you, and that whatever you desire will in seemingly miraculous ways be done unto you.

“This abiding continually in Me may be difficult at first, for the World, the Flesh and the Devil are still presenting evidence to your consciousness. But you will become accustomed to the use of My Impersonal Eyes, and will soon be able to see into the Reality of things, even into the Reality of these seeming lords of the Earth. Then you will find you are dwelling in a wondrous NEW World, peopled with Angelic Beings, using the Flesh bodies of Their human personalities merely as vehicles, or instruments, or clothing, in which to contact the earthly conditions and experiences They have created, in order to develop the Soul qualities necessary for the perfect expression on Earth of MY IDEA.

“To your eyes then there will be no shadows, no evil, and consequently no Devil; for all is Light and Love, Freedom, Happiness and Peace, and you will see ME IN ALL, in each Being some attribute of Me, in each animate thing some phase of Me; and you will need only to let My Love shine from out your heart and It will illumine for you the Real meaning of all that you see.

“But what of the reflection you render of this illumination? What do you show unto the World and other travelers of this illumination—do you simply reflect “al- lowing" in all manners of expression or do you discern that which is a true reflection of intent in journey?

"Is that which you call 'work' or 'duty' a reflection of your intended journey or do you sit and ponder as to HOW to reconcile the path to suit of another fellow-traveler? You may take leave of God's Work and Truth at any time and HE will give unto you that choice with only the conscience to guide of your actions—but what happens with that "other human traveler"? Does that one debate, cajole, refuse discussion and sharing of your ideas—or more importantly, are your ideas formalized and visualized FOR YOU in expression and action? These are things that the singular mind must fathom and the resolution of any confusion on THESE THINGS must be confronted within—WITH ME ALONE! AMEN!"

WHO IS THE TEACHER?

I welcome any and all within my presence—however, do not come seeking to CHANGE OF MY "KNOWING" for I have walked your way MANY TIMES and I KNOW GOD AND I KNOW THE CREATION—IN OTHER WORDS—I KNOW TRUTH. You are yet students of this journey and you may study any lesson in any school available to you—BUT YOU MAY NOT COME WITHIN MY CIRCLE OF STUDENTS AND CHANGE OF THE TEACHER! I MARVEL

THAT ONES REFUSE TO COME AND LISTEN, HOWEVER, WHAT IS IT THAT YOU ARE AFRAID TO HEAR? MOREOVER, WHAT IS IT THAT YOU ARE AFRAID OF FOR "ANOTHER" TO HEAR? Ah so—you do not want of "that other" to see the shallow truth of YOU! Is it somehow better to separate away and plug the ears and blindfold the eyes, distract through physical actions and soft words of promises and temporary actions, the one you wish to "bind"? IS IT REALLY? What happens when "that one" sees and hears and comes up from his distraction to see Truth? These are lessons all and each must learn in discernment for ye have not to judge a "person", only the actions and perceptions as presented.

Always remember this most significant fact: "SUFFICIENT UNTO THE DAY IS THE EVIL THEREOF."

Coverup of POWs And MIAs

You pick the presentations to pieces, so I find this a better way to go—it also means I can honor writers who do this research and run the risks. If there be glaring errors—I can correct it from higher vantage advantage. I make no note of the perfection or imperfections of given persons—if their writings be valid, I shall print them. This one is done by one Mike Blair who writes for the Spotlight. Is all of his work accurate? NO, but what difference does that make as there is plenty of truth in anything that I will utilize as to give you reason to research and THINK. I have no intention of baby-feeding you longer—GO LOOK UP THESE THINGS, RESEARCH AND "THEN" DRAW CONCLUSIONS. I have no wish to even comment on Spotlight as a paper other than to say that they still have a few good articles not available elsewhere. They are obviously not always either correct or valid in output—but you should, by now, if you are a student of MINE, be able to discern the manipulation from the facts.

QUOTING:

The report of the select committee on POWs-MIAs was altered before release to the public in response to pressure from Henry Kissinger, who was unhappy with the charge he had knowingly abandoned American servicemen in Southeast Asia.

