"Ms." Janet Reno Symbol Of Clinton Team's (Per)Version Of Justice

2/28/94 #1 HATONN

WACO/RENO DEBACLE

I have been asked to comment on the convictions and acquittals of the "Davidians" accused of murdering federal agents. [See latest update on "The Trial Of The Branch Davidians" on p. 33.]

I have very few comments on the case which have not been made several times prior to this, by me. Clinton should be impeached [See related story, "Living On Borrowed Time—The Clintons' Very Tangled Past", on p. 31]; and Reno, if it were the olden days of instant "justice", would be lynched. Nothing can ever allow these people to have peace or justice or restoration within their souls after what has happened. Neither should the NATION or her CITIZENS—YOU!

So, my comments? I think I will offer, again, the credentials of the woman (??) who ordered the murders of the Waco men, women and children. She is one of the top echelon rulers of the Amazon Hillary Hellcats. [Don't miss this story, called "Big Sister is Watching You!" on p. 8.] What more is there to say about this reflection on the moral decency of your Nation?

To protect Dharma from the myriad insults and assaults by the Hounds of Hell I shall be happy to offer you further insight into those "darlings" of the White House top advisory ruling team. We can begin today with Janet Reno.

Rather than repeat what we have already written—and in order to give YOU more widespread confirmation of the truth of that which we offer—I simply offer you what is published in BIG SISTER IS WATCHING YOU! by Texe Marrs, Living Truth Publishers, 1708 Patterson Road, Austin, Texas 78733. And—YES, MR. BINDER AND MR. GREEN ET AL.: WE CERTAINLY DO HAVE PERMISSION TO USE THIS MATERIAL. WE ALWAYS HAVE INSTANT PERMISSION FROM ANYONE WHO ACTUALLY AND TRUTHFULLY WANTS TRUTH TO FLOW TO THE CITIZENS!

JANET RENO
Duchess of Doom

Janet Reno is living proof that the inmates are now fully in charge of the insane asylum. What's more, the locos have convinced the outside world that it is their victims and not themselves who are crazy!

Consider these rather astute and extremely revealing comments by Dick Hafer who has researched and documented the lives and habits of Clinton appointees:

"Janet Reno is a woman [H: ??] of 'unusual tastes'. Unmarried, childless, and at 6'2", an imposing person. Ms. Reno relaxes in various ways.

"One peculiar way is to lie on her trampoline in her backyard and recite (the famed poet Samuel) Coleridge...until she falls asleep, surrounded by 35 pet peacocks, who are ALL NAMED HORACE!"

"She also relaxes by chain-sawing trees. (Does Al Gore know about this?) This is our nation's top law enforcement official?"

Hafer also refers to a colorful but mind-boggling feature story in The Washington Post which explains that, in Janet Reno's home, "There are dusty floors and a rusty refrigerator (Please see "Ms." JANET RENO, p.40)

Common Sense Logic

2/22/94 #1 HATONN

I have here a well-done document from Dr. Carlson which I ask to share at this time. It deals with "sex" and relationships from a totally literate advantage. You will see that by changing definitions of terms and ideas a whole plethora of assumed actions and acceptance can be introduced into a society.

[QUOTING:]

February 4, 1994

COMMON SENSE LOGIC

COMMON: BELONGING OR PERTAINING EQUALLY TO MORE THAN ONE OR TO MANY INDEFINITELY; BELONGING TO ALL; GENERALLY; UNIVERSAL.

COMMON SENSE: SOUND PRACTICAL JUDGMENT; THE NATURAL SAGACITY OR UNDERSTANDING OF MANKIND IN GENERAL. (SAGACITY: QUICKNESS OF DISCERNMENT)

COMMON LAW: THE UNWRITTEN LAW, THE LAW THAT RECEIVES ITS BINDING FORCE FROM IMMEMORIAL USAGE AND UNIVERSAL RECEPTION, IN DISTINCTION FROM THE WRITTEN LAW, STATUTE LAW. (STATUTE LAW ALSO KNOWN AS ROMAN CIVIL LAW, EQUITY LAW, MERCHANT LAW (LAW OF THE MERCHANT), CONTRACT LAW, COMMERCIAL LAW, THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE (FEDERAL COMMON LAW), OR ADMIRALTY LAW (MARITIME), WHICH HAS A CRIMINAL ASPECT.) SEE BLACKS LAW DICTIONARY UNDER LAW!

NATURE: (FROM L. NATURA, FROM NATUS (FOR GNATUS), BORN, PRODUCED, FROM ROOT GNA OR GAN, GENUS): THE UNIVERSE; THE SYSTEM OF THINGS OF WHICH OURSELVES ARE A PART.

NATURAL: PERTAINING TO NATURE; PRODUCED BY NATURE; NOT ARTIFICIAL, ACQUIRED, OR ASSUMED, IN CONFORMITY WITH THE LAW OF NATURE.

NATURAL LAW: CONNECTED WITH THE EXISTING PHYSICAL SYSTEM OF THINGS, OR CREATION AT LARGE; ACCORDING TO LIFE AND REALITY; WITHOUT AFFECTATION OR ARTIFICIALITY.

- 1) COMMON SENSE IS FOUNDED UPON COMMON LAW;
- 2) COMMON LAW IS FOUNDED UPON NATURAL LAW;
- 3) NATURAL LAWS ARE THE LAWS OF NATURE OR CREATOR OF NATURE.

THEREFORE, SINCE IN NATURE THERE IS NOT TO BE FOUND THE "UNION" (MARRIAGE) OCCURRING BETWEEN SAME-SEX MATES, "UNION" (MARRIAGE) MAY ONLY OCCUR BETWEEN OPPOSITE-SEX MATES THUS, MARRIAGE (UNION) IN NATURE ONLY OCCURS, COMMONSENSE, BETWEEN OPPOSITE-

SEX MATES.

BLACKS LAW DICTIONARY, 5TH Ed.:

SEX: THE SUM OF THE PECULIARITIES OF STRUCTURE AND FUNCTION THAT DISTINGUISH A MALE FROM A FEMALE ORGANISM; THE CHARACTERISTIC OF BEING MALE OR FEMALE.

BISEXUAL: NO DEFINITION!

SEXUALITY: NO DEFINITION!

MERRIAM WEBSTER'S COLLEGIATE DICTIONARY, 10TH Ed.:

SEX: EITHER OF THE TWO MAJOR FORMS OF INDIVIDUALS THAT OCCUR IN MANY SPECIES AND THAT ARE DISTINGUISHED RESPECTIVELY AS FEMALE OR MALE.

BISEXUAL: 1)a. POSSESSING CHARACTERISTICS OF BOTH SEXES: HERMAPHRODITIC b. SEXUALLY ORIENTED TOWARD BOTH SEXES (DID NOT SAY SEXUAL ORIENTATION) 2) EXPRESSION OF SEXUAL PERCEPTIVITY OR INTEREST.

SEXUALITY: THE QUALITY OR STATE OF BEING SEXUAL: a. THE CONDITION OF HAVING SEX; b. SEXUAL ACTIVITY; c. EXPRESSION OF SEXUAL RECEPTIVITY OR INTEREST.

WEBSTER ENCYCLOPEDIA DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, 1980:

SEX: (FROM SECO, TO CUT) THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE, OR THAT PROPERTY OR CHARACTER BY WHICH AN ANIMAL IS MALE OR FEMALE.

BISEXUAL: HAVING THE ORGANS OF BOTH SEXES IN ONE INDIVIDUAL; OF TWO SEXES; HERMAPHRODITE; BOTANY: HAVING BOTH STAMEN AND PISTLE WITHIN THE SAME ENVELOPE.

SEXUALITY: THE STATE OR QUALITY OF BEING DISTINGUISHED BY SEX.

BISEXUALITY, I ASSERT, AS UNDERSTOOD BY THE HOMOSEXUAL COMMUNITY, DOES NOT EXIST. BISEXUALITY BLURRED BY THE HOMOSEXUAL INDICATES A CHOICE BY THE INDIVIDUAL THAT IS CONTRARY TO THE LAWS OF NATURE AND THE CREATOR OF WHAT WE KNOW AS NATURE. BISEXUALITY AS WELL AS HOMOSEXUALITY DOES NOT EXIST IN NATURE AS ONE IS LED TO BELIEVE BY THE CURRENT HOMOSEXUAL INTERPRETATION. [H: THE ACTIONS OF THESE "GROUPS" CAN ONLY BE CLASSIFIED AS VARIOUSLY DEFINED "BEHAVIORS AND ACTIONS".]

[H: With this above in mind Dr. Carlson has written a letter to a committee which is unimportant as to "whom" and of which we have no input. It is the letter and information which is important and which is herein shared.]

SAME SEX MARRIAGE

JANUARY 31, 1994

HONORABLE REPRESENTATIVE TOM, MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

I humbly offer my words against same sex marriage and at the same time I suggest a wise and prudent course on any legislation at all! Since our anglo-saxon common law only recognizes opposite sex-paired mates as fit and capable for marriage, and since the courts in Singer v Hara, 11 Wash. App. 247,522 p.2d 1187, 1193, define marriage as "legal union of one man and one woman as husband and wife", and BLACKS LAW DICTIONARY uses that as its own definition, it is futile to concern ourselves with needless legislation and more than worthy to have this conversation. It is already well settled in nature that opposite sex-paired mates join for the purpose of procreation, enjoyment of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Nowhere in nature do you see the marriage of same sex-paired mates, and therefore, homosexuality is contrary to the order of nature and natural law. This is clear and true by simple observation and reflection!

There is no need to legislate that which is already law, for marriage is only available to opposite sex-paired mates. This is found in common law, the law of our land. If two same sex persons wish to live together and use organs of speech and elimination as their expression of "love" for each other, then they may so do in privacy. They have choice to do what they want, when they want, how they want, just as long as they violate NOT the right of liberty, and happiness, of others. Same sex persons may do this in privacy in our country even though it is against the laws of nature and nature's GOD!

To create legislation in this matter only leads to further confusion of the ISSUE. The State only leads to further confusion of the issue. The State only grants licenses for marriage for the purpose of recording legal relationships and responsibilities. It should be and is self-evident that the department that issues the State license may so do ONLY to OPPOSITE SEX-PAIRED MATES that present for that license. Therefore, I encourage all to reconsider the issue of legislation, for it is NOT NEEDED!

Common sense and common law are the wisest of guides in this consideration! However, if prevailing wisdom calls for legislation then I support H.B. No. 2312 and NOT TAMPERING WITH THE STATE CONSTITUTION.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. R.C. (Honolulu, Hawaii)

[END QUOTING]

I have two other documents from Dr. C. which are superbly well done on "gun" control. However, that is not at issue in my focus today so will hold for future consideration as we have time to speak again on those matters. I wish herein to focus on the "absolutes" of the genders and "paired" functions of ALL things, including the lighted thought of GOD. Changing definitions of "things" does not change one iota of what IS!

The Truth Behind THOUGHT

2/22/94 #1 HATONN

The following two documents [Dr. Carlson's letter on p. 2 and The Illusion of Money p. 5] are asked to be typed so that they can be shared with both the newspaper readers and placed in the JOURNAL. I ask you to do it, Dharma, so that you are familiar with the content as well as having shifted the material to disc. All hands are so overburdened that we must consider the ability of others to take more load.

I must drift from personal or current local events and leave them to the staff to pick up—as in the case of the ongoing saga of Gritz, et al. Comment? Yes. What is sent forth will always return a minimum of ten-fold upon the sender! Things of the physical are of the physical and cannot be integrated into the invisible except as counterbalancing expression. Dale S. has sent a good representation of the visible/invisible processes. Even to her I have to state that her well-thought-out example (drawing) is not original in content and I apologize for causing her to ponder and think upon the concept presented in illustration, for the concept IS THE CONCEPT EXPRESSED IN RUSSELL'S AND HUNDREDS OF OTHER WRITER'S PRESENTATIONS AND IS THE MAJOR THRUST OF THE UNDERSTANDING OF HYPNOSIS AND THOUGHT IN ACTION. EVERYTHING and EVERY ACTION has a balanced counter-action or thought expressed in the opposite "dimension". I.e., each thought has an immediate expression in the visible plane. Thus is the expression of YOU as God's "thought". Likewise, every physical movement or expression moves throughout the universe of the unseen—even to the motion of an index finger in movement. I.e., an instant "reaction" in "thought" (the invisible universe) is garnered even by that one movement. A baby in random movement of the index finger may mean nothing but that the hand is "working". However, a finger in a hole in the dike may well save the day, or, a finger pointing at someone instantly conjures thoughts representative of the action of the circumstance. YOU are thought—the physical (visible) is an expression of those "thoughts" in manifestation—not the YOU.

I ask that the drawing be shared with readers. If, in fact, we had had an artist who would "listen" to me we would have no argument this day with the University of Science and Philosophy. However, the ARGUMENT is the lesson! God can present the Truth of LIFE at any time in any way chosen. The "lessons" are of the physical expression so that you can both "understand" Truth AND see in example those things which we share with you in ACTION of expression.

You are experiencing in a world of illusions so synthetic that you need to attend the evolvement of those now acceptable, but unreasonable (without logical Truth), activities presented in SERIOUS THOUGHT RECOGNITION.

In the PLEIADES CONNECTION writings, we effected to present the already brought forth science of the workings of thought as moving into expressions manifest. Since we are unable to utilize that material offered in its original state—we shall have to consider how to bring the "concept" and YOU will have to be able to diagram your own perceptions. If there are ones who, like Dale, wish to demonstrate the beautiful concepts of TRUTH in original drawings, we would consider them—if, in fact, the illusion put to paper be accurate. Dr. Russell's diagrams were accurate and depicted the concept in picture form for better understanding of his SCIENCE understanding. It is now claimed that it is against the law to utilize that resource of SCIENCE and therefore I will not jeopardize further my writer.

It is interesting to note the lack of understanding of the "higher" journey to which you all CLAIM to aspire. When one reaches the higher altitudes in the journey of upward climb, the old Earth laws and ways are left behind. In order to abide permanently in that realm of high and eternal light, one must comprehend the issues that are involved. He must also understand the higher laws and be able to use them with power. The "righteousness of HIS Kingdom" is a KNOWING (knowledge) of the right-use of its laws.

Each individual will learn, in the upward ascent, that every negative thought and feeling becomes a weight upon his body and a drag upon his soul. Negative thoughts and feelings have power not only to retard one's progress but to stop it completely, unless overcome. Mortal thinking is mostly negative, discordant, selfish thinking. From here on the negatives must be understood completely. It becomes necessary to KNOW that the negative thoughts and feelings contain all the laws of the lower realms of physical darkness. As long as an individual abides in the vibrations of negative thinking and negative feeling, he cannot possibly progress into the Light or walk with power. Furthermore, he is shackled by his inability to "think" in terms which would actually and physically pull him into the upward half of the "spiral" journey. By this I mean that he will turn away from that which is physically presented in form for his use—because it comes from that which is invisible and therefore "must be bad"—as presented by your churches and self-selected "leaders".

The laws of God, the laws of "overcoming", the laws of glory and happiness and power are contained in the ability to "think" TRUE thinking which is the processing of one's thoughts as they are brought under control by complete comprehension of their purpose and power.

True thinking is the thinking which holds the keys of faith-filled, magnificent, unspeakable joy that all so greatly desire. Many are deceived and enticed into evil dens and dives of iniquity, thinking that joy is obtainable by imbibing strong drinks. Too late they learn that "strong drink is a mocker". There are many who have to discover this truth for themselves—in fact, ALL have to somehow discover this fact for selves. Few can be told. Any who continue to become addicted drinkers lose the power to think clearly and correctly—thusly are "out of control". They not only relinquish their power of true thinking, but even their very freedom is confiscated, in time. This is a subject which begs for further discussion but I do not wish to foist this off on you as a focus for it is a focus of its own.

As one progresses into the higher realms he must leave all this "negativity" behind. But, one doesn't have the capability of realizing that "negativity" is only a "thought" regarding a circumstance or "thing". In other words, it is simply a reflection of thought patterns REGARDING THE PHYSICAL EXPRESSION FOR ALL HIGHER THOUGHT IS, OF ITS VERY NATURE, POSITIVE!

In "divine" thinking there are no thoughts of evil, of lack, of fear or hate and distress. True thinking IS divine thinking. True thinking is so love-filled that fear, darkness and all evil flee before it. "Perfect love casts out all fear."

Drawing sent by Dale S.

One can neither think nor feel the discordant, harassed, evil things of which mortal life is composed. The point of transition is where one comprehends this fact and drops the negative aspects, knowing fully what he is doing and what he will accomplish.

Well, some of you ask, is Dharma able to move in this singularly "positive" pathway? My goodness, NO! In "divine" thinking there are no thoughts of evil, of lack, of fear or hate and distress. True thinking IS divine thinking. True thinking is so love-filled that fear, darkness and all evil flee before it. "Perfect love casts out all fear." YOU are becoming "divine" when you can rise above and beyond these terrors and perceptions—she is just like YOU—scared and petrified from time to time, as assaults strike, that she will fail somehow. This is "human" expression resulting from "conditioned learning". It often serves as a good protector of physical bodies. You are all on this journey—TOGETHER. She is not given more than are you for you of GOD must reach that station of understanding worthy of higher pathways—TOGETHER. It is a transition, a graduation, not some medal to hang around a physical neck to swell with pride over its acquisition.

Man's creative ability is contained completely in his thinking and feeling processes. Any thought, dropped into the emotions so it becomes something an individual actually feels, will become an established, definite reality in his life. Please note that the results of evil thoughts such as hate, anger or selfish thinking, when awakened in one's feelings, are conditions precipitated as old age, disease, poverty and all earthly misfortune. These "symptoms" go with the resulting physical manifestation of these "thoughts". All the negative aspects of life come to an individual as real experiences because of his own negative thinking, including the FINAL SEAL OF MORTALITY, WHICH SEAL IS CALLED "DEATH".

LOVE-FILLED POSITIVE "THOUGHTS"

Glorified, love-filled thoughts of praising gratitude awaken and bring forth the gifts and powers of life eternal. Behind every glorious, love-filled thought is contained the breath of everlasting life. You can read a response to given thoughts of "Truth" or "lie" from a simple lie-detector testing. There is a physical response to the "thought" which is Truth and that which is lie.

With these things in mind we can then speak of what happens in the now-in-focus sexual presentments within society which are now accepted as valid TRUE expression. They CANNOT be valid expression (go back and read the first part of the defining material in this writing).

SEXUAL PERVERSIONS AND EXPRESSIONS

There is love for the same sex and, then, there is physical expression (actions and behaviors) of outward misinterpretation of feelings. You will note that in ALL instances of "out of closet" homosexuals—there is no focus on respect and/or "love" of a same gender. It is a focused DEMAND for interaction and PHYSICAL expression of erotic interchange. In EVERY case the "feelings" are birthed in total loss of self-respect and in that loss the creation of good self-esteem is buried and lost while seeking satisfaction within the undercover world of physical activities—NEVER SATISFYING.

Following the loss of self-respect there is little left to build upon. The only hope in existence for such as these unfortunates is for them to comprehend the issues, then with increased understanding and almost super-human determination begin to battle for their release from enslavement and their rights to lost powers and lost virtues. Hopefully this comprehension and correction of "actions" will come PRIOR to the infections which accompany the "dis-EASE" of the affliction and misunderstandings. Again, you can only heal or deal—through the direction of THOUGHT.

Sex perversions of any kind are caused, in almost all cases, by uncontrolled "thoughts". It is a condition that is self-encouraged and hence self-developed. When such uncontrolled thoughts and feelings are strong enough they become the controlling factors and the persons who created them become the slaves. When the perversion becomes the accepted norm of social behavior you have birthed the demons upon mankind from which burdens, once accepted, a civilization cannot prevail but will ultimately perish.

"Over-sexed" individuals have become so through their own thought processes. The "thought" of no satisfaction which is sought after in all the wrong places and activities. Satisfaction is a thing singularly felt within the soul emotion expression. To "satisfy" a physical body is a misdefinition for in the physical there is no such state of being—only a temporary "feeling" of satisfaction or satiation. So, from their own minds in distress and misperception have come the seeds of downfall. In the emotions those seeds of thought were and are nurtured into feelings that have run out of bounds. In such degeneracy it is possible for man to sink below the level of the beasts and reptiles.

It is necessary to speak of these things now and, at some point along this journey reflective of the issues involved between light and darkness, it is necessary to note these issues. Why? So that it can be fully comprehended, and to fulfill the promise that: "All men might be left without excuse." This point must have clear definition so that all may totally comprehend the issues involved and glimpse the glorified realms ahead.

This is quite necessary in order that the transition might be made while still in mortality. In Truth, it is the point where mortality can take on immortality through perfect understanding, divine obedience to Truth and with great love. This is the point along that upward climb in which the laws and powers of eternity can become fully operative as one leaves the mortal realms. This is the point of egress from the earth plane onto the higher plane, where mortality takes on the properties of immortality. The dividing line is as sharp a line as is the River of Life to those who pass through the experience of death. However, the pathway is infinitely continually merging wherein no finite LINE can be drawn and anticipated. None can possibly travel into the higher realms without comprehending in the fullest detail the issues involved. We speak of these things so that ultimately the very subject can be considered in the ways of "mortality" so that they might afterwards be forever left behind.

It is by VISION that all things come forth. The power of vision is the power of Creation. The power of "vision" is also the power or gift of imagination. It is the power to "image-in" to the emotions one's thoughts until they become alive and active so they are registered as feelings or intense desires. It is then they will produce or bring forth the tangible results. This is the law which holds the everlasting powers of Creation within its embrace. This knowledge reveals the true aspect of that which is recognized as the "Tree of Good and Evil". This law of Creation will as readily produce all good as it will evil. Within man himself is contained the seed of its fruitage. Man holds the keys and powers of all Creation right within himself. Whether or not the results of such powers are good or evil is of man's choosing—each individually. Man has all that the Father has, even the full powers of Creation. Man himself chooses how he will use such powers.

Thus far in experience on the Earth plane these creative powers have been mostly MISUSED through man's gross ignorance. It is time for that blinding veil of ignorance to be torn asunder and for man to begin to stand forth as a master and the deciding factor in such creative processes.

I realize this is such an important step in "understanding" what you ARE and what needs to come into your perception and actions in order to attain higher comprehension that we shall continue the subject if that pleases you. It is time to do so in open forum. It is, further, time to come to understanding that ALL FRAGMENTS of MAN will not come into understanding at all. This is why we can only present TRUTH and then back off and allow you ones to do that which you will with THE WORD brought forth as promised.

Let us close this chapter so that the segments do not become unmanageable. Thank you.

The Illusion Of Money

2/22/94 #1 HATONN

Going along with the idea and factual expression of illusion (invisible) and manifestation of illusion (as is life physical in expression) as differs from reality of the invisible domain, I offer the following Anonymous document. This expresses the thought and actual manifestation of MONEY. It is called:

[QUOTING:]

THE ILLUSION OF MONEY

Only that which is real can last forever. That which is not real cannot and therefore is an illusion. Nothing real can be threatened. Nothing unreal exists.

When the world dies and is reborn, money and all the man-made products of Earth, both in raw material and the refinements of civilization, shall disappear. They will be engulfed by winds and waves and shifting crusts of Earth. They will be empty and unseen testimonies to those who paid the price of health, of time, of money, and of other bartered illusions to exchange one illusion for another. Anything mankind has put a price on, is considered an investment and has value. They will go from having a price to having worthlessness. Anything on Earth that can be regarded as worthy, unworthy, valuable, invaluable, or having any price at all, is an illusion that shall pass away with time.

So the next time you see a merchant selling goods and ask him the price, remember that you have defined his goods as illusions. The value of a product is determined by society. Also you can set the value on what you receive, and price it by what you give. Remember that the price is, itself, an illusion. No money, products, or tangible items of value will survive the passing of the old Earth and the beginning of the new Earth. In that happy time, there can be nothing bought or sold, nothing priced or priceless, and nothing regarded as possessions in any way. All things will be free, without price, readily available, and regarded without pride, vanity, jealousy, or envy. Covetousness will be impossible, for anything can be enjoyed by anyone without depriving another. This of course would be the end to mankind's slavery!

You cannot imagine this today, but you can imagine the illusions of this earthly dimension, in which all things seem to have a price. Just remember, if it has a price, it is an illusion. So is its price. This is true, whether the price is money, merchandise, or time. If it has a price, it is an illusion. And if it is tangible, but is not for sale because it is rare and valuable, it is also an illusion.

You are not taught to hold fast to that which is good so that others cannot take it away from you. You are taught to hold on to that which is good because that which is good is reality. That which is good is free, plentiful, available to all, and without price. The things to which you cling on Earth are the things which drag you down as they perish, or lift you up and sustain you as they survive, being of reality. If you hold on to the anchor of the ship as it is cast into the sea, you will drown, even though the ship is safely held in place by her anchor.

But if you stay with the ship and let the anchor go into the water, you will be served by the illusion of the anchor and preserved by the life of the ship as she floats throughout the storm. This is the lesson of price, for if you hold fast to those things which are free, eternal, real, spiritually alive, intangible, and without price, you will be holding fast to that which is good and letting go of that which is not.

The stores are full of merchandise with prices, which things are as illusive as the money that buys them. But the gift of love is the gift of the LIGHT which defines its name. The letter of the law found in religion and politics are letters bound by time, and space, and by the price of conforming to man-made laws and their strict interpretations.

Let this be the time wherein the prices for goods are cheerfully paid to buy illusions with illusions. Do what you can afford as you play the games of life in time and space, but remember this lesson. If anything has a price, it and its price are illusions. Grasp the good things of reality, which are free and eternal. Go in peace today. As you count the cost, remember that if it can be BOUGHT and HAS A PRICE, IT IS FINALLY TO GO THE WAY OF ALL THE ILLUSIONS OF TIME AND SPACE. Hold fast to that which is good and cast out that which is not. (Anonymous)

Goals Of Communism

2/22/94 #2 HATONN

POLITICALLY CORRECT?

I am here accused of being "politically" incorrect in the way I present my speeches to persons with whom I disagree on matters of Truth and spirituality. What in the world do you mean? I am amused that simple language terminology according to dictionary or Biblical definition are not sufficient to keep the lawsuits from the door. Does calling a shovel a "spade" or a "scoop implement" or a "digging device" make it more a "shovel"—or less? This is what has happened to all your foundational communications resources. A "thing" in description at one time is not THE description at another time. For instance, when I said that the "swine" who would keep information of Russell from the public, etc., was stated—it was immediately assumed and accepted as totally degrading in that I was calling those people, there, pigs. I was referring to the symbolic message of "casting pearls before swine and being trampled beneath the feet of...." Further, without specifics as to identification of "who", it was immediately established by the receivers as to "who" it "must" be. Was it accepted by the "correct individuals"? Possibly, but then, if shoes fit I always suggest they be worn if suitable.

If I were to call someone, say Georgeo Greenspanus, an "...ignorant, stupid substitute for a human who is a bore and an airhead who is a failure, spacey and dishonest"—would he likely be furious with me? What if I refer to him as a "Knowledge-base nonpossessor, cerebrally challenged, heifem who is a cerebro-atmospheric individual who is incompletely successful, somewhat differently focused and ethically disoriented?" What if I refer to a "Black" or "Hispanic" as "melanin saturated" or a "White" as "melanin deficient"? What if I refer to a bald man as "fallicularly challenged"? Or, a short man as "vertically challenged"? Or, a fat person as "horizontally challenged"? The facts ARE: it would become amusing, politically correct and no-body would know what in the heck I said. Isn't it true anymore that "Racist" actually means a politically correct way of saying "I disagree with you"? My "thanks" for the explicit definitions used above to Henry Beard and Christopher Cerf who have presented The Official Correct Dictionary and Handbook (Villard Books, $10). A small smattering of the contents have been forwarded to me from Mr. Tips whom I also thank for sharing.

What point could I be making here in the middle of "thought" discussions as associated with reality and illusion and the manifestation of either? Simple—you are trained continually to perceive EXACTLY that which is intended to disorient you and all your perceptions relative to "what IS".

COMMUNIST GOALS

"Oh", you say, "now we are going to get the anti-Semite poking and the Communist intent to take the nations of the world." Well, GOOD FRIENDS, the Semites are NOT the Khazarian so-called Jews and the so-called "Jews" in reference ARE the ones who established and continue the Communist regime so you take your druthers while I offer a thought-provoking (I hope) look at something from your Congressional Record, Thursday, January 10, 1963. I don't believe I need make comment at all for even if you are "POLITICALLY CORRECT" you may yet be able to see the intent of the handwriting on the walls of your globe.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, 45 COMMUNIST GOALS

CURRENT COMMUNIST GOALS
EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF
HON. A.S. HERLONG, JR. of Florida
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, January 10, 1963

Mr. HERLONG: Mr. Speaker, Mrs. Patricia Nordman of De Land, Fla., is an ardent and articulate opponent of Communism and until recently published the De Land Courier, which she dedicated to the purpose of alerting the public to the dangers of Communism in America.

At Mrs. Nordman's request, I include in the RECORD, under unanimous consent, the following "Current Communist Goals", which she identifies as an excerpt from The Naked Communist, by Cleon Skousen:

CURRENT (1963) COMMUNIST GOALS

1. U.S. acceptance of co-existence as the only alternative to atomic war.
2. U.S. willingness to capitulate in preference to engaging in atomic war.
3. Develop the illusion that total disarmament by the United States would be a demonstration of moral strength.
4. Permit free trade between all nations regardless of Communist affiliation and regardless of whether or not items could be used for war.
5. Extension of long-term loans to Russian and Soviet satellites.
6. Provide American aid to all nations regardless of Communist domination.
7. Grant recognition of Red China. Admission of Red China to the U.N.
8. Set up East and West Germany as separate states in spite of Khrushchev's promise in 1955 to settle the German question by free elections under supervision of the U.N.

9. Prolong the conferences to ban atomic tests because the United States has agreed to suspend tests as long as negotiations are in progress.

10. Allow all Soviet satellites individual representation in the U.N.

11. Promote the U.N. as the only hope for mankind. If its charter is rewritten, demand that it be set up as a one-world government with its own independent armed forces. (Some Communist leaders believe the world can be taken over as easily by the U.N. as by Moscow. Sometimes these two centers compete with each other as they are now doing in the Congo.) [H: I think most of you can name several places around your globe even more evident as example—TODAY.]

12. Resist any attempt to outlaw the Communist Party.

13. Do away with all loyalty oaths.

14. Continue giving Russia access to the U.S. Patent Office.

15. Capture one or both of the political parties in the United States.

16. Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions by claiming their activities violate civil rights.

17. Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of teachers' associations. Put the party line in textbooks.

18. Gain control of all student newspapers.

19. Use student riots to foment public protests against programs or organizations which are under Communist attack.

20. Infiltrate the press. Get control of book-review assignments, editorial writing, policymaking positions.

21. Gain control of key positions in radio, TV, and motion pictures.

22. Continue discrediting American culture by degrading all forms of artistic expression. An American Communist cell was told to "eliminate all good sculpture from parks and buildings, substitute shapeless, awkward and meaningless forms."

23. Control art critics and directors of art museums. "Our plan is to promote ugliness, repulsive, meaningless art."

24. Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them "censorship" and a violation of free speech and free press.

25. Break down cultural standards of morality by promoting pornography and obscenity in books, magazines, motion pictures, radio, and TV.

26. Present homosexuality, degeneracy and promiscuity as "normal, natural, healthy".

27. Infiltrate the churches and replace revealed religion with "social" religion. Discredit the Bible and emphasize the need for intellectual maturity which does not need a "religious crutch".

28. Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the ground that it violates the principle of "separation of church and state".

29. Discredit the American Constitution by calling it inadequate, old-fashioned, out of step with modern needs, a hindrance to cooperation between nations on a worldwide basis.

30. Discredit the American Founding Fathers. Present them as selfish aristocrats who had no concern for the "common man".

31. Belittle all forms of American culture and discourage the teaching of American history on the ground that it was only a minor part of the "big picture". Give more emphasis to Russian history since the Communists took over.

32. Support any socialist movement to give centralized control over any part of the culture—education, social agencies, welfare programs, mental health clinics, etc.

33. Eliminate all laws or procedures which interfere with the operation of the Communist apparatus.

34. Eliminate the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

35. Discredit and eventually dismantle the FBI.

36. Infiltrate and gain control of more unions.

37. Infiltrate and gain control of big business.

38. Transfer some of the powers of arrest from the police to social agencies. Treat all behavioral problems as psychiatric disorders which no one but psychiatrists can understand or treat.

39. Dominate the psychiatric profession and use mental health laws as a means of gaining coercive control over those who oppose Communist goals.

