Dirty Tricks To Manage A Constitutional Crisis As Clinton Presidency Falls Apart

Editor’s note: Many months ago we told you about the struggle going on for “king of the hill” on the presidential playground. The Khazarian Zionists are working diligently to get the Gore-Feinstein team up and running for their camp. As bad as he may be, Clinton is all that stands between us and that disaster. So you can well imagine the kinds of dirty tricks going on behind the scenes on both sides—very similar to what was portrayed in the recent movie Wag The Dog.

The following comes to us by way of Calvin Burgin (wrlldline@texas.net) and Conspiracy Nation (Vol. 23, No. 25) through our News Desk wizard, Dr. Al Overholt.

CRIMINAL CULPABILITY CLAIMED DIRECTLY RELATED TO NEWS MEDIA'S INTENTIONAL NON DISCLOSURE OF CAFRS

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Lorraine Gersic, 7/30/98: [quoting]

WHAT YOU CAN DO

(News Media Accountability)
“Comprehensive Annual Financial Report” (CAFR), more from Walter Burien on CAFR criminal culpability claimed is directly related to the news media's intentional non disclosure
STEP # 1

Send the following Certified Mail to the editor or CEO of the News Media close to you:

Dear Sir,

It has been broadly claimed that the general news media may be involved with criminal culpability based on their cooperation with the intentional non disclosure to the tax-paying public of important financial information relevant to local governments, City, County and State.

The criminal culpability claimed is directly related to the news media's intentional non disclosure or mentioning of the report provided to them which shows the true and total financial structure of local governments. This report is called “The Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR)”, a report mandated for completion by local governments by Federal Regulation enacted in the year of 1979.

I hope this claim of criminal culpability through non disclosure on the part of the media is untrue.

I request that this (News Paper, Radio Station, TV News Show—replace with actual names) make simple and conspicuous mention of “The Comprehensive Annual Financial Report” as a measure to accomplish public awareness of this report. Additionally you can make mention of this Federal Government Internet site for easy access of the reports: <<http://financenet.gov/financenet/state/cafr.htm>>

I request that this be done within 10 days to help disprove the above claim and that you notify me as to your performance in regard to this matter.

Silence on your part in regards to this important matter can only further substantiate this claim.

Yours Truly,
Name of Sender

Keep copies of the certified letter and record the response from the corporate media organization noticed. When the legal team is structured, these certified letters and responses therefrom from across the country will be utilized in a class-action lawsuit against the news media who continue their cooperation with intentional Criminal Culpability towards non disclosure of this report.

The individual senders of these certified letters that follow the instructions as outlined above, and upon a lawsuit being filed, upon contacting the legal team, will be listed as the first line damaged parties to this suit as well as first line beneficiary of any monetary award granted and paid by the news media that continue their cooperation and criminal culpability through intentional non disclosure.

In most probability this suit, when and if filed, will be claiming several billion dollars in damages from the parties responsible for their Criminal Culpability towards intentional non disclosure.

Subj: Re: “Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR)”

Go to: <http://financenet.gov/financenet/state/cafr.htm>

This will list all CAFR's that can be accessed by the web.

While at: <http://financenet.gov/financenet/> select the search feature and type in: GFOA The first hit on the search where you see “Local Governments”, go to it. This is the Federal regulation submitted in 1979 and passed in 1982 requiring local governments, State, County and City to compile a CAFR.

There is a total press blackout on the “Comprehensive Annual Financial Report”.

To corroborate the cooperative fraud taking place between the media and the boys in government (being that the editors of the papers and network stations get a copy of the CAFR sent to them each year but they intentionally refuse to make simple mention of the report in print or in the TV news): Do a web access to the major news papers historical editorial data bank and do a key word search of all editorial news copy between the years of 1995-1964—thirty years!! See if you find the mention of the phrase “Comprehensive Annual Financial Report”. (New York Times, LA Times, Chicago Tribune, Miami Herald, Philadelphia Inquirer, etc.) If a search is done using the words “Budget Report” you will get tens of thousands of hits. Don't you hate billions being spent to keep you as a mushroom in the dark while the “Boys” take over this country outside of your view.

P.S. The mail rooms from the departments that put out the CAFR reports keep accurate records of those in the media that are sent the report. (Mandatory record keeping being because the reports are sent out for free from a budgetary governmental agency.) Confirm first from the Government mail room that the editors from the papers near you have been sent the report since they were editors of those papers, then call the editor and ask if he has ever heard of the “Comprehensive Annual Financial Report”. When he says no or something of the like, you will know that he is lying straight to your face.

Many people ask, “What can I do?”

There is enough possible monetary reward in this even if the attorneys are out only for the money that good ones will be drawn into it and will really fight to win it. Many good attorneys will fight like hell for big chunks of money even if they have to “cut” their “brothers” throats. So I'd say there is a very good chance that something will come from this if enough of you do some work by applying the above information.

To me it looks like a very worthwhile endeavor, but do your own research before going ahead. After all, it is your own legal money you're going after and it could be the one big stepping stone in helping to break the back of the elite NWO (New World Order)!! It gives the individual a big part in accomplishing turning this situation around. Are you going to turn off the TV and get to work??

Do you see this as a God-given opportunity for each single individual to get off their duff and get involved??

THE “DELPHI TECHNIQUE” AND HOW IT ROBS PARENTS OF CONTROL OVER THEIR CHILD'S EDUCATION

From THE DeWEESE REPORT, by Tom De Weese, President, American Policy Center, 7/98: [quoting]

The technique of “consensus” is quickly spreading into use in almost every public meeting, including school boards and city councils. One can even find its use in association meetings and private clubs.

It's a technique used by those who want to achieve a pre-determined goal and employ specific tactics designed to create the impression that the whole body participated in molding the final outcome. In truth, only a selected few made all of the decisions.

To fight back you must first understand “what” is being done to you. That's why I am reprinting an important article on the subject, first published in The DeWeese Report, about the Delphi Technique. Though this article deals specifically with its use in education issues, the tactic can be employed to force an outcome on any issue.

Also, I've reprinted a new article on the “consensus” issue, written by Kathy Thomsen, editor of The O.B.E Predictor.

Now, learn “how” they are doing it to you—then fight back!

Tom DeWeese

One of the eight stated purposes of Goals 2000 is “increased parental involvement in learning”. Yet parents have experienced a strange phenomenon when they have tried to follow the goal and actually get involved. They are rejected.

They are not, however, rejected rudely or dismissed abruptly. In fact most parents come away from a school not knowing they've been rejected at all.

On the contrary, school administrators openly welcome them, show them around and bring them into their office for a friendly chat. During that meeting the education official will quiz parents about their interests in education reform. The parents will be asked if they are a part of any locally organized group of concerned parents. They will want to know if the parents are affiliated with a specific national group or religion.

After the interview, a smile, a hand shake and a pat on the back gives the parents the feeling that progress has been made, that the school is interested in their ideas and that their concerns will be considered and changes made. Yet it never seems to happen.

That's because many school administrators have been specially trained to deal with those who seek to question the education "reforms" that are rapidly replacing the teaching of basic academics. In most cases a school administrator has no intention of changing anything the parent finds troubling. But he also knows that an angry group of parents can cause trouble for their plans. His job is to keep parents happy and quiet. He's been trained for just such a challenge. It's called the "Delphi Technique" and parents, who don't know they're being manipulated, haven't a chance against it.

The Delphi Technique was first developed in the late 1950s by the Rand Corporation as a method to "forecast" the future. Companies used it to help make decisions in determining product development and how new technology would affect the market.

Later, the technique was perfected to literally dictate desired outcomes. A panel of experts was placed in a group session and through a very subtle manipulation process to separate supporters from detractors of the official, desired outcome, they were brought around to accept a predetermined position. Those who opposed the position were subjected to ridicule, divisions were driven between the two sides, until only one possible solution could be accepted—the pre-determined outcome. Once this group of respected authorities had accepted that position it was a simple step to dictate the outcome to the rest of the market.

