Far-Reaching Layers Of Deception & Intrigue Prod Middle East Situation

2/18/98 #1 HATONN

QUESTIONS ARE REAL AND THERE SHOULD BE ANSWERS

To pretend there are no questions when the world is crying out for answers is foolishness. The facts are that, in every instance, you can trace back to source the reasons for the questions in the first place.

If you want to keep minorities in a minority category you have to keep the people in the group from easily reproducing and you MUST keep limits on immigration. Therefore, to increase numbers to become a majority you must have a government with these majority persons in power to be able to discard laws regarding same. The way this is accomplished is to gain CONTROL of the central law-making councils. You cannot have just one or two Islamics, or “a” Catholic, or “an” Asian in a high seat for they cannot accomplish much and will be absorbed and massively influenced by the Democratic RULE of

DEFENDING AMERICA

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Gail Irwin, 2/6/98: [quoting]

"The V Corps Commander, Lt. Gen. John W. Hendrix, has blown the whistle on his own 41,000-man outfit saying it needs 180 days to become battle-ready," says a Pentagon source.

Wait a minute! Hendrix commands one of the U.S. Army's best units which is currently deployed on a red hot mission in Bosnia and is the first to go if trouble strikes anywhere else in Europe, Africa and South West Asia and it ain't ready?

V Corps—whose 1st Armored Division and 1st Mechanized Division whipped Saddam Hussein's Army in less than 100 hours—is supposed to be fit to fight anyplace, anytime, able to roll in a few hours notice.

Brave General Hendrix has told it like it is. A tank leader in Hendrix's outfit says "We're broken. We have been forced to do too much with too little without clear focus for too long."

Only a few months ago V Corps reported, "We're best in the West," but that was under General John Abrams, who's now back in the states being groomed for four stars.

His successor, General Hendrix, after a couple months in the saddle, is saying his active duty corps which costs the taxpayer $207 million a year needs as much time to be combat ready as the Pentagon says a National Guard division needs.

Only a Congressional investigation will reveal when the war-fighting skills of proud combat units in Germany slipped to those of weekend warriors.

These units have been the main ground striking force in Europe for almost 50 years. Their readiness did not suddenly plummet from perfect to horrible in the last six months.

The real issue here that needs immediate investigation is have politically correct senior leaders let combat readiness decline while they were telling Congress their units were ready!

It's been a long time, too, since a senior officer such as Hendrix has had the moral courage to sound off. In my memory only four Army generals since the Korean War have fallen on their swords and put honor over career to tell the truth in matters affecting national security.

They are James Gavin, Henry Emerson, Harold Moore and John Singlaub. All were given the boot. All are in my personal hall of fame.

And now Hendrix. He skips one of the four fighting corps in the U.S. Army, and he's saying: Our military machine is broken.

For two years I've been reporting in this space what your kids have been telling me: Our military aircraft are crashing in record numbers, tanks are falling apart like 1930s Grapes of Wrath trucks, combat units are understrength and not trained for war and ships are sailing with crews that are overworked and understaffed.

Any grunt or junior leader—off the record, of course, from a green replacement to a navy lieutenant to an Army, or Air Force captain will tell you that operational readiness stinks.

Even the mainline media are reporting the story. They're saying things have not been worse since the dark, grim days after Vietnam when our military machine was broken and couldn't even execute a raid to snatch the Iranian hostages without turning it into a bloody disaster.

But still the high brass in the Pentagon and their taxpayer-funded lying spokesmen are insisting all is well. Sadly, even General Henry Shelton, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has bought into this party line.

U.S. News and World Report recently lashed the Pentagon about their sad readiness condition. Shelton responded by saying our forces are good-to-go and "the Pentagon's carefully monitored readiness statistics do not indicate serious degradations in the force."

I could expect such a snow job from someone like Max Taylor, who brought us Vietnam, or Colin Powell, who after Desert Storm didn't bring us the promised snake's head or John Shalikashvili, who brought us our military's current meltdown. But not from a great, straight-shooting warrior such as Green Beret Shelton.

A message to Henry Shelton: Don't believe your briefers or the puffed-up readiness reports. Take off on a recon by yourself and spend a week each on a fighting ship, with a grunt platoon, a fighter squadron and a maintenance unit.

Talk to the Joes and Janes and get the real word. They are the truth.

"So long as the people do not care to exercise their freedom, those who wish to tyrannize will do so. For tyrants are active and ardent, and will devote themselves in the name of any number of gods, religious and otherwise, to put shackles upon sleeping men." —Voltarine de Cleyre [End quoting]

Any country which places the crooks in the high seats of power—as does the U.S.—should be surprised we have any defensive armed force. Being battle ready has less to do with the real agenda than does simply getting our armed forces out of the country.

US STRIKE AT IRAQ WILL EXPLODE THE ARAB WORLD— SELEZNYOV

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 2/12/98: [quoting]

MOSCOW, (Itar-Tass)—"Should the United States bombard Iraq the entire Arab world would explode and terrorism will engulf the planet," Russian State Duma speaker Gennady Seleznyov declared on Wednesday.

Seleznyov, who was talking with journalists, called on the United States "to consider this and take everything into account before taking any action against Iraq".

He stressed that "we are categorically against bombardments of Iraq and we insist on the political settlement of the crisis. [End quoting]

It will sure explode the U.S. also—that's for sure!!

AFTER GUNS ARE GRABBED, WILL FREE SPEECH BE NEXT?

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 2/2/98: [quoting]

"What's wrong with a waiting period before you publish a newspaper while the government checks your facts?"

That question, seen on a button at a science fiction convention, aptly summarizes the position of Kent Hackett, founder and chairman of PressControl, Incorporated (PCI). Hackett promises that PCI's legislative agenda will outshine the presidential election campaign and enact more unprecedented change than the House's Contract with America.

Hackett held a news conference in Washington, D.C. recently in which he and other spokesman for the organization spelled out the proposals they want to see enacted, and the reasons for them. One such item is a Seven-day waiting period between composition of a publication and its release for printing and distribution while a newly established U.S. Bureau of Accuracy, Truthfulness and Factuality (BATF) investigates the assertions contained in it.

"A waiting period on publications would go a long way toward alleviating the damage done by hole-in-the-wall publishers," Hackett says, "and we're confident that the real newspapers and magazines, having as their primary purpose the imparting of accurate information to the public, will have no problem with the proposed law. Only those publishers that routinely spread inaccurate information, untruths and half-truths, and political propaganda in the guise of information, will suffer more than an inconvenience."

The waiting-period legislation, dubbed the Hackett Bill, is only the beginning of the blitz planned for next year. Other proposals include laws to prohibit the use or possession of a printer within 1,000 feet of a school. "Our kids are having a tough enough time being educated without being exposed to pamphleteering by irresponsible people," says Hackett.

Other proposals PCI plans to push through Congress: Registering people who purchase oversized paper trays for laser and ink-jet printers and copiers.

* Restricting licensed persons from owning more than a set maximum number of printers and copiers.

* Blanket authority given to police to conduct unannounced, warrantless searches for unregistered printers, and to maintain close surveillance of persons suspected of using printers to disseminate anti-government propaganda.

* In an ambitious plan that would vastly increase the cost of owning and using a printer, copier, fax machine or computer, a 1,000 percent-surtax on these items and supplies to fund a program for psychiatric counseling for victims of information overload.

A spokesman for the National Printer Association, a leader for the printer industry, criticized PCI's agenda as "doing serious damage to the Constitution and to the personal freedom of every American." The spokesman, claiming that the NPA has more than four million members representing 70 million printer owners across the country added that "the real agenda here is not to resolve any problems arising from the misuse of these items, but to exert control over the thoughts

VIRUS ALERT (THIS IS NO JOKE)!!!!

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Jim Seabourn, 2/14/98: [quoting]

If you receive an e-mail titled "JOIN THE CREW" DO NOT open it. It will erase everything on your hard drive. Forward this letter out to as many people as you can. This is a new, very malicious MACRO virus and not many people know about it. This information was announced yesterday morning from IBM; please share it with everyone that might access the Internet.

Once again, pass this along to EVERYONE in your address book so that this may be stopped. Also, do not open or even look at any mail that says "RETURNED OR UNABLE TO DELIVER".

This virus will attach itself to your computer components and render them useless.

Immediately delete any mail items that say this. AOL has said that this is a very dangerous virus and that there is NO remedy for it at this time.

Please practice cautionary measures and forward this to all users. [End quoting]

Like human viruses, each version that is made is deadlier than the one before.

Re: Secret USAF Space Exploration & Space Plane...

Greetings Jan—

The craft that was observed was rolled out of a hanger that could hold two 707-style tankers. It barely fit into this hanger. It was so big that two tugs were used to tow it out to the tarmac for the launch (which was straight up and silent). The horizontal profile was very thin and it only had two small tailettes. The craft was a very large delta, with another forward delta section for the crew. When launched it rose straight up in pancake fashion, silently and very rapidly. It blew a hole in a thin cloud layer that was over the base at about 1500 feet and did so in about 5 seconds. About 15 seconds after the launch one could hear a distant rumble of thunder.

I have pressed contacts from Washington and they are telling me that it is the X-33. The launch occurred at approximately 10:10 PM February 9, 1996 just in front of the large hanger on the SE portion of the tarmac at McClellan AFB.

NASA was there, having flown in in several planes, including a couple of corporate jets and at least one "guppy" craft. The show was guarded by 8 Marine Harriers, which flew in about mid-afternoon of that Friday. Also, helicopter gun ships cruised the base boundaries.

The craft in Phoenix, according to several eye witnesses that have communicated in private with me, was over a mile in length, which makes it highly unlikely to be ours. It was not a group of craft, or flares, or a flight of anything else. One of the people who viewed it, said that the wing tip came right over his house. —Steve [End quoting] Wouldn't it be interesting to know just how much technology the elite have hidden from us?

COLOR-CODED BEHAVIOR SYSTEM WORKS FINE AT ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, courtesy Norman McLaughlin, 1/22/98: [quoting]

QUESTION: Some time ago you had a column in which an unhappy parent wrote about a school that gave children "colors" for the day's behavior.

This year our school is participating in a new behavior-management system of which a color system is a part. We include lessons so students learn what the proper behaviors are for the classroom and for the school. We also include a review of what the consequences are for breaking the rules. If a child habitually breaks the rules, then the proper behaviors are retaught to that child.

Our system includes seven levels:

Green: having a great day.

Pink: warning.

Yellow: isolation within the room from other students for a time depending on the severity of the behavior.

Orange: no recess.

Purple: The student has to call his/her parent and tell the parent what behaviors prompted the call.

Blue: The student has to see the assistant principal or principal.

White: detention the next day.

We have 830 students in our building. I'm happy to say that only five children have had detention.

We try to build on a child's success. Each child begins each day on green. If a child or a group of children stay on green for a period of time, we reward them. If a child has had problems in the past and works for a short period of time to stay on green, we reward that child and try to increase the time the child stays on green. We try to educate the child and modify the behavior.

We also communicate with parents weekly about their children's behavior.

We feel this program has been very successful. Our teachers have indicated the students are learning proper behaviors and that there are fewer improper behaviors in the classroom. This gives them more time to concentrate on instruction and learning in the content areas.

Parents and even our students like this program.

Yes, there are some parents who are not happy with this system—like the parent who wrote to you. These are the parents who do not give their children the proper direction at home.

We feel that part of instruction in school is learning how to be a responsible citizen—and part of being a responsible citizen is learning how to follow the rules of society.

Mark D. Hudson, principal, Crittenden-Mount Zion Elementary, Dry Ridge, Ky.

ANSWER: Most people in the United States feel that we do need more structure—for our children and for those who work with them. It sounds to me as if your behavior-management system has evolved from a long, caring inquiry into ways to instill values in the children you are in charge of. I like, in particular, how you reach out for parents and include them in your system. Certainly, they are the key to whether any such system works—or not. [End quoting]

What do you think about this??

My thoughts are that the use of colors in this way is quite possibly going to affect these children in a very negative way for the rest of their lives. Why can't they teach them that negative actions have a penalty and the reward for good performance is self dignity, the ability to get a better job, have better living conditions, be able to learn faster, etc.? Of course that's too logical, and the elite can't control logical, well disciplined adults.

ADAPTIVE CHIPS

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, Feb. 1998: [quoting]

Each and every software application on your system has specific needs. Your word processor, for instance, requires only minimal multimedia and computational resources; Web browsers and games, on the other hand, may need a maximum of both.

To help computers allocate resources more efficiently, professors Fadi J. Kurdahi and Nader Bagherzadeh at the University of California, Irvine, are looking into ways to let computer chips change dynamically. "Our approach is to use computer power to make chips extremely flexible, so they can dynamically adapt their structure to each application they run and execute that application as efficiently and as quickly as possible," says Kurdahi. According to Bagherzadeh, the technology should take five years to come to fruition.

Recent advancements in manufacturing processes that have increased the number of transistors per chip are key to the technology. The Pentium II, for instance, has 7.5 million transistors; Intel's next-generation chip Merced will contain nearly 30 million. Kurdahi and Bagherzadeh look to the day when a chip can have 1 billion transistors.

President Clinton recently announced steps to fund this and other university projects to develop so-called billion-transistor chips. "These chips will be no larger than my fingernail, but their computing power will be 25,000 times greater than this entire mainframe computer," he said. Through the Defense Department, the government is supporting this effort to the tune of $14 million. [End quoting]

What a boon this would be if man would only put this computing power into positive service for humans—instead of to increase the killing power of the elite's weapons systems for their depopulation plans.

GORDON B. HINCKLEY TO LEAD US INTO THE NEW WORLD ORDER

From a CONTACT READER, 2/7/98: [quoting]

Back when Bush was President, I think it was some time in 1991, a friend showed me a newspaper clipping from the New York Times. There was a picture of Bush with his arm around the shoulders of Gordon B. Hinckley (who was not President of the Church at that time) [Mormon Church] and the quote was from Bush, "This is the man who will lead us into the New World Order." Unfortunately the clipping was lost and I do not have a copy of it. [End quoting]

Some more evidence of who the hierarchy of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints serve. Remember that Mormon in Japan means devil—consequently the Mormons have to hide this fact over there. Under such circumstances wouldn't you have thought they would have dropped that part of their name a long time ago if it weren't true.

Remember something else and that is evil always has to show or wear a mark of some kind. It is up to us to decipher what it is.

WHITEHIEMERS DISEASE

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

It's a disease that has affected Bill and Hillary Clinton, along with their White House staff, causing memory loss... particularly when questioned. [End quoting]

And all of his so-called friends who are still alive, I might add.

SPELL-CHECKER'S APPROPRIATE CHOICE FOR A MISPELLED WORD

[From Dr. Al:]

When using my word processor's spell-checker last week I had spelled White House [president Clinton's temporary home] Whitehouse. The spell-checker usually gives several alternatives for misspelled words and I burst out laughing when it gave me such an appropriate first choice for the alternatives. The word was WHOREHOUSE—this is no joke.

MEDIA'S WISDOM

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

The mainstream media is telling you that you don't care about Clinton's sexual misconduct, obstruction of justice, breaking of laws concerning campaign financing, possible espionage and association with drug dealers and other felons. They tell you that you need to worry about global warming because the Earth's temperature may rise as much as nine degrees in the next 200 or 300 years unless you stop driving your car. [End quoting]

The elite know how to manipulate most people's reactions to all of their shenanigans and most follow like a trained seal.

CHINESE STRATEGY

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

The Pentagon has translations of Chinese military publications that view the U.S. as "a declining military power" that can be defeated with new technology and "the right strategy". China intends to obtain high-tech knowledge from the U.S. any way they can get it. [End quoting]

All they have to do is put the money on the table and even better—many times—all they have to do is ask our traitorous leaders for it.

NON SEQUITUR / By Wiley

GOP SELLOUT

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

Newt Gingrich (R-GA) and Tom Delay (R-TX) both signed on to HR856 that will allow Puerto Rico to vote in 1998 to become the 51st state. Statehood would almost certainly result in two Democrat senators and with half the island on welfare, it will add another $3 billion to the national budget. It's an issue that's sure to stir the Puerto Rican Liberation Army back into action. [End quoting]

Our government is full of traitors—anything for greed.

RUSSIAN METAL SALES

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

In September the Scientific and Production Center Inor contracted with Iran to provide special metalloids needed for long range missiles. A few weeks later the White House announced that Russia is "responsive" to U.S. concerns about Iran acquiring missile technology... more lies to follow.

When have either side quit lying? [End quoting]

SMART CARD FOR SCHOOLS

Excerpted from THE HERALD JOURNAL, Logan, Utah, letter to the editor, 2/3/98: [quoting]

I am working with a pilot program here in Cache County called "Kids Card". This program is designed to partner parents, schools and local businesses to provide funding for educational programs in the Cache County School District.

Briefly, the Kids Card is a smart card that is provided free to every household. Each applicant can select up to three schools to receive funding from this program. The Kids Card is presented at participating merchants following each purchase. These merchants then send a predetermined percentage of each cardholder's purchase amount to the school(s) of the customer's choice.

The success we have had, so far, can only be attributed to the support of the educators, merchants and parents with whom we are working... —Debbie Ditton, District Coordinator, Kids Card, Logan [End quoting]

The NWO is training the kids (very young) to use their cards—but worse, they are using the kids to intimidate the parents into using them!

GREECE ON CYPRUS

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

Greece is encouraging Russia to sell S-300 missiles to Greek Cypriot forces in Cyprus. This whole issue makes the next 18 months critical. If

Russia and Turkey go to war or if Turkey is neutralized, war in the Mideast between the Arabs and Israel is very likely. [End quoting]

I'm sure the elite who are directing the arming of many nations would deny that they are setting up a war. Russia and China are forces to keep an eye on.

WYOMING AIR NATIONAL GUARD

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

Why did the Wyoming Air National Guard fly to Indonesia to fight forest fires? Three C-130s configured with fire fighting equipment along with a crew of 46 made the trip that was in response to a request from our State Dept. Funding for the operation is a bit unclear, but humanitarian funds from either State or DOD were used.

Also unclear is if the burning forests belong to the Lippo Group. [End quoting]

Certainly it's the best excuse I've heard for them to have been sent over there—especially knowing how ol' Georgie Boy works the money pots of the world for his gain.

GUARD BRIGADES

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

The Army is working on a plan that will integrate the National Guard brigades into active army divisions, placing them under the command of the respective division commanders. The move is to improve the training and readiness of three "enhanced" brigades which must be able to deploy within 90 days. The idea of enhanced brigades was a part of the 1993 Bottom-up Review, which created 10 hollow army divisions and put a "fig leaf" on the "force" state of readiness. [End quoting]

Sounds to me like there is something more sinister to this—like an excuse to ship these trained U.S. troops out of the country so they can't be available when the U.N. troops—already here—start tossing our citizens behind barbed wire and worse!

RUSSIAN/U.S. RESEARCH

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

Several U.S. agencies including DOD are about to fund Russia's biological war program, hoping to turn ongoing research on such deadly viruses as anthrax, ebola and shigella into programs that help world health and at the same time prevent Russian scientists from selling their skill and knowledge to rogue nations. The old Soviet program involved work at, at least, 47 sites. U.S. personnel have visited some facilities like the VECTOR in Siberia, a complex of more than 100 buildings. The Russian's admit they have a strain of the anthrax bacteria that is resistant to known treatment. [End quoting]

One thing you can bet on is that the elite have a cure for this or they wouldn't be playing with this bug.

Don't put anything past these used-car dealers. They'll do anything for a few bucks.

SOVIET SUBMARINE

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

The Povodnaya Lodka B-427 (or Scorpion), a Soviet submarine that was built in 1973, will join the Queen Mary in Long Beach Harbor as a tourist attraction in May 98. [End quoting]

Looks as though they want to add a more Communist atmosphere to the area.

HSIA AND GORE

From MILITARY magazine, 12/97: [quoting]

In 1989, Maria Hsia raised at least $20,000 for Gore at one event and later that year wrote him wanting him to "become one of the senators closest to the Asian-Pacific community". In 1990 Gore sponsored legislation which "benefited her (Hsia) immigration service business", according to a report from Sen. Thompson's committee that looked at campaign finance. [End quoting]

Some more selling of a country and its laws. When will we stop it??

INSIDER'S VIEW OF FREEMASONRY

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, letter to editor, 2/9/98: [quoting]

Congratulations for printing Yorie's article. Perhaps this will expose the darker side of Masonry and cause some people and fellow Masons to rethink their opinions of and membership in this organization much as the murder of Capt. Morgan by fellow Masons in the 1830s for revealing Masonic secrets did.

Blue Lodge Masons and many in higher degrees are not aware of the hidden facets of Freemasonry. A reading of Masonry's major texts, Morals and Dogma by Albert Pike, the leading authority at that time, and Encyclopedia of Freemasonry by Francis Mackey, a 33rd degree Mason, would educate them on the anti-Christian aspects of Masonry.

The "Great Architect of the Universe" and "JBO" are not associated with Christ.

There are many fine books by ex-Masons who became disenchanted with Masonry, which expose the Jewish symbols, influence and control of Freemasonry from its beginning. One excellent primer is The Hidden Power Behind Freemasonry by Lt. Col. (Ret.) Jack Mohr. —Carl Yates, Tahoe City, California [End quoting]

Thank God there are still a few people trying to expose the hidden secret agenda for the Masonic Lodges and those who fall for the scam.

RON BROWN'S ENCOUNTER WITH CLINTON ABOUT INVESTIGATION

From FREE AMERICAN newsmagazine, Feb. 1998: [quoting]

Two weeks before Brown died, he had a meeting with Clinton in the White House, where he told the President of his intentions to cut a plea agreement with the independent counsel that had been investigating him and his son, Michael Brown, for bribery and other offenses. The plea would have meant cooperating to tell everything Brown knew about the scandals. Clinton, according to Hill's account of what Brown told her, reacted with a terse, "that's nice".

Brown's recollection of his encounter with the president in the final days of his life, as related by his trusted friend, Nolanda Hill, is downright chilling. News that Ron Brown was about to turn state's evidence would have, under normal circumstances, sent Clinton flying into a rage. What could explain his placid acceptance of this devastating development? [End quoting]

How about: he knew the order had already been given to eliminate Brown?

ONLY HUMAN?

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Mar./Apr. 1996, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

In the summer of 1976, I was on my way home to Cincinnati from a business trip to Poughkeepsie, N.Y., one day later than planned. My wife was being admitted to the hospital that afternoon for surgery, and I was anxious about getting back.

When I arrived at the ticket counter to board the commuter flight, the agent informed me that I would be responsible for my own bags when I switched planes at Kennedy Airport in New York. I had a suitcase, a briefcase stuffed with manuals and a case of equipment necessary for my job as a service engineer. "What about all this luggage?" I complained. "I'll have only minutes to make my connecting flight."

"The airport bus to your terminal won't be far away," she said.

I boarded the plane, fuming while we taxied the runway. Finally I bowed my head. "Lord, please help me make my connecting flight. My wife is counting on me." I took a deep breath and I tried to relax during the 45-minute trip.

Upon landing, I saw the airport bus in the distance and struggled with my luggage. I can't miss that plane!

"Boss," someone said behind me, "looks like you need help." A skycap! "We'll get you right on the bus," he said, loading his dolly. He rolled it along while I walked gratefully beside him. As he put my bags in the luggage compartment of the bus, I reached for my wallet to tip him and thank him. But when I looked up he was gone.

What happened to that skycap?" I asked the man next to me.

"Skycap?" he said, looking puzzled. "Mister, you came to this bus alone."

Who ever heard of a hardworking skycap disappearing without his tip? That's how I know mine was an angel. —Jim Sutter, Fairfield, Ohio [End quoting]

On “Jews”, Mr. Zipper, And Vince Foster’s Murder

2/19/98 #1 HATONN

THE CURRENT JEWISH QUESTION

Why is there always an assumption that when we speak the word “Jew” that we are being disparaging and/or derogatory? I think the problem comes from the MISUSE of the term otherwise. Just as “Semitic” does NOT mean Jew, neither do I nor all other persons who speak on the subject mean the Jewish people. I am speaking of the New World Order World Controllers who seem to gain control of everything from religions to economics. These plunderers will take property in any way required to gain it. THEY call themselves Jews and therefore I, like most writers, have no other suitable term to affix.

If you are of dark skin you are called Black, if you are pale you are called White, if you are Native you are called Red. NONE OF THE TERMS FIT CORRECTLY, NOR DO THEY EVEN MATCH COLOR—BUT NONETHELESS THESE ARE THE RECOGNIZED TERMS.

Semite includes all of the regional peoples, so how can one group claim that others are anti-IT? These are the very things which divide worlds and disallow harmonious interchange. IGNORANCE is the worst offender of any age.

WE GET INSTRUCTIONS

Oh indeed, we get interesting input on our writings, especially my writings. This is good because we do not write just to exercise fingers. However, readers, you would be most surprised at some of the input. We have one highly respected party from a very well known magazine and paper producer who actually claims we are trying to please such as the Jewish ADL for running their propaganda. That is in response to the Protocols no less.

When you REALLY LOOK at Henry Ford’s writings you will note that they are observations after researching historical happenings, and from that “he” formed conclusions, nothing more.

What we always aim to achieve is to make people think, wake up to the moment, and see what is happening to the very things you CLAIM to hold dear and, then if and when appropriate, when things are NOT RIGHT, act accordingly. Yesterday you witnessed three Jewish high, high-level Administrators face a roomful of PEOPLE in Ohio. The whole staged plan was to gather with syrup the masses to the notion of bombing to hell Saddam Hussein’s innocent citizens. It did NOT go well and one young man, bravely, after having his microphone cut off, said it was a staged CNN show for disinformation and he objected. Well, so many objected that the speakers could not speak. Will it make a difference? Yes, they won’t do that again unless they have prescreened attendees better.

The whole thing reminds me of Janet Reno’s reason for burning up so many people in David Koresh’s home, including all those babies and children—with their Mothers. It was to keep Koresh from “abusing” the children. Well, it is true, he can’t abuse THOSE children any more or ever.

I do find myself pondering on just how many CITIZENS would line up in front of Mr. Zipper and these “Jack the Rippers” to save their lives. There are THOUSANDS and THOUSANDS of Iraqi citizens ready TO DIE before you can get to Saddam. Is something wrong with this picture?

What happens to a nation when the GREAT IDEALS are gone? ANARCHY! But the idea that change must come from Combat Revolution is also a misdirection of reason and logic.

It reminds me of the mentality of those who killed “Indians”, which is not even the Native American’s name. Whole tribes were wiped out like ants (and I don’t even condone wiping out ants, for they have a purpose) with a flip of the hand and “they’re only INDIANS”. So, in Iraq, “they’re only Moslems”. Well, just as with the ants you invade—they will struggle until they can sting you to death—count on it. And people: IF YOU BUILD YOUR WOODEN HOUSE ON A TERMITE HILL—EXPECT TO HAVE TERMITES. IF YOU BUILD YOUR HOUSE ON FILL-DIRT OVERLOOKING THE “GRAND VIEW” OF THE OCEAN—EXPECT IT TO SLIDE INTO THE SEA WHEN THE STORMS COME! But of the ones needing help, just WHO do you think will get the most assistance from

Visible “Jews” In The Clinton Administration

2/19/98 #2 HATONN

JEWS IN THE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION

We are accused of being unkind to the “poor poverty-stricken and underling” Jewish people. (????) Has everyone gone insane? The Jews have taken control of your government—is THAT being poverty-stricken and underlings? I cannot imagine how any one group of people have been so clearly SUCCESSFUL. Is THAT an insult? HOW SO?

Brent M. was looking through some information on the Internet and sent us the following list of JUST-the-IMMEDIATE-administration Clinton people. There is no “lower-staff” listed and, of course, ONLY immediate administration personnel. These are the ones who RUN your GOVERNMENT—Clinton is actually A FIGUREHEAD. He is THE NATURAL CITIZEN that allows ALL THE OTHER FOREIGNERS INTO THE RUNNING OF THE GOVERNMENT!: (Let it be further understood that there are plenty of OTHERS but they have used new names and hide identity, i.e., Reno, McCurry, et al.)

ZIPPER UPDATE

And Monica Lewinsky? Why doesn't someone tell the media and poor Gerry Spence WHY THE INTERROGATION OF MONICA'S MOTHER? It is not over a bit of sex in the oval office; it is about hundreds of thousands of dollars in contributions from Father and Grandfather Lewinsky. Even our good old buddy, Gerry, acts as if DAYS of grilling the "mother" "Lewis" is about the "Big Creep". NO, it is about bribery, corruption and crimes in the White House on up and down. Monica's family bought and paid for her place in the White House, Pentagon, and for Job placements, so who is kidding who? Moreover, THAT is the important "side chatter" ON THOSE TRIPP TAPES that matters.

MORE ZIPPER UPDATE? (Never mind Linda Tripp-up)

Most people read the findings of Mr. Starr and dropped the thought of problems of Mr. Foster. He went forth and suicided himself, it was decided BY MR. STARR. Well, who cares WHO decided to ignore the facts. The subject only pops in now when you mention Ms. Tripp was the last to see Foster "alive". Well, she worked in or around his office so what might you expect? Nonetheless, some observations continue to be made by astute writers who would like some JUSTICE out of this UNJUST SYSTEM. Vince Foster was murdered. In NEW AMERICAN, March 2, 1998, Vol. 14, No. 5, pp 31-32 is a most interesting article.

The article itself is by William P. Hoar and is a review of Mr. Christopher Ruddy's book for which I will give information:

There is a page or so missing from the FAX papers, but I think you get the picture.

AND, DEAR ONES, HOW MANY DO YOU THINK ARE ATTORNEYS OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION?

Does this really appear to be a hard-luck grouping of people, whether it be from race, creed, religion, or what? EVERY major world CORPORATION is headed by these same groups of people. Does this really indicate an ABUSE of their rights?

From the U.S. alone, Israel gets $3 BILLION annually in CASH from you in the U.S., and now that has been extended to $6 BILLION in outright payments for NOTHING. Then if you have a skirmish—they get another $10 BILLION for inconvenience, and whammo—you spend a lot on Jews, it seems to me, while your Blacks are underpaid, under-employed, and your White population has become a religious minority of false "christians".

There are more "victims" of the Holocaust RECEIVING PAYMENTS FROM SUCH AS GERMANY, RUSSIA AND YOU, U.S., THAN THERE WERE JEWS IN EUROPE AT THE TIME OF WORLD WAR II. ANYTHING WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

Are FACTS so hard to take, citizens? You allow to immigrate the highest level of controllers right out of foreign lands and into your government controlling offices and yet you have no compassion in separating a child from his mother to deport hungry Hispanics back to Mexico. Is THIS THE AMERICAN "Liberty and Justice for All"?

It seems to me, friends, that this is the most successful, whining, "abused" group of people on the face of the globe. ~~✱~~

According to the Washington Post, author Christopher Ruddy is the White House's new "Media Enemy No. 1." This honorable distinction comes as a result of Ruddy's reports on the deaths of deputy counsel and Clinton intimate Vincent Foster and, more recently, former Commerce Secretary Ron Brown. Before a national television audience not long ago, White House press secretary Mike McCurry questioned whether Ruddy should even be called a journalist, claiming that he writes "in a very vituperative fashion". [H: Hummn, same complaints run rampant about us.] McCurry went on to blast Ruddy for using his personal view in ways "that border on hate". [H: Now isn't that typical of the hounds with which we deal at the top? An opinion that "borders on hate"? Well, Mr. McCurry (not his original name) is making some pretty significant bloopers himself lately.]

From the furious White House attacks on Ruddy, one would assume him to be a slashing, sneering polemical hack, belligerent to the truth, splenetic, and choleric to the core. Not so. A touch of the routinely measured and constrained nature of his work may be seen in an earlier interview in this (New American) magazine (December 23, 1996 issue). Well, someone might say, perhaps he is personally well-mannered, but that doesn't mean he couldn't be a hate monger, as the President's spokesman suggests. In other words, The Strange Death of Vincent Foster could be simply a collection of lies and half-truths designed solely to embarrass the White House. A perusal of the book quickly puts that notion to rest.

What Ruddy does, and does well, is to point out the parade of errors, misstatements, and seemingly deliberate oversights that occurred following Foster's death in July 1993. This he does with deliberate understatement, buttressed by good, old-fashioned reporting. No, he doesn't say Foster was murdered or posit some mad conspiracy run by President Clinton down through the entire Park Police and medical examiner. But he does lay out hundreds of pages of evidence, concluding his treatise by speculating that Fort Marcy Park, where Foster's body was discovered, "may yet become the symbol of a cover-up conducted by people who have, with the help of the press, placed themselves above the law."

For his troubles, Ruddy has not only been maligned by the Clintonite left, but his book has even been panned in several supposedly conservative journals, by those who are ever quick to quash any hint of conspiracy in public life. [H: I wonder how they describe our Journals and paper? Are we "conservative"? Liberal? Conspirators? Left? Right? Does anyone even know what these terms mean? Absolutely NOTHING; they are terms like "weapons of mass destruction" that are used over and over again until there IS NO MEANING.]

The way to judge Ruddy's book is fundamental: Read it. If, after viewing the facts he carefully outlines, you don't believe there has been an obstruction of justice and a cover-up, please send your name to those raising legal FUNDS for Bill and Hillary so you can be put on their mailing list.

SKEPTICAL OF OFFICIAL FINDINGS

Unless you have followed events closely, you probably didn't know that Miguel Rodriguez [H:

WHO?], independent counsel Kenneth Starr's lead prosecutor on Foster's death, left for ethical reasons over the way the probe was being handled. The coverage of the event was minimal. Can you imagine the contrasting uproar if a comparable figure had left, say, the Iran-Contra probe because it wasn't being carried out in good faith?

Sure, the Park Police, Robert Fiske's investigation, and Kenneth Starr's report all assert that Foster simply killed himself. But many other knowledgeable observers are not buying that story. This includes the experts who concluded that Foster's "suicide note" was a forgery. Other skeptics include police homicide experts who determined that Vince Foster's body had been moved to Fort Marcy Park after his death. Ruddy, who is a correspondent with the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review and a media fellow at Stanford's Hoover Institute, doesn't make this up, but merely takes note of it.

Crucial questions remain unanswered: Where is the bullet that killed Foster? Where are Foster's fingerprints if he used the gun at the scene to kill himself? Why were there no fingerprints (Foster's or those of others known to have handled the paper) on the torn-up "suicide note"? How did the note come to be in the briefcase many days after it was thoroughly searched—conveniently just when serious doubts about the violent death were beginning to be aired? Why were witnesses badgered into altering their stories to fit the pre-determined tale? Why, if Foster walked for a distance over the park grounds on that summer day, was there no soil found on his shoes? Why, on the other hand, were there so many carpet fibers on his pant legs, and why were they not checked against the locales where they were said to originate?

Why is there so much evidence that the body was moved after death? What happened during the many unaccounted hours after Foster left the White House until his body was discovered? Why would the Fiske report state that the White House deputy counsel had lost weight, when the doctor's records indicate he had actually gained several pounds? If the White House really wanted to get to the bottom of all of this, why did its personnel rush to Foster's office and make off with Foster's files, then impede the investigation from the beginning? [H: By the way, Tripp is taking a bad bashing and why might that be? Well, she was called to testify in the Foster matter and had to, under oath, tell the truth about things. She KNEW those files just mentioned were immediately CARTED OFF TO THE WHITE HOUSE CLINTON PRIVATE QUARTERS. Don't you like the way the press says: After all, this is not murder (a bit of zipper problems in the Oval Office) or something serious. Well, what happened when there WAS MURDER AND "SOMETHING" SERIOUS? And moreover, there was NOT enough evidence

LEFT WHOLE to PROVE BEYOND A SHADOW OF A DOUBT that Foster was murdered. THAT must be proven by prosecutors, readers, in a court of law.]