40. Discredit the family as an institution. Encourage promiscuity and easy divorce.

41. Emphasize the need to raise children away from the negative influence of parents. Attribute prejudices, mental blocks and retarding of children to suppressive influence of parents.

42. Create the impression that violence and insurrection are legitimate aspects of the American tradition; that students and special-interest groups should rise up and use united force to solve economic, political or social problems.

43. Overthrow all colonial governments before native populations are ready for self-government.

44. Internationalize the Panama Canal.

45. Repeal the Connally reservation so the United States cannot prevent the World Court from seizing jurisdiction over nations and individuals alike.

[END OF QUOTING]

So now let's look at those old Protocols in the "short" form:

[QUOTING:]

LETTERS AND PROTOCOLS OF ZION ELDERS

From the Revue des etudes Juives, published in 1889, is again presented for you who may not have prior writings or a copy of this document:

Dear beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the anxieties and misfortunes which you are enduring. We are pierced by as great pain to hear it as yourselves.

The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis is the following:

1. As for what you say that the King of France obliges you to become Christians: do it, since you cannot do otherwise, but let the law of Moses be kept in your hearts.

2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your goods [the law was that on becoming converted, Jews gave up their possessions]: make your sons merchants, that little by little they may despoil the Christians of theirs.

3. As for what you say about their making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christians' lives.

4. As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

5. As for the many other vexations you complain of: arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix themselves up with the affairs of State, in order that by putting Christians under your yoke you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

6. Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach the actuality of power.

Signed V.S.S.V.F.F., Prince of the Jews, 21st Caslue (November), 1489.

In the year 1844, on the eve of the Jewish Revolution of 1848, Benjamin Disraeli, whose real name was "israel", and who was a "damped", or baptised Jew, published his novel, Coningsby, in which occurs this ominous passage:

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

And he went on to show that these personages were all Jews.

Now that Providence has brought to the light of day these secret Protocols all men may clearly see the hidden personages specified by Disraeli at work "behind the scenes" of all the Governments....

FUNERAL ORATION: RABBI REICHHORN RE: GRAND RABBI SIMEON-ben-IHUDA

Prague, 1869

1. Every hundred years, We, the Sages of Israel, have been accustomed to meet in Sanhedrin in order to examine our progress towards the domination of the world which Jehovah has promised us, and our conquests over the enemy—Christianity.

2. This year, united over the tomb of our reverend Simeon-ben-Ihuda, we can state with pride that the past century has brought us very near to our goal, and that this goal will be very soon attained.

3. Gold always has been and always will be the irresistible power. Handled by expert hands it will always be the most useful lever for those who possess it, and the object of envy for those who do not. With gold we can buy the most rebellious consciences, can fix the rate of all values, the current price of all products, can subsidise all State loans, and thereafter hold the states at our mercy.

4. Already the principal banks, the exchanges of the entire world, the credits of all the governments, are in our hands.

5. The other great power is THE PRESS. By repeating without cessation certain ideas, the Press succeeds in the end in having them accepted as actualities. The Theatre renders us analogous services. Everywhere the Press and the Theatre obey our orders. (There were no "radio" or "TV" at the time.)

6. By the ceaseless praise of DEMOCRATIC RULE we shall divide the Christians into political parties; we shall destroy the unity of their nations; we shall sow discord everywhere. Reduced to impotence, they will bow before the LAW OF OUR BANK, always united, and always devoted to our Cause.

7. We shall force the Christians into wars by exploiting their pride and their stupidity. They will massacre each other, and clear the ground for us to put our own people into.

8. The possession of the land has always brought influence and power. In the name of Social Justice and Equality we shall parcel out the great estates; we shall give the fragments to the peasants who covet them with all their powers, and who will soon be in debt to us by the expense of cultivating them. Our capital will make us their masters. We in our turn shall become the great proprietors, and the possession of the land will assure the power to us.

9. Let us try to replace the circulation of gold with paper money; our chest will absorb the gold, and we shall regulate the value of the paper which will make us masters of all the positions.

10. We count among us plenty of orators capable of feigning enthusiasm and of persuading mobs. We shall spread them among the people to announce changes which should secure the happiness of the human race. By gold and by flattery we shall gain the proletariat which will charge itself with annihilating Christian capitalism. We shall promise workmen salaries of which they have never dared to dream, but we shall also raise the price of necessities so that our profits will be greater still.

11. In this manner we shall prepare Revolutions which the Christians will make themselves and of which we shall reap the fruit.

12. By our mockeries and our attacks upon them we shall make their priests ridiculous—then odious, and their religion as ridiculous and as odious as their clergy. Then we shall be masters of their SOULS. For our pious attachment to our own religion, to our own worship, will prove the superiority of our religion and the superiority of our souls.

13. We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim with lawyers and doctors; the lawyers are au courant with our interests; doctors, once in the house, become confessors and directors of consciences.

14. But above all let us monopolize Education. By this means we spread ideas that are useful to us, and shape the children's brains as suits us.

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

15. If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many witnesses as he needs to save him from his judges, until we become judges ourselves.

16. The monarchs of the Christian world, swollen with ambition and vanity, surround themselves with luxury and with numerous armies. We shall furnish them with all the money their folly demands, and so shall keep them in leash.

17. Let us take care not to hinder the marriage of our men with Christian girls, for through them we shall get our foot into the most closely locked circles. If our daughters marry GOYIM they will be no less useful, for the children of a Jewish mother are ours. Let us foster the idea of free love, that we may destroy among Christian women attachment to the principles and practices of their religion.

18. For ages past the sons of Israel, despised and persecuted, have been working to open up a path to power. They are hitting the mark. They control the economic life of the accursed Christians; their influence preponderates over politics and over manners.

19. At the wished for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christianity will definitely enslave the Christians to US. Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to His People.

I believe you are quite capable of evaluating "where you are" from measurement against the foregoing. You've come a long way, Baby!

Now how does this come into your daily lives in such a way as to be able to discern and judge circumstances? For one thing you can get the information we have offered and STUDY it. Or, you can continue to wade through bits and pieces as presented hither and yon and hopefully get enough to have a "picture" of that which is coming and has already come upon you.

Big Sister Is Watching YOU!

2/22/94 #2 HATONN

I wish now to give you the "INTRODUCTION" from a book that I have no way to stress importance enough in the having. It is called Big Sister Is Watching YOU! by Texe Marrs. Living Truth Publishers, 1708 Patterson Road, Austin, Texas 78733-6507 (512-263-9780). Perhaps you can find copy in a Christian book store—I doubt you will find the editions in the local NWO shelves. I'm sorry, I have no further information save cataloging: Politics/Current Events/Issues.

Perhaps if enough of you would want to obtain this volume the CONTACT might make arrangements to have some available. I ask that this be considered through one of your business contacts.

[QUOTING:]

INTRODUCTION: BIG SISTER IS WATCHING YOU!

Hillary Rodham Clinton is not just co-President of the United States—she's the real power in Washington, D.C. And to help her run the big show, Hillary has brought in some very unusual feminist "talent". A motley collection never before equalled in American history, Hillary's women friends include lesbians, sex perverts, child molester advocates, Christian haters, and the most doctrinaire of Communists.

HILLARY'S HELLCATS

Here are just a few of "Hillary's Hellcats" profiled in this startling exposé:

Attorney General Janet ("Johnny") Reno—Big Sister Is Watching You! provides

shocking, new evidence that she's a hardened lesbian. [H: It would behoove you check even more than THAT—she is six feet two inches tall, friends. Has anyone checked medical records on this "lady"?] As Florida state attorney, did she cover up voter fraud by crooked politico friends? Discover the REAL reason why this Duchess of Doom wickedly burned to death the innocent women and children at the Branch Davidian compound in Waco.

Dr. Joycelyn Elders—As Surgeon-General, she's out to make sure that pre-schoolers and elementary school children are given condoms and instructed on how to use them. Was Elders appointed to her high position as a payoff? Did she cover up the negligent act of Bill Clinton's mother, Virginia, who, as a nurse anesthetist at a hospital in Little Rock, was accused of carelessly bungling an operation and killing a patient? [H: Among other things!]

Maya Angelou—One of Hillary's closest bosom buddies, Ms. Angelou was called on to be the Inaugural Poet. She's been highly acclaimed as the "feminist Robert Frost", and her books are New Age bestsellers. Problem is, her real name is not Maya Angelou. And some of those books she's written?.... Well, they are different, to say the least. Big Sister... reveals that Maya Angelou is, in fact, a former stripper, prostitute, and madam. Why, then, did a Southern Baptist University make her full professor FOR LIFE? And why is this same institution paying Ms. Angelou over $100,000 annually, though she teaches no courses, does no real work, and has only a broom closet for an office?

Donna Shalala—The lesbian community claims she is their Amazon "love sister". As Secretary of Health and Human Services, she oversees a multibillion dollar budget larger than the national budgets of Japan and Germany. Shalala is the most vicious Christian hater ever to hold a top cabinet post. Bequeathed the title, the "High Priestess of Political Correctness", the radical Shalala is so politically correct she outliberals the ultra-liberal American Civil Liberties Union. She's also a director of the elitist-controlled Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and is a member of the globalist Trilateral Commission.

Laura D'Andrea Tyson—A former Berkeley professor, Tyson is the Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors. She's a big fan of the failed communist economies of Romanian tyrant Nikolai Ceaucescu and Russian dictator Joseph Stalin. A member of the CFR and the Trilateral Commission, Tyson says Americans are not taxed enough.

Roberta ("Bob") Achtenberg—Hillary's put this lesbo crazy in charge of ALL federal housing policies. While demonstrating at a gay rights parade, the militantly lesbian Achtenberg passionately kissed her female lover as her young son looked on. Achtenberg once led a despicable hate campaign against the Boy Scouts. Why?—Because, she said, their oath includes the word "God". [H: By the way, one of the "heavy kissers" in point was Barbara Boxer, Senator, California!]

Ruth Bader Ginsburg—Now it's Hillary's Supreme Court, thanks to her selection of femiNazi Ginsburg as associate justice on the bench of the nation's highest judiciary panel. President Clinton praised Ginsburg as a "moderate"; yet, she's in favor of legalizing child sex with adults, she wants a unisex military and has called for the merging of the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts. A radical feminist, Ginsburg was the general counsel for the ungodly, anti-Christian ACLU organization for over seven years. During those years, the ACLU fought to take Jesus and the Ten Commandments OUT of the classroom while New Age paganism and witchcraft flourished IN the classroom.

AND THEN THERE'S HILLARY

Then, there's Hillary Rodham Clinton herself. She was depicted once as the "Madonna" by the New York Times. But why did the editors of this liberal newspaper refuse to print the facts about Hillary's secret funding of hard-core, Marxist terrorist organizations?

Big Sister provides convincing evidence that in the 60s, "Hippie Hillary" aided the cop-killing, radical Black Panthers group. Now she believes God WANTS her to kill babies! Is Hillary—as rumored—a lesbian? Why did her feminist friends in the White House present her with a most unusual gift: a witch's hat?

What dark power does Hillary exercise over her hapless husband, Bill? What's her real goal? Will Hillary Rodham Clinton's unbridled ambitions catapult her into becoming America's first female president?

THE WOMEN OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Big Sister Is Watching You! unmask the powerful White House women who are members of the conspiratorial Council on Foreign Relations and the elitist Trilateral Commission. It reveals the identity of the women who have been favored to attend the annual conclave of the notorious Bilderbergers, as well as those who are hirelings of the left-wing, radical foundations designed to promote the New World Order.

These women are not individualists. They are part of a long-standing, serpentine network of international revolutionaries and fascist ideologues whose goal is to end American sovereignty and bring about a global, Marxist paradise. For many years now, they have networked together, preparing themselves for just this opportunity.

To accomplish their objectives, they have repeatedly proven their willingness to use the same iron-fisted tactics employed in the past by other ruthless dictators, ranging from Romania's Ceaucescu and Italy's Mussolini to Germany's Hitler and the Soviet Union's Stalin.

Totalitarian in outlook, the women profiled here despise the very foundations on which our founding fathers built this great nation. They hate the sight of Old Glory—the red, white and blue. They sneer at anyone who demonstrates a belief in old-fashioned American patriotism, and they hiss at Christians who show reverence for God of the Bible. They also heap abuse and ridicule on the dedicated men and women who serve honorably in our armed forces—Hillary's Hellcats want to pollute the military by integrating lesbians and homosexuals.

Not just politically correct, these women are brutally correct. They are the hard of the hard, the most militant of a militant and hostile generation. Spawned during the 60s in the age of the Beatles, gurus, LSD, and hippies, they are the misfits of American society. But now the misfits ARE IN CHARGE! The lunatics are running the insane asylum, and they're out to make us into the pathetic creatures they have become. They are the feminist vultures who flew over the cuckoo's nest.

ARMED WITH GESTAPO POWERS

What is scary is that these powerful women, because of their high-level positions in government, now possess awesome Gestapo powers. If Hitler and his henchmen had even a tiny fragment of the computerized, high technology spy, surveillance, and torture capabilities of today's CIA, IRS, FBI, ATF, and DEA, imagine what additional horrors they could have wreaked. These women have behind them the full apparatus of government to enforce their dictatorial demands and strange sexual appetites.

The femiNazis control a heartless police establishment more efficient than Stalin's dreaded Cheka and more feared than Himmler's bloody SS Corps. They are running roughshod over the American people, trampling on our constitutional rights, employing ecological idiocy to grab people's land and property, and committing terrorist acts against horrified victims. The fiery Waco massacre—and the mind-boggling government lies and cover-up that followed by Janet Reno and her cohorts—exemplify the chilling fate that awaits those who refuse to go along with the dictatorial blueprint of these coercive utopians.

WITCHES WHO TORMENT OTHERS?

The corrupt women who now rule over us are a strange, modern breed of Orwellian females who fully deserve to be called Hillary's Hellcats. Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary defines "hellcats" as follows" 1: WITCH 2. one given to tormenting others; esp: SHREW.

A hellcat, then is "a witch given to tormenting others". A hellcat is also defined as a "shrew", a ferocious, rat-like animal expert at quickly darting back and forth while tearing an enemy to pieces with its fine, sharp teeth.

"Big Sister" is my term for Hillary Rodham Clinton and her pride of hellcats who, at this moment, are plotting out new ways of stealthily attacking and devouring their victims.

HAS 1984 FINALLY ARRIVED?

IN HIS PROPHETIC NOVEL, 1984, George Orwell gave us a frightening image of government leadership run amok. He introduced us to a new language of thought crimes, double-speak, and newspeak. Orwell painted a dark picture of an immoral, Godless society where black is white, and white is black, and where two plus two equals five, if those in power say it is so.

George Orwell's cautionary novel was first published in 1948. The year 1984 has come and gone, but it seems as though Orwell was not far off the mark.

Big Sister did not arrive overnight. Hillary and Bill have been practicing their political black magic and skullduggery for over two decades. By now they are well rehearsed.

Hitler's Nazism also had a long gestation period. From his days as a corporal in Kaiser Wilhelm's World War I war machine, Hitler plotted his path into supreme power. Then, in 1933, he burst upon the world scene as a national hero, a superman, a savior.

Just sixty years later, in 1993, Hillary's Hellcats ascended to their own thrones in Washington, D.C.

Has Big Brother, in effect, been demasculinized, castrated, and transformed? Not really. Yes, he has assumed a deceptive, feminine mask. But behind the facade, the governmental behemoth described in such startling terms by George Orwell is still a psychopath; he remains a seething dynamo of energy—a dark, brooding, evil force ready at any moment to explode.

Big Sister is, in fact, the feminine, flip-side of Big Brother, just as Communism, with only a cosmetic makeover, becomes fascism; and political correctness, taken to extremes, becomes Nazism. If a person travels from any point on a circle of evil, he or she will eventually end up in the same place.

[END OF QUOTING]

I believe you get the gist of this book's material. Further, there is something I would like you discerning readers to think about: was Nostradamus' "man in the blue turban" ACTUALLY A "MAN"? If you ones don't begin to THINK, you are not going to make it.

And how is all the above brought into accomplishment? THROUGH THE CONTROL AND WARPING, BENDING AND MOLDING OF THE MINDS (THOUGHT PROCESSES) OF THE CIVILIZATION IN EXPERIENCING. THE ADVERSARY NEVER LOSES SIGHT OF HIS GOAL—EVER!!! YOU SWEET SLEEPING BABIES HAVE.

God bless each and every one of you as you come into either an awakening or desolation—for the "evil empire" will recognize nothing in-between. Salu

I don't have time in this writing to give full credit or background to this next "blurb". I do ask that you get his book in point but I would like to offer just one section in the chapter called "A New Age Goddess in the White House."

[QUOTING:]

"WE WOMEN ARE GOING TO BRING AN END TO GOD"

[H: One of Hillary's compatriots is a woman by the name of Naomi Goldenberg. The book in point offers history and status of "Hillary's Hellcats" but I just want to offer this small reference.]

Naomi Goldenberg, who teaches religion at the University of Ottawa, in Ontario, Canada, as a "feminist theologian", heartily agrees with Reuther. In her book, Changing of the Gods, Goldenberg sternly predicts the overthrow of the existing forms of both Christianity and Judaism.

"God is going to change," writes Goldenberg. "We women are going to bring an END TO GOD. We will BE THE END OF HIM."

Happily, Goldenberg announces that WomanChurch will replace the obsolete Christian and Jewish faiths. And what IS WomanChurch? "Witchcraft," she responds. Witchcraft, says Goldenberg, "is a perfect substitute for Christianity."

But, Hillary's fans may protest, Hillary has not advocated the overthrow of Christianity. She has not proposed an end to God.

WRONG. Hillary has, indeed, indirectly advocated the end of the patriarchal God and the overthrow of Christianity. In the most ingenious manner, Hillary seeks to give us an entirely new form of Christianity. The new religion approves the sacrifice of unborn babies, celebrates lesbian sex, and ordains marriage between homosexuals.

As Rosemary Reuther indicates, the "wise women" know that a resistant humanity is not yet ready for the complete rooting out and removal of traditional Christianity. But subversion and sabotage by women and the men whom they dominate will fix that, to be followed by "a new kind of Christianity freed from the bonds of patriarchy and purified of the last vestiges of sexism, clericalism and militarism."

The Christian church is about to be religiously cleansed by the femiNazis. They may continue to call it "Christianity", for the shrewd and cunning leaders of WomanChurch realize that the inhabitants of the old world feel strangely comforted by words and language with which they are familiar. But the old faith will eventually be cleansed and renewed, being made ready for the New Age of revived, national socialism...

[END OF QUOTING]

May GOD have mercy on us all....

Salu.

Body-Trim Program

— In Process

2/23/94 #1 HATONN

MEDICAL DISASTER

I ask that this portion of the writing pertaining to disease and malfunction of the physical body be placed in appropriate sequence in the paper. Some things about which we will write are totally lost in the simple sequence of a JOURNAL or the "body" of a separately focused subject. However, this is the way we are going to present the bits and pieces and the Editors and Layout people will simply have to be on top of the matter, please.

BODY-TRIM "PROGRAM"

I have been nagged and badgered to put together something that would help to remove and keep off excess body fat. [For availability of Gaia-Trim see Product Update Box on p. 47] You people are so focused on the purely physical aspect of experience as to concern me. However, there IS need among the population for some help in controlling the negative problems of "lipoid and horizontally challenged" people. Of course there is an array of natural herbal assistants for the problem. There are also the very practical programs available for self-hypnotic training for the body. Our people will, my request was by mid-March, have a full "program" in herbal form to interact with the fat molecules which will cause them to "liquefy" and then with abundant fluid intake, wash away the surplus cellular material. The reason this is so valuable is that you are leaving your necessary muscle tissue untouched which produces the end results of a lean, healthy body. You will have to check with the "Gaia" people for we don't stick our noses into the business of the product offerings. Do "I" present the formulas and "create" the products? Not in all instances—but yes, I do. Dharma is stuck with the nasty job of physically combining the substances and doing the "gardening". However, she then has nothing further to do with the management or presentation. I can promise you, for instance, that she thought she could make bread until she reaches Heaven's gate. I watched her "trying" to put a loaf together from a batch of spelt which had lost its instruction label—and GONE were the steps and amounts.

We remove these tid-bits from her memory for the most part for she has enough other topics with which to deal and we want NO connections with the other entities and companies handling product—FOR OBVIOUS REASONS!

Now as to the self-help training program—it IS hers. She developed it in 1986 for a totally different purpose but it has a weight reduction program built in (or NO program at all is acceptable—you can still fully utilize the tapes). The tapes have been abundantly used in the management of bulimia and anorexia as well. America West offered the sets for a while until she withdrew them. There are probably a hundred or so sets left. The contact addresses, of course, are now different but the personal interaction remains open and valid. They are recognized as positive help programs and even the Master Hypnotist Teacher and head of the Council of Hypnotist Examiners have featured and "sold" the program to students.

It DOES mean however that you can't fail to attend your own personal care for self—the tapes or the capsules DO NO GOOD IN THE CLOSET—RESULTS ALWAYS DEPEND ON THE DESIRE FOR CHANGE—THEY ONLY HELP YOU ACCOMPLISH THAT CHANGE.

CARBAGAIA

I am also asked, "When will CarbraGaia be available [For availability of CarbraGaia see Product Update Box on p. 47] and what is it?" [See p. 37] Well, whenever the people handling it find it suitable to make it fully available. However, in all fairness to "them"—I said I would write a lengthy dissertation on the subject [See p. 37] for it replaces and surpasses by great advantage "shark cartilage". THIS ALSO SAVES THE LIVES OF YOUR OCEAN CREATURES AND PRODUCES SUCH A BETTER PRODUCT THAT THOSE WHO UTILIZE THE CARTILAGE WILL BE ASTOUNDED. To understand the reason for utilization of such a product you need to know what it is and how it becomes such a support. I insist that all cartilage grown here be grown in a full hydroponic bath of Gaiandriana and a full spectrum of nutrients.

As to the Gaiandriana, I believe our people are remiss in not offering you more information in the "physical" section of the paper—or in booklet form because, even though technical, there IS great REASON for these substances prepared and offered the way we offer them.

PLEASE KNOW, READERS, YOU WILL BE SOON LEFT TO NO ABILITY TO GET PROPER ANTIBIOTIC CARE AND MIRACLE TREATMENTS. YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO BUILD THOSE IMMUNE SYSTEMS AND BALANCE THE BODY PROPER OR YOU AREN'T GOING TO MAKE IT THROUGH THE ASSAULTS OF THE DEADLY "BUGS" WHICH ARE COMING YOUR WAY. AIDS IS ONLY ONE!

I have written all the above to get your attention. Dharma, please just copy the article from the front page of the February 20, 1994 local paper.

[QUOTING:]

BACTERIA EVOLVING INTO POTENTIAL KILLERS

SOME CAUSES OF COMMON DISEASE MAY BECOME UNTREATABLE BY MEDICINE, SCIENTISTS WARN.

By Paul Raeburn, Associated Press. San Francisco—Common bacteria that cause pneumonia, children's ear infections and many other diseases are evolving into forms untreatable by all known medicines, threatening a chilling post-antibiotic era that would be "nothing short of a medical disaster", a researcher said Saturday.

In the post-antibiotic world, the simplest infections could quickly escalate into fatal illnesses, said Alexander Tomasz of Rockefeller University in New York City. [H: And boy, they SHOULD KNOW!]

"Most people think it will happen," he said. "It's unpredictable when." And the consequences? "No one knows. The mortality is quite high."

The first antibiotic, penicillin, became widely available in 1940. For 50 years, most bacterial infections have been treatable.

But certain uncommon bacteria already have developed untreatable strains. And laboratory experiments have proven that the same thing can happen with common bacteria, Tomasz said. [H: Please note that with the heavy use of antibiotics—yeasts and monilias, fungi, etc., flourish and now become a side effect almost as deadly and miserable to treat as the original bacterial or viral assault.]

Tomasz sounded the alarm at the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He is a leading authority on bacteria that are resistant to treatment by antibiotics. His concerns are shared by doctors at the Federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta.

"It's potentially an extremely serious problem," said Dr. Mitchell Cohen of the CDC.

Any new drugs that might be developed to cope with the deadly bacteria are at least five to seven years away, and drug companies are not pursuing them eagerly, Cohen said.

"A number of pharmaceutical companies had focused their research in the non-infectious area, because their marketing people were telling them there were enough antibiotics out there," Cohen said in a telephone interview. [H: Is this telling you anything as to confirmations of that which we have been telling you over and over and over again about pharmaceutical companies? They are ALL owned by the Elite Banksters!]

Doctors also are concerned about new drug-resistant strains of tuberculosis. But the diseases caused by pneumonia and blood and wound infections—are far more common than tuberculosis.

Certain strains of enterococcus, which cause wound and blood infections, already have become resistant to vancomycin and all other known antibiotics. [H: I remind you that all it takes to make a "known" bacteria or virus a deadly, untreatable entity is the integration of just ONE tiny DNA particle—and you have a NEW STRAIN. Next, the “new strain” is DNA altered so that it mutates with EACH and EVERY new host making it totally individualized!]

Enterococcal infections are mostly limited to hospitals. But the genes for resistance are carried on bacterial structures called plasmids that can be easily shared between bacteria of different species, Tomasz said.

That means that resistance could quickly move to pneumococcus and to staphylococcus.

Researchers know that such resistant bacteria can cover the globe in a matter of years. They have seen what happened with penicillin.

Before 1980, only a few scattered cases were reported of pneumococcus that were resistant to penicillin. But that year, penicillin-resistant strains began appearing everywhere. They are now common worldwide.

Spread has occurred quickly with the untreatable form of enterococcus, too. In one New York hospital, the untreatable strain wasn't present in 1989. By 1992, it was responsible for 58 percent of the infections with that species of enterococcus.

[END OF QUOTING]

Will Gaiandriana prevent illness? No. It has one function—to allow the body to individualize itself within the cellular structure of your own DNA. When a “bug” is introduced the body is already then prepared to attack anything which is NOT of identical structure. This is why the “Gaiasorbs” work—because they are produced and GROWN within Gaiandriana which isolate and hold the “free radicals” and then the little invaders are simply absorbed and washed away when they hit the body for the Gaiandrian-enhanced immune system has already tagged the invaders. I guess it is complicated if you aren't familiar with bodily functions, etc., even though it is totally and completely natural in EVERY way. But, it takes a while for the body to reclaim itself and come into balance so to simply “treat” an invasion of infectious disease bearers will not “cut it”. The Gaiandriana is NOT an antibiotic or even antiseptic—but, hydrogen peroxide IS. Therefore we grow the Drianas and Drias in a neonatal fluid containing same.

I do, however, insist that a solution which kills off ALL bacteria, even “bad” stuff, not be used. Why? Because I want the little buggers which YOU regularly consume in water supply be included—so that the Drias can neutralize them and present the “fighters” into your own system to counter the free “bearers” when they are taken internally.

Couldn't we just grow suitable antibiotic “stuff”? Yes, but how long do you think we would LAST? We are not in competition with ANYONE OR ANYTHING. We are here to get the people of God through—not SAVE the whole of the evil empire OR God's enemies. Ones who wish to utilize that which we offer are welcome, those who do not—simply go your way!

Now, readers, if you don't believe God is at work HERE—then I suggest you go join some group or other for here you will find NO GROUPS—only people doing whatever they are doing. I believe you will find that Col. Bo Gritz is building a Christian Covenant Community in Idaho and George Green will supply domes and there will be guns for protection and training for handling money and invaders—FOR A GREAT BIG FAT FEE!.... This is fine with me, but do not link us in any way to those kinds of operations. The facts are simply that YOU HAVE NO LEADERS IN FULL SERVICE UNTO GOD, TO FOLLOW—IT IS THE TIME OF CHAOS ON THE EARTH. THE CLAIMS WILL BE MANY AND THE PREACHERS WILL PREACH AND SHOUT AND CLAIM JUDEO-CHRISTIAN, HOMOSEXUALITY EQUALITY, AND OTHER MAN-ORDAINED FOCUSES. I CANNOT OFFER YOU RE-COURSE SAVE UNTO GOD. I AND MY PEOPLE ARE NOT HERE TO SAVE YOU OR ANYTHING—If you want salvation, I suggest you GET BUSY!

The first thing you are going to have to do, if you have mindset that someone or thing is going to save you, is CHANGE YOUR MIND (thoughts). You are in a period of total brain-washing in full force against YOU. I cannot help that nor shall I even effort to interfere—that is NOT my mission. I will continue to offer you the answers to allow for the change of SELF but that is all I shall do! We are here to tell you how it IS and offer a hand if you wish. You are free to do or believe ANYTHING you choose—I am only here to fulfill a promise of GOD—to PRESENT THE WORD and show God's people the WAY HOME!

Our team offers no free or paid-for rides on ANYTHING. We do offer you a place if you are of US, for that is why we are sent again to this place. Jesus Christ, as you know HIM, travels WITH US FOR IT IS HIS RETURN TO GIVE YOU ANOTHER CHANCE AT GETTING IT “RIGHT”. He doesn't nor ever did offer you some “rapture” or salvation based on HIS BLOOD FLOW. HE “IS”, WAS AND SHALL EVER BE AND HIS PRESENCE IN YOUR MIDST IN WHATEVER FORM—WAS TO OFFER YOU TRUTH OF YOUR OWN BEINGNESS IN SOUL. YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN AND BEEN MISLED BY THE ONES WHO WOULD HAVE YOUR SOULS. THAT, TOO, IS YOUR BUSINESS—NOT MINE!

Dharma, take this off the computer please so that the editors are not inconvenienced by the heavy load of writing that we are doing now. I want to move into the presentation on “brain-washing” as a reminder as we move into the more elusive subjects of “thought” and GOD. Thank you.

“If you want salvation, I suggest you GET BUSY!”

Remote Mind Control Technology

2/23/94 #2 HATONN

Editor's note: The article that Commander Hatonn refers to below can be found in full on Pages 14 through 23.

As we move into the subject more deeply of the power of "thought" and mind-function, I hesitate to cause everyone the inconvenience of redoing the above material on remote mind control technology. We have offered many writings in-depth on the subject [See JOURNAL #77, PLAYERS IN THE GAME] and, now, all I want is confirmation from other resources. I find one particular document coming to my attention is excellent and the authors deserve respect and notice—IF THEY WISH IT.

I ask that Mr. Martin contact the authors of the article in point, or the source of first printing, and get permission to reprint it AS IS. I don't want to have a discussion on the subject at this moment but would wish to refer to the information at later date at random and we are not here to have court appearances regarding use of anything. I never suggest using anything which is other than giving authors full credit and honor for having written valid and "on-target" information.

I won't, however, stand for holding information and scientific facts FROM the people just because persons who hold POWER over segments of a prior living being's materials so ordain. In every instance I would like to be able to give full honor to those pioneers of insight and scientific data but I most certainly will NOT place my writer in further intercourse with the Federal Court System. I don't believe you citizens have "time" for repeats of "Scopes" trials and freedom of information hearings which NEVER end.

Dharma asked the judge in hearing (chambers) if the ongoing problems involving JOURNALS precluded her from ever again writing on the subject of God and/or LIGHT as scientifically and spiritually applicable to human life and spiritual perception. He said "Oh no, only that you may not utilize such material presented in the 'identical' format." He further informed her in the presence of witnesses that in some of the volumes in point there was actually no problem at all—only preferences to "handling" the material from the institution now holding assumed copyrights. Assumed? Yes, because indeed the copyrights were not, and remain not, valid.

Dr. Russell, for instance, sent all his early scientific work to some 600 parties for open discussion and comment. The great mass of scientific material was left to Princeton University. We do not have interest in such for we are not in the laboratory development of anything in the physical plane. The ONLY use for any such material in point is simply to allow YOU to understand and comprehend the fact that GOD IS LIGHT, LIGHT IS EVERYTHING and YOU ARE A PROJECTION OF THOUGHT OF GOD IN LIGHT.

Is Mr. Russell the ONLY one with such gift of insight? No, but why reinvent the WHEEL? He was gifted with the information from higher resource (according to him and everyone around him) and why, for goodness sakes, NOT GIVE HIM THE FULL HONOR AND APPRECIATION—HIM HAVING NOW BECOME DECEASED FROM YOUR GLOBE?

Why would we not simply utilize the whole of "their" books and works? Because WE DISAGREE WITH ALMOST EVERY CONCLUSION, INCLUDING THOSE WITHIN THE SCIENTIFIC PRESENTATION, THAT THEY OFFER.