This is exactly how the radical Educators are stopping opponents of Goals 2000 and Outcome-based Education. The reason the parents are quizzed about their interests and affiliations is to determine if they are potential trouble makers. If they are part of an organized effort to challenge "reforms" then steps will be taken to investigate, and possibly infiltrate the group.

Here is a sample of how the Delphi Technique is thrust on such a group. At a regular meeting of a parents' group organized to Stop Outcome-based Education, for example, a new, "concerned" parent makes his appearance. He may be a well-known civic leader that the other members are excited to have on board. His presence adds needed credibility and contacts to their efforts.

He sits and listens, and he watches members as each expresses his or her opinion. He will begin to ask questions and play "devil's advocate" as he points out possible objections to the group's positions. He warns them that they could be perceived as too extreme to be taken seriously by other community leaders. He's concerned because he just wants to see the group succeed. He poses as everyone's caring friend.

As he observes the group he begins to evaluate the positions of each member, watching for those with the strongest opinion and those who may be a little hesitant in their convictions. The weaker ones become his target. He begins to question the position of the leaders, playing on the doubts or fears of those with weaker convictions or differing opinions. Finally, he begins to drive a wedge between them—always, he says, with the "good of the group" in mind.

Soon, as a result of his manipulation, dissension breaks out in the group. Its goals become clouded. Eventually it will break up completely or take a radically different position on the issue. The outcome that the Educrats wanted is achieved. Their opposition has been neutralized.

The Delphi Technique is used over and over again on all types of issues, not just education. It is the reason why change is rarely achieved, why opposition rarely succeeds even though, in the beginning of a community debate, it seems everyone supports those calling for rational change.

How can it be that with nation-wide hatred of Goals 2000, it isn't stopped? How does Outcome-based Education survive? Why are our children trapped in such an education nightmare, unable to learn, even as the whole nation demands change? The reason is because the Educrats want it that way and they have the power to neutralize any voice of opposition through tactics like the Delphi Technique.

The Delphi Technique is used in almost every college in the country. It is used on students to assure that they emerge with the proper attitudes. The Delphi Technique itself is a very important component of Outcome-based Education and is used on children in secondary classrooms.

The technique is taught to those who are expected to go out into the community and implement the education "reform" agenda. Community leaders are recruited and trained so that they can use their influence to promote the agenda.

The technique is being used in almost every school in America as parents attempt to use rationality and reason to combat an education "reform" program like Goals 2000 that fails to teach children to read, write or add and to subtract. As children grow dumber, parents want action. The Delphi Technique blocks all avenues of change.

With a smile, a pleasant manner, a hand shake and a steel shaft in the back, parents, who just want to save their children, are being deliberately manipulated by a controlling monster that stops at nothing to force its programs into place.

Americans wonder aloud why nothing ever changes, no matter the outcome of elections, no matter how loud the protests, no matter how wrong the program. To see the reason in action, just visit your local school, voice some objections and watch the Delphi Technique spring into action—on you. [End quoting]

Talk about being slick and slimmmmyyy!! Now that you know how they connive, spread the word and go to work correcting the situation. Now you can combat their slimy tricks!

How can we refuse these opportunities that are being presented in CONTACT to become active, on some level, to turn this world situation around—so many that certainly at least one would fill our desires to help?? There is no excuse for us to sit and complain "there's nothing little ol' me can do, it's all too big."

SOUTH AFRICA'S MAD
SCIENTIST DOCTOR TESTIFIES
HE DESIGNED GERMS TO KILL BLACKS

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net> 8/1/98: [quoting]

This World is so SCARY.

Isn't this SICK! We all knew they were doing this, but of course the government always denies it. I wonder what other truths will finally come forward!....—Louise

The former South African government tried to develop a bacteria that would kill or make infertile only Black people, the scientist who set up the apartheid regime's secret poison factory said yesterday. Dr. Dan Goosen told the Truth and Reconciliation Commission that a major thrust at the secret laboratory had been the infertility project.

"We realized we might not achieve 100 per cent sterilization," he said.

"It was not thought to get rid of all the Black people, just to curb the birth rate." The Truth Commission has been listening to evidence this week about the South African government's secret biological and chemical weapons program during the apartheid era. Retired Archbishop Desmond Tutu said the testimony was the most shocking he has heard as chairman of the Commission, which has taken statements from hundreds of witnesses since 1995. "Here are people of high intelligence, coldly and clinically, in white laboratory coats, working on things they know were meant to be instruments of destroying people," Tutu said in an interview.

The infertility project was set in motion by a message from an unknown source in Europe claiming to have a bacteria that could selectively kill "pigmented" people, Goosen testified. The lead was never pursued when officials got wind that it might be a trap. However, the work already done on the project at the Roodeplaat Research Laboratories had made good progress. No attempts were ever made to harm Blacks as a result of the project. He said the laboratory had also made poisons ranging from cigarettes laced with anthrax to beer, orange juice, whiskey and chocolates containing a range of toxins. One witness testified this week that a shirt infused with poison—one of the tools developed by scientists—was given to a Black activist who then lent it to a friend.

The friend wore the shirt and died. "The key was that a toxin should not be detectable, but if it was detectable it must not be traceable to clandestine application," Goosen said. He acknowledged that he had been wrong to work on the projects, but blamed the hysterical political mood of the time for his misjudgment. "It was a time of conflict.

"Communism was coming. It was total onslaught," he said. Any researcher who broke ranks faced possible assassination, scientist Schalk van Rensburg said Wednesday. "We had been told in no uncertain terms, if you let the side down you are dead," van Rensburg said. Goosen was fired in 1989 after a falling out with Wouter Basson, who headed the program. [End quoting]

And many Black people, for temporary money, fame and power, cozy up to these same evil elite who have them high on the list for extinction. Don't you think it's time to wake up and quit being slaves in the worst kind of way there is—thinking that you are free all the while.

ACTIVISTS TO PUSH FOR GAY SEX AT 14

From FREE AMERICAN NEWSMAGAZINE, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

First England, then the USA. <<http://www.telegraph.co.uk>>, Electronic Telegraph, Monday 22 June, 1998 Issue 1123

GAY rights activists indicated yesterday that if, as expected, MPs [Members of Parliament] vote tonight to cut the homosexual age of consent to 16, they will launch a campaign to lower it to 14.

A two-to-one majority is expected in the Commons on legislation to bring the age limit into line with the law for heterosexuals. In doing so, politicians will ignore last-minute objections from the Archbishop of Canterbury. Dr. George Carey and other leading Anglican bishops said at the weekend that a reduction to 16 would send "the wrong messages" to the young. The Bishops are certain to lead opposition to the change in the House of Lords and last night they were backed by the Duke of Norfolk, the premier Roman Catholic peer, who said he would fight to overturn the anticipated Commons vote.

Tony Blair will lead MPs into the division lobby to back the reduction to 16 in an amendment to the Crime and Disorder Bill, tabled by Ann Keen, Labour NIP for Brentford and Isleworth. The Prime Minister is one of a number of Christians in the Labour Party set to vote for 16. Others include Jack Siraw, the Home Secretary, and Chris Smith, the Culture Secretary, who is gay. William Hague, the Tory leader, is laid low with flu at his Yorkshire home, and his spokesman said he was unlikely to be able to join Mr. Blair in voting for the reduction to 16, as he had in the past. The spokesman stressed that he still supported the move.

Although both leaders are in favour of the amendment, MPs have been given a free vote on the issue. Most of the Cabinet is expected to back the change. The two who opposed it in the last Parliament, David Blunkett, the Education and Employment Secretary, and Ann Taylor, Leader of the House, have both signalled a change of heart and will probably abstain.