A draft copy of the final report of the Senate Select Committee on POW-MIA Affairs was leaked to former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, who forced revisions deleting details of how he and former President R. Nixon knowingly left American POWs behind at the end of the Vietnam War.

From a variety of sources, including a conversation between the select committee chairman, Sen. John Kerry (D-Mass.), and a POW-MIA activist, there are details of how the draft was leaked to Kissinger. Kerry, under pressure, then had the report altered, as revealed in the Kerry dialog with the activist, for the purpose of allowing Kissinger "to cover his ass". [H: The activist taped the conversation with Kerry and it has been verified as to accuracy.]

According to sources, portions of a draft of the Select Committee's final report, which was released to the public January 13, were mysteriously leaked to Kissinger sometime prior to December 28. [H: Remember, Gritz' testimony was taken in Virginia in November (23rd) so was subject to deletion by Dec. 28th.] Kerry claims the report was leaked by a member of the committee staff.

However, two sources have revealed that the sections of the report were given to Kissinger by one of the six Republican MEMBERS of the bipartisan committee. In fact, the exact senator was named but could not be confirmed by press time.

Kissinger and his former boss Nixon both flew into a rage when they found out the final report was going to state: "But there remains the troubling question of whether the Americans who were expected to return but did not were, as a group, shunted aside and discounted by government and (populace) alike. The answer to that question is essentially yes, and it is in this sense that a form of abandonment did take place."

NOT OFFERED

Kerry told the activist in the conversation on January 12, the day before the final report was released, that "We did not offer him (Kissinger) this report, so help me God. It was leaked. In fact, Henry (expletive deleted) Kissinger had read portions of it before I had.

"And someone on the staff saw fit to be concerned about Henry's reputation and got it to them and then a call came in to (Sen.) Bob Smith (vice chairman of the select committee). In fact, he (Kissinger attorney Lloyd Cutler) called five senators. He didn't even call me." [H: Gets to be a game of "Liars' Poker" doesn't it?]

Kerry then went on to explain that Kissinger's attorneys, who included Cutler and top Kissinger aide L. Paul Bremer, sat down December 28 in a room in the Russell Senate Office Building with the committee counsel, presumably J. William Codinha, and reviewed pertinent portions of the draft report.

Kerry said he let Kissinger's attorneys "make a presentation to our lawyer as to whether we do or do not have the facts wrong". That's what Cutler did. And in some cases Cutler was correct. The facts were wrong, and we picked up on it. I picked up on it the minute I read it.

TRYING TO COVER UP?

"But basically that's all it was, Kissinger wasn't trying to cover his (expletive deleted)?" the activist asked.

"Well, I'm sure he cares about the historical picture," Kerry replied. "Of course he does. I have no doubt the guy (Kissinger) is trying to cover his—uhh—you know."

Actually, after reviewing portions of the draft report with Bremer and Codinha, Cutler, who served as President Jimmy Carter's White House counsel, fired off a letter to Kerry on December 30, detailing Kissinger's objections and blasting the report.

Meanwhile, according to columnists Rowland Evans and Robert Novak, Kissinger sought help from Senate minority Leader Robert Dole (R-Kan.), who went to work "proselytizing committee members".

Reportedly, committee members Sens. John McCain (R-Ariz.) and Hank Brown (R-Colo.) were also helpful to Kissinger in getting the report altered.

Allowing Kissinger access to the report in its draft form has enraged numerous family members and POW-MIA activists.

"As a family member, I cannot understand why these people are being allowed to negotiate the truth," said Dolores Apodaca Alfond, who heads the National Alliance of Families for the Return of America's Missing Servicemen. "If the truth is to come out, why should it be negotiated?"

[H: But now, on to the lead article which sums it up: It is a commentary by the author.]

SENATE POW-MIA COMMITTEE REPORT AN EXPENSIVE FARCE

The Senate Select Committee on POW-MIA Affairs was a farce from its inception in late 1991. It has spent 17 months and some $1.6 million in taxpayers' money (most of it going for highly paid staffers). It has proved nothing regarding the fate of American servicemen left behind at the end of the Vietnam War.