Can't we just get another author's views on the subject and use "that"? Yes, for only a few very insightful scientists have so much as considered the work because it is buried within the archives of a philosophical holding place. Is it available to the public? Yes, if anyone would go dig it out—BUT, if you don't know about it—how would you know, where would you go and of what possible value would it be to you? We SHOULD sue them for utilizing our work as advertisement for that which we find unacceptable—by mere fact of coexistence.

Now, ones who never heard of Walter Russell come on the airwaves and tout the miracle of his receiving some 50 years ago—and make more aggression against us. Oh? Would you have heard of this material HAD WE NOT BROUGHT IT TO YOUR ATTENTION? Moreover, we have honored Russell in every way in the paper, in the JOURNALS and in full recognition. We do NOT honor the Institute involved for other reasons—but have also offered the information in full for their placement and your ability to investigate and share their input.

God very carefully DOES NOT GIVE FULL CONCLUSIVE INFORMATION to any ONE writer, teacher or place—FOR THIS VERY REASON! You must come to the point of wondering WHY there would be objection for a singular writer who does not even publish anything—to bear this information? Doris Ekker had never heard of Walter Russell EITHER and still wishes she had never done so! Well, it is necessary for the world now accepts in narrow circles the "Russell charts" of elements, etc. To say you cannot use these charts is like saying you cannot use the Fahrenheit scale for measuring temperature or the Einstein theory of "relativity", which, by the way, is incorrect.

I want to offer something here, to ponder:

"Everywhere and in all disciplines, there have always been Doctors dedicated to (and effective to various degrees in) helping the sick. Their present system treats symptoms after a disease appears and is geared towards maximizing profits for physicians, hospitals, staffs, and insurers. The idea that disease could and should be actually and really prevented has been disregarded and even suppressed over the last several decades. Billions have been spent developing new technological fixes that command high profits, while the side effects of synthetic drugs, surgeries, and even diagnostic and treating devices have been ignored..."

This article from which the above was taken goes on for several pages—all excellent in content although I DISAGREE with MUCH of the content. However, the article itself contains so much of the materials we have written over and over again—I WONDER IF WE SHOULD CHARGE THIS PERSON WITH PLAGIARISM???

The person in point? Dr. Timothy Binder, President of the University of Science & Philosophy!

There is something I want you to note, however. Even on the airwaves with Col. Gritz, Dr. Binder NEVER claimed what others project. Gritz said that Ekker LOST a suit and books were banned. NO—THE SUIT HAS NEVER BEEN EVEN CONSIDERED! THE SIMPLE FACTS ARE THAT THE LAWYERS DEMANDED THE CONTROVERSIAL VOLUMES BE PLACED IN COURT-CONTROL. THE COURT DECISION WAS ONE OF "CONTEMPT OF COURT" BECAUSE GEORGE GREEN AND AMERICA WEST DISTRIBUTORS CONTINUED TO SELL THE BOOKS IN POINT. EKKERS NEVER PUBLISHED OR SOLD ANYTHING—BUT GREEN MADE A "DEAL" AND EKKERS WERE THEN SADDLED WITH THE CONTEMPT CHARGES AND GREEN NEVER EVEN APPEARED IN COURT—BEING ACTUALLY REPRESENTED BY THE LAWYER OF US&P. A DECISION OVER THE CONTENTS OF THE BOOKS WAS NEVER PLACED EVEN INTO HEARING AND NO DATE IS SET FOR THAT HEARING.

Interestingly, it turns out that all the research work and RECORDS held by the Ekkers' attorney was "sold" to agents of the other side of the issue. Mr. McDonald proves as much every day and is actually standing in contempt of court himself for NOT producing the documents—which he sold to the "other side". Was that to Mr. Green? Mr. Binder? Mr. Buchanan? Well, perhaps ONLY the "Shadow do" know! It is, however, already embarrassing to the court—for how can you have a case when the files have been destroyed or sold and the defense has nothing from which to work and no funds to rebuild years of research and history? I guess we shall simply have to wait and see.

Mr. Green continues to tell US&P that the Ekkers control most of the assets of the world—by the seeming telling. They have nothing, have published nothing, sold nothing and Mr. Green made a settlement bargain with US&P already—he, who did it all!

"Our purpose is to help unfold the spiritual nature of man in order that the human race will find happiness and peace through knowledge and practice of the Love Principle of Giving and Receiving which nature alone practices and man defies."
Walter Russell

Does the above paragraph sound like a man who wished his work to be cornered and hidden for half a century? It doesn't to me either.

Well, some of the volumes of the PLEIADES CONNECTION series or others named in the injunctioned list of books—HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH WALTER RUSSELL EXCEPT TO SUGGEST THAT HE HAD THE RIGHT IDEA. THERE ARE, HOWEVER, REFERENCES TO OTHERS OF WHICH WE OFFERED HONOR—BUT WILL NOW REMOVE ALL REFERENCE AND QUOTATIONS SO THAT THEY ARE NOT LIKEWISE OFFENDED. WE SHALL CLEARLY MARK THE PLACES OF REMOVAL TO PASS COURT APPROVAL.

America may be in bad circumstances, readers, but I don't believe you have reached such a "low" as to be able to garner and corner a universal truth unto the closet for the use of a mere Elite group who pay dearly for the WRONG focus.

Now, it is doubly hard here to know what to do—writings like this are considered by ones at US&P and Binder (on the Gritz show) as being "slandorous" and "derogatory" and "insulting" and they continue to threaten suits to stop the CONTACT from printing such information as written by me, a contributing journalist. The Ekkers have no business INTEREST AT ALL in the CONTACT OR, FOR THAT MATTER, THE PUBLISHERS OF THE JOURNALS! Again I remind you who seem to forget—GEORGE GREEN PUBLISHED THE BOOKS, WAS IN CHARGE AND OWNED THE PAPER AND, THROUGH AMERICA WEST DISTRIBUTORS—DISTRIBUTED THE WHOLE LOT OF EVERYTHING. NOT ONE CENT HAS EVER COME TO THE EKKERS FOR ANY PUBLICATION!!!! CHECK IT OUT! IS THERE SOMETHING WRONG HERE?

PRODUCTS

The suit against Ekkers is for "unfair business competition", etc. Well, let's look at "that" also: On Gritz's radio show in conjunction with the host's urging I note that there are a myriad of subjects and seminars listed by Binder as products and courses that can be obtained and utilized—bunches! The Ekkers do not have ANY PRODUCTS, do not do interviews or teachings, classes or otherwise. So, how could this be "unfair business competition"?

Out of 86 volumes there are only a maximum of nine which so much as MENTION one, Russell. Is this great competition, especially since those in point reside in the Federal Court? I do note that Dr. Binder suggested you "get a copy of" such and such and a BANNED book and compare—IS "THAT" NOT UNFAIR ADVERTISING FOR AN ILLEGAL VOLUME? WHERE ARE YOU TO "GET" THAT BOOK FOR COMPARISON?? Well, Mr. Green told the world that the court had "given" him back the books (into his possession) and that "they didn't want them", etc., and so, do we assume that Mr. Green has them as well? Just "where" does Dr. Binder suggest you GET the volume with which to compare?

Of course you have to be careful with Mr. Green's information for he also says to "everybody" that he didn't want to be in trouble over the gold he took—so he turned it over to the court to hold. My, my—that was AFTER HE WAS ORDERED BY THE COURT TO DIG IT UP OUT OF HIS BACKYARD AND DELIVER IT TO THE COURT! Green has at least SIX DIFFERENT versions of why he has that $350,000 worth of gold—I WONDER WHICH VERSION HE GAVE BINDER?

BY THE WAY, DR. BINDER—THAT STORY ABOUT THE $215 MILLION TO FIGHT THE EKKERS—CAME FROM GREEN TO THE ATTORNEY! He used that as a "reason" to "settle" because he "knew you and others at US&P and 'could work it out easy.'" The Rick Webber booklet just gets you in deeper. Green uses that as a weapon—it is not. The facts are that the JOURNALS are EXACTLY THAT—JOURNALS and the research by Mr. Webber only proves it—he got the information FROM THE JOURNALS TO LIST THE REFERENCES IN POINT! He has even since written to me to note that "You have gotten better about fully giving credit to other writers." I don't use anything that isn't already available for confirmation—what good would that kind of "revelation" be? It would be more drivel as offered by the psychics of the New World Order. Dr. Binder, you may well believe that "God" would give "new" and "revolutionary" material if HE were "REAL"—WHY? It seems to me that if ones would share that which they keep for selves—it would be quite sufficient.

There is no "NEW" ANYTHING! You haven't even begun to use or understand the "OLD", of which there is none, either.

Do we dread public trial of this matter? And, why do I use the term "we"? No, WE HAVE NOT DELAYED THIS HEARING as you have publicly stated—WE did not take the files! Now, consider however, the humor and ridicule of those present at the prior hearings on "contempt". I don't think the next go-round will be so "funny" for you are going to have to prove I am NOT who I claim to be—never the minding of Germain, et al. It seems "I" am on trial and not this little old grandma. So, you are going to have to, at the least, PROVE she is not a fully qualified DUAL PERSONALITY of some kind—for she doesn't know anything about the information in argument—I DO! The mouth from which the qualification of the information will flow—will be the same.

Nevada Corporations

PREPARE TODAY FOR AN UNCERTAIN TOMORROW

Today's debt-driven economy will not last forever and planning for the inevitable should be a part of everyone's financial planning. By taking the time to consider just how the debt load of this country will effect each of us personally we will find that most of us have not positioned ourselves for the coming economic crisis. Nevada Corporations can provide you and your assets with privacy and protection so that when the economic tide turns you will be safe and dry.

PRIVACY OF YOUR AFFAIRS. Nevada statutes have developed a corporate structure unlike any other state. The preferred state to incorporate in for years has been Delaware. You will find many of your fortune 500 corporations residing in Delaware, but Nevada created their corporate statutes based on Delaware and went further. They created their corporate structure to allow investors and owners of Nevada corporations to remain completely private. First of all, most states in this country require you to publicly file the name and address of a corporation's Directors, Officers, and Stockholders. This information can then be publicly accessed usually via a brief telephone call to the Secretary of State's Office in the state of incorporation. Well Nevada, in an attempt to create a private corporate shelter, only requires the name of the corporation's President, Secretary, and Treasurer (not Vice President) and the corporations Directors. The state does not wish to know who the investors or stockholders of the corporation are. This makes Nevada the preferred state for incorporation.

PROTECT YOUR PROPERTIES. There are many, many advantages today for holding real estate in a corporation. Corporations allow owners of real estate privacy and asset protection. This can make all the difference when that lawsuit comes up or when the IRS decides to make you their next victim for whatever reason (usually they don't need one). What you will find with most large land holders, is that they will never hold property in their own name. If they do, they have not been in the game for very long.

Liability risk should be on the minds of everyone today. It has become common today for the court to say that a motorist involved in an accident, who has no fault in that accident, can be partially responsible. If an injury occurs on a property the injured party will usually sue the owner of the property. If the owner of that property has all assets in the same name, all of those assets could potentially be lost in the suit. Lawsuits need to be a concern of everyone today. Real estate held in a corporation can spread out your risk to the point where judgments against you, as an individual, cannot be easily attached to a corporation. If a suit comes up against your corporation, all that the suing party can go after are those assets held in the corporation's name. This can be some valuable insulation!

A corporation also offers great privacy and can provide you the cover for owning real estate and remaining hidden. With the protection that Nevada allows to corporation owners, it can be very hard to determine the ownership of a corporation. Let's use this story as an example: Three partners were the owners of an apartment complex and the partners were in constant disagreement. One of the partners with the financial ability made an offer to the other partners to buy them out. The other partners were being given a very good price for their share, but would not sell because they did not want to sell their shares to the other partner; ego differences, I believe. So the other partner, being crafty, created a corporation and hired a man to represent it. This unknown corporation then came in and made an offer to all of these partners. The partner/owner of the corporation put on a good show and said that he didn't want to sell out but would if the other partners decided that it was a good deal. This allowed the one partner to buy the complex for about the same price without having the other partners know that they just sold to him. This same strategy can work for you in your day to day life. Isn't it true that people who appear to have a lot, will attract attention and trouble? This is an unfortunate situation but it is true. Keeping a low profile can make your life much more peaceful.

Real estate held in a corporation keep the focus off of you and on this unknown corporation. Normally, no one will know who the owner of the corporation is. Just always remember the saying, "I just work here", or in this case, "I just represent Big Corporation In The Sky, Inc.", and play dumb. It's fun and taking this approach works. You will disappear and this new name will show up everywhere you used to.

Many states now have statutes where real estate that is sold is automatically reappraised (Calif. Prop. 13). Well, if a corporation is the owner of the real estate, and you sell your property by selling your shares of stock in that corporation, the deed on the property is never changed. This sale of personal property (the stock), not real estate, would never be recorded and therefore, no reappraisal! Now if every Californian who has seen his real estate value grow and grow could offer a buyer a corporation for sale, that would be a very nice incentive to pay a higher price. This strategy has many implications with the tax system also.

For these and many other reasons, holding real estate in a corporation can be very beneficial. By protecting what you own, you can save a tremendous amount in the long run. Plan today for the unexpected tomorrow.

By Anna Keeler

There has been an ongoing controversy over health effects of electromagnetic fields (EMF) for years (eg., extremely low frequency radiation and the Navy's Project Seafarer; emissions of high power lines and video display terminals; radar and other military and industrial sources of radio frequencies and microwaves, such as plastic sealers and molders.) Less is known of Department of Defense (DOD) and Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) interest in anti-personnel applications of the invisible energies. The ability of certain parameters of EMF to cause health effects, including neurological and behavioral disturbances, has been part of the military and CIA arsenal for years.

Capabilities of the energies to cause predictable and exploitable effects or damages can be gleaned from discussion of health effects from environmental exposures. Interestingly, some scientists funded by the DOD or CIA to research and develop invisible electromagnetic weapons have voiced strong concern (perhaps from superior knowledge or compensatory to guilt) over potentially serious consequences of environmental exposures.

Eldon Byrd who worked for Naval Surface Weapons, Office of Non-Lethal Weapons, was commissioned in 1981 to develop electromagnetic devices for purposes including "riot control," clandestine operations and hostage removal. In the context of a controversy over reproductive hazards to Video Display Terminal (VDT) operators, he wrote of alterations in brain function of animals exposed to low intensity fields. Offspring of exposed animals "exhibited a drastic degradation of intelligence later in life... couldn't learn easy tasks... indicating a very definite and irreversible damage to the central nervous system of the fetus." With VDT operators exposed to weak fields, there have been clusters of miscarriages and birth defects (with evidence of central nervous system damage to the fetus). Byrd also wrote of experiments where behavior of animals was controlled by exposure to weak electromagnetic fields. "At a certain frequency and power intensity, they could make the animal purr, lay down and roll over."

Notorious Jose Delgado, advocate of a psycho-civilized society through mind control, no longer implants electrodes in the brains of mental patients and prisoners; he now induces profound behavioral changes (hyper-activity, passivity, etc.) by exposing animals to precisely tuned EMFs. He has also written of genetic damage produced by weak EMF fields, similar to those emitted by VDTs. Invariably, brain tissue damage and skeletal deformation was observed in new born chicks that had been exposed. He was concerned enough to check emissions from the appliances in his kitchen.

Ross Adey induces calcium efflux in brain tissue with low power level fields (a basis for the CIA and military's "confusion weaponry") and has done behavioral experiments with radar modulated at electroencephalogram (EEG) rhythms. He is understandably concerned about environmental exposures within 1 to 30 Hz (cycles per second), either as a low frequency or an amplitude modulation on a microwave or radio frequency, as these can physiologically interact with the brain even at very low power densities. E.g., amplitude modulation of 9 to 20 Hz on a low density very high frequency (VHF) carrier frequency causes disturbed neuro-electric function and calcium efflux in brain tissue.

MICROWAVES

Microwave health effects is a juncture where Department of Defense and environmental concerns collide and part ways.

Security concerns, according to Sam Koslov of Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), first prompted U.S. study of health effects of low intensity (or non-thermal) microwaves. At times, up to 70-80% of the research was funded by the military. From 1965 to 1970, a study dubbed Project Pandora was undertaken to determine the health and psychological effects of low intensity microwaves, the so-called "Moscow signal" registered at the American Embassy in Moscow. Initially, there was confusion over whether the signal was an attempt to activate bugging devices or for some other purpose. There was suspicion that the microwave irradiation was being used as a mind control system. CIA agents asked scientists involved in microwave research whether microwaves beamed at humans from a distance could affect the brain and alter behavior. Dr. Milton Zaret who undertook to analyze Soviet literature on microwaves for the CIA, wrote: "For non-thermal irradiations, they believe that the electromagnetic field induced by the microwave environment affects the cell membrane, and this results in an increase of excitability or an increase in the level of excitation of nerve cells. With repeated or continued exposure, the increased excitability leads to a state of exhaustion of the cells of the cerebral cortex. This results in the Sechenov inhibition effect which is manifested by the elimination of positive conditioned reflexes or behavior modification." Autonomic nervous centers are affected.

Employees first learned of the irradiation ten years after Project Pandora began. Before that, information had been parcelled out on a strict "need to know" basis, which excluded most employees at the compound. Due to secrecy, and probably reports like Dr. Zaret's, Jack Anderson speculated that the CIA was trying to cover up a Soviet effort at behavior modification through irradiation of the U.S. diplomats, and that the cover up was created to protect the CIA's own mind control secrets.

Finally, an unusually large number of illnesses were reported among the residents of the compound. U.S. Ambassador Walter Stoessel developed a rare blood disease similar to leukemia: he was suffering headaches and bleeding from the eyes. A source at the State Department informally admitted that excessive radiation had been leaking from his telephone: an American high frequency radio transmitter on the roof of the building had, when operating, induced high frequency signals well above the U.S. safety standard through the phones in the political section, as well as in lines to Stoessel's office. No doubt, National Security Agency or CIA electronic devices also contributed to the electromagnetic environment at the embassy, although values for these were never released, as they are secret. Stoessel was reported as telling his staff that the microwaves could cause leukemia, skin cancer, cataracts and various forms of emotional illness. White blood cell counts were estimated to be as high as 40% above normal in one third of the staff, and serious chromosome damage was uncovered.

U.S. government agencies reported that the Soviets never transmitted the "signal" at levels above the Soviet exposure limit. (actually, no microwave standard exists for the public or workplace in the U.S.: American National Standards Institute (ANSI), a private organization, has established "guidelines" that are often referred to as the "safety standard," but are not legally enforceable). At the time, Soviet microwave standards were over 1000 times more restrictive than the voluntary U.S. ANSI guideline.

The Soviets began research on biological effects of microwaves in 1953. A special laboratory was set up at the Institute of Hygiene and Occupational Diseases, Academy of Medical Sciences. Other labs were set up in the U.S.S.R. and in Eastern Europe that study both effects of microwaves and low frequency electromagnetic radiation. Criteria for determination of safety standards for persons occupationally exposed, and the general public, differ in vital ways from the West:

(1) most important, non-thermal effects are recognized, whereas, at least initially, safety factors in the West were calculated on thermal considerations, i.e., the time it takes an organism to dissipate heat:

(2) adverse subject complaints such as fatigue, headache and irritation were addressed through epidemiological studies, and excluded before the standard was set; in the West, subjective manifestations of low intensity exposures are generally not recognized; and

(3) study of higher nervous activity, especially effects on conditioned and unconditioned reflexes, was felt to be the most sensitive biological indicator and effects on these eliminated before the standard was set; In the West, these were studied in a weapons context, and still haven't been adequately addressed as a public health issue.

Pulsed microwave radiation is more effective than continuous in affecting nervous system pathways, i.e., it can produce more direct interference and aberrations in electro-neural transmission. This fact formed the main basis for recognition of "non-thermal" effects; the Soviets early recognized that neurological effects occurred in the absence of appreciable or ordinarily measurable heating of irradiated tissues. Strict Soviet standards were set long before dangers would have been considered scientifically "proven" by U.S. scientists.

Years ago, in the halls of science, complaints could be heard that Soviet experiments regarding bio-effects couldn't be duplicated due to insufficient details in their scientific literature, although, according to one DOD official, 75% of the U.S. papers on the subject carried insufficient parameters for duplication. Scientists even questioned, with McCarthy like sentiments, whether the Soviets were attempting to frighten or disinform with false scientific reporting of bio-effects. It was unthinkable, according to cruder scientific theory, that non-thermal levels of microwaves could cause harm. Impetus for a study of such effects came not from concern for the public, but rather in the military and intelligence community's suspicion of the Soviets, and their equally strong interest in developing exploitable anti-personnel effects - an interest that continues unabated today.

The CIA and DOD "security" concerns metamorphosized into research and development of invisible weapons capable of impacting on health and psychological processes. An indication of priorities is illustrated by the following: Defense Advanced Research Agency's (DARPA) Richard Cesaro, initiator of Pandora, found such profound cumulative effects with low intensity microwaves, that it prompted him to write that there was "an obvious need to overhaul the U.S. standard." Neither DARPA's research results nor warning, however, were made available to the standard-setting community. In fact, due to the finding of startling effects, DARPA's security became even tighter, and a new code name - "Bizarre" was assigned to the project. While the strict Soviet safety standard was set primarily to guard against behavioral effects and central nervous system damage, DARPA seemed determined to exploit them. Consider, for instance, one project of the multi-million dollar Pandora: Janet Healer, employee of Allied Research Associates and of Sam Koslov of DARPA, did a computer review, analysis and classification of Soviet low intensity microwave occupational hygiene bio-effects literature, for the purpose of developing projects related to the exploitation of sense-perception effects for U.S. weapons development.

MILITARY DISINFORMATION

Scientist Allan Frey of Randomline, Inc., was always more interested in low intensity microwave hazards: thermal effects were known. During Project Pandora, the Navy funded such projects of his, as how to use low average power intensities, to: induce heart seizures; create leaks in the blood brain barrier, which would allow neurotoxins in the blood to cross and cause neurological damage or behavioral disorders; and how to produce auditory hallucinations or microwave hearing, during which person can hear tones that seem to be coming from within the head or from directly behind it. In his older articles, he notes unusual subjective manifestations of microwave exposure, eg., the feeling of extreme "head throttle", pins and needles, tickling of scalp or ears and other odd sensations.

In 1976, the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) released a report in which they attributed the results of Dr. Frey's studies to the Soviets. According to Dr. Frey, who acknowledges that his work was misattributed, he had thought up the projects himself. The DIA, but not the CIA, is allowed to use "mirror imaging" and "net assessment" in their reports, i.e., respectively, the attribution of one's own motives and weapons capabilities to "the other side", in this case, the Soviets. It follows, that there is nothing to prevent them from releasing a report prepared in this manner, and thus muddy the water of decision making, pervert public opinion, stoke up congressional funding or enlist the support of naive scientists to counter "the threat". There was strong concern over CIA disinformation abroad, leaking back to the home front through the American press, but apparently the DIA, at least on some issues, can dish it up with impunity.

The 1976 DIA report also credits the Soviets with other capabilities, stating, "Sounds and possibly even words which appear to be originating intracranially can be induced by signal modulations at very low power densities." The excerpt found its way into at least one congressional report and was printed in a number of newspapers and professional journals, advising that the Soviets could make anti-personnel use of the transmitted words. Again, reminiscent of Dr. Frey's auditory work for the Navy. In fact, Dr. Sharp, a Pandora researcher at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, some of whose work was so secret that he couldn't tell his boss, conducted an experiment in which the human brain received a message carried to it by microwave transmission. Sharp was able to recognize spoken words that were modulated on a microwave carrier frequency by an "audiogram" - an analog of the words' sound vibrations, and carried into his head in a chamber where he sat.

Dr. James Lin of Wayne State University, has written a book entitled, "Microwave Auditory Effects and Applications." It explores the possible mechanisms for the phenomenon, and discusses possibilities for the deaf, as persons with certain types of hearing loss can still hear pulsed microwaves (as tones or clicks and buzzes, if words aren't modulated on). Lin mentions the Sharp experiment and comments, "The capability of communicating directly with humans by pulsed microwaves is obviously not limited to the field of therapeutic medicine."

Dr. R.O. Becker, twice nominated for the Nobel prize for his health work in bio-electromagnetism, was more explicit in his concern over illicit government activity. He wrote of "obvious applications in covert operations designed to drive a target crazy with 'voices'..." Are we to take it that persons felt to be obdurate can still be reached via properly modulated microwave or radio frequency transmission?

What is frightening is that words, transmitted via low density microwaves or radio frequencies, or by other covert methods, might be used to create influence. For instance, according to a 1984 U.S. House of Representatives report, a large number of stores throughout the country use high frequency transmitted words (above the range of human hearing) to discourage shoplifting. Stealing is reported to be reduced by as much as 80% in some cases. Surely, the CIA and military haven't overlooked such useful technology.

Dr. Frey also did experiments on reduction of aggression. Rats who were accustomed to fighting viciously when their tails were pinched, accepted the pinching with relative passivity when irradiated with pulsed microwaves in the ultra high frequency range (UHF) at a power density of less than 1,000 microwatts/cm² (the current ANSI guideline for the public.) 50 microwatts or 1,000 microwatts/cm² substantially reduced aggressive behavior, while 20 microwatts did not. He has also done low intensity microwave experiments degrading motor coordination and balance. When asked about weapons applications of his work, he answered by referring to himself as "just a biological theorist", and his work for the Navy, "basic medical research."

Lies Before Congress

In 1976, George H. Heilmeier, director of Defense Advances Research Projects Agency (DARPA) responded to a mailgram to President Ford from Don Johnson of Oakland, paraphrasing Johnson's concern, and assuring him that the DARPA sponsored Army/Navy Pandora experiments were "never directed at the use of microwaves as a surveillance tool, nor in a weapons concept." Don Johnson lingered in the memory of one DOD official who sponsored microwave research in the 1970's. Johnson was enigmatically described as "brilliant . . . schizophrenic . . . he knew too much . . . a former mental patient . . . buildings where work was done." (Scientists who have disagreed with the DOD on health effects of microwaves and on the U.S. exposure standard, have received scant more respect and have had their funding cut.)

The next year, Heilmeier elaborated in a written response to an inquiry before Congress. "... This agency (DARPA) is not aware of any research projects, classified or unclassified, conducted under the auspices of the Defense Department, now ongoing, or in the past, which would have probed possibilities of utilizing microwave radiation in a form of what is popularly known as 'mind control.' We do not foresee the development, by DARPA of weapons using microwaves and actively being directed toward altering nervous system function or behavior. Neither are we aware of any of our own forces...developing such weapons...."

Lies Exposed

Finally, memoranda were released that rendered the goals of Pandora transparent. Richard Cesaro, initiator of Pandora and director of DARPA's Advanced Sensor program, justified the project in that "little or no work has been done in investigation of the subtle behavioral changes which may be evolved by a low-level electromagnetic field." Researchers had long ago established that direct stimulus of the brain could alter behavior. The question raised by radio frequencies - microwaves or radio frequencies of the UHF or VHF band - was whether the electromagnetic fields could have a similar effect at very low levels. Pandora's initial goal: to discover whether a carefully constructed microwave signal could control the mind. In the context of long term, low-level effects: Cesaro felt that central nervous system effects could be important, and urged their study "for potential weapons applications." After testing a low-level modulated microwave signal on a chimpanzee, and within approximately a week causing stark performance decrements and behavioral disorganization, Cesaro wrote, "the potential of exerting a degree of control on human behavior by low-level microwaves seems to exist." On the basis of the primate study, extensive discussions took place and plans were made to extend the studies to humans.

According to a former DOD security analyst, one such microwave experiment with human subjects took place at Lorton Prison in the early 1970's. He said that much research (in a weapons context) has occurred on behavioral effects of microwaves since 1976. He also asked, "Why are you so concerned about them. What about now? They can call anyone a terrorist. Who are they using it on now?"

Behavioral Effects

In June, 1970, government think tank, Rand Corporation, published a report by R.J. MacGregor, entitled "A Brief Survey of Literature Relating to Influence of Low Intensity Microwaves on Nervous Function." After noting that the U.S. microwave guideline in effect in 1970 for the public, 10,000 microwatts/cm² (now the industrial and military "guideline"), is proscribed from consideration of the rate that thermal effects are dissipated, the author, a specialist in modeling neural networks, states that scientific studies have consistently shown that humans exhibit behavioral disturbances when subjected to non-thermal levels of microwaves, well below this level. The symptoms that MacGregor lists for those humans exposed more or less regularly at work or in the living environment are insomnia, irritability, loss of memory, fatigue, headache, tremor, hallucinations, autonomic disorders and disturbed sensory functioning. He reports that swelling and distention of nerve cells have been produced at intensities as low as 1,000 microwatts/cm² (the current U.S. guideline for the public.) Also, that nerve tissue, especially dendrites, exhibit the swelling at lower intensities than those required to produce comparable disturbances in other tissue. The report discusses several possible mechanisms through which non-thermal microwaves might influence behavior, but notes that swelling of nerve cells would be enough to account for all reported behavioral anomalies.

In a companion Rand paper, June, 1970, entitled "A Direct Mechanism for the Direct Influence of Microwave Radiation on Neuroelectric Function," MacGregor sets forth the idea that the electrical component of microwave radiation induces transmembrane potentials in nerve cells and thereby disturbs nervous function and behavior. He notes that marked disturbances have been reported in the literature when the incident field exhibits high peaks in intensity well above the low average level. Eg., parameters which induce auditory hallucinations often incorporate peak power densities of close to 100,000 microwatts/cm² in a field that would be measured or averaged as low intensity and non-thermal; according to MacGregor's mathematical model, this would produce a depolarization of brain tissue of 2 or 3 millivolts. He concludes that there is no question but that membrane depolarization of this magnitude can influence ongoing electrical behavior, and that neuroelectric effects should exhibit a maximum effect in the microwave range. (Whether a person is daydreaming excessively or paying attention can be determined by looking at a 10 microvolt level, in the brain, with relation to 8 to 13 Hz brain rhythms. Conception results in a greater internal voltage drop.)

Microwaves penetrate and are absorbed more deeply so that they can produce a direct effect on the central nervous system. With smaller wave lengths the principal absorption occurs near the body surface and causes peripheral or "lower" nervous system effects.

Dr. Milton Zaret who analysed neurological effects for the CIA during Project Pandora (he is now one of the few doctors willing to take the government on by testifying on behalf of plaintiffs filing claims for microwave health damage), wrote that, "receptors of the brain are susceptible and react to extremely low intensities of microwave irradiation if this is delivered in accordance with appropriate 'coding.' Coding is reported to be influenced by the character of the signal so as to be a function, for example, of the shape and amplitude of the pulse or waveform. The shorter the pulse time and larger the amplitude, the more biologically effective it will be. Generally, polyfrequency is more effective than monofrequency, although some effects are believed to be a function of frequency alone."

Remotely Reinforcing Specific Brain Rhythms

Dr. Ross Adey, formerly of the Brain Research Center at University of Southern California, Los Angeles, now at Loma Linda University Medical School, Loma Linda, California, was among the first of the Pandora researchers. His work is more precise in inducing specific behavior, rather than merely causing disorganization or decrements in performance - that is, apart from his studies on inducing calcium efflux in brain tissue, which causes interference with the functioning of the brain and is one basis of "confusion weaponry".

More specifically, Adey's thesis is that if the electroencephalogram (EEG) has informational significance, one can induce behavioral changes if one imposes environmental fields that look like EEG. During Adey's career, he has correlated a wide variety of behavioral states with EEG, including emotional states (eg., stress in hostile questioning), increments of decision making and conditioning, correct versus incorrect performance, etc., and he has imposed electromagnetic fields that look like EEG, which has resulted in altered EEG and behavior.

How would one impose electromagnetic field that look like EEG, that is without using electrodes? Quite simply, by using a carrier frequency that penetrates the brain, and amplitude modulating it at EEG frequencies. Microwaves penetrate to central brain structures. One can extrapolate penetration and effects from animal to man, if frequencies are scaled to larger body size and shape. In unclassified Project Pandora documents, part of Adey's work was rather inelegantly described in military jargon as "S-band radar modulated with EEG."

In published accounts of Adey's work, he has shown that it is possible to apply low biologic frequencies by using a radio frequency carrier modulated at specific brain frequencies. He demonstrated that if the biological modulation on the carrier frequency is close to frequencies in the natural EEG of the subject, it will reinforce or increase the number of manifestations of the imposed rhythms, and modulate behavior.

The conditioning paradigm: animals were trained through aversion to produce specific brain wave rhythms; animals trained in a field with the same rhythm amplitude modulated on it, differed significantly from control animals in both accuracy and resistance to extinction (at least 50 days versus 10 in the controls.) When the fields were used on untrained animals, occurrence of the applied rhythm increased in the animals EEG.