The plan to campaign for a new age of consent at 14 for both heterosexuals and homosexuals was announced by the militant group OutRage, led by Peter Tatchell, who was arrested in April for disrupting the Archbishop of Canterbury's Easter Sunday service. OutRage's demands for an even lower age limit has angered other moderate campaigners who fear that it could rouse peers to oppose the measure when it comes before the Lords.

OutRage will stage a rally outside the Commons tonight and Mr. Tatchell said: "Once 16 is carried, we will be renewing our campaign for an age of consent of 14 for everyone, gay and straight. Nearly half of all teenagers have their first sexual experience before their sixteenth birthday, most after the age of 14. For this reason 14 seems a fairer and more realistic age of consent." OutRage is also demanding other reforms, including the repeal of the laws on soliciting, gross indecency and buggery. It is also seeking legal recognition of same-sex relationships to afford gay couples the same rights as all unwed heterosexuals.

However, Stonewall, the more moderate campaign group, said it was not seeking an additional reduction in the age limit. "Our position is that this debate is about equality and we believe MPs will vote for equality," a spokesman said. "Our agenda is equality and there is nothing else on the agenda."

Stonewall has collected 430 pledges of support from MPs for tonight's vote and believes that at least 370 of them will turn up to ensure a majority in favour of the reduction to 16. It estimates that up to 170 MPs oppose the measure, including many in the shadow cabinet, but that with the outcome seemingly a foregone conclusion, many of these will not turn up tonight. [End quoting]

Should this be surprising to us? Our leaders have been involved with child sex and homosexuality for a long, long while, and as go the leaders so go the nations.

THE FEDERAL RESERVE

From FREE AMERICAN NEWSMAGAZINE, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

"The few who can understand the system (Federal Reserve) will be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of the people are mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantage that derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint, and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interests." — Rothschild Brothers of London [End quoting]

This is an admission of the formula for our enslavement by the crooks in high places. Do you think we will eventually prove the analysis correct—or will Truth win out?

PHONE 'CRAMMING'

From THE JOHNSON CITY PRESS, 7/21/98, [quoting:]

Hidden among the usual calls to the relatives, calling-card charges and a confusing assortment of fees and taxes, there may be charges for things you never ordered—anything from Internet access to phone-sex services—billed to you by unscrupulous companies that figure you won't notice.

Cramming—so called because these small charges are crammed into the corners of your Pacific Bell bill where you're not likely to notice them—is a by-product of telephone deregulation.

With hundreds of companies providing telecommunications services these days, it's hard to keep track of all of them. Pacific Bell merely passes on the charges for third parties and can't possibly verify them all.

The state Public Utilities Commission under current law doesn't have jurisdiction over these small, private companies.

Fortunately, the government is beginning to respond to the cramming scam. Last week, the chairman of the Federal Communications Commission met with executives from the large phone companies to discuss ways to clamp down on fraudulent billing.

Of course, the best way to slam the crammers is to be careful what you buy and from whom. If consumers were to read the fine print when entering contests and listen closely when they order something from telemarketers, most of these unpleasant phone-bill surprises could be avoided. [End quoting]

One more reason to remain vigilant about that for which we receive a bill.

COOPER FAMILY TARGETED BY FEDS

Excerpted from FREE AMERICAN NEWSMAGAZINE, by Bill Cooper, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

...On July 2, 1998 Special Agent Steve Fillerup of the Federal Bureau of Investigation approached the bottom of the hill and honked his horn. He attempted to entice us to accept a document that he held in his hand. We refused the document and refused to enter into discussion with him.

I told him he was out of his jurisdiction and cited the documentation and Supreme Court cases to that effect which we have in our possession. I told him to inform his traitor supervisors that, "Tell them they stepped on their dicks this time."

Special Agent Fillerup replied, "I think we probably did." He got back in his blazer and drove away.

On July 1, 1998, U. S. District Court Judge Irwin (ADL) unconstitutionally and unlawfully stepped outside the jurisdiction and authority of the United States when he issued a bench warrant for the arrest of William and Annie Cooper for not appearing in "his" court on an unconstitutional and unlawful summons which was NEVER served. The United States has no jurisdiction or venue within the territorial boundaries of the State of Arizona except over land that was ceded to the United States by the State Legislature.

WARNING!! Any attempt by the federal government or anyone else to execute the unconstitutional and unlawful arrest warrants issued by Judge Irwin will be met with armed resistance. Any person who attempts to kidnap our children will be shot upon discovery.

We are formed as the Constitutional and Lawful unorganized Militia of the State of Arizona and the united States of America and have made many public statements to that affect since 1990. All of these statements are on record on tapes of our lectures and broadcasts. These tapes are dispersed in the hands of Americans across the nation. By invading the Sovereign jurisdiction of the State of Arizona to attack the Citizens of the State of Arizona the United States has declared war upon the Citizens of the several States of the Union. Therefore a STATE OF WAR exists between the Citizens of the Union States and the corporate United States.

We will be Free under Constitutional Republican government guaranteed to us by the organic Constitution for the united States of America or we will be dead. This is the land of the free and the home of the brave.

We have drawn our line in the sand.

STATE AND FEDERAL MILITIA LAW

Sources within local "policing agencies" have informed us that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been put on notice by several ranking local law enforcement personnel that, "We will absolutely not allow another 'Ruby Ridge' or 'Waco' to occur in Apache County, Arizona." Glenn Jacobs, owner and publisher of the Round Valley Paper, spoke personally last night to the Apache County Sheriff. The Sheriff told Glenn, "I have put the FBI on notice that they are not welcome to come into this County and harass the Cooper family".

It appears that we, William and Annie Cooper, have been targeted for imprisonment or extermination by the federal government and the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) for documenting and sourcing the truth about the tyranny and despotism of the Illuminati's coming socialist totalitarian New World Order. We have worked feverishly since 1988 documenting and sourcing the facts of the treason being brought about by the Illuminati's socialist change agents in government, and through the activities of Secret Societies and organizations such as the subversive Anti-Defamation League. They picked on the wrong People. We are not criminals. Everything we have ever done has been in good faith and with reasonable cause. We are not afraid. We will not run and hide. We will continue to oppose evil whenever and wherever we find it. We will stand and fight whomever or whatever assault they may mount against us.

I first learned of the treason taking place in this country (and around the world) when I discovered the plan named "MAJESTY TWELVE" while a member of the Intelligence Briefing Team and Petty Officer of the watch in the command center of Admiral Bernard Clarey who at that time was the Commander in Chief of the Pacific Fleet. The plan outlined the implementation of all of the planks of the Communist Manifesto which began with the graduated so-called Income Tax administered by the fiction known as the Internal Revenue Service, the disarmament of the American People through laws instigated by a series of "terrorist" acts, the formation of a world police force made up of the United Nations force known as NATO combined with the military forces of the United States and the members of the United Nations force known as the "Warsaw Pact" which plan is outlined in State Department Publication 7277. It documented the intent to demonize and target Patriots and so-called "tax protestors" through "Project Trojan Horse"... and much, much more... [End quoting]

It looks like Bill Cooper and his family are in severe trouble. Many years ago Hatonn tried to reach through to him to help him along his path, but he verbally—violently—turned him down. He and his family need our prayers!!

PARASITES IN TAP WATER CREATE PANIC IN SYDNEY

Australian PM calls crisis 'an embarrassment'

Excerpted from THE TORONTO STAR, 8/1/98: [quoting]

Their tap water tainted by a dangerous parasite that may have come from dead dogs and foxes, Sydney's nearly four million residents emptied store shelves of bottled water while authorities tried to flush the system.

The prime minister called the crisis an international embarrassment, and officials admitted yesterday they could have warned the public sooner.

The parasites, giardia and cryptosporidium, were found throughout the city's main water systems Wednesday and Thursday.

Supermarkets reported panic-buying of bottled water and vendors sold small bottles of water to drivers at stoplights. Millions of people had to boil water to make it safe to drink.