Instead of finalizing the issue of whether American POWs and MIAs from the war are still alive in Southeast Asia, the panel's conclusions contained in the report, released January 13, "may succeed only in fanning the embers", to quote the Establishment flagship newspaper the New York Times.

What the select committee has done is nothing less than abandoning our soldiers a second time. Ironically, at the same time the panel has opened doors regarding new evidence about Americans left behind not only from the Vietnam War but from World War II, the Korean War and the Cold War as well.

[H: By the way, what do you suppose ever happened to the little black box from KAL-007 that the Russians were going to share and tell with you-the-people? Oh, you didn't hear the recording? Hum-m-m, what do you suppose ever came of that free exchange of information? NO, there wouldn't really be a "bury-up", would there? Your government wouldn't lie to you, would they? Your politicians work FOR you, don't they? Didn't YOU elect them? Oh my, what ever do you suppose could happen in those Elite circles MORE that you just don't seem to ever get around to having brought to you—OR, REPRODUCTIONS ARRANGED TO FOOL YOU?]

After all of the hearings and Establishment media hoopla, the raised hopes and expectations, the panel's chairman, Sen. John Kerry (D-Mass.), stated: "We acknowledge there is no proof United States POWs survived, but neither is there proof that all of those who did not return had died."

OFFICIAL NEGLIGENCE

For the most part, the voluminous report issued by the committee is an effort to close the issue of the men left behind. At the same time it's covering for government officials, ranging from presidents down to pentagon investigators, who, according to evidence brought to light during the hearings, at the very least were negligent in dealing with the issue.

The report was prepared with the hope it would bury the government's critics on the issue of the missing Americans, in many instances attempting to write them off as frauds and profiteers.

The committee was itself a fraud from the very start.

Starting out, the 12-member panel—six Democrats and six Republicans—was stacked with senators who were already convinced no Americans were alive in Southeast Asia from the Vietnam War and/or who believe the United States should either normalize relations with communist Vietnam or, at least, lift the trade embargo.

The trade ban has been in place since 1975 when North Vietnam, violating the 1973 Paris Peace Accords by continuing its aggression, had toppled the South Vietnamese government.

Only three senators—Bob Smith (R-N.H.), the committee vice chairman, Charles Grassley (R-Iowa) and Jesse Helms (R-N.C.)—believed Americans had been left behind and were probably still alive in captivity.

And in the end even these men set their beliefs and principles aside and fell into lockstep with the others, making the report "unanimous".

'JUDAS SMITH'

Ironically, Smith proved to be the Judas of the committee. Throughout the hearings and the committee's investigations, Smith clashed repeatedly with Chairman Kerry, insisting there was hard evidence Americans were not only left behind but were still alive. It played like high drama, Smith standing righteously alone, the odds against him.

Smith had even prepared the Senate resolution that established the committee.

But he ignored the pleas of thousands of POW-MIA family members, Vietnam veterans and others who phoned and faxed messages to his office, pleading with him to remain true to the cause, to refuse to go along with the majority.

When all was said and done, the committee vice chairman made it clear by his betrayal that the people of his state of New Hampshire had not sent to Washington the sort of courageous and principled senator immortalized by actor James Stewart in the film classic Mr. Smith Goes to Washington.

Far into the night after the report was issued, Smith had his staff making calls to POW-MIA family members and activists, who had supported and trusted him only to be betrayed and trashed in the report, trying to put a favorable "spin" on his sellout.

NO DYNAMIC DUO

Not far behind Smith in lacking courage were Grassley and Helms.

In the case of Grassley it was a game of follow the leader. He had previously decided to do whatever Smith did—and he did, joining the majority like a good tin soldier.

Actually, both Grassley and Helms made fools of themselves. Early in 1991, a report, which they had both worked on, was released. It indicated American POWs and MIAs had been abandoned to the Communists in every war since World War II. [H: Indeed, we did write about all of this as these particular Committee hearings got under way!] The document, called the "Helms Report", was undertaken by the minority staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which Helms is the ranking member.