Dr. Adey is an accomplished scientist, which leads one to believe the significance of this experiment goes beyond mere reinforcement of the animal's brain waves. Did the rhythms that he chose to apply have special significance with relation to information processing or conditioning? The 4.5 theta rhythm that he applied was the natural reoccurring frequency that he had measured in the hippocampus during a phase of avoidance learning. The hippocampus, as Adey wrote in an earlier paper, "...involves neural processes connected with consolidation of memory traces. It relates closely to the need for focussing attention, and the degree to which recapitulation of past experience is imposed." One might add, to ensure survival.

Does it follow that an EEG modulated carrier frequency can be used to enhance human avoidance learning? You bet, provided the same careful procedures are followed with humans as were with animals, the same result would accrue. Recall again the goals of Pandora - to discover whether a carefully constructed electromagnetic signal could direct the mind. How many pieces to the effective weapons application puzzle have been found?

It is no wonder that Dr. Adey is concerned with environmental exposures between 1 and 30 Hz (cycles per second) - these are frequencies found in human EEG. Ordinarily, carrier frequencies have some modulation impressed on them, either purposely like radar or telecommunications, or inadvertently like electric power transmission lines which acting like antenna receive and re-radiate other broadcast signals. Dr. Adey is intimately conversant with the effects of a large variety of "codings" available which can perturbate carrier frequencies passing through the mid-brain, and thus interfere with information processing and other biological functions.

The obvious question becomes, how many and with how much accuracy can behavioral states or "frames of mind" be intentionally imposed, that is, apart from the certain technological capability to promote disorganization and degradation of perception and performance through use of the fields.

In fact, many components of learning or conditioning, including affect (i.e., "feeling" or emotional states) can be imposed through use of the fields from a distance. E.g., behavioral arousal, orienting reflex, subliminal stress (alarm reaction without realization of the contextual significance), so-called levels of consciousness, inhibition of cerebral functions, which would render one more susceptible to suggestion or influence, and so on. All components necessary to produce behavioral conditioning, including ways to provide contextual significance, can be applied from a distance (i.e., without direct brain contact, as was necessary in older behavior modification experiments.)

Another indication that the government entertained notions of behavior control through use of fields and sound, is a 1974 research proposal by J.F. Schapitz. To test his theory, his plan was to record EEG correlates induced by various drugs, and then to modulate these biological frequencies on a microwave carrier. Could the same behavioral states be produced by imposing these brain wave frequencies on human subjects? His plan went further and included inducing hypnotic states and using words modulated on a microwave carrier frequency to attempt to covertly condition subjects to perform various acts. The plan as released (through the Freedom of Act) seems less part of a careful recipe for influence than Adey's and other DOD scientist's work, and may have been released to mislead by lending and "information beam" science fiction like quality to the work.

Applications

The end of Project Pandora may have signified the end of research into the cause and effects of the varying frequencies registered at the American embassy in Moscow - some known to be due to CIA and National Security Agency equipment, but interest in microwave and biological frequency weapons did not wane. Indeed, there are indications of applications. As we have seen, research that began in response to a security concern, transformed almost overnight into a search for weapons applications, while cloaked in disinformation about the Soviets. What types of weapons?

There are three possibilities:

1) that microwaves, perhaps modulated with low biological frequencies, are used from a distance to cause performance decrements and disorganization by interfering with neuro-electric function; or by causing central nervous system effects, subjective feelings of ill health, or health syndroms associated with periodic exposures at intensities below 10,000 microwatts/cm²;

2) that microwaves are used to create organ specific effects, eg., tissues with less blood circulation, like the gall bladder, lens of the eye, etc., can compensate less to increased heating; heart disfunction can be caused; lesions or necrosis of internal tissues can be induced without a subject necessarily feeling heat, and symptoms might manifest later, at certain frequencies, slight heating or "hot spots" can be created at the center of the head; there is an ongoing Navy contract to find parameters to disrupt human metabolic functions; or

3) that they are used in an interdisciplinary approach to remote conditioning, by creating information processing effects, as Dr. Adey's work shows, or to induce "feeling" or "emotional" elements of cognition, such as excitatory reactions, subliminal stress, behavioral arousal, enhanced suggestibility by inhibition of higher functions, or various other EEG or behavioral effects.

There are strong indications that microwaves have been used to cause the decrements. There is no question but that the U.S. military and the CIA know the behavioral or psycho-active significance of applied biological rhythms and other frequencies, as this was part of the thrust of their work during Pandora (i.e., effects of EEG frequencies, 1 to 30 Hz, impressed on microwave carriers, and frequency specific effects, etc.) Inducing emotion or feelings through use of electromagnetic fields, and then synchronizing the feelings with words (symbolic of ideas) would be an effective way to induce preferences or attitude change, because it would mirror natural thought processes. The question seems less whether conditioning through use of covert technology is possible, than whether there has been a policy choice to use it. If the results of their research are used as part of a system that can condition behavioral responses from a distance, it is a secret that they hold close like a baby.

Richard Helms wrote of such a system in the mid-1960's while he was CIA Plans Director. He spoke of "sophisticated approaches to the 'coding' of information for transmittal to population targets in the 'battle for the mind's of men'..." and of "an approach integrating biological, social and physical-mathematical research in attempts...to control behavior." He was referring to covert transmission of high frequency sound or words to affect behavior. He found particularly notable, "use of modern information theory, automata theory, and feedback concepts...for a technology for controlling behavior...using information inputs as causative agents." Of course, he was referring in the memo to the Soviets. He continued reassuringly, "there is no evidence that the Soviets have any techniques...capable of producing particular behavioral patterns which are not available in the West." Due to Project Pandora, it is now known that applied biological (and other) frequencies can also be used as direct "information inputs" (eg., of feeling or emotions) and to reinforce brain rhythms associated with conditioning and information processing. One to get such a signal into a human may be through use a high frequency carrier frequency. Results of research into information processing, unconscious processes, decision making, memory processes and evoked brain potentials would likely be exploited or integrated in an interdisciplinary system.

Covert technological influence is not so foreign to the American way of life as one may think. It was reported in a 1984 U.S. House of Representatives hearing that high frequency audio transmissions are applied, for instance, in some department stores to prevent theft (one east coast department store chain was reported to have saved $600,000 over a nine-month period), and in some grocery stores with the result that employee induced cash shortages significantly decreased and employees are better mannered. In other words, as Helms wrote of, verbal messages are delivered at frequencies above human hearing. Technology for commercial applications is relatively sophisticated (one studio uses a "layered" approach and 31 channels in preparing tapes; some employ a "dual coding" approach, integrating scientific knowledge of information processing modes of the two brain hemispheres, and others use techniques where a consumer is spoken to as a three year old child.) There is no U.S. law specifically regulating these types of transmissions (over radio and TV a Federal Communication Commission "catch all" provision might apply). If industry uses undetectable audio transmissions to meet security concerns, it seems that the military and CIA would exploit the same technology and would have developed much more sophisticated technology for applications. The public's conception of "subliminals" is naive compared to capabilities.

It seems reasonable to conclude that to the extent that such an approach exists to manipulate behavior, "defensive" applications would consist of applying it where ever a potential threat exists or to counter a threat. For instance, Central America is an area where those in officialdom keenly feel the "threat of Soviet domination." If there is technology available that could conceivably influence Central Americans toward the Soviets, then the U.S. would use the same kind of technology to "even the score." The same is true within the U.S.; if covert technological influence might be had against Americans, the same feared technology would be applied to counter the threat. Special security risks might include peace groups, whom are felt to be threatened by Soviet influence (a big security concern in Western Europe and in the U.S.), progressives, or any group or individual felt to pose a challenge to U.S. goals subsumed under the rubric of "national security interest."

Given the nature and dubious goals of lumbering military inertia, and circuitous CIA "mirror logic", leads to the conclusion that "defending" against possible or actual attempts to manipulate behavior means moving to the offensive, and perhaps, having the "edge" with applications. Possible or actual threats, according to tenets of military and intelligence craft, means "the other side" has the technology if the United States does. Also, it would be too difficult to monitor behavior altering transmissions and to defend against them. Short of exposing such technology there would be no way to defend except by having one's own "system" (of behavioral patterns consisting of a set of signals signifying "yes" and "no," or "good" feeling and "bad" feeling, that can be linked to ideas). Recall that apart from Project Pandora, the CIA spent decades during MKULTRA and related projects, devising operational techniques to surreptitiously influence and affect behavior. Workable invisible weapons are too useful for arms control talks, and don't readily lend themselves to proofs of use or "verification" processes. Additionally, the importance of finding ways to circumvent dissent may have been one of the most significant lessons of Viet Nam.

Over the counter audio aside, the military has studied and considered for usefulness in a warfare and psychological warfare context a wide range of biologicals or pharmacological substances. In the memo referred to above, Helms wrote that the U.S. is five years ahead of the Soviets in pharmacological agents producing behavioral effects. Some of these substances would increase susceptibility to influence if incorporated in the multidisciplinary approach he wrote of.

For difficult subscribers, perhaps in foreign parts, there are substances that have psychological or psychobiological effects ranging from subtle through devastating, and that cause increased susceptibility to conditioning. Some of these substances are similar to ones which are recognized by neurotoxicologists or behavioral toxicologists as occupational hazards; some are variations of substances used experimentally in laboratories to produce selective damage to certain neuronal tracts. Many substances needn't be injected or orally ingested, as they may be inhaled or applied with "skin transferral agents," ie., chemicals like the popular industrial solvent, dimethylsulphoxide (DMSO), which can, in fact, enhance the applied substance's affect. For instance, some compounds cause damage that produces increased sensitivity to stimulus, distraction (or flooding of thought associations), and enhance susceptibility to influence. Ie., a state where automatic parallel information processing, which usually takes place outside of awareness, and interferes with conscious or more intentional limited channel processing. While causing acute mental symptoms wouldn't be the goal in groups, producing mild distraction, an ego weakened blurring between the sense of "I" and "you", would enhance some kinds of conditioning and promote suggestibility; then, perhaps transmitted "thought associations," the "voice of God", "lucky advice" or whatever, can more easily get through and have an effect. A side effect of lowered resistance to sub-threshold stimulus might be that some would become aware of illicit influence (even under normal circumstances there is a wide variation in sensitivity among individuals to sub-threshold stimulus; normal individuals whom psychology terms "reducers" are much more sensitive in this way; actually, most schizophrenics are extreme reducers, and therefore, much more aware of stimulus that others aren't cognizant of). Convenient to the agencies involved in covert influence, is that among primary symptoms of schizophrenia or mental illness are ideas that one is being influenced by "transmissions" (eg., radio frequencies), "voices" or even telepathy: unless complaints about covert psychological weapons are well organized, they would tend to be discounted as indicative of mental imbalance.

There are many ways to create temporary or permanent states that increase receptivity to suggestion and/or conditioning. It is interesting to note that scientific studies have correlated exposure to electromagnetic fields alone with mental hospital admissions and worsening of symptoms of mental patients, even as an etiological factor in the onset of mental illness. (A marker disease for exposure to microwaves is damage behind the lens of the eye; a disproportionate number of persons so damaged also suffer from mental disease or neurological impairment.)

The CIA is also interested in neuropeptides; these have profound effects of administered with in a conditioning paradigm.

Specific Targets

Weapons against whom? Safe to say, in order to enlist the aid of scientists, the military and CIA would act true to form, that is, to motivate and overcome reluctance due to dictates of conscience, they would invoke a serious security risk, like the Soviets, during initial phases of development. In fact, on the "unclassified" face of it, a number of reports have openly suggested use of "microwaves" against "terrorists".

Los Alamos National Laboratory, now under supervision of University of California, prepared a report for Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) setting forth that use of microwave radiation on terrorists could kill them, stun them or at least modify their behavior by changing their "perceptions." At this point the cloak is donned, and the report continues: "There are reports of Eurasian communist countries performing research with combined fields of signals from several different microwave frequencies to produce at least perceptual distortions in humans."

Cable News Network recently aired a report on electromagnetic weapons and showed an official document that was a contingency plan to use electromagnetic weapons against terrorists. It wasn't made clear who the terrorists were or what the contingency was. Prior to the news show, however, reports had surfaced, the source a DOD medical engineer, that in the context of conditioning, microwaves and other modalities had regularly been used against Palestinians.

It makes sense that Palestinians would be targeted as a group for experimental purposes and to meet strategic goals. For instance, to exacerbate discord between political factions, a "bad feeling" (biologically uncomfortable or threatening) would simply be associated through use of sound with the idea of the "other" faction. It is an easy psychological trick to induce negative attribution (where a "bad feeling" is caused to be misattributed to something in our environment): feeling, followed close in time with information input will color a thought, and become a conditioned emotional response (CER) if repeated, and is a physiological fact (so-called "synaptic facilitation") An excitatory autonomic reaction requires a cognitive appraisal or "labelling" of the inducing cause. Both the autonomic reaction and the labelling can be transmitted from a distance using electromagnetic fields, like radio frequencies or microwaves and "sound."

Specific frequencies at low intensities can predictably influence sensory processes. Feeling: pleasantness-unpleasantness, strain-relaxation, and excitement-quietness, can be created with the fields. Negative feelings and avoidance are strong biological phenomena and relate to survival. Feelings are the true basis of much "decision-making" and often occur as sub-threshold impressions. Anger and other negative feelings are easy to cause to be displaced, and most people believe in the "trueness" of their feelings. Ideas including names can be synchronized with the feelings that the fields can induce.

Soft psychology aside, it is a biological fact that thought can not be divorced from feeling. (Afferent sensory elements of emotion rise forth to the brain through the same afferent sensory tracts utilized by the somatic body - there are no afferent autonomic sensory tracts: the autonomic nervous system implements emotional activities through efferent tracts from the brain; since information about any behavioral modality is conveyed to the brain through afferent sensory tracts, and since that information is encoded and delivered through normal cognitive tracts, thought can be comprehended only as influenced by emotional stimulus.) Apart from the hard-wired biological fact that emotion is bound to thought, emotion produces physiological - motor and autonomic reactivities that most of us can't control. Electromagnetic transmissions can influence feelings or emotions in two ways: by interacting directly with the brain, as with carrier frequencies that can penetrate the brain and that can be modulated with EEG frequencies; or by interacting with afferent peripheral (eg., solar plexus ganglion center). Specific parameters are known which resonate pleasantly or unpleasantly with the body. Certain frequencies and tones produce qualities of feelings and thoughts.

Compromised health, years down the line would likely result from certain exposures; a fact that the CIA and military are well aware of. Also, compromising health of certain of the Palestinian leadership would, no doubt, be a tempting goal. Of note, is that during Pandora years, the Israeli's translated, Gordan and Tolgskaya, the Soviet's occupational health experts on pathological effects of radio frequencies (recall that the Soviets set a very strict exposure standard to prevent autonomic nervous system and behavioral effects of microwaves - also termed radio frequencies.)

Greenham Comman

Rather than belabor the obvious, for when the DOD develops a weapon it can be said with certainty that it will be tested, and, if possible, where it would be useful to meet their goals; another example will put motives and, at least, one type of application in more realistic perspective.

Women peace activists have kept an ongoing vigil at the periphery of the U.S. Air Force base at Greenham in England since 1981. They are protesting build up of nuclear weapons. The U.S. Cruise missiles, which are nuclear warheads small enough to be mounted on the back of a truck called a launcher vehicle, arrived at the base in March, 1984. Since then the women in the encampment and members of the Cruisewatch network have insured that when the launcher vehicle and its convoy are taken out into the British countryside, the "dispersal exercises" aren't as secret as the military intended them to be. The women of the network, non-violent activists, have been subjected to intense harassment in an effort to be rid of their presence.

In the fall of 1984, things changed dramatically: many, if not most of the women began suffering illness; and, simultaneously, the massive police and military presence at the base virtually disappeared, and new and different antenna were installed at the base. In a report prepared by Rosalie Bertell, commissioner for International Commission of Health Professionals for Human Rights, a non-governmental organization based in Geneva, Switzerland, the unusual patterns of illness ranged from "severe headaches, drowsiness, menstrual bleeding at abnormal times or post-menopausal, to bouts of temporary paralysis, faulty speech coordination and in one case apparent circulatory failure requiring hospitalization."

Other symptoms documented by peace activist Kim Besly, who coordinates investigations into reports of illness at specific places around the base, included; vertigo, retinal bleeding, burnt face (even at night), nausea, sleep disturbances and palpitations. Psychological symptoms included lack of concentration, disorientation, loss memory, irritability and a sense of panic in non-panic situations. The symptoms have virtually all been associated in medical literature with exposure to microwaves, and most listed can be induced through low intensity or non-thermal exposures.

Measurements were taken around the base by members of Electronics for Peace and by others. Strong signals, up to one hundred times the normal background level were detected on a number of occasions. In fact, signals ten times stronger than those felt to be emanating from normal base transmitting systems were found. It was felt that the readings might be artificially low, as pulsed microwaves, that is, where the transmitted wave is rapidly turned on and off is normal for radar, would only register an average value of the equipment used. Pulsed microwaves, rather than continuous wave, has a high correlation with producing physiological and behavioral effects. Some scientific experiments suggest that the severity of human symptoms is induced by the peak level of the pulse, rather than its average value.

The strongest signals generally appeared in the areas where the women said that they suffered ill effects. For instance, they were found to cover the women's encampment near the "green gate" (gates to the base are designated by color), but stopped abruptly at the edge of the road leading to the gate. The strength of the signals were also found to reflect the activity of the women: eg., they increased rapidly when the women started a demonstration. Visitors to the encampment, both men and women, reported experiencing the same types of symptoms and the same pattern of variation as the Greenham women. It may be revealing that British personnel who guard the perimeter of the base, work very short shifts (two hours at a time) and only for two weeks.

The Manchester Guardian (March 10, 1986) reported that "the U.S. employees an intruder detection system called BISS (Base Installation Security System) which operates...on a sufficiently high frequency to bounce radar waves off a body moving in the vicinity of a perimeter fence." The publication, City Limits, claimed that the British Ministry of Defense is probably using its new intruder detection system CLASSIC (Covert Local Area Sensory System for Intruder Classification) around Greenham Comman.

What else has been used against the women at Greenham Common. If high frequency verbal transmissions are used in U.S. department stores and have a significant affect in meeting their security goals, it seems likely that the military would also exploit the same technology. What would such a message tell the women? "There is something wrong with this place, 'I' want to get out of here, 'I' don't like it here. . . ." Perhaps auditory transmissions would be simultaneous with the transmissions that were making them feel unwell.

While the radar surveillance equipment may be the source of the health complaints of the women at Greenham, the surveillance equipment may also be in use with the calculated intent to cause psychological and somatic symptoms to drive the women away. Use of microwaves (radar is composed of pulsed microwaves) to cause psychological and physiological effects is obviously not new to those who work in security - they were the very issues addressed during Project Pandora; first defensively, and soon thereafter in weapons development. By 1976, psychological applications were suggested in open literature.

In a review prepared by National Bureau of Standards, Law Enforcement Standards Laboratory, for Nuclear Defense Agency, Intelligence and Security Directorate, use of low intensity microwaves was considered for application as a "psychological deterrent." The report stated, "...microwave radiation has frequently been cited as being responsible for non-thermal effects in integrated central nervous system activity. The behavioral consequences most frequently reported have been disability, listlessness and increased irritability." The report fails to mention just as frequently cited low intensity microwave health effects as chromosome damage; congenital birth defects; autonomic nervous system dysregulation, including disruption of bio-cycles; impaired immune function; brain damage and other neurological abnormalities, including leaks in the blood brain barrier and depletion of some neurotransmitters; among a host of other health impairments not to be taken lightly.

The 1980 update of the review notes that there were relevant new findings concerning microwaves, in that peripheral nerves can be made to fire spontaneously, thereby causing behavioral and perceptual aberrations. Get this - the authors of the review and update prepared their reports while employed by the Center of Consumer Technology at National Bureau of Standards.

A reckless form of biological and psychological control has been perpetuated whether the source of the symptoms of the Greenham Common is radar surveillance aimed at the women, or if there is conscious application of the microwaves as a "deterrent" or a means to drive the women away. It wouldn't be surprising if it were both; the review above, considered application of microwaves as a "deterrent" in the context of building the deterrents into an intruder system. While security concerns addressed by the system under study and those felt to be presented by the activists at Greenham aren't entirely analogous; serious, well organized and often violent methods were used in an effort to be rid of the women. Calculated efforts were also directed at prevent or erode community support. In the summer of 1985, women planning to visit the camp had to be notified that long term health effects might ensue for women who were pregnant or intended to be. As activist Kim Besly put it, "It would now appear that we are protecting the missiles by killing people slowly."

There is no doubt that U.S. security forces know the exploitable effects of low intensity microwave radiation. It may be that they feel justified in using the microwaves within certain low intensity "guidelines", but prepared in such away that a maximum negative impact on feelings of health and well-being are produced. Perhaps they rationalized that the symptoms would disappear if only the women would leave. Clearly, consideration of long term or permanent health effects is outside their scope of expertise, at least when they want results.

Health complaints similar to those of the women at Greenham Common are being made by women peace activists at Seneca, New York, and from activists at other locations. The symptoms at Greenham seem to occur on an occasional basis now, perhaps due to the Intermediate Range Nuclear Forces (INF) treaty, which applies to the missiles housed there, or due to somewhat increased public or congressional awareness.

It is important to realize that the situation is still dangerous. There is a paucity of information on so-called "non-lethal" electromagnetic weapons. Unfortunately, there has also been a reluctance to believe that they could be used. Early accounts discounted the symptoms experienced at Greenham Common as those of "hysterical" women. It wasn't possible for them to obtain sophisticated enough dosimetry equipment to precisely measure parameters of the microwaves aimed at them. It is known by the military and the intelligence community, that very expensive and difficult to come by equipment is needed to measure, for instance, short, high intensity peaks in a field, or parameters that would tend to prove that microwaves were intended to have a biological effect. Eg., transmissions using frequencies which are known to penetrate the body that carry EEG modulated on them.

It is not necessary that the transmission take place from equipment in the vicinity of a target (although the Greenham women seemed to be suffering from transmissions made from within the base.) Propagation of microwaves has been very well studied and is very sophisticated, eg., a two inch beam can be sent from a satellite, point to point, to a receiving dish on earth; and, it was reported in 1978, that the CIA had a program called Operation Pique, which included bouncing radio signals or microwaves off of the ionosphere to affect the mental functions of people in selected areas, including Eastern European nuclear installations.

(Various types of surveillance equipment can cause health problems. Eg., tests of a night laser photography device showed that it could cause retinal hemorrhage; some remote sensing systems may present health risks, as well.) The military has shown disregard for health damage to the U.S. public caused by electromagnetic transmissions; they have less reason to feel concerned about the health of groups abroad considered to be security risks.

In the U.S. the military has intentionally obfuscated discussion of environmental health effects. With their ally "industry" they have won, at least for the time being, the right to perpetuate their interests, to the detriment of the public's best interests. Scientists who have spoken up on the environmental impact of military microwave or electromagnetic systems have been treated as security risks, and have had their funds cut, so great is the military's concern in protecting their communications systems by ensuring themselves unlimited use of radio frequencies or microwaves.

A strong monetary reason for stonewalling was given in a 1975, "classified" summary of the DOD's Tri-Service Electromagnetic Radiation Bioeffect Research Plan: "These (lower safety) standards will significantly restrict the military use of EMR in a peacetime environment and require procurement of substantial real estate around ground based EMR emitters to provide buffer zones." The needed real estate was estimated to be 498,000 acres; the price would probably be billions of dollars. (Epidemiological studies have shown a significantly higher percentage of cancer deaths in American counties having Air Force bases. Cancer incidents is highest where residents are in line with radar.)

Another factor which has led to a denial of health effects is the specter of potential liability: official recognition of bioeffects and lowering of the standard, is like admitting that the old standard was unsafe and would expose the military (and industry) to liability for damage claims. Still another reason is that it is abundantly simple to extrapolate from environmental exposures to a weapons concept. The last factor may have come into play during Pandora years, and at other times when weapons development made DoD more sensitive to possible leaks on exploitable effects. Eg., since an object of Pandora, according to Defense Advanced Projects Research Agency, was to exert an exploitable degree of control over behavior through use of microwave transmissions; and since the first damage to health from low intensity microwaves lay in their direct interference with central nervous function, the tendency was to deny such effects existed. A denial of this sort acquires a life of its own. Scientists early learn on which side their bread is buttered. Several scientists who worked on Pandora research, claim that not only were scientific results withheld from the public, but that the research results released were actually altered and a whitewash. Adding to the chill, or climate of secrecy, was (and still is) that careers of some scientists, intelligence chiefs and military officials might be ruined should too many questions be asked and the ball unravel on their involvement in illicit human experimentation and weapons or political applications.

Industry has contributed to perpetuating confusion over health effects, as well. In fact, some of the same regular cast of characters have whitewashed on both the military and industrial sides. Scientist consultants for industry have received military contracts for microwave research and sit on committees considering public safety concerns.

The upshot is that in the U.S. at this time, there is no legally enforceable microwave standard. There never has been an enforceable standard for the public or the workplace. Microwaves at intensities within the suggested "guideline" have finally been shown, even by U.S. research, to cause health damage.

Worse, some industrial exposures are extraordinarily high. For instance, plastic sealers, a low income group comprised mainly of women within childbearing years, use equipment that exposes them to over 10,000 microwatts of microwaves or radio frequencies throughout an eight hour day, and in some cases, to hundreds of milliwatts. As energy absorbed from their equipment flows to ground, so much heat has been felt in the ankles of some workers, that they have learned to do their tasks with their feet elevated on plastic. They are not provided metal shielding as workers are in more health conscious countries.

Due to nonuniform energy distribution, "hot spots" may be caused in the body. In workers exposed to certain frequencies at high intensities (even for a very short time), lesions and necrosis can result in internal organs; heat and pain aren't necessarily felt upon exposure, symptoms may manifest at a later time, and, therefore, it may not be realized that microwaves have caused the injury. The concept of nonuniform energy deposition is similar to what DOD scientists early discovered, eg., that a 10,000 microwatts/cm² intensity exposure in the low gigahertz range, may result in 20,000 microwatts/cm² being deposited near the mid-brain.

As per instructions issued in 1982, Occupational Safety and Health (OSHA) inspectors can't even issue meaningless citations to companies exposing their workers to unsafe levels of microwaves, and they have a "should" guideline of 10,000 microwatts/cm² on the books, rather than a "shall" or enforceable guideline. Injuries need only be reported to OSHA if they result in death, and in other very limited circumstances.

A comparison of the strictly enforced Soviet and Eastern bloc standards, and our own failure to act - the U.S. guideline is 1000 times more lax and has been declared by a federal appellate court to be unenforceable, should provoke very serious questions about health risks incurred by not strictly regularly exposures. What is the basis of the discrepancy, and whose interests are served by the delay in adopting a legal guideline?

At bottom line, the Soviet standard was set with the goal being to admit no risk of injury from microwave exposure; while in the West, the U.S. primarily, our motivation is reflected in a sort of risk/benefit or cost/benefit analysis (or apportionment of risk). This may sound wry, as there is no legal standard, but simply put, it is the basic philosophical approach that is used to analyze environmental and occupational risks, unless injury is very dramatic and the causal relationship between exposure to a hazard and the resulting illness very clear.

For instance, during occupational epidemiological studies, Soviet scientists found that health syndromes, some irreversible, are caused by exposure to non-thermal intensities of microwaves well below the U.S. recommended guideline for either the public or workers. Eg., two groups, periodically exposed to microwaves from 100 to 10,000 microwatts/cm², and 10 to 1,000 microwatts/cm², both showed physiological dysfunction of the nervous and cardiovascular systems; the group with the exposures up to 10,000 microwatts/cm², showed marked disturbance in cardiac rhythm. The first reversible stage is initiated by such complaints as headaches, irritability, sleep disturbances, weakness, partial loss of memory, decrease in sexual activity and poorly defined feeling of ill health. The later irreversible stage initiates with cardiovascular changes, usually accompanied by lancinating or boring cardiac pain, hypertensive reactions and EKG changes indicative of coronary artery spasm or myocardial pathology. During a later stage, there might be pathological changes in hypothalamic structures of the brain and cerebral circulation crises.

The subjective complaints, which are indicative impact on the central nervous system, and the cardiovascular syndrome (by no means inclusive of the range of serious disorders caused by even low intensity microwaves) have not, at least, publicly and officially, been recognized in the U.S., despite the fact that psychological and physiological effects of low intensity microwaves were studied for security purposes and weapons development. The military and intelligence community have worked at cross-purposes with the public (as they often do), in that information that would be relevant to public health concerns has been withheld because it relates to their own special interests.

While most of the public are only exposed to very low levels of microwaves and radio frequencies (actually within the strict soviet standard, or so we're told), a considerable number (between one and two percent) live or work near emitters, such as radio and television transmitters, military and airport radar, and industrial tools utilizing these frequencies. Therefore, it is likely that they are exposed to levels that have been proven to be unhealthful or downright dangerous.

God Is LIGHT!

And YOU Are

The Thought Of God

2/23/94 #2 HATONN

Some excerpts from my own writing of May 26, 1991:

[QUOTING:]

Without light all things perish. Even in the greatest depths of the oceans wherein life seems to be resting—there is life and thus—there MUST be light. To the human eye indiscernible but, nonetheless—it is there for God is there and with God goes and comes that which is projected as “Light”.

We speak of things great and small and, yet, ALL is tiny compared to the vastness of infinite universe—great “ALL”. Man comes forth and overlooks his most wondrous attribute—that he, too, is naught save Light and he, being “Light”, is AS God for God IS LIGHT. Man searches and searches, figures and calculates, looking for that which is NOT in his hope to find God and Source for he longs to be with the ONENESS again from that of which he is created. Ye are simply the great swirling infinity of spiraling light coalesced into wondrous manifestation that has taken form that ye might experience with thine senses, the magnificence, for God, too, desires to share and experience all.

The day is now come when ALL Men must know what is meant when the great teachers have said, “God is Light.” For if you know not, you cannot know God—and that, friends, must be known. In the swirling mass of words we use efforting to allow understanding, you are lost in portions which yet elude your comprehension at first looking—do not despair for KNOWING simply IS just as God “simply IS”. The “KNOWING” must also come. It is the time, now, for the bringing together, again, the fragments of explanations wherein those who are ready for knowledge can grasp the sensing and allow it to become knowing. For those who are not ready in their journey, it will come if ye do not turn away. Continue on with us and we shall show the way for that is our purpose in coming unto you.

Vast knowledge is held (all, in fact) within the wondrous mysterious secret of “Light” and though it is all around Man—he cannot see it for it reflects too many myriads of infinite other creations back into his senses. That which man cannot “see” is somehow incomprehensible to him. God becomes as the wind for it is not seen and yet it is unmistakably “there”, and yet, even the wind is comprised of Light.

[PAUSE IN QUOTING]

Man still knows not what matter IS. He has advanced far in knowing how to deal with portions of matter but he still does not understand the true source nor the “why” of matter. We are now trying to tell you the “what” of matter. It has been done before—by me, in fact, and yet only the tiny, tiny few have been able to transfer the knowledge into recognition. It is time to present it again and see if we touch the buttons of recognition. I do not bring puzzles simply to annoy you, when what you really want to know is when the earthquake is coming so you can wait until the last moment to run hide. Those things are fine for the sensed experience but the sensed experience is but the thought projection of God and, as God desires to return into the perfection, it requires that the KNOWING take place. In the KNOWING IS GOD, therefore don't be foolish in your assumption that you might make a “wrong” choice of direction once you KNOW. You will not! Choices of the flesh and physical sensing dimension are simply that—an illusion which passes as quickly as do the changing thoughts. To really KNOW GOD IS TO BE WITH GOD....

I caution you “would be” teachers who THINK you've “got it” and proceed to expound ad nauseam—you do NOT! You are only touching on the minutest edge and if you present this material in wholeness as in total understanding, you will err greatly. I suggest you put your ego aside and learn to use the term, “in my humble opinion” it might be this or that or the other. How do I know that you do not know it ALL? BECAUSE

“Ye are simply the great swirling infinity of spiraling Light coalesced into wondrous manifestation that has taken form that ye might experience with thine senses, the magnificence, for God, too, desires to share and experience all.”

YOU ARE STILL BOUND TO HUMAN AND HUMAN SENSING—WHEN YOU KNOW YOU WILL NOT BE THERE IN THAT EXPERIENCE. I suggest you tend that weapon called tongue most carefully.

Perhaps I might just give you the entire of the writing for that day and let us see just what would bother ones so much if it is repetitious in some way. I have given these lessons so many times to so many ones that I do not focus on this one or that one or the other—the point is to get information to you if you should wish to utilize it.