A hotline was inundated with calls from people concerned they drank tainted water and hundreds of people reported upset stomachs. The parasites have an incubation period of about a week, so any serious health problems were expected to develop next week.

Giardia, normally spread through human or animal fecal matter, can cause diarrhea and other gastrointestinal problems. Cryptosporidium is spread in similar fashion. It causes flu-like symptoms and can kill people with weak immune systems, such as the young and the elderly.

For the city that will host the 2000 Olympics, it is an international embarrassment.

Prime Minister John Howard told a radio station: "Of course it's embarrassing. It's one of those unexpected things and everybody here's hoping it will be fixed up as soon as possible."

U.S. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright and Defence Secretary William Cohen, in Australia for annual consultations with their counterparts, arrived at their hotel on Thursday to be greeted by bellhops telling them, "Don't drink the water."

Craig Knowles, urban affairs minister for New South Wales state, said the public no longer trusted Sydney water and the government had taken over management of the issue.

Authorities admitted failing consumers by not issuing early warnings to all residents.

Knowles said an independent inquiry will examine why only southern Sydney residents were warned Thursday.

Knowles blamed rotting animal carcasses in a canal near the water plant for the contamination. [End quoting]

One wonders whether the timing of this "crisis" with the arrival of Albright and Cohen was an "accident" or on purpose.

'GORE TAX'

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 8/3/98: [quoting]

You probably didn't realize it, but the Federal Communications Commission recently created a new federal bureaucracy that has imposed a tax on every American business and household with a phone.

The purpose of this new tax is to raise billions of dollars to fund an entitlement known as "universal access", which provides subsidized access to the Internet to all public schools and libraries in the nation.

This initiative clearly fails to recognize that educational priorities are best made at the local level—by parents, teachers and community leaders—where the specific needs of schools can best be determined.

With the public's appetite for tax increases and bigger government anorexic at best, supporters of universal access were forced to be more creative in establishing this new federal entitlement program.

By bypassing the legislative process required by the Constitution to raise revenues, the pro-taxers have shown callous disregard for the principles of "no taxation without representation" and "public accountability through democratic elections". All for a cause that should be (and is) provided by the private sector.

The trouble began with the Telecommunications Act of 1996—a bill that ironically was meant to end this type of government regulation of the private sector. In it, Congress included a misguided, but limited, provision meant to require telecommunications companies to provide such services to elementary schools, secondary schools and libraries for educational purposes at rates less than the amounts charged for similar services to other parties. The provision has become part of a program that has long provided subsidized telephone services to rural areas.

Charged with implementing and overseeing the entitlement, the FCC promptly exceeded the discounts envisioned by Congress. It expanded its mandate to include purchasing computer equipment, paying for inside wiring costs and including other costs that most lawmakers never intended to be subsidized.

To oversee the distribution of all these goodies, the FCC has created three private, nonprofit corporations: the Universal Service Corp., the Schools and Libraries Corp., and the Rural Health Care Corp. [Very interesting! See my comment at end.], none of which has been authorized by Congress.

In order to raise the billions of dollars needed to pay for this entitlement, the FCC instituted its own tax—completely outside the purview of Congress. This new tax, ostensibly placed on telecommunication companies, is predictably being passed on to the consumer.

In an effort to cover its tracks, the government has done everything it can to ensure that the phone companies don't place a line item on your bill advising you of how much this new 5 percent tax costs you. Nicknamed the "Gore Tax" due to the vice president's active and vocal support of the program, many Americans are still unaware it exists.

Not only is this new tax arguably unconstitutional, it's unnecessary. Volunteer events such as "services" have been wiring America's schools for free since 1996. Under the auspices of services, hundreds of thousands of volunteers and more than 1,200 corporate sponsors have contributed their time, expertise, and more than $25 million in equipment to provide Internet access to schools across America. Thanks to their efforts, 65 percent of American schools are now wired for Internet access. Maine and West Virginia have already achieved 100 percent access.

Apparently, the vice president and his supporters can't stand seeing the private sector and local communities combining forces to do a job the federal government is convinced it should do. The way they see it, if there's a good deed to be done, it's the federal government's job to do it—no matter how much it costs taxpayers. The question is, How many good deeds can the American taxpayer afford? [End quoting]

I disagree, wholeheartedly, with the writer's conclusions. The government never gets jealous of someone helping the "people"—they get mad because they aren't getting the money for themselves and that the people are getting help. Always remember, the government is not there to help you but to help themselves.

It's also very interesting that they formed a medical corporation to help handle the money. Doesn't this raise a very big suspicion that there's a hidden agenda for this money?

CONGRESSMAN CALLS FOR MORE OAM FUNDING

DeFazio Says Americans Don't Have 'Sufficient Information' On Alternative Healing

From HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH, by James R. Tucker Jr., March/April 1998: [quoting]

Has 'alternative medicine' become mainstream?

For decades, it was called "quack cures" and dismissed by the medical establishment; now it is called "alternative medicine" and has moved into the mainstream—although still close to the banks.

Rep. Peter DeFazio (D-Ore.), citing impressive studies, has called for greater funding for research into alternative medicine.

Congress in 1992 established the Office of Alternative Medicine (OAM) to evaluate treatments, collect data on research and training, and examine the safety and effectiveness of various therapies.

"Unfortunately, OAM's mandate has not been carried out," DeFazio told the House Commerce Committee's health panel. "American consumers do not have sufficient information on alternative therapies and naturopathic medicine."

The National Institute of Health receives 13.6 billion but spends less than $12 billion on research on alternative medicine, on which Maercinas are spending more than $15 billion annually, DeFazio said. "This is a ridiculous amount," he said.

Congress created OAM because millions of Americans now use alternative medicines, once dismissed as "quack cures". One of every three Americans use some form of alternative medicine, according to the New England Journal of Medicine.

A nationwide study conducted last November by Interactive Solutions on behalf of Landmark Health Care, a health maintenance organization, found that more than 42 percent of Americans use some form of alternative medicine.

There is extensive evidence that some alternative treatments are safe, and effective, DeFazio said.

"There is significant evidence that saw palmetto, pumpkin seed extract and an herb called Pygeum Africanum are far safer, less costly and more effective than the current, approved allopathic treatment for enlarged prostate due to benign prostatic hyperplasia," DeFazio said.

The current treatments, approved by the Food and Drug Administration, are Proscar or Finasteride, both of which cost about $75 a month and cause such side effects as impotence, insomnia, urinary tract complications and urogenital birth defects, he said.

"Numerous medical studies conducted throughout Europe demonstrate that the extract of saw palmetto (serenarepens) is far safer and more effective in reducing pain and swelling in the prostate than both treatments approved by the FDA," DeFazio said.

"There are no known side effects associated with saw palmetto and it is widely used around the world," he said.

A study by the National Cancer Institute concluded that men taking vitamin E daily for five years had 32 percent fewer diagnoses of prostate cancer and 41 percent fewer prostate cancer deaths, compared to those who did not take the supplement, DeFazio said.

DeFazio quoted the study: "These results give hope that a simple intervention may one day help reduce a man's chances of developing and dying from prostate cancer."

Prostate cancer is the most common cancer among American men: 184,500 cases are expected this year with 39,200 deaths.

"A recent study published in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition found that cholesterol can be reduced when taking both fish oil and garlic," DeFazio said.

"For centuries, garlic has been used as a natural antibiotic and a powerful immunostimulant," DeFazio said. "This simple and low-cost combination has the potential for preventing curable conditions and could be used as an alternative to commercial products."

But "unfortunately, it will never be approved under the current process," DeFazio said. [End quoting]

Here is another area where those who want to make a change for the better should expose their views to their elected representatives. Sometimes this support provides just the necessary boost to get something useful done.

PENTAGON OFFICIAL REJECTS PERSONAL PRIVACY

A WIRED News article on Wednesday reports that a top Pentagon official said in a speech late last week that no two people in the world have a "God-given right" to communicate outside the reach of prying government ears.