Here's a question with an answer: Who was it that called the Rose Law Firm in Little Rock—where Hillary Clinton, Foster, and others had held sway before coming to Washington—to talk about the death. This person, on the evening of the death, told a Rose attorney: "Don't believe a word you hear. It was NOT suicide. It couldn't have been."

The answer: Then-Associate Attorney General WEBB HUBBELL made those remarks. He and others close to Foster obviously feared foul play had occurred. Hubbell later changed his tune over this—much as he did after he unguardedly admitted that he had noted no evidence of changes in Foster's behavior or appearance, nor was he aware that Foster was "experiencing any type of stress". Yet Hubbell would later testify before a Senate committee that "we were all concerned. Vince had lost weight, had seemed to be depressed." The contradiction went unremarked by the senators. Ruddy, however, took notice.

[H: I also take notice. The facts are that Foster did a courier run regularly to Switzerland to attend, at the least, Hillary's accounts in the foreign banks protected from publicity. You will note that within this month SHE had to make a trip (business of course—all first ladies attend foreign council meetings) to SWITZERLAND. She is having to check on and work out a way to get funds for fighting these growing and expensive legal battles. What they dig up THIS TIME could bury them all in prison or have them shot for criminal reasons and treason. This is why Starr keeps going back to Little Rock—not to check out the length of the dress "gift" for Ms. Monica. The target on Starr's back must make his neck itch and I would keep a lot of bodyguards if I were he.]

SLIPSHOD OR WORSE?

The riddles surrounding Foster's death were numerous; so, too, were the discrepancies in the various subsequent probes. The autopsy procedures were, at the very least, careless and inadequate. Crucial X-rays are missing. Key photographs somehow disappeared. The evidence about a possible second wound might have been cleared up by a second autopsy—but it didn't occur. The Strange Death of Vincent Foster sheds enough light on the subject to make you wonder what the proper procedures might have revealed.

Similar doubts were expressed by independent police investigators, who examined the evidence and presented their findings to reporters in Washington, DC (though most ignored or played down the results). Sure, acknowledged the detectives, odd things do happen. Nevertheless, as Ruddy summarized their incredulity over the gun: "It could not be identified by Foster's family as having been owned by Foster; it was an antique gun made from the parts of two or more weapons with no less than two serial numbers traceable to 1913; it had only two bullets in its cylinder (one spent, the other unfired), yet no matching ammunition could be found in the Foster homes; it was found, unusually, in his hand yet with none of his fingerprints and no blood visible on the barrel; no one heard the gunshot; and the powder burns of Foster's hand challenged the idea that he even fired the weapon." [H: There was another BIG problem. There was only one spent bullet—but there WERE AT LEAST TWO BULLET WOUNDS! That takes some effort and the help of a ghost-shooter.]

Among the false assertions in the Fiske report was that "everyone known to have been in Fort Marcy Park on the afternoon or evening of July 20, 1993, also was questioned." As Ruddy explains in detail, there were at least five people whom Fiske did not even identify, let alone interview, among the dozen or more individuals known to have been in the park on the night of the death. [H: Still think nothing important might have been said in the Monica tapes? You know, something like "Talkers and tattlers end up Fostered". Just a thought!]

THE STARR REPORT

[H: One thing about Starr: the White House should never have gone to WAR with Mr. Starr because the way it is now arranged it is either Starr or Clintons and either place is a very hard place upon which to sit. And readers, DO NOT OVERLOOK THE POTENTIAL OF BUTTERFLIES AND PROMISES AND SLAVES AND TRANCE FORMATION OF AMERICA!]

The independent counsel's report, prepared because of the many problems with the Fiske report, was seemingly forever on the verge of being released. Leaked press accounts repeatedly said

Kenneth Starr had concluded that Foster had killed himself and that Starr would make public his proofs soon. The inquiry lasted almost three years and cost some $30 million. The publication date for The Strange Death of Vincent Foster was September 22, 1997, and it began to cause waves at once. In short order, the Starr report was issued in the second week of October.

The Starr report is filled with changes in testimony and evidence that attempt to bolster the suicide findings. Yet, as noted by Phil Weiss, a liberal reporter who followed the case closely, those who put together the report were "dishonest" and produced, in toto, a work that was "unbelievable".

Ruddy remains unconvinced, to say the least. Indeed, Ruddy says the Starr report actually proves to him “that a cover-up of significant proportion has taken place involving Vincent Foster’s death.” Ruddy, lest there be any misunderstanding, also emphasizes that he does not believe independent counsel Kenneth Starr was “in a ‘conspiracy’ with the White House”.

Foster: Evidence of suicide is weak.

AP/Wide World

But the independent counsel, comments Ruddy, “has been busy making over $1 million a year at his private law firm, leaving the inquiry in the hands of prosecutors who are White House cronies (Mark Tuohey) and career Justice Department people.” As Starr’s Washington deputy, liberal Democrat Tuohey was friendly with top members of the Clinton Justice Department (even hosting a party for Janet Reno) and was seen socializing with such interested parties as Webb Hubbell.

The FBI, Ruddy writes, “has played a leading role in the inquiry, and despite the fact its involvement was ‘compromised from the beginning’, as former director William Sessions has alleged, Starr, over the objections of prosecutor [Miguel] Rodriguez, allowed the FBI to essentially control the inquiry. The Starr report is disturbing because it indicates just how thoroughly the FBI has been controlled and politicized...”

The independent counsel’s report, continues Ruddy, is also “frightening”. After all, he says, a “high official dies under suspicious and violent circumstances but the press has paid little attention to the overwhelming evidence of wrongdoing that has been unearthed in previous inquiries. Now much of that evidence has simply been changed or altered and no one has paid much attention to that either.”

If you want to know why the author is considered such an enemy by the Clinton team, buy and read The Strange Death of Vincent Foster. There is a down side, however. After so doing, you, too, will feel even more uncomfortable about the folks in and around the White House. REVIEW: WILLIAM P. HOAR.

[END OF QUOTING]

Outrageous? Indeed! So what else is new in your world today?

I am reminded that continually LaRouche complains that “my enemies are the SAME ones who are out to get Clinton...”. Oh? And why would that be, Mr. LaRouche? Could you possibly be Referring to Bush, Kissinger, et al.? Wow.

PRINCESS DI

While speaking of murders, let us consider—AGAIN—the murder of Dodi and Di.

Just some questions to remind you there ARE things you haven’t thought about and probably neither has Daddy al Fayed. Why was Mr. Jones the ONLY one in the car with a seat belt on? WHO DROPPED THE “MICKEY” IN MR. PAUL’S DRINK? If you can’t believe this then where are you on the topic of Date Rape and Ruffies? Come on people, you-the-people are not THAT asleep. Why has Mr. Jones joined the “adversaries” to sue Mohammed? And why does Mr. Jones have bodyguards and keep as far removed and retired as is possible? Conspiracy? It is so obvious how and who that I marvel at your sleepy observations of chanting the Rose of London without doing anything about the killers of that ROSE. Di was going to marry Dodi and BECOME A MOSLEM! Can you imagine what that would do to the CROWN OF ENGLAND? Does anyone remember that Royal Church of England where even the priests wear the coat of arms of the Windsors? And, while YOU mourn and play with Billy’s zipper—the culprits GET AWAY WITH THE CRIME.

Now, I’ve done it: I’ve ruined your day? Why didn’t I just keep talking about the Jews and let the guilty get away? Because I am weary of God’s people being unconscious.

BOMBING IRAQ IS MURDER IN THE WORST DEGREE! DOES ANYBODY HEAR ME? THIS IS INTENTIONAL MURDER OF WOMEN, CHILDREN AND CITIZENS OF A FOREIGN COUNTRY, WITH NO PICK OTHER THAN WITH THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND BRITAIN OVER “OIL” AND INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE AGAINST YOUR POLITICAL AND MILITARY HIERARCHY WEARING THOSE ADORATION CROWNS YOU PUT ON THEIR HEADS FOR THE LAST MASSACRE YOU PULLED OFF IN THE GULF MIDDLE EAST AGAINST IRAQ. GOOD FOR OHIO STATE AND SHAME ON YOU WHO MONGER FOR WAR!

GOD BLESS KOFI ANAN.

The Checkerboard Of Aton

2/19/98 NORA BOYLES

Supplement to Article Titled
"Father God (Bel) And Aton Known in Early America"

The December 9, 1997 issue of CONTACT newspaper carried my article titled: Father God (Bel) And Aton Known In Early America. In that article I had hoped to show some pictures of the hieroglyph or symbol used by Egyptians, the Micmac Indians of Canada, Bronze Age Celts in North America and many early Europeans. Unfortunately, space did not allow for this so I am adding more information on this hieroglyph, the Checkerboard of Aton, in this supplement to complete the article.

I believe the widespread use of this hieroglyph and other symbols, such as the Eye of Bel, by various early cultures shows a basic agreement and continuity in beliefs, understanding and worship from the prehistoric worshippers of Bel (translated as God) down to the time of God Aton, known to Egyptians through the teachings of Akhenaton from 1355 to 1325 B.C., and later among the Celts, Micmac Indians and others in early America.

Remember that Hatonn has stated that His name is 'Aton', and that one of His earlier names was "Bel". The name "Bel" is said to have been a generic name for God in ancient Babylon. It was translated as "God" in the Old Testament instead of "Bel"—a word now known as "Baal" and used to identify the multiple statues (idols)

Symbols of Sun worship—Throughout all phases of the Bronze Age in Europe, worship of the Sun was a conspicuous religious trait, and sites where solar worship occurred were indicated by esoteric engraved or painted signs, especially the rotula or Sun-wheel, and a checkerboard or sometimes ladderlike symbol, perhaps signifying a sundial. Examples shown here are: (a) from Serrazes, San Pedro do Sul, Portugal; (b,c) southern Italy; (d) an amulet from Tarentum, southern Italy; (e) detail from an amulet, Naples, Italy; (f) La Vaux, Brittany, engraved monoliths; (g) southern Italy, (a, after Rodrigues; others from Dechelette)

Symbols of Sun worship—In 1975 Fell was taken to see inscriptions on rocks near South Royalton, Vermont, which Byron Dix, an astronomer, had identified as marker stones used by some ancient people as calendar regulators, corresponding to sunrise and sunset directions on particular days of the year, namely the solstices and equinoxes. The signs were at once identified as Bronze Age solar symbols, and associated Ogam of the Iberian type showed that the inscriptions were the work of Bronze-Age Celts of Iberian origin. Photographs by Peter J. Garfall from casts prepared by Fell.

of Semitic people, including the Phoenicians.

Following is a partial listing of a comparative table of meanings, Micmac words and Egyptian words, as found in the book America, B.C., by Barry Fell. You will see that the Checkerboard hieroglyph is identical to the foregoing Celtic Ogam symbols found in Bronze Age New England archeological sites and in Europe.

Barry Fell, together with James Whittall, has prepared a Proposed Correlation Of North American And European Sequences chart, which is prominently displayed at the front and back of the book, America, B.C. This chart shows the Atlantic Bronze Age Ogam script and Sun worship dating from 1500 to 500 B.C.; the first deliberate voyages to America beginning 1000 B.C.; the Celtiberian culture, Ogam script and Sun observatories

It now became the most powerful authority in Europe and any Sun worship was now called "paganism" or "hearsay". It was the Catholic monasteries that now became the primary repositories of writing skills and knowledge for many centuries. It is certainly most likely that the Catholic Church, from which much of the earlier interpretation of Celtic-Iberian (Ogam) script arose, was aware of the settlers from the countries in North America long before "Columbus sailed the ocean blue". Columbus' voyage was arranged by Catholic monarchs of Spain, King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella, at a time when the monarchs of Europe were approved by the Catholic Church. Some of America's "lost" history may indeed be secreted in those suppressed archives of the Roman Catholic Church.

Meaning	Micmac	Egyptian
sun grid (sign found on lintels of sun temples of New England) sun, same word also used for moon	kisus	k-o-h-w "radiant" s-s-w "disk" to rise (used of the sun)	waban	w-b-n eclipse, to be eclipsed	sokwet	s-k-t-t "night-bark of the sun" sky, vault of heaven	muskun	m-s-kh-n "abode of the gods"

Symbols of Sun worship—The New England Sun symbols were thickly overgrown by lichen when discovered, a fact that disproves claims that we were forging the inscriptions. Inscriptions of a like nature were later found elsewhere in New England, as exemplified by one from Raymond, New Hampshire. In contrast to local attitudes, Portuguese archeologists were quick to recognize the correspondence of the American and Iberian material when it was drawn to their attention. Like the Iberian inscriptions, these American examples are to be dated to the late Bronze Age on account of the associated Ogam and Punic inscriptions. Fell and Pter J. Garfall dating from about 800 B.C. to the turn of the first century A.D., when the Roman Calendar was used in New England. Voyages to North America cease after the fall of Rome and the rise of the Vandals, around 500 A.D. Viking voyages began about 800 A.D. and continued through 1400 A.D. Columbus rediscovers the new world in 1492 and the Arabs are expelled from Spain. There is widespread loss of writing skills, but local survivals of ancient literacy from 1500 A.D. (I highly recommend that you read America, B.C.)

You may recall that while the Old Roman Empire ceased, the Roman Catholic Church did not.

The Worldline Heptameron

AN UNCENSORED HISTORY OF OUR ORIGINS AND OVERLORDS

PART III IN A SERIES

Editor's note: The following continues the new series from Calvin Burgin; as he explains in a footnote, Heptameron means: Heptameron (hep-tam'-e-rön): "a book or treatise containing the actions of seven days, in the style of Boccaccio's Decameron or the Heptameron of Queen Margaret of Navarre (1492-1549)."

Who Was Anu?

The Encyclopedia Britannica says that Anu was a Babylonian deity that was regarded as the father and king of the gods.

Zecharia Sitchin can read the ancient clay tablets and has written a popular series of books on what he believes the tablets to say. In The 12th Planet, page 89 (Avon Books), he says: "The head of this family of Gods of Heaven and Earth was AN (or Anu in the Babylonian/Assyrian texts). His wife was ANTU and great-granddaughter was IN.ANNA." On page 69, Sitchin tells of the story of Anu being castrated by Kumarbi.

Anu's eldest son was EN.LIL (p. 95). Enlil erected Nippur (also known as Kharsag) as his city (p. 96). Enlil selected the kings who were to rule over Mankind (p. 98) and Sitchin quoted a writing of Hammurabi which says: "Anu and Enlil named me to promote the welfare of the people...to cause justice to prevail in the land" (p.99). Enlil was in charge of agriculture and first provided cereals and grains, including a mystery grain called Spelt (p. 414).

The third son of Anu was E.A, also known as EN.KI. Enki said "When I approached the land, there was much flooding" (p. 101). Both Enki and Enlil claimed to be the first born. Ea or Enki was known as "a mighty hunter, a fighting god renowned for his martial abilities" (p. 107). The English-Sumerian Dictionary by Adapa says that Enki was a Serpent God.

In the ancient languages, the pictogram which represented water was a wavy line. A small part of the wavy line became our letter N and N represented the name of Noah. Vowels were not written at first, but when they were added N became Nu, No or Noe as it is in the New Testament (Greek) which meant Noah. Ancient languages were read from right to left. A-Nu meant "the Nu" or Noah. "No-ah" meant "the No". Anu is simply Noah read backwards. They were originally exactly the same word. Sitchin explains the principle on page 317: "According to Sumerian grammatical rules, either of two syllables of any term could precede the other without changing the word's meaning, with the result that AB.ZU and ZU.AB meant the same thing."

"A" is simply the particle "the" in some ancient languages, but in an older form it meant "water". The English-Sumerian Dictionary by Adapa on the Internet (<http://web2.airmail.net/apkallu7/uzdict.html>) says that "water" is "A". A-NU therefore was WATER-NOAH or Noah of the Water. Was Noah a cetacean?

In Genesis 9:20, Noah became a husbandman, in charge of agriculture.

Who Was Menu?

The following is a quote (minus the Hebrew characters) from Godfrey Higgins about the demi-god in India called Menu: "In the Hindoo mythology we meet with a very important personage, called Menu. He is allowed to be identical with Buddha, and with the Sun, and to be surnamed Son of the Self-existent, or, in other words, Son of God. The word Menu signifies mind or understanding, and is closely connected with the idea of wisdom. It is, in short, but another epithet for Buddha [he explains this connection elsewhere]. This root is closely allied to the root MNR [Hebrew], whence comes the Minerva of the Greeks, and the English word man, and the Latin words MENS mind, memini to remember, and the Sanscrit man or men, to think...Numa of the Romans...read from right to left it is Manu."

In another paragraph he says: "Menu was maintained by Sir W. Jones to be the NH, or, as we call him, the Noah of Genesis." Higgins has several pages of many details showing that the Sanscrit Menu was the Biblical Noah. On page 649 of Volume 1, he says: "Among the Jews and among the Indians, Rama was also known by the name of Menu and Noah. The striking similarity of Noah to Janus has been remarked, and their [common] identity, in fact, admitted by every person who has written upon these subjects. The proofs of it to any person of observation have been exhibited a thousand times in the course of this work." Read his work and you will see that he is not exaggerating.

Higgins points out that Menu and Nume were the same original word (p. 212, Vol. II).

Who Was Menes?

Menes was the first ruler of Egypt, per the Egyptian historian Manetho. The original languages did not use vowels, so the name was MN and could be written Mana, Manu, Menu, etc. Gods of the Cataclysm by Hugh Fox, p. 202, says that "min" was a word for "king". Have you ever heard of a Min-Noahn civilization in ancient times (usually called Minoan)? The History of Egypt by Sir Flinders Petrie says: "The oldest statues of gods (in Egypt) are three gigantic limestone figures of Min at Koptos." L. A. Waddell says: "This god 'Min' would now appear to be either the deified Menes himself or more probably Min or Man, the twin Sun-gods of the Sumerians, Aryans and Phoenicians" (The Makers of Civilization, p. 277).

Godfrey Higgins, in Anacaplysis, p. I-333, says that Minos of Crete [home of the Minotaur] was "same as the lawgiver of India, called Menu, and as the first king and lawgiver of Egypt, Menes." Higgins shows that Menu (p.234) was identical with Buddha, and that Sanscrit Menu, Greek Noos, and Hebrew NH or Noah are all the same word, and from it we derive our words mind, the Latin "mens" [from which the organization Mensa is named], man, mankind, etc. Noah is Noe in the KJV New Testament. Armenia, where Mt. Ararat is located, is from Ar or Har Meniyah or Ar-mene-ia which means the mountain (Ar or Har, as in Ar-Megiddo) of Menes or country of Noah. The Menu of the Hindoos is the Mahabad or Great Bud of the Buddhists, and the goddess Minerva comes from the same base word. In the Hindoo system there are said to be 14 Menus, the last of whom was during the Flood, and from this list we get our usage of the word menu to mean a list. Faber, in Origins of Pagan Idolatry, p. 118, written about 1800, says the first Brahmin Menu with his three sons was Adam with his three sons Cain, Abel, and Seth, "But the ark-preserved Menu-Satyavrata and his triple offspring—Sama, Cama, and Pra-Japati, are certainly Noah and his three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japhet." It should be no surprise that the Brahmins (Brah-mins) tell of Noah, as they were descended from or named from Abram (A-bram). Books have been written showing that all cultures world-wide trace back to a tradition of their survival through a Flood in an ark, and when you understand that back then all the languages were basically the same, when you are researching a name and want to know more you can sometimes switch to a different country and find the same person with a slightly different name.

“...Diodorus makes the first king of Egypt, Menas, or Menes, to reign at Thebes, not at Memphis.... Thus Menes is found as first king at Thebes and at Memphis; in Crete, by the name of Minos, and in India as Menu.... Of the Theban kings Eratosthenes says, The first who reigned was Mines the Thebinite...”

The name Menes is used by the historians for the first king of Egypt, but Menes is a Greek name. The actual Egyptian transliterates to MN which can be translated as Min-Nu, Men-nu, Min-No, etc. and means the King No or Wise No. Other Egyptian names were Men-cheres, Menthusuphis, Menkaure, Mentuhotpe, etc. It is probable that “mon-arch” (MN-arch) traces to Menes, the first king, the first king from the ark.

Not only are there three statues of Noah in Egypt, but James Henry Breasted, in A History of the Ancient Egyptians, p. 40 (Vol V.), says Menes was “buried in Upper Egypt, either at Abydos near his native Thinis, or some distance above it near the modern village of Negadeh, where a large brick tomb, probably his, still survives. In it and similar tombs of his successors at Abydos written monuments of his reign have been found, and even a golden fragment of his royal adornments, bearing his name, which this ancient founder of the Egyptian state wore upon his person.” Can you believe that a fragment of Noah’s garment exists! Min, Menes, Menu are merely variant spellings of the original MN, which should be translated Min Nu or King Noah.

Higgins says, p. 649, “Among the Jews and among the Indians, Rama was also known by the name of Menes and Noah.” He quotes Payne Knight who says that Ramases was the Egyptian equivalent of Rama-Isi (Knight wrote in 1786).

Most of the reference books will say that Menes is given credit for being the first to unify Egypt. Yet some of them will also say something like this quote from Donald Corville (The Exodus Problem): “Eusebius states that the reign of Mena, the first king of the First Dynasty, was preceded by the reign of 10 kings of Thinis.” The historians arrange these 10 kings to reign in sequence, but if they reigned in sequence, then from what was Egypt unified under Menes? The Bible has the answer—the ten kings before Menes were the ten kings from Adam to Noah (Adam, Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, Noah) before the Flood, with the pre-Flood reign of Noah being the tenth. Then Noah became the first after the Flood, the first in another line of ten kings that ended with Abraham.

Some records say that Narmer was first king of the First Dynasty, and a remarkable stone palette of Narmer has been found. Unless I find more information, I believe at this point that Narmer was Noah. Some say he was probably Nimrod.

P. 713, Higgins says [Latin and old spelling copied] “A little consideration will serve to shew that in every case Menu has a reference to mind, to understanding, to wisdom. Here we at last come to the origin of the word Man and Homo, hominis and Nemo, neminis, i.e., ne-homo. Man is the Mn of Om homan, or human. Inhuman is the negative of human. The Mend of Persia is Mndi, holy Mn, Om-mannus, mind of Om. In Irish, Om means man, Omon a human. Vossius, Scaliger, and others, derive the Amanus or Omanos of the Persians from HUM, Chom, Calor; unde HME, Sol et Ignis. There can be no doubt that they are the same words.... A prophet in India is called muni or wise man. This seem to be the same as Menu. And hence, I think, has come our Nh mind, the son of the Muni.... Mannus a man, name of Noah. Mind and Man were, in fact the same.... From this root comes Mana, mens, mind.” Also Nemo, of the Nautilus.

Berosus called Noah “Sagan Ogygisian”, sagan means wise man, and the Deluge of Ogyges is another name for the Flood. The Roman historian Varro said the flood of Ogyges took place 400 years before Inachus; however, Inachus means Noah and son of Noah. It is also another name for Bacchus. Four hundred years after the Flood would bring us to the time of Abraham. Bacchus was another name for Noah, for Nimrod, Buddha, etc., AND FOR BRAMHA. Another name for Abram was Brahma, in fact it is the same name (A-bram and Bram-a). The priests and historians have ignorantly, or purposely, confused the true history. Once you get on the right track, and stay on it, the pieces will fall into place and reinforce each other, and will affirm that the Bible is at least partially accurate.

L. A. Waddell, in Egyptian Civilization Its Sumerian Origin & Real Chronology and Sumerian Origin of Egyptian Hieroglyphs, p. 4, shows that one of the names of Menes in India was Prabhu, from the Sanskrit meaning “ruler, master, lord” and “it is in series with the prefixed title of Pra, obviously derived from the Sumerian Par, Bar or Baru, ‘lord’—the form Prabhu adopted by the Indian scribes was presumably to make this ‘Pharaoh’ title intelligible to Indian readers.... The title ‘Royal Eye’ for Manasyu is a strikingly Egyptian metaphor and in series with the name Asar (Greek Osiris) for the traditional deified ancestor of Menes, which name is written in Egyptian and Sumerian by the same pictograph and phonetic value of an Eye over a Throne, another instance of the Sumerian origin of a fundamental Egyptian word with the same meaning, word-form, and hieroglyph writing. And Menes, in one of his inscriptions in Egypt, actually used this Eye-Throne Sumerian hieroglyph for his title.” I will add, they called it a glowing eye—these days we would probably call it a UFO.

Pha-Ra-oh seems to come from “Son of Ra”. E. A. Wallis Budge, in The Dweller on the Nile, p. 215, translating the “Book of knowing how Ra came into being”, says “From being one god I became three gods. I lifted up Shu and Tefnut out of Nenu in which they existed, and my Eye (i.e. the Sun) followed after them.... a man (or, men) came into being from the tears that fell from my Eye upon my members.” Note that he says the Eye represents the Sun. On the preceding page is an illustration with this comment: “Nenu, the god of the primeval waters, lifting up the Atet Boat of the Sun into the heavens. The solar disk is being rolled up into the sky....” The Book of the Dead by Albert Champdor, p. 23, speaks of the “flaring solar light within the womb of the cosmic egg”. On page 54 he tells of “Ra’s phallus, ‘which is his light’.” On page 70 he speaks of the “Eye of Horus, the god of the sky” and “The Eye of Horus created men and things.” There is much more I could quote, but to save time I’ll just say that when you put it all together, they are talking of a Cosmic Egg, or a glowing Eye, often represented as a Sun disk, coming down from heaven, and gods come forth from it. From the observation of the glowing disks coming down from heaven, carrying gods who got women pregnant, developed Sun worship, and sex worship.

Higgins, writing in 1833, after 20 years of 10-hours-per-day daily research in the best library and museum in the world, says (p. 515): “...we have what I think will lead us to the origin of the Cyclopes: Whoever has seen Cortona, Volterra, or others of the Tuscan cities, can form a correct idea of the walls of Mundore, which are precisely of the same ponderous character. It is singular that the ancient races of India, as well as of Europe, (and whose name of Pali is Synonym of Galati or Keltoi) should, in equal ignorance of the mechanical arts, have piled up these stupendous monuments, which might induce their posterity to imagine there were giants in those days. This Western region, in which I include nearly all Rajapootana and Saurashtra, has been the peculiar abode of these ‘pastor kings’, who have left their names, their monuments, their religion and sacred character, as the best records of their supremacy. The Raj-Pali, or Royal Pastors, are enumerated as one of the thirty-six royal races of ancient days: the city of Palithana, the ‘abode of the Pali,’ in Saurashtra (built at the foot of mount Satrunja, sacred to Buddha) and Palli in Goddwar, are at once evidences of their political consequence and the religion they brought with them.... Colonel Tod very justly considers the Palli or Raj-pali, or the country of Pali-stan, to extend over all Rajapootana and Guzerat, or Syrastrane or Saurashtra. But we have the Pali, or Pallestini, on the Hellespont; the Pallestini, at the mouth of the Padus, of Italy; and the mount Palatinus of Rome, and Palestraena, or the Sacrum Praeneste, and the celebrated Pali-Rau or Royal pastors of Egypt, the builders, probably, of the Pyramids. This Raj is the Roi of Gaul. I THINK THE WORD RAJ IS THE SAME AS RAY, OR RADHA, OR RADIUS, AN EMANATION FROM THE SUN, AND PROBABLY THE KINGS, MONARCHS, AFFECTED TO BE EMANATIONS FROM THE SUPREME, OR FROM THE SUN, OR, AS THEY CALLED THEMSELVES, SONS OF GOD” [emphasis mine].

What Is The Significance Of Thebes?

On page 12 of Volume II, Higgins says: “The Abbe’s assertion that, in the time of Menes, the first king, whose name was, in fact, the same as that of Noah, Egypt was a marsh, with the exception alone of the district of Thebes, which comprised all Upper Egypt, that is, that it was covered with water, is in exact accordance with what I have said in Vol. I, pp 291, &c., and 336. He afterward shews that the history of Thebes is a travesty of the history of the flood of Noah and of the Ark. That the same particulars are in both the histories—that from Thebes an immense ship was built, and that the first men and animals of the present world came out from Thebes, &c., &c.”

The records show that after the Flood, Egypt was a swamp and Noah settled at Thebes on high ground and he built channels, dikes and ditches to control the drainage. If you look in Unger’s Bible Handbook, p. 87, under “The Ruins At Thebes”, it begins: “Thebes (Egyptian Net, biblical No, Greek Thebai)...” No, of course, is Noah. No is mentioned in Naham 3:8 and see Jere. 46:25: “The Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him.” Please take note that the God of Israel is equating the multitude of Noah and the Egyptians! The Old Testament is a much more EGYPTIAN book than the "Judeo-Christians" want to admit. Moses was an Egyptian. Joseph was a ruler of Egypt. Abraham spent much time in Egypt. Christ's parents fled to safety in Egypt. Noah was an Egyptian! The scholars have had a hard time finding proof of Israel in ancient Palestine—they are looking in the wrong place! There is plenty of proof of Biblical Israel in Egypt—in the form of writings and pictures, statues and stone carvings, mummies, etc.! I will have more on this later.

Eusebius says that the reign of Mena, the first king of the First Dynasty of Egypt, was preceded by the reign of 10 kings of Thinis. Since we can prove that Mena or Menes was Noah, then the 10 kings previous must be the kings from Adam to Noah; Noah was 10th in this line. If you check Unger's dictionary, you will find that Thebes was also called No-Amon (Min-Noah backwards), Noamon and No or Amon of No. If you look at a relief map or globe it will show a high spot, mountains, where Thebes was (now modern Luxor, where the famous tombs of the Valley of the Kings are located), showing why Noah picked this spot. As Noah was king and father of the world, all civilizations trace their history back to the Minoans, the Menus, the Menas, etc., back to a common origin.

Check your Young's or Strong's Bible concordance and look up the word "ark", in Genesis. You will find that it is translated from the Hebrew "TEBAH", which is precisely the same original root as THEBE, from the Sumerian TB and is where we get our word "TUB". Noah survived the Flood in a tub, and named the place of landing and the first city after it! The Abbe Guerin de Rocher, writing in 1824 AD, said that the story of Thebes was just a messed-up story of Noah and the Ark (to be fair, could it be the Biblical story that is the messed-up one?). He said that at the time of Noah, Egypt was a great marsh except for the high lands at Thebes. The stories of Thebes tell of doves being sent out, of a giant ship being built, that the first men in the world came from Thebes, etc. The Moguls trace their history back to Japheth, and have a city of god called Delhi (D'el-ii) which had seven gates like Thebes, was governed by Al-Mage, Magi, Mage, or Mogul like Thebes, etc. The story is in many ways similar to the Biblical story. The Encyclopedia Britannica, art. Mogul, used to have this information but it is censored out of more modern versions. Gengis Khan was in this line, and it was claimed that his mother was lying on a bed one night when a bright light blinded her and penetrated her body three times and caused her to be pregnant with three sons, one of whom was Gengis Khan who was born of this immaculate conception. Tammerlane is another of many men who have been conceived supposedly by a bright light in an immaculate conception. This is still occurring, if you believe the UFO-abductions experiences that are being reported.

As the Egyptians migrated to other places, they carried the story with them, so you find a Thebes in Greece, for instance, with a very similar history.

The English-Sumerian Dictionary by Adapa says that the Sumerian word for "ship" is "TU" and the Sumerian word for "fly" is "BA". Thus a "flying ship" is a "TUBA". This is one of the secrets that the "powers that be" do not want you to know! Noah was a "water god" who came to Earth in a "flying ship" which became known as a Cosmic Eye (look on your $1 bill)! It is not for me to tell you whether or not this is TRUTH, but now you can look it up for yourself and you will see that it is what the records SAY!

Who Was Enoch?

The Books of Enoch were translated into modern English by Dr. R. H. Charles of Merton College, Oxford, England. He said of this book or books:

"Nearly all the writers of the New Testament were familiar with it, and were more or less influenced by it in thought and diction. It is quoted as a genuine production of Enoch by St. Jude, and as scripture by St. Barnabas. The authors of the Book of Jubilees, the Apocalypse of Baruch, and 4 Ezra, laid it under contribution. With the earliest Fathers and Apologists it had all the weight of a canonical book....

"The citations of Enoch by the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs and by the Book of the Jubilees, show that at the close of the second century BC, and during the first century BC, this book was regarded in certain circles as inspired. When we come down to the first century AD, we find it recognized as scripture by St. Jude."

Some have said the Book of Enoch is a late-date forgery. This is disproved by the fact that of over 800 scrolls that were found at Qumran called the Dead Sea Scrolls, there were 11 copies of the Book of Enoch (The Dead Sea Scrolls After Forty Years by Shanks, Vanderkam, McCarter and Sanders, Biblical Archaeological Society, 1990, p. 27). The Book of Enoch was accepted as scripture by the earliest Christians until it fell out of favor and was suppressed about 400 years after Christ.

The Anunnaki are called "Watchers" in the Book of Enoch. Also Daniel 4:13: "I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven" [extra-terrestrial].

The Moffatt Bible, Dan. 4:13: "In the visions of my brain in bed I looked, and there was one of the angel-guard!" In other words, the word translated as "Watcher" really could be translated "Guardian-Angel" and in the ancient clay tables is "Anunnaki".

Robert Graves and Raphael Patai, in Hebrew Myths, The Book of Genesis, says, p. 84, "'Watchers' (egregorikoi in Greek), the name given to Satan's angels in the Second Book of Enoch, seems to be a rendering of two Aramaic words: irin, applied to angels in Daniel 4: 10, 14, 20 [10 and 20 must be a mistake]; and qaddishin, 'holy ones'. A nearer translation would be 'guardian angels', which agrees both with their functions and the meanings of their names. According to Midrash Tehillim on Psalms I, it refers to the deity Eloah." But I ask: who decided these were "Satan's angels?" The originals say they were from God.

Some people refuse to accept the evidence that says that angels fathered children with human women. If you look at the evidence with an open mind, there can be no doubt that this is what the records SAY. The Septuagint Bible, the Bible that was used at the time of Christ, says "angels" instead of "sons of God" and thus some assume they must have been Satan's demons. Josephus (Antiquities of the Jews, Book I, Chap. 3, v. 1) says: "Many angels of God now consorted with women, and begot sons on them who were overbearing and disdainful of every virtue; such confidence had they in their strength. In fact, the deeds that our tradition ascribes to them recall the audacious exploits told by the Greeks of the giants. But Noah...urged them to adopt a better frame of mind and amend their ways." Josephus was on the right track: many of the so-called "Greek gods" were in fact REAL BEINGS, beings that were called "Nephilim" in the Bible.

Now let's look at the story of Enoch. This is clearly a story of extra-terrestrials, flying "clouds", UFOs, etc., written before the time of Christ. This is 2 Enoch I, beginning in v. 2:

"On the first day of the month, I was alone in my house, and was resting on my bed. And as I was sleeping, I dreamt that a great grief came over me and that I wept; and I could not understand why I felt like this, or what was going to happen to me.

"I awoke to find, in my room, two very tall men different from any that I have seen in the Lowlands. Their faces shone like the Sun, and their eyes burned like lamps; and the breath from their mouths was like smoke. Their clothes were remarkable—being purplish [with the appearance of feathers]; and on their shoulders were things which I can only describe as 'like golden wings'.

"They stood by the head of my bed and I was awakened by them calling me by name; and I clearly saw them standing in front of me. I bowed my head to them and hid my face, and they said to me: 'Do not be afraid, Enoch; the Great Lord has sent us to you and, today, you are to go with us up to the Highlands. Now, tell your sons and your servants that they must manage without you down here; and tell them that no one is to come looking for you. Eventually, you will be brought back.'

"So I obeyed them. I went out of the house and called my sons—Methusaleh, Regim and Goidal, and told them what these men had said to me.