The rest of this writing will take up part-way and simply will be reprinted from that day's offering.

[RESUME QUOTING:]

You as physical man have not even begun to scratch the surface of the patterns known to you as energy, electricity, magnetism, gravitation and radiation. You have learned to play with them, change them into destructive toys and partially locate a few of their actions—but you have not the slightest true knowledge of them. You can develop bombs of them and yet have no way to control that which you have developed.

You haven't the slightest valid knowledge of the purpose of the inert gases and WHAT THEY ARE. Nor do you know the structure of the elemental atoms nor the gyroscopic principle which determines that structure. You are not aware of the fact that this is a two-way continuous universe of balance in all effects of motion and not a one-way discontinuous universe. Only a finite few on your place have even heard of the most important of all principles in physics which is recognized by us as the VOIDANCE principle. You know nothing of the lenses and mirrors of space which are the cause of illusion in all moving things. You do not even consider the entire material electric universe to be the illusion which it is; there being no reality to it whatsoever—so you continue to play with your perceived bits of matter and miss the whole point.

You haven't the slightest conception of what constitutes the very life principle, nor the principle of growth, nor the simultaneous unfoldment-refoldment principle which repeats all patterns in Nature sequentially and records and voids them as they are repeated. You can present and manufacture replicas—you cannot even begin to simulate true LIFE. Nor are you aware of that recording principle by means of which the Creator carries forth the sum totals of every sequential cycle in HIS unfolding and refolding universe unto the very end of its manifestations upon one planet and its beginning on a new one. You just shout “big bang” or “creation of little fishes” or, or, or—all of which bear not the slightest connection with simple “reason”.

“LIGHT” holds the answer to ALL of these heretofore unanswered questions, and many more, which the sages have not yet solved nor known enough to even ask. This revelation of the nature of Light is the inheritance of Man in this time in which he finds himself—a time of great revelation and comprehension. You want to “prove” God? Herein is proof of God—by methods and standards acceptable to science and religion alike. It lays in spiritual foundation under the present material one of science, which you don't understand any better than the invisible. [H: Ah, perhaps here is where the trouble comes? We utilize that which was also presented to Walter Russell as “proof” if you can understand it? Well, we certainly won't do so again—for perhaps the reception is not ready for such sharing after all. Walter was told by Tesla to put the work away for a thousand years—“Man is not ready.” He was right—for it was only “buried” for 50 years and already man shows no aptitude for comprehension—ONLY CRIES OF PLAGIARISM!]

Will Man understand? Eventually—it matters not—it is our mission to commit the fragments unto you and yours to do that which you will, with them. If Man will but come into attention, the two greatest elements in civilization, religion and science, can thus find unity in marriage of the two. [H: At the present time the two things, “religion” and “science” are oxymoronic terms each expressing at the opposite poles of thought—but being foisted off on you as a singular “religious science” approach to “being”. No—science is one thing—religion an almost opposite state of assumption.] Will Man do it? On your orb of earth matter, probably not, but at some time on some earth orb—MAN WILL—(the same man—YOU). Why do I know this? Because it is the projection of God that it be so and, therefore, it will be so. My intention is to make it so! Well, who in heaven's name do I think I am? God! So be it!

Likewise human relationships will become more balanced because of greater knowledge of universal law which lies behind all of the processes which light uses to interweave the patterned forms of this electric wave universe.

There is no department of life which will not be vitally affected by this knowledge, from the university to the laboratory, from government to industry, and from nation to nation. If for no other reason than to allow you to see your errors. Those who choose to not see and hear—shall be allowed the consequences of those errors of choice. There are places aplenty to allow for their onward growth—for ultimately they WILL KNOW.

I can only present it to you in mouthfuls of quantity sufficient to feed and not choke. Perhaps a spoonful of sugar might make the medicine go down a bit more pleasantly—I hope so for the direction in which Man is sailing is toward the bitter cup in the learning of his lessons.

Who, what, why, where, when? All of these scream from the being within each fragment. Suspecting MORE, knowing Truth is hidden somewhere within or behind the veil. How am I to know Truth? What, in fact, is Truth? I am still asking who am I? What am I? And most of all, WHY am I? If Balance be my goal—HOW can I find it? How can I find and know that balance in our interchange which will enrich both Him and me? Why is goodness veiled from my eyes like a thin vapor which hides YOUR LIGHT, Father, which I vainly seek. I seek in countless religious teachings and houses and still I hunger—where can I go to find? Please, will YOU take away from my eyes the blindfold which hides the path to Thy Light, that I may find my way to Thee? Sound familiar? I hear it as a great cacophony upon my receiving system.

You wondrous ones who are receiving this Word now are the ones out front asking these questions—screaming these questions and demanding, commanding and crying out for answers; for man must be ready to hear and, first, he must have the desire to hear and see and KNOW. Those who truly do not desire to hear—WILL NOT! It is for your own growth that you release them to their own journey, even if you perceive it to be pitiful for it is not for your journey—just do not err by being sucked into their mistakes for the rewards of deliberately turning away from God into darkness are great indeed—in a most miserable perception.

[END OF QUOTING]

Let us interrupt here before the writing becomes too long. However, I am going to present the rest of this prior writing because you must understand that only a minute and tiny portion of the nine volumes taken from your ability to have and study—could remotely even be considered as any other's work. Further, if it would be—why would it be deliberately KEPT from you? These are things to ponder as my scribe faces the courts and accusations every day of her existence—even from prior ones calling themselves “friends”—until the blood is sucked dry and there is no further wealth to garner from our work.

Man stands at the threshold of total destruction and downfall. How can you make it to that higher dimension while excluding “death” as you recognize it—WITHOUT KNOWING HOW? Did Russell KNOW? No! In the presence of GOD he was given into the “seeing” and “understanding” of the concept which has been taught since the inception of perceived “time”. The Master Teachers have given you the SAME lessons so that you would understand the infinity of your existence and HOW it is Universally FACT that you do not “die” but rather, have eternal LIFE!

My people have no funds with which to fight such court battles over POSSESSION of Universal TRUTH. Why, in fact, would they struggle or further undergo willingly such insult and misery? Mr. Green says to “everybody” that he has plenty of funds and plans to do so—until he gets the gold, breaks the Ekkers, pulls down the Institute (so that the very ones HE BROUGHT IN lose everything). Again, I note here as to my own conclusions—there is SOMETHING wrong about this ongoing charade. What is being covered? What conspiracies and coalitions are under way? MAN HAS STOLEN THAT WHICH IS GOD'S—DOES HE NOW THINK IT FINE TO ACCUSE GOD OF THE THEFT? It is alright with me—IS IT ALRIGHT WITH YOU TO HAVE THE FACTS AND PROOF OF YOUR VERY EXISTENCE BURIED UNDER THE GOLD COINS THIEVED? I suggest you consider the matter very, very carefully.

May we please take a short break?
Thank you.

“I Am Come That Ye Might Have Life Eternal”

2/23/94 #3 HATONN

CHRIST PROCLAIMED

I did not say “Buddha” or “Jesus” or, or, or—I said “CHRIST”. “Christness” is a “state of being”, A SOUL STATE. With this in mind we will speak of lessons and proclamations of the great “teachers” come before. Does “Dharma” claim to be a great teacher? She doesn't even claim to be a “teacher”. Why, then, is there such upheaval and attention given to her? Do “I” claim to be a “great teacher”? No—JUST A TEACHER OF TRUTH AND KNOWER OF THE WAY. I DO HAVE A MISSION—IN TOTAL SERVICE TO GOD OF THAT “LIGHT” OF WHICH WE HAVE JUST BEEN WRITING.

Christ proclaimed, “I am come that ye might have life and have it more abundantly—even life eternal!”

Christ never spoke of death nor did he leave any teachings by which man could be prepared to die. He taught only LIFE! Life more abundant! Glorious, beautiful Life! Yes! he taught only the principles of Eternal Life.

He revealed the straight and narrow way that leads to LIFE ETERNAL, good friends. He explained his association with Creator (His Father and YOURS) and claimed nothing of greater power than that of which you too are capable.

He also warned continually against the “Broad Open Way” which leads to destruction and which so many enter. Always by individual “choice”. He spoke to John in Revelation about overcoming even as he overcame. Overcame what? DEATH! He efforted to express his lessons in terms which could be understood by his audiences—just as we have efforted to show you the way in terms already familiar to your senses and understanding—and we are brought into the courts of non-law and injustice for the efforts.

Christ foretold of the time in which all distress and sorrows along with evils would be overcome. He said that the very last overcoming would be of death.

God never planned death! Man came up with “that” one. God permitted it because of “...the blindness of men's minds and the hardness of their hearts and because of the gross wickedness of unbelief.” There is a lot of good “stuff” in those grand old books of wisdom—IF you have the wisdom to glean it from the misperceptions. For instance, do you know the true meaning of the word “zion”? I thought not. It means: “purity of heart”. So the “road to zion” means that pathway and journey in experience to achieve purity of heart and perfection of soul. Is this the meaning offered by the “Zionists” of today? I hardly think so. Theirs this day is to unify and take control of the WORLD—the physical expression manifest. There is NO ZION on earth—only the pathway! So again you must begin to consider the “beginnings”. There is no actual “beginning” or “ending”—only the perception of such. YOU have no beginning or ending—only the cyclic evolution of soul in progression.

CYCLES

ALL (everything) progresses in cycles. This includes your civilization as well as all prior civilizations. It is that “new” comprehension periodically transforms mankind into higher understanding and being. A new cycle, of which shall take around three thousand of your years in counting, is now in its birth

God never planned death! Man came up with “that” one.

God's omniscience, omnipotence and omnipresence are centered in the consciousness of EVERY man; but few there are who know of the oneness of their Self-Soul with the Universal Self-Soul. Man requires many millennia to begin to be aware of that. Each cycle of Man brings him nearer to his awareness of his Oneness with the LIGHT of his Self-Source.

Russell did state the next most beautifully: "Man lives in a most bewildering complex world of EFFECT of which he knows not the CAUSE. Because of its seemingly infinite multiplicity and complexity, he fails to vision the simple underlying principle of Balance in all things. He, therefore, complexes Truth until its many angles, sides and facets have lost balance with each other and with him.

"TRUTH IS SIMPLE. BALANCE IS SIMPLE. Rhythmic balanced interchange between all pairs of opposite expression in natural phenomena, and in human relations, is the consummate art of God's universe of Light. It is also the law. In this one fundamental Universal Law lies the balanced continuity of all creative expression in God's electric wave universe of two conditioned lights in seeming motion which record God's one Whole Idea of Creation into countless seemingly separate parts of that Whole Idea."

Is "this" an expression which is meant to be kept within the secret places of a singular "institution"? Surely not, for it infers that only a select "few" may have the great secrets of LIFE ETERNAL. GOD IS LIGHT AND YOU ARE THE RESULT OF THE IDEA OF GOD MANIFEST AS HE HAS "THOUGHT".

Glory and praise be unto the "Father" forever and forever, for His path is made straight and His way of Truth and Light revealed for, as the mind is opened, another seal is loosed and the great blindness of mind which has nearly destroyed a world will begin to be removed from you and you will be given faith and vision to behold the things of God and understand His holy promises. As this Holy Light begins to penetrate the mind His divine vision of perfection is revealed. And with that vision comes the testimony of the Holy Spirit of Promise bearing witness to your souls that it can be fulfilled unto you for you will receive strength to follow it through to its completion. This is the road I mapped, for I am the Way, even the road of perfection, the path you must follow—said the Christed teachers.

This invitation, offered to those who would heed wisdom to become perfect, even as the Father in heaven is perfect, contains the vision divine. It is a possibility and a promise as definite and real as the promised diploma is to the student who is working for it. God will not be mocked. Neither has HE ever mocked HIS children by giving a promise that is impossible to fulfill. Every promise HE ever gave must and will be fulfilled, whenever man has developed the faith to receive. When we speak of vision—we also are speaking "thought".

Man's right to choose the thoughts he thinks contains all the creative powers of eternity, even the creative powers of godhood. If he uses these powers amiss or misuses the divine gift of free-choosing, he will lose his free-agency. It is in the loss of free-agency that one becomes enslaved by the powers of darkness. The great issues this day are over this divine, God-given gift. All dictatorial governments must take away man's free-agency from him in order to obtain and hold their power. When this happens as it now has, either politically or morally, man is no longer free. He is a SLAVE.

VIBRATIONS

This may seem to be an overused word because it is misused almost constantly by those who would align themselves with a "thing" and "get vibrations". However, "vibrations" are the very essence of LIFE. YOU ARE BROUGHT INTO CONFUSION SO THAT YOU WILL MISS TRUTH BY THE TOTAL DISTRACTION THRUST AT YOU.

Behind EVERY thought and feeling are the vibrations of their reality. The living, breathing power of existence is contained with the substance of vibrations. The universe itself is simply an electric wave universe. It is also that all is a "spiral" universe of cycles—be it expressed in simple electricity, sound frequencies or elaborately perceived human expression. The WHOLE of existence is the constantly resonating vibration expressing God's thought through and within LIGHT.

Therefore, in simple deduction of thought "reason"—every individual who is not consciously "About his Father's business" of bringing forth the vibrations of true, eternal glory by correct thinking, is wasting the powers of existence and creation. Each has every freedom of choice so how unfortunate that ones flow into the vibratory catch-basin of that which shackles and binds to the illusion of perception.

Every thought brings a "choice". All ones who move away from the Lighted pathway and move into the dark vibrations and powers of destruction are actually making a "conscious" choice to do so. Check out that which you do in the darkness, what you "hide" and what you would tell lies about to avoid the truth coming forth.

Every person who is reaching out to gather TO HIMSELF wealth or power or personal glory at the expense of his fellowmen, or even of a single individual, is contributing to the delinquency of the world. And these delinquent vibrations are being amplified and hurled forth, transformed a thousand-fold in magnified intensity at the present time and ever increasing as you perceive "time" in progression.

Now, readers, there are more delinquent adults and parents than there are delinquent teenagers, who are sending out their vibrations of negative darkness of uncontrolled thoughts and acts to wreak havoc upon the world. The adolescent groups are receiving the greatest reactional shock because they are completely unprepared to withstand the violent vibrations that are being hurled against them by their adult elders. The young cannot cope with the magnified, intensified vibrations of evil being released into the Earth's atmosphere by the thought patterns of decadent humanity. And realize right here and now (and go back and read about pulse waves, ELF's, etc.) that these thought vibrations of which we speak here can only be negligible relative to the ones being scientifically thrust deliberately upon you now. In this, of course, I speak of both constant pulsing and the remote mind-control techniques of which we have so often written. Thought itself has "frequency"—vibratory frequency. There is a prophecy worthy of taking note here which states: "And in the last days Satan shall rage in the hearts of the children of men."

You have moved into a time of violence and chaos. Art is violent and vulgar if not totally insipid and pornographic. Even the art depicting the Christos as he expressed in manifest form is hideous, even gruesome as the violence is depicted ever more and more terribly. Those who create such pictures say they are only seeking to portray all the suffering He endured, whereas they are only reflecting their own perception of that which they are experiencing and dumping it upon an unsuspecting audience to become the "historic" fact later mis-interpreted and mis-translated. They are only releasing their own dark, emotional strains, their rebellious conflicts and their evil moods as they reflect them upon HIS face. Even in HIS crucifixion no such darkened, unholy expression ever found lodgment upon HIS countenance.

Entertainment is violent. Literature is violent, vulgar and pornographic by demand. Modern noise called "music" and even dance—are no longer peaceful or graceful. They are but the visual and physical eruptions of the inward violence of their expressors. Motion pictures are completely defiled with violence and corruption—purposely geared to entrap a captive audience from controlled media. You are transforming a world of people into monsters as innocent victims, even small children, are trained into the only perception they see and recognize—violence. You even move to MURDER unborn babes. I find it interesting to note that if a pregnant woman is slain that there are "murder" charges for TWO. But the same babe can be aborted at the same "age" and it is called "rights" and "freedom of choice". Now an almost full-term baby is partially delivered and murdered to have "fetal tissue" to use on others. The world's youth is being unbalanced, blighted, outraged and destroyed, and adult delinquency is the main cause.

The cure, of course, is not contained in the harsh measures of correction now being used. The cure is not in reformatories, nor in prisons, nor in capital punishment. The cause of all violence is in the adults themselves and through them the cure must come. But will it? No, because by the time you have moved through three generations of misinformation and visualization as well as physical expression according to the social "norms" of the time, you have destroyed the concepts which came before. History is simply rewritten to reflect that which the ones in control and power wish to have offered. TRUTH GETS BURIED IN THE ARCHIVES, BURNED AS WILL BE THE PLEIADES CONNECTION SERIES OF BOOKS, THE PROJECTED "TRUTH" WILL BE ACCORDING TO THOSE WHO COME "AFTER" AND MAKE THEIR OWN PERCEIVED CHANGES AND THUS AND SO.... You will, further, note that the ones making the "changes" will be the same ones who team up with other promoters and deceivers to project upon the unsuspecting audiences that which will garner and reap reward in wealth and power unto themselves.

Look at your children and on further into child perversion, whether it be manifested through low sex impulses, disobedience, sullen rebellion, cruelty or any other negative manifestation which is being expressed in the rampant excess, which is caused primarily by children being unloved, unwanted, or punished excessively (abused). You adults react differently by VOTING-IN that with which you want to demean the civilization. By this I mean, behaviors including abortions of the unwanted as if it were birth control pills of some kind, etc. And how does all this come about and into practice within civilization's acceptance?—THROUGH THOUGHT!

SOME "THOUGHTS" ABOUT "SELF"

There is a lot of Bible-thumping and shouting from pulpits wherein this or that quotation is opinioned according to the doctrine of the cult or the denial of same. In the opinions of interpretation most often both the intent of the original message as well as meaning is totally LOST. So how do we comprehend "good" when so much seems to be "bad"? Well, it is difficult because in order to fully comprehend the good it IS necessary to further digress from the high pattern of attainment and take backward looks at the evils, that one day they might be forever left behind. It is necessary to take this quick, penetrating look into the weaknesses of man's little mortal self in order to know fully the road of overcoming so that each individual might comprehend what it is he must overcome in order to complete the journey into the Light and be able to abide in that highest vibration—even HEAVEN.

YOU WON'T LIKE THE NEXT: "SELF"

He who can become the least will be given power to become the greatest. To become the least one must give himself over completely to the Will of God. In such complete surrender nothing but God's Will matters to the individual. His love soars on wings of glory to embrace the very stars. He is no longer concerned with his own personal life. It no longer matters to him whether he lives or dies, endures trials and vicissitudes, or lies down in green pastures. He loses his life that he might find the greater life—of service. With his eyes wholly single to the glory of God he becomes filled with the Divine vision of perfection. And henceforth he beholds only perfection, even as God holds that supreme vision always before Him. In his "choices" he chooses God EVERY time—without realizing he is choosing—he will simply say there were no other alternatives. There are ALWAYS alternatives!

It is by vision that all things come forth. The power of vision, or the power to imagine (image in) is the power of creation. And it is by pure, high vision that all evils can be overcome, or transformed into blessings—whether or not it seems that you are enjoying the transformation.

It is only by deep love and praising devotion that one can blend his own life so perfectly with the mind and will of God that he becomes the expressor of the "Greatest". Does this mean that the individual becomes a non-human? No, it means that the higher self is attuned to that which is beyond the basic expressions of the experience of the moment.

This condition, therefore, may well sound impossible, even undesirable to those who are still lost in the cravings and trappings of the flesh and who love the little mortal "self" with its dwarfed, selfish traits, its prides and personal lusts and desires—the ego gratifications. But to him who has lifted his vision to the heights, where his eyes become single to the glory of God's and God's provinces, it is the great achievement that fulfills all things. It is the supreme accomplishment, the sublime attainment. It is the POINT OF POWER.

It is this little mortal "self" with its sin (errors and separation from God) that must be comprehended. This little ego-filled "self" is the block to the way of glory and full accomplishment. It is the little mortal "self" that stirs up all discords and keeps one out of tune with the great healing, restoring, perfecting symphony of the Universe, or with the out-flowing glory of the Spirit of God and Its love.

In many ancient religions and in numerous modern ones this "self" has been understood to be "the great retarder". Various methods have been instigated and used to overcome it. The Buddha used the method of fasting and begging. The yogis of India still do. But some of the yogis are completely defeated by their own method, for as they let go of all earthly claims and possessions and become separated from the multitude they take pride in their exalted achievement. The very title "holy men" becomes their stumbling block for, as they are filled with pride and satisfaction at being ex- alted above their fellowmen, they become self-righteous. Their beggarship becomes a source of pride and though they assumed it for the sake of righteousness it becomes only the outward show of empty vainglory. It is no longer righteousness but only its ugly shadow—self-righteousness. We all know ones who express in great shoutings of absolute and unconditional "love" and then do everything possible to destroy another in both character and presentation. These ones will literally join with and through ones who then turn and leave others to hold the painful "bag" of dirty dealings. These proclaimers of unconditional love will even JOIN WITH those who perpetrated the crime in the first place—failing to and refusing to see the truth of the circumstance and the responsibility of that mortal "SELF". These ones will even turn upon God while proclaiming unconditional following of that God. In these instances it behooves the individual to evaluate WHICH god he may be serving and HOW. FACTS presented seem to elude these ones in point—they seem blinded by the controlling lies presented by the perpetrators of the actual crime in action. They will continue this illusion of blindness until they lose everything which they originally claimed. In these instances it is usually lost to unscrupulous barristers or to the very greed originating the actions in the first place. I could give you many examples but I know that you have a library filled with your own.

SELF-RIGHTEOUSNESS

Anything which causes a man to take pride in the little mortal "self" is self-righteous and is empty and barren of all good. In the beginning of his endeavor, one could give all that he possessed to the poor and his body to be burned and yet, without the great Christ-like, selfless love, it would be vain and worthless.

Any service to God that is lifted in pride to the exaltation of that little mortal, personal "self" is unacceptable. And so it is always this little "self" which blocks a man's way, unless it is overcome. No man is truly humble who exults in his position or his works or his own lofty seat upon the church pinnacle. No matter what his works are, as long as he is doing them to be seen of men and takes pride in the "self" or in his works, he is flaunting only the shabby, defiled garments of self-righteousness. He is only filling the seat of a Pharisee who loves his long robe and the greetings in public places and the highest seat of honor at every feast.

From the point where self-righteousness takes over, all righteousness is lost. Righteousness is the ability to put God and His laws and will as the primal reality behind every act, even every thought. Self-righteousness is the continual effort to exalt the little mortal "self", to reveal its imagined importance and flaunt its mediocre works and achievements. Self-righteousness is more concerned with exalting the little personal "self" than it is with exalting and glorifying God.

It is not just among those who may consider themselves specially anointed ones that this great deception is permitted to destroy one's endeavors. It is waiting at almost every turn of the road of man's upward climb and will deceive even the very elect if they are not humble. It is humility and love which make an individual "elect". Self-righteousness and humility are incompatible. Self-righteousness and righteousness are utter strangers, enemies to each other with nothing in common. It is impossible for them to exist together. And many a proud man who thinks he is most righteous is only deceiving himself, or is permitting himself to be deceived as he serves only the forces of darkness in his unrecognized self-righteousness. Any service that is rendered without perfect love and pure humility, with eyes single to the glory of God, is rendered to the "self" instead of to God. And any individual who renders this proud self-service is no longer traveling upward, as he supposes, but downward into the darkness.

Self-righteousness is deadly in its complete destructiveness of power, and there is a little of it in almost every man. It is that "little" that can complete the downfall of those who would attain unto the heights unless it is comprehended and replaced by true humility and the pure, love-filled devotion. Throughout the ages there are examples upon examples for the seeing.

This is such an important subject that I am reluctant to end this writing but it has been a very long day at the keyboard for the typist. I will point out a very important point with which to close this writing: Anyone who uses the tiniest iota of God's power in pride and arrogance will find that he has laid his hand upon the razor's edge. And that razor's edge is the pruning knife of the Father. That knife will cut away all dead and lifeless twigs and branches and all inferior traits. This pruning process, as the knife is held in the hand of the "Husbandman", is painful and very humiliating. It is always the most humiliating experience possible to endure unless the individual, knowingly and with humble understanding, begins of himself to bring that strident, pompous, little mortal "self" into subjection. When an individual sets his own hand to such a task it becomes a work of glory and magnificent achievement. AHO!

....THE PROJECTED "TRUTH" WILL BE ACCORDING TO THOSE WHO COME "AFTER" AND MAKE THEIR OWN PERCEIVED CHANGES AND THUS AND SO....

Defining God: Light, Love, Law

2/24/94 #3 HATONN

LIGHT, THE MOTHER-FATHER—ONE!

This is a time for defining "God", precious ones. I have no pick with anyone who presents Truth—from whatever source and there are many. The problem often ends up, however, with misunderstandings as the presenters move off into the self-awareness of the truth they BEGAN to bring forth. Further, other things come into play and the very proving of the equations fall to the wayside as the perceptions of the speakers and presenters take over the "instructions". Therefore, we are forced to give a very simplistic presentation which, after all, may be the ONLY way man can entertain the possibilities of scientific expression of GOD.

Can one actually "define" God? Yes indeed. It has been done and the most accurately presented idea focus and definition of God has come forth many, many times but to be buried in misinformation and misunderstanding—BUT THERE IS ONLY THE ONE DEFINITION. As Little Crow so wisely presents the path to God and Truth: There is only ONE TRUTH—but each has HIS OWN VERSION OF THAT TRUTH—and, there are MANY ways to arrive at that HIGHEST TRUTH CALLED GOD (BY ANY LABEL).

GOD IS LIGHT—GOD IS LOVE. GOD IS INEXORABLE LAW!

God is THE unconditioned White Magnetic Light of ALL THINGS—Omnipotent, Omniscient and Omnipresent MIND! This force is invisible, motionless, sexless and undivided. We will get to the "dividing principle" of God a bit later.

There is ONE LIGHT only in all this universe of countless many things. This is "Mind of God". Mind of God and the two extended lights of HIS thinking, which HIS imagining created to manifest HIS Being in what appears to be "action". There is nothing, readers, in all nature other than God's KNOWING Mind—at rest and the motion of Mind-THINKING.

Electric and magnetic: God's "thinking" is electric. God's KNOWING is magnetic. GOD HAS BUT ONE IDEA, DESIRE, PURPOSE, ACTION AND LAW. His One idea is His unity within, in the duality of that which we can refer to as parental or Mother/Father LOVE. His desire is to "think action"—and then, to rest from the action. This happens in sequential intervals. HE has one purpose, to think His knowing of what HE IS, and what HE KNOWS, into His OWN IMAGE. His action (One) is to GIVE. HIS ONE LAW IS THAT WHAT HE GIVES MUST BE BALANCED BY EQUAL REGIVING!

God's thinking is universal; thusly so too are His actions universal. Thoughts are everywhere and yet the beginning and ending are within, in—the ONE. Therefore, "actions" are likewise, Omnipresent as their source in Mind-thinking. SO, AS IT IS—THAT WHICH HAPPENS ANYWHERE HAPPENS EVERYWHERE IN THIS UNIVERSE OF NOTHING SAVE MIND-EXTENSION.

Ah, but "idea" has no extension; however, idea, divided by imagining, extends into an imagined INFINITY, and then repeats its division unto the infinity which can be compared to a kaleidoscope as it repeats and multiplies its imaginings as it continues the repetition.

The extensions of God's thinking move right along with LIGHT right into your three dimensional ILLUSION.

"MATTER" IS NOT "SPIRIT"

Spirit is not and cannot BE matter. It becomes, however, obvious that you cannot have matter without Spirit and Spirit without matter, BUT Spirit has the capability to clothe itself in many forms of MATTER for special manifesting, or put differently, it is Spirit manifesting that CAUSES matter. It simply is "matter" THROUGH causation—remember cause and effect.

Herein is THE GREAT SECRET: WHEN MAN SHALL AT LAST KNOW GOD HE SHALL THEN BE TRANSFORMED.

Knowing or knowledge of the identity and Presence of God within the Soul of Man—and throughout ALL Nature—is mandatory as a stage for the human race to attain before it is even possible for him to build an enduring civilization of unity and brotherhood. In the same focus Man must understand "Nature". "Nature" multiplies, adds and divides, then combines by the use of electricity—ALL THINGS. In that context it becomes factual that man has everything he needs, all the electricity required to create all things also—IF he but knows how Nature DOES IT!

SENSES

The most difficult thing to equate to the ALLNESS OF GOD is the ever-influencing, contradicting and ego oriented presences of the PHYSICAL impacting through the "senses" which accompany the human. This impacts all physical animal life, etc.; however, MAN is set higher in that—in addition to the SENSES—he is given ability to choose and reason and through this capability he can CONTROL all of the SENSES. He does not, however, as he moves within the senses themselves—they control him.

Here you have to again look to "cause" and "effect" for all of Man's fundamental conceptions have been the result of forming conclusions which have been based upon the outer-vision of the senses, and not upon the inner-vision of the MIND. The senses see illusion and are mightily deceived. Mind-vision does not deceive for "cause" begins there, and "effect" is but its product. This is "inner-vision" of which I am speaking and not "visualization" as is practiced by most New Age presenters. There is a big difference.

So how is man deceived? Easily, for the fundamental conceptions have been and are based as a result of forming conclusions which have been based upon the "outer"-vision of the senses as I said above. The truths of all fundamentals of Nature are just the REVERSE of the conclusions of science, just as the reflections in a mirror are the reverse of their cause. "Gravity" is a good example of misperception in definition and action. All things SEEK their own density and the entirety of all is held together through compression—not some "pull" as would make a dropped apple "fall". Until you come into proper perception you cannot realize your journey to GOD and become within that wondrous LIGHT. However, until you come to your senses of mind—you won't be able to have the information which allows you to understand that of which you are offered. I will NOT have my scribe go to federal prison in order that you accept no responsibility for gaining the scientific understanding given unto the peoples of the world and hoarded by a select few self-appointed "keepers".

I will leave this subject for a minute while I suggest you read the following since integrity and responsibility are the two components of being able to assimilate the information as it comes forth through those senses. I would like to share with you a writing received by Druthea, dated June 25, 1991. It was directed from the one you call "Jesus Christ" ed Sananda:

[QUOTING:]

This day I will discuss the meaning of INTEGRITY and how it relates to and is integrated with responsibility. Let us first define, integrity: "1. Uprightness of character; honesty. 2. The condition or quality of being unimpaired or sound. 3. The state of being complete or undivided."

Now we will define, responsible: "1. Answerable legally or morally for the discharge of a duty, trust, or debt. 2. Having capacity to distinguish between right and wrong. 3. Involving accountability or obligation. Responsibility: 1. State of being responsible or accountable; also responsibility. 2. That for which one is answerable; a duty or trust."

Integrity and responsibility are most delicately intertwined. To achieve utmost spiritual integrity, one must fully recognize and understand his responsibilities; first to God/Aton/Creator Within and also to the rest of the life force expression within The Creation. In order to become a spiritually conscious co-creator with

God/Aton, one must become ONE with living the cosmic laws of God/Creation. One must realize his accountability to the Great Spirit within him. He must become impeccable (free from error, fault, or flaw) regarding adherence to Cosmic Law. And to gain cosmic power, he must become spiritually complete, unimpaired and sound of character, which is the state of being called integrity.

Now in order to become impeccable in your integrity, one must BE responsible by listening to Spirit within about "right" and "wrong"—or as I prefer to call it balanced or unbalanced—thinking and behavior. Each of you have the KNOWLEDGE within with which to be responsible in every thought, word and deed. You need only LISTEN carefully and ask God/Aton within to help you recognize your error, instantly, when you make one. It may not always be pleasant to become instantly accountable for your misdeed or mighthought, but if you pay careful attention, you will find that you will seldom if ever repeat the same error. You will find that the careful attention to and recognition of your inner guidance, IN- STANTLY, is well worth the temporary inconvenience or discomfort to your "altered" ego.

So by requesting God/Aton within to show you the error, immediately, He will also show you the balanced thought, action or deed with which to reclaim your impeccability of Spirit. Why can it be seemingly so easy to recognize errors? Because, chelas, you ones have made essentially THE SAME errors over and over again. Lifetime after lifetime now you have chosen to be irresponsible and remain spiritually ignorant. You already KNOW and can distinguish between that which is balanced and unbalanced thought and behavior; you simply have forgotten you KNOW.