Shortly after the Helms Report was released, the North Carolina senator fired most of his staff who had worked diligently preparing it, fell silent on the issue and was later notably absent from hearings of the select committee.

Helms finally broke his silence after the committee released its final report, stating he was "satisfied this is as good a job as could have possibly been done."

In actuality it was not as "good a job" as the work already done by his own staffers, with far fewer resources.

Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz. and one of the "Keating Five"), a former POW, mystified many. According to one news report, McCain attacked "as a pit bull everyone and anyone who has the opinion that men are still alive in the very same captivity he himself once experienced."

He attacked everyone with a viewpoint at odds with the official Pentagon line regarding the unaccounted-for POWs and MIAs.

McCain was actually quoted by the New York Times as stating that when the final report was released he hoped it would show "there is no proof Americans are alive there."

He further told the Times some family members of the missing "have accused me of being everything from a traitor to The Manchurian Candidate (the title of a 1960s-era film about a Korean War POW who had been 'turned' by his captors)."

Actually, family members and POW-MIA activists became so angry and frustrated with McCain he was booed several times during the hearing by a majority of those in the visitors' section.

In fact, the criticism of McCain became so intense Sen. Hank Brown (R-Colo.), another member of the committee, contacted the Pentagon for a list of released POWs who were listed as bona fide "heroes" for inclusion in the final report and demanded the list contain McCain's name. It did.

This prompted former POW Col. Ted Guy, who served as commander of several dozen POWs while in captivity, to write Brown, asking, "How are you going to separate the true heroes from prevaricators, who tend to have diarrhea of the mouth when orchestrating their POW accomplishments?"

"How are you going to recognize some very brave individuals who were not recognized with medals because some of our commanders gave instructions not to reward anyone that performed acts in support of and belief in the Code of Conduct (a code to be followed by U.S. military personnel while in captivity)?

DIM-WITTED LIST

"I request that my name not be included on such a pointless endeavor," Guy wrote. "If John McCain wants his name on such a list, so be it. He is the one that has to live with himself."

"Until we rid ourselves of the cover-up aspects of this tragedy and admit we screwed up back in 1973 and find out the truth about the live POWs (left behind) who are the ones that deserve recognition, I don't want to have anything to do with any dim-witted lists."

Guy is widely recognized as one of the truly great heroes of the Vietnam War. After his Air Force jet was shot down over Laos, he engaged in a gunfight with seven North Vietnamese soldiers, killing one and injuring another.

A citation noting his heroism states in part: "In 1972, Col. Guy was moved to a prison, and he remained the POW camp commander. Again, he went through a torture session. The 'rope trick' was used, and his arms were bound tighter behind his back. He was made to kneel for long periods of time, his knees becoming the size of basketballs."

"He received a double hernia from being beaten with a hose. They beat him until he was raw meat and blood. After 10 days of this he was returned to his cell. He could barely walk. He asked his jailer, 'Is this part of your communist system?'"

"He was such a sad sight that his jailer threw up, cried and walked away."

[H: It becomes more and more probable that McCain was a dink in the group of POWs and cannot bear the possibility of any being released who would tell the truth about his dealings—anyone who would also betray thousands of citizens by bribe-taking and pay-offs with Savings and Loan criminals—HAS SOMETHING VERY BLACK AND SINISTER TO HIDE—IT HAPPENS EVERY TIME! Wouldn't it be nice, now that all the hoods abandoned old Keating to death "inside" to cover their assets, TO HEAR WHAT THE MAN REALLY HAS TO SAY ABOUT THOSE BRIBES AND INVOLVED OFFICIALS??? SOMEONE OUGHT TO PURSUE THAT STORY! Did everyone note the shocked expression on Keating's face when he was "actually" convicted and sentenced? Something had gone "terribly" wrong, hadn't it?]

POWs STILL ALIVE

Unlike fellow POW McCain, Guy believes there are still Americans alive and in captivity in Southeast Asia.

From the beginning, everyone familiar with the issue knew where Kerry, the committee chairman, stood. He had made it clear time and time again that he was in favor of normalization of relations with Vietnam and/or lifting of the trade embargo, before Hanoi accounts for the 2,265 American POWs and MIAs still missing in Southeast Asia.