"When I had spoken to my sons, the men called me. They lifted me up and placed me on what seemed to be a cloud, and this cloud moved, and going upwards I could see the sky around and, still higher, I seemed to be in Space. Eventually, we landed on the First Haven and, there, they showed me a very great sea, much bigger than the inland sea where I lived."

NOTE: The Greek word translated "Space" above was "ether", which meant the region above Earth's atmosphere. The word translated "Haven" was “paradeisos”, which originally meant a “park” or “sanctuary”, but some think it means Heaven. I believe it also referred to the Garden of Eden, which existed until the Flood, but in this case they clearly left Earth’s atmosphere.

Flying Saucers?

Enoch LXX:2 says: “And he was raised aloft on the chariot of the spirit—and his name vanished from among them.” Recall that Genesis 5:24 says: “Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.” The word above translated “spirit” was “pneuma”, which literally meant air (as in our word pneumatic). So Enoch was taken up in an “air-chariot”, or what we now call an airplane! Or more specifically, it was a type of space shuttle. “His name vanished” does not make sense unless you consider that “name” should be translated “space ship” as Zecharia Sitchin has insisted.

Enoch XVII:1: “They [the two men] conducted me to a place where those who were there were as bright as fire, but when they wished, they could appear as ordinary men. They had brought me to a place of darkness from a mountain whose summit reached to the heavens. There I saw lighted places, and heard thunderous noises; and, in the deepest part, there were lights which looked like a fiery bow and arrows with their quiver, and moving lights like a fiery sword.”

Could this have been a “space station”? Angels/extraterrestrials definitely do use some sort of vehicle for transportation. One is described in the first chapter of Ezekiel, what preachers call the “flying saucer chapter of Ezekiel”. Elijah was “taken into heaven by a whirlwind” (2 Kings 2:1) then in v. 11: “there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire,...and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven” and in verse 12 Elisha calls after the “Chariot of Israel”. The helicopter is an example of a vehicle that produces a whirlwind.

Psa. 68:17: “The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels;...”

Ezek. 30:9: “In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships....” The word “messenger” is “MALAK” in Hebrew and is most often translated as “angel”. This clearly says that angels travel in ships.

Isaiah 66:15: “For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind....” Also see Zechariah 6:1-5.

2 Kings 6:17: “And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.”

The Bible calls these chariots “whirlwinds”. See Job 40:6, 38:1, Isa. 66:15 (“For, behold, the Lord will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind....”, Jer. 4:13, Jer. 23:19, Jer. 30:23, Ezek. 1:4).

Enoch VI:6: “Altogether they were two hundred who descended in the days of Jared on the summit of Hermon. They called it that because they had sworn, and bound themselves with vows, upon it. These are the names of their leaders, and chiefs of ten; Shemjaza, their leader; Arakiba, Rameel, Kokabiel, Tamiel, Ramiel, Danel, Ezequeel, Bariqijael, Asael, Armaros, Batarel, Ananel, Zaqiel, Samsapeel, Turel, Jomjael and

Herman is sometimes spelled Harmon, either is correct. My mother’s maiden name is Harmon. I hereby claim descent from Shemjaza of Mt. Harmon!

Please take note that Shemjaza was their leader (wink—no, make that half a wink).

Then later he says “...the ninth, Kokabel, taught the observing of the stars; the fourth, Bariqijael, taught astronomy; the eighth, Ezequeel, taught the observation of the clouds; the third, Araziel, taught the boundaries of the Earth; the seventh, Shamsiel, taught the limiting positions of the Sun; the twentieth, Sariel, taught the limiting positions of the Moon.”

Who were they teaching? Surely not each other. They must have been teaching humans.

He tells they had a physician named Kashdejan, then O’Brien points out that the ancient Irish Tuatha De Danaan called a physician a “Diyen Cecht”, which is the reverse of Kash Dejan (Hebrew reads right to left)! O’Brien also noted this: The Hebrew word EL which we translate as God, is related to the Sumerian EL which meant brightness or shining, the Akkadian ILLU which meant the bright one, the Babylonian ELLU which meant the shining one, the Old Welsh ELLYL which meant a shining being, the Old Irish AILLIL which meant shining, the English ELF which meant a shining being (from the Anglo-Saxon AELF), and the Old Cornish EL which meant an angel! I have shown elsewhere that Old Welsh, Old Irish, and English are all derived from ancient Hebrew.

Enoch described a house that he entered “...I saw before me, in another part, opened doors and through them a larger room which was ablaze with light. In every respect, the inside was so magnificent, and spacious, that I cannot describe it to you. Its floor was brilliantly lit, and above that there were bright lights like planets, and its ceiling, too, was brilliant.” Remember that electrical usage and light bulbs did not exist until the 19th century. And remember that the ancient Kharsag tablet said, speaking of the water reservoir, that “power would be generated by its pressure”. What were these “bright lights like round planets” that were lighting the inside of the rooms?

Enoch said: “At that time, Noah had discovered that the floor of the Lowland Valley was showing signs of sinking, and he was afraid that earthquakes would destroy it. So he left and travelled to the entrance to Eden, and called to his grandfather, Enoch, in a very worried voice, saying: Hear me! Tell me what is happening to the Lowlands which are being badly shaken by earthquakes—I am afraid of being killed.”

The ancient Jewish literature says that Enoch is now called Metatron, the Angel of the Face, and says that God took him so that he could keep an eye-witness record of the Earth’s history and present it in the future. The Bible speaks of a time when the books will be opened—apparently Enoch is the one in charge of those books.

Above we learned that Enoch said the Nefilim, the particular ones who got involved with women, arrived on Mt. Hermon during the days of Jared. Previously I show that Jared was born in 3514 BC, according to the documents we are given. Genesis 5:18 says that Jared was 162 years old when he begot Enoch, and the next verse said he lived 800 more years. Thus the time of Jared was from 3514 to 2552 BC. Then, 234 years later, the Flood occurred in 2318. This was actually “A” flood and not necessarily “THE” flood, as there have been several. I believe the Anunnaki must have arrived 600 years before the Flood, in 2918. If you will check my chart called “Basic Framework of Biblical Chronology” you will see that 2918 was the year of Noah’s birth (according to these records), and the number 600 has always been associated with this group! I suspect that the very year the angels decided to rebel and get involved with women, Noah was born, who was “a just man, and perfect in his generations” (Gen. 6:9).

If you would like your own copy of the Book of Enoch, it is available from Artisan Sales, P.O. Box 1497, Thousand Oaks, Calif. 91358-0497. They also have many other books on subjects I have been writing about.

Another book they carry is The Book of Jubilees. It was written before the time of Christ, as copies were also found among the Dead Sea Scrolls at Qumran. It is a commentary on Genesis and Exodus. Here are some quotes from it:

“And then he [Enoch] was with the angels of God six years of this jubilee, and they showed him all things on Earth and in heaven, the rule of the Sun, and he wrote down all things. And he testified to the Watchmen, those that sinned with the daughters of men; for they were defiled; and Enoch testified against them all.... And it happened, when the sons of the children of men commenced to increase over the face of the whole Earth and daughters were born to them, that the angels of the Lord saw them in one year of this jubilee, that they were beautiful to look upon; and they took unto themselves wives from all them whomever they chose, and they bore them sons, and these were giants.”

Early writers who quoted The Book of Jubilees as “sacred scripture” include the Testament of the Twelve Patriarchs, Epiphanius, Jerome, Rufinus, Syncellus, Cedrinus, and others.

The Creation Epic, the Flood Epic, the Epic of Gilgamesh, the Descent of Ishtar to the Nether World, the Egyptian text of Seven Lean Years in Egypt, the Code of Hammurabi, and many other complete texts of ancient stories and records are available in the book The Ancient Near East by James B. Pritchard, Princeton University Press, 1958. This book also has a large section of photographs. I got my copy for $1.48 at a used-book store!

Above we saw that Shemjaza was the head of the crew of extra-terrestrials that came to Earth. He was chief of 200 beings that came with him. According to most Christian teachings (those that will even bother to consider Shemjaza), he was the head of the rebellious angels. Yet according to modern information, Shemjaza (Semjasa) was the CREATOR of the Adam and ancestor of the Christ.

The Genealogy of Jmmanuel/Emmanuel/Jesus/Sananda:

According to The Talmud of Jmmanuel by Judas Iscariot, translated by Isa Rashid and Eduard A. (Billy) Meier (Meier is famous in UFO circles for his beautiful UFO pictures and his contacts with extra-terrestrials), Adam was “the father of one of Earth’s human races, who was begotten by Semjasa, the leader of the celestial sons who were the guardian angels of god, the great ruler of the distant travelers. Semjasa, the celestial son and guardian angel of god, the great ruler of the distant travelers who traversed the expanse of the universe, together with a terrestrial woman, begot Adam, the father of the White human race.

79. Joseph was the husband of Mary, the mother of Immanuel, who became pregnant by a distant descendant of the celestial son, Rasiel, who was the guardian angel of the secret.

When Joseph heard of Mary's secret impregnation by a descendant of the celestial sons, from the lineage of Rasiel, behold, he was filled with wrath and thought of leaving Mary, before he would be married to her in front of the people.

While Joseph was thinking in this manner, behold, a guardian angel, sent by the celestial son, Gabriel, who had impregnated Mary, appeared and said:

"Joseph, Mary is betrothed to you and you are her consort; do not leave her, because the fruit of her womb is chosen for a great purpose. Marry her in all candor, so that you may be husband and wife before the people.

"Behold, the impregnation of Mary occurred eleven thousand years after the procreation of Adam through the celestial son, Semjasa, to fulfill the word of god, the ruler of those who traveled from afar, who said through the prophet Isaiah..." etc., "...Behold, god and his followers came from out of the depths of space, delivering themselves from a strong bondage, and creating a new race and home with the early women of this Earth. God deserves the honor of people of Earth, for behold: He is the true originator of the White and of the colored human races of Earth, and to Him honor should be given."

The rest of the document tells of such things as metallic flying machines that travel to heaven, a coming end of the age in 2,000 years, about the sons created by the celestials are different from the humans who were already on Earth, about Immanuel visiting India, etc.

This same genealogy is given in the Phoenix Journal #2 And They Called His Name Immanuel—I Am Sananda with a few differences in the spelling of some of the names.

THE 'GROUP OF 24' DEVELOPING COUNTRIES CALLS FOR NEW MONETARY SYSTEM

THE 'GROUP OF 24' DEVELOPING COUNTRIES CALLS FOR NEW MONETARY SYSTEM

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Sofie Mattsson <sofiem@algonet.se> Sweden Calling, 2/15/98: [quoting]

WIESBADEN, Feb. 11—Following a three-day gathering in Caracas, Venezuela, the G-24 stresses in its declaration the need for reforming the international monetary system and to put capital flows and financial markets under a strict control. The G-24 proposes to set up a joint working group with the G-7 to discuss these matters.

The acting head of the G-24, Venezuelan central bank president Antonio Casas Gonzalez emphasized at a press conference on Monday, that the so-called Asian crisis has already affected the whole world and that a control of the giant international capital flows would be urgently needed. He said, "The world's monetary and financial systems have structural weaknesses that require their substantial reform so they can adapt to the world's new realities." Such disasters as the Asian meltdown, he said, are "systemic" and cannot be prevented unless "there is a new architecture to international financial markets". The G-24 was formed in 1971 and includes Algeria, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Congo, Egypt, Ethiopia, Gabon, Ghana, Guatemala, India, Iran, Ivory Coast, Lebanon, Mexico, Nigeria, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Sri Lanka, Syria, Trinidad, Tobago, and Venezuela.

The Caracas meeting was also being addressed by IMF head Michel Camdessus, who talked a lot of usual non-sense, but had to admit that, "These are moments of crisis, and our task is to stop it becoming a global catastrophe."

WIESBADEN, 11 Feb. (EIRNS)—"THE MORE THEY INSIST ASIA HAS NO IMPACT, THE WORSE IS THE REALITY," argued a senior fund manager for a financial firm in London. "A case in point: J.P. Morgan Bank. Since January, it has admitted losses of $600 million in Indonesia, and today it admitted another $180 million derivative loss from a Korean bank default contract. That's close to $800 million loss since January and what happens? Morgan stock rises—or IBM, one of the largest corporations in the world. Today IBM comes out and announces that "Asia impact is far worse than we expected and will hurt results for the entire year." IBM stock rises on the report! Not only are bonds rising on bad news for bonds, stocks too now are rising on bad news for stocks.

"In the next several months," he added, "I am convinced we'll see a collapse in technology stocks in the U.S. and Europe."

The global Asia impact is far worse than anyone could imagine last July, even I. Yet stock markets in almost every G-10 country in recent days hit record highs. This flood of liquidity into the G-10 stock markets creates a new bubble when Asia is not only not over, it hasn't yet begun. Look at the real economy. World shipping rates year-year are down more than 40%. Trade to Asia is plunging. Yet markets rise. This is what I would call a breathtaking 'suckers' rally. "There is also big foreign money flooding into U.S. stocks out of Asia, etc. That is the classic signal for smart money to exit now."

WIESBADEN, 11 Feb. (EIRNS)—FROM A PRIVATE DISCUSSION AMONG 12 OF EUROPE'S LEADING PENSION FUND MANAGERS: HONG KONG AND CHINA NEXT TO GO.

According to a report from a recent private meeting of 12 of the largest European fund managers from the U.K. and the rest of Europe overwhelmingly agreed that "the next major shock in Asia will come from Hong Kong and China, regardless how many nice statements come out insisting they will not devalue." This source added, "Most likely they expect collapsing China exports will first force Beijing to devalue the Renminbi. Then the Hong Kong dollar will be forced to drop the dollar peg. At that point the world will have the next big shock from Asia, larger than even any so far. It is uncertain on timing only, maybe a matter of 4-6 months."

"No one of us believed the Asia crisis is over. Nothing real has happened to change the reality. What we have now is a brief respite before the world is into really dire shocks when Hong Kong goes."

WIESBADEN, 11 Feb. (EIRNS)—'NOW HOT MONEY IS ROTATING FROM MARKET TO MARKET RAPIDLY TO CREATE THE ILLUSION OF REBOUND,' the same fund manager source told EIR. "This respite might last from now until maybe mid-March at latest. (I hadn't yet had time to brief him on Ides of March thesis of LHL before he said this.—b.e.) Why do I say mid-March? Because now it has become standard for U.S. companies, when they have bad news, to 'pre-announce' about 3 weeks before final official Quarterly earnings are out, to preempt law suits and try to defuse impact when results finally are out. We will begin to see those 'bad news' for Q1 coming out around mid-March. People in these markets—so young most of them have never seen a sustained bear market before—are convinced that Asia and bad news was what happened last quarter of 1997! What we have instead is a kind of slow-motion effect of the Asia collapse of currencies, etc., into the real economy in the U.S. and Europe, which is just now building real momentum. It always lags by 8-9 months, for technical reasons, between a currency devaluation and trade effects.

"This is all a huge liquidity trap being created in G-10 markets now. In the U.S., M3 money supply for the last 13 weeks has been growing by 11% annually! The Fed has made clear it has no intent of raising rates; loosen, loosen is the order of the day from the U.S. to U.K., Germany, France, etc. Now, the stage is being set for a real stock crash in New York and across the markets of Europe. This one will be triggered by collapse of corporate earnings. When that hits, unlike previous market crashes, no amount of lower interest rates by the Fed will stop the slide." [End quoting]

The elite already have their plans set for whatever will happen and you can be sure it is to take control of all assets of the world and do it without losing control of we the people—but their horrific greed will do them in by killing off each other for top control. Our problem is, we will have to suffer thru their wars while they do this. ☹

Far-Reaching Layers Of Deception & Intrigue

“the most in power wields the power”.

In the U.S., for instance, the major push for Jewish influence in Government came with the THEFT from the Constitution of the “first and original” 13th Amendment. Lawyers (Esquire) COULD NOT SERVE IN HIGH GOVERNMENTAL POSITION NOR COULD THEY BE JUDGES, ETC. THEY BORE TITLES OF NOBILITY AND BASICALLY THROUGH THEIR OATHS AND ALLEGIANCES SERVED FOREIGN POWERS.

You will note that today you HAVE TO BE A MEMBER OF THAT BAR ASSOCIATION TO EVEN GET SUCH POSITIONS. Hey, readers, it’s your life and if you want this, go for it. However, I think you are seeing the errors of placing those people in high places for they move over into every other avenue of manipulation and power.

Then when reason is sought for “why” things happen and “how” a thing could just be “removed” (from the Constitution yet) there is need to look at why a thing would be removed and just who could arrange such a switcharoo. You are (WERE) a REPUBLIC—NOT A DEMOCRACY. When that was stolen from you, you were set up for the fall. You are exactly like the little test ground called Israel in your government structure, your democratic system is a staged and constructed system and holds neither democracy nor any form resembling a Republic.

Typical of your “democracy” you can have an innocent man but you decide that every Tuesday morning you will elect a man to have his legs broken. You have five people on the decision-making board so they choose whoever they wish, vote to break his legs and that’s that! Is that democracy? No, and neither was taking from Palestine to make a State called Israel. Just the Big Five of the United Nations even HAD A VOTE—all of which, at the time, were controlled and operated by JEWS. The Jews who would settle in Palestine didn’t really WANT to go to Palestine—but it was chosen as the best place to make a run for the world and set up the takeover plans. After the Bolsheviks (Jews) took over Russia and it became “Soviet” you had the perfect go-for-the-gold arrangement. Remember that, at that time in the 40s, you had China as a Communist State in transition as well.

So what of Israel, this so-called democracy in the middle of the Middle East? Even the location of the “State” was to get control of the wealth and oil network in that area, and it worked. While everyone felt pain for the struggling Jew and for Israel, workers were taking the U.S. for the Israeli Homeland as quickly as could be structured—and surely enough, the noose tightened, the Constitution was set aside (that is always a fact of WAR, good buddies), and now you have a Fascist-Socialistic State of the American-Israel. You object? Well, I didn’t DO IT; I am simply pointing out to you what has happened to you.

You believe every poll offered to you, even about Clinton and the assault on Iraq. One channel speaker says there is a poll of 2,000 people and 78% want to go to war. Change to another channel before the numbers can be changed to suit the needs of propaganda and you will see that 78% don’t want to bomb Iraq and the poll came from 5,000 people. THERE IS NOTHING REAL OR MEANINGFUL ABOUT ANYTHING FED TO YOU. IT IS FAR WORSE THAN EATING NOTHING BUT BROWNIES AND POTATO CHIPS AS YOUR ENTIRE DIET.

Now let’s look at Iraq. You had great business going with Iraq. Well, actually, the Bush bunch had great business going with Iraq prior to the 1990s. You sold Saddam arms through your Agriculture Department and you sold Iran arms through your Agriculture Department while putting billions of dollars into the “insiders” own bank accounts, including Bush and Saddam as joint-venture depositors. The stuff was being shipped right through Britain. Bush will now sit with this worried face and tell you right out that Saddam’s regime funnelled arms, drugs and you name it. But what made Bush REALLY UPSET? Well, Saddam was supposed to go into Kuwait and destroy all the records of these on-going unlawful transactions, from S&L stored documents to arms trades.

Saddam did go in and did ravage, pillage and plunder—BUT TOOK THE DOCUMENTS HOME WITH HIM FOR BLACKMAIL EVIDENCE. HE STILL HAS THEM AND HE KEEPS THEM IN THOSE “SECRET” PLACES

WHERE HE IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE WEAPONS OF “MASS DESTRUCTION”. Well, it would destroy some of the players—but those players are out of REAL POWER so Saddam waits. Then, after the war, and his Partner Bush froze the money accounts and lodged a war against him, Saddam attempted to kill Georgie and his family who were now gloating in Kuwait.

Is Saddam actually a good guy? Are you kidding me? Of course not, or he would not have been playing dirty games with George Bush in the first place. And always the little guys pay dearly.

So, where are the papers? Well, you have to understand the game. Papers don’t “blow up” so this is why the FIXED UN team is run by a top-level US spy. These people were to go in, find and confiscate the records, claim weapons details, and get the blackmail material OUT AND AWAY. Saddam is NOT THAT STUPID. However, Britain and the US are going to be discovered in this BIG MESS OF A RIP-OFF and it will be ugly to say the very least. Of course the other

You believe every poll offered to you, even about Clinton and the assault on Iraq. One channel speaker says there is a poll of 2,000 people and 78% want to go to war. Change to another channel before the numbers can be changed to suit the needs of propaganda and you will see that 78% don’t want to bomb Iraq and the poll came from 5,000 people. THERE IS NOTHING REAL OR MEANINGFUL ABOUT ANYTHING FED TO YOU. IT IS FAR WORSE THAN EATING NOTHING BUT BROWNIES AND POTATO CHIPS AS YOUR ENTIRE DIET.

“allies” now know what the game is about but they are so involved that they can’t own up either. Zipper Billy is simply caught in the middle with enough material in Saddam’s bunkers to get him hanged along with the other destroyers. The Zipper was working directly with Bush in CIA drug stuff all the way back to where he learned how to work his zipper in the first place. Billy is learning the hard way how his opposition works and can destroy a person over almost nothing, or anything, as the case may be—with the media.

Your military couldn’t chase back to Baghdad in the early 90s and wipe out Saddam—he sat with all the proof he needed to totally destroy the US, Britain AND ISRAEL. He now has certified duplicates of the whole library of incriminating evidence and PLANS FOR TOTAL TAKEOVER of the MIDDLE EAST, AFRICA AND EUROPE.

Saddam is NOT impressed with you and NOTHING IS BEING DONE IN THE FACE OF IMMEDIATE ASSAULT. He has the trump cards, ladies and gentlemen, and enough “cause intent” to have nerves of steel in the face of the fire-fight. And no, he doesn’t really care about a few expendable people for a “greater cause”. After all, he believes in recycling, so it matters not too much if you help a few along their journey. It is called what you do every day for self—find justification. With you it may only be a glass of wine or a better deal, but with stakes like there are on the Middle East table—it is big.

Now again, let us look at what you DIE for, people: Democracy. Look right to your source of training—ISRAEL. Without further comment I will offer you a couple of the LAST TWO PAGES of a little book called DEMOCRACY IN ISRAEL, by Norman F. Dacey. Never mind who that might be but simply note that these comments I share are by HIGH LEVEL JEWS IN ISRAEL.

[QUOTING:]

“WE DON’T GIVE A DAMN!”

Another severe critic of Israel’s undemocratic posture is Ammon Rubenstein who charged shortly before the October 1973 War that “an atmosphere of haughtiness and boastfulness has come upon us; we don’t care about the world; we will show them who is the master; we will have a military parade—unnecessary, senseless—through Jerusalem.... And in order to show that we don’t give a damn, we will confiscate Arab lands; we will enclose areas and establish ‘exceptions’, we will settle everywhere without giving the right of self-determination to the Israeli Arabs; we will brawl with Muslims all over the world—for free, in vain—about praying hours at a place that has been for generations a Muslim mosque (the Mosque of Abraham in Hebron).

“We do all this and no one can stop us, yet the sedimentation of grudges against us is growing. But it is not only because of this that the negative image of Israel is growing. Our internal affairs are not secret; they are published through all the media; people in London, Paris and New York open the newspaper and read incomprehensible things about Israel.

“They read about the burning down of the (religious) missions and the governmental threat to expel Christians; about a ministerial committee meeting in order to decide how to fight the ‘Jews For Jews’, about decisions of the government to disengage itself from its promises about Biram and Ikrit because of the ‘precedent’. They read and are astonished about the ‘mamzerim’ (bastard) issues, the ‘Cohen’ and women problems (under Israeli law, no man named Cohen can marry a divorced woman); They read about confusion over ‘who is a Jew’ and similar matters, things they associated with under-developed societies.

“They know that the Writers Union—supposedly intellectuals—refuses to accept Arab writers because of their origins; they hear that the Prime Minister speaks all day long against ‘mixed weddings’; that the Israeli law defines the citizenship rights according to the test of the grandfather and grandmother, and that the Chief Rabbi declares that the rules of justice and equality do not apply to Gentiles. They read and start asking themselves what is happening to it, to the State of Israel.

“Whoever thinks that the world understands only the language of strength, that one way or another it is always against us, shouldn’t come with complaints about the ‘world’.... Only a paranoiac thinks that the world is plotting against him. Only a megalomaniac thinks that we could answer with war to such a plot. The Israeli who loves his country will fight—here, inside—in order to put out the wicked fire that has taken hold of part of us, the government and the Knesset....

“We have behaved sometimes with disregard for others; we have blown the horn more than was necessary; we have driven through the lawns; we have trodden some flowerpots.”

[AND:]

“THE WHOLE WORLD IS AGAINST US!”

As Uri Avnery, editor and publisher of the news weekly Ha’olam Hazeh, wrote in an editorial in that journal: “The military bands which danced before the television cameras to the music of the Israeli song The Whole World is Against Us, the masochistic pleasure which we draw from the diplomatic disasters of Israel, the satisfaction we get from watching the absolute isolation of Israel in the United Nations... are all symptoms of a malignant psychological illness... The whole world is marching in one direction; Israel of today turns her back on this world and marches in the opposite direction.” [H: Sound like any other country TODAY that you know?]

The dictionary defines a “democracy” as a state of society characterized by formal equality of rights, opportunity and treatment. Yitzhak Ben-Aharon, head of the powerful Histadrut, told the New York Times that Israeli society has lost its way amid a frenzied “rat race” for personal enrichment. “We have started to worship the golden calf,” he warned. “Now we have to decide how to have equality in a society where the real desire of the people is against it. People are interested in equality with those who have more than they have—but—they don’t care about those who have less.”

Israeli journalist-author Amos Kenan has likened the ethical level of life in Israel to that of a “South American banana republic”.

[H: Then there is a finishing sentence in the book:] The facts here presented should help the reader to distinguish between a democracy and the Zionist state.

[END OF QUOTING]

I don’t know if we will get around to sharing more of this book; it is only about 70 pages, but is most powerful in its observations from that inside experience.

We do not know if the booklet is still available or anything about the source. You can try: INSTITUTE FOR HISTORICAL REVIEW, 1822-1/2 Newport Blvd., Suite 191, Costa Mesa, CA 92627. It seems to have been printed in 1976. ISBN 0-911038-68-X. I will ask someone to contact these people if possible and ask for permission to use more of the material. At present, however, we are going right back to PART SIX of GLOBAL PARASITES.

I only ask that as things break before you in news, in war, in scandal—really LOOK AT CONNECTIONS because it will be in these “connections” that you will find the cause, for the obvious is only an “effect” of something else.

“MILITARY ACTION BUT NO WAR”

(Madeleine Albright, Secretary of State, U.S.A.)

Yesterday, at a better-planned little PUBLIC meeting the Albright fiasco went better with a screened GROUP present but I find this one question to be more interesting than the others, or at the least, the answer given by Ms. Albright.

The question had to do with having a war. Ms. Albright, not being all bright, responded: “Oh, this is just a military action, not a war.” A “military action” but no war? This obviously MEANS that it is KNOWN the dumppees are not able to fight back against the dumpors! So you just go blow up a bunch of innocent people, wipe out citizen ability to survive—but it “ISN’T WAR”?

I SIMPLY DO NOT BELIEVE YOU CAN GET MUCH LOWER THAN THIS, AMERICA!

THE ONE SURE THING FOR THE DEMISE OF BILLY ZIPPER IS TO SEND THOSE BOMBERS! YOU HAD BETTER WAKE UP, WORLD. EVIL IS STILL NOT A POPULAR ACTIVITY IF AND WHEN THE WORLD KNOWS ABOUT IT. INDISCRETION IS PART OF THE POLITICAL GAME BUT OUTRIGHT EVIL IS STILL FROWNED UPON THROUGH THE REST OF THE WORLD—AND THIS TIME, VISIBLE OR INVISIBLE—THE U.S., BRITAIN AND CANADA STAND ALONE AS THE EVIL EMPIRE!

THE SHAME AND THE BLAME IS ON “YOU”, AMERICA, U.S.A.

We actually had a high-level marketing person FROM ANOTHER NEWSPAPER call and tell us to stop running the material we are covering.

Number one: We will run TRUTH until somebody who can stop the insanity does so.

Number two: If another paper runs something publicly that is worthy of note, we will use it if we have permission. If no permission is granted, we will not even further recommend any of you readers take that paper. NOBODY has an inside track on this world MESS, and unless they are writing pure fiction under copyright, do they have the “Wag the Dog” corner on the domestic mess.

Number three: For goodness sakes, readers, KNOW WHAT YOU ARE DOING BEFORE YOU DO IT—OR AT THE LEAST KNOW WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU ARE STOPPED FROM DOING IT.

Why have I been writing about “Jews” and Israeli matters? Because of the following:

[QUOTING, SPOTLIGHT, Feb. 23, 1998:]

EDITORIAL

THINK ABOUT IT

Throughout history there have been thousands of wars. The victor may commit genocide. He may stack human skulls in pyramids, rape and enslave the women and kill the men. He can raze the cities and burn the crops.

These are things a victor MAY do. But there is one thing he absolutely HAS TO DO.

A victor always must control the subjugated nation’s foreign policy and armed forces. This is certain.

IS IT NOT TRUE THAT AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY HAS BEEN TAKEN OVER AND IS RUN FOR THE BENEFIT OF A FOREIGN NATION?

Of course this is true.

Therefore, is America a conquered vassal of a foreign nation, even though most Americans are unaware of it?

Answer that question HONESTLY, if you are capable of honesty. THINK ABOUT IT.

SPOTLIGHT's same paper has a most interesting Front Page article. Note while you read this information regarding disinformation just how much totally bad information is being fed to your leaders in order for you, as a nation, to become world killers, first class! Remember the President and the scallywags are telling you that Saddam has some 80 palaces of sizes ranging from huge and palatial to even bigger than many states in the U.S.?

Well, the U.N. diplomats have now found all EIGHT of them, gone through them thoroughly, found living quarters of rather small size and grounds of small size with perhaps a pond or so. There is NOTHING in them that so much as suggests there is anything amiss—IN ANY OF THEM.

THERE IS A MOVE ON NOW TO GET U.S. CITIZENS OF DIPLOMATIC STATURE, ARAB DIPLOMATS, PERHAPS THE U.N. DELEGATES AND AMBASSADORS, AND SETTING UP HOUSEKEEPING IN ALL OF THE PLACES TARGETED FOR BOMBS—AND SEE HOW EAGER MR. CLINTON IS TO PLAY PAC-MAN VIDEO GAMES. ISRAEL WANTS TO HAVE ANY EXCUSE TO USE NEUTRON BOMBS ON AN ENEMY—AND THAT IS SOON GOING TO BE “YOU” GOOD BUDDIES. YOU ARE TOTALLY CONTROLLED BY THIS ISRAELI CRIMINAL ELEMENT AND YOU WILL EITHER WAKE UP OR IT IS OVER FOR AMERICA AND THE SO-CALLED “FREE WORLD”. YOU ARE RIGHT FACE-TO-FACE WITH IT, AMERICA.

CLINTON HOODWINKED ON IRAQ
DISINFORMATION CAMPAIGN BY MOSSAD

by Martin Mann

Once again a foreign intelligence service has hoodwinked an American President. This time the subject is Iraq. [H: By the way, “hoodwinked” is a good old Masonic term.]

The Clinton administration is being relentlessly driven toward another armed clash with Iraq—and a disastrous confrontation with the vast world of Islam. The motivating factor is a stream of deceptive and fabricated intelligence reports fed to the White House, congressional leaders and the U.S. mainstream media by the Israeli government and its powerful Washington lobby.

The SPOTLIGHT has learned exclusively from briefings and documents provided by high-level diplomatic sources that President Bill Clinton's decision to order U.S. forces in the Gulf on a war footing came after he was shown top secret strategic estimates arguing that the regime of Iraqi strongman Saddam Hussein could be toppled by

Make sure Ms. Albright's picture is affixed; you know, that Secretary of State, U.S.A. who “didn't know she was Jewish”.

UNRELIABLE REPORTS

But Middle Eastern diplomatic sources warn that these reports are based on information put out by the Mossad, Israel's secret service, after its agents purportedly co-opted and debriefed a key Iraqi defector last December. [H: “Purportedly” is THE key word here. My goodness, readers, aren't you sick unto death of the cheats, liars and Kol Nidre misfits? What does it take to wake you up and get you “mad as hell” so you don't take it anymore? You were once the shining light of the world in freedom, respect, and JOY. You were the dream of every foreign person as a place to live and BE. YOU HAVE BECOME THE EVIL EMPIRE ABOVE ALL OTHERS! YOU ARE TOTALLY RUN BY

THE ANTICHRIST!

Well, we are run by the help of honest people who support just the mere writing of the word. And here is some non-difficult intelligence reporting: Again, Dr. Young reports that we don't even have enough funds to publish this paper. Well, we dug up funds enough for this one—but how do we do the next? Every other truth-bringer is in the same position and, therefore, we each do that which we can and push as hard as we can to survive. But is survival enough? You must face your enemy NOW, World, for he has just eaten and is digesting America (all countries represented therein.)

In a detailed intelligence summary distributed both to the White House and the U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), the Mossad identified the defector as Iraqi Lt. Col. Wafik al-Sammarrai. He was described as a former chief of Saddam Hussein's military intelligence service, who was said to have defected in late 1996 while on a trip to Greece.

Col. al-Sammarrai allegedly told Israeli interrogators that a number of Iraq's armed forces commanders were “fed up” with Saddam Hussein's one-man rule and opposed his “suicidal” confrontation with the West.

According to the Mossad summary sent to Washington through back channels, the renegade Iraqi officer identified some of these disaffected generals by name.

If pounding, merciless U.S. air raids smashed the Iraqi ruler's palaces, his national communications network including Baghdad TV and radio, as well as other key installations, the generals would “see the light” and oust Saddam Hussein, Col. al-Sammarrai reportedly assured his Israeli interrogators.

WARNING NOTICE

But senior Middle Eastern diplomatic sources have provided this populist newspaper's diplomatic correspondent with access to a warning notice circulated last month by the Arab League among the leaders of its 21 member states.

The confidential memorandum points out that the Mossad's intelligence summary, attempting to justify all-out bombardment of Iraq, sounds like a fabrication.

It appears to be just another “disinformation, cover and deception operation of the sort Israel has launched on numerous past occasions” to mislead and manipulate U.S. strategy, the Arab League circular cautions.

[H: How many of you readers are even yet informed (by the time you get this paper) about the cute games of yesterday and the day before BY YOUR U.S. GOVERNMENT AND THE MOVIE MAKERS? THEY GOT CAUGHT WITH THE FILM OF BOMBING RUNS AND STRIKES ALREADY READY TO SHOW YOU-THE-PEOPLE. Is this Mr. Spielberg at his finest, or what? WAG THE DOG, PEOPLE; THIS IS SICKER THAN SICK. YOU PLAN TO GO BOMB A BUNCH OF PEOPLE AND YET THE NICE PRECISION STRIKES MOVIE YOU WILL BE SHOWN AS PUBLIC ONGOING “REPORTING” IS NOT ONLY READY, IT IS EDITED AND WAITING. THE EDITING CREW GOT CAUGHT AND, OF COURSE, THE REAL LIES STARTED LIKE A BLIZZARD, BUT ALL THE STORIES WERE DIFFERENT—OH WELL. AND WHAT HAPPENED ON THE MOON WITH YOU GUYS? ANTICHRIST HAS GOTCHA, AMERICA!]

It cites several inconsistencies in the Mossad's intelligence summary, including the fact that Col. al-Sammarrai “is known to have left Iraq well before 1996; in fact, he has been described as a paid international anti-Saddam operative ever since 1993.”

As for the Israeli intelligence summary's claim that aerial warfare will set the stage for military uprising in Iraq, independent observers around the world scoffed at the proposition.

Even the staid London Times—the voice of Britain's ruling Establishment, claimed by Clinton as his closest ally—dismissed the notion with a single word: “Lunacy”.