When you separated yourself from the Great Spirit within you, which fully contained your being as far as perfect guidance and knowledge, you became spiritually powerless. When you worshipped in separateness from THE ONE and therefore sought OUTSIDE your being for guidance, you DENIED the Spirit within YOU its full creative potential. And because you felt no longer responsible for that which you manifested, you became your own slaves to the physical illusion. By your self-denial you created leaders over you who would support your "belief" in separation from Creator, and thus you developed tremendous attachment to physical matter. This accounts for the same developed attachment to EGO-separate illusion.

To achieve Spiritual integrity you are required to BE responsible and accountable for the effects of your thoughts, words and deeds. In order to be responsible, you must UNDERSTAND and adhere to The Cosmic laws of Balance. You must seek ONENESS and see UNITY with all, NOT separation, inferiority or superiority to anyone or anything. You must become impeccable in your intent to serve God and The Creation. You must recognize only ONE WILL, the Will of THE ONE, Creator/Creation. Then you will gain the Spiritual integrity of CHRIST perfection and with that your Power within will become magnificent.

Remember when I, Esu Immanuel "Jesus", walked as man upon your place I told you, "These things I do, YOU will do GREATER." So be it and it is coming to pass, chelas.

I would like to requote something for you to ponder from our beloved St. Germain: "Your personal power is in direct proportion to the integrity of your soul." This one sentence says it all, chelas. Ponder these things most carefully that you hear Spirit to Spirit and not Spirit to ego illusion. This "time", my brethren, is the "hour" of the dawning of YOUR spiritual awakening. How the Angels of Glory in Heaven REJOICE; for earth human is preparing for the celebration of ONENESS and BROTHERHOOD within GOD'S HOLY Kingdom of LIGHT.

I love you greatly, my precious chelas! I am most honored to serve My Father and therefore you, my brethren. I AM Sananda, One with God. Thank you my precious sister, Druthea. You are most blessed in Our Father's Kingdom. Be at Peace as is the spring time flowering of this time. Enjoy the radiance of Our Father's Creation before you. Salu.

[CONTINUING TO QUOTE; later same day]

If you will remember of the lessons given forth recently of Germain and Hatonn, Germain spoke of the nature of God. Specifically, I am referring to GIVING and REGIVING which IS God. You may see it here upon Earth (Shan) as birth and rebirth such as of the natural seasons which you call Winter, Spring, Summer and Fall. All Creation falls within the cycles of giving and regiving life.

Only Hu-man (Higher Universal Man) is given the choice through his free-will about whether he will cooperate in the co-creation process of giving and regiving, or he will "develop" through his compressed/limited senses of monitoring EFFECTS, ways to manipulate, dominate and conquer Nature to suit his spiritually ignorant means.

Only Man through adversarial-primitive misdirection chooses to take from nature without regard for balance and harmony of ALL with Creation.

The resounding EFFECTS of Earth Man's adversarial TAKING behavior is clearly represented upon your plane at this time...although man has only just begun to realize HIMSELF as the CAUSE of this unbalance.

It is always a struggle to take, even if it is only perception of physical "things", simply because the soul is left empty, for your immortal soul is not enriched and replenished through "taking" of life and physical conquering of another or Nature. Only through KNOWLEDGE of giving for self, without emotional strings attached, will your immortal soul be lifted from earth physical attachment and compression.

WHAT IS "NO-STRINGS ATTACHED" GIVING?

In order to give effortlessly, the knowledge has been gained that it is one's expression of God Divine LOVE which is ultimately being given. The fulfillment of true ego-selfless giving is immediate and not dependent upon perceived physical acceptance of same by the receiver. Although one who is a selfless giver will also be a most gracious receiver of returned LOVE to himself.

Are you beginning to understand, precious chelas? God working through you will ALWAYS BE FULFILLING YOU through His giving and regiving of LOVE.

Those of us who serve HIS DIVINE LIGHT OF LOVE, could not be very effective "guides" to you, our brethren, if we gave up on our outpouring of LOVE to you simply because so few "accept" what we give. This is the measure of your spiritual maturity, precious ones. That you can give and regive without emotional attachment of suffering to self. Giving and regiving Love is effortless when it is continuous, and measured outcome of "success" does not dissuade one from selfless Divine God-GIVING and REGIVING.

The NEED for LOVE giving is great upon your plane and that is why the focus of many ones from the HIGHEST levels of God's Kingdom is upon you. This does not mean that ones of us don't become rather passionate in our concern and compassion for you, our struggling little brothers. We, too, have our lessons of KNOWLEDGE earned through our service to God through our service to Earth Human.

You ones have no idea how often ones of us who work closely with you want to DO something more than COSMIC LAW will allow us to do. Many ones of us have petitioned to GOD and He clearly has defined that which we may and may not do to remain in His service. The difference between us, of higher experience, and you of Earth physical compression, is that WE KNOW THE LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION and our Spiritual Integrity of SERVICE TO THE HIGHEST ONE will not allow us to break THE LAWS.

Just as a parent with a child who is stumbling and learning to walk feels compassion for his child who he knows must do it on his own with only loving guidance, we too must observe and guide you ones without interfering and DOING it for you for then we only serve ourselves in our impatience to "hurry" along your growth. The progress of your growth, however "long" it takes, is between YOU and GOD. Interfering in that process is FORCE and FORCE IS NOT OF GOD/ATON!

ALLOWING FORCE IS NOT OF GOD

So you may be thinking, "What about the Adversary?". The Adversary definitely seems to "force" his way into domination. DOES THE ADVERSARY "REALLY" FORCE? Think about this, chelas.

The adversary definitely lies, cheats, and intimidates, but does he force his way into existence here? The adversary can kill the body physical to further its means. So where does the adversary get its power? The answer, chelas, is from YOU! You have "allowed" the adversary to intimidate you, and when you became "afraid", you gave the adversary your GOD-POWER. He controls you through your perceived "separation" from GOD. And the only reason you are still upon this 3rd dimensional plane is because you have BELIEVED THE LIES AND DECEPTIONS OF THE ADVERSARY WHILE YOUR GOD-GIFTED SOUL HAS PINED AWAY FOR THE RE-UNIFICATION WITH THE ONE, GOD/ATON.

The question now is to self. "Are you ready to release the adversary?" If so, then ALL of your TRUST and FAITH must be directed toward GOD who exists within YOU! Therein will your freedom from the bondage of limited-physical adversarial perception be EARNED. Did you read that clearly? YOU WILL EARN YOUR SPIRITUAL UNITY BY ACCESSING THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD WITHIN YOU. And your "proof" will be forthcoming through FAITH and the return of your Free-will to GOD. For your "proof" of God's existence and "coming" will be revealed WITHIN YOU! FOR THERE IS WHERE EXISTS THE KINGDOM OF GOD...WITHIN YOU!!

SO WHAT ABOUT "GRACE" GIVEN OF GOD?

Grace is the quality of God of Giving and Regiving Love. Let us define Grace: "1. Beauty or harmony of motion, form or manner. 2. Any attractive quality. 3. Service freely rendered; good will. 4. The act of showing favor. 5. Clemency; mercy. 6. Theology. a. The love of God toward man. b. The divine influence operating in man."

Mine scribe, Druthea, watched with some amusement a "Christian" TV Minister on the yesterday. He was speaking about his perception of God's "Grace". He said words to the effect, "You need do NOTHING to receive God's Blessings and Grace." (Sounds a bit like the "just BE" philosophy of many New Agers, does it not?) "We humans believe we must 'work' to earn God's Grace. This is NOT true. We must simply accept CHRIST (Jesus) as our Savior. HE has taken our burden FOR us." There is the catch, Christ has TAKEN responsibility for YOU! Do you see how deceptive the adversary is?... "God will take care OF YOU. You need do nothing. You are not responsible. Christ is your Savior"...ad nauseam!

I am not YOUR savior. YOU are your Savior. And the good news is YOU will EARN your way into GOD's Grace by standing responsible for self and obeying THE LAWS OF GOD/CREATION. It is really so simple, chelas. You see, GRACE also is a wondrous quality of EFFORTLESS GIVING AND REGIVING BY GOD!

WHAT ABOUT "MERCY"?

I will first define Mercy: "1. Kind or compassionate treatment of an adversary, prisoner, etc., in one's power. 2. A disposition to be kind, forgiving, or helpful. 3. The power to show mercy and compassion."

Remember this carefully, chelas: GOD is all-compassionate LOVE and MERCY. It is the adversary who seeks punishment and is absolutely merciless! You who have allowed yourselves to be ruled by the adversary WILL PUNISH SELF AND BLAME GOD EVERY TIME!

It is only a spiritually ignorant being who will seek punishment for self for perceived errors. Errors are EFFECTS of dis-eased thinking, NOT ever are errors caused from GOD-KNOWLEDGE. ONLY THROUGH THE MISUNDERSTANDING AND MISINTERPRETATION OF THE PHYSICALLY COMPRESSED SENSES AND BLIND DEFIANCE OF THE LAWS OF GOD/CREATION ARE ERRORS CAUSED BY MAN.

YOU DESIRE GOD'S MERCY AND FORGIVENESS? THEN YOU MUST PETITION GOD WITHIN YOU TO GUIDE, PROTECT AND SUSTAIN YOU WITH LOVE AND KNOWLEDGE OF THE POWER OF YOUR WILL AND HIS WILL AS ONE!

God IS ALL-FORGIVING MERCY. So then, chelas, forgiveness and mercy must begin within SELF since that is where GOD resides.

The adversary will dissolve in its power when confronted by the Divine Holy Power of GOD WITHIN YOU! WHY? Because EVIL is an illusion developed and sustained by MAN. God's Love, Light and Knowledge is ALL that exists. YOU each are fragments of HIS divided thinking. THERE IS NO SEPARATION OF GOD AND WE OF HIS THOUGHT FRAGMENTS EXCEPT THROUGH THE BELIEF OF SEPARATION EMBRACED BY LIMITED HUMAN SENSING PERCEPTION. So be it.

YOU MUST SEEK TO KNOW GOD WITHIN

Only through KNOWING that which is GOD will you KNOW GOD WITHIN ALL. How can you KNOW GOD? BY YOUR DESIRE TO KNOW GOD will HIS Kingdom be revealed within you. He awaits your sincere petition of recognition and acceptance of HIS WORD within you. Your song of LIGHT resounds within GOD'S KNOWING and you will dance and sing HIS presence in co-creation as ONE WITH GOD AND ALL THAT IS.

"In all that I AM Father, not MY will, only let THINE WILL BE DONE." And so it is.

Thank you, precious Druthea, for your service. I AM Sananda, ONE with GOD within Creation. I am, most pleased to be of service to you, my precious brethren of Earth Shan. Walk together in Absolute Love, Unity and Peace and KNOW that ALWAYS Our Father walks with you. Salu.

[END OF QUOTING]

And may the LIGHT be ever given to shine around this precious being that she find her way, for she is in torment. The testings are HARD, readers, indeed hard. We can KNOW the way and the TRUTH—but behold the monstrous voyage through the seas of contempt and trial to find passage. Some "gifts" however, once tossed away, are never allowed acceptance AGAIN. It is a time for each of you to ponder upon these things most carefully for the physical journey is short indeed whilst the soul journey is infinite! Good day...

Living On Borrowed Time: The Clintons' VERY Tangled Past

2/24/94 #2 HATONN

TAKE NOTE: MARKETS OF WORLD

You are absolutely right in your observation that the market at 3500 may well be triggering something on its way BACK DOWN—NOT GOING UP. Note that everything in the world is "off", including gold—this is "artificial" in every aspect because the fact is, gold would (should) be increasing in this environment—just hold on!

The U.S. government is in HOT, DEEP WATER with Russia and it could "blow" at any moment. Actually it IS "blowing" and you are not allowed to see or hear it. Along with the problems with the U.S. there is also great internal stress within Russia. In the U.S. Clinton is just about to get himself impeached (to say the "least"). "Whitewater", in the words of some writers, is pure "hustle". He is in a very bad plight and Hillary's Hellcats are about to individually self-destruct. Well, it couldn't happen to "nicer" people.

Let me just quote you something from a letter from Nick Guarino:

"Bill Clinton will be the first president to go from the White House direct to the jail house. He is being investigated for possible criminal bank fraud by the Resolution Trust Corp... [H: Wow, NOTHING is too good for those folks either.] ...and for possible campaign fraud. The FBI has opened an investigation for possible obstruction of justice for events surrounding the murder of Clinton's Deputy White House Counsel, Vincent Foster. [H: We told you readers EXACTLY WHAT HAPPENED TO FOSTER, HOW MANY "SUICIDE" SHOTS, etc., WHEN IT HAPPENED. Never mind the adversarial attacks, readers, you GET THE UP-FRONT TRUTH FROM THIS "RAGSHEET"

AS THE CONTACT IS REFERRED TO BY GRITZ AND GREEN, ET AL.]

"Bill Clinton is the first President in American history to have a criminal referral—mentioning him—issued by an independent federal regulator to the Department of Justice. US Attorney General Janet Reno is desperately trying to protect Clinton by refusing to make this document public and by stonewalling the investigation."

The following is an "advertisement" and I know that you realize that when I ask for advertising in the paper—I believe the information critical and worthy of the price, whatever it is. I hate to attract any further focus to this place but I feel you HAVE TO HAVE THIS INFORMATION.

The above quotes are from the heading of this letter [below] in point.

THE IMPEACHED PRESIDENT

Dear Friend:

Whitewater was a pure hustle. I wish I could show you this piece of property. It's in the middle of nowhere. Hardly anybody lives there. Nobody else ever goes there, and nobody wants to. You have to drive 50 miles to go to the grocery store. If the Mafia wanted to do a hit, this is where they would bury the body. If Jimmy Hoffa's body isn't buried in Whitewater, it's in a place just like it.

I can't believe Bill and Hillary Clinton ever intended this property to be developed. It was a scam right from the beginning—and it was almost 100% successful. They bought the land with nothing down and then borrowed huge sums of money against it.

This was an easy scam. All they had to do was survey the land, have it divided up, and sell a few lots to some of their cronies at inflated prices. Then, they had other cronies provide inflated appraisals. The S&L they went to wasn't an accident either—its owner, James McDougal, was the Clintons' partner in the Whitewater project.

On paper, they said they would convert raw forest land into a subdivision with dozens of lots. They said it would be a thriving new community. They got the S&L to loan millions to them and their cronies.

All that money was funnelled to Bill Clinton and his friends in the inner circle.

Hillary Clinton claims she has no knowledge of the business dealings of Whitewater or the S&L. But her law firm handled the legal work. She was personally retained by the S&L as their attorney; represented them before state regulators; was on a $2,000 a month retainer; and had power of attorney "to manage and conduct all matters" related to Whitewater.

Hillary was a senior partner in the biggest, most prestigious law firm in Arkansas. From the time Clinton became governor, he funnelled huge amounts of state legal work through her firm.

If you wanted to do business with the state of Arkansas, it was no longer necessary to make payoffs with hundred dollar bills in paper bags. You just went and "retained" Hillary Clinton. The money you paid the Clintons to do a government deal was no longer an illegal payoff, but a legal bill. Even better, it's protected under attorney-client privilege. It was a scam, pure and simple. The average attorney in Arkansas is lucky to make $50,000 a year. Hillary Clinton made $400,000. No wonder.

The Clintons and their partners, the McDougals, operated the S&L (Madison Guarantee Savings & Loan) as their personal piggy bank. They looted depositors' money to pay off Bill Clinton's personal campaign debts and to raise money for his campaign to become President of the United States.

Bill Clinton even went so far as to force the Small Business Administration to make a loan for $300,000 to Mrs. McDougal, his partner's wife. This loan was supposed to go to "socially disadvantaged businesses". Right!

David Hale, the official who made this SBA loan, is now under federal indictment for defrauding the SBA. He says Clinton pressured him to make the fraudulent loans.

After stealing as much money as they could—Clinton and his partners watched as the Whitewater project went broke. It was the typical Florida swamp deal of the '30s. No, it was worse.

The regulators knew what was going on as far back as 1985. They wanted to shut Madison down. But Bill and Hillary used their political influence to stop them. The regulators were appointed by governor Bill Clinton, who was their boss. They did the right thing to keep their jobs; they backed off.

A 1986 audit by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB) could not have been more harsh in its depiction of Madison Guarantee. It portrayed Madison as financially reckless, rife with conflicts, and on the brink of collapse.

Yet, Hillary Clinton was claiming to regulators that the S&L was solvent. She even put together a stock offering, which the state of Arkansas approved, to bring in millions of new suckers' dollars. The scheme was so outrageous that even Hillary couldn't sneak it by the FHLBB, who killed the deal. Four years later, the Federal government called the plan Hillary tried to push through "fraudulent".

If this was you or me, we'd be in cell block C. Clinton became President of the United States.

WAS HILLARY'S LAW PARTNER MURDERED BECAUSE HE KNEW TOO MUCH?

His name was Vince Foster. Foster was Hillary's law partner, and purported by several witnesses to be her lover. He worked with her on Whitewater and Madison Guarantee, hand-in-hand. He was the one who conned the regulators into paying them $400,000 to prosecute Madison's auditors.

After Clinton was elected President, Foster was appointed as the President's "deputy White House counsel." His job was to bury the Whitewater mess once and for all. That meant:

*Updating the Whitewater income tax, which was three years in arrears.

*Cleaning up the Whitewater records and "handling" any incriminating evidence.

*Getting McDougal to agree to buy back the Whitewater shares from Bill and Hillary. That would allow them to say, "This is McDougal's project; we have nothing to do with it." So, he had to set up McDougal to be the fall guy.

Foster failed. The press picked up on the tax returns. They found out about the phony campaign contributions. The phony land deals came out. They found out that Whitewater had been very slow to pay its taxes. They found out about the phony $68,000 loss the Clintons claimed they had on Whitewater, which never appeared on their tax returns. In addition, the press found large payments from Madison Guarantee to Whitewater that nobody would explain. The whole cover-up started to unravel.

On the afternoon of July 20, 1993—Vince Foster was found dead, shot in the head with a .38 caliber pistol. He was found laid out with his arms at his sides, and the pistol in his right hand. Detectives and other experts said that the gun could not have remained in his hand—the explosive recoil of the revolver would have thrown it clear of his body. One pathologist said the recoil should have thrown the pistol up to 30 feet away. [H: It is obvious that none of these good people read CONTACT! This whole scenario cannot be true—either. The fact is the murder was so blatant that there were TWO (count them) two shots, so, surely he would have dropped the gun after at least one of them.]

The same experts said that there should have been pools of blood. But, paramedics who first arrived at the scene said there was no blood, and no exit wound for the bullet. [H: Ah Ha—the plot thickens....] Despite the lack of exit wound, no bullet was ever found. An autopsy was performed, but the results HAVE BEEN SUPPRESSED.

Four days later, the White House announced that they'd discovered a "suicide" note in a briefcase taken from Foster's office. This so-called suicide note never mentioned "suicide". The note discussed Foster's dissatisfaction with living in D.C. away from his family and discussed returning to Arkansas. It had been ripped apart into 27 pieces. The signature was removed. Foster's finger prints were never found on any of the 27 pieces.

MORE IRREGULARITIES

Contrary to standard police procedure, Foster's White House office was not sealed after his death. Law enforcement officials investigating the death said they had to wait across the room while Chief White House Counsel, Bernard Nussbaum, sorted through papers on Foster's desk. A former D.C. police official said, "I was completely stunned to learn that Foster's office had not been sealed as soon as it was learned that he was dead."

Clinton later admitted that his people had taken documents. MANY key documents ARE STILL MISSING.

THE IMPEACHED PRESIDENT

What you've read in this letter is just the beginning of the corruption, conflicts of interest, and influence peddling, that you will learn about in my explosive new report The Impeached President. In this report, you'll learn the suppressed story that Clinton desperately doesn't want you to hear...

* How the Clintons lied about their $68,000 "loss" on Whitewater. The problem is their partner McDougal contradicts them, saying that they had almost nothing invested. How they twisted the facts to try to make huge profits look like losses.

* Why this huge so-called loss never appeared on Bill & Hillary's income tax return—this from a man who took a $2 deduction for his used underwear donated to the Salvation Army.

* How Clinton's campaign debts from past gubernatorial elections were paid for with money stolen from deposits at Madison Guarantee Savings & Loan.

* Was Bill really just interviewing those women in the back of the police cars? How he used intimidation and bribes to make sure the cops wouldn't talk.

* How Bill used prisoners who were assigned as trustees at the Governor's Mansion, to get drugs, women, and carry the money for the high-stakes poker games he loves so much.

* The long string of sham real estate deals that Clinton—and his associates—used to raise millions for their slush funds.

* How Clinton and his associates swapped land back and forth, fraudulently inflating the value so the bank would loan ever more money that would never be repaid (except by the US taxpayers).

* Picture this: a bank regulator writes a negative report saying that Madison had engaged in "unsound lending practices", and had improperly booked profits. A regulator with a report like this could easily shut Madison down. But suddenly, a few months later, the same regulator took a job working at Madison Guarantee as executive vice president (under her maiden name). Her salary skyrocketed to $65,000. In addition, she got a $5,000 unsecured loan; a $500 a month expense bonus, yearly bonuses of $2,000, plus a Rolls Royce Bentley sedan to tool around town in.

* How Hillary, while representing the US government—the RTC, to be precise—got the government to forgive a $600,000 loan to her partner's father-in-law. Hillary's firm pocketed a $400,000 fee for her efforts. The same partner was later appointed—by Bill Clinton—as the #3 person in the Justice Department. He was assigned to "investigate" the Whitewater case.

* How Clinton used a small Arkansas bank to funnel over $100,000 to himself and the members of his good-old-boy network. It only stopped when the FDIC and the State Banking Commissioner both demanded that the bank immediately stop all loans to Clinton and his friends—and ordered the bank to demand payment on the existing loans.

* How Hillary was able to build a house with no money down. She then sold it at least two times; and according to one source, more. Several of the deeds were never recorded. All the records of her profits on these unusual transactions are "lost".

* Congressman James Leach, head of the House Banking and Finance Committee, says that "It has now been publicly revealed that President Clinton is the first President in American history to have a criminal referral—mentioning him by an independent federal regulator to the Department of Justice. This document has not been made public, but it has been confirmed by the regulators..." How U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno is protecting Clinton by refusing to make this document public and by stonewalling the investigation.

* Why the Clintons are facing three more potential criminal indictments... One for campaign fraud... Another for bank fraud related to SBA funds that were siphoned off to Whitewater... And three cases of conflict of interest by Hillary while representing the government against her former clients and personal friends.

* The first president to go from the White House straight to prison? The FBI is now opening up an investigation for "obstruction of justice" for events surrounding the murder of Vincent Foster.

HOW I KNOW WHERE THE SKELETONS ARE...

I'm Nick Guarino. I ran a multi-million dollar business in Arkansas. I know how business is done there.

I also know that Bill and Hillary will say—when they read this letter—that I'm an ex-convict fresh out of Leavenworth. That's true—but irrelevant. I was railroaded for supposed white collar crime—but that's also irrelevant.

The more important point is that what I've told you here is true, and I have the documentation to make it stick. I'll tell you now, Bill and Hillary will smear me and try to discredit me. But they will never sue me, because in a court of law, I can depose them, and subpoena documents that they want NO-ONE to see.

You see, I know where the skeletons are. I was locked up with people who had inside knowledge of Clinton's corruption. In a legal battle I can open up the Clintons like a can of worms.

And, I would love to. This was the greatest country in the world—and crooks like Clinton are selling us down the river. It makes me sick. Clinton has got to be stopped. People have got to know the truth now. Photocopy this letter and send it to everyone you know. Order extra copies of the report. Get the word out to the public. The truth will set us free and get him out of office.

Look, I don't know how long I can keep The Impeached President in print. This is red-hot, explosive material. It can bring down Clinton's presidency. It WILL bring it down.

I have a small but gutsy publisher. But Clinton is a powerful man. He can sick the IRS, Secret Service, FBI, Post Office, or any of 100 other government pit bulls against me. He's going to do it—because he can't afford to let the public see the truth. What Nixon did was "jaywalking" compared to this.

The first printing of The Impeached President is 5,000 copies only. This letter is going out to 150,000 people this week alone. So, these reports are going to be sold out in a flash. If you want a copy of The Impeached President, rush in your check or money order (sorry, no cash please)—today, this moment. First come, first served.

Sincerely,
Nick Guarino

Once again, readers, I wish to remind you of something. I do not say that everything this man produces is wondrous—I don't know and don't care. I DO know that the only way to keep the daring people who will come forth, alive, is to support them and this is the only way we can offer much help—simply to publish this information. I do not have comment on anything else the man has or does—it is irrelevant.

We DO know about the ones out to "getcha"—very, very well and personally. It is simply too bad that the ones who claim to be on our side are the major ones out to "getus".

George Green, for instance, has teamed up with DeMar of Sedona, AZ to write to a list of participants in the "Institute". The list is as private a document as can be had by a business of any kind. George was a Director of the Institute—which is HOW he has the list. He sent the list to DeMar who is writing to every one on the list that he can locate and sending a full set of documents (government) to "pull down the Institute" on mail-fraud, etc., charges. He even says in his cover letter that he is not "qualified" to fill out the document but he further says he is "one of the ones TURNING IN THE EKKERS". Wow—it IS hard on the nerves to effort to bring truth and opportunity and simply "serve".

NOW, it comes forth that probably a PHOENIX INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH AND EDUCATION TRUST was set up somewhere—to divert funds from THE Institute—EXACTLY LIKE ANDERSON AND GREEN SET UP A TRUST: CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTRE. That CLC duplicate was birthed and operated in the same suite of offices!!! Still think you are working with misguided and pitifully "had" novices? Then, you see, you go running away to another state and effort to pull all the funding out of the "original" and suck it into the duplicate—leaving the poor souls who have integrity to HOLD THE BAG! OPEN YOUR PRETTY EYES, READERS, FOR IT IS HAPPENING TO YOU FROM EVERY DIRECTION!

By the way, Mr. Martin or Dr. Young, get in touch with the parties, like Devvie K., and get as many facts as you can regarding the campaign and campaign funds of our friend who likes to tear me apart! I think you will find it interesting enough to PRINT!

Gritz is now whining all over his microphone about how terrible the awful press, etc., is to HIM! It doesn't seem to occur to him that the spiral has simply turned back upon itself! Good confirmation for the rest of you, though. No indeed, children, it is NOT A NICE WORLD AFTER ALL! Further, he'd better check it out for there might be a "duplicate" (almost) entity called by whatever name he is calling his Christian Covenant Community, or Center for Action, or whatever. The same with University of Science and Philosophy. Boy, it seems that Green KNOWS alot about business which has never been seen by anyone here! In fact, what of the 1.2 million dollars spouted by Gritz from Green that Patterson "shut down". Must have been going to some OTHER institute because it was NEVER EVER HEARD OF AROUND THESE PARTS AND NEITHER HAS ALMOST ALL OF THE OTHER GARBAGE! SO, BETTER BE CHECKING—THERE IS SOMETHING GOING DOWN "SOMEWHERE".

Latest Branch Davidian Trial Happenings

Editor's note: In the 1/25/94 issue of CONTACT, we outlined who the participants are in this trial (you might want to refer back as a guide). We have been following this trial weekly and here take up where we left off last week. This so-called "trial" has been conducted in San Antonio, Texas and, as you may be aware by now, even from the controlled media—the jury has finally spoken!

FEBRUARY 22, 1994—
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

The following is written by Jack DeVault:

This was a day when the crowded courtroom fairly rocked with unspoken "amens". The first hour this morning was taken by Judge Walter Smith reading the 76 page "Charge to the Jury". After a short break, Assistant U.S. Attorney William Johnston delivered the first blast of innuendo for the prosecution. He said, "Today I represent those four men (those who died); Special Agents Steven D. Willis, Robert J. Williams, Conway LeBleu, and Todd McKeenan. I argue on their behalf".

The balance of his one hour and thirty-five minute opening argument was taken up with a discussion of the conspiracy, the malice aforethought, the wanton disregard of life, and the reckless endangerment of the children. He made an effort to reindict each one of the defendants by advancing a theory. At one point Johnston referred to Paul Fatta as a "Blood Merchant". Loaded with unsubstantiated supposition, he played a composite video and a little bit of the "911 tape" bringing back every scrap of suggested guilt that could be found, waving around as though their mere existence was evidence of guilt.

After noon it was the defense attorneys' turn to attack, and attack they did. Jeff Kearney, Jaime Castillo's attorney led off by correctly asserting that this jury is the most powerful body at work in this country. Then without expanding on the whys of that statement he launched into the arguments of Johnston. He pointed out that if there were convicting facts those facts would have been the feature of the previous hour, but, lacking those, Johnston had dug deep to present various theories of guilt. "The Law," he said, "requires an independent finding of fact." He urged the jurors to go back and review what is known and what is unknown. He spoke of the witnesses that should have been called but were not called. He reminded the jury of the lies that the ATF agents were found in; how the ATF leaders lied to the nation and how the lower echelons lied to cover those leaders. He explained that an independent investigation never occurred because the ATF had access to the site even before the Texas Rangers had an opportunity to start their investigation. Attorney Kearney wound up his 30 minutes with a quote from Martin Niemeuller as he explained the failure of the people to stop Hitler: "They came for the Communists and I wasn't a Communist so I said nothing; then they came for the Jews, but I wasn't a Jew so I said nothing. They came for the Catholics, but I wasn't a Catholic so I said nothing. Then they came for me, but there was no one left to speak."

Next came Joe Turner, attorney for Ruth

Riddle. "After six weeks you've got to be asking yourself, 'Why is Ruth Riddle even here?' They are trying to fabricate a case during closing arguments." Turner made clear something that Johnston had tried to make murky. No individual had the right to shoot another unless his life is in danger, or in defense of another. No individual—not even a police officer! Mr. Turner also made the telling argument that if there had been a conspiracy to murder, why did David Koresh send away Robert Rodriguez, whom he knew to be an undercover ATF agent? Why would he go to the door to greet the raiders in an effort to allow peaceful entry to Mt. Carmel. If this had been an ambush many more ATF agents would have died. The 911 tape proved that the Davidians wanted peace. It was the ATF that had no plans for cease-fire.

Attorney Rentz, attorney for Graeme (Leonard) Craddock, then described in a folksy way the legal issues. Conspiracy is a thought crime. No agreement of thought ever was proven to have taken place. Craddock had fired perhaps twenty rounds of ammunition in his life. "If Graeme was called a rifleman then you could teach someone to add and call him a CPA." He said that the only ambush that had taken place was the ambush of Robert Rodriguez by his superiors who had tried to shift the blame to him. There really is no evidence. The government has simply pursued the wrong course.

Young John Carrol was the attorney next up to defend Renos Avraam. He was eloquent, methodical, logical and compelling. He ex-

The News Desk

2/26/94 RICK MARTIN

VALLEY FEVER

In an article from the Feb. 25 edition of the DAILY NEWS (ANTELOPE VALLEY, CA), written by Christopher Woodard, "A tally of valley fever cases from a state laboratory increased from 35 to 60 Thursday, and health officials said more people, mostly in eastern Ventura County (CA), are reporting the flu-like symptoms."

"Valley fever, a usually mild but potentially deadly disease is caused by a fungus called coccidioidomycosis that is found in the soil in many areas of the Southwest."

"By comparison, Los Angeles County had 63 cases reported so far in 1993 and Ventura County had 53 the same year. The state reported 4,125 valley fever cases in 1993."

HANTAVIRUS

In a recent AP story from BOZEMAN, MT—"More than one strain of the deadly hantavirus apparently is infecting Americans, and that means cases may occur anywhere, says the scientist who first isolated the virus."

"Scientists at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention agree."

"We think there are probably two, maybe even three, strains of the hantavirus," said Bob Howard, a CDC spokesman on the issue in Bethesda, MD.

"The disease has been killing people fast. Since May, when several people in the Southwest died from hantavirus, 54 cases have been confirmed, and 31 people have died, including two in Montana..."

"Hantavirus is transmitted to people through airborne particles of mouse droppings and nesting materials. The virus grows in cells lining the lungs, and when a person's immune system attacks the infected cells, small holes develop. Liquid in the blood then floods the lungs and the lungs stop working..."

SMALLPOX VIRUS

In an article from the Feb. 13 edition of the ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL, written by Howard Witt, MOSCOW—"Two pleasant pensioners working as doormen, a few strands of rusting barbed wire atop a crooked fence and an old alarm system linked to a distant police station are all that stand between a laboratory housing the deadliest virus in human history and potential terrorists who might be determined to steal it."

"The virus—smallpox—wiped out half of humankind during the Middle Ages and continued to kill millions until it was officially eradicated from the Earth in the late 1970s, after an unprecedented worldwide vaccination campaign."