He has even espoused this as chairman of the committee and has used the panel as a forum to promote normalization and lifting the embargo.

Although a combat vet in Vietnam, Kerry left the service to become a leader of the radical and pro-Hanoi Vietnam Veterans Against the War, where he advocated that the United States withdraw from the war before the communists released any POWs.

The question of Americans being left behind and alive in Southeast Asia has frequently been called "the issue that will not die."

Indeed, it remains very much alive, as Kerry and the others of the select committee will find out in the weeks and months ahead, to their chagrin.

END OF QUOTING

Or, you-the-people will go right back to sleep, throw up your hands and say, "What's the use?" Perhaps this is what those Gays are fighting for: To be left in a stinking rot-hole or desert oven while being allowed to serve in the military? How many of you readers believe it? I thought not! So, what is going on, children? Could the "old Protocols" be at play and the pushers at work? Better look at it because it is coming down fast now. Fits right into the Illuminati's New World Order Plan and Rhodes' New World Order, doesn't it? Do YOU have a ticket off this globe and into security? I would really attend that were I you!

Thank you Dharma, for the hours of work. Also, listen up, scribe—you will note the tendon shielding in your hands may very well begin to diminish in size with the taking of the Gaiandriana. [See next-to-last pages for more information on this.] This is because the functioning tendons are healing themselves and you will not need such heroic measures. This is a sure sign of healing and normalizing so KNOW that God is giving back in reward for service rendered. Your typing skills will not diminish—only become even more comfortable. Also note that the "freckles" as are natural to your coloring are quite normal but the "spots" from other causes and age darkening are now GONE! This is the exact response expected so accept it graciously—we are in great appreciation for your service.

Hatonn to stand aside.

Salu.

Nevada Corporations

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW

It's time to take a look again at just what exactly is this form of ownership called a "corporation", and more specifically a Nevada Corporation:

A corporation is a legal, artificial person: a person that is separate, distinct, and TOTALLY APART FROM YOU. It is NOT you. You are NOT it. Pretend you set up a corporation and named it Samuel Gene. It is the same as if you have birthed a baby boy and named him Samuel Gene. It will have all its own identification. Now, as a teaser about Nevada, suppose the parent (owner) of Samuel Gene wants to hide from public view his (their) relationship as parent — Nevada is the only state that completely hides ownership of that new baby.

Further, a corporation is a distinct, legal entity, separate and apart from its members, stockholders, directors or officers. Although it is a separate entity, it can act only through its members, officers or agents and cannot have knowledge or belief of any subject independent of the knowledge or belief of its people. Woops—your baby has no brains of its own, no wonder you want to hide from the public. A stockholder (owner or partial owner) is a holder of shares of stock in the corporation and is NOT IN LEGAL CONSIDERATION OR DANGER. (In other words, you are not, as the owner or parent, responsible for the brain damage.) A stockholder is not the employer of those working for the corporation nor is he the owner of corporate property.

A corporation is an artificial person. Its rights, duties and liabilities do not differ from those of a natural person under similar conditions except, of course, where the exercise of duty would require the ability to comprehend or think. That's what the board of directors is for: they do the thinking. Proof that the directors thought on behalf of the corporation is EVIDENCED BY THE RECORDED MINUTES AND RESOLUTIONS: PAPERWORK. YOUR LIVING RIGHTS ARE THE HEARTPLACE OF YOUR NEW BABE—MESS UP ON THE PAPERWORK AND YOU WILL KILL THE CHILD BY NEGLIGENCE. For example, a corporation may become a debtor or trespasser. A corporation can buy, trade, sell and make loans; it can execute literally any actions that you, as a person, can do. Think it through. The possibilities become fascinating and you can be most creative.

A corporation is a citizen of THE STATE WHEREIN IT IS CREATED. (THAT IS WHY TO CHOOSE NEVADA. SO THAT YOU CAN TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE BEST CORPORATION AND TAX LAWS IN THE U.S. — LEGALLY AND WITH VERY LITTLE TROUBLE. YOU DON'T EVEN HAVE TO VISIT THE STATE. YOU 'DO' HAVE TO HAVE A RESIDENT AGENT WITHIN THE STATE OF NEVADA BUT THAT IS PAINLESS. ALSO, THE MONEY IS WELL WORTH THE ASSETS.)