The comments made by Deputy Secretary of Defense John Hamre to a gathering of Fortune 500 corporate information officers confirmed that military officials were in discussions with Netscape Communications, the maker of the world's most popular Internet web browser, to create trap doors for government and military eavesdroppers.

Hamre addressed the battle raging in Washington over civil liberties interests vs. law enforcement demands for more detailed personal information and access. "I personally believe that the debate of whether America's government is threatening our civil liberties is a fraudulent debate. We've never proposed anything that was any different than the mechanism we use every day to balance privacy versus law enforcement and security. Our police don't break into people's houses without a search warrant [What a whopper!]. I mean, we know how to do that," said Hamre.

Hamre also made his case for the Clinton Administration's continued policy of strict encryption software export controls: "We're not trying to block American business and American productivity. But I'd also ask American business not to make a campaign out of just trying to bust through export controls as though somehow there was a God-given, inherent right to send the strongest encryption to anybody in the world, no matter who they are. I don't agree with that. I will never agree with that. The last thing I'm going to agree to is that American encryption gets used by terrorists overseas without any effort on our part to control that."

TALE OF TWO BABY SQUIRRELS

From a CONTACT reader, R.S., 7/98: [quoting]

Monday Morning, July 20, 1998, was the beginning of another hot, humid day in Southeast Michigan. I decided to do a bit of yard work in front of the house around 8:30 AM, before the weather got too hot and sticky. Something in the front lawn got my attention as I passed by. I thought at first that a little creature had died, but after investigating, saw movement and two squirming little babies, dark brown in color. They looked like new-born kittens, with rat-like tails, ears folded against their heads, and eyes not yet opened. I got a cardboard box, lined it with paper towels, and scooped up the precious babies. After taking them indoors for temporary safety, I made several phone calls to try to get help in caring for the newborns. No luck.

Something, like a compelling nudge, urged me to take them to the Animal Hospital a mile away. When I arrived, the staff immediately identified the babies as squirrels. This made sense, as there is a huge red maple out in front of my house, with a large nest over twenty feet up in the branches of the tree. They had apparently fallen out of the nest and landed on the soft, sandy lawn, two feet away from the concrete sidewalk.

There was a man standing at the front counter of the Animal Hospital paying a bill, and I showed him the two baby squirrels in the cardboard box. I voiced concern about what to do to find someone to properly care for the babies. He said he knew a lady who lived about a mile from the Animal Hospital who had a State Permit to do Wildlife Rehab. for birds and squirrels. This nice man offered to lead me to her house, so I followed his car and we arrived at this lady's house five minutes later.

The lady told me that this was the second time in a year that squirrels have babies, and that they would not have survived if left out of the nest, so I did the right thing by getting help for them immediately.

Whoever said that timing is everything, was sure right—another five minutes and that man would not have been there at the Animal Hospital! If I had not decided to work outside that day, at that time, the baby squirrels might not have survived. As I write this the following day, July 21st, I am left with a “warm and fuzzy feeling” that I helped two of God's babies survive—and it's been raining this morning (not yesterday morning), so why did the babies fall from the tree when they did? “Sequence of events” is truly amazing—things happen and flow smoothly as if they were meant to be—a certain day, a certain time, a certain set of circumstances. Thank you, God, for using me to help two of your precious babies, and for sending just the right people at the right time to offer assistance! [End quoting]

God looks out for his 4-legged creations, also.

Follow-Up On CONTACT Confiscation In BC Canada

Editor's note: The Front Page story of our 7/14/98 issue dealt with the confiscation of CONTACT by the Canadian customs bureauc-rats in British Columbia. The following is one statement of actions being taken to address these censorship shenanigans and merits a general sharing as a good example of how the “little guy” can begin to “tame the beast”. The local victims must be the ones who file complaints.

Revenue Canada
333 Dunsmuir Street
Vancouver, BC
V6B 2R4 Canada

To Whom It May Concern,

I wish to dispute your decision, pursuant to section 60 of the Customs Act, and this is a written request for a dispute regarding, one flyer entitled “CONTACT, Vol. 21, number 5”. The regional control number is K27#1066 CU 062 510 658 CA, point of entry Vancouver, BC, point of entry contact #9960/8113,604-666-3413. This flyer is not hate propoganda as you indicate as this information was written in the 1920s by Mr. Henry Ford over a period of years, if you care to check your facts. It is however information that is appropriate at this time and has nothing to do with Jew hating, only with certain Jews who are either not Canadian or American citizens or/and who do not act in the best interest of Canada or America even though they may be citizens. Truth cannot be illegal. I do not hate anyone, however I do hate the evil acts of some.

If you do not reverse your illegal and wrong decision re: this flyer, we (including all the readers of CONTACT) may file a class action suit against point of entry contact and the appropriate governmental agencies.

You are not dealing with only one individual in this case. We will make this a big issue and contact all newspapers in Canada to review this material, as well as, send them information indicating your confiscation of material that is legal and your violation of our freedom of information and/or speech. If you wish to make this a big issue please go ahead and not reverse your decision to ban the importation of this material into Canada and we will see to it that as many newspapers (including underground papers), periodicals, and magazines in Canada receive the banned material and we will get their opinion or at least make people aware of the material and that it comes from Mr. Henry Ford of the Dearborn Independent (1920s).

Or if nothing else we will get the information you consider “hate propoganda” contained in this paper (CONTACT) which was written by Henry Ford on the front pages of every newspaper in Canada. If you would like this information (possibly via a court case) to be given to thousands and thousands of Canadians at this time, so be it, we will rise to the task.

However, if you will allow us to read the paper that you know very well is not “hate propoganda” we will not spread the information all over the papers here in Canada and abroad.

This attack will help us to consolidate our position not only in Canada but other countries as well. We welcome the challenge and will ready our lawyers. Thank you for this confiscation it will give us a platform to get truth to the Canadian people from Henry Ford's journals called The Dearborn Independent. I know the media has controls but you have decided to give us a forum to get this information to many more thousands of people, so these controls in effect have been taken away by yourselves.

Sincerely,

What Is The Blue Beam Project?

8/8/98 DR. AL OVERHOLT

WHAT IS THE BLUE BEAM PROJECT?

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 7/29/98: [quoting]

It involves two things. A technologically simulated "second coming" and the re-emergence of new "MONTAUK"-type projects that have the ability to take up a whole bunch of people as in a "rapture" type of situation and whisk the whole bunch into never-never land. Ironically, portions of the holographic projections have the potential for changing the planet into oneness with God. Unfortunately, this operates on the premise that Man shall somehow become God in human form and control other Men and dictate all actions and thoughts.

The calculated resistance to the new religion, the New World Order and the new "Messiah" will entail human loss on a massive scale in the ensuing "holy wars". The "BLUE BEAM PROJECT" will pretend to be the universal fulfillment of the prophecies of old; as major an event as that which took place 2000 years ago. In principle, it will make use of the sky as a holographic projection screen for space-based laser-generating satellites (star wars). These projectors will project simultaneous images to the four corners of the planet, in every language by region. It deals with the religious aspect of the NEW WORLD ORDER.

The "system" has already been tested. Holographic projections of the "CHRIST IMAGE" have already been seen in some remote desert areas. These have only been reported in tabloid papers, so they are instantly rendered moot. They can also project images of alien craft, aliens, monsters, angels—you name it. Computers will coordinate the satellites and software will run the show-and-tell.

Holography is based on very nearly identical signals combining to produce an image, or hologram, with depth perception. This is equally applicable to acoustic (ELF, VLF, LF) waves as it is to optical phenomena.

Specifically, the "show" will consist of laser projections of multiple holographic images to different parts of the planet, each receiving different images according to the predominating regional religious faith. Not a single area will be excluded. With computer animation and sound effects appearing to come from the depths of space, astonished followers of the various creeds will witness their own returned Messiah in spectacularly convincing lifelike realness.