"Today, the last vials of the killer virus are stored in only two laboratories: the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta, and the Research Institute for Viral Preparations in Moscow, a few miles from the Kremlin."

"And while the World Health Organization debates the ethical and scientific merits of destroying those remaining samples once and for all, the scientists who oversee the crumbling Moscow smallpox lab are sitting anxiously with their fingers crossed."

HEPATITIS OUTBREAK

In an article from the Feb. 25 edition of the REPORTER-HERALD (CO), written by Philip Tardani, FORT COLLINS—"Larimer County health officials suspect or have confirmed 18 cases of hepatitis-A virus in the Fort Collins, CO area since November."

"The current outbreak is believed to be spreading through person-to-person contact and not from a single source such as a restaurant, according to Health Department Director Adrienne LeBailly."

"Symptoms include an abrupt onset of fever, abdominal pain, loss of appetite, nausea, fatigue, dark urine, and clay-colored stool. That's frequently followed by jaundice—a yellowing of the skin and eyes."

GREEN RAIN

In an article from the Feb. 19 edition of the DAILY NEWS, SAN FRANCISCO—"Calling it 'just one of those unexplained mysteries,' city health officials were probing reports that bright green rain fell on a downtown street."

"At least 20 people claimed they saw sheets of the mystery fluid falling along a block of Mission Street at about 2:30 p.m. Thursday."

"It was a dark green. Light green. Shiny green. Just lots of different green rain everywhere," security guard Alice Jefferson told the SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER. "I don't know where it came from or why, but it was kind of beautiful."

"It was iridescent. Green. Green, green everywhere. On cars, on buildings—everywhere you looked it was green," said Carman, a supervisor with the city's Social Services Department."

ANTHRAX IN HAITI

In an article from the Jan. 2 edition of the Sunday DENVER POST, written by John Donnelly, LA BRILLERE, Haiti—"Behind a flimsy curtain, a doctor armed with a dozen used syringes and a single vial of penicillin woks on the front line of Haiti's newest hell, a disease so lethal that it is stockpiled for biological warfare."

"He's treating scores of people for anthrax—almost never seen in the developed world, but passed on from sick live-stock to people too poor or too hungry to destroy and burn the tainted animals."

"It is killing a lot of people here. I see as many as eight new cases a day," said Edouard Nemorin, 56, at his dirt-floored clinic in this northeast Haiti village. "Some people get badly, badly swollen, and then they die suddenly, like that." He snapped his fingers.

RARE VIRUS

In an article from the Jan. 30 edition of the TIMES-COLONIST (BC), "A rare virus that can lead to leukemia and serious neurological disorders has been discovered in a small number of aboriginal people in British Columbia, its first appearance among native-born Canadians."

"The discovery by Vancouver neurologist Joel Oger has prompted B.C. and federal health officials to launch an investigation to determine whether the virus, human T-lymphotropic virus type 1 (HTLV-1), has spread to other regions and to non-aboriginal Canadians."

"HTLV-1 is spread through sexual contact, the sharing of needles by drug users or from an infected mother to her child."

"Symptoms for the neurological disorders prompted by HTLV-1 include low back pain, dizziness, weakness in the lower limbs and bladder problems."

WOMEN & DISEASE

In an article from the Feb. 15 edition of the THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, WASHINGTON—"American women are in a state of denial about their risk of getting one of the 13 million cases of sexually transmitted diseases spread here every year, a new survey indicates."

"Some 84 percent think 'it won't happen to me,' even if they're at high risk, said the survey released Monday by women's health advocates..."

CATS INFECT HUMANS

In an article from the Feb. 26 edition of the ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS, "Researchers say pet cats are infecting humans with weakened immune systems with two illnesses, one of them potentially life-threatening. They are bacillary angiomatosis, a rare disease that devastates the bones, skin, liver and other internal organs, and cat scratch disease."

"BA is easily cured by antibiotics, but few physicians recognize its symptoms because BA's impact is similar to other illnesses that attack AIDS and HIV patients."

HIV & ALCOHOL

In the same edition of the ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS, "Heterosexual problem drinkers had a much higher rate of HIV infection than other heterosexuals, suggesting the need for AIDS prevention as part of alcohol abuse programs, a new study says."

AIDS & GENE THERAPY

In an article from the Jan. edition of the FIVE-MINUTE READER (from the University of Colorado Health Science Center), "Two groups of CU-Health Sciences Center researchers have been awarded separate grants from the National Institutes of Health to begin unique research in the feasibility of using gene therapy to combat AIDS."

"Robert Schooley, M.D., head, infectious diseases, and CU-Nobel laureate Thomas Cech, Ph.D., Howard Hughes Medical Institute of CU Boulder, have been awarded a three-year, $1.3 million grant to study the possibility of developing synthetic genetic material that can attack and destroy susceptible elements of HIV. Their research is in collaboration with Ribozyme Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Boulder biotechnology company. They will focus on ribozymes, the 1982 discovery of which earned Cech the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry."

"Gail Harrison, Ph.D., Ian Maxwell, Ph.D., and Tyler Curiel, M.D., received a three-year, $1.4 million grant to conduct novel gene therapy research using a specially engineered diphtheria toxin that causes HIV-infected cells to commit suicide."

MALARIA

In an article from the Feb. 14 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, "Scientists think they're on the brink of a successful malaria vaccine that could lead to global immunizations by 1998, but threatened budget cuts jeopardize the work.

"New research shows a drug called SPf66 probably is the vaccine breakthrough scientists have been hunting for. It is now undergoing a final test to see whether it protects hundreds of children in Tanzania, who get bitten some 20 times a day by malaria-carrying mosquitoes.

"But the United States, a major financial backer of malaria vaccine research, probably will cut some of that money this year, leading to fears that other countries will follow suit.

"The program he heads [Dr. Tore Godal, director of the Special Program for Research and Training in Tropical Disease] is run jointly by the United Nations, World Health Organization and World Bank and collects $1-million for malaria research annually.

"Malaria strikes between 300 million and 500 million people a year. In Africa alone, 1 million children a year die from the disease."

DNA VACCINES

In an article from the Feb. 14 edition of the ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL, written by David Brown and originally appearing in THE WASHINGTON POST, "Medicine's long-sought magic bullet against infectious disease may turn out to be a gold projectile 1-millionth of a meter in diameter fired from an air gun.

"That literal-minded technology appears to be a good way of delivering one of the more promising forms of treatment on the medical horizon: DNA vaccines.

"The discovery five years ago that plain DNA from a virus or bacterium, injected into the body, could function as a vaccine has spawned a new field of research. Its motto might be: 'Don't be surprised if things are simpler than they seem.'

"In the past year, scientists have discovered that DNA vaccines may provide broader protection than conventional vaccines, may have a 'self-boosting' effect that makes them more potent and may work even if they are just squirted up the nose.

"Conventional vaccines are made from disease-causing bacteria and viruses that have been killed or weakened, or from protein fragments derived from them. When the immune system detects the presence of foreign proteins from those microbes, it activates defenses against the invader.

"The new vaccines, however, contain instead part of the microbes' DNA—the genetic instructions for building some of its constituent proteins. There is now little doubt that the DNA alone is also able to stimulate a useful immune response and protection from future infection.

"Scientists do not know how cells take up free-floating DNA or, more importantly, why they would have evolved that ability."

GULF ILLNESS

In an article from the Feb. 13 edition of the ALBUQUERQUE JOURNAL, NICOSIA, Cyprus—"Iraq has denied a U.S. senator's suggestion that biological agents shipped to Iraq with Reagan Administration approval could have caused the mysterious ailments afflicting hundreds of U.S. veterans.

"The U.S. administration has for some time been engaged in a drive to mislead the American public and come up with fantastic explanations to ward-off legal and criminal responsibility," an unidentified Baghdad government spokesman told the official Iraqi News Agency.

"The disease was caused by intensive use by American forces of uranium-coated projectiles mounted on tanks and anti-tank aircraft," the agency, monitored in Cyprus, quoted the official as saying late Friday.

"Among the Pentagon's theories is that contamination from depleted uranium artillery shells could have caused the so-called 'Gulf Syndrome.' Symptoms include chest pains, general weakness, skin diseases, muscle pains and nausea."

RATS

In an article from the Feb. 15 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, written by Maya Bell, MIAMI—"Big, brown, ugly and bold, rats are hanging out on busy street corners, swimming in backyard pools, racing across utility wires, peering into windows.

"They are the latest plague wrought by Hurricane Andrew, which continues to unleash misery on south Dade County (FL) 18 months after blowing apart 80,000 homes.

"Every big city has rats, but public health officials say Dade's rat pack has ballooned since the storm. And they say these rats are more than just gross nuisances. They could carry a number of serious diseases, including an often-fatal hantavirus contracted from rodent droppings, urine and saliva.

"The rare rodent-borne disease that has killed 36 people [notice how the numbers always change from story to story?] in the southwestern United States made its first documented appearance in South Dade..."

HYBRID ELK

In an article from the Jan. 26 edition of the MISSOULIAN (MT), written by Greg Lakes, "Genetic tests have found that two more elk killed in the wild last fall near Elliston were not pure elk, but hybrid animals that carried the genes of exotic species.

"Officials said Tuesday there's no way to know if the hybrid animals escaped from a game farm, were captive animals released in an accident during transport, or are the result of once-captive elk breeding in the wild.

"They do know it's the worst-case scenario they've been warning against, genetic pollution that they worry could forever alter stocks of wild elk.

"It looks like our worst fears have come to fruition," said Heidi Youmans, author of the Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks' position paper on game farms. "We have a problem. It has happened."

GENE SPLICING

In a copy of an article sent to CONTACT, originating from THE NEW YORK TIMES, date unknown, WASHINGTON—"The federal government, in a decision with broad moral and ethical implications, said Thursday that it was clearing the way for inventors to patent new forms of animal life created through gene splicing.

"The policy will also allow the patenting of animals with new traits produced by a host of new reproductive technologies, including genetic engineering.

"The policy, adopted by the Commerce Department's Patent and Trademark Office and scheduled to be published early next week, makes the United States the first country to patent animals.

"The policy specifically bars the patenting of new genetic characteristics in humans."

IN VITRO

In an article from the Feb. 10 edition of the ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS, "The world's largest study comparing the physical, psychological and social development of a group of infants born through in vitro fertilization with a group conceived naturally has found little if any difference.

"The Australian study found that, on average, IVF children were more socially skilled and more inclined to initiate social interaction than naturally conceived infants."

RADIATION OF BEEF

In an article this week from the DAILY NEWS, written by Robert Greene, WASHINGTON—"The Agriculture Department will seek approval for beef and other red meat to be given low-dose radiation treatment to kill harmful bacteria, Secretary Mike Espy said Thursday.

"The announcement brought an immediate outcry from opponents.

"The FDA approved irradiation of poultry in 1990, and already has permitted its use on spices, grains, fruits and vegetables. Pork already can receive very low doses to fight trichinosis.

"The World Health Organization and the American Medical Association have also endorsed irradiation."

Well, in that case, I feel safer already.

COUPLE REGISTRATION

In an article from the Feb. 15 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, SAN FRANCISCO—"Unmarried California couples, gay and straight, would be allowed to legally register their partnerships under statewide legislation proposed Monday. California is the first state ever to consider domestic partners legislation, according to Laurie McBride of LIFE AIDS, the gay and HIV rights group behind the proposal. The legislation, introduced by Assemblyman Richard Katz, D-Los Angeles, would allow couples to register with the secretary of state's office for a small fee and get a certificate recognizing their relationship."

JOURNALISTS KILLED

In an article from the Feb. 12 edition of the MODESTO BEE, MOSCOW—"At least 25 journalists were killed on assignments in the former Soviet Union last year, dozens were injured and six still are missing, a report released Friday said.

"There was also widespread persecution and harassment of journalists in some of the former Soviet republics, notably the nations of Central Asia and the Caucasus Mountains region, said the report by the independent fund for the Protection of Glasnost (openness)."

Shark Cartilage And "CarbraGaia"

. 2/25/94 #2 HATONN

SHARK CARTILAGE/CARBRAGAIA

We are going to interrupt our ongoing subject to take up this one, please. It is time you readers and people efforting to "treat" yourselves for cancer and other debilitating diseases QUIT KILLING OFF YOUR OTHER LIFE-FORMS FOR YOUR OWN UNNECESSARY USES.

I am incensed that so many forms from your seas are being slain to fill (insufficiently) a need which could be filled without damage or the taking of a single life-form.

So what is so important about cartilage? It is the original structure of life formation—bearing all DNA and able to cellularly mold the very structure of a body—IN PERFECTION ACCORDING TO THE DNA OF THAT BODY. It also has the capacity to incorporate DNA and shift it to where it is needed for perfection and/or to bear a perfecting exchange with other cells.

We have written on the subject prior to this [see p. 10] but it is now important that you UNDERSTAND some things about this subject so that the insane killing can STOP and you can also have product far surpassing that of the "dead" animal you slay.

WHAT IS CARTILAGE?

You break your bones, tear your ligaments, strain your muscles. What do you do to your cartilage? What—where, in fact—is cartilage?

You're probably most familiar with cartilage as the "tough stuff" that you don't want in your meat but, when eating, you most likely refer to it as "gristle". Cartilage is apparent in the human body, too, but you call it by other names, such as "Adam's apple", ears, etc.

Cartilage is found not only in the larynx but also between the segments of the spine and at the ends of long bones, where it acts as a shock absorber and a bearing surface to reduce the friction between moving parts. It is a tough, elastic, and translucent material that comes in three varieties.

Fibrocartilage, the first variety, is found between the backbones. It is the strongest of the three types. The second, hyaline cartilage, is gristly elastic tissue that thinly covers the moving ends of bones, connects the ribs to the breastbone, and supports the nose, windpipe, and part of the voice box. This type of cartilage is likely to harden in elderly people. Yellow cartilage, the third variety, is the most elastic. It is found in the external ear, Eustachian tube, and throat.

One of the most interesting things about cartilage, however, is not its form but its importance to the body, an importance that is first apparent in the embryo.

EMBRYONIC DEVELOPMENT

In an early fetus, there are no bones; it is cartilage that provides the framework on which the major bones of the body—excluding the skull—take form. Eventually, fetal cartilage becomes impregnated with calcium salts so that hard, or "stony", bones become apparent.

The bones of children are relatively pliable because they contain more cartilage—which is found at the tops of bones in zones called growth plates—and have less calcium salts than do the bones of adults. (A theory has been postulated that newborn children are resistant to many diseases because of the large amount of cartilage present in their bodies during the early fetal and developmental stages.) Elderly people have much less soft tissue such as cartilage and a higher proportion of calcium salts, so their bones are more brittle.

A process similar to the one in which fetal cartilage develops into bone takes place throughout life whenever bones are broken. It is believed that, when a bone breaks, a substance within the bone signals cells from the circulatory system to clean out the breakage site and summon undifferentiated cells to populate the site and multiply. These undifferentiated cells become chondrocytes (relatives of the chondriana, Gaiandriana...), or cartilage cells, which produce an intertwining of cartilaginous fibers that fills the break and joins the bone fragments together. Finally, the cartilage is calcified and becomes new living bone.

Amazingly, cartilage is a tissue that performs its functions without nerves, blood vessels, or a lymphatic system. Nutrients are, therefore, not transported to cartilage via the blood or lymphatic fluid. It is the flow of water, the chief constituent of cartilage, that is responsible for nutrient transport, which is brought on by the compressions and relaxations arising from body movements. This is why extended periods of inactivity are deleterious to joint cartilage.

As a result of inactivity, the calcium salts in cartilage's intercellular material can turn from a water-containing gel into a stonelike material. The calcification cannot be reversed or repaired as can torn ligaments or broken bones. Calcification is ultimately the death of cartilage.

"Sharks are known for their absence of any kind of cancer growths."

WHY SHARKS IN THE FIRST PLACE?

Because sharks have THE MOST cartilage and also an incredibly effective immune system. Sharks are largely free of any or all infections. Antibodies contained in the blood successfully combat bacterial and viral infections as well as protect against an array of chemicals that easily kill most mammals.

In human beings, there are millions of possible antibodies, known as immunoglobulins, (and the immune system is normally dormant), which become active only in response to antigens. Sharks, however, have a peculiar immunoglobulin, a large amount of which is always CIRCULATING AND READY TO ATTACK. Thus, if you are able to do the same for a "body" with proper immune system "fighters" on duty at all times—whoopee!

The shark's powerful immune system produces antibodies against more than just bacteria, viruses, and chemicals, however. It also seems to help protect against cancer (there is actually only ONE cancer), whether the shark is bred and maintained in clean open water or in carcinogen-laden enclosed waters. So—there has to be something which presents this marvelous miracle.

Sharks have been harvested for many products from hide, fins, oil, teeth to meat. Sharkskin, for instance, surpasses the quality of cowhide for durable leather. But this is not the subject in point.

Sharks are known for their absence of any kind of cancer growths. They are one of the few living creatures of which this can be said.

So, why? Well, tumors cannot grow without a network of blood vessels to nourish them and to remove waste products, therefore inhibiting the development of blood vessels could be a potential cancer therapy.

Taking this further—it becomes obvious that if you can introduce into the body of the human, say, cartilage which can adapt to or cast out selective tissue cells—you can program a body to NEVER HAVE CANCER. In addition you can further program it to not allow the takeover by viruses, bacteria, etc.

I don't believe I need to go into the scientific mechanisms here—we want to simply explain a BETTER way to get this "cartilage" in a far more effective form and into YOUR body.

CARBRAGAIA

The membrane which we utilize in the culturing of Gaia-Kargosok derivative is FAR SUPERIOR TO ANY KIND OF CARTILAGE—ANYWHERE. It is NOT a medicine or drug—but rather, a totally natural life-form which can be grown and harvested, programmed and totally focused—by an individual person. It changes itself to the very DNA structure of the individual intaking the substance.

Why would CarbraGaia be any better than any other type of cartilage? Because is not "simply" grown—it is nurtured in an amniotic fluid of Gaiandriana thus producing the most effective angiogenesis inhibitor known to man. Angiogenesis is the formation of new blood vessels, originally relating to the placenta during pregnancy. This word comes from Greek angio, meaning "blood", and genesis, meaning "formation of". Today it simply refers to the formation of new blood vessels during an individual's development or growth, or to the replacement of injured vessels in existing tissue.

So—any time you have a body undergoing unusual angiogenesis you will find cancerous tissue formation in all probability. Remember—"cancer" is NORMAL. It is the inability of the body to handle those cancer mutations (cells) which is the problem. So if angiogenesis can be stopped, tumor growth could be stopped. With CarbraGaia you can stop it. Plus you can have those nice antigens circulating at all times as well.

AMAZING STORIES

With the above in mind, consider some of the results achieved by ones taking shark cartilage. But further, consider the results in ones who have returned to whole health from the chondrianas or gaiandrianas. IF YOU COMBINE THE TWO—YOU HAVE A WONDROUS POTENTIAL.

It is through the use of Gaiandriana and CarbraGaia that we are able to develop selective products. We are able to GROW the bonding drias for the various "Sorbs" from caffeine to starch. The potential is without limits—EXCEPT that the drug houses have a corner on medicines and drugs—and we want no part of either.

HOW MUCH?

Very little, actually—especially if you are already taking Gaiandriana and Gaialyte—for you have already set your own programming. What you are doing by adding more CarbraGaia (natural cartilage) is that you are adding the same substance as in shark cartilage, only better—and also programmed and ready to take up your individual DNA structure.

The problem with the NEWLY developed viruses and bacterias is that they are crossed physically with all sorts of DNA changes which then mutate AGAIN when an individual ingests them. If you do not have a balanced programmed counter to that invasion (invader) you are soon not going to have a chance of outliving the untreatable diseases. We TREAT nothing—the products offered only allow you to assist your own immune system.

We don't make claims because there are no claims to make. Each individual will respond equally individually.

The products will NOT act like a big dose of wonder drugs (when they do work) but the body will rally its own defenses and healing crisis will be achieved and, if balanced, will normalize itself, having cast off the invasion of infectors.

Dear ones, you are going to have to have this kind of ability for your children and for yourselves—but I mention the children because there WILL BE MANDATORY IMMUNIZATIONS—this is the only method I know of to offset that kind of invasion and insult to the system. Before it is over you will ALL be subject to such random acts of mandatory injections for one conjured reason or another lied to you—so it's up to you. God sends His miracles but it is up to you as to whether or not you use them.

So, how much do you need? Shake the bottle and take a teaspoon three times a day in anything you choose. The ground membrane-cartilage will have the flavor of Kargosok tea to most extent. However the bath (liquid) in which it is contained—is STRAIGHT GAIANDRIANA, which in turn is working diligently at full "programming".

This can be simply swallowed or mixed in any drink—you won't even realize it is in Gaialyte or fruit juice. Take the full amount once a day if you prefer. After a while, see how you are—perhaps only a teaspoon a day will keep the devil away.

DO WE NOW HAVE ENOUGH?

I don't know. We can check it out, however [see product status box on Page 47]. I ask that a lot be used in almost all the other Gaia products—so there may be a bit of a shortage from time to time, especially with the "Trim" program coming out, because we want the ingredients to instantly move within the cells and start moving out the excess fat cells. However, I believe that there should be, by this time, quite a lot of matured membrane-cartilage ready to emulsify. The growers can certainly up the number of nursery incubators if necessary to meet a pretty good load of demand.

GAIALYTE

I have been petitioned by so many to allow for changing of the Gaialyte "drink" in order to cut down on the sugar intake. There are two things you can do—change it any way you wish and/or get extra tea (I'm asking the people who attend it to make it available. It is NOT THE SAME AS THE OTHER MEMBRANE TEAS YOU MAY BE GROWING—BUT, IF YOU HAVE SOME, USE IT.) Also, I believe that it is being worked on to cut in half the "sugar" fruit base.

I do want you users to know, however, that there is "sucrose-sorb" in the product as well as "caffeine-sorb". This does not negate calories per se but does neutralize the radicals. The "tea" sugar is totally converted and is converted IN GAIANDRIANA which automatically intakes and bonds the sucrose particles.

I hope I haven't simply bogged your thinking even more abundantly than priorly. However, I am petitioned for "information" constantly. I feel there is so much more I can tell you about how and why these things work—but as Dr. Young will attest, I get totally carried away and the scientific translations are, at best, stupefying. NEVER will I get into formulas for the miracle comes in the total conversion of everything so that eventually in a container, for instance, that smelly Gaiandriana will become PURE energized water programmed to become instantly one with a body DNA and will perfect to the cell of equal DNA and cast out every particle of alien matter within and to that cell structure. To this add the antiangiogenic CarbraGaia and you have wiped out the allowance of formation of mutation structure because no blood supply can be created to nurture the tumor. Moreover—tumors already present—lose their ability to continue a blood supply. You can actually see a Kapos's sarcoma lesion begin to DIE. This is a wondrous experience for anyone with advanced AIDS!

Again, do we make "claims"? Nope—here it is—use it if you wish, discard it if you prefer or ignore it if you want. Soon, however, you are going to be a civilization without immune systems—and that means that you will be WITHOUT CIVILIZATION! Moreover, you cannot build that balanced immune system and have fighting warriors overnight. It's up to YOU.

ARE THE "SORBS" BLOCKERS?

Yes indeed. For instance, let us consider the "starch" bond. Starch particles, if you will, are "bound"—instantly bonded to a drio cell. It works on the same general principle as sweetening something, say a cup of coffee. The whole cup of liquid becomes sweet, not just the sweetener dumped in.

Once bonded and when the bonded 'stuff' moves within the body it then moves instantly within the cells of the body without change of "frequency" of the cell life pulse. But, the neat trick is that it will sit there waiting and only allow exactly the needed amount of additional starch to "stay" in the cells after ingestion. Excess amounts do not convert to EXCESS fat—but rather, are discarded in the elimination systems. This, however, is WHY you must intake sufficient fluids to wash these rascals OUT.

Can you get "fat" in spite of the "sorbs"? Of course—be totally without reason and you can create every monster you can perceive. But, why would you want to do so? The IDEAL is to GET INTO BALANCE IN ALL WAYS—AND STAY THAT WAY! GET A LIFE FOR YOURSELF AND YOU WON'T HAVE TO WORK SO HARD AT KILLING YOURSELF!!!

You may well think this is a rotten life and you are ready to move on? Think again because if you don't clean it up HERE—you ARE NOT GOING TO LIKE THE NEXT ONE! The magic is NOT in the transition but in the growth attained at the time of that transition!

Do you want to do these things that you might live a long time? NO—SO THAT YOU CAN LIVE INFINITELY!

"GET A LIFE FOR YOURSELF AND YOU WON'T HAVE TO WORK SO HARD AT KILLING YOURSELF!!!"

"God sends His miracles but it is up to you as to whether or not you use them."

Trial Of The Branch Davidians

plained that a conspiracy requires an agreement between two or more parties to accomplish an unlawful purpose. There simply was no conspiracy here. He wound up saying: I can't respond to the government's charges, but you can. Please respond with a Not Guilty verdict...

Rocket Rosen came on next in behalf of Livingston Fagan and Kevin Whitecliff. His fiery attack backed Johnston and [the two] Jahns into the corner by describing how the prosecution had tried to debase the defendants with non-evidence while they, in effect, had suppressed evidence by not calling the responsible parties like Higgins, Sarabyn, and Chojnacki, who were calling the shots. He told how they continuously referred to 'the people of the compound' instead of the residents of the home. You can't shoot people in their home, but it's easier if they are in some compound.

The last defense argument of the day was given by Doug Tinker in behalf of Brad Branch. Johnston had called him a coward for going to the second floor to hide behind the women and children. Tinker explained that he was a hero for going there to defend the women and children. Tinker implicated the prosecutors who he said had been in on the case from the beginning, designing the dynamic entry attack. He pointed out that there were lots of things that we just don't know for sure, and a not-sure condition must call for a Not Guilty verdict. He punched holes in all of the testimony of the ATF agents and the Texas Rangers.

Today I thought I saw the jury move to the side of the defendants. I know that I saw the government attorneys leaving the court house looking glum. I hope my perceptions were correct.

FEBRUARY 23, 1994—
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

Following six weeks of sometimes interesting, sometimes boring, and sometimes lying, testimony, we come to the last of the attorneys' arguments—sometimes exciting, sometimes illogical; but emotional, moving arguments.

Laconic Gerry Morris (who defends Bob [Woodrow] Kindrick) started the day telling the jurors that he hadn't said much before, but he asked them to hear him now. "One of the greatest tragedies in our nation's history has taken place. Ninety people died. No one had to die. We must come away from here resolved that this will never happen again". He went on to review the evidence showing what a great distance there was between his client and any conspirators. He said that the prosecution would try to say that to fail to convict would endanger police forces everywhere. Then Morris put out the rhetorical question, "Who is the most danger to society, Mr. Kindrick or a federal police sniper? All Bob Kindrick wants is his liberty. All I want is to drive him home."

Attorney Tim Evans, defending Norman Allison, spoke of the atmosphere of injustice that had plagued the courtroom. The same atmosphere of injustice that had precipitated the attack in the beginning. Then he described how the prosecution had used the broad brush to stereotype the group as a bunch of kooks—"they" did this; "they" believed that. Norman Allison was obviously not a member of "the message". He shouldn't even be here (I think everyone in the courtroom agreed).

Jeff [Dan] Cogdell argued next, in defense of Clive Doyle, but his fiery tongue first castigated Assistant U.S. Attorney Bill Johnston who had the day before called the defense attorneys a bunch of hyenas. He said, "I embrace your hostility, sir. Your name-calling is the highest compliment you could pay me". He then began to describe the level of government misconduct. "The whole world will look to see just how much the police can get away with. What I saw was government arrogance. If the government doesn't like someone they can gas them; they can tank them. What they have done is to break the law in the name of the law" (It was hard to suppress the cheers in the gallery). Then he started to describe some of the evidence of the lies that had been told—the 'spin control' and revised meanings for words that they used, such as: a tank's path is a ground disturbance; a flash grenade is a diversionary device; an explosion is a rapid expansion of gasses; a sniper is a forward observer. Cogdell made clear that the prosecution had failed to provide the most important witnesses, the decision makers like Sarabyn, Chojnacki, Rogers, Sage, and Davy Aguilero. Aguilero was the case agent who knew more about the case than any other living person, but he was not called to testify. Cogdell said, "They don't have the testosterone to call him and I know why!" All of this was emotional and hard-hitting, but perhaps the most telling blow was struck when he projected pictures of Mt. Carmel being destroyed by the tanks. With each progressive bit of destruction he quoted Byron Sage, the "negotiator". "This is not an assault"; "This is not an assault"; "This is not an assault".

Mike DeGuerin was last up to defend Paul Fatta. "Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, this shouldn't be happening. We shouldn't try to justify the government's action by prosecuting these people. This is a case about disrespect; disrespect for the Constitution; disrespect for our people. They went to a judge for permission to search and to arrest one man. They said that they attempted to knock and announce, but seventy-six ATF agents went to Ft. Hood and practiced dynamic entries. They never practiced how to knock and announce." DeGuerin followed Cogdell's list of witnesses that should have been called but weren't. He punched holes in all of the ATF and FBI testimony. He wound up with the fatal code words, "It's show time" (that was to start the operation), and he pointed out how true it was. The ATF had planned a media show with a press center set up to exploit the biggest successful ATF raid ever. DeGuerin spent only a few minutes ably destroying the credibility of the government's witnesses, particularly the "positive" ID of Livingston Fagan by ATF agents Evers and Ornowski. He also dispelled the conspiracy theory by demonstrating Wayne Martin's 911 call. "An agreement to defend and call for police to help defend is not a conspiracy," he said.

Now all of the defense attorneys had spoken and it was the government attorneys' privilege to have the last word. First Mr. Finnesse went through the cast of defendants and tried to make a case against each one of them. After 50 minutes he closed with this statement: "Those defense attorneys allege that the ATF used excessive force. The truth of the matter is they didn't use enough force!"

Ray Jahn was allowed the last word. His tone was more moderated than it previously had been, but still he tried to stereotype these people as dogs (Its OK to shoot dogs, you know).

"They didn't want any help from our country" (referring to Wayne Martin's statement in the 911 tape).

"David Koresh's survival gear even had a place to carry hand grenades, but no place to carry a Bible."

Finally, he became bold enough to say, "These four agents died so that we could bring this evidence to you!"

And, "Those men died because they misjudged the motives and the zeal of the followers of David Death" (The closest yet he had come to the truth).

The jury retired at 2:55 P.M. Deliberations will start tomorrow morning.

[Thank you, Jack DeVault!]

TWO CLOSING ARTICLES ON WACO EVENT

The following "official" controlled media account is quoted directly from an article appearing in the February 27, 1994 edition of THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, by Sam Howe Verhovek: Eleven Branch Davidians were acquitted of all murder and conspiracy charges Saturday, after a trial in which most of the defendants argued that they had acted in fright and self-defense when their group killed four of the 76 federal agents who raided their compound near Waco almost exactly a year ago.

Seven of the 11 were convicted on lesser charges while four were acquitted of all charges. None of those convicted faces more than 10 years in prison.

The jury's verdict amounted to a stunning defeat not only for the Justice Department, which prosecuted the case, but for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, the federal agency that planned and conducted a raid that turned into one of the most disastrous law-enforcement operations in the nation's history. Defense lawyers and some legal experts said Saturday that the verdict would send a resounding warning against the use of excessive force by law enforcement.