OPPOSITION

The Saudi government responded to these developments with an official announcement by Prince Sultan, its defense minister and second prime minister, widely respected as the Arab world's wisest and most statesmanlike leader.

“Saudi Arabia is opposed to bombing raids or other military action against the nation and people of Iraq,” Prince Sultan proclaimed.

Egypt—known in ordinary times as Washington's best-paid and least troublesome Mideast client—went even further. President Hosni Mubarak announced that he would convene an emergency Arab summit to adopt “measures to prevent any armed aggression against Iraq”. [H: And, you will note: THAT HAS HAPPENED!]

[END OF QUOTING]

While we are on the topic and have permission to further spread the information, and with unlimited gratitude to SPOTLIGHT who has had to fight these Antichrists for years, let us share some more “REAL STUFF”. I ask that we please give all information regarding Spotlight AND Liberty Lobby. If you won't hear us, readers, LISTEN TO THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN AROUND YOUR PLACE, LEARNING THE HARD WAY.

ANATOMY OF DISINFORMATION CAMPAIGN;
IT'S IRAN-CONTRA AFFAIR ALL OVER AGAIN

by Martin Mann

Today's Mideast deception campaign has a "made in Israel" label, just like the Iran-Contra scandal.

Ten years ago, National Review, the nominally conservative magazine published by talk-show host William F. Buckley, [a Jew with a British accent], provided the anatomy of a mammoth disinformation and deception operation by Israel. This was the so-called Iran-Contra affair. Now another Israeli operation against the U.S. government threatens to plunge the country into war, and Israel is using the same blueprint. [H: No! It is not against the U.S. government. Just like back then—THEY ARE THE U.S. GOVERNMENT!]

But the story of how National Review turned into a vehicle for the ministate's black propaganda mendacities is important again this year, when the Israel lobby is once again inflaming public opinion—this time against Iraq—with a similar campaign of lies and distorted "threat assessments".

Buckley and his magazine became unwitting instruments of Israel's entrapment [H: Oh Barf, Mr. Mann.] scheme because both were known for their unconditional support of President Ronald Reagan and of Zionism at the time, evidence assembled by this populist newspaper has suggested.

In the fall of 1986, the Reagan administration faced a potentially fatal crisis: headline stories involving some of its top officials in a conspiracy to sell high-tech armaments to Iran and to funnel some of the proceeds to the Nicaraguan anti-communist fighters known as the "Contras". [H: When all this shakes out you will learn it had nothing to do with Communism and everything to do with CIA-Administration DRUG RUNNING. ARMS WERE ALSO BEING FUNNELLED TO IRAQ AND SADDAM HUSSEIN ALONG WITH BOODLES OF MONEY.]

To defend themselves against charges of criminal conspiracy, Reagan's top aides decided to tell their story—an account of "what really happened"—to a friendly and trusted U.S. publication.

The White House chose Buckley and his National Review, known for their unswerving loyalty to Reaganism and to the ideals of a "Greater Israel". [H: Now, this is right on the mark.]

On Friday, November 14, 1986—the morning after Reagan gave a speech in which he told the nation of the Iran problem for the first time—the writer assigned by Buckley to the case, Neil C. Livingstone, an "anti-terrorist" expert, sat down in Washington's posh Hay-Adams hotel with Lt. Col. OLIVER NORTH for a secret briefing on the affair. [H: Don't forget this is the SAME Oliver North who went with George Bush, James Baker III, Lloyd Bentsen, and another couple of thugs, to the hospital to get Russell Herman to sign over the "Super-Fund" Peruvian contract of such current fame. They really couldn't do much more to him, however, for they HAD ALREADY KILLED HIM; he was just waiting to die and even though they hastened his departure-time a bit, he held strong and DID NOT MEET THEIR DEMANDS. INSTEAD, HE AND V.K. DURHAM HAD PUT THAT CONTRACT TO PUBLIC RECORD FOR YOU-THE-PEOPLE. HOW BLIND YOU ARE AND HOW CARELESS WITH THE GREAT GIFTS OF GOD AND THE SACRIFICES OF "REAL" MEN. WAS RUSSELL SO GREAT IN HIS INTENTIONS ALL ALONG? NO, HE WAS A FULL PARTNER WITH THEM, SO CERTAINLY HE KNEW WHAT HE WAS DOING AND DID IT FOR YOU AND YOU DIDN'T HAVE THE TIME OF DAY FOR HIM OR HIS GIFT.]

In a lead article in the January 30, 1987 issue of National Review, Livingstone reported on what he learned at that briefing under a splashy cover headline: "What Ollie North Told Me Before He Took the Fifth." [H: And believe me when I tell you that Billy Zipper is "just not himself" lately. He is having to go to Camp David for revamping every weekend these days. He can't even help what he is doing—he is nothing but a brain-controlled robot.]

"What follows is, I believe, the true story behind the secret diplomacy with Iran, as told to me by Ollie North," Livingstone wrote.

In essence, North told the National Review writer that the Reagan Administration, "acting in concert with Israel", had decided to sell missiles to Iran after it received secret intelligence reports of menacing Soviet preparations to invade and seize this oil-rich Gulf nation.

Although Livingstone's article did not specify just where these blockbuster "intelligence" reports came from, it is known today, from the confessions of Col. Robert "Bud" McFarlane, who served as national security director in the Reagan White House at the time, that the reports of a planned Soviet takeover of Iran came from three top Mossad agents.

AGENTS NAMED

McFarlane has identified them as David Kimche, then a deputy director of the Israeli secret service; Amiram Nir, the chief intelligence adviser in the Israeli prime minister's office; and Manucher Ghorbanifar, a millionaire arms dealer and Zionist deception operative.

These Mossad middlemen urgently warned the Reagan White House that legions of Soviet agents—"as many as 600 KGB operatives and Spetsnaz [Russian Special Forces unit]" Livingstone reported in National Review—had been infiltrated into Teheran to subvert Iran's fundamentalist Islamic government.

The undercover Bolshevik invasion of Iran was first of all designed to fan the flames of the Iran-Iraq war then in full swing. The Iranian high command was being lured into disastrous assaults in well-defined Iraqi lines by Soviet disinformation, Ollie North related to Livingstone.

"Once the Iranian military were destroyed and the [Iranian] Revolutionary Guards were drawn out of Teheran, Moscow's Iranian allies will seize the government, and, as in Afghanistan, request Soviet military assistance," North told the National Review writer.

To comply with that request, hundreds of thousands of Soviet troops were already being massed near the Iranian border, North disclosed.

As Washington national security officials came to "recognize the seriousness of this threat" reported by Israeli intelligence, President Reagan gave the go-ahead for contacting and arming the "moderate" factions in the Iranian government, who were already said to be in touch with the Mossad, North explained to Livingstone.

AFTERMATH

What followed was the tragi-comic aerial mission to Teheran by a secret team of Reagan aides, who were sent to contact the "Iranian moderates" promised by the Mossad—only to find that they didn't exist.

In the aftermath, Reagan's national security chief, Col. McFarlane, who felt duped and disgraced by the Mossad's David Kimche, attempted to kill himself.

Today it is well known that the so-called Israeli "intelligence reports" were at the heart of the Iran-Contra scandal. All of the Mossad's warnings about a Soviet plan to grab Iran were lies, cunning fabrications designed to stampede the Reagan Administration into endorsing secretive but highly lucrative Israeli arms sales to Iran.

AND HERE IS A COMFORTING SOMETHING ABOUT "WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION"—FOR REAL:

[QUOTING, same paper, same page:]

U.S. TACTICAL NUKES ON STANDBY IN GULF

by Mike Blair

Military experts say nuclear weapons must be on board U.S. ships in the Persian Gulf.

U.S. aircraft carriers poised in the Middle East to launch strikes against Iraq are carrying tactical nuclear bombs and missiles with which to arm jet fighter-bombers.

This is the opinion of a retired Air Force intelligence officer who spoke with The SPOTLIGHT, on the guarantee of anonymity, about the potential tinder box that is about to be ignited in the Persian Gulf.

"Since President Clinton has signed a directive [SPOTLIGHT, Feb. 16] changing the rules to allow the use of tactical nuclear weapons to blast Iraq, it stands to reason that such weapons are already aboard aircraft carriers on station there," the retired officer explained.

"Certainly," he added, "if a decision is made to use such weapons in retaliation for Iraq's use, or apparent use, of biological and chemical weapons against our troops, or Israel, our military could not be expected to have to wait until they are delivered to the carriers from bases outside the area."

PPD-60 CONFIRMED

The retired intelligence officer was referring to a Presidential Order signed last November, Presidential Policy Directive No. 60, or PPD-60, as it is more commonly known.

The directive alters U.S. nuclear policy to allow the use of tactical nuclear weapons in the event that Saddam Hussein releases any chemical or biological weapons against U.S. forces or neighboring countries, (read: Israel), according to reports being specifically mentioned in the document.

It is believed that the directive would allow the use of B61 series of tactical nuclear warheads, the so-called “mini-nukes” which have an explosive force of about one kiloton, which makes them about 300 to 500 times more powerful than the largest conventional non-nuclear warheads available to the U.S. military. [H: Very definitely “weapons of mass destruction” any way you cut this pie.]

The retired Air Force officer [H: He isn’t named because we want him to remain “retired” and not “dead”.] told THE SPOTLIGHT that he believes the nuclear warheads are aboard the U.S. carriers and probably on U.S. surface-to-surface guided missile cruisers and destroyers deployed to the Gulf region. [H: How does this make you feel about the security of your own sons, husbands, fathers and brothers?]

He said he doubts that they are deployed to Bahrain and Kuwait, from which U.S. Air Force planes will strike Iraq, because the U.S. military would not have total control of these foreign bases.

However, bases in Bahrain are known to be a jump-off point for U.S. F-15 E fighter bombers and B-1 subsonic bombers, both of which carry laser-guided bombs including an enhanced GBU28, which can penetrate 11 feet of reinforced concrete.

Both Red China and Russia have announced very vocal opposition to the planned U.S. air strikes against Iraq.

The question on the minds of many foreign policy experts is whether Russian President Boris Yeltsin was thinking specifically of the U.S. use of tactical nuclear weapons when he stated that an air strike against Saddam Hussein’s domain “could spark World War III”.

Actually, the U.S. has pledged not to use nuclear weapons on a signer of the nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. Iraq is a signatory. Israel IS NOT.

That argument does not appease either the Russians or the Red Chinese, both of which are capable of launching nuclear attacks against the United States.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now for you who want me to stop writing about these topics, I will tell you now: NO. In addition to other nasties, this is a major opportunity, whether there is, or is not, war, to get an unlimited number of Israelis INTO THE UNITED STATES PERMANENTLY on the basis of their “danger” in Israel, from Iraq. By the PLANELOADS these “now-called refugees” are flooding out of Tel Aviv and INTO THE U.S. AND OTHER INTERIM PLACES WHERE THEY WILL THEN BE TRANSFERRED INTO THE U.S. WITHOUT NEED OF PASSPORTS, PERMISSION, PERMITS OR ANY OTHER REQUIREMENTS.

I believe it is now appropriate to close this writing with an article from THE TORONTO STAR, Feb. 20, 1998.

FARRAKHAN MAKES

CHALLENGES MAJOR FAITHS IN TORONTO SPEECH

Rebecca Bragg, staff reporter

Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan wrapped up a 53-nation tour in Toronto last night with a fiery plea for a “revolution” in ATTITUDE among all faith groups.

In a speech before about 3,000 people at the CNE Coliseum, Farrakhan, who has come under fire in the past for anti-Semitic remarks, slammed all the world’s major religions for straying from the intent of their prophets.

And while no faith was singled out for special criticism, Farrakhan took aim at people who gave lip service to their religions without making a corresponding commitment to action.

“Goodness is measured by the quality of your service to God and the quality of your service to man,” the charismatic but controversial American leader thundered.

Too many Christians, Muslims, Jews, Buddhists and Hindus “refuse to attempt the uphill road” and take actions such as “freeing a slave or feeding an orphan”, Farrakhan said.

Although everyone who attended the speech was subjected to a thorough body search before they were allowed in the auditorium, there wasn’t a hint of disorderly conduct all evening.

Farrakhan’s Toronto supporters—women dressed in white tunics and hijab (headscarves), clean-cut young men in suits with trademark white shirts and bow ties—were helpful but otherwise unobtrusive.

Although the vast majority of people in the audience were Black, not all were Muslim, and the event opened first with Islamic prayers in Arabic, then Christian prayers in English.

CANADA AND THE U.S.
GOVERNMENTS DRAW CRITICISM ON IRAQ

While the Nation of Islam has been criticized for anti-White bigotry, its followers, mainly in the United States, have also been praised for their commitment to clean living and community involvement.

Nothing that Farrakhan, 64, said last night could have been construed as racially divisive.

But his attitude toward a possible military strike against Iraq left no room for doubt that governments of the United States and Canada are in the WRONG.

“My dear Prime Minister, what has Iraq done to you?” Farrakhan asked rhetorically.

“We can’t let these politicians rule when they’re [crazy] as hell.”

Whatever weapons Saddam Hussein now has in his army were sold to him by Western countries, he told the crowd.

“As long as Saddam was killing Muslims in Iran, the West didn’t give a damn what weapons he used,” Farrakhan said.

Now, with the Iraqi people having endured seven years of deprivation since the Gulf War, “Nothing but a damn group of cowards would make war on a nation that has no ability to fight back,” he said.

[END OF QUOTING]

Our plea is always, “God please have mercy on us.” NO, readers, THERE WILL BE NO MERCY FOR YOUR DELIBERATE ALLOWANCE OF THIS KIND OF ACTION. NONE. THE RETALIATION FROM THE ARAB AND OTHER PEOPLES OF THE WORLD WILL FALL ON THE

DOORSTEPS OF THOSE WHO ALLOWED THE ANTICHRIST OF THE JEWISH FORMAT TO RUN RAMPANT. 2/17/98 #1 HATONN

[QUOTING, Part 5, GLOBAL PARASITES:]

JEWISH HISTORY IN THE UNITED STATES

The story of the Jews in America begins with Christopher Columbus. On August 2, 1492, more than 300,000 Jews were expelled from Spain, with which event Spain's prestige began its long decline, and on August 3, the next day, Columbus set sail for the West, taking a group of Jews with him. They were not, however, refugees, for the prophetic navigator's plans had aroused the sympathy of influential Jews for a long period previously. Columbus himself tells us that he consorted much with Jews. The first letter he wrote detailing his discoveries was to a Jew. Indeed, the eventful voyage itself which added to men's knowledge and wealth "the other half of the Earth" was made possible by Jews.

The pleasant story that it was Queen Isabella's jewels which financed the voyage has disappeared under cool research. There were three Maranos or "secret Jews" who wielded great influence at the Spanish court: Luis de Santagel, who was an important merchant of Valencia and who was "farmer" of the royal taxes; his relative, Gabriel Sanchez, who was the royal treasurer; and their friend, the royal chamberlain, Juan Cabrero. [H: Bet you didn't know all this!] These worked unceasingly on Queen Isabella's imagination, picturing to her the depletion of the royal treasury and the likelihood of Columbus discovering the fabulous gold of the Indies, until the Queen was ready to offer her jewels in pawn for the funds. But Santagel craved permission to advance the money himself, which he did, 17,000 ducats in all, about $20,000, perhaps equal to $160,000 today (1920). It is probable that the loan exceeded the expedition's cost.

Associated with Columbus in the voyage were at least five Jews: Luis de Torres, interpreter; Marco, the surgeon; Bernal, the physician; Alonzo de la Calle, and Gabriel Sanchez. The astronomical instruments and maps which the navigators used were of Jewish origin. Luis de Torres was the first man ashore, the first to discover the use of tobacco; he settled in Cuba and may be said to be the father of Jewish control of the tobacco business as it exists today.

[H: I am reminded here of the foolish play on the tobacco industry to meet the obligations of your "balanced budget". Isn't there something wrong with this picture today? Are you really going to have a shut-down of smoking and still have the tobacco industry pay for your deficits with that "fine" levied or agreed to or whatever—none of it makes any sense at all.

Now turn to the Lewinsky-Billy Zipper problem and see if you can make a connection. No, none other than Grandpa Lewinsky making a lot, LOT, of Democratic contributions? Why? Well, look a bit deeper and then go read Gary Wean's material {pages 36-44 in last week's CONTACT} from just topical investigation. Monica's FATHER is a leading Oncologist (cancer specialist). The leading Jewish male disease is COLON CANCER—which is not yet covered by Medicare or any other assistance program. The effort is to get "colon cancer" covered by Government Medical coverage and there will be specified Oncologists on a list for approved treatment physicians and clinics. Not a shabby effort! Sounds silly? No, sorry, it is both real and is working. I find it quite appropriate.]

Columbus' old patrons, Luis de Santagel and Gabriel Sanchez, received many privileges for the part they played in the work, but Columbus himself became the victim of a conspiracy fostered by Bernal, the ship's doctor, and suffered injustice and imprisonment as his reward.

From the beginning, Jews looked more and more to America as a fruitful field, and immigration set in strongly toward South America, principally Brazil. But because of military participation in a disagreement between the Brazilians and the Dutch, the Jews of Brazil found it necessary to emigrate, which they did in the direction of the Dutch colony of what is now New York. Peter Stuyvesant, the Dutch governor, did not entirely approve of their settling among his people and ordered them to leave, but the Jews had evidently taken the precaution to assure their being received even if not welcomed, because upon revoking the order of Stuyvesant, the Directors gave as one of the reasons for the Jews being received, "the large amount of capital which they have invested in the shares of the Company". Nevertheless they were forbidden to enter public service and to open retail shops, which had the effect of driving them into foreign trade in which they were soon exercising all but a monopoly because of their European connections.

This is only one of the thousand illustrations which can be given of the resourcefulness of the Jew. Forbid him in one direction, he will excel in another. [H: You could all take lessons. It seems like God's team works best and loss in one direction means QUIT.] When he was forbidden to deal in new clothes, he sold old clothes—that was the beginning of organized traffic in secondhand clothing. When he was forbidden to deal in merchandise, he dealt in waste—the Jew is the originator of the waste product businesses of the world; he was the originator of the salvage system; he found wealth in the debris of civilization. He taught people how to use old rags, how to clean old feathers, how to use gall nuts and rabbit skins. He has always had a taste for the furrier trade, which he now controls, and to him is due the multitude of common skins which now pass under various alluring [missing sentence].

The American Jew does not assimilate. This is stated, not to blame him, but merely as a fact. The Jew could merge with the people of America if he desired, but he doesn't. If there is any prejudice existing against him in America, aside from the sense of inquiry which his colossal success engenders, it is because of his aloofness. The Jew is not objectionable in his person, creed, or race. His spiritual ideals are shared by the world. [H: As expressed.] But still he does not assimilate; he cultivates by his exclusiveness the feeling that he does not "belong". This is his privilege, and from one point of view it may indicate excellent judgment, but he must not make it one of the grounds of his complaint against Gentiles in general, as he has a tendency to do. It is better that he should make it clear to Gentiles once and for all where true Jews stand in the matter, as when a young Jew said—"There is all the difference in the world between an American Jew and a Jewish American. A Jewish American is a mere amateur Gentile, doomed to be a parasite forever."

[H: RE-READ THAT PLEASE. There is more "meaning" in that one statement than perhaps in all the rest of the book assembled.]

The ghetto is not an American product but the Jews' own importation. [H: Note in modern times you will find the ghettos made up of areas such as Brentwood, Hollywood, New York business sections and high-income suburbs, Beverly Hills and other high-rent city places—not the recognized or "thought about" dark isolated ghettos of the poverty stricken Jew or any other minority grouping. The Jew, however, will whine and cry about his plight and those "against" him all the way to every MAJOR BANK IN THE WORLD.] They have separated themselves into a distinct community. Speaking of this matter the Jewish Encyclopedia says: "The social organization of the Jews resident in America has differed little from that in other countries...in the main, and without any compulsion, Jews preferred to live in close proximity to one another, a peculiarity which still prevails."

To make a list of the lines of business controlled by the Jews of the United States would be to touch most of the vital industries of the country—those which are really vital, and those which cultivated habit has made to seem vital. The theatrical business, of course, as everyone knows, is exclusively Jewish. Play-producing, booking, theater operation are all in the hands of Jews. This perhaps accounts for the fact that in almost every production today can be detected propaganda, sometimes glaringly commercial advertisement, which does not originate with playwrights, but with producers.

- The motion picture industry.
- The sugar industry.
- The tobacco industry.
- Fifty per cent or more of the meat packing industry.
- Upward of 60 per cent of the shoemaking industry.
- Men's and women's ready-made clothing.
- Most of the musical purveying done in the country.
- Jewelry.
- Grain.
- More recently, cotton.
- The Colorado smelting industry.
- Magazine authorship.
- News distribution.
- The liquor business.
- The loan business.

These, only to name the industries with national and international sweep, are in control of the Jews of the United States, either alone or in association with Jews overseas.

The American people would be vastly surprised if they could see a line-up of some of the "American business men" who hold up our commercial prestige overseas. They are mostly Jews. They have a keen sense of the value of the American name, and when in a foreign port you stroll up to the office which bears the sign, "American Importing Company", or "American Commercial Company", or other similarly noncommittal names, hoping to find a countryman, an American, you usually find a Jew whose sojourn in America appears to have been all too brief. This may throw a sidelight on the regard in which "American business methods" are held in some parts of the world. When 30 or 40 different races of people can carry on business under the name "American", and do it legally, too, it is not surprising that Americans do not recognize some of the descriptions of American methods which appear in the foreign press. The Germans long ago complained that the rest of the world was judging them by the German-speaking Jewish commercial traveler.

Instances of Jewish prosperity in the United States are commonplace, but prosperity, the just reward of foresight and application, is not to be confounded with control. The prosperity of the Jews can be had by any one who is willing to pay the price which the Jews pay for it—a very, very high price, as a rule, all things considered—but it would be impossible for any Gentile coalition under similar circumstances to attain the control which the Jews have won, for the reason that there is lacking in the Gentile a certain quality of working-togetherness, a certain conspiracy of objective, and the adhesiveness of intense raciality, which characterizes the Jew. It is nothing to a Gentile that another man is a Gentile; it is next to everything to a Jew that the man at his door is another Jew. So, if instances of Jewish prosperity were needed, the case of the Temple Emmanuel, New York, might be cited, which in 1846 could scarcely raise $1,520 for its budget, but in 1868, following the Civil War, raised $708,755 from the rental of 231 pews. And the rise of the Jewish clothing monopoly as one of the results of the same Civil War might be cited as an instance of prosperity plus national and international control.

Indeed, it might be said that the Jew has succeeded in everything he has attempted in the United States, except farming. The explanation usually made in Jewish publications is that ordinary farming is far too simple to engage the Jew's intellect and therefore he is not enough interested in it to succeed, but that in dairy and cattle farming where the "brain" is more necessary he has made a success. Numerous attempts have been made in various parts of the United States to start Jewish farming colonies, but their story is a series of failures. [H: They have, however, over the years gained TOTAL BUSINESS CONTROL OF THE FARMING INDUSTRY.] Some have blamed the failure on the Jew's lack of knowledge of scientific farming, others on his distaste for manual labor, others on the lack of the speculative element in agriculture. In any case, he stands higher in the non-productive employments than in this basically productive one. Some students of the question state that the Jew never was a man of the land, but always a trader, for which assertion one of the proofs offered is the Jews' selection of Palestine as their country, that strip of land which formed a gateway between East and West and over which the overland traffic of the world passed. [H: How many of you realized that little tidbit of geography?]

[END OF QUOTING]

My observation is that the misplaced documents with missing parts prior to this may well be a portion of this very writing, No. 5. I don't object if you, in placing the work into a journal, correct the error. Or, leave it as is for this is how it was presented for our use.

I hope you can see from this very writing that a slam against Jewish aggressiveness is NOT the issue for there must be business aggression if there is to be a successful industrial base upon which a society can be built, upon which all can earn a just living. But the objections have come through the total usurpation of government structure and fundamental movement AWAY from industry and into a controlled hyper-society of non-producers. Civilizations must have products and must have food and other basic necessities and when the balance is off, the nation will fold for there is nothing valid upon which to support the masses. It is through this terrible lack of balance that Antichrist shows his lust for inequality and his penchant for making a dollar off anything which comes along from welfare programs to the IRS. The CONTROL stemming from this power of manipulation and gain of oversight is that which constricts the very life-flow of nations and peoples.

You will have your things such as NAFTA orchestrated by these same giants to further debilitate the industrial base of a nation while shifting to and exploiting the more poverty-stricken nations for that industrial fabrication processing. Then when there are no more earners paying the incredible increases in tax demands—all the general assistance is removed into the pockets of the Jewish kings and the citizens are left with nothing save WARS in their future—for WARS MAKE MONEY FOR THE ELITE. High level Jewish boys and girls do not get SENT TO WAR—THEY HELP MAKE THE WARS and "acceptable losses" do not include THEM. The money flows back to the Elite gatherers and the bills go to the masses who must then experience one depression following on the heels of each war encounter. You do not need a war in Iraq to hide Billy's zipper problems—you need MONEY, America, for you are on the brink of total economic disaster!

Your Constitution was written by Masons and Jews and was built on the foundation of Native American constitutions. There was no intent of being totally honest or FAIR. The point was to structure something that sounded good, gave a foot in the industrial-age door, and then immediately THE AMENDMENTS WOULD TAKE CARE OF ANY UNDESIRABLE RESTRICTIONS ON THE RICH AND CONTROLLING GOVERNMENT. You have no "Constitution" left in operation for you, already, in America, function UNDER THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT. HOW ELSE DO YOU THINK YOU COULD GO FORTH AND HAVE A UNILATERAL WAR ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD WHILE ALL YOUR COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE AGAINST THE MOVE?

And how would your Attorney General rule on this matter? With the Big Boys of the World Order, of course. She, Reno, and your Treasurer, just as are other cabinet members of your President, ARE FULLY PAID BY THE IMF (INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND) OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND INCLUSIVE OF, THE WORLD BANK.

There, LAWFULLY, only is required the President's signature to the ORDER without any consideration of Congress AT ALL to go to war and invoke every domestic Executive Order to bring everything in America under total Government CONTROL, from your transportation to your food supply—EVERYTHING! The orders are in place and operative and the Elite controllers KNOW EXACTLY WHAT THEY ARE DOING.

THEY DON'T EVEN HAVE TO PULL OFF A WAR TO GET TOTAL CONTROL OF THE NATION AND THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION. Why in the world do you marvel at the tactics against your President today? But, Clinton knows that if he signs over to this war, he is finished. This is a pretty nasty place for anyone, even Billy Zipper.

By the way, Americans, how are you financing this massive build-up in the Gulf? This is not exactly like a maneuver exercise off the Gulf of Mexico. This is half a world away and the cost is enormous for this little show of power. WHO IS PAYING FOR IT THAT YOU CAN STILL CONSIDER CUTTING MILITARY BUDGETS, CLOSE MILITARY BASES AND CUT DEFENSE BUDGETS TO LESS THAN MAINTENANCE LEVELS? PAY ATTENTION: WHO IS PAYING FOR THIS MASSIVE PIECE OF MANIPULATION AND DESTRUCTION GAMES? BALANCED BUDGET? COME NOW, YOU CAN'T EVEN ASSIST THE PEOPLE IN YOUR CURRENT "NATIONAL DISASTERS".

Oh I see, well this "superfund" and thus and so? So the presses run out worthless paper notes triple-time, and that with new and doubled presses brought on line.

But you will stop this insanity? HOW ARE YOU GOING TO STOP THIS INSANITY? YOU DID NOTHING WHEN YOU COULD HAVE STOPPED IT SO WHY THINK YOU THAT YOU CAN CHANGE IT NOW?

And no: all the praying you do for God to change it—will merit you NOTHING. God only rebuilds and creates—He does not destroy and the bringing down of this government you have established is destruction. You are stuck with that which you have allowed and helped construct.

Will this mean the end of the world? As YOU know it, yes, but as the world knows it, it is the BEGINNING. NOSTRADAMUS WAS A JEW; JOHN'S REVELATION SCRIBE WAS A JEW; WOW!

The other religions of the world, EXCLUSIVE of your evangelical fundamentalist christians, DON'T EVEN CONSIDER YOUR REVELATIONS TO MATTER A WHIT—EXCEPT TO AGAIN OPEN THE POSSIBILITIES OF LIFE FLOW INTO THE MASSES OF HUMANITY—WHEN THE HEAD ANTICHRIST IS GONE. THEREFORE, AMERICA MAY GET VERY HOT AND BOTHERED PRETTY SOON NOW.

Dharma, get off this computer for that "singing" is for you! Adonai.

[QUOTING, Part 6, GLOBAL PARASITES:]

THE JEWISH QUESTION—FACT OR FANCY?

"The Jewish Question still exists. It would be useless to deny it. The Jewish Question exists wherever Jews live in perceptible numbers. Where it does not exist, it is carried by Jews in the course of their migrations. We naturally move to those places where we are not persecuted, and there our presence produces persecutions... The unfortunate Jews are now carrying anti-Semitism into England; they have already introduced it into America."

—Theodore Herzl, A Jewish State, p. 4.

The chief difficulty in writing about the Jewish Question is the supersensitiveness of Jews and non-Jews concerning the whole matter. There is a vague feeling that even to openly use the word "Jew", or to expose it nakedly in print, is somehow improper.

Polite evasions like "Hebrew" and "Semite", both of which are subject to the criticism of inaccuracy, are timidly essayed, and people pick their way gingerly as if the whole subject were forbidden, until some courageous Jewish thinker comes straight out with the good old word "Jew", and then the constraint is relieved and the air cleared. The word "Jew" is not an epithet; it is a name, ancient and honorable, with significance for every period of human history, past, present and to come. [H: And note that even Ford was writing without full research or investigation or he would know that "Jew" is NOT an "ancient" name but, rather, a very recent term coined to fit a need of the self-styled Khazarian Serpent People. As the government comes under control of the Jews and the press, media and most great business corporations, the term Jew is utilized more and more as if breaking ice, by such as speakers in the media mostly at gatherings of old comedians on various programs where they can openly talk about being Jewish and speak of "the Jews". Larry King is an excellent example of being a Jew himself and bringing full recognition of the high status of that label on his guests.]

There is extreme sensitiveness about the public discussion of the Jewish Question on the part of Gentiles. They would prefer to keep it in the hazy borderlands of their thought, shrouded in silence. Their heritage of tolerance has something to do with their attitude, but perhaps their instinctive sense of the difficulty involved has more to do with it. The principal public Gentile pronouncements upon the Jewish Question are in the manner of the truckling politician or the pleasant after-dinner speaker; the great Jewish names in philosophy, medicine, literature, music and finance are named over, the energy, ability and thrift of the race are dwelt upon, and everyone goes home feeling that a difficult place has been rather neatly negotiated. But nothing is changed thereby. The Jew is not changed. The Gentile is not changed. The Jew still remains the enigma of the world.

Gentile sensitiveness on this point is best expressed by the desire for silence—"Why discuss it at all?" is the attitude. Such an attitude is itself a proof that there is a problem which we would evade if we could. "Why discuss it at all?"—the keen thinker clearly sees in the implications of such a question the existence of a problem whose discussion or suppression will not always be within the choice of easy-going minds.

Is there a Jewish Question in Russia? Unquestionably, in its most virulent form. Is it necessary to meet that Question in R u s s i a ? Undoubtedly, meet it from every angle along with light, and healing may come.

Well, the percentage of the Jewish population of Russia is just one per cent more than it is in the United States. The majority of the Jews themselves are not less well-behaved in Russia than they are here; they lived under restrictions which do not exist here; yet in Russia their genius has enabled them to attain a degree of power which has completely baffled the Russian mind. Whether you go to Rumania, Russia, Austria or Germany, or anywhere else that the Jewish Question has come to the forefront as a vital issue, you will discover that the principal cause is the outworking of the Jewish genius to achieve the power of control.

This brings another difficulty: In discussing this group of world-controllers under the name of Jews (and they are Jews), it is not always possible to stop and distinguish the group of Jews that is meant. The candid reader can usually determine that, but the Jew who is in a state of mind to be injured is sometimes pained by reading as a charge against himself what was intended for the upper group. "Then why not discuss the upper groups as financiers and not as Jews?" may be asked. Because they ARE Jews. It is not to the point to insist that in any list of rich men there are more Gentiles than Jews; we are not talking about merely rich men who have, many of them, gained their riches by serving a System, we are talking about those who Control—and it is perfectly apparent that merely to be rich is not to control. The world-controlling Jew has riches, but he also has something much more powerful than that.

Here in the United States it is the fact of this remarkable minority—a sparse Jewish ingredient of three per cent in a nation of 110,000,000—attaining in 50 years a degree of control that would be impossible to a ten times larger group of any other race, that creates the Jewish Question here. Three per cent of any other people would scarcely occasion comment, because we could not meet with a representative of them wherever we went in high places—in the innermost secrecy of the councils of the Big Four at Versailles, in the supreme court, in the councils of the White House, in the vast dispositions of world finance—wherever there is power to get or use. Yet we meet the Jew everywhere in the upper circles, literally everywhere there is power. He has the brains, the initiative, the penetrative vision which almost automatically project him to the top, and as a consequence he is more marked than any other race.

And that is where the Jewish Question begins. It begins in very simple terms—How does the Jew so habitually and so resistlessly gravitate to the highest places? What puts him there? Why is he put there? What does he do there? What does the fact of his being there mean to the world?

That is the Jewish Question in its origin. From these points it goes on to others, and whether the trend becomes pro-Jewish or anti-Semitic depends on the amount of prejudice brought to the inquiry, and whether it becomes pro-Humanity depends on the amount of insight and intelligence.

The use of the word Humanity in connection with the word Jew usually throws a side-meaning which may not be intended. In this connection it is usually understood that the humanity ought to be shown toward the Jew. There is just as great an obligation upon the Jew to show his humanity toward the whole race. The Jew has been too long accustomed to think of himself as exclusively the claimant on the humanitarianism of society; society has a large claim against him that he cease his exclusiveness; that he cease exploiting the world; that he cease making Jewish groups the end and all of his gains, and that he begin to fulfill, in a sense his exclusiveness has never yet enabled him to fulfill, the ancient prophecy that through him all the nations of the Earth should be blessed.

The Jew cannot go on forever filling the role of suppliant for the world's humanitarianism; he must himself show that quality to a society which seriously suspects his higher and more powerful groups of exploiting it with a pitiless rapacity which in its wide-flung and long drawn-out distress may be described as an economic pogrom against a rather helpless humanity. For it is true that society is as helpless before the well-organized extortions of certain financial groups, as huddled groups of Russian Jews were helpless against the anti-Semitic mob. And as in Russia, so in America, it is the poor Jew who suffers for the delinquencies of the rich exploiter of his race. [H: Note that this is the same type of exploitation, but inclusive of violence, that has happened to the Blacks. Those high-level Blacks who seem to "succeed" in such as Congress, etc., are mostly simply symbolic showpieces and THEY HAVE JOINED THE THRUST IN GREED, POWER WISHES AND DESIRES FOR ACHIEVING WHAT THE "WHITE" MAN HAS ACCOMPLISHED. The major difference is the pure tolerance of the "handlers" of these Blacks. The Blacks are not "accepted", they are USED, for they sell out their very own people and race in the process.]

This series of articles is already being met by an organized barrage by mail and wire and voice, every single item of which carries the wail of persecution. One would think that a heartless and horrible attack were being made on a most pitiable and helpless people—until one looks at the letterheads of the magnates who write, and at the financial ratings of those who protest, and at the membership of the organizations whose responsible heads hysterically demand retraction. And always in the background there is the threat of boycott, a threat which has practically sealed up the columns of every publication in America against even the mildest discussion of the Jewish Question.