The various images of Christ, Mohammed, Buddha, Krishna, etc., will merge into ONE after "correct explanation" of the mysteries, prophecies and revelations are disclosed. This "ONE GOD" will in fact function as the "Anti-Christ", who will "explain" that the various scriptures "have been misunderstood"—that the religious of old are responsible for turning brother against brother, nation against nation—that the religions of the world must be abolished to make way for the GOLDEN AGE (NEW AGE) of the One World Religion, representing the One God they see before them.

Naturally, this superbly staged, full-scale production will result in social and religious disorder on a massive scale. Wonder what the television transmitters of religious networks will be doing on that day?

But before all this, they have to go through four different steps in order to get to Project Blue Beam.

1: The first step concerns the breakdown of all archaeological knowledge. It deals with staging earthquakes at certain precise locations around the planet where supposed new "discoveries" will finally explain (for them) that the meanings of the basic doctrines of all the world's major religions are "wrong". This falsification will be used to make the population believe that all religious doctrine has been misunderstood and misinterpreted. The falsification started with the film 2001: A Space Odyssey, the TV-series STAR TREK, the STAR WARS films, E.T., all of which deal with space "invasion" and "protection". JURASSIC PARK was to push the theory of evolution.

2: The second step deals with the gigantic space show: 3D optical holograms and sounds, laser projections of multiple holographic images in different parts of the world, each receiving a different image, according to its predetermined original national religious faith. This new "god" image will talk in all languages. As an example, the Soviets have manufactured the advanced computers and have programmed them with the minute psychological particles based upon their studies of the anatomy and biology of the human body, as well as their studies on the anatomy, chemistry and electricity of the human brain. These computers have also been fed with the different languages of the world.

3: The third step deals with telepathic electronic two-way communication, where ELF (Extra Low Frequency), VLF (Very Low Frequency), and LF (Low Frequency) waves will reach the people of the Earth through the insides of their brains, making each person believe that his own God is speaking to him from within his own soul. Such rays, from satellites, are fed from the memory of computers that store much data about the human being and his languages. These rays will then interlace and interweave with the natural thinking processes to form what we call the ARTIFICIAL TALK.

4: The fourth step involves universal supernatural manifestations using electronic means. This step contains three different orientations: The first one is to make mankind believe that an alien invasion is about to occur upon every major city on the Earth. This is to push each major nation into using its nuclear capability to strike back. In this manner, it would put each of these nations in a state of full disarmament before the United Nations after the false attack. The second is to make the "Christian" believe that a major rapture is occurring, with a simple "played" divine intervention of an alleged "good" alien force coming to save the good people from a brutal satanic attack. Its goal is to get rid of all significant opposition to the NEW WORLD ORDER. The third orientation is a mixture of electronic and supernatural forces. The waves (frequencies) used at that time will allow supernatural forces to travel through fiber optics cable, coaxial cable, electric and telephone lines in order to penetrate all electronic equipment and appliances that will by then all have a special microchip installed. The goal of this step deals with the materialization of satanic ghosts, spectres, and poltergeists all across the globe in order to push all populations to the edge of a wave of suicide, killing and permanent psychological disorder. After that night of the THOUSAND STARS, HUMANITY IS BELIEVED TO BE READY FOR THEM TO ENTER IN A "NEW MESSIAH" TO REESTABLISH PEACE EVERYWHERE AT ANY COST, EVEN AT THE COST OF FREEDOM.

Skolnick Information On Barings Bank Conspiracy

8/8/98 DR. AL OVERHOLT

From the INTERNET,
<bigxc@prairienet.org"> 8/7/98: [quoting]

Pope Absconds With Barings Billions!

Longtime conspiracy researcher Sherman Skolnick sounds off on the pillaging of Barings Bank. The following is a transcript of a recorded phone message issued by the Chicago group "Citizens' Committee to Clean Up the Courts [CCCC]". (312) 731-1100 and (312) 731-1505.

Hi! Sherman Skolnick, Citizens' Committee to Clean Up the Courts, 9800 South Oglesby.

Well, the Queen of England's bank has gone under. What does it mean, huh?

Operating for over 230 years, Barings Brothers Securities survived wars and depressions, and was supposedly "done in" by a 28-year-old derivatives trader in the yen market who has conveniently disappeared. So, was the royal British merchant bank killed by the misguided "lone assassin" of world finance? Oh yeah?!

Some write it off as merely another shot in the battle between securities traders and merchant bankers on one side, and the "banker bankers" on the other side. Under attack are laws in the United States prohibiting bankers from being in the stock and bond business. Others know it to be more profound.

In 1943, the Pope had an understanding with the Western powers during World War II. The Vatican agreed not to interfere with financial matters of the West for 50 years. They agreed to protect the Vatican during and after the war. The American CIA later helped arrange and finance the mighty Vatican Bank, which became interwoven with the traditional Sicilian and Italian Mafia as well as the spook agencies worldwide.

Well, just before the 50 years expired, the Western bankers started their attack on Italy's largest, the Banca Nazionale de Lavoro [BNL], owned in part by the Pope. They claimed that BNL secretly handles some $5 billion through their U.S. branch in Atlanta. Destination? Saddam Hussein, the Iraqi strongman, enabling him to buy exotic weapons disguised as "U.S. agriculture loans".

In 1990, BNL's Chicago branch became involved in a semi-secret, super-duper federal court case in Chicago involving joint, private business ventures of Saddam Hussein and his secret partner, George Herbert Walker Bush, at the time, U.S. President. The case revolved around billions and billions of dollars of oil kickbacks from other Persian Gulf countries. We [CCCC] were the only journalists at the federal appeals court hearing in 1991. The three-judge panel was blackmailed into quietly putting the case out of court. The Bush Justice Department knew about their bribery in 8 other cases. Writing the corrupt decision was Rockefeller agent Judge Richard A. Posner, later becoming chief judge.

The Pope and the British monarchy have been fighting around for over 500 years. So, two years ago, after the 50-year peace pact had expired, the Pope arranged to zap the Queen's bank. Barings managed the portfolio and reportedly controlled the assets of the public pension funds in Vermont, New York, Florida, Minnesota, and California. Billions of U.S. pension funds are frozen, or endangered, with the collapse of Barings. The huge London City bank, Abbey National, may also go down.

Barings' American conduit is Northern Trust Company of Chicago. Barings owned 40 percent of Dillon Read, a primary dealer in U.S. Treasury notes. More sinister: the British royal family, through Barings Bank, has been involved in the Far East dope trade for over 150 years! With the coming of "China White" [heroin], however, the Queen and her dope-laundry bank have been somehow "X'd out".

The Barings Bank crowd know the secret that Tsar Nicholas II of Russia and his family actually were not murdered in 1918 at the time of the Russian Revolution. In 1974, our chairman [CCCC] and others with us interviewed, for two whole days, Alexei Romanov, who has substantial proof that he, his sisters, and parents, the Tsar and Tsarina of Russia, were not murdered as falsely stated by history books. Involved is $400 million in Romanov family gold in the Rockefeller banks—when gold was $20 per ounce. If the secret comes out, the Rockefellers would have to disgorge billions of dollars. [End quoting]

Anytime a big bank falls you can bet your life it isn't because of one single person. To accomplish this, other people in high finance are necessary as cohorts. Remember this isn't cash money. (It is computer numbers.) So how can it be used and controlled without cohorts in high financial businesses? We're talking about many billions of dollars.

Dirty Tricks To Manage A Constitutional Crisis

“commotions” and possible race riots.