CONTACT would like to share with our readers the following fax which just arrived from APFN, Las Vegas, Nevada, Feb 26, by Ken Vardon. Note the wonderful strength of purpose that has resulted "just" from the network of informed support generated from outside the official media's control. Never underestimate the power of the pen!! Word came to us today that all 11 of the Branch Davidians were ACQUITTED. In the first FAX received from the Institute of Criminal and Civil Investigation, Inc. (ICCI) stating, "I did not realize how much support the Davidians had around the country. Not so much for support of their ideology, but their Constitutional right to their own belief, to be secure from unreasonable search and seizures." Further quoting: "Be that as it may, we still have a STRONG STATEMENT FROM THE PEOPLE THAT "OUR" CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN LIGHTLY. Maybe over the next few weeks and months more of the evidence will start to come out." Emotions flooded me. Tears flowed out of control. Without knowing. As the release of tension eased, the moments passing, with out-of-control shaking and crying. The light of our Father encircled me with this message. "You are to know that 'RIGHT IS GOOD'. RIGHT WILL ALWAYS WIN IN THE END, go forth with TRUTH, evil will crawl into its own dark domination. You and yours can cast all evil to its own black hole." How these messages are given to me to pass to you, I know not. The responsibility of forging ahead with our march for justice brings us to the task of now demanding a "PEOPLES GRAND JURY" to hear all aspects of every detail of the government's attacking and killing it's peoples. As moments passed, I felt the spirits of those children that had to die in terror, screaming and crying in "The people are the masters of both Congress and courts, not to overthrow the Constitution, but to overthrow the men who pervert it!"

their mother's or father's arms as they perished. On CNN radio A.G. Janet Reno comments about the results of the trial, (CNN NEWS KDOWN 2/26/94) "I will never forget WACO and the ghost of WACO will be with me all of my life. It is a reminder that you make your best judgment and then you take the consequences, you accept the responsibility and you move ahead." Ms. Reno, still must have not received the message that Gerry Spence gave her last week looking in the cameras of N.O.W. with Tom Brokaw. At that, Ms. Reno, we the people shall take you at your word. We see and hear, we shall make our best judgment, take the consequences, accept the responsibility to move ahead for the real truth, not yours. Your responsibility in this matter had only started, not ended. As Paul Wilcher pleaded in his letter to Ms. Reno dated May 21, 1993. As Ms. Reno stated in her acceptances as the Attorney General of the United States, "It is time to do the RIGHT thing." Ms. Reno! It is time for "WE THE PEOPLE TO DO THE RIGHT THING." It is time we hold you at your word of taking responsibility and the consequences.

If this message is strong, it's because the souls who have perished only see this acquittal as proof that these people, who were tried, were not responsible for a conspiracy against the Government. What flashed for me is why did the Government have a conspiracy against these people? Who is looking at the surrounding people, media, town, schools. I think as we look into the details of all of this we will find some very strange situations.

GOD, our maker has guided us this far. GOD, has given us courage by our connections. GOD, will guide and protect us through the end of time. Take this lesson of FAITH in "RIGHT" and the human "WILL" to be a "FREE WILL" ("WILL": the right for self reason [CHOICE]) shall prevail in the end. GLORY BE TO GOD! THINK Janet!

that closes with a latch hook." And a necklace of fossilized alligator droppings.

Reno, The Washington Post article explains, "grew up with no air conditioning, no fans, no washer or dryer, and no television," though her parents were affluent and well-off financially. In her household, Reno and her parents "didn't practice religion, but they studied the Bible, Greek mythology, the stars." [H: I just wonder what parts of these books they "studied" most attentively.]

HER FAILED RECORD AS A PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

The fact that Janet Reno has some personal quirks and eccentricities does not necessarily make her unfit for high public office. If these were her only failings, we would have no real reasons to oppose her elevation to America's top law enforcement position. But the fact is, Ms. Reno's record as the state attorney and chief prosecutor for Miami and Dade County, Florida, is so incredibly deficient that it beggars the imagination.

Even the Miami Herald, a newspaper whose liberal editors adore Janet Reno and the Clintons, was forced to admit that her performance as a prosecutor was atrocious. "She has a losing record in the highest profile cases," the newspaper reported, adding: "Her office has been accused of lacking investigative zeal, often letting cases languish for years."

How mind-jarring! This is the stone-faced hatchet woman who wasted no time at all in hurriedly smashing down the walls of the Branch Davidian compound and putting a rushed and fiery end to the stand-off in Waco.

A reliable correspondent of mine from Miami told me that while Janet Reno was in charge of prosecuting criminals in that city and county, crime rose to disastrous proportions. "Miami," he said, "became the drug-running, Mafia capital of the world during her years as state attorney."

Further proof of Reno's incompetence comes from Thurman Brown, a former federal investigator stationed in South Florida: "Miami's Brickell Avenue is now lined with glittering new banks full of drug money," says Brown.

And what of the drug dealers who deposited all that money? "I don't think Reno has gone after a single one," he laments. "Her larger-than-life image as an honest prosecutor serves as a front—a cover-up to be blunt—for one of the most crime-ridden jurisdictions in the United States."

According to Jeff Leen, the Miami Herald's respected investigative reporter, while Reno sat back idle and did little to stop crime, Florida's political and judiciary systems were rife with unbelievable corruption. In one year alone half of the judges in the Miami court system were under federal criminal investigation. Six judges were arraigned on bribery and extortion and, in one case, on murder charges.

Now get this: none of these cases were brought by Reno, even though she had 230 lawyers under her direct supervision and reigned at the state's attorney post for 15 years. They were all federal cases, prosecuted by a crime fighting U.S. attorney appointed by the Bush administration.

RENO A "FRONT-LINE CRIME FIGHTER"?

Amazing as it may seem, when President Bill Clinton nominated Janet Reno as the nation's first female attorney general, he boasted that, "She is a front-line crime fighter and a caring public servant." (Say what?!)

Now comes the truly astonishing part: On March 23, 1993, Janet Reno, as her first act as attorney general, promptly fired all 93 U.S. attorneys working for the Justice Department. Political insiders said it was probably to get rid of just one of them, Jay Stephens. He was Reno's only target, but to make it look good, she had to can all of them.

Why Jay Stephens? Because, at the time, he was on the verge of indicting Congressman Dan Rostenkowski, influential chairman of the House Committee that has life and death control over Bill Clinton's tax bills. Rostenkowski allegedly is involved in the embezzlement of monies of the House of Representatives post office.

Slick Willie Clinton tried to justify Reno's actions, claiming that, "All of those people are routinely replaced with each incoming administration."

No so, responded Democratic Senator Daniel Moynihan: "It has been the norm since 1977 for U.S. attorneys to complete the remainder of their terms."

RENO AND VOTESCAM

[H: Everybody remember the lengthy write-up we offered on VOTESCAM?] It wasn't the first time that Janet Reno has intervened in the political process to help a corrupt colleague in need. In their book, Votescam: The Stealing of America, two brothers who are investigative journalists from the Miami area, Jim Collier and Ken Collier, recount how, for nearly two decades, Prosecutor Janet Reno covered up rampant voter cheating and fraud in local elections. Voting machines were tampered with and rigged in hundreds of precincts so that only the "pre-approved candidates" would win election.

After the Home News, a Dade County weekly, ran feature articles detailing this incredible and malignant scheme to rob the voters, the newspaper's publisher was shot as he walked up his driveway one evening. Janet Reno, as state attorney, never acted on the shooting and it is still listed officially as an "unsolved" crime.

Unafraid for their own safety, the courageous Collier brothers next distributed a shocking video, recorded clandestinely, which actually caught crooked poll volunteers of the League of Women Voters at a table, secretly punching holes in the punch cards intended only for voters. The video also captured Reno's cronies, including high political figures and even the Mayor, in the vote count room, which was legally supposed to be off-limits.

Under pressure, the Governor of the state of Florida appointed well-known attorney Ellis Rubin as an ombudsman to investigate the allegations of vote fraud. Rubin's investigative report concluded that massive voting irregularities had occurred. The fraud was so bad, said Rubin, that it "shocked and sickened" him.

However, even after Rubin's thorough report detailing voter fraud and abuse was issued, Janet Reno declined to look into the matter. For Reno, covering up and protecting her crooked political pals took precedence over insuring integrity and honesty at the voting booth.

So we find that Janet Reno not only was a kooky, alternative lifestyle, but she is proven to be incompetent and corrupt as a law enforcement officer. Sounds like a perfect candidate for Hillary to have chosen to be in charge of the huge and powerful Department of Justice, with an annual budget topping $11 billion and 84,000 employees spread throughout the United States and overseas. Perfect, that is, based on a comparison with Hillary's other cabinet choices.

JANET RENO
A QUEER CHOICE

Janet Reno has been called "a queer choice for attorney general". According to Florida Attorney Jack Thompson, the new attorney general is a hardened lesbian in the worst conceivable way. If Thompson is correct—and I have reason to believe he is—Janet Reno is a closet lesbian who is so wickedly, sexually corrupt that she has frequently used call girls for sex and, as Dade County, Florida attorney, she sexually harassed female county employees.

If these charges were made by a less reputable person, they might be easily dismissed, but attorney Jack Thompson is known throughout the state of Florida as an honest Christian man and a brilliant trial lawyer. He is a member and elder of Key Biscayne Presbyterian Church, a congregation of the conservative Presbyterian Church in America (PCA). [H: Well this "qualification" is no longer very valid as a backup for integrity—but I concur that Jack Thompson is an honorable man.]

When Jack Thompson discovered the extent of Reno's immorality and her demonstrated malfeasance in office, he felt it his duty to attempt to unseat her. In 1988, Thompson decided to run against her in the election of Dade County Attorney, a position that covers the metropolis of Miami. Although this bid was unsuccessful, he garnered more votes than any previous Reno opponent.

During the campaign, the courageous and bold Thompson confronted Reno at one of her public appearances by handing her a questionnaire and asking her to check the appropriate box declaring whether she was (1) homosexual; (2) bisexual; or (3) heterosexual.

Reno brushed aside the questionnaire, then grasped her opponent's shoulders, shook him, and said, "I like strong, virile, intelligent men." To which Thompson responded, "I like strong, virile, intelligent men, too, but I don't go to bed with them."

Janet Reno has been called "a queer choice for attorney general".

Janet Reno's cutesy answer to the question of whether or not she is a lesbian obviously irritated lesbian activists. Later, in 1993, Reno again evaded this question, which was asked her by a reporter as she triumphantly arrived at Miami International Airport after being confirmed by the U.S. Senate for the attorney general slot. "I'm just an awkward old maid with a great affection for men," she said coyly.

Margaret Cantrell, a spokeswoman for the radical gay Queer Nation group, which delights in "outing" closet lesbians, denouncing Reno for her cowardice, angrily complained, "She hasn't answered the question straight out. I like intelligent men, too. I don't sleep with them."

Days later, representatives from Queer Nation, still unhappy with Reno's lame attempt to disassociate herself publicly with lesbianism, staged a public news conference at the steps of the Justice Department building. A spokesperson for the group declared: "Many homosexuals in Miami have contacted us and told us that Janet Reno's lesbianism is common knowledge among the gay community."

The efforts by the lesbian activist group Queer Nation to force Janet Reno to come out of the closet and openly admit her lesbian sexual preference was rebuffed by Ms. Reno. Indeed, there was fear in the Clinton camp that Queer Nation's press conference might cause either an embarrassed White House to withdraw, or a fearful Senate Judiciary Committee to reject, Reno's nomination as attorney general.

To the rescue, however, came Patricia Ireland, the militant, gay lesbian head of the National Organization for Women (NOW). Ireland, who remains married to a man while also shacking up with a woman, told reporters: "Ms. Reno should not be judged on the basis of her sexual orientation."

THOMPSON HOUNDED BY RENO'S CRONIES

Attorney Jack Thompson says that he has been hounded and harassed by Reno's influential friends because of his attempts to expose her lurid behavior while in office. Reno's pals have illegally dispatched agents from the Florida Department of Law Enforcement to tail him. On one occasion, Reno's colleagues tried to have the Florida Bar Association disbar him. The scheme was to have Thompson declared "mentally incapacitated" because of his supposedly "obsessive" efforts opposing pornography.

A psychologist crony of Reno's, who never even bothered to interview Thompson, diagnosed him as a "homophobe", a person whom gay activists define as one who "fears and hates homosexuals".

Thompson fought back with expert witnesses, including a respected psychiatrist who thoroughly vindicated him, gave him a clean bill of health, and stated that Thompson was simply a "Christian activist".

The Florida Bar, made up of attorneys, was forced not only to dismiss the trumped-up charges against Jack Thompson, but to pay him $20,000 in a settlement, in acknowledgement of their lawless and wholly unethical, gulag attempt to discredit him.

All this caused Jack Thompson to quip, "I am now one of the few certified sane lawyers in Florida."

Reportedly, this was the first time in the history of the United States that a Bar Association was beaten in litigation and required to fork over money to an opponent it had unethically tried to destroy. Reno's blatantly sinister effort to intimidate Thompson had backfired.

A PATTERN OF LESBIAN AND CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

Jack Thompson's investigation of Janet Reno has focused not only on her lesbian lifestyle, but also on other alleged criminal activity. Thompson says he has documented evidence that Reno has undergone extensive psychological counseling, that she was arrested for shoplifting lingerie at a Jordan March department store in 1981, and that she has a severe alcohol abuse problem. [H: I suggest that some of you check into surgical procedures also undergone along the trail.]

In written affidavits and orally, Thompson has also asserted that:

...Washington reporter Mike Hedges called 20 of Reno's public supporters, and every single one of them has verified that Reno is widely reputed to be a homosexual.

...Florida Senator Bob Graham, who was asked by President Clinton if he knew of any skeletons in Reno's closet, knows of the widely held belief that one of Reno's lovers is ABC affiliate WPLG-TV's female news anchor, Ann Bishop.

...A former assistant state attorney volunteered that while he was in Reno's office, senior assistant state attorneys helping with new employee's orientation would pull aside each new hire and confide, in his words, "You'll be hearing, if you haven't already, stories that Janet Reno is a lesbian. She is, so don't act shocked, and just shrug your shoulders."

...A Miami police officer, Philip Buckman, told two witnesses that one night while on stakeout at Sunday's, a restaurant in Key Biscayne, he saw Ms. Reno enter with another woman, become drunk as the evening progressed, and begin "making out" passionately with her date.

...Reno uses call girls for sex. One such call girl, whose name is "Crystal", has reportedly told the publisher of a certain "escort" magazine that she has received money for sex from Reno at Reno's home.

...A homosexual talk show host has related that Reno was once apprehended by a Broward County police officer in a shopping mall parking lot in the back seat of a car with a disrobed young girl. After Reno identified herself as a district attorney, no criminal charges were filed.

...Reno has been pulled over five times in Dade County while driving "under the influence" of alcohol. This was reported by five different police officers. United States Senator Trent Lott's [R-MS] office has memoranda relating to the drunk driving investigation.

...Reno was once blackmailed by a homosexual, "shock radio" talk show host. The perverted homosexual radio personality was at the time soliciting teen boys on the air for sex. When her office was subsequently flooded with phone calls from irate citizens demanding she do something about this outrage, Janet Reno announced she would "open an investigation". The next day, however, she promptly closed the investigation after the homosexual talk show host referred repeatedly in his broadcast to Ms. Reno's own, peculiar sex habits.

SENATE PANEL NOT INTERESTED

Now, if these allegations by Attorney Jack Thompson are true, it should have been a piece of cake for investigators of the Senate Judiciary Committee to determine the facts. Scores of actual eye witnesses to Janet Reno's unseemly behavior could have been made available to the Senate panel. Reno would have been quickly declared unfit to hold high office, especially the post of attorney general of the United States.

In fact, Jack Thompson officially requested the Senate Committee allow him to appear as a witness under oath. In a letter to Chairman Joseph Biden (D-Maryland), Thompson wrote, "I hereby put my good name, my entire legal career, my duties as a citizen and as a Christian compelled to tell the truth, on the line..."

Thompson also provided the Senator with the names of at least 12 other reliable people who could testify as to the veracity of these things.

Instead of calling Jack Thompson as a witness, the corrupt chairman of the Senate Committee announced that he had the FBI investigate the charges by Thompson and others of misconduct by Janet Reno, and the FBI found them "unfounded and scurrilous".

This was the same liberal Senator whose committee, just a year previous, had unmercifully grilled Judge Clarence Thomas after the Judge was accused by Anita Hill of the most ridiculous of sexual harassment charges.

Thompson personally contacted each of the 12 people whose names he had furnished Senator Biden. He discovered that NOT ONE PERSON OF THE 12 HAD BEEN INTERVIEWED BY THE FBI. NOT ONE! Obviously, Senator Biden simply had told a bald-faced lie to cover up his committee's disgraceful action in approving Ms. Reno for her high-ranking cabinet position.

The national media, including top newspapers, news magazines Time and Newsweek, and the three major TV networks, have refused to investigate or report on Janet Reno's past record of lesbianism and her alleged criminal activities.

Yet, Attorney Jack Thompson refuses to back down. In fact, on a popular Miami talk show hosted by a fellow Christian, John Thompson (no relation), he issued this public challenge to Janet Reno: He challenged her to sue him for defamation and libel.

"You won't sue me, Janet," Thompson boldly announced, "because you know I'm telling the truth."

JANET RENO AND THE WACO MASSACRE

It was her order to murder and burn alive the 86 members of the Branch Davidian religious group in Waco, Texas that earned for Ms. Reno my moniker of "Duchess of Doom". Possibly, she deserves a formal name change as well. Transposing the letters could produce the surname Nero instead of Reno. After all, it was the Emperor Nero who at first falsely accused the early Christians of vile acts, and then went on to burn the city of Rome to the ground and blame it on the innocents.

Bill Clinton and Janet Reno insisted that they ordered the attack on the Waco compound because they were concerned that "child abuse" was going on. Well, they can rest easy now—those kids will never be abused again! [H: However, worse, is the fact that Reno has now admitted there were no grounds for the accusations of child abuse in the first place!]

Here, then, is another recklessly dangerous attempt to commit a violent criminal act and then excuse its commission by saying, "I did it for the kids." Is this what Hillary and Bill Clinton, Donna Shalala, and their friend Janet Reno shamelessly call "children's rights"?

HOW THE GOVERNMENT ABUSED THOSE KIDS

In fact, during the weeks of siege against the men, women, and children barricaded inside the Branch Davidian building and terrified for their lives, Janet Reno herself abused these kids over and over. She had armored personnel carriers and tanks run over and crush their go-carts and bicycles just outside their windows. She had her Gestapo agents play amplified, hideously occultic sounds of rabbits being slaughtered and Tibetan Buddhist monks chanting to their demon spirit guides, scaring the children and depriving them of sleep.

Reno's SS brigade held the press back to a three-mile distance so no one could find out the awful facts about her mental and physical torture of these helpless children. She then cut off their food, their milk, their water, their electricity, their plumbing. At night she bombarded their bedroom windows with blinding, high-intensity lights.

She left the dead body of one man, a Branch Davidian killed by her agents, hanging for days on end draped over a fence in plain view of the children inside the compound. The children must have suffered terrible visions because, reportedly, vultures and other beasts of prey devoured parts of his body (the man's distraught wife was also inside the compound). Reno's troops eventually sent in a helicopter that picked up the remains off the fence with a grappling hook and flew them away.

Finally, Janet Reno cared so much for the welfare of these desperate kids that she ordered tanks to ram and batter the walls of their home, puncturing holes in the structures, knocking the buildings off their foundations. This caused doors and windows to become stuck and inoperable, and stairways to collapse so that the children and adults could not escape the fiery holocaust soon to come.

Ms. Reno next directed her ATF and FBI storm troopers to pump CS gas into the building housing these children—a type of gas so virulent and harmful its use is outlawed in international conflicts by the Geneva Convention, an international treaty.

Nazi dictator Adolf Hitler had refused in World War II to use chemical weapons against his opponents, even though the very fate of his nation and his own life were at stake. Yet, a hell-bent Janet Reno gave the green light to her hundreds of military forces camped outside the Branch Davidian complex to torment the men, women, and children with this chemical agent originally invented in the very pit of hell.

Chemical warfare experts have testified that CS gas, an inflammatory agent more lethal and insidious than the tear gas used by police in riot situations, should never be used in enclosed spaces—

Christian faith: According to Bill Clinton and the femiNazis, any group that can even vaguely be described as "Christian fundamentalist" is not fit to exist.

A FIRE MAY RESULT.

CS gas is also known to produce these horrendous effects in its victims: burning eyes, severe nausea and vomiting, dizziness, unconsciousness, headaches, stomachaches, rashes, and mental confusion.

Yes, Janet Reno, that's what YOU DID to those children. [H: This all, of course, is AFTER the killing of some innocent people at Ruby Creek, Idaho in the Weaver debacle by some of the same "agents"! It seems Ms.(??) Reno likes, preferably, to KILL WOMEN (MOTHERS) AND CHILDREN!]

Not satisfied with the torture and pain she had already inflicted on the kids inside the compound, I believe that, in spite of her statements to the contrary, Reno gave the order for the FBI and ATF to set the compound on fire—to mutilate and burn the kids alive. Evidently, federal sharpshooters and goon squads were also sent in prior to the fire to assassinate sect leader David Koresh and top lieutenants. They and over 20 other Koresh followers were found shot in the head, according to the official coroner's report.

TARGETED FOR EXTERMINATION

The Clinton/Reno message was made loud and clear: In the future there are at least three reasons why individuals or groups may be targeted by the Clintonistas for intimidation and, possibly, death:

(1) Ownership of guns: It doesn't matter if the firearms you own are legal because the Clintonistas want to disarm all Americans. Why? For purposes of government control.

(2) Christian faith: According to Bill Clinton and the femiNazis any group that can even vaguely be described as "Christian fundamentalist" is not fit to exist. Such groups are considered a threat to the New Age, New World Order. Especially hated and condemned are pseudo-Christian groups which claim to be "Israel" or "Jewish". The Koresh sect, for example, professed to be "Jewish", and came complete with a "Jewish Messiah" (Vernon Howell aka David Koresh) and a Jewish Star of David flag flying atop their compound. The Branch Davidians also observed Jewish High Holy Days.

OF DIRECTORS

I believe it is significant that Attorney General Janet Reno, who is Jewish, was on the Board of Directors of the Jewish Anti-Defamation League (ADL). The ADL, which has been accused of being a terrorist organization with ties to Israel's Mossad spy agency, is known to keep voluminous computer files on hundreds of organizations the group considers its enemies. Included are many reputable Christian and pro-life ministries and organizations. The ADL also employs private investigators to do its dirty work and, reportedly, some police officers in cities across the U.S.A. are covertly in its hire.

In 1992, the ADL's offices in San Francisco were raided by the police and their files were seized after a valid search warrant was obtained. Possible indictments against ADL officials are expected.

Documentation is also available that the ADL pressured the FBI and the federal government to take action against the Branch Davidians. In fact, Herb Brin, an ADL official, boasted in a Los Angeles area Jewish community publication, Heritage, "U.S. and Texas authorities have precise documentation (from the ADL of course) on the Branch Davidian cult in Texas."

(3) Race or Social Ideology: The Clintonistas believe that white people especially, but also groups of all races and ethnic origins who wish to be separatists, must be dealt with harshly because they are a threat to the multiculturalism ideology. Muslims and Orthodox Jews, also because of their separatist beliefs, are despised by the Clintonistas. But in the case of the Orthodox Jewish groups, Clinton administration officials are unable to move against them because they fear the powerful Jewish lobby. This may change very soon.

Islamic groups are also a daunting target. Black Muslims in America are very militant and would fight back if attacked. They also have strong support from the African-American community and from the leaders of civil rights groups.

Foreign-controlled Islamic groups based in America are an easier mark, especially if the feds can goad their radical leaders into perpetrating highly visible acts of terror such as the bombing of the New York World Trade Center. However, the persecution of such groups must be handled in a most delicate way so as not to upset the Arab and Moslem world community.

What's left, then, as the easiest marks are the Christian fundamentalists, the white separatists, and gun owner groups and individuals. Therefore, we can expect that more and more of these groups will suffer from Reno's propaganda squads, her black-hooded, SWAT team raids, and her murderous Gestapo attacks in the future.

The perfect candidate for Clintonista extermination is thus the Christian (or pseudo-Christian) fundamentalist group that owns guns and practices separatism. If children are available to be used as a pretext for the assault, so much the better.

Neo-Nazi skinhead groups, identity churches, America First organizations, and even solid, old-fashioned, Gospel-preaching churches and pastors are high up on the Clintonista agenda for police action. Even though these groups have widely divergent views, the Clinton people put them all in the same bushel basket.

Some may rejoice that groups with strange or unorthodox views and beliefs are the targets for persecution, but note this: Once these groups are snuffed out without a sizeable whimper of complaint from the citizenry at large, then all the others mentioned above will next be targeted.

Eventually, anyone and everyone who disagrees with the fascist regime in the White House might find themselves in dire jeopardy.

Yes, the bell may toll for you, too, in due time!

THE WACO MASSACRE—A NAZI ATROCITY?

If identifying the Waco tragedy as a Nazi atrocity sounds overly dramatic or sensationalist, please understand that, though the mass media generally refuse to give them a hearing, there are many outstanding Americans concerned about the implications of Janet Reno's unconstitutional assault on the children and adults in Waco.

Respected national columnist Alexander Cockburn, author of several highly acclaimed books and a contributor to Nation and many other publications, wrote a column for the Los Angeles Times in which he put the Clinton/Reno massacre in the same category as the Salem witch hunts and the Nazi atrocities of fascist Germany. By labeling the Branch Davidians a "cult", said Cockburn, Janet Reno, Bill Clinton, and their heavily armed assault squads, claimed exemption "from justice and compassion".

Cockburn also roundly criticized Janet Reno's unfounded propaganda claim that she had only done it to prevent child abuse:

To call someone a child abuser these days is like calling someone a Communist in the 1950s or a witch in the 17th century. Normal standards of evidence or reason don't apply.

There was compelling evidence, claimed President Clinton's spokesman George Stephanopoulos, that the children were being abused...In fact, the FBI had conceded that there's no evidence for these chilling claims. But child abuse is a headline grabber and conscience-absolver, as Reno knows well from her days as a prosecutor in Dade County.

Alexander Cockburn's noteworthy, heavily documented article then went on to recount several instances in which Janet Reno, as a Miami, Florida prosecutor, had used "children's rights" as a pretext for terrible abuse of judicial restraint. Cockburn further noted that the "appalling event" in Waco "took place on April 19, 1993, the 50th anniversary of the Nazi assault on the Jewish ghetto in Warsaw."

Cockburn wrote that, "The Nazis, too, regarded cults as ripe candidates for persecution. On July 20, 1937, the SS Reichsführer Reinhard Heydrich ordered the banning and persecution of small religious sects."

What happened in Waco, says Cockburn, was "a saga of Nazi-like affront to religious tolerance". Worse, he writes, is that the "deprogrammers" of such unsavory groups as the Cult Awareness Network, who, early on, promoted the government attack on the Davidians, now want the Clinton administration's Janet Reno and her federal prosecutors to let them "exercise their dark arts on the burned Davidian survivors so that they testify correctly and desist from maintaining—as they have—that no mass suicide was under way."

"Onward to Salem: gas, fire, and brainwashing, courtesy of the Justice Department," Cockburn admonished.

ETHNIC CLEANSING: A VULGAR DISPLAY

John Ed Pearce, writing in an Indiana newspaper, The Courier-Journal, branded the Reno atrocity as "Ethnic Cleansing—Texas Style". Pearce sarcastically observed that the feds, who assaulted the Davidians with their tanks and assault rifles, felt they could not let David Koresh keep guns within his compound—not in a place like Texas, "where there are more than four guns to every citizen. It could give the place a bad name."

Janet Reno, Pearce wrote, did not just sit idly by doing her knitting. She:

"...passed the word sternly: Gas 'em...Get this over with. And President Clinton, after being informed of the lethal plans and nodding his approval, wallowed in sorrow, poor fellow, as the flames consumed the cultists (formerly humans). But that's what happens to fanatics, he warned (fanatics being people who believe deeply in things the majority does not believe.)"

Former Waco District Attorney Vic Fazell, who had arrested Koresh several years before the Reno massacre and tried him on state charges (of which Koresh was acquitted by a jury), commented that the siege by Reno and her federal agents "was a vulgar display of power. If they had simply phoned Koresh and talked to him on the phone," said Fazell, "the Davidians would have given them what they wanted."

True, Koresh would have generously allowed the ATF to search his premises, for there were no illegal weapons whatsoever in the compound—no machine guns, no 50 caliber, no Stealth bombers or nuclear weapons. Just a few hundred, regular old rifles and firearms, the same types possessed by millions of other law-abiding Texans. [H: Well, I wouldn't go quite so far as that statement.]

However, to merely search the premises was not what the feds wanted to do! Otherwise, they could have phoned Koresh and then went in unarmed to accomplish their work at the compound.

No, they intended to kill Koresh and his top people. That is why, early that morning, they went in with assault weapons blazing and helicopter gunships overhead firing high-caliber rounds straight through the roof, killing some women and children as they lay peacefully sleeping in bed. That is why they rehearsed and practiced the military-style assault for months on end.

That is why the feds invited some of their friends in the news media to accompany them on their deadly raid. The federal agents were convinced that Koresh and his people, reputed to be peaceful and friendly, would neither struggle nor return their murderous fire. That is why the woman press agent of the ATF, immediately following the initial, failed assault, expressed shock and surprise. "We were outgunned," she said.

Tragically, the tapes of this incident, even after some fancy editing by Janet Reno's storm trooper technicians back in their Washington, D.C., FBI labs, nevertheless still contain this revealing—and heart breaking statement. Koresh's voice is heard as he exclaims:

You brought a bunch of guys out here and you killed some of my children. We told you we wanted to talk...I don't care who they are. Nobody is going to come to my home, with my babies around, shaking guns, without a warrant, in their face. That's just not the American way.

"THAT'S JUST NOT THE AMERICAN WAY"

"That's just not the American way," said David Koresh. What an indictment of the Nazis who raided his home and savagely murdered those poor children! "That's just not the American way." [H: Not so, readers, IT HAS BECOME EXACTLY THE AMERICAN WAY!]

But it is the way of the future, as "pink beret" Janet Reno and the Clinton team consolidate their hold on America and become more and more audacious in their assaults on our liberties and our way of life.

As I write this, the government is preparing a "show trial" of the 12 remaining survivors of Reno and Clinton's Waco massacre.

Stalin and Hitler also had their purges and their show trials of the innocent who had been selected out as examples to instill fear in the masses. If, as citizens, we do nothing to stop this horrible injustice, we are not deserving of the name "Americans". [H: So, we have come full circle.]

Yes, dear reader, you and I are Americans, citizens of a great nation whose Constitution, abused by some in power, is still a living, breathing document guaranteeing individuals and groups of widely divergent views—Christians, the David Koreshes, atheists, Neo-nazis, Jews, New Agers, Black Muslims, and others—freedom and liberty from government tyrants who would oppress them. [H: Want to bet?]

I believe that we must regain our moorings as a Christian nation; yet, as Christians, we do not discriminate nor do we persecute others. [H: I take exception to this statement also—as "Christians" there is more selective persecution than through almost any other RELIGION. It just doesn't show as much.] Moreover, if the government abuses one of us, it abuses all of us. Isn't it time, therefore, that we act like Americans and peacefully, yet with courage and determination, put an end to this oppression?

[END OF QUOTING FROM BIG SISTER IS WATCHING YOU!] We are very appreciative for the allowance to run this portion.

I would like to remind ALL OF YOU that all this cult garbage, political lies and projections under cover of lies—is going to end, ultimately—for it is now the DAY OF THE LORD. Translated that means: There is going to be a lot of answering for a LOT OF THINGS! In the Justice Department—the facing off will be GOD and the enforcers will be His HOSTS. By the way, to ENFORCE DOES NOT MEAN USE OF "FORCE". SO BE IT.

"You brought a bunch of guys out here and you killed some of my children. We told you we wanted to talk...I don't care who they are. Nobody is going to come to my home, with my babies around, shaking guns, without a warrant, in their face. That's just not the American way."

New Gaia Products

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

AQUAGAIA

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, AquaGaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

AquaGaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of AquaGaia, with its assimilatable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

AquaGaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor — it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and AquaGaia, together for storage as the AquaGaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their appointed tasks, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the AquaGaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is completed, and the maintenance level of intake is being followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health. Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes and thus, the cells themselves.

The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as atherosclerosis.

One area of aging research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being by-products of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we are also exposed to significant sources of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and Beta-Carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glytathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-Carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents alone and in combination.

ALOE JUICE(Whole Leaf, Cold Pressed Aloe Vera Concentrate)

Aloe Vera has a long and impressive history that spans hundreds of centuries, countries and cultures, and appears in countless "folk remedies" as a plant revered for its healing qualities.

Aloe Juice is a whole-leaf concentrate prepared from the freshly harvested leaves of the Barbadensis Miller Aloe Vera plant. Aloe Juice guarantees a minimum of 10,000 mg. of mucopolysaccharides per liter.

The nutrients reported in Aloe Vera include mucopolysaccharides and polysaccharides (glucomannans), glycoproteins, glucose, mannose, galactose, xylose, arabinose, tannins, steroids, organic acids, antibiotic principles, glucuronic acids, enzymes (oxidase, catalase and amylase), trace sugars, calcium oxalate, a protein containing 18 amino acids, "wound healing" hormones, biogenic stimulators, saponins, vitamins B1, B2, niacin, B6, choline, folic acid, chloride, sulfate, iron, calcium, copper, sodium, potassium, silicon, manganese, plus many other metabolism-assisting components.

GINKGO BILOBA(Ginkgo Biloba extract, 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS
(with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia).

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.