A corporation does not cease to be a citizen of the state in which it is incorporated by engaging in business or acquiring property in another state.

Since corporations ARE SOLELY CREATURES OF STATUTE (LAW), the powers of a corporation in another state are derived from the constitution and laws of the state in which it is incorporated.

A corporation has an existence separate and apart from the stockholders. As an artificial person, a corporation is considered to have its domicile (home) in the state where it is incorporated and the place where it has its registered or statutory resident agent or home office in that state. When the corporation is actually in a different place, the site of its resident agent is sometimes said to be its "statutory domicile".

The existence of the corporation is not affected by the death or bankruptcy or legal attack of a shareholder or by the transfer of its shares. IT HAS A CONTINUOUS EXISTENCE. IT IS IMMORTAL for as long as it complies with the annual requirements of the state in which it is incorporated.

The IMPORTANT POINT to remember is that when you own a Nevada corporation, the corporation exists as a separate entity or person. You can live anywhere you choose, in any state of the U.S., Canada, France, England, Germany, Sri Lanka, etc. IT IS THE CORPORATION WHICH CONFORMS TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE STATE IN WHICH IT "RESIDES". NEVADA, YOU WILL FIND, IS THE STATE WITH THE BENEFITS TO PROTECT YOU AND YOUR CORPORATION.

Suppose you decide to go live in Mexico. That does not cause you to lose your U.S. citizenship. Further, if the police or neighbors become nasty you can come right back to the U.S. and gain protection. No less with a corporation.

When you are in the original process of incorporating, you probably cannot ascertain whether or not that haven might ever be of value to you. All too often unanticipated problems can arise in your home state, particularly if that state is tough on business and taxes. If your business grows and begins to make a big profit, then it can be nothing short of a godsend or a miracle for the corporation to be able to abandon or abort operations in your home state and retreat to a home base HAVEN: the protection of the constitution of the state under which it is incorporated. It is no accident that Nevada, of course, happens to be the best state in which to incorporate. But that's a story for another time!

A Special Letter

(Editor's note: Commander Hatonn has asked that the following beautiful, heart-felt letter be shared with all our readers. Commander feels that it speaks as much for the hearts of many of you, as it does for those who actually were moved to do this writing.)

January 30, 1993

To Commander:

We want you to know and hear our thoughts of you, toward God. We are most thankful unto you and your crew. An amazing job is being done. We are humbled by your presence. We often feel too small for the task. You are teaching us how great we can be — with God. We are beginning to see the Wonders occur. Thank you Commander and crew.

— God's Children

awesome powers of the Earth, which is called Gaia in this message from God's Children. Please pass this on to the proper entities. We'd like this read aloud please Commander, so others may feel of our deep love for you. Consider this from whomever says yea in their heart.

A Message of Love

Gaia; Life; The Mother Energy; The Nurturer; The Wondrous Work; The Miracle. All these things we call Thee. Thou art Blessed of us. We hold our hearts close to Thee in sleep. With dancing feet we caress Thy loving face in waking hours. We breathe in deeply, Thy perfumes of perfection. We stand in awe of Thy vastness and Glory. Yea we do worship Thee with respect. Above all things else, we honor Thee.

We weep with Thee Gaia; for Thy pain. We cry aloud, and silently within our Spirits as we witness Thy torment. We give forth our hands unto Thee. Hold tightly and soon it shall be done; On Earth as it is in The Heavens.

We thank Thee Gaia, for Thy continuing sustenance. Thou still nourisheth Thy children in the midst of Thine labours. Blessed art Thou Mother. We kneel in humble gratitude to Thee. We may not tarry long at kneeling beside Thy Fountain of Life. There is much work yet to do. We never forget Thee.