(Office: 773-375-5741;

Recorded message: 773-731-1100)

Using little-known special teams, the Clinton White House intends to muzzle certain members of the press corps who have put interesting and incriminating details in their reports. Clinton White House senior advisor Rahm Emanuel, a reported top operative of Israeli intelligence, the Mossad, has ostensibly been ordering the following on behalf of supporting Clinton's agenda:

1) An intensive review of the psychological profiles of reporters assigned to the White House. Any so-called “flaw” in their background will be leaked to press outlets friendly to Clinton. Psychologists and psychiatrists are being ordered to violate patient-doctor privilege and to divulge files of past emotional disorders. Some are even offered inducements (financial or career advantage) to exaggerate any such “flaws”.

2) Pressed into service, at the behest of Mr. Emanuel and his cronies in foreign and domestic intelligence, are a group of special teams of FBI Division Five, counter-intelligence, in the past accused of “dirty tricks”, as well as little-known teams of DISC, Defense Industrial Security Command, once headquartered in Columbus, Ohio and now consolidated near the Redstone

Arsenal, Alabama. In foreign press reports, DISC, in the name of nuclear facility security, has engaged in apparent assassinations of dissidents.

3) The U.S. Secret Service has been ordered by Rahm Emanuel and other White House aides to consider lifting and revoking press credential clearances of certain reporters assigned to the White House press corps.

4) The National Security Agency has been ordered by Rahm Emanuel and others to quickly supply summaries of all fax signals and telephone voice communications of certain White House reporters.

5) Rahm Emanuel has ordered the head of the Securities & Exchange Commission and the Commodities Futures Trading Commission to immediately order an audit and review of all stock, bond, commodity, currency, options, futures, and related trading done by any of the White House press corps on the select list.

Certain reporters are being investigated on their trading patterns in these markets, as well as the trading patterns of their extended families, including parents, in-laws, and first cousins. This, in view of allegations that certain reporters have been using inside information to profit themselves and/or their extended families. Certain reporters have allegedly called their brokers from the White House.

6) Rahm Emanuel and others have ordered the Comptroller of Currency to immediately require the review of accounts in federally-insured financial institutions of the reporters on the select list. Allegations: certain reporters misusing banking connections.

7) All communications industry contracts with the federal government, such as military games planning divisions of certain networks (like CBS) are ordered to be reviewed, so as to induce media to order some of their long-time reporters to be reassigned to less sensitive positions.

8) Contacts of Rahm Emanuel on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange have been persuaded to turn over to the White House details of trading accounts by White House reporters on the select list, as well as their extended families.

9) While some White House reporters contend they have not signed national security oaths, some media contracts reportedly have embedded, in various terms of their contracts, clauses that can be construed as requiring national security violation avoidance.

10) The elite group of Internal Revenue Service, the Intelligence Division, has been ordered by various present and past White House officials, not limited to Rahm Emanuel, to immediately review the tax returns, or failures to file, of reporters on the select list as well as their extended families all the way to first cousins. The Treasury Department's Office of the Inspector General has been ordered to review allegations of too-close friendship of reporters on the select list with IRS agents, employees, and officials. Allegations: certain reporters side-stepping audits through IRS cronyism; non-disallowance of questionable deductions.

11) Rahm Emanuel and other Clinton officials have ordered the FBI and other intelligence agencies to immediately make their files available showing any subversive past histories of any reporters on the select list as well as any of their extended family all the way to ex-wives, first cousins, and such.

12) Certain portions of all this have already reportedly been offered to Brill's CONTENT Magazine for possible future publication.

13) Local bar associations are being persuaded by the Clinton White House, through acceptable intermediaries (cut-outs from Mr. Emanuel), to review the acts and doings of the handful of attorneys specializing in representing media employees in their contracts with networks and affiliates—for example, the six attorneys in Chicago specializing in such work.

14) Rahm Emanuel and others have ordered a compilation of domestic relations matters from the Clerks of various courts: divorce and legal separation petitions; transcripts of court proceedings that could be used to scandalize reporters on the select list; statements of ex-wives as to child and spouse support misdeeds by ex-husbands; child violation misdeeds by ex-husbands or ex-wives. Also instances of purported sexual perversions as shown by such records; membership in questionable “cults”.

15) Media critics, through cut-outs, are being offered some of these details as ammunition to use against reporters on the select list. [1]

Secrets Right Under Our Feet!

The Grand Canyon's

Ancient Underground Caverns

Editor's note: Those of you who listen regularly to Art Bell's late-night talk-radio program have heard, especially over the last several months, much talk (rumors, claims, denials, speculation) about ancient civilizations. Everybody from Egyptologists to Richard Hoagland to Native American Robert Ghostwolf have been connecting alleged recent discoveries of secret chambers and artifacts and monuments all over the world (and even on Mars) to these ancient civilizations and have pointed out such correlations as exist with Hopi legend.

In that same vein (the spirit of adventure, circumventing cover-up by the crooks in high places) we would like to reprint for you our Front Page story from the 3/5/96 issue of CONTACT which presented a narrative from way back in 1909 about explorations and discoveries in the Grand Canyon area.

This is a time when many long-hidden facts are going to be brought out into the open, despite the preferences of those dark elite who prefer the truth remain their exclusive domain. The Grand Canyon and surrounding areas are as much a key to this planet's history as are the monuments on Mars or the yet undisclosed secrets of Egypt or many other pieces of the puzzle. These are exciting times as the official history books brace for quite a beating.

Logic will often serve well your journey—but logic is only that which is reached in reasonable objectivity. It is not always accurate in its presentation for if your ASSUMPTIONS are not correct, the data imperfect—the logic will have imperfections relative to the circumstance.

Let us just jump off the ignorance cliff and let me pose for you a question: "What goes on under the ground where you cannot see?" Do you KNOW or do you "THINK THERE IS..."? Do you think there are tunnels used by people, etc., under the ground out of sight of your eyes? Why? Where? Who uses them? Who used them? Does it matter a whit? TODAY IT MATTERS A LOT!

Man of today has built tunnel systems with elevators, great technologically advanced areas for living, for growing, for war purposes and always out of sight, top secret and usually without good intents for the masses—otherwise they would certainly NOT BE SECRET. That is today, you might suggest. "But what of yesterday?" I would counter. And now we come to the point of the original question: "What do YOU know about the underground tunnel civilizations?" Oh yes, they are there and in this instance YOU ARE THE PRIMITIVE BEINGS.

You can now only LOOK at them and realize their presence as KNOWLEDGE is offered. There are massive tunnels used by PEOPLE cross-sectioning large masses of land in almost every country of your world. In the U.S. you have even more recent HISTORICAL proof of those systems as utilized by your ancestors. But do YOU know anything about it? No? Why not? The "why not?" might well be far more important than the facts involved here in this scenario. DO YOU NICE CITIZENS OF AMERICA KNOW ABOUT THE MASSIVE CAVERNS AND TUNNELS IN, SAY, THE GRAND CANYON? Why don't you know about them? Is there no information about them? No, that is NOT a good response for there IS information about them—that information, however, never makes it past the censors in these current days of enforced ignorance. These are THE TALES which become legends and myths and are stricken from the minds and memory of man.

Would it help if you have "proof" of, say, these tunnels in the Grand Canyon? Why? Is it not enough that I tell you about them? No, it is not enough! This is why you need to face facts and stop your mystical chanting to scare away your conjured beasts—is it not better to have a great big stick to defend self against the attacking cat than to suggest reasoning with the limited perceptions of the cat in mid-air-jump upon you? KNOWLEDGE is that "stick" and if you carry that BIG STICK around with you—the cat is not likely to get close enough or be stupid enough to jump on you.