The Jewish Question in America cannot be concealed forever by threats against publications, nor by the propagandist publication of matter extremely and invariably favorable to everything Jewish. It is here and it cannot be twisted into something else by the adroit use of propaganda, nor can it be forever silenced by threats. The Jews of the United States can best serve themselves and their fellow-Jews all over the world by letting drop their far too ready cry of "anti-Semitism", by adopting a franker tone than that which befits a helpless victim, and by seeing what the Jewish Question is and how it behooves every Jew who loves his people to help solve it.

[H: It is LACK OF CHRIST VALUES. By doing lip service only to goodness and Christ's recognition of GOOD MORALS AND ETHICAL BEHAVIORS the anti-Christ can gain control of worldly manifestation. He can do that by playing to the non-Christ attitudes within every human being. He is, however, not bound by such shackles in his living expression. He prays to Lucifer as Jehovah and asks not for Godly creation in goodness but to overcome, become, and displace any above him through any means appropriate at a given time in experience. Jews simply are not bound by CHRISTIAN rules and it makes it EASY to gain control, for the usual Gentile has no desire for CONTROL but only to express. This difference is utilized constantly to bewilder and confound—and bring into control—the Gentile of any race, color or, actually, creed.]

There has been used in this series the term "International Jew". It is susceptible of two interpretations: One, the Jew wherever he may be; the other, the Jew who exercises intentional control. The real contention of the world is with the latter and his satellites, whether Jew or Gentile.

Now, this international type of Jew, this grasper after world-control, this actual possessor and wielder of world-control is a very unfortunate connection for his race to have. The most unfortunate thing about the international Jew, from the standpoint of the ordinary Jew, is that the international type is also a Jew. And the significance of this is that the type does not grow anywhere else than on a Jewish stem. There is no other racial nor national type which puts forth this kind of person. It is not merely that there are a few Jews among international financial controllers; it is that these world controllers are exclusively Jews. That is the phenomenon which creates an unfortunate situation for those Jews who are not and never shall be world-controllers, who are the plain people of the Jewish race. If world-control were mixed, like the control, say, of the biscuit business, then the occasional Jews we might find in those higher financial altitudes would not constitute the problem at all; the problem would then be limited to the existence of world-control in the hands of a few men, of whatever race or lineage they might be. But since world control is an ambition which has only been achieved by Jews, and not by any of the methods usually adopted by would-be world conquerors, it becomes inevitable that the question should center in that remarkable race.

This brings another difficulty: In discussing this group of world-controllers under the name of Jews (and they are Jews), it is not always possible to stop and distinguish the group of Jews that is meant. The candid reader can usually determine that, but the Jew who is in a state of mind to be injured is sometimes pained by reading as a charge against himself what was intended for the upper group. "Then why not discuss the upper groups as financiers and not as Jews?" may be asked. Because they ARE Jews. It is not to the point to insist that in any list of rich men there are more Gentiles than Jews; we are not talking about merely rich men who have, many of them, gained their riches by serving a System, we are talking about those who Control—and it is perfectly apparent that merely to be rich is not to control. The world-controlling Jew has riches, but he also has something much more powerful than that.

The international Jew, as already defined, rules not because he is rich, but because in a most marked degree he possesses the commercial and masterful genius of his race, and avails himself of a racial loyalty and solidarity the like of which exists in no other human group. In other words, transfer today the world-control of the international Jew to the hands of the highest commercially talented group of Gentiles, and the whole fabric of world-control would eventually fall to pieces, because the Gentile lacks a certain quality, be it human or divine, be it natural or acquired, that the Jew possesses.

[H: It is LACK OF CHRIST VALUES. By doing lip service only to goodness and Christ's recognition of GOOD MORALS AND ETHICAL BEHAVIORS the anti-Christ can gain control of worldly manifestation. He can do that by playing to the non-Christ attitudes within every human being. He is, however, not bound by such shackles in his living expression. He prays to Lucifer as Jehovah and asks not for Godly creation in goodness but to overcome, become, and displace any above him through any means appropriate at a given time in experience. Jews simply are not bound by CHRISTIAN rules and it makes it EASY to gain control, for the usual Gentile has no desire for CONTROL but only to express. This difference is utilized constantly to bewilder and confound—and bring into control—the Gentile of any race, color or, actually, creed.]

This, of course, the modern Jew denies. There is a new position taken by the modernists among the Jews which constitutes a denial that the Jew differs from any other man except in the matter of religion. "Jew" they say is not a racial designation, but a religious designation like "Episcopalian", "Catholic", "Presbyterian". This is the argument used in newspaper offices in the Jews' protests against giving the Jewish designation to those of their people who are implicated in crime—"You don't give the religious classifications of other people who are arrested," the editor is told, "why should you do it with Jews?" The appeal to religious tolerance always wins, and is sometimes useful in diverting attention from other things.

Well, if the Jews are only religiously differentiated from the rest of the world, the phenomenon grows stranger still. For the rest of the world is interested less in the Jew's religion than in anything else that concerns him. There is really nothing in his religion to differentiate the Jew from the rest of mankind, as far as the moral content of that religion is concerned, and if there were he would have overcome that by the fact that his Jewish religion supplies the moral structure for both of the other great religions. Moreover, it is stated that there are among English speaking nations 2,000,000 Jews who acknowledge their race and not their religion, while 1,000,000 are classified as agnostic—are these any less Jews than the others? The world does not think so. The authoritative students of human differences do not think so. An Irishman who grows indifferent to the Church is still an Irishman, and it would seem to be equally true that a Jew who grows indifferent to the Synagogue is still a Jew. He at least feels that he is, and so does the non-Jew.

A still more serious challenge would arise if this contention of the modernists were true, for it would necessitate the explanation of these world-controlling Jews by their religion. We should have to say, “They excel through their religion,” and then the problem would turn on the religion whose practice should bring such power and prosperity to its devotees. But another fact would intervene, namely, that these world-controlling Jews are not notably religious; and still another fact would hammer for recognition, namely, the most devout believers and most obedient followers of the Jewish religion are the poorest among the Jews. If you want Jewish orthodoxy, the bracing morality of the Old Testament, you will find it, not among the successful Jews, who have Unitarianized their religion to the same extent that the Unitarians have Judaized their Christianity, but among the poor in the side streets who still sacrifice the Saturday business for their Sabbath keeping. Certainly their religion has not given them world-control; instead, they have made their own sacrifices to keep it inviolate against modernism.

Of course, if the Jew differs from the rest of mankind only when he is in full accord with his religion, the question becomes very simple. Any criticism of the Jew becomes sheer religious bigotry and nothing else! And that would be intolerable. But it would be the consensus of thoughtful opinion that the Jew differs less in his religion than in anything else. There is more difference between the two great branches of Christianity, more conscious difference, than between any branch of Christianity and Judaism. [H: This is because you are not dealing with RELIGION—you are dealing with Spiritual righteousness and thus you bring down moral standards, which produces the very thing you would rather not be: ANTICHRIST.]

So that, the contention of certain modernists notwithstanding, the world will go on thinking of the Jew as a member of a race, a race whose persistence has defeated the utmost efforts made for its extermination, a race that has preserved itself in virility and power by the observance of those natural laws the violation of which has mongrelized so many nations, a race which has come up out of the past with the two great moral values which may be reckoned on monotheism and monogamy, a race which today is before us as the visible sign of an antiquity to which all our spiritual wealth harks back. Nay, the Jew will go on thinking of himself as the member of a people, a nation, a race. And all the mixture and intermixture of thought or faith or custom cannot make it otherwise. A Jew is a Jew and as long as he remains with his perfectly unassailable traditions, he will remain a Jew. And he will always have the right to feel that to be a Jew is to belong to a superior race.

These world-controlling Jews at the top of affairs, then, are there by virtue of, among other things, certain qualities which are inherent in their Jewish natures. Every Jew has these qualities even if not in the supreme sense, just as every Englishman has Shakespeare’s tongue but not in Shakespeare’s degree. And thus it is impracticable, if not impossible, to consider the international Jew without laying the foundations broadly upon Jewish character and psychology.

We may discount at once the too common libel that this greater form of Jewish success is built upon dishonesty. It is impossible to indict the Jewish people or any other people on a wholesale charge. No one knows better than the Jew how widespread is the notion that Jewish methods of business are all unscrupulous. There is no doubt a possibility of a great deal of unscrupulousness existing without actual legal dishonesty, but it is altogether possible that the reputation the Jewish people have long borne in this respect may have had other sources than actual and persistent dishonesty.

We may indicate one of these possible sources. The Jew at a trade is naturally quicker than most other men. They say there are other races which are as nimble at a trade as is the Jew, but the Jew does not live much among them. In this connection one may remember the famous joke about the Jew who went to Scotland.

Now, it is human nature for the slower man to believe that the quicker man is too deft by far, and to become suspicious of his deftness. Everybody suspects the “sharper” even though his sharpness be entirely honest. The slower mind is likely to conceive that the man who sees so many legitimate twists and turns to a trade, may also see and use a convenient number of illegitimate twists and turns. Moreover, there is always the ready suspicion that the one who gets “the best of the bargain” gets it by trickery which is not above board. Slow, honest, plain-spoken and straight-dealing people always have their doubts of the man who gets the better of it.

The Jews, as the records for centuries show, were a keen people in trade. They were so keen that many regarded them as crooked. And so the Jew became disliked for business reasons, not all of which were creditable to the intelligence or initiative of his enemies.

Take, for example, the persecution which Jew merchants once suffered in England. In older England the merchant class had many easy-going traditions. One tradition was that a respectable tradesman would never seek business but wait for it to come to him. Another tradition was that to decorate one’s store window with lights or colors, or to display one’s stock of goods attractively in the view of the public, was a contemptible and underhanded method of tempting a brother tradesman’s customers away from him. Still another tradition was that it was strictly unethical and unbusinesslike to handle more than one line of goods. If one sold tea, it was the best reason in the world why he should not sell teaspoons. As for advertising, the thing would have been so brazen and bold that the public opinion would have put the advertiser out of business. The proper demeanor for a merchant was to seem reluctant to part with his goods.

One may readily imagine what happened when the Jewish merchant bustled into the midst of this jungle of traditions. He simply broke them all. In those days tradition had all the force of a divinely promulgated moral law and in consequence of his initiative the Jew was regarded as a great offender. A man who would break those trade traditions would stop at nothing! The Jew was anxious to sell. If he could not sell one article to a customer, he had another on hand to offer him. The Jews’ stores became bazaars, forerunners of our modern department stores, and the old English custom of one store for one line of goods was broken up. The Jew went after trade, pursued it, persuaded it. [H: I jest not—YOU could take lessons. Why does God always have to take hind post while you allow and follow along like slaves to the master’s whip? What is WRONG with honorably and honestly becoming successful and then PROTECTING your acquisitions? Why do you put such a cheap and stingy price for God Creator? You can succeed in beautiful manner and live within the laws of God and within the laws of the land. You do not give up INTEGRITY or good MORALITY by succeeding—you discount God by your failure to even try to achieve.] He was the originator of “a quick turnover and small profits”. He originated the installment plan. The one state of affairs he could not endure was business at a standstill, and to start it moving he would do anything. He was the first advertiser—in a day when even to announce in the public prints the location of your store was to intimate to the public that you were in financial difficulties, were about to go to the wall and were trying the last desperate expedient to which no self-respecting merchant would stoop. [H: Perhaps you should hold in your mind the picture illustrated by the Jew WEeping all the way to the bank with YOUR MONEY.]

It was as easy as child’s play to connect this energy with dishonesty. The Jew was not playing the game, at least so the staid English merchant thought. As a matter of fact he was playing the game to get it all in his own hands—which he has practically done.

The Jew has shown that same ability ever since. His power of analyzing the money currents amounts to an instinct. His establishment in one country represented another base from which the members of his race could operate. Whether by the natural outworking of innate gifts, or the deliberate plan of race unity and loyalty, all Jewish trading communities had relations, and as these trading communities increased in wealth, prestige and power, as they formed relations with governments and great interests in the countries where they operated, they simply put more power into the central community wherever it might be located, now in Spain, now in Holland, now in England. Whether by intention or not, they became more closely allied than the branches of one business could be, because the cement of racial unity, the bond of racial brotherhood cannot in the very nature of things exist among the Gentiles as it exists among the Jews. Gentiles never think of themselves as Gentiles, and never feel that they owe anything to another Gentile as such. Thus they have been convenient agents of Jewish schemes at times and in places when it was not expedient that the Jewish controllers should be publicly known; but they have never been successful competitors of the Jew in the field of world-control.

From these separated Jewish communities went power to the central community where the master bankers and the master analysts of conditions lived. And back from the central community flowed information of an invaluable character and assistance wherever needed. It is not difficult to understand how, under such a condition, the nation that did not deal kindly with the Jews was made to suffer, and the nation that yielded to them their fullest desire was favored by them. And it is credibly stated that they have made certain nations feel the power of their displeasure.

This system, if it ever existed, exists in greater power today. It is today, however, threatened as it has never been. Fifty years ago, international banking, which was mostly in control of the Jews as the money brokers of the world, was on top of business. It exercised the supercontrol of governments and finance everywhere. Then came the new thing, Industry, which expanded to a degree unguessed by the shrewdest prophets and analysts. As Industry gathered strength and power it became a powerful money magnet, drawing the wealth of the world in its train, not, however, merely for the sake of possessing the money, but of making it work. Production and profit on production, instead of loans and interest on loans, became the master method for a time. The war came, in which the former broker-masters of the world had undoubtedly their large part. And now the two forces, Industry and Finance, are in a struggle to see whether Finance is again to become the master, or creative Industry. This is one of the elements which is bringing the Jewish Question to the bar of public opinion. [H: Boy, and I guess you know who won!]

To state this and prove it may be nothing more than to establish the superiority of Jewish ability. Certainly it is not a tenable position to say that the Jew is extraordinarily successful and therefore must be curbed. It would be equally aside from the truth to say that the co-ordination of Jewish activity has been, on the whole, a harmful thing for the world. It may be possible to show that up to this point it has been useful. Success cannot be attacked nor condemned. If any moral question arises at all, it must concern the use made of the success which has been attained. The whole matter centers there, after the previous fact is established. May the Jew go on as he has gone, or does his duty to the world require another use of his success?

This inquiry obviously leads to further discussion, as well as a gathering up of the remaining threads of the present discussion, which future articles will attempt to do.

[END OF QUOTING]

To fully appreciate the true definition of "JEW" you have to know background and how the very term came into being. An Irishman can be a Jew for it defines a state of activities, morality and beliefs that are not of any "religion", save perhaps Satanism or Luciferianism. Further, these people look out for one another, and if a job is open, the boss will hire his buddy or his relative, good or bad. But what happens is that when you place "hookers" onto definitions such as "race", "creed", "color", "language", etc., you can't find a PLACE to stick this shrewd manager of worldly THINGS. You have just drawn the line between Spiritual Right and Physical Experience. You don't have to work in the shadows, but the tricks are so much more effective in secret—aren't they? Even if a thing be legal and grand the assumption is that if the "other" person gets it—it is somehow unlawful, unethical or immoral. However, the point is that with the One World Order—all three attributes are actually PRESENT.

I am usually asked what should go on the "Hotline" when outrageous things come past our desks. Anything and everything you find that MAY BE SO. DISINFORMATION is the name of the game, so you can't KNOW, and I am not going to be put into the position of being a guru or a fortune teller. If you hear that there will be a war with nuclear bombs in four days, my attitude is to share it and then you check out your gear and food supplies. Then, FIND OUT WHAT YOU CAN; don't depend on the Nostradamus prophecies to MAYBE give you a clue—Nostradamus was a Catholic Jew. Quit your silly games or you are going to get blown totally away.

What are you going to do differently IF THE GERMANS IN NEW MEXICO COME OUT IN FULL DOOR-TO-DOOR INSPECTIONS? SHOOT THEM? What a bunch of hogwash.

The last document that just arrived is nothing but misinformation to rally the militias and make restless the sheeple, a last ditch effort to alert and wake up some of you sleepers waiting for war. That part is good; the explanations are not shrewd, they will get you killed.

One militia leader states: "If some foreign power came into Kansas and put a gun to our head and demanded that we hand over all the grain we have there (oops, that's right, they HAVE been doing that), YOU WOULDN'T LET THEM GET AWAY WITH IT, EVEN THOUGH SOME OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE."

What would YOU do TODAY if the above happened? Well, what makes the "visitors" think you might have grain to confiscate? What is the matter with you Gentiles? Shocked? Angry? You have even better insight if you have been anywhere near our TRUTH for these years. You do NOT become your enemy to cooperate with that enemy. Don't be silly. You act up and you become one less problem for the bad boys because they now have a reason to shoot you dead when you threaten them back. Dead martyrs or patriots are worthless. We need people to LIVE FOR FREEDOM, not keep dying in false reasoning to lessen the enemies' problems.

So, any of you around here think of pulling out your pop-guns and cocking them had best think again. You have waited too long to keep the thugs from over-running you, so you hold your fire and live to THINK of some better way to manage the circumstances. You can be GODLY in ANY setting. You have to be an idiot to be STUPID in the Antichrist movement. Those Germans will be doing exactly what they are brought here to do—whatever they are ordered to do in the absence of your own military.

This is WHY we don't have a "GROUP" of ANY KIND. You shall not place blame for your bad behavior on any of us here. We keep the law—of the land and of God. And, if the Germans arrive, ask them in, give them coffee and cake and share the journals! And if they have come to seize the journals—GIVE THEM ALL TO THEM. Remember the Teacher: "If a man takes your coat and you have two—offer him the other one as well." I have no interest in psychics, fortune tellers, spooks or kooks, remote viewers or any other kind of mystical hocus-pocus. If this displeases you, then I am sorry FOR YOU. It is this very nonsense which brings you to the stoop of disaster constantly without any kind of ability to counter it save wring your hands, prattle about it and get out your pop-guns. Shame on you for calling yourself Christ-believers. Adonai.

Let us continue with the articles of Mr. Henry Ford, still using articles from 1920, a very LONG TIME AGO.

[QUOTING, Part 7, GLOBAL PARASITES:]

ANTI-SEMITISM—WILL IT APPEAR IN THE U.S.?

"To this end we must organize. Organize, in the first place, so that the world may have proof of the extent and the intensity of our desire for liberty. Organize, in the second place, so that our resources may become known and be made available...."

"Organize, organize, organize, until every Jew must stand up and be counted—counted with us, or prove himself, wittingly or unwittingly, of the few who are against their own people."

Louis D. Brandeis, Justice of the United States Supreme Court, ZIONISM, pp. 113, 114.

[H: Anyone want to argue?]

Anyone who essays to discuss the Jewish Question in the United States or anywhere else must be fully prepared to be regarded as an Anti-Semite, in high-brow language, or in low-brow language, a Jew-baiter. [H: Now you get labeled and prosecuted for being a hate-person or "Jew-hater" instead of baiter. I believe that someone simply misheard the term.] Nor need encouragement be looked for from people or from press. The people who are awake to the subject at all prefer to wait and see how it all turns out [H: And now you know how it all turns out, don't you?]; while there is probably not a newspaper in America, and certainly none of the advertising mediums which are called magazines, which would have the temerity even to breathe seriously the fact that such a Question exists. The press in general is open at this time to fulsome editorials in favor of everything Jewish (specimens of the same being obtainable almost anywhere), while the Jewish press, which is fairly numerous in the United States, takes care of the vituperative end.

Of course, the only acceptable explanation of any public discussion at present of the Jewish Question is that some one—writer, or publisher, or a related interest—is a Jew-hater. That idea seems to be fixed; it is fixed in the Jew by inheritance; it is sought to be fixed in the Gentile by propaganda, that any writing which does not simply cloy and drip in syrupy sweetness toward things Jewish is born of prejudice and hatred. It is, therefore, full of lies, insult, insinuation, and constitutes an instigation to massacre. These terms are culled at random from Jewish editorial utterances at hand. [H: Yes, we have some also.]

It would seem to be necessary for our Jewish citizens to enlarge their classifications of Gentiles to include the class which recognizes the existence of a Jewish Question and still is not anti-Semitic.

There are four distinct parties traceable among the Jews themselves. First, those whose passionate purpose is to keep Jewish faith and lie alive at the cost of any sacrifice of popularity or success [H: Here I am reminded of Zipper Bill who smoked marijuana but didn't inhale, and Madeleine Albright who got to be her age and Secretary of State (U.S.A.) and "didn't know she was Jewish".]; second, those who are willing to make whatever sacrifice may be needed to preserve Jewish religion, but are not so particular about the traditional customs of Jewish life; third, those who have no very strong convictions either way, but are opportunists, and will always swerve in the direction of success; and, fourth, those who believe and preach that the only solution of the differences between the Jew and other men is the complete absorption of the Jewish race by the other races. The fourth is the weakest, most unpopular and least to be considered of all the parties.

With Gentiles there are only two classes, as far as this special question is concerned: those who dislike Jews, they cannot tell why; and those who are disposed to fairness, in spite of the accident of congeniality or uncongeniality, and who recognize the Jewish Question as, at least, a problem. Both these attitudes, whenever they become apparent, are subject to the charge of "anti-Semitism".

[H: I want to give you a reminding example right here. Ekkers moved to Tehachapi and on a Land Purchase Contract bought a house. Payments were made through the prior party (per that party's request). The property went into default and Ekkers were told to go to the sale and get the house at auction. They got all the papers and notifications personally but would not be allowed to even contact the mortgage parties. They went to the sale as advertised, with full purchase price in hand—there was no sale.

When the incident came to court after default was served and the lawyer, Steven Horn, refused to give continuance to get counsel and go to court, guess what the real charge was? The Ekkers are "anti-Semitic" and papers were provided where Jews were simply mentioned in a couple of paragraphs. The Judge Jason Brent and his colleagues in the Superior Court were then given full blown major paper accusations by Jason Brent as to the Ekkers being anti-Semitic as was "Rick Martin" being anti-Semitic (after, of course, Jason has stated in court in front of witnesses that "there is no Rick Martin"). These people, being good Semites—OBJECT.]

Anti-Semitism in almost every form is bound to come to the United States; indeed, it may be said that it is here now, and has been here for a long time. If it be mislabeled now, the United States will not be able to work within it the transformation which has been effected upon so many other ideas that have arrived here in their journey round the globe. [H: Well, oh boy, did it ever come to the U.S. as suggested by Mr. Ford 78 years ago.]

I ANTI-SEMITISM IS NOT:

It is said in all soberness that it is fortunate for Jews generally that the Jewish press does not circulate very widely among Gentiles, for it is probably the one established agency in the United States which, without altering its program in the least, could stir up anti-Jewish sentiment by the simple expedient of a general reading among non-Jews. Jewish writers writing for Jewish readers present unusual material for the study of race consciousness and its accompaniment of contempt for other races. It is true that in the publications referred to, America is constantly praised, but not America as the land of the American people; America, rather, as the land of the Jews' opportunity.

It may be a serviceable clearing of the ground to define what anti-Semitism is not:

1. It is not recognition of the Jewish Question. If it were, then it could be set down that the bulk of the American people are destined to become anti-Semites, for they are beginning to recognize the existence of a Jewish Question and will steadily do so in increasing numbers as the Question is forced upon them from the various practical angles of their lives. The Question is here. We may be honestly blind to it. We may be timidly silent about it. We may even make dishonest denial of it. But it is here. In time all will have to recognize it. In time the polite "hush, hush" of over-sensitive or intimidated circles will not be powerful enough to suppress it. But to recognize it will not mean that we have gone over to a campaign of hatred and enmity against the Jews. It will only mean that a stream of tendency which has been flowing through our civilization has at last accumulated bulk and power enough to challenge attention, to call for some decision with regard to it, to call for the adoption of a policy which will not repeat the mistakes of the past and yet will forestall any possible social menace of the future.

2. Again, the public discussion of the Jewish Question is not anti-Semitism. Publicity is sanitary. The publicity given the Jewish Question, or certain aspects of it, in this country has been very misleading. It has been discussed more fully in the Jewish press than elsewhere, but not with candor or breadth of vision. The two dominant notes—they are sounded over and over again with monotonous regularity in the Jewish press—are Gentile unfairness and Christian prejudice. These apparently are the two chief aspects of life which impress Jewish publicists when they look over the line of their own race. It is said in all soberness that it is fortunate for Jews generally that the Jewish press does not circulate very widely among Gentiles, for it is probably the one established agency in the United States which, without altering its program in the least, could stir up anti-Jewish sentiment by the simple expedient of a general reading among non-Jews. Jewish writers writing for Jewish readers present unusual material for the study of race consciousness and its accompaniment of contempt for other races. It is true that in the publications referred to, America is constantly praised, but not America as the land of the American people; America, rather, as the land of the Jews' opportunity.

On the side of the daily press, there has been no serious discussion at all. This is neither surprising nor reprehensible. The daily press deals with matters that have reached the overheated stage. When it mentions the Jews at all, it has stock phrases for the purpose; the effort includes a list of the famous Jews of history, and usually closes with complimentary references to certain local Jews of commendable qualities, whose advertisements are not infrequently found in another part of the paper. Summing up, it may be said that the publicity given the question in this country consists in misrepresentative criticism of the Gentiles by the Jewish press and misrepresentative praise of the Jews by the non-Jewish press. An independent effort to give a constructive publicity cannot, therefore, be laid to anti-Semitism, even when some of the statements which are made in the course of it arouse the resentment of Jewish readers.

3. Nor is it anti-Semitism to say that the suspicion is abroad in every capital of civilization and the certainty is held by a number of important men that there is active in the world a plan to control the world, not by territorial acquisition, not by military aggression, nor by governmental subjection, not even by economic control in the scientific sense, but by control of the machinery of commerce and exchange. It is not anti-Semitism to say that, nor to present the evidence which supports that, nor to bring the proof of that. Those who could best disprove it if it were not true are the international Jews themselves, but they have not disproved it. Those who could best prove it would be those Jews whose ideals include the good of the whole of humanity on an equality and not the good of one race only, but they have not proved it. Some day a prophetic Jew may arise who will see that the promises bestowed upon the Ancient People are not to be fulfilled by Rothschild methods, and that the promise that all the nations were to be blessed through Israel is not to be fulfilled by making the nations the economic vassals of Israel; and when that time comes we may hope for a redirection of Jewish energy into channels that will drain the present sources of the Jewish Question. In the meantime, it is not anti-Semitism; it may even be found to be a world service to the Jew, to throw light on what purpose motivates certain higher circles.

If the above propositions are true, then the term "anti-Semitic", so freely bestowed on this series of articles, betrays a worse spirit in the critics than in the author. But enough of that. There is much yet to do, and what is done must stand on what merit remains after friend and foe alike are through with praise and blame.

II GRADES OF ANTI-SEMITISM

Anti-Semitism has unquestionably swayed large sections of humanity at various times, warping the vision, twisting the characters and staining the hands of its victims, but the most amazing statement that can be made of it is that it has never accomplished anything in behalf of those who used it, and it has never taught anything to the Jews against whom it was used.

The grades of anti-Semitism are fairly numerous, and a few of them may be cited here:

1. There is first that degree of anti-Semitism, if it may be so described, which consists in a plain dislike of the Jew as a person, no matter whom he may be. This is often found in people of all grades. It is found mostly, however, in those whose contact with Jews has been very limited. It begins sometimes in childhood with an instinctive dislike for the word "Jew". It is encouraged by the misuse of the word "Jew" as an epithet, or as an adjective generally descriptive of unpopular practices. The feeling is not different from that which exists toward Gentiles, concerning whom the same notions are held, but it differs in that it is extended to the race of unknown individual Jews instead of being restricted to known individuals who may justify such a feeling.

Congeniality is not within our choice, but control of the sentiment of uncongeniality is. Every fair-minded person is compelled at times to reflect that it is not impossible that the person for whom he feels a dislike may be as good and possibly a better person than he. Our dislike merely registers the result of attraction and repulsion as they operate between another person and oneself; it does not indicate that the disliked person is unworthy. Of course, whenever intelligence is joined with this instinctive withdrawal from social contact with members of the Jewish race, prejudice is forestalled, except, of course, in those persons who hold that there are no individuals among the Jews worthy of respect. This is an extreme attitude and is composed of other elements beside natural dislike. It is possible for people to dislike Jews and not be anti-Semitic. Indeed, it is not at all uncommon, it grows more and more common, that intelligent and refined Jews themselves do not relish the society of their own people except in cases of exceptional refinement.

This really calls for some comment on the manners and characteristics of the ordinary member of the Jewish race, the accidents of behavior which stand out most obnoxiously and of which Jews themselves are often the most unsparing critics, but these comments must fall into place later.

2. A second stage of the spirit of anti-Semitism may be designated as hatred and enmity. It should be noted that the antipathy referred to immediately above was not hatred. Dislike is not hatred, nor is it necessarily enmity. One may dislike sugar in his tea without troubling to hate sugar. But undoubtedly there are people who, because they have let their dislikes deepen into prejudice, and perhaps also because of unpleasant experiences with members of the Jewish race (probably a million Americans have been brought to the verge of becoming Jew-haters this winter because of contact with Jewish merchants and landlords) may be classified as, at least, incipient anti-Semites. This is most of all unfortunate for the persons who harbor these emotions. It is unfortunate in that it unfits the mind to consider intelligently the facts which constitute the Jewish Question, and also unfits it to deal with them in a fair and constructive way. For one's own sake, whatever the provocation otherwise, it is better not to let passion deflect the needle of one's mind. Hatred at the wheel means hazard on the course. Enmity lives in the vicinity of the Jews more than of any other race, and the reason for this is one of the puzzles of the ages. The Jewish nature itself, as shown in ancient and modern history, is not without its own share of enmity, and it either evokes or provokes enmity where it comes in contact with those Aryan races which follow their natural impulses unchecked by cultural and ethical influences. This age-long conflict of the Jew has puzzled the minds of students for generations. Some explain it Biblically as the curse of Jehovah [Lucifer] upon His Chosen People for their disobedience to the discipline by which He would have made them the Prophet Nation of the world. If this offense must come, if it is part of the Jew's heritage, an old saying—Christian and Scriptural, by the way—would still remain true: "It must needs be that offenses come, but woe to that man by whom the offense cometh."

3. In some parts of the world at various times this feeling of hatred has broken into murderous violence, which has roused, as wholesale physical outrage always does, the horror and resentment of humanity. This is the extreme form in which anti-Semitism has exhibited itself, and it is the charge of intending to stimulate it here and elsewhere which every public discussion of the Jewish Question has to bear. There is, of course, no excuse for these outbreaks, but there is sufficient explanation of them. The Jews usually explain them as expressions of religious prejudice, and the Gentiles as rebellion against an economic yoke which the Jews have woven for the people. It is an astonishing fact that, to take one country, the parts of Russia where anti-Semitic violence has been most marked are the most prosperous parts, so prosperous indeed and with a prosperity so unquestionably due to Jewish enterprise that the Jews have openly declared that they have the power to throw those parts of Russia back into commercial lethargy again by simply withdrawing. It is utterly idle to throw denials at this statement. It is confirmed time and time again by men who have gone to Russia full of resentment against the attitude of the Russians toward the Jews, as that attitude is represented in the Anglo-Saxon press, and who have come home with a new light on the cause of these outbreaks, though not excusing their character. Impartial observers have also found that some of the outbreaks have been precipitated by the Jews themselves. A correspondent, known the world over for his trenchant defense of the Jews under Russian persecution, was always bitterly attacked by the Jews themselves whenever he stated the truth about this, notwithstanding his protest to them that if he did not tell the truth when they were in the wrong the world would not be ready to believe him when he said they were blameless. To this day, in every country, the Jews are slow to admit blameworthiness for anything. They must be excused, whoever else may be accused. It is a trait which will have to be disciplined before they can be brought to assist, if ever they can, the removal of those characteristics which arouse the antagonism of other peoples. Elsewhere in the world, it may be said that out-and-out enmity to the Jews has an economic basis. This, of course, leads to the question whether the Jew shall have to become a deliberate failure, or deny his genius, and forego his just need of prosperity before he can win the approval of the other races—a question which will arise for discussion later.

[H: Opportunity, for example, of "blame": How is it that the U.S. UNILATERALLY plans to bomb hell out of Iraq for three or four days and yet, as people such as babies, children, women, and men are MURDERED by YOU (they can't do anything about it and NEITHER CAN SADDAM HUSSEIN—NOTHING), you and your politicians continue to say "We are wonderful and are forced into murdering those innocent people; it is Saddam's fault and their own for keeping him as a leader...". Just HOW are YOU going to explain this to GOD? I certainly DO NOT mean Lucifer.]

As to the religious prejudice which the Jews are, as a rule, readiest to affirm, it is safe to say that it does not exist in the United States. Yet it is charged up to Americans by Jewish writers just as freely as it is charged up to Russians. Each non-Jew reader is competent to settle this for himself. He can easily do so by asking himself whether in all his life he has ever felt a moment's resentment against the Jew on account of his religion. In an address recently delivered in a Jewish lodge and reported in the Jewish press, the speaker, a Jew, stated that if 100 non-Jews on the street were approached at random and casually asked what a Jew is, the reply of the majority would be, "He is a Christ-killer." One of the best known and most highly respected rabbis in the United States said recently in a sermon that children in Christian Sunday schools were taught to regard the Jew as a Christ-killer. He repeated it in a conversation several weeks later.

It would probably be the testimony of Christians generally that they never heard this term until they heard it in a Jewish complaint, and certainly themselves never used it. The charge is absurd. Let the 20,000,000 now in the Christian Sunday schools of Canada and the United States testify as to the instruction given. There is no hesitation in stating that there is no prejudice whatever in the Christian churches against the Jew on account of his religion. [H: As a matter of fact, the christian churches of today have taken up the Jew's religion for their own and put aside their own religion—you know, readers—Judeo-Christian. There are no "Christian" religions remaining.] On the contrary, there is not only a deep sense of indebtedness, but a feeling of sharing with the Jew in his religion. The Sunday schools of the Christian churches of the world are spending six months of this year studying the International Lessons which are appointed for the Books of Judges, Ruth, First and Second Samuel and the Books of Kings, and every year is devoted in part to the Old Testament.

Here, however, is something for Jewish religious leaders to consider: there is more downright bitterness of religious prejudice on the part of the Jews against Christianity than could ever be possible in the Christian churches of America. Simply take the church press of America and compare it with the Jewish press in this regard, and there is no answer. No christian editor would think it either christian or intelligent to attack the Jewish religion, yet any six months' survey of the Jewish press would yield a mass of attack and prejudice on the other side. Moreover, no religious bitterness in America attains within infinite distances to that bitterness visited upon the Jew who becomes a christian in his faith. It amounts almost to a holy vendetta. A Christian may become a Jewish proselyte and his motives be respected; it is never so when a Jew becomes a Christian. [H: Not any more—the Jews now take the leadership roles and call it Zionism.] These statements are true of both the orthodox and liberal wings of Judaism. It is not his religion that gives prominence to the Jew today; it is something else. And yet, with undeviating monotony, it is repeated wherever the Jew takes cognizance of the feeling toward him that it is on account of three things, first and most prominent of which is his religion. It may be comforting to him to think that he is suffering for his faith, but it is not true. Every intelligent Jew must know it.