God. We thank Thee for all Thy wondrous gifts. We acknowledge Thy Hosts, come now as foretold. We knew Thou wouldst not forget Thine promise unto us, Father. We honor and greatly revere, Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn. The Words he gives unto us are as priceless pearls. To some, his message is as a lightning bolt, taken with fear, anger, and a curse against Thee. To us, his message is a long awaited rain, washing away the dust of lies that had settled upon us. We love his gentle, loving manner, and his abundant sense of humor. He is shedding a beautiful light on our path. We find joy and comfort in His presence.

We anticipate greatly, the return of the Christed One we now recognize as Sananda. He has been known to us by many names. We welcome lovingly into our midst; Sananda — One with God, and Creation.

We have waited so long for Thy return Master. We long to sit at Thy table and feast upon Thy Truth.

— God's Children

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well!

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health. Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, the metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes, and thus the cells themselves. The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as hardening of the arteries.

One area of Aging Research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being byproducts of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we also generate significant levels of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and beta-carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glytathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents, alone and in combination.

GINKGO BILOBA (Ginkgo Biloba extract 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba, or Maidenhair tree, is one of the oldest living species on this planet. Ginkgo has flourished almost unchanged for 150 million years, and its ancestors can be traced back 250 million years. It is because of this antiquity that the Ginkgo Biloba tree is called "the living fossil". Individual trees are believed capable of living 2000 to 4000 years. During the last ice age, Ginkgos nearly became extinct. These trees survived only in China and other parts of Asia, where they stayed until approximately 1,000 years ago. At that time, Ginkgo trees were also planted around monasteries in Japan, where they still live today.

The name Ginkgo may come from the Chinese Sankyo or Yinkuo (Yin Guo), meaning "hill apricot" or "silver fruit". The word biloba means "two lobes" and describes the young leaves. Although modern medical research focuses mainly on the leaves of Ginkgo, the Ginkgo fruits and nuts have been used in China since time immemorial as a delicacy and tonic food. Ancient Chinese texts record Ginkgo's use as a medicinal agent as far back as five thousand years ago.

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

MO-GU ELIXIR

The first recorded use of Mo-Gu Elixir was during the Chinese Tsin-Dynasty in 221 B.C. It was referred to as "The Remedy for Immortality" or "The Divine Tsche".

It has been well documented that there are certain people who live to be well past a hundred years of age. These people live in such areas as the mountainous Caucasus, Yakutia in Siberia, the Poltava District of the Ukraine, Tibet and Spain. There is an area in Russia called Kargasok where the people are a dairy- and vegetable-eating populace. Centenarians are common among these people. They attribute their longevity to the Yeast Enzyme Tea (Mo-Gu Elixir) which has been in their diet for hundreds of years. It is said that Mo-Gu and yak butter are staples among the dwellers of the high Himalayas.

Mo-Gu has been used throughout history in China, Japan, Russia, Korea, and India. It has been said to promote a feeling of well-being and overall physical restoration. It has been known by many names, some of which are: Fungus Japonicus, Fungojapon Kombucha, Pichia Fermentans, Cembuya Orientalis, Combuchu Tschambucco, Volga-Spring, Champignon de Longue Vie, Teekwass, Kwassan, and Kargasok.

The Mo-Gu fungus constructs in a membrane form and is a symbiosis of yeast cells and different bacteria. Among these bacteria are: Bacterium Xylinum, Bacterium Gluconicum, Acetobacter Ketogenum, and Pichia Fermentans.

The Mo-Gu fungus needs to live in a solution composed of common (black) tea and sugar. In the proper temperature environment they multiply constantly. They do not build spores as yeast normally does, but instead multiply by a process of branching.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a single-celled, fresh-water algae. Believed to be the first form of life with a true nucleus, chlorella dates back approximately 2.5 billion years, making it pre-Cambrian. Through the process of photosynthesis chlorella cells reproduce themselves by cell division at the rate of four new cells every 17-24 hours. It was not until the 1890s that chlorella was identified under the microscope. In naming it, the prefix chlor was selected to signify green, while the suffix ella, indicates small. Chlorella is the most researched algae in the world and remains the most popular with millions of consumers world-wide.

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: Vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll a, chlorophyll b, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.