Every Jew ought to know also that in every Christian church where the ancient prophecies are received and studied, there is a great revival of interest in the future of the Ancient People. It is not forgotten that certain Promises were made to them regarding their position in the world, and it is held that these prophecies will be fulfilled. The future of the Jew, as prophetically

There are those, very few in number and of atheistical tendencies, who assert that all religion is a sham, being the invention of Jews for the purpose of enslaving the minds of the people of the world to an enervating superstition.

outlined, is intimately bound up with the future of this planet, and the Christian church in large part—at least by the evangelical wing, which the Jews most condemn—sees a Restoration of the Chosen People yet to come. [H: Indeed, the Chosen People of LUCIFER.] If the mass of the Jews knew how understandingly and sympathetically all the prophecies concerning them are being studied in the Church, and the faith that exists that these prophecies will find fulfillment and that they will result in great Jewish service to society at large, they would probably regard the Church with another mind. They would at least know that the Church does not believe that it will be the instrument in the conversion of the Jews—a point on which Jewish leaders are tragically misled and which evokes more bitterness than anything else—but that it depends on quite other instruments and conditions, which it is not the function of this article to point out except to say that it will be the Jews' very own Messiah which will accomplish it and not the "wild olive", or the Gentile. [H: Right on, Mr. Ford.]

Curiously enough, there is a phase of anti-Semitism having to do with religion, but not in the way here discussed. There are those, very few in number and of atheistical tendencies, who assert that all religion is a sham, being the invention of Jews for the purpose of enslaving the minds of the people of the world to an enervating superstition. This position, however, has had no effect on the main issue. It is a far extreme.

III WHERE ARE WE HEADED?

Now, which of these exhibitions of anti-Semitism will show itself in America? If certain tendencies continue, as they are certain to do, what form will the feeling toward the Jew take? Not that of mass violence, we may be sure. The only mass action visible now is that of Jewish agencies themselves against any person or institution that dares to bring the Jewish Question to public attention.

1. Anti-Semitism will come to America because of the habit which emotions and ideas apparently have of making their way westward around the world. North of Palestine, where the Jews have been longest settled and where they are now in great numbers, anti-Semitism is acute and well-defined. Westward, in Germany, it is clearly defined but, until the seizure of German revolutionary agencies, was devoid of violence. Still farther westward, in Great Britain, it is defined, but because of the comparatively small number of Jews in the British Isles and their coalition with the ruling class, it is more a feeling than a movement. In the United States it is not so definite, but shows itself in a restlessness, a questioning, a sensible friction between the traditional tendency of the American to fair-mindedness and his respect for the cold facts.

Because the Question will assume more and more pressure in America it behooves everyone of foresight to disregard the shortsighted protests of the Jews themselves and see to it that the Question shall not present itself among us as it has done among other people, in its most distressing and confusing forms. It is a public duty to seize this problem at its beginning and train it up, so to speak; that is, so prepare for it that it may be handled here in a manner which will form a model for all other countries, which will indeed supply all other countries with the essential materials for a permanent solution. And this can be done only by exposing and recognizing and treating with the serum of publicity the conditions before which, heretofore, the nations have helplessly foundered because they lacked either the desire or the means to get at the great root of the difficulty.

2. Another cause of the Question appearing here will be the great influx of the Jews which is planned for America. There will probably be a million Jews enter the country this year, increasing our Jewish population to nearly 4,500,000 [H: And that, remember, was 1920.] This does not mean merely an immigration of persons, but an immigration of ideas. No Jewish writer has ever told us, in systematic fashion, just what is the Jew's idea of non-Jews, how they regard the Gentiles in their private minds. But there are indications of it, although one would not attempt to reconstruct the Jewish attitude toward Gentiles. A Jew ought to do this for us, but he would probably be cast out by his own people if he discharged his task with rigorous jealousy for the exact fact.

These people are coming here regarding the Gentile as an hereditary enemy, as perhaps they have good ground for doing, and so believing they are going to model their behavior in a manner that will show it. Nor will these Jews be so helpless as they appear. In stricken Poland, where the Jews are represented as having been stripped of everything during the war, there are hundreds daily appearing before the consulate to arrange their passage here. The fact is significant. In spite of their reputed suffering and poverty, they are able to travel a great distance and to insist on coming. No other people are financially able to travel in such numbers. But the Jews are. It will readily be seen that they are not objects of charity. They have been able to keep afloat in a storm that has wrecked the other people. They know it and they joy in it, as is natural. And they will bring here the same thoughts toward the majority which they have harbored in their present lands of domicile. They may hail America; they will have their own thoughts about the majority of the American people. They may be in the lists as Russians or Poles or what not, but they will be Jews with the full Jewish consciousness, and they will make themselves felt.

All this is bound to have its effect. And it is not race prejudice to prepare for it, and to invite American Jews themselves to consider the fact and contribute to the solution of the problem which it presents.

3. Every idea which has ruled Europe has met with transformation when it was transplanted in America. It was so with the idea of Liberty, the idea of Government, the idea of War. It will be so with the idea of anti-Semitism. The whole problem will center here and if we are wise and do not shirk it, it will find its solution here. A recent Jewish writer has said: "Jewry today largely means American Jewry... all former Jewish centers were demolished during the war and were shifted to America." [H: And readers, THAT WAS BEFORE World War II.] The problem will be ours, whether we choose it or not.

And what course will it take? Much depends on what can be accomplished before it becomes very strong. It may be said, however, that the first element to appear will be a show of resentment against certain Jewish commercial successes, more particularly against the united action by which they are attained. Our people see the spectacle of a people in the midst of a people, in a sense which the Mormons never were, and they will not like it. The Mormons made an Exodus; Israel is going back into Egypt to subjugate it. [H: My goodness, the facts are that the Mormons became the basic functioning ARM of the elite Jewish factions in America—long, long ago, at upstart of the very religion itself. The rituals and sacraments are almost identical in every way and totally based on the Freemason codes and oaths and secrecy and the ultimate Illuminati foundation.]

The second element which will undoubtedly appear is prejudice and its incitement. The majority may always be right, but they are not always initially reasonable. That prejudice which exists now, and which is freely admitted by both Jew and Gentile, may become more marked, to the distress of both parties, for neither the subject nor the object of prejudice can attain that freedom of mind which is happiness.

Then we may most confidently look for a reaction of Justice. It is here that the whole matter will begin to bend to the genius of Americanism. The innate justice of the American mind has come to the aid of every object that ever roused American resentment. The natural reaction with us is of very brief duration; the intellectual and ethical reaction swiftly follows. The American mind will never rest with merely resenting certain individuals. It will probe deeper. Already this deeper probe has been begun in Great Britain and America. We characteristically do not stop with persons when principles are in sight.

And upon this there will be an investigation of materials, part of which may yet be presented in this series and which may possibly be disregarded for a time, but which at a future date will be found to be the clue to the maze. Upon this, the root of all the trouble will be bared to the light, to die as all roots do when deprived of their concealment of darkness, and the Jewish people themselves may be expected to begin an adjustment to the new order of things, not to lose their identity or to curtail their energy or to dim their brilliance, but to turn all into more worthy channels for the benefit of all races, which alone can justify their claim to superiority. A race that can achieve in the material realm what the Jews have achieved while asserting themselves to be spiritually superior, can achieve in a less sordid, a less society-defying realm also.

[END OF QUOTING]

I am going to leave this for your thoughts but I hope that you will take some observations to heart and relate them to what is taking place now, 78 years later. Even last evening in your TOWN HALL debate. When questions were asked like, "What are the plans for Iraq after the bombings?" Talk, no answer other than there seem to be NONE. Then, "What about troops?" "Oh there won't be need for troops," but at the same time there were over 7,000 MORE TROOPS BEING SHIPPED OUT BY AIR TO GET THERE IN TIME FOR THE RAID. Then some taxpayer asked: "HOW MUCH IS THIS COSTING US A DAY?" YOUR SECRETARY OF DEFENSE talked for five minutes and NEVER ANSWERED THE QUESTION. He actually said it wasn't costing any more, really, than ordinary expenses.

About all I can say is, "LET HIM WHO HAS EARS TO HEAR—HEAR. LET HIM WHO HAS EYES TO SEE—SEE." THESE ARE YOUR BABIES GOING OFF TO A NON-WAR TO MURDER CHILDREN. WHAT WILL BE RESTING ON THEIR SOULS? GOD HELP YOU ALL!

JEWISH QUESTION BREAKS INTO THE MAGAZINES

"We must force the Gentile governments to adopt measures which will promote our broadly conceived plan already approaching its triumphal goal by bringing to bear the pressure of stimulated public opinion which has in reality been organized by us with the help of the so-called 'great power' of the Press. With few exceptions, not worth considering, it has already fallen into our hands."
The Seventh Protocol

Once upon a time an American faculty member of an American university went to Russia on business. He was expert in a very important department of applied science and a keen observer. He entered Russia with the average American's feeling about the treatment which the government of that people accorded the Jew. He lived there three years, came home for a year, and went back again for a similar period, and upon his second return to America he thought it was time to give the American public accurate information about the Jewish Question in Russia. He prepared a most careful article and sent it to the editor of a magazine of the first class in the Eastern United States. The editor sent for him, spent most of two days with him, and was deeply impressed with all he learned—but he said he could not print the article. The same interest and examination occurred with several other magazine editors of the first rank.

It was not because the professor could not write—these editors gladly bought anything he would write on other subjects. But it was impossible for him to get his article on the Jews accepted or printed in New York.

[H: Can you see that it is not "Jew" or Jewish? It was decided by the Antichrist would-be-CONTROLLERS and One-World-Kings that it WOULD BE THROUGH USE OF THIS CLANNISH ELEMENT OF "DIFFERENT" PEOPLE WHO SET THEMSELVES ASIDE OF THEIR OWN ACCORD—THAT THEY COULD MAKE THEIR SUCCESSFUL PLAY OF TAKING THE WORLD. Face it, the so-called Jewish people are the first to pay in misery, and actual genocide is their plight in every game so far played among the nations.

Didn't you notice that Netanyahu FIRST went to the Jewish people in America on his last visit to get financing beyond what you already pay Israel—and got a NASTY RECEPTION and a sound "No"? So, what did he do next? He marched over to Jerry Falwell's "christian fundamentalists" and got everything he wanted and MORE. UNLESS YOU KNOW WHAT IS WRONG—YOU CAN'T FIX IT.]

The Jewish Question, however, has at last broken into a New York magazine. Rather it is a fragment of a shell hurled from the Jewish camp at the Jewish Question to demolish, if possible, the Question and thus make good the assertion that there is no such thing.

Incidentally, it is the only kind of article on the Jewish Question that the big magazines, whose mazes of financial controllers make most interesting rummaging, would care to print.

Yet, the general public may learn much about the Question even from the type of article whose purpose is to prove that the Questions doesn't exist.

Mr. William Hard, in the Metropolitan for June, has done as well as could be expected, considering the use he was supposed to make of such material as he had at hand. And doubtless the telegraph and letter brigades, which keep watch over all printed references to the Jews, have duly congratulated the good editors of the Metropolitan for their assistance in soothing the public to further sleep.

It is to be hoped, for the sake of the Question, that Mr. Hard's effort will have a wide reading, for there is very much to be learned from it—much more than it was anybody's intention should be learned from it.

It may be learned, first, that the Jewish Question exists. Mr. Hard says it is discussed in the drawing-rooms of London and Paris. Whether the mention of drawing-rooms was a writer's device to intimate that the matter was unimportant and frivolous, or merely represented the extent of Mr. Hard's contact with the Question is not clear. He adds, however, that a document relating to the Question was "traveled a good bit in certain official circles in Washington". He also mentions a cable dispatch to the New York World, concerning the same Question, which that paper published. His article was probably published too early to note the review which the London Times made of the first document referred to. But he has told the reader there is a Jewish Question, and that it does not exist among the riff-raff, either, but principally in those circles where the evidence of Jewish power and control is most abundant. Moreover, the Question is being discussed. Mr. Hard tells us that much. If he does not go further and tell us that it is being discussed with great seriousness in high places and among men of national and international importance, it is probably because of one of two things, either he does not know, or he does not consider it consonant with the purpose of the article to tell.

About all I can say is, "LET HIM WHO HAS EARS TO HEAR—HEAR. LET HIM WHO HAS EYES TO SEE—SEE." THESE ARE YOUR BABIES GOING OFF TO A NON-WAR TO MURDER CHILDREN. WHAT WILL BE RESTING ON THEIR SOULS? GOD HELP YOU ALL!

However, Mr. Hard has already made it clear that there is a Jewish Question, that it is being discussed, that it is being discussed by people who are best situated to observe the matter they are talking about.

The reading of Mr. Hard's article makes it clear also that the Question always comes to the fore on the note of conspiracy. Of course, Mr. Hard says he does not believe in conspiracies which involve a large number of people, and it is with the utmost ease that his avowal of unbelief is accepted, for there is nothing more ridiculous to the Gentile mind than a mass conspiracy, because there is nothing more impossible to the Gentile himself. Mr. Hard, we take it, is of non-Jewish extraction, and he knows how impossible it would be to band Gentiles together in any considerable number for any length of time in even the noblest conspiracy. Gentiles are not built for it. Their conspiracy, whatever it might be, would fall like a rope of sand. Gentiles have not the basis either in blood or interest that the Jews have to stand together. The Gentile does not naturally suspect conspiracy; he will indeed hardly bring himself to the verge of believing it without the fullest proof.

It is therefore quite easy to understand Mr. Hard's difficulty with conspiracy; the point is that to write his article at all, he is forced to recognize at almost every step that whenever the Jewish Question is discussed, the idea of conspiracy occupies a large part in it. As a matter of fact, it is the central idea in Mr. Hard's article, and it completely monopolizes the heading—"Great Jewish Conspiracy".

The search for basic facts in Mr. Hard's article will disclose the additional information that there are certain documents in existence which purport to contain the details of the conspiracy, or—to drop a word that is unpleasant and may be misleading and which has not been used in this series—the tendency of Jewish power to achieve complete control. That is about all that the reader learns from Mr. Hard about the documents, except that he describes one as "strange and horrible". Here is indeed a regrettable gap in the story, for it is to discredit a certain document that Mr. Hard writes, and yet he tells next to nothing about it. Discreditable documents usually discredit themselves. But this document is not permitted to do that. The reader of the article is left to take Mr. Hard's word for it. The serious student or critic will feel, of course, that the documents themselves would have formed a better basis for an intelligent judgment. But laying that matter aside, Mr. Hard has made public the fact that there are documents.

And then Mr. Hard does another thing, as well as he can with the materials at hand, the purpose of the article being what it was, and that is to show how little the Jews have to do with the control of affairs by showing who are the Jews that do control certain selected groups of affairs. The names are all brought forward by Mr. Hard and he alone is responsible for them, our purpose in referring to them being merely to show what can be learned from him.

Mr. Hard leans heavily on Russian affairs. Sometimes it would almost seem as if the Jewish Question were conceived as the Soviet Question, which it is not, as Mr. Hard very well knows, and although the two have their plain connections, it is nothing less than well-defined propaganda to set up Bolshevik fiction and knock it down by Jewish fact for the purpose of the latter. However, what Mr. Hard offers as fact is very instructive, quite apart from the conclusion which he draws from it.

Now, take his Russian line-up first. He says that in the cabinet of Soviet Russia there is only one Jew. But he is Trotsky. There are others in the government, of course, but Mr. Hard is speaking about the cabinet now. He is not speaking about the commissars, who are the real rulers of Russia, nor about the executive troops, who are the real strength of the Trotsky-Lenin regime. No, just the cabinet. Of course, there was only one Jew prominent in Hungary, too, but he was Bela Kun. Mr. Hard does not ask us to believe, however, that it is simply because of Trotsky and Kun that all Europe believes that Bolshevism has a strong Jewish element. Else the stupid credibility of the Gentile would be more impossible of conception than the idea of a Jewish conspiracy is to Mr. Hard's mind. Why should it be easier to believe that Gentiles are dunces than that Jews are clever?

However, it is not too much to say that Trotsky is way up at the top, sharing the utmost summit of Bolshevism with Lenin, and Trotsky is a Jew—nobody ever denied that, not even Mr. Braunstein himself (the latter being Trotsky's St. Louis, U.S.A., name).

But then, says Mr. Hard, the Mensheviks are led by Jews, too! That is a fact worth putting down beside the others. Trotsky at the head of the Bolsheviks; at the head of the Mensheviks during their opposition of the Bolsheviks were Lieber, Martov and Dan—"all Jews", says Mr. Hard.

There is, however, a middle party between these extremes, the Cadets, which Mr. Hard says, are or were the strongest bourgeois political party in Russia. "They now have their headquarters in Paris. Their chairman is Vinaver—a Jew."

There are the facts as stated by Mr. Hard. He says that Jews, whose names he gives, head the three great divisions of political opinion in Russia.

And then he cries, look how the Jews are divided! How can there be conspiracy among people who thus fight themselves?

But another, looking at the same situation may say, look how the Jews control every phase of political opinion in Russia! Doesn't there seem to be some ground for the feeling that they are desirous of ruling everywhere?

The facts are there. What significance does it bring to the average mind that the three great parties of Russia are led by Jews?

But that does not exhaust the information which the matter-of-fact reader may find in Mr. Hard's article. He turns to the United States and makes several interesting statements.

"There is Otto Kahn," he says. Well, sometimes Otto Kahn is there, and sometimes he is in Paris on important international matters, and sometimes he is in London advocating certain alliances between British and American capital which have to do in a large way with European political conditions. The most conservative men in America are really the most radical; their motives and methods go to the very roots of certain matters; and they are radicals in their own field. The men who controlled the last Republican Convention—if not the last, the most recent—are styled conservatives by those whose vision is circumscribed by certain limited economic interests; but they are the most radical of radicals, they have passed the red stage and are white with it. If it were known what is in the back of Mr. Kahn's mind, if he should display a chart of what he is doing and aiming to do, the term which would then most aptly describe him might be quite different. Anyway, we have it from Mr. Hard, "There is Mr. Kahn."

"On the other hand," says Mr. Hard, "there is Rose Pastor Stokes." He adds the name of Morris Hillquit. They are, in Mr. Hard's classification, radicals. And to offset these names he adds the names of two Gentiles, Eugene V. Debs and Bill Haywood and intimates that they are much more powerful leaders than the first two. Students of modern influences, of which Mr. Hard has long appeared as one, do not think so. Neither Debs nor Haywood ever generated in all their lives a fraction of the intellectual power which Mrs. Stokes and Mr. Hillquit have generated. Both Debs and Haywood live by the others. To every informed person, as to Mr. Hard in this article, come the Jewish names to mind when the social tendencies of the United States are passed under reflection.

This is most instructive indeed, that in naming the leaders of so-called conservatism and radicalism, Mr. Hard is driven to use Jewish names. On his showing the reader is entitled to say that Jews lead both divisions here in the United States.

But Mr. Hard is not through. "The man who does more than any other man—the man who does more than any regiment of other men—to keep American labor anti-radical is a Jew—Samuel Gompers." That is a fact which the reader will place in his list—American labor is led by a Jew.

Well, then, "The strongest anti-Gompers trade union in the country—The Amalgamated Clothing Workers—and very strong indeed, and very large—is led by a Jew—Sidney Hillman."

It is the Russian situation over again. Both ends of the movements, and the movement which operates within the movement, are under the leadership of Jews. This, whatever the construction put upon it, is a fact which Mr. Hard is compelled by the very nature of his task to acknowledge.

And the middle movement, "the Liberal Middle" as Mr. Hard calls it, which catches all between, produces in this article the names of Mr. Justice Brandeis, Judge Mack and Felix Frankfurter, gentlemen whose activities since Armistice Day would make a very interesting story.

For good measure, Mr. Hard produces two other names, "Baron Gunzberg—a Jew" who is "a faithful official" of the Russian Embassy of Ambassador Bakhmetev, a representative of the modified old regime, while the Russian Information Bureau, whose literary output appears in many of our newspapers, is conducted by another Jew, so Mr. Hard calls him, whose name is familiar to newspaper readers, Mr. A.J. Sack.

It is not a complete list by any means, but it is quite impressive. It seems to reflect importance on the documents which Mr. Hard endeavors to minimize to a position of ridiculous unimportance. And it leads to the thought that perhaps the documents are scrutinized as carefully as they are because the readers of them have observed not only the facts which Mr. Hard admits but other and more astonishing ones, and have discovered that the documents confirm and explain the observations. Other readers who have not had the privilege of learning all that the documents contain are entitled to have satisfaction given to the interest thus aroused.

The documents did not create the Jewish Question. If there were nothing but the documents, Mr. Hard would not have written nor would the Metropolitan magazine have printed the article here discussed.

What Mr. Hard has done is to bring confirmation in a most unexpected place that the Question exists and is pressing for discussion. Someone felt the pressure when "The Great Jewish Conspiracy" was ordered and written.

[END OF QUOTING]

Dharma, go back up to the top of the copy and place the date of publication, when we have it. It may take a bit of time for us but I think it important that these articles are recognized as being done long ago and are not of our work but very important as historical foundation for our discussions. When you realize that these are, at this time of writing, some 78 years ago and done by one of the world's leading industrial producers, perhaps you can see how usurped the very Jewish people were and ARE.

There is something else to be noted here and that is that the Protocols WERE VERY MUCH AROUND AND VERY MUCH RECOGNIZED all the way back, at the least, to the turn of the century. Therefore, when people tell you they are fabrications, forgeries, or false information—you KNOW BETTER.

These go hand in hand with TALMUDIC "religion" and have very little to do with any TORAH mandates or Spiritual aspect.

As you listen to the NEW LEADERS of your nation right here in the U.S.A., as the lawyers and Judges prattle and speculate—there is more and more frequent use and reference to "Talmudic law" and its acceptance in the Judicial system THAT IS. You heard it casually referred to between Marsha Clarke and Judge Ito (Japanese yet) in the Simpson case, and you hear it used almost daily now in the "panels" of expert observers on the talk circuits regarding the President's indiscretions. This goes beyond the mundane Admiralty or Maritime law bases of judicial take-over—this is the final hookers to have no judicial justice AT ALL. Remember that Kol Nidre—NOBODY BUT THE IGNORANT HAVE TO TELL THE TRUTH—BY LAW. Plausible denial AND LYING ARE TOTALLY ACCEPTABLE. Well, not to me.

The prattle goes like this: "If you are President, it's alright to dink around with a little kid, but it is not ok to lie under oath." What OATH? After all, it goes on to be prattled: "...politicians HAVE TO lie". Say what?

I don't know about YOU in particular, but I know that lying is the most acceptable thing you people do and you claim it is to keep from hurting or offending. "Little white lies" you call them. If someone asks for help you say, "I gave at the office..." or "Well, I have this tax problem..." or "I wanted to go but I had..." and the big one, "Well, I had this little fling affair but I didn't want to hurt my wife/husband so...". THIS IS WHERE IT BEGINS, GOOD CITIZENS—RIGHT THERE AND WITH YOU and your own acceptance of bad behaviors, irresponsible attitudes and "me-ness" (if it feels good and I can hide it—fine, go for it). But you know something? These attitudes DO DAMAGE—starting with SELF.

Do you ever fudge? Do you ever find self guilty of these little things—ARE YOU JEWISH? Then why do you blame someone else? The QUESTION is truly not Jewish or Gentile—it is WRONG VS. RIGHT. And a full-blown military excursion where you go kill people half a world away—unilaterally without recourse, IS WAR.

ANTI-CHRIST IS ANYONE WHO ACTS AGAINST THE LAWS AND GUIDELINES OF CHRIST! NOW, IS THAT SIMPLE ENOUGH TO UNDERSTAND?

So, have I fudged about, say, Col. Bo Gritz and the tales which were not true? No, but I knew the difference—but I only repeated what was personally told to me by Mr. Gritz himself and in his public literature. Man has no other source upon which to base his understanding except that which he LEARNS, and if you refuse to learn truth, you are trapped within the LIE. I repeat what was said last night by a TV Host: "Did it ever occur to anyone to not break the law in the first place?" It is sort of like "safe sex"—did anyone think of solving the problems by RESPONSIBILITY and not playing in the clandestine and dangerous games? Catching a disease is one of the lesser lasting damages from "unsafe sex".

If you learned that it was fine to play around, then you DID NOT LEARN THAT FROM CHRIST—THEREFORE, SINCE THERE IS ONLY "CHRIST" AND "ANTICHRIST", WHICH WAS YOUR TEACHER?

I am being hard on everyone? OH? How so? I would not have assumed that any of YOU would practice irresponsible behaviors—if you follow the RIGHT TEACHERS. So, scribe, perhaps we won't have to work so hard later if we do our work now—we don't have to change the world, save anyone or the world, JUST TELL THE TRUTH. God promised the WORD OF TRUTH and never did HE suggest we stuff it down anyone's gullet!

Moreover, don't be offended by callers who claim their way is righteous and yours is incorrect and go on to explain how they do their good works sponsoring Boy's choirs and good candidates for power places. We can't afford to do the paper much the less sponsor Boy's choirs from Europe to America. Culture comes when a world is good enough to endorse and support good culture—until then it is simply a bunch of little boys singing, in this instance, Catholic songs.

And what of such as Yanni? Yanni is a Ramtha student now almost totally orchestrated by the CIA. Shocking? Can't be the truth? Oh yes indeed it is so. How do you think such inroads were made into China and India to do a "New Age" concert? His lady is a long-time intimate supporter of J.Z. and the "movement". Don't be blind just because you are titillated by some show or tell.

So, who is this 64,000-year-old E.T., Ramtha? He is now a 64,032-year-old E.T., I suppose. Do I know him? Of course, we all come to know these "barbarians" as he describes himself, "Master".

"But Yanni is Greek..." you exclaim. Yes, and so is Latsis of the Greek Mafia. Greece fell, Rome fell, Egypt fell, all the GREAT civilization FELL. IS IT NOW YOUR TURN? AND, OH YES INDEED, THIS THING YOU CALL THE "CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION" WILL FALL BECAUSE YOU HAVE LEFT OUT ONE THING: CHRIST. Adonai.

POWER OF THE PRESS AND MEDIA

Today, just as in 1920, the power of the press and media is THE most compelling tool of any regime. You will, as people, believe what you are told to believe.

I watch right now, as ones get up to speak on the subject of bombing innocent people in Iraq, that the big mouths (all Jewish, it happens to be) say things like, "Well, when we declare intent and the President decides to bomb Iraq ALL THE PEOPLE OF THE U.S. WILL JOIN WITH US AND BEHIND US—THEY ALWAYS DO!"

Do you hear me? "They always do...!!!" I see a foolish robot who knows nothing of "real life" standing up before people, for ONCE, while he says, "We (YOU) must sacrifice, and I will lead." BS squared. I see him speaking to the aroused dissenters, ready to clobber the speaker. Why don't you clobber the guilty once in a while instead of the innocent of someone somewhere else?

These "MOUTHS" who determine your life and death, friends, NEVER go to battle, never even dirty their grubby hands. They decide and are then shocked if you disagree. What do they do then? They make you AGREE and then send you off to kill and be killed. Is THIS GODLY? No, it is stupidity in its highest form.

What would you do if you called a war and nobody came? Well, you are about to witness that, blind lambs: Saddam Hussein has done the one thing that no tyrant can abide: He isn't going to do anything in response to your evil. BUT HIS BROTHERS OF THAT WORLD—WILL,

WHEN THE TIME IS PERFECT FOR THEIR RESPONSE.

AND MOREOVER, GOD WILL EVEN THE PLAYING FIELD AGAINST THAT DAY.

Let us move on with our series so that we can then turn to more pressing business.

[QUOTING, Part 9, GLOBAL PARASITES:]

ARTHUR BRISBANE LEAPS TO THE HELP OF JEWRY

"What are you prating about? As long as we do not have the Press of the whole world in our hands, everything you may do is vain. We must control or influence the papers of the whole world in order to blind and deceive the people."

—Baron Montefiore

Once more the current of this series on the Modern Jewish Question is interrupted to give notice of the appearance of the Question in another quarter, the appearance this time consisting of a more than two-column "TODAY" editorial in the Hearst papers of Sunday, June 20, from the pen of Arthur Brisbane. It would be too much to say that Mr. Brisbane is the most influential writer in the country, but perhaps he is among the dozen most widely read. It is, therefore, a confirmation of the statement that the Question is assuming importance in this country, that a writer of Mr. Brisbane's prominence should openly discuss it.

Of course, Mr. Brisbane has not studied the Question. He would probably admit in private conversation—though such an admission would hardly be in harmony with the tone of certainty he publicly adopts—that he really knows nothing about it. He knows, however, as a good newspaper man, how to handle it when the exigencies of the newspaper day throw it up to him for offhand treatment. Every editorial writer knows how to do that. There is something good in every race, or there have been some notable individuals in it, or it has played a picturesque part in history—that is enough for a very readable editorial upon any class of people who may happen to be represented in the community. The Question, whatever it may be, need not be studied at all; a certain group of people may be salvaged for a few paragraphs, and the job need never be tackled again. Every newspaper man knows that.

And yet, having lived in New York for a long time, having had financial dealings of a large and obligating nature with certain interests in this country, having seen no doubt more or less of the inner workings of the great trust and banking groups, and being constantly surrounded by assistants and advisors who are members of the Jewish race, Mr. Brisbane must have had his thoughts. It is, however, no part of a newspaper man's business to expose his thoughts about the racial groups of his community, any more than it is a showman's business to express his opinion of the patrons of his show. The kinds of offense a newspaper will give, and the occasions on which it will feel justified in giving it, are very limited.

So, assuming that Mr. Brisbane had to write at all, it could have been told beforehand what he would write. The only wonder is that he felt he had to write. Did he really feel that the Jews are being "persecuted" when an attempt is made to uncover the extent and causes of their control in the United States and elsewhere? Did he feel, with good editorial shrewdness, that here was an opportunity to win the attention and regard of the most influential group in New York and the nation? Or—and this seems within the probabilities—was he inclined simply to pass it over, until secretarial suggestions reached him for a Sunday editorial, or until some of the bondholders made their wishes known? This is not at all to impugn Mr. Brisbane's motives, but merely to indicate on what slender strings such an editorial may depend.

But what is more important—does Mr. Brisbane consider that, having disposed of the Sunday editorial, he is through with the Question, or that the Question itself is solved? That is the worst of daily editorializing; having come safely and inoffensively through with one editorial, the matter is at an end as far as that particular writer is concerned—that is, as a usual thing.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Brisbane is not through. He ought not to leave a big question without contributing something to it, and in his Sunday editorial he did not contribute anything. He even made mistakes which he ought to correct by further study. "What about the Phoenicians?" he asks. He should have looked that up while his mind was opened receptively toward the subject, and he would not have made so miserable a blunder as to connect them so closely with the Jews. He would never find a Jew doing that. It is permissible, however, in Jewish propaganda intended for Gentile consumption. The Phoenicians themselves certainly never thought they were connected in any way with the Jews, and the Jews were equally without light on the subject. If in nothing else, they differed in their attitude toward the sea. The Phoenicians not only built boats but manned them; the Jew would rather risk his investment in a boat than himself. In everything else the differences between the two peoples were deep and distinct. Mr. Brisbane should have turned up the Jewish Encyclopedia at that point in his dictation. It is to be hoped he will resume his study and when he has found something that is not printed in "simply written" Jewish books will give the world the benefit of it. It is hardly like the question of the rotundity of the Earth; this Question is not settled and it will be discussed.

Mr. Brisbane is in a position to pursue some investigations of his own on this subject. He has a large staff, and it is presumed that some of its members are Gentiles of unbiased minds; he has a world-wide organization; since his own modification of speech and views following upon his adventure in the money-making world, he has a "look-in" upon certain groups of men and certain tendencies of power—why does he not take this Question as a world problem and go after the facts and the solution?

It is a task worthy of any newspaper organization. It will assist America to make the contribution which she must make if this Question is ever to be turned from the bugbear it has been through all the centuries. All the talk on Earth about "loving our fellow men" will not serve in lieu of an investigation, because it is asking men to love those who are rapidly and insidiously gaining the mastery of them. "What's wrong with the Jew?" is the first question, and then, "what's wrong with the Gentile to make it possible?"

As in the case of every Gentile writer who appears as the Jew's good-natured defender, Mr. Brisbane is compelled to state a number of facts which comprise a part of the very Question whose existence is denied.

"Every other successful name you see in a great city is a Jewish name," says Mr. Brisbane.

In his own city the ratio is even higher than that.

"Jews numbering less than one per cent of the Earth's population possess by conquest, enterprise, industry and intelligence 50 per cent of the world's commercial success," says Mr. Brisbane.

Does it mean anything to Mr. Brisbane? Has he ever thought how it will all turn out? Is he willing to absolve that "success" from every quality which humanity has a right to challenge? Is he entirely satisfied with the way that "success" is used where it is supreme? Would he be willing to undertake to prove that it is due to those commendable qualities he has named and nothing less commendable? Speaking of the Jew-financed Harriman railroad campaign, is Mr. Brisbane ready to write his endorsement upon that? Did he ever hear of Jewish money backing railroads that were built for railroad purposes and nothing else?

It would be very easy to suggest to Mr. Brisbane, as editor, a series of articles which would be most enlightening, both to himself and his readers, if he would only put unbiased men at work gathering the facts for them.

One of the articles might be entitled "The Jews at the Peace Conference". His men should be instructed to learn who were the most prominent figures at the Peace conference; who came and went most constantly and most busily; who were given freest access to the most important persons and chambers; which race provided the bulk of the private secretaries to the important personages there; which race provided most of the sentinels through whom engagements had to be made with men of note; which race went furthest in the endeavor to turn the whole proceeding into a festival rout by dances and lavish entertainment; which civilians of prominence oftenest dined the leading conferees in private session.

If Mr. Brisbane, with the genius for reporting which his organization deservedly has, will turn his men loose on that assignment, and then print what they bring him, he will have a story that will make a mark even in his remarkable career as an editor.

He might even run a second story on the Peace Conference, entitled, "Which Program Won at the Peace Conference?" He might instruct his men to inquire as to the business which brought the Jews in such quality and quantity to Paris, and how it was put through. Particularly should they inquire whether any jot or tittle of the Jews' world program was refused or modified by the Peace Conference. It should also be carefully inquired whether, after getting what they went after, they did not then ask for still more and get that, too, even though it constituted a discrimination against the rest of the world. Mr. Brisbane would doubtless be surprised to learn that of all the programs submitted to that conference, not excepting the great program on which humanity hung so many pathetic hopes, the only program to go through was the Jews' program. And yet he could learn just that if he inquired. The question is, having obtained that information, what would Mr. Brisbane do with it?

There are any number of lines of investigation Mr. Brisbane might enter, and in any one of them his knowledge of his country and of its relation to this particular Question would be greatly enlarged.

Does Mr. Brisbane know who owns Alaska? He may have been under the impression, in common with the rest of us until we learned better, that it was owned by the United States. NO, it is owned by the same people who are rapidly to own the United States.

Is Mr. Brisbane, from the vantage point afforded by his position in national journalism, even dimly aware that there are elements in our industrial unrest which neither "capital" nor "labor" accurately define? Has he ever caught a glimpse of another power which is neither "labor" nor "capital" in the productive sense, whose purpose and interest it is to keep labor and capital as far apart as possible, now by provoking labor, now by provoking capital? In his study of the industrial situation and its perfectly baffling mystery, Mr. Brisbane must have caught a flash of something behind the backmost scene. It would be good journalistic enterprise to find out what it is.

Has Mr. Brisbane ever printed the names of the men who control the sugar supply of the United States—does he know them—would he like to know them?

Has he ever looked into the woolen situation in this country, from the change of ownership in cotton lands, and the deliberate sabotage of cotton production by banking threats, right on through to the change in the price of cloth and clothing? And has he ever noted the names of the men he found on that piece of investigation? Would he like to know how it is done, and who does it? Mr. Brisbane could find all these things and give them to the public by using his efficient staff of investigators and writers on this Question.

Whether Mr. Brisbane would feel free to do this, he himself best knows. There may be reasons why he would not, private reasons, prudential reasons.

However that may be, there are no reasons why he should not make a complete study of the Question—a real study, not a superficial glance at it with an eye to its "news value"—and arrive at his own considered conclusion. There would be no intolerance about that. As it is now, Mr. Brisbane is not qualified to take a stand on either side of the Question; he simply brushes it aside as troublesome, as the old planters used to brush aside the anti-slavery moralists; and for that reason the recent defense of the Jew is not a defense at all. It is more like a bid for favor.

Mr. Brisbane's chief aversion, apparently, is toward what he calls race prejudice and race hatred. Of course, if any man should fear that the study of an economic situation would plunge him into these serious aberrations of mind, he should be advised to avoid that line of study. There is something wrong either with the investigation or with the investigator when prejudice and hatred are the result. It is a mighty poor excuse, however, for an intelligent man to put forward either on his own behalf or on behalf of those whose minds he has had the privilege of molding over a course of years.

Prejudice and hatred are the very conditions which a scientific study of the Jewish Question will forestall and prevent. We prejudice what we do not know, and we hate what we do not understand; the study of the Jewish Question will bring knowledge and insight, and not to the Gentile only, but also to the Jew. The Jew needs this as much, even more than the Gentile. For if the Jew can be made to see, understand and deal with certain matters, then a large part of the Question vanishes in the solution of ideal common sense. Awakening the Gentile to the facts about the Jew is only part of the work; awakening the Jew to the facts about the Question is an indispensable part. The big initial victory to be achieved is to transform Gentiles from being mere attackers and to transform Jews from being mere defenders, both of them special pleaders for partisan views, and to turn them both into investigators. The investigation will show both Gentile and Jew at fault, and the road will then be clear for wisdom to work out a result, if there should perchance be that much wisdom left in the race.

There is a serious snare in all this plea for tolerance. Tolerance is first a tolerance of the truth. Tolerance is urged today for the sake of suppression. There can be no tolerance until there is first a full understanding of what is tolerated. Ignorance, suppression, silence, collusion—these are not tolerance. The Jew never has been really tolerated in the higher sense because he has never been understood. Mr. Brisbane does not assist the understanding of this people by reading a “simply written” book and flinging a few Jewish names about in a sea of type. He owes it to his own mind to get into the Question, whether he makes newspaper use of his discoveries or not.

As to the newspaper angle, it is impossible to report to the world even superficially without coming everywhere against the fact of the Jews, and the Press gets around that fact by referring to them as Russians, Letts, Germans and Englishmen. This mask of names is one of the most confusing elements in the whole problem. [H: And thus, why it is done.] Names that actually name, statements that actually define are needed for the clarification of the world’s mind.

[H: It can be further described as being either EXPLICIT or IMPLICIT. For instance, a few days ago at the Ohio State University “open meeting” Mr. Cohen was asked EXPLICITLY: “How much are these military operations costing a day?”

Answer: Some five minutes of non-answer and NEVER was the question answered or attempted to be answered. There were some very IMPLICIT responses about it costing not MUCH MORE than running an army on a daily budget and expense schedule—if the army was at “home”. But there was never an answer. Until you are explicit you will run on innuendos and implicit misunderstandings. Mr. Cohen could have been explicit if by nothing more than saying, “I don’t know.” But you see, he DOES KNOW and therefore must be implicit so that YOU DON’T FIND OUT THE ANSWER! If I ask you about Jesus or Confucius, I don’t want you tell me about Buddha or Socrates. If I wanted that response from you I would have asked you about Buddha or Socrates.

And when “war” was mentioned to Ms. Albright she says, “Oh we are going to have only a military incursion, not a war.” A what? Is this implicit enough by simple contradictory statements in ONE STATEMENT? A military incursion IS WAR. That is explicit and no implicit drivel makes a whit of difference except that you know YOU ARE BEING DECEIVED—DELIBERATELY.]

Mr. Brisbane should study this question for the light such a study would throw on other matters with which he is concerned. It would be a help to that study if from time to time he would publish some of his findings, because such publication would put him in touch with a phase of Judaism which mere complimentary editorials could not. No doubt Mr. Brisbane has been deluged by communications which praise him for what he has written; [H: Remember that men such as Hitler, Stalin, and any considered “bad” men WROTE SOME FINE THINGS AS WELL. But to ban the speaking of or reference to these historically “important” (not famous, important) people is a worse COVER-UP OF THE CENSORS THEMSELVES THAN A REFLECTION ON THE “BADNESS” OF SUCH INDIVIDUALS. THIS IS WHY YOU SHOULD ALWAYS TRY TO READ BANNED BOOKS AND SQUELCHED INFORMATION.] the real eye-opener would come if he could get several bushels of the other kind. Nothing that has ever come to him could compare with what would come to him if he should publish even one of the facts he could discover by an independent investigation.

Having written about the Jews, Mr. Brisbane will probably have a readier eye henceforth for other men’s pronouncements on the same subject. In his casual reading he will find more references to the Jew than he has ever noticed before. Some of them will probably appear in isolated sentences and paragraphs of his own papers. Sooner or later, every competent investigator and every honest writer strikes a trail that leads toward Jewish power in the world. The Dearborn Independent is only doing with system and detail what other publications have done or are doing piecemeal.

[H: And so too can you describe CONTACT.]

There is a real fear of the Jew upon the publicity sources of the United States—a fear which is felt and which ought to be analyzed. Unless it is a very great mistake, Mr. Brisbane himself has felt this fear, though it is quite possible he has not scrutinized it. It is not the fear of doing injustice to a race of people—all of us ought to have that honorable fear—it is the fear of doing anything at all with reference to them except unstintingly praising them. An independent investigation would convince Mr. Brisbane that a considerable modification of praise in favor of discriminate criticism is a course that is pressing upon American journalism.

Take this off please so it can be sent to Dr. Young while we write the next segment.

I would not push for more today but the next segment is probably one of the more IMPORTANT topics of the entire series, and it should be offered immediately with this chapter. Thank you.

[QUOTING, Part 10, GLOBAL PARASITES]

DOES A DEFINITE JEWISH WORLD PROGRAM EXIST?

In all the explanations of anti-Jewish feeling which modern Jewish spokesmen make, these three alleged causes are commonly given—these three and no more: religious prejudice, economic jealousy, social antipathy. Whether the Jew knows it or not, every Gentile knows that on his side of the Jewish Question no religious prejudice exists. Economic jealousy may exist, at least to this extent, that his uniform success has exposed the Jew to much scrutiny. A few Jewish spokesmen seek to turn this scrutiny by denying that the Jew is preminent in finance, but this is loyalty in extremity. The finances of the world are in control of Jews; their decisions and their devices are themselves our economic law. But because a people excels us in finance is no sufficient reason for calling them to the bar of public judgment. If they are more intellectually able, more persistently industrious than we are, if they are endowed with faculties which have been denied us as an inferior or slower race, that is no reason for our requiring them to give an account of themselves. Economic jealousy may explain some of the anti-Jewish feeling; it cannot account for the presence of the Jewish Question except as the hidden causes of Jewish financial success may become a minor element of the larger problem. And as for social antipathy—there are many more undesirable Gentiles in the world than there are undesirable Jews, for the simple reason that there are more Gentiles.

None of the Jewish spokesmen today mention the political cause, or if they come within suggestive distance of it, they limit and localize it. It is not a question of the patriotism of the Jew, though this too is very widely questioned in all the countries. You hear it in England, in France, in Germany, in Poland, in Russia, in Rumania—and, with a shock, you hear it in the United States. Books have been written, reports published and scattered abroad, statistics skillfully set forth for the purpose of showing that the Jew does his part for the country in which he resides; and yet the fact remains that in spite of these most zealous and highly sponsored campaigns, the opposite assertion is stronger and lives longer. The Jews who did their duty in the armies of Liberty, and did it doubtless from true-hearted love and allegiance, have not been able to overcome the impression made upon officers and men and civilians by those who did not.

But that is not what is here meant as the political element in the Jewish Question. To understand why the Jew should think less of the nationalities of the world than do those who comprise them is not difficult. The Jew’s history is one of wandering among them all. Considering living individuals only, there is no race of people now upon the planet who have lived in so many places, among so many peoples as have the Jewish masses. They have a clearer world-sense than any other people, because the world has been their path. And they think in world terms more than any nationally cloistered people could. The Jew can be absolved if he does not enter into national loyalties and prejudices with the same intensity as the natives; the Jew has been for centuries a cosmopolitan. While under a flag he may be correct in the conduct required of him as a citizen or resident, inevitably he has a view of flags which can hardly be shared by the man who has known but one flag.

The political element inheres in the fact that the Jews form a nation in the midst of the nations. Some of their spokesmen, particularly in America, deny that, but the genius of the Jew himself has always put these spokesmen’s zeal to shame. And why this fact of nationhood should be so strenuously denied is not always clear. It may be that when Israel is brought to see that her mission in the world is not to be achieved by means of the Golden Calf, her very cosmopolitanism with regard to the world and her inescapable nationalistic integrity with regard to herself will together prove a great and serviceable factor in bringing about human unity, which the total Jewish tendency at the present time is doing much to prevent. It is not the fact that the Jews remain a nation in the midst of the nations; it is the use made of that inescapable status which the world has found reprehensible. The nations have tried to reduce the Jew to unity with themselves; attempts toward the same end have been made by the Jews themselves; but destiny seems to have marked them out to continuous nationhood. Both the Jews and the world will have to accept that fact, find the good prophecy in it, and seek the channels for its fulfillment.

Theodor Herzl, one of the greatest of the Jews, was perhaps the farthest-seeing public exponent of the philosophy of Jewish existence that modern generations have known. And he was never in doubt of the existence of the Jewish nation. Indeed, he proclaimed its existence on every occasion. He said, "We are a people—One people."

He clearly saw that what he called the Jewish Question was political. In his introduction to The Jewish State he says, "I believe that I understand anti-Semitism, which is really a highly complex movement. I consider it from a Jewish standpoint, yet without fear or hatred. I believe that I can see what elements there are in it of vulgar sport, of common trade jealousy, of inherited prejudice, of religious intolerance and also of pretended self-defense. I think the Jewish Question is no more a social than a religious one, notwithstanding that it sometimes takes these and other forms. It is a national question, which can only be solved by making it a political world-question to be discussed and controlled by the civilized nations of the world in council."

Not only did Herzl declare that the Jews formed a nation, but when questioned by Major Evans Gordon before the British Royal Commission on Alien Immigration in August, 1902, Dr. Herzl said: "I will give you my definition of a nation, and you can add the adjective 'Jewish'. A nation is, in my mind, an historical group of men of a recognizable cohesion held together by a common enemy. That is in my view a nation. Then if you add to that the word 'Jewish' you have what I understand to be the Jewish nation."

Also, in relating the action of this Jewish nation to the world, Dr. Herzl wrote—"When we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of the revolutionary party; when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse." [H: Anything look familiar here?]

This view, which appears to be the true view in that it is the view which has been longest sustained in Jewish thought, is brought out also by Lord Eustace Percy, and re-published, apparently with approval, by the Canadian Jewish Chronicle. It will repay a careful reading:

"Liberalism and Nationalism, with a flourish of trumpets, threw open the doors of the ghetto and offered equal citizenship to the Jew. The Jew passed out into the Western World, saw the power and the glory of it, used it and enjoyed it, laid his hand indeed upon the nerve centers of its civilization, guided, directed and exploited it, and then—refused the offer... "In a world of completely organized territorial sovereignties he (the Jew) has only two possible cities of refuge: He must either pull down the pillars of the whole national state system or he must create a territorial sovereignty of his own. In this perhaps lies the explanation both of Jewish Bolshevism and of Zionism, for at this moment Eastern Jewry seems to hover uncertainly between the two.

"In Eastern Europe Bolshevism and Zionism often seem to grow side by side, just as Jewish influence molded Republican and Socialist thought throughout the nineteenth century, down to the Young Turk revolution in Constantinople hardly more than a decade ago—not because the Jew cares for the positive side of radical philosophy, not because he desires to be a partaker in Gentile nationalism or Gentile democracy, but because no existing Gentile system of government is ever anything but distasteful to him."

[H: As you read along here, do not be distracted from ONE MAIN POINT: "GENTILE" IS EVERYTHING AND EVERYONE ELSE, EXCEPT A JEW. THIS "GENTILE" DEFINITION FITS ALL OTHER THAN JEWS! THAT MEANS ALL MOSLEMS, ISLAMICS, ACTUALLY ATHEISTS AND AGNOSTICS AS THEY WOULD DESCRIBE THEMSELVES, CONFUCIANS, YOU NAME IT...! Example? Well, let's see: Mr. Farrakhan, Mr. Quadafi, the more fearless type always recognize it as true. The Jew is against the Gentile scheme of things. He is, when he gives his tendencies full sway, a Republican as against the monarchy, a Socialist as against the republic, and a Bolshevik as against Socialism.

What are the causes of this disruptive activity? First, his essential lack of democracy. Jewish nature is autocratic. Democracy is all right for the rest of the world, but the Jew wherever he is found forms an aristocracy of one sort or another. Democracy is merely a tool of a word which Jewish agitators use to raise themselves to the ordinary level in places where they are oppressed below it; but having reached the common level they immediately make efforts for special privileges, as being entitled to them—a process of which the late Peace Conference will remain the most startling example. The Jews today are the only people whose special and extraordinary privileges are written into the world's Treaty of Peace. But more of that at another time.

No one now pretends to deny, except a few spokesmen who really do not rule the thought of the Jews but are set forth for the sole benefit of influencing Gentile thought, that the socially and economically disruptive elements abroad in the world today are not only manned but also moneyed by Jewish interests. For a long time this fact was held in suspense owing to the vigorous denial of the Jews and the lack of information on the part of those agencies of publicity to which the public had looked for its information. But now the facts are coming forth. Herzl's words are being proved to be true—"when we sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of the revolutionary party"—and these words were first published in English in 1896, or 24 years ago.

Just now these tendencies are working in two directions, one for the tearing down of the Gentile states all over the world, the other for the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine. The latter project has the best wishes of the whole world, but it is far from having the best wishes of the whole, or even the larger part of Jewry. The Zionist party makes a great deal of noise, but it is really an unrepresentative minority. It can scarcely be designated as more than an unusually ambitious colonization scheme. (NOTE: The statements indicated are those of non-Zionist Jews. The real Jewish program is that program which is executed. It was the Zionist program that was followed by the Peace Conference. It must therefore be regarded as the official program.) It is doubtless serving, however, as a very useful public screen for the carrying on of secret activities. International Jews, the controllers of the world's governmental and financial power, may meet anywhere, at any time, in war time or peace time, and by giving out that they are only considering the ways and means of opening up Palestine to the Jews, they easily escape the suspicion of being together on any other business. The Allies and enemies of the Gentile nations at war thus met and were not molested. It was at a Zionist conference—the sixth, held in 1903—that the recent war was exactly predicted, its progress and outcome indicated, and the relation of the Jews to the Peace Treaty outlined.

That is to say, though Jewish nationalism exists, its enshrinement in a state to be set up in Palestine is NOT the project that is engaging the whole Jewish nation now. The Jews will not move to Palestine just yet; it may be said that they will not move at all merely because of the Zionist movement. Quite another motive will be the cause of the exodus out of the Gentile nations, when the time for that exodus fully comes.

As Donald A. Cameron, late British Consul-General at Alexandria, a man fully in sympathy with Zionism and much quoted in the Jewish press, says: “The Jewish immigrants (into Palestine) will tire of taking in one another's washing at three per cent, of winning one another's money in the family, and their sons will hasten by train and steamer to win 10 per cent in Egypt... The Jew by himself in Palestine will eat his head off; he will kick his stable to pieces.” Undoubtedly the time for the exodus—at least the motive for the exodus—is not yet here.

The political aspect of the Jewish Question which is now engaging at least three of the great nations—France, Great Britain and the United States—has to do with matters of the present organization of the Jewish nation. Must it wait until it reaches Palestine to have a State, or is it an organized State now? Does Jewry know what it is doing? Has it a “foreign policy” with regard to the Gentiles? Has it a department which is executing that foreign policy? Has this Jewish State, visible or invisible, if it exists, a head? Has it a Council of State? And if any of these things is so, who is aware of it?

At any rate, in the American Hebrew of June 25, 1920, Herman Bernstein writes thus: “About a year ago a representative of the Department of Justice submitted to me a copy of the manuscript of The Jewish Peril by Professor Nilus, and asked for my opinion of the work. He said that the manuscript was a translation of a Russian book published in 1905 which was later suppressed. The manuscript was supposed to contain ‘protocols’ of the Wise Men of Zion and was supposed to have been read by Dr. Herzl at a secret conference of the Zionist Congress at Basel. He expressed the opinion that the work was probably that of Dr. Theodor Herzl... He said that some American Senators who had seen the manuscript were amazed to find that so many years ago a scheme had been elaborated by the Jews which is now being carried out, and that Bolshevism had been planned years ago by Jews who sought to destroy the world.”

The first impulsive answer of the Gentile mind would be “No” to all these questions—it is a Gentile habit to answer impulsively. Never having been trained in secrets or invisible unity, the Gentile immediately concludes that such things cannot be, if for no other reason than that they have not crossed his path and advertised themselves.

The questions, however, answered thus, require some explanation of the circumstances which are visible to all men. If there is no deliberate combination of Jews in the world, then the control which they have achieved and the uniformity of the policies which they follow must be the simple result, not of deliberate decisions, but of a similar nature in all of them working out the same way. Thus, we might say that as a love for adventure on the water drove the Britisher forth, so it made him the world's great colonist. Not that he deliberately sat down with himself and in formal manner resolved that he would become a colonizer, but the natural outworking of his genius resulted that way. But would this be a sufficient account of the British Empire?

Doubtless the Jews have the genius to do, wherever they go, the things in which we see them excel. But does this account for the relations which exist between the Jews of every country, for their world councils, for their amazing foreknowledge of stupendous events which break with shattering surprise on the rest of the world, for the smoothness and preparedness with which they appear, at a given time in Paris, with a world program on which they all agree?

The world has long suspected—at first only a few, then the secret departments of the governments, next the intellectuals among the people, now more and more the common people themselves—that not only are the Jews a nation distinct from all the other nations and mysteriously unable to sink their nationality by any means they or the world may adopt to this end, but that they also constitute a state; that they are nationally conscious, not only that, but consciously united for a common defense and for a common purpose. Revert to Theodor Herzl's definition of the Jewish nation, as held together by a common enemy, and then reflect that this common enemy is the Gentile world. Does this people which knows itself to be a nation remain loosely unorganized in the face of that fact? It would hardly be like Jewish astuteness in other fields. When you see how closely the Jews are united by various organizations in the United States, and when you see how with practiced hand they bring those organizations to bear as if with tried confidence in their pressure, it is at least not inconceivable that what can be done within a country can be done, or has been done, between all the countries where the Jews live.

At any rate, in the American Hebrew of June 25, 1920, Herman Bernstein writes thus: “About a year ago a representative of the Department of Justice submitted to me a copy of the manuscript of The Jewish Peril by Professor Nilus, and asked for my opinion of the work. He said that the manuscript was a translation of a Russian book published in 1905 which was later suppressed. The manuscript was supposed to contain ‘protocols’ of the Wise Men of Zion and was supposed to have been read by Dr. Herzl at a secret conference of the Zionist Congress at Basel. He expressed the opinion that the work was probably that of Dr. Theodor Herzl... He said that some American Senators who had seen the manuscript were amazed to find that so many years ago a scheme had been elaborated by the Jews which is now being carried out, and that Bolshevism had been planned years ago by Jews who sought to destroy the world.”

This quotation is made merely to put on record the fact that it was a representative of the Department of Justice of the United States Government, who introduced this document to Mr. Bernstein, and expressed a certain opinion upon it, namely, “that the work was probably that of Dr. Theodor Herzl”. Also that “some American Senators” were amazed to note the comparison between what a publication of the year 1905 proposed and what the year 1920 revealed.

The incident is all the more preoccupying because it occurred by action of the representative of a government who today is very largely in the hands of, or under the influence of, Jewish interests. It is more than probable that as soon as the activity became known, the investigator was stopped. But it is equally probable that whatever orders may have been given and apparently obeyed, the investigation may not have stopped.

The United States Government was a little late in the matter, however. At least four other world powers had preceded it, some by many years. A copy of the Protocols was deposited in the British Museum and bears on it the stamp of that institution, “August 10, 1906”. The notes themselves probably date from 1896, or the year of the utterances previously quoted from Dr. Herzl. The first Zionist Congress convened in 1897.

The document was published in England recently under auspices that challenged attention for it, in spite of the unfortunate title under which it appeared. Eyre and Spittswoode are the appointed printers to the British Government, and it was they who brought out the pamphlet. It was as if the Government Printing Office at Washington should issue them in this country. While there was the usual outcry by the Jewish press, the London Times in a review pronounced all the Jewish counter-attacks as “unsatisfactory”.

The Times noticed what will probably be the case in this country also, that the Jewish defenders leave the text of the Protocols alone, while they lay heavy emphasis on the fact of their anonymity. When they refer to the substance of the document at all there is one form of words which recurs very often—“It is the work of a criminal or a madman.”

The Protocols, without name attached, appearing for the most part in manuscripts here and there, laboriously copied out from hand to hand, being sponsored by no authority that was willing to stand behind it, assiduously studied in the secret departments of the governments and passed from one to another among higher officials, have lived on and on, increasing in power and prestige by the sheer force of their contents. A marvelous achievement for either a criminal or a madman! The only evidence it has is that which it carries within it, and that internal evidence is, as the London Times points out, the point on which attention is to be focused, and the very point from which Jewish effort has been expended to draw us away.

The interest of the Protocols at this time is their bearing on the questions: Have the Jews an organized world system? What is its policy? How is it being worked?

These questions all receive full attention in the Protocols. Whosoever was the mind that conceived them possessed a knowledge of human nature, of history and of statecraft which is dazzling in its brilliant completeness, and terrible in the objects to which it turns its powers. Neither a madman nor an intentional criminal, but more likely a super-mind mastered by devotion to a people and a faith could be the author, if indeed one mind alone conceived them. It is too terribly real for fiction, too well-sustained for speculation, too deep in its knowledge of the secret springs of life for forgery.

Jewish attacks upon it thus far make much of the fact that it came out of Russia. That is hardly true. It came by way of Russia. It was incorporated in a Russian book published about 1905 by a Professor Nilus, who attempted to interpret the protocols by events then going forward in Russia. This publication and interpretation gave it a Russian tinge which has been useful to Jewish propagandists in this country and England, because these same propagandists have been very successful in establishing in Anglo-Saxon mentalities a certain atmosphere of thought surrounding the idea of Russia and Russians. One of the biggest humbugs ever foisted on the world has been that foisted by Jewish propagandists, principally on the American public, with regard to the temper and genius of the truly Russian people. So, to intimate that the Protocols are Russian, is partially to discredit them.

The internal evidence makes it clear that the Protocols were not written by a Russian, nor originally in the Russian language, nor under the influence of Russian conditions. But they found their way to Russia and were first published there. They have been found by diplomatic officers in manuscript in all parts of the world. Wherever Jewish power is able to do so, it has suppressed them, sometimes under the supreme penalty.

Their persistence is a fact which challenges the mind. Jewish apologists may explain that persistence on the ground that the Protocols feed the anti-Semitic temper, and therefore are preserved for that service. Certainly there was no wide nor deep anti-Semitic temper in the United States to be fed or that felt the greed for agreeable lies to keep itself alive. The progress of the Protocols in the United States can only be explained on the ground that they supply light and give meaning to certain previously observed facts, and that this light and meaning is so startling as to give a certain standing and importance to these otherwise unaccredited documents. Sheer lies do not live long, their power soon dies. These Protocols are more alive than ever. They have penetrated higher places than ever before. They have compelled a more serious attitude to them than ever before.

The Protocols would not be more worthy of study if they bore, say, the name of Theodor Herzl. Their anonymity does not decrease their power any more than the omission of a painter's signature detracts from the art value of a painting. Indeed, the Protocols are better without a known source. For if it were definitely known that in France or Switzerland in the year 1896, or thereabouts, a group of International Jews, assembled in conference, drew up a program of world conquest it would still have to be shown that such a program was more than a mere vagary, that it was confirmed at large by efforts to fulfill it. The Protocols are a World Program—there is no doubt anywhere of that. Whose program, is stated within the articles themselves. But as for outer confirmation, which would be the more valuable—a signature, or six signatures, or twenty signatures, or a 25-year unbroken line of effort fulfilling that program? [H: Try now, 78 years later.]

The point of interest for this and other countries is not that a “criminal or a madman” conceived such a program, but that, when conceived, this program found means of getting itself fulfilled in its most important particulars. The document is comparatively unimportant; the conditions to which it calls attention are of a very high degree of importance.

[END OF QUOTING]

Are our people crazy or insane to present this material? No, neither. It is information from very substantial resources and sources, and in knowing TRUTH, freedom from the fear and terror comes. Would the “Jews” come against us? They already have done so in every criminal and madman type of assault, so what more can they do without making total fools of themselves? If the Jewish attitude be correct in that there are only Jews and Gentiles, then I would suggest that Gentiles outnumber the Jews of this definition—more than some thousand to one. What is to fear in that ratio? So what is the difference? The Jews never lost sight of their Satanic-oriented worldly goals and it has not yet occurred to all those Gentiles to unite or get goals worthy of the GOD THEY REPRESENT—you know, THAT CREATOR OF BALANCE, HONOR, INTEGRITY, PEACE AND PROSPERITY.

With ONE tool you can totally collapse the house of cards built on the blood and sweat of all Gentiles everywhere. You have to understand that the Arab world people—ARE SEMITES—GENTILES. With this realization there is only a tiny, TINY handful of super-controllers who will literally collapse in the face of “right-ness”. This can come in unity from Pakistan to Wisconsin or Tejasstan, Istanbul (Constantinople) to Sri Lanka (Ceylon), Stalingrad or St. Petersburg. You see, changing names does not change the FACTS. Is Greece H-Ellas or Athena? We move on now to being, as well, UNABLE TO EVEN WRITE IN THE ENGLISH ALPHABET THAT WHICH IS DEPICTED IN THE ARABIC OR GREEK OR CHINESE OR, OR, OR. Is Iran Iran or Persia? Is it H-Aton-n or Aton? You can paint out a leopard's spots or change them to painted stripes, but you do not change the leopard, do you?

There IS, HOWEVER, one thing you of God are going to learn and that is that all humans are not HUmans. Looking “like” something else does not make you something else, it simply makes you a bad imposter.

God Creator created greater HUmans species. Satan DEVELOPED lower human species. There is a BIG AND MONSTROUSLY LARGE DIFFERENCE. You, as an individual, have an opportunity and a choice TO BE EITHER ONE. One is infinite and the other destined for downfall. One is eternal and the other very, very “mortal” indeed.

I am a bit like [radio personality] Imus (in the morning) where he makes some interesting thoughts for you to hear; i.e., “If adultery matters in your house, why doesn't it matter in the White House?” And this great observation: “With Clinton we elected a philanderer and he is just keeping up his end of the bargain.” Well, readers, you have elected your puppet-masters and they are just keeping up their end of the bargain. It's a rotten job but “somebody has to do it”.

You have to understand the mindset of these driven people. No matter how much they GET it is never enough for they cannot ever achieve or attain that which they really desire and that is Godship and inclusion within the blessed family of HUmans; YOU ALREADY HAVE IT.

Now, may we please move on to create that which we need to bring change into this weary and worn old world. Pain and agony was not her intended lot and neither is it yours. God's people are destined for JOY and abundance. This old suffering garbage is a lot of hooey and now you know where the idea originates. Suffering and whining can be of Satan's crew; it is not acceptable for Creator's children.

Love multiplies and adds as you divide it with others. You never have to subtract Joy wherein you find Love. It is pretty straightforward and simple arithmetic.

Now am I to go back to being sorry and apologetic somehow over flooded plains and washouts or houses off cliffsides? No thank you—you SHOULD KNOW BETTER THAN TO HAVE A HOUSE IN A FLOODPLAIN. WHO DO YOU SUPPOSE SOLD YOU THAT BILL OF GOODS TO GET YOUR MONEY FROM YOU? And, wait and see what these miserly old greed-mongers get from you AFTER the rains. They will pick up zillions of acres of “wetlands” and make more rules and regulations for your placements and you will slip further down the shackle stakes. You never seem to learn and THEY NEVER SEEM TO GET ENOUGH. So be it. Adonai.

Las Vegas Microbe Incident & Arrests

Editor's note: This "timely" anthrax microbe scare incident near Las Vegas was first announced by the media about 10 a.m. on Thursday morning 2/19/98. Much of Commander Hatonn's commentary below is "between the lines" and reminds one of what several callers-in to Art Bell's late-night radio talk-show thursday night pointed out: that isn't it an interesting "coincidence" this happened the day after the Ohio State fiasco to rally support for bombing Iraq.

The shenanigans to get something started in the Middle East are part of a very high-stakes chess game and often the pawns being used are the last to know. While this incident will no doubt go through several back-and-forth swings of the pendulum over the next several days, you can be sure that we will only see the pawns being moved around on the chess board and not the REAL struggles for position and power going on behind the scenes. And no matter what is reported, it will be "connected" to Iraq in some way to get us properly conditioned to accept the war agenda.

2/19/98 #2 HATONN

I am interrupted here and asked to comment on some incident in Las Vegas by some "patriots" or something. As I check into the incident I see that it is going to require observations about "Survival courses", possibility of MASS DESTRUCTION by microbes, etc., a tip-off of some kind that seeing the location is going to involve Col. Bo Gritz and I have played Bo's game for a very long time to hold his COVER. I'm not sure I should dangle him longer. Henderson, Nevada is VERY CLOSE to Sandy Valley.

The rebuttal will be that "We were arrested without cause." Right, and the agents in the arrest VERY CAREFULLY HANDLED THAT LITTLE PROBLEM. This is so possibly dangerous and it involves a man on parole for having Plague specimens which he was tampering with some time ago—so, I'd say this could be another "patriot nightmare" gone crazy. But JUST WHO IS CRAZY? WHAT IF ONE MAN HAS A VIAL OF ANTHRAX (claimed here) and he stumbles and breaks the vile in mid-Las Vegas? Problems? Like, are you all gone insane? I will speak of this later but we have spent too many hours with crossed eyes at this computer today.

DO NOT COME TO US FOR HELP OR EVEN TO PETITION FOR AID. THERE IS NOTHING HERE FOR BIGOTS, IDIOTS OR KILLERS. ANY MILITIA GROUP WHO COVERS FOR THIS KIND OF BEHAVIOR IS NOT WORTHY OF DEFENSE FOR YOUR ACTIONS OR EVEN YOUR OPIN-IONS AND ATTITUDES.

What will be actually FOUND? Probably nothing for the ORIGINAL PACKAGE—but PLENTY by the time it is made public. When you first deceive, ladies and gentlemen, you lose your protection—every time.

And THIS is why we don't even have family meetings around here—to stop the assumption and lies that we are some kind of a GROUP. We write, nothing more at this time, and when we have projects under way, they will be farming, good housing, and other very substantial and fundamental construction projects—inclusive of our Native Brothers.

The elements of White Supremacy, and Harris and Levitt have played in that KKK garbage too, are unacceptable. And to my Jewish friends—AND YES, I HAVE THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS—YOU ARE AT RISK, PRECIOUS ONES—FIRST ON THE LIST TO MAKE A VERY LARGE EXAMPLE! THERE HAS TO BE AN ATROCIOUS EXAMPLE BY WHICH TO BLAME YOUR SEMITE BROTHER AND ROUSE THE RABBLE TO SILLINESS AND IDIOCY WITH YOUR POP-GUNS AND BLOW-DARTS.

Yes, I will speak of this—later. And, PAY ATTENTION; we all are targets. This is the time of total chaos and it is necessary to cause man to rise against his brother—and murder by any being is MURDER.

The WORST thing coming from THIS incident, however, is that now the Big Boys can annihilate a whole big bunch of you citizens using microbes and your own so-called patriot teammates will GET THE BLAME.

DOES EVERYONE CLEARLY UNDERSTAND ME? THIS INCLUDES THE SURVEILLANCE TEAMS MONITORING THIS COMPUTER.

Good evening.

PATRIOT GROUPS AND BIOLOGICAL AGENTS

The first thing I want to discuss is the topic of Col. James "BO" Gritz. Just because I mention his name DOES NOT mean that somehow I involve him in anything. Those nice warm PATRIOT groups involve him because they assume if they get into trouble he will come to bail them out of whatever mess they have gotten into on their short-time thinking.

I don't have anything to discuss "about" Gritz other than one emphatic FACT. Bo Gritz is in no way at all a traitor to this country, a fanatic anything, or whatever ones choose to call him who wish to damage him. He took an oath to protect HIS COUNTRY under the most disciplined circumstances, and if he fails to have "thank you" graces, perhaps you could be a bit more kind and generous while you don't know anything about much of anything.

Gritz is a TRAINED Delta Force Special Forces Officer (LEADER) and he has been involved in some things beyond any of your wildest dreams and nightmares. And for anyone out of any "movement" calling themselves "patriots" who would come, say, all the way from Ohio to get "close" enough to mention a possibility of being involved with Gritz—and then play with deadly biologicals, is unthinkable and unacceptable.

What the man thinks of me or my scribe is NONE OF MY BUSINESS.

Col. Gritz lives in a remote little site in Nevada and there will be every effort to connect him to this Harris, Levitt THING.

When I speak of offering "cover" for the Colonel it is not what you seem to think that to mean. He has a reason for doing what he is doing and whether he be just an individual trying to make a positive difference or an infiltrator for the whatever—he is doing what he knows to be right.

It may well be that, like you, Bo doesn't have his Spiritual TRUTH quite straight, but he knows about the nation even if he can't quite identify the "enemy". Actually, he has even identified the enemy. The best any of us can do is try to stay clear of the idiots claiming to want to save something while destroying and then breaking laws to leave themselves open for the "blame" for outrageous actions while the powers-that-be perpetrate the actual actions.

But whose side is the man on? He is on HIS SIDE. He has a family, children, and he knows what lies ahead for you all in this clamp-down, take-over-governments machine. He presses for you to be prepared for what is ahead, from defense of self to storage of some supplies. He would like to see working communities with some hope of survival—wouldn't we all?

I wonder why nobody mentioned George Green or others who also live in Las Vegas for connections to these false patriots and why you just nail onto Gritz? STOP IT, SILLY CHILDREN. You destroy the very things that eventually COULD SAVE YOUR BACON.

I have offered his stories as he had given them forth AND HE KNOWS THAT THEY ARE NOT TRUE—SO HE CAN CALL ME "FALSE". I SHALL CONTINUE TO SHELTER WHERE I CAN DO SO. Did he really do all those things in Asia, Cambodia, Shan, etc? He said he did and I remind you all: if a man introduces HIMSELF to me and calls himself Jesus Christ or any other name—I will address him from that moment on (until information changes) as Mr. Christ. Of course things were and are not as presented, but what in your government or intelligence circles IS?

Whatever you do or don't perceive Gritz to be—he has one of the most focused and brilliant minds of your generations. If he lacks a few social and political graces as we would like to receive, then let us look at our own flaws and then if we are each PERFECT, cast a stone.

Yes he was a Mason and yes he was a Mormon—there is nothing hidden about either. The Anti-Christ is very devious and hard to catch, especially as you try one religious CALL after another. Where do you find God? Well, most look in all the wrong faces and places, so let's not be judging.

I don't care whether Harris was working on live anthrax or vaccines for same, he should not have been causing such trouble when your nation is planning to go to war and is destroying things to make it look like YOU ARE DOING IT TO YOURSELVES. This is NOT an act of patriotism—it is the act of warped minds and selfish "saviour" attitudes.

What will SAVE your world? TRUTH! When ALL the lies stop and when it is not acceptable to have politicians lie and then rig meetings for political gain—then you may have a place to start.

How To Fight Back The Smart Way

Editor's note: While you are still in a state of shock trying to absorb the story starting on p.40, don't forget to stock up on your supplies of those items which CAN help you to cope with the elite would-be-kings' biological warfare agenda against we-the-people. In addition to Gaiandriana, AquaGaia and Oxysol (all from New Gaia Products) for general immune system health, consider the following items for inclusion in your daily routine.

COLLOIDS

Colloidal Titanium (GAIA Ti-22) $20 2oz.

Colloidal Copper (GAIA Cu-29) $10 2oz.

Colloidal DHEA (GAIA DHEA) $20 2oz.

Colloidal Gold (GAIA Gold) $20 2oz.

Colloidal Multi-Vitamin & Mineral (GAIA VITE) $10 2oz.

Colloidal Silver (GAIA Col) $20 2oz.

GaiaLife Colloidal Minerals 121++ $10 2oz.

(800) NEW-GAIA (639-4242)

Advanced products with higher frequencies to knock out the newly created, mutated viruses carried by the specialized parasites. Call for a free catalog.

Everybody hooked in with either government or intelligence services is REQUIRED TO LIE AND BE ABLE TO DO SO WHILE PASSING LIE DETECTOR TESTS. BELIEVE IT!

And, yes, I suggest to those in the "Preparedness" group to be very, very careful for you have ENEMIES and disinformation people AMONG YOU, but you already know that, don't you?

When people MOVE OUTSIDE THE LAW to save something else—they are WRONG! Two wrongs will never make even half a "right". When you learn to live in honest integrity within the laws of land and God, you will have learned what strength and power IS.

It is a bit like the President debacle. Why go over all the possibilities—if he had not lied and broken laws and moral guidelines for his own purposes, he would NOT BE IN THE MESS IN THE FIRST PLACE. Has anyone heard of NOT BREAKING THE LAW AND HAVING MORAL FOUNDATIONS ENOUGH TO ACTUALLY BE AN EXAMPLE FOR YOUR GROWING CHILDREN WITHIN A FREE NATION? When your top leaders are criminals, liars, cheats and immoral people—you have a criminal, lying, cheating and immoral NATION. And, of all the things Bo Gritz learned, it was that you can't even run for President and beat the machinery set to FIX ELECTIONS. But you can't HAVE A SAVIOR for the United States or any other "taken" nation—the nation of citizens have to SAVE THEMSELVES.

You are going to come to find that Antichrist and World Elite are not Jews, Gentiles, Catholics, Protestants, Mormons or Native Americans, Europeans, or any of these THINGS. If you break the laws of GOD (CHRIST LAWS) YOU are among the Antichrist. Antichrist has no one structure—but the dangerous ones to your world ARE THE ONES AT THE TOP LEVELS OF CONTROL—EVERY TIME.

Wouldn't it be nice to point a finger and say, "Ah there goes a Mason so he is the Antichrist." Or, "That man is in the Illuminati and he is the Antichrist." It is not that simple, is it? For CHRIST IS A STATE OF BEING TOWARD, EVER TOWARD, perfection in TRUTH. The Masons began as BUILDERS. Every good thing that you have or begat will be corrupted if YOU ALLOW IT—but mostly in your ignorance YOU CORRUPT IT AND THEN GET MAD AT SOMEONE ELSE AND BLAME THEM FOR YOUR PLIGHT.

I can only remind each and all of you that if you live by the bomb (tinker with them or use them), by the sword, or by the gun, you will be taken DOWN with and over them. Even the CONCEPT utilized for simple "defense" will bring you down because that is the WAY you will be caught and prosecuted, innocent or guilty.

Anyone can take exception with me, that is not difficult no matter who I might be. The proof of my teachings are exemplified all about you now.

The war between good and evil WILL BE WON THROUGH SPIRIT AND WISDOM. Where have you placed YOURS? So be it.

Esu present in Radiance, as near as your very breath.

YOUR MIDDLE EAST REGION IS LIKE A BOILING CAULDRON ABOUT TO EXPLODE. THE POSSIBILITY OF WAR AND THE PROBABLE USE OF ATOMIC WEAPONS IS SO GREAT, THUS POTENTIALLY IGNITING YOUR VERY ATMOSPHERE, THAT I FEEL IT IS TIMELY TO PRESENT FOR YOU SOME MATERIAL WHICH WE HAVE DISCUSSED BEFORE. WE HAVE WRITTEN ON THIS SUBJECT IN MANY DIFFERENT WAYS, BUT LET US EXAMINE THIS PARTICULAR DOCUMENT WHICH COMES FROM THE "CATHOLIC" PERSPECTIVE.

The book is titled, The Three Days' Darkness—Prophecies Of Saints And Seers, by Albert J. Herbert, S.M.

[QUOTING:]

A Look At Darkness And At Light

In order to appreciate more fully what God is teaching us through warnings of darkness to come, it might be helpful for us to reflect, in this chapter, on the reality of physical and intellectual darkness and its effects on our lives.

The material darkness forecast to come, that of the Three Days' Darkness, is inseparable from intellectual and spiritual darkness, the darkening of the mind and will. If we reverse things a bit, in the beginning darkness covered the Earth, before the Spirit moved over it, and before the creation of man, who was to come and who was to be gifted with the light of reason and the flaming love of good.

"...and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit of God moved over the waters. And God said: Be light made. And light was made. And God saw the light that it was good; and He divided the light from the darkness. And He called the light Day, and the darkness Night." (Genesis 1:2-5)

So, in our day, darkness spreads over the Earth because the Spirit of Truth and Love is resisted by many persons. The Spirit moves and struggles, as it were, to bring Light to the darkness. But, as when

Light Itself came, we can still hear now: "In Him was life: and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness did not comprehend it." (Jn 1:4-5) "That was the true light, which enlighteneth every man that cometh into this world." (Jn 1:9)

Ye, many of His own still, along with the world, receive Him not, which is the rejection of the Light of Truth and the Flame of Love. And so the darkness remains and the darkness increases. It spreads and mushrooms and will soon be made materially manifest in an immense physical darkness as well, when day itself will be like night.

[Moving several chapters forward in the book:]

Palma Maria d'Oria (d. 1863), as do other seers, tell of the activities of demons:

"There shall be three days of darkness, during which the atmosphere will be infected by innumerable devils, who will cause the death of large multitudes of unbelievers and wicked men. Blessed candles alone shall be able to give light and preserve the faithful Catholics from this impending dreadful scourge. Supernatural prodigies will appear in the heavens...."

Later we shall see more details about the mad activities of desperate demons who know their time is limited. They will be allowed to harvest their prey, the unrepentant wicked who want to be with the devils anyway. We also hear terms like "infected" and "pestilential air" in prophecies about the Darkness. Other passages speak of the "stink of hell" or the "plague". Perhaps if these people had modern vocabulary at their disposal they would have spoken of "pollution", "radiation" or "chemical spill" which denote dreadful realities of our own day.

As we have indicated earlier, the spiritual war that has increased in intensity for some time now is a plain fact of life. And it continues to heat up, expanding daily in breadth, depth and intensity. It is the war between good and evil, light and darkness, between demons and wicked men on the one side, and angels and saints on the other. All material evils, disasters, warfare—both "Conventional" (deceptive word!) and nuclear—are but outward manifestations of that spiritual war which broke out in Eden and will continue until the "mopping up" process, following on Christ's victory on the Cross, is complete.

And that will only come when all mankind accepts Christ's call to get to the root of the trouble, the evil of sin, and accept the remedy of repentance, reform and perseverance in good. Meanwhile, as one Catholic paper recently observed: "A terrible darkness is descending upon the leaders of the Western world." (One might as well read: "the entire world"!)

None are so blind as those who will not see!

The holy nun, Sister Jeanne le Royer of the Nativity, of the Poor Clares of Fougères, Brittany, France (d. 1789), speaks of the spiritual darkness which eventually leads us to the Three Days' Darkness:

"The reign of Antichrist is approaching. The thick vapors which I have seen rising from the Earth and obscuring the light of the Sun are the false maxims of irreligion and license which are confounding all sound principles and spreading everywhere such darkness as to obscure both faith and reason."

Padre Pio, the Capuchin priest stigmatist (1887-1968), was gifted with every important charismatic gift besides having great holiness. Books about him continue to pile up and they never seem to exhaust the wondrous stories told about him and the many supernatural happenings in his life. In a widely circulated letter attributed to him—whose authenticity we confess that we have not been able to establish as well as we would like—we find certain revelations similar to those of many other special souls:

"This catastrophe shall come upon the Earth like a flash of lightning at which moment the light of the morning Sun shall be replaced by black darkness! No one shall leave the house or look out of a window from that moment on. I Myself shall come amidst thunder and lightning. The wicked shall behold My Divine Heart. There shall be great confusion because of this utter darkness in which the entire Earth shall be enveloped and many, many shall die from fear and despair.

"Those who shall fight for My cause shall receive grace from My Divine Heart; and the cry: 'WHO IS LIKE UNTO GOD!' shall serve as a means of protection to many. However, many shall burn in the open fields like withered grass! The godless shall be annihilated, so that afterwards the just shall be able to start afresh.

“On the day, as soon as complete darkness has set in, no one shall leave the house or look from out of the window. The darkness shall last a day and a night, followed by another day and a night, and another day—but on the night following, the stars will shine again, and on the morning the Sun will rise again, and it will be SPRINGTIME!

“In the days of darkness, My elect shall not sleep, as did the disciples in the garden of olives. They shall pray incessantly, and they shall not be disappointed in Me. I shall gather My elect. Hell will believe itself to be in possession of the entire Earth, but I shall reclaim it.” (Feb. 7, 1950)

[Again, further into the book:]

In 1891, we have the detailed prophecy given by the “Stigmatist of Blain”, Marie Julie Jahenny of La Fraudais, France:

“There will come three days of continued darkness. The blessed candles of wax alone will give light during the horrid darkness. One candle will last for three days, but in the houses of the godless they will not give light. During those three days the demons will appear in abominable and horrible forms; they will make the air resound with shocking blasphemies.

“The lightning will penetrate the homes, but will not extinguish the light of the blessed candles; neither wind nor storm nor earthquake will extinguish it. Red clouds like blood will pass in the sky, the crash of thunder will make the Earth tremble; lightning will flash through the streets at an unusual time of the year; the Earth will tremble to its foundations; the ocean will cast its foaming waves over the land; the Earth will be changed into an immense cemetery; the corpses of the wicked and the just will cover the face of the Earth.

“The famine that will follow will be great. All vegetation will be destroyed as well as three fourths of the human race. The crisis will come all of a sudden and the chastisement will be world-wide.

[Moving ahead to the chapter titled, Material Considerations And Provisions, we read:]

The next thing to remember is that the Three Days’ Darkness will be an apparently continuous night, one long night, and has been announced simply as a “night” or the “darkness”. There will be no sunrise or sunset to mark the day and night, no Moon, no stars, a continuous blackness, a 72-hour night. Hence, one should have a wind-up clock or watch, kept wound, and a “log” to mark off when “day” and “night” have passed during the 72 hours.

There will be no utilities to count on: no electricity and all those “necessities” and conveniences which depend on electricity, no lights, no heating or cooling systems, no air-conditioning, no ceiling or other fans, no TV or radio, no electrical clocks, no water pumps, etc. It may be that even batteries will not function although they are advisable for flashlights and radios in case some stations are still operating.

There will be no gas and probably no water utilities, no refrigeration to keep foods unspoiled (after hurricanes people have had to give refrigerated food away at once), no cooking or baking, no microwave ovens, no toasters, mixers, and all the rest, no hot tea or coffee, no iced tea or cold drinks. There will be no phones, no showers or bathing, no clothes, washing machines or driers, no dishwashers, no regular flushing of toilets. Mankind will really be stripped down to basics and will know how much he depends upon God, something many have forgotten.

Many prophecies say no artificial light will avail, so having blessed candles on hand is vital both for illumination and for protection. And don’t forget some matches!

[Let us close this quoted material with the following:]

The Julka tells more about the disasters which will be preliminary to the Darkness:

“A little more about the great distress. To begin with, a strong warm wind will come from the south. It will seize upon the whole globe and cause dreadful storms. After this, about ten claps of thunder at once will strike the Earth with such force that it will shudder throughout. This is a sign that the great tribulation and the black darkness are beginning. These will last three days and three nights.

“On this account people should go into their houses, close them up well, darken the windows, bless themselves and the house with holy water, and light blessed candles. Outside such dreadful things will be happening, that those who ventured to look will die. All the devils will be let loose on Earth, so that they can destroy their prey themselves.

“Then, in the words of Christ, we hear:

“‘The demons will howl upon the Earth and call many, in order to destroy them. They will imitate the voices of relations and acquaintances, who have not reached a safer place. Once the horror commences, do not open your door to anyone at all!

“‘In many places several people will gather together for fear. From the same group, some will perish, others remain alive. For this day and moment, and for that darkness, many will have prepared the blessed candles, but they will not burn, if the people have not lived in accordance with My Commandments; others will even be unable to light them for fear. But for those who believe, although they have but a stub of the blessed candle, it will burn for these three days and nights without going out. Some people will fall into a deep sleep granted by Me, so as not to see what is happening on the Earth. All the buildings on Earth will collapse, and only here and there will a simple, modest little house remain, in which the light of the candle will glimmer. In many places, the heaps of corpses will be so great, that no one will be able to make a passage through, on account of these bodies; there will not be anyone to bury them.”

Julka then tells us:

“The Guardian Angels will watch over the people who are spared. The buildings which ought to be preserved will be raised and protected by God’s power in the moment of the most dreadful horror.

“Our Lord told Julka, ‘There will not be many priests left.’”

GOD IS LIGHT AND LIFE! GOD IS NOT A DESTROYER—MAN IS A DESTROYER OF LIFE. GOD CREATES AND GOD CAN UNCREATE.

MUCH OF WHAT YOU HAVE JUST READ HAS COME FROM THE “CATHOLIC” PERSPECTIVE. DO NOT BE PUT OFF BY THIS, BUT RATHER READ BETWEEN THE LINES. THESE ARE PROPHECIES AS PUT FORTH BY MAN, AND WHETHER MAN EXPERIENCES THESE THINGS REMAINS IN MAN’S HANDS, BUT I MAY TELL YOU WITH SURETY THAT THE WAY THINGS ARE CURRENTLY GOING ON A GLOBAL SCALE, THE DAYS OF DARKNESS WILL BE EXPERIENCED.

THIS DARKNESS WILL HAVE BEEN CAUSED BY THE CHOICES OF A SELECT FEW. MAN WILL REAP WHAT HE HAS SOWN—BE IT LIGHT OR BE IT DARKNESS.

I HAVE SAID IT BEFORE AND IT BEARS REPEATING: THE LAWS OF GOD HAVE BEEN PUT FORTH FOR YOUR USE. THEY PROVIDE FOR BALANCED LIVING WITHIN THE CREATION.

NOW IS THE TIME TO LIVE ACCORDING TO THOSE RULES OF BEHAVIOR, FOR THEREIN IS YOUR SHELTER AND SAFETY.

LET THOSE AMONG YOU WHO WISH TO REBEL AND HEAR NOT, TURN AWAY IF YOU CHOOSE, BUT BE PREPARED TO REAP THE WHIRLWIND. YOU HAVE BEEN COUNSELED; YOU HAVE BEEN TAUGHT; YOU HAVE BEEN PAMPERED; AND NOW YOU SHALL DECIDE FOR SELVES THAT WHICH WILL BE YOUR ULTIMATE DESTINATION IN THIS JOURNEY OF SOULS.

MAY YOU FIND SHELTER WITHIN THE WINGS OF THE FATHER.

Soltec: Accepting The Driver's Seat In Your Life

2/22/98 SOLTEC

Good evening, and thank you for sitting at this time. It is I, Toniose Soltec, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator Source. Be at peace—yet know that what you perceive as a critical time upon your world, centered in the area of your Middle East, is indeed so. However, let not even these distractions detour you from your own duties and preparations at this time.

Before launching into the main subject of this writing, I would like to call to your attention several recent earthquake events. The first of these was a “M2.6” event in the New Madrid, Missouri region of your United States on Thursday morning, 2/19/98. (I put these officially reported magnitude readings in quote marks to remind you that such events are purposely generally under-reported, according to what Dr. Young likes to call the “K-mart discount scale of creative measurement”.)

In conjunction with two large (approximately M6.0) earthquakes earlier in the week along the mid-Atlantic (Ocean) Ridge, you can begin to arrive at a picture for pressures increasing which are buckling the middle of your continental tectonic plate in that critical New Madrid Fault area which runs north-south approximately along your Mississippi River. Molten magma material, which is flowing east-west from where it is oozing out along a north-south line in the middle of your Atlantic Ocean, is squeezing the land masses at each shore.

Remember that your continental United States is being squeezed by forces pushing from BOTH sides, and this is resulting in the observed stepped-up earthquake activity starting all the way up at your St. Lawrence River and near Montréal, Canada, on down through the Great Lakes region, and then continuing down to the famous (or should I say soon-to-be infamous) New Madrid Fault region, terminating at the Gulf of Mexico, splitting Texas from Mississippi, right through a sinking Louisiana. It would be wise to take another look at the Future Map Of The United States which Gordon-Michael Scallion produced. [Editor's note: Call 1-800-628-7493 for information about obtaining Mr. Scallion's most revealing maps.]

While most all attention is focused upon your volatile West Coast, with its heightened storm and earthquake activities, it would be wise to not completely forget about this “sleeping giant” called the New Madrid Fault. It may prove to be the focus of the greater hysteria and destruction simply because so few have been willing to associate that region with major earthquake activity, compared to your already infamous West Coast, and thus most ones there are quite ill-prepared for what is to happen.

Meanwhile, ever-shaking Japan has been officially “allowed” to have earthquakes again—so long as they do not turn you from the center-stage distraction events there called your Olympics. Those of you who were viewing those events on Friday evening (2/20/98) were briefly and casually informed about a “mere” “M5.2” event, felt by “some” at the Olympics, which was centered near the west coast of Honshu, Japan.

I am not going to list all of the relevant Earth-related activity going on at this time, for such would only overwhelm your already purposely overwhelmed attention spans. It is enough to simply call to your notice several clues, from what has occurred this past week, which are outstandingly indicative of the further escalation of pressures which shall, soon, result in events of pressure release which will no doubt shock the sleeping masses—and may distract even those of you who think you are prepared for what is to come.

And it is this theme of distraction-from-responsibilities to which I would like to turn, for such is a chronic problem upon your place.

There are many distractions thrown your way at this time. Beware of those who might impact your day with trivial matters. It is one thing to help someone who has a true need; it is quite another thing to get distracted into another's drama of perceived helplessness.

You must use your own Inner Guidance and judgement, for the challenge is yours to face and grow from. Look for the clues and signs, and you will know what is the best choice for you. Many will come seeking answers, and many will want someone to follow.

These ones are looking for someone to discern FOR them what is appropriate, what is “right”, and other matters of private concerns that have little or NOTHING to do with why YOU are there at this time. This is but a distraction, at the least, and if you bite, it could become quite a “karmic” trap from which you may have future difficulties. Each MUST learn to discern for self, and a wise person will not even attempt to do so FOR another.

If ones become offended by your reluctance to discern on their behalf, then that is their choice. From the larger perspective of the soul, they will be thanking you for the assistance that you are, in fact, providing.

Your world is one of opposites. This is to say that, often, what people think they need is, actually, the exact opposite of what they truly need.

We observe that ones in the physical are easy to give over their responsibility for self to another. We see this happen when ones of Ground Crew offer assistance to ones with apparent need, and then these ones in “need” often take advantage of the offered generosity to a point of dependency—if the one offering assistance allows that.

This fostering of dependency is NOT a “righteous” thing to do for your brother. In fact, it is the exact opposite of what he truly needs.

Do NOT misunderstand my point here!

I am not suggesting you contribute to a cold and heartless world. But for those of you who always fly to the other extreme, of “helping” everyone who asks, all of the time, I AM suggesting the need for cultivating and applying “tough love” in those appropriate instances. And there will ALWAYS be clues.

It is often the correct action to assist someone in true need. Offer the assistance and, in doing so, TEACH THE OTHER TO HELP THEMSELVES! If the other does not wish to learn to help themselves, or gives pitiful excuses as to why they cannot, then let them to THEIR choices. There are ALWAYS the clues—if you are honest about interpreting what is being displayed in front of you.

It is unwise to short-circuit another's opportunity for growth. In doing so you will only cause yourself unnecessary hardship and grief. Be willing to lead another to water, if they be thirsty, but do not try to swallow it for them. If they cannot see the value in doing things for themselves, then let them experience the consequences of their choices.

We of the Hosts often witness choices being made which give EVERY indication of a wayward purpose or lack of thoughtful value placement. For example, how many have money for cigarettes or movies or vacation trips or new gadgets, and yet “cannot afford” (or worse: remain dependent upon others for) such as a CONTACT subscription and/or health-promoting items from New Gaia Products?

As we of the Hosts have taught in so many past lessons, be ever attentive to the ENERGY FLOWS in all situations. Are the flows two-way or one-way in nature? Are they giving and receiving, or are they taking and taking? While not difficult discernments, these do take honesty!

You who are truly of Ground Crew have that which you NEED IN THE MOMENT in order to accomplish your mission. Remember: YOU ARE CREATOR MANIFEST! You can create that which you need, and you will, when your desire is both strong enough and clear enough.

Ah—but this is where the adversary gets in: If he does not completely incapacitate you through doubt, he keeps you distracted, and in doing so, he keeps you from marching a straight line to your goal.

When you can become determined and focused upon that which has true wisdom and value, especially that which is consistent with your Higher Self's purpose, then you will manifest the desired end result. This is where joy enters the equation.

Remember, however, that the fundamental Law of Creation is blind to purpose—desire and determination are the keys—and nowhere is this concept better demonstrated today than in the case of the “success” of the dark elite in manifesting what they desire in your world. As Commander Hatonn has emphasized so many times, if you Lighted ones only mustered half of the determination that motivates these dark ones, your world would be a very different, better place at this time!

For those of you who are asking the question about justice, yes, it is true that there are still Higher Laws of Creation which will eventually cause the rebalancing of that which has been manifested or created that is inconsistent with Creator's Higher Purpose. But that, too, is part of your lessons as experiencing beings along the path toward eventual oneness with Creator.

And speaking of paths, the path toward any goal is of secondary concern. This is to say that the END RESULT is what should preoccupy your thinking—not the infinite possible paths there are to reaching that goal. Remember how many times we of the Hosts have reminded you that we (as well as your personal Guides) may HELP you along a path, but we shall not do it FOR you. Yet from our point of view, there are unlimited possible pathways, so don't become preoccupied with any one possible route.

Take the case of ones with an addiction to a chemical substance. These ones will become greatly fixated upon their desire for their next “fix” (euphoric high derived from the chemical substance). In doing so, they begin to set in motion creational energies that will spawn an idea that will lead them to fulfilling their desire. These ones often cannot hold down a job, but can manifest enough money to support a $1000-a-day drug habit. Why? Because their desire is that strong! Ethics and morals, as you ones perceive them, have little to do with one's basic ability to focus and thus manifest—at least in the short term. Naturally if what you are manifesting is of a destructive nature, it shall eventually teach you that lesson, too.

Clarity of thought has become one of the greatest challenges facing you of Ground Crew. The primary challenge that many of you encounter is learning to mentally cope with the “denseness” associated with the environment of your planet.

This denseness that I refer to is in the frequency range of MENTAL activity. There is great and deliberate bombardment aimed directly at the mental “electrical field” of your bodies, in order to keep those of you who are awakening (and thus gathering creative inertia) distracted and off-balance long enough so that the intended enslavement of your planet can be realized.

You who are awakening are the single greatest threat to these elite controllers, for you hold within your collective creativity the solution that will unravel their plans. When your desire for justice becomes great enough and deep enough, you will draw to you the idea(s) necessary to expose, and thus topple, these ones who think themselves greater than the rest of you.

The recent media-orchestrated fiasco (from the point of the view of the elite planners) at Ohio State University is a good example of the dark elite's plans gone awry due to too many of you remaining awake despite weeks of mind-numbing propaganda that was calculated to stir you into a frenzy FOR a war in the Middle East. Oops! Could the dark elite have overestimated their power? Might they have grown a bit too smug toward the success of their precious goal of world control? If they be so great, then why is it that they so thoroughly fear The Truth?

The truth of the matter is that greatness comes from within, and they operate from a purely external, physical, non-caring, detached point of view. They know not the meaning of the term INNER SATISFACTION. These ones derive pleasure from taking and destroying, for such generates emotional responses in the only frequency range in which they can actually FEEL anything at all! These ones are efforting to feel “alive”—but at the expense of their only true connection to Life. While they may be great at manifesting their desires (to a point), their ignorance of basic spiritual truths keeps them from experiencing the Greater Reality that is fundamental to what you term experiencing joy.

“Learn to accept those things that you cannot change.” Yes, but first learn to RECOGNIZE those things that you CAN change! This, again, goes back to personal discernment. The complete gem of a saying goes like this: “Lord, grant me the Courage to change the things I can, the Patience to accept the things I cannot, and the Wisdom to know the difference!”

Can you change the state of your world? Yes, by recognizing those un-Godly practices that impede true freedom—AND taking appropriate action to correct them, which requires effort.

Can you truly change another's thoughts regarding anything? NO! The thoughts of an individual are for them to choose. You can, however, educate ones who have, first, the desire to learn. It is unwise to try to push in anyone's face, this writing or any information that an individual resists for any reason.

The information in CONTACT is primarily for the purpose of awakening Ground Crew. It also acts to alert the adversarial forces to our (Higher, the Hosts of God) presence, so that they too can have the opportunity to wake up and realize the wisdom of maintaining an inner connection with Creator Source.

Those who are “in between” are the souls who are here to experience choices between “inner (soul) connection” and “outer (physical) detachment”. We are here to assist any and all who would have the desire to more fully recognize and utilize their own Inner Potential.

God's plan allows for us to help anyone, no matter what they have done in their past. When ones ask with the heart, and truly acknowledge their past ignorances, they shall be given all the help they can handle in a balanced and acceptable manner. God knows the heart intent of each individual and there is no tricking Him with silly plays on words. Your agreements with Him are made in the universal language of heart intent—a language in which physical words, with limited and obscure meanings, play no part at all.

As Ground Crew you are expected to learn to utilize your own God-given ability to discern for selves what it is that you are to do from day to day and moment to moment. When your physical (ego-based) intent is in alignment with your (Higher) heart intent, the connection to Source which brings assurance of path and conviction of purpose will be most evident. In overcoming this challenge (the alignment of intents) you will begin to find the answers to such questions as:

“What is my purpose?”

“What can I do to be a part of this larger game?”

“Am I really a part of Ground Crew?”

These are common questions about which many of you are petitioning for answers. These are questions that are answered from within, in the form of heart-felt Knowing.

Learn to focus clearly upon any question that you have. If need be, ask yourself: “How would Hatonn (Sananda, Germain, Lanto, etc.) answer this question?” (This is the mental attunement process which was basically how this receiver started out—long before he ever got the idea to write down our responses.)

Sit down and write out, to the best of your ability, how you feel that the entity of your choice would answer your question. Hint: We are Teachers and we will help you to find your answers, but we will almost never dump the answer upon you. You will be guided, often through a series of questions that will help you to learn to discern your own answers.

Often you can find your own answers by knowing what questions to ask selves. Many of you already do this naturally, and simply miss the fact that we are the ones who help you to formulate the questions in the first place.

Choose what works best for you and TRUST that you are NEVER alone—NEVER! You ALL have been appointed personal Guides, but if you are not sure enough about your Guides to interact with them in a direct fashion, then forget about that route and go straight to the One Light Source with your questions. Be not distracted over who may or may not be YOUR Guide(s). Keep the Light all about you and let your intent ALWAYS be within the highest frequency of Light you can imagine.

In these times of massive, planned distractions, you will each be confronted with orchestrated, artificial events which will seem so real that the only way to know they are not is to pay close attention to what your heart is telling you. The perfection of current holographic technology is beyond what any of you can imagine.

If you get nothing else from this message, please recognize the value in consciously making YOUR own connection to Source, for therein can you fulfill YOUR responsibility to discern for yourself. This is YOUR experience and YOUR growth; do not expect another to do it for you!

May you not allow yourself to be distracted from finding YOUR inner Source connection.

I am Ceres Anthonious Soltec, come in the Light of the One Light Source of All That Is.

Salu!

Critical Views On Power And Money

2/23/98 #1 HATONN

BANKS AND POWER!

The “How can this happen?” and “What in the world is going on here...?” are fine, but very silly, things to even vocalize. You DO know what is taking place and when you spend your time “I just don’t see how...!” you are making the level of non-understanding like the lid of your coffin.

The “enemy” of freedom knows you people have the attention span of two year olds. I plaster Dharma to that vidiot box, ON THE NEWS NETWORKS, every minute she is not at the computer. Little things SLIP through and you can learn more in one day than I can cause you to learn in a month. “But it upsets me, Sir.” So be it, and how is anthrax in your dooryard going to help that upset? Roloids won’t cut it.

You can now look globally at things and SEE and KNOW what is coming down, from your flooded fields to every happening in the world.

The government comes along and says “Oh, sorrow, Mr. Farmer, this is terrible but we will save you. We will give you low-cost loans and we will all live happily ever after.” So you sink selves into debt even further. You fudge on the damages to “get a few dollars more”—but wham, bam, thank you ma’am, there is no way to earn enough to meet the replanting, repair the equipment, redo the dwellings and barns AND PAY THE DAMNED NOTES WHICH WILL IMMEDIATELY BE COMING DUE. This is the plight of YOUR WORLD.

“But we pay the government to take care of us,” you cry. You what? YOU PAY THE BANKS, THE FED, SO THAT THEY CAN LEND MORE AND MORE AND MORE DEBT WITH NO BACKING. AND THAT IS NOT “YOUR LITTLE GOVERNMENT”, SILLIES, THAT IS THE International Monetary Fund/ WORLD BANK WHO WILL DECIDE THROUGH THE “FIXED” UNITED NATIONS WHO WILL LIVE AND WHO WILL DIE. IN ADDITION, THE U.S. AND ISRAEL DON’T EVEN HAVE TO REMOTELY CONSIDER WHAT THE UNITED NATIONS WANTS TO DO—YOU HAVE SET YOURSELVES ABOVE THE LAW.

DO YOU KNOW?

Do any of you realize that, for instance, the “no-fly zones” in Iraq HAVE NOTHING AT ALL TO DO WITH THE UNITED NATIONS? THOSE ARE SET UNILATERALLY BY THE UNITED STATES WITH YOUR JEWISH CONGRESS AND ADMINISTRATION.

DO ANY OF YOU REALIZE THAT YOUR ALLY GASSED THE KURDS IN NORTHERN IRAQ—NOT SADDAM HUSSEIN?

Do any of you remember the road back from Kuwait to Iraq when YOUR MILITARY killed hundreds of thousands of Iraqis because you chose to give a walking army 48 hours to make a five-day (minimum) trip? Go read your military master’s latest revelations—a new book, you know. You know, by that British Knighted leader, Sir Swartzcough. This was decided by Sir Bush, Sir Powell and Satan. And what are THEY doing, being SUBJECTS OF THE BRITISH CROWN? And TRUTH? Well, they are all unified in presenting strategy—“one truth MUST be surrounded by a full body-guard squad of lies.” Funny? You be the judge. The media connections with the military and government liars, cheats and thieves, even SHOWED parts of their film to get the “leads” straight of what they intended to start showing you the idiot public—TODAY.

What will you do about the Gulf armies, ships, and other show-off things in that area—now that Kofi has negotiated “peace”? It is only costing you BILLIONS A DAY just to have them there—that, I am telling you, because Cohen won’t answer your expense questions.

A good question was asked last evening about that “standing army and armada”: “What will they do? Will they spend the next years away from home buried in the Kuwait sands and doing figure eights in the Gulf?” What else—EITHER WAY?

What will the Kings of war decide? Who can go to war without killing somebody somewhere?

Well, there may be some distant hope in them-thar hills and sand dunes. The Moslems are restless and MAD AS HELL AND THEY AREN’T GOING TO TAKE IT ANY LONGER.

HOW MANY OF YOU KNOW THAT THE U.S. CAN’T CONTROL (EXCEPT THROUGH THREATS AND MONEY GIVE-AWAYS) CHINA AND RUSSIA? Wow, and BOTH are talking about letting the U.S. have its stupid sanctions on Iraq while they plan to start doing business with them AGAIN. You see, children of the lie, OIL is NOT the bread of life; IT HAS BECOME THE COMMERCE OF FOOLS.

No, when resolutions are made and there are built-in agreements that a sanction or things of that sort will be set forth—until..., then each party must decide when the debt has been met.

Ah, one DIRTY LITTLE GAME OF THE U.S. JEWISH GOVERNMENT AND ISRAEL IS: They announced that Saddam had to pay off all costs and damages out of THAT war. That is billions assessed just to Kuwait—but there is not commerce allowed and, “Until the nasty Saddam pays his debts, we won’t allow trade.” And, we won’t give him any loans until he kills himself—literally. (“As long as Saddam is there,” is the wording.)

Now, people of the U.S., YOU TOUT YOURSELVES AS BEING HUMANITARIAN AND LEADERS OF THE WORLD IN KINDER AND GENTLER NATION-STATUS (remember Bush?). Well, spare ME from your kind of kind and gentle interchange.

At some point, however, sleepy babes in the woods, you are going to look around you and gasp at what you have allowed to happen.

Do any of you remember Grannie? How about Russell Herman and the nutty professor? Do you remember Bush, Bentsen, Baker III, North and dozens more involved hyper- or super-gods? Remember that certificate from Peru that seems to have bottomless energy and value—all nicely calculated to never run out of fund-value? Well, how many of you realize that value will be into the octodecillions by 2001? There isn’t enough money in the world to cover it and you can’t run your printing presses enough to print enough!

“Oh well, they will negate it...” you say? They CAN’T—they have used it and set its value and they use it unlawfully and without honor of any kind. I WOULD SUGGEST IT WILL BE THE ANTICHRIST’S DOWNFALL IN A VERY IMPORTANT WAY THAT EVEN ANTICHRIST CAN UNDERSTAND. Mr. Bush thought a “super-fund” for his NEW WORLD ORDER (he said it to you all, not me) would be nice for his own godship and, thus, created it from a nice little Peruvian Bond bearer certificate—held by Russell Herman.

At this moment the value of that “super-fund” sloshes around the 4-sextillion range—give or take a few trillion. Can your Treasury pay it? It is a LEGAL DEBT OF THE U.S. That also makes it, since it came before the Federal Reserve takeover, a debt of the Fed. THAT in turn makes it a debt of the IMF and WORLD BANK. Golly gee whiz. Does Antichrist win so easily? Perhaps.

Remember that myth where Jesus said, “Anything I can do—you can do—and more!?!” Well, George Bush believed him—and did—lots more! And, brer inquisitors, do you REALLY THINK the Treasury (of the U.S. yet) is going to verify such a thing? Do you REALLY think the Fed is going to validate such a thing? Why do you move from fantasy land into la-la land without blinking an eye? If a thing is good enough for Satan to hold—I wonder since when is it NOT ok for GOD to have? GOD CREATES—Satan USES. And mostly the ones he uses “all the time” are you, you, and you. YOU pray and pray and pray, and then God answers you and sends a messenger with the pearls. You don’t stop until you tramp the pearls AND THE MESSENGER into the polluted mud swamp.

God gave that fund TO YOU. TO YOU! And, you killed the messenger and tore up the paper. Well, not exactly; nobody BOTHERED TO EVEN RESPOND EXCEPT TO SOME CRIMINALS AND CROOKS WHO THOUGHT THEY COULD BEAT OUT SATAN FOR A BIT OF PLUNDER. I HOPE YOU THINK ABOUT THIS AS YOU SIT ON YOUR CLOUD ON RAPTURE DAY! ~~☺~~

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