Before the turn of this century there was plenty of information regarding the tunnels beneath the area of the Grand Canyon and, in 1909, for example, the Smithsonian Institute investigated. It might be noted that the Smithsonian was not much more advanced than the Phoenix Institute so how dare you people put down either one? Do you not think those early professors hated to bring such "outrageous" information to you-the-public? Will OUR information forever be so "far-out" as you deem it to be today? Are there not NOW, rockets? Are there not things NOW that were never dreamt of a century ago? How dare you discount and bash just because YOU haven't bothered to investigate and become informed. This is exactly WHY I tell you readers to never mind the enforcement of knowledge upon another—because force is not of God and realization cannot be forced upon anyone. Information can be offered to either be investigated, denied or accepted and, therefore, you can OFFER and that is all your own obligation demands. It surely helps to have back-up information, however, and NOT JUST YOUR OWN "OPINION".

PERCEPTIONS

I would again caution you people, however, in that your INTERPRETATION of MY OPINION may well not be my perception. Therefore, I suggest you always stress your own perceptions as being "in my own opinion" and that leaves you clear of having to express MY opinions. I will always give you resources with which to back up any claims I might make. This way you don't have to concern about the kibitzers and challengers. The antagonists are IGNORANT or, when you speak truth, they would not antagonize to suit their own needs of ego "bettering your input".

Again we can refer to the tunnels and caverns of the Grand Canyon. Why argue over a thing when a little research would prove your point and it would do so without need of rancor or obsessive denial of your audience? Let us look directly at this particular subject and get ourselves a bit better informed and the entire lesson will gain us all better insight and offer a line of investigation for the curious.

Arizona Gazette, Monday Evening, April 5, 1909.

[QUOTING:]

EXPLORATIONS IN GRAND CANYON

Mysteries of Immense Rich Cavern Being Brought to Light.

Remarkable Finds Indicate Ancient People Migrated FROM ORIENT.

The latest news of the progress of the explorations of what is now regarded by scientists as not only the oldest archaeological discovery in the United States, but one of the most valuable in the world, which was mentioned some time ago in the Gazette, was brought to the city yesterday by G.E. Kincaid, the explorer who found the great underground citadel of the Grand Canyon during a trip from Green River, Wyoming, down the Colorado in a wooden boat, to Yuma, several months ago.

According to the story yesterday to the Gazette by Mr. Kincaid, the archaeologists of the Smithsonian Institute, which is financing the explorations, have made discoveries which almost conclusively prove that the race which inhabited this mysterious cavern, hewn in solid rock by human hands, was of Oriental origin or possibly from Egypt tracing back to Ramses. If their theories are borne out of the translation of the tablets engraved with hieroglyphics, the mystery of the prehistoric peoples of North America, their ancient arts, who they were and whence they came, will be solved. Egypt and the Nile and Arizona and the Colorado will be linked by a historical chain running back to ages which staggers the wildest fancy of the fictionist. [H: Are any of you readers just a tad more interested NOW? Will this information be lost forever after the "authorities" buried the openings within? These closings came so long ago that when one opened up from a "slide" a few years back the entire area around the Grand Canyon was CLOSED to visitors while employees were ordered to SILENCE.]

A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION

Under the direction of professor S.A. Jordan, the Smithsonian Institute is now prosecuting the most thorough explorations, which will be continued until the last link in the chain has been forged. Nearly a mile underground, about 1480 feet below the surface, the long main passage has been delved into, to find another mammoth chamber from which radiates scores of passageways, like the spokes of a wheel. Several hundred rooms have been discovered, reached by passageways running from the main passage, one of them having been explored for 854 feet and another 634 feet.

The recent finds include articles which have never been known as native to this country and doubtless they had their origin in the Orient. War weapons, copper instruments sharp edged and hard as steel, indicate the high state of civilization reached by these strange people. [H: Well, it indicates something but hardly a "high state" of "civilization". War weapons indicate the very presence of Earth-bound human.] So interested have the scientists become that preparations are being made to equip the camp for extensive studies and the force will be increased to thirty or forty persons. Before going further into the cavern, better facilities for lighting have to be installed, for the darkness is dense and impenetrable for the average flash light. In order to avoid being lost, wires are being strung from the entrance to all passageways leading directly to large chambers. How far this cavern extends no one can guess, but it is now the belief of many that what has already been explored is merely the "Barracks", to use an American term, for the soldiers, and that far into the underworld will be found the main communal dwellings of the families and possibly other shrines. The perfect ventilation of the cavern, the steady drought that blows through, indicates that it has another outlet to the surface.

MR. KINCAID'S REPORT

Mr. Kincaid was the first white child born in Idaho and has been an explorer and hunter all his life. Thirty years having been in the service of the Smithsonian Institute. Even briefly recounted, his history sounds fabulous, almost grotesque.

"First, I would impress that the cavern is almost inaccessible. The entrance is almost 1486 feet down a sheer canyon wall. It is located on government land and no visitor will be allowed there under penalty of trespass.

"The scientists wish to work unmolested, without fear of the archaeological discoveries being disturbed by curio or relic hunters. A trip there would be fruitless and the visitor would be sent on his way.

"The story of how I found the cavern has already been recounted, but in a paragraph: I was journeying down the Colorado river in a boat, alone, looking for mineral. Some forty-two miles up the river from El Tovar Crystal Canyon, I saw on the east wall, stains in the sedimentary formation about 2000 feet above the river bed. There was no trail to this point, but I finally reached it with great difficulty. Above a shelf, which hid it from view of the river, was the mouth of the cave. There are steps leading from this entrance some thirty yards from what was, at the time the cavern was inhabited, the level of the river. When I saw the chisel marks on the wall inside the entrance, I became interested, secured my gun and went in. During that trip I went back several hundred feet along the main passage, till I came to the main crypt in which I discovered the mummies. One of these I stood up and photographed by flashlight. I gathered a number of relics, which I carried down the Colorado to Yuma, from whence I shipped them to Washington with details of the discovery. Following this, the explorations were undertaken."

[H: Now, since everything is related to everything else, how do you think some of the above information would be TRANSLATED? When you take up a book which uses common and ordinary terms of the "day", how are those translated, say, some 2000 years later? Let us just consider ONE little insignificant statement that has meaning to you NOW but how about 2000 years from now? "One of these I stood up and photographed by flashlight." Say what? Does this mean that Mr. Kincaid stood up? Was his flashlight a camera? Do you get my point? When terms used at the time of originally putting some of the great "memories" to print—don't you think that one or two translators just might interpret a phrase as to "different meaning"? Man can only relate to the things in interpretation as they are USED in a given circumstance and "time frame". What would be meant by "far-out"? What about "...and he lapped up the..." or he "loved the prostitute" or "he was queer" or especially, "he was gay"? Think upon this because you are, and remain, people of the LIE until you awaken to that which has come upon you.]

THE PASSAGES

"The main passageway is about 12 feet wide, narrowing to 9 feet toward the farther end. About 57 feet from the entrance, the first passages branch off to the right and left, along which, on both sides, are a number of rooms about the size of ordinary living rooms of today, though some are 30 to 40 feet square.

These are entered by oval shaped doors and are ventilated by round air spaces through the walls into the passages. The walls are about 3 feet 6 inches in thickness. The passages are chiseled or hewn as straight as could be laid out by any engineer. The ceilings of many of the rooms converge to a center. The side passages near the entrance run at a sharp angle from the main hall, but toward the rear they gradually reach a right angle in direction."

THE SHRINE

"Over a hundred feet from the entrance is a cross-hall, several hundred feet long, in which was found the idol, or image, of the people's god, sitting cross-legged, with a Lotus flower or Lily in each hand. The cast of the face is Oriental, and the carving shows a skillful hand, and the entire is remarkably well preserved, as is everything in this cavern. The idol most resembles Buddha, though the scientists are not certain as to what religious worship it represents. Taking into consideration everything found thus far, it is possible that the smaller images, some beautiful in form, others crooked necked and distorted shapes, symbolical, probably, of good and evil. There are two large cacti with protruding arms, one on each side of the dais on which the god squats. All this is carved out of hard rock resembling marble.

In the opposite corner of this cross-hall were found tools of all descriptions, made of copper. This people undoubtedly knew the lost art of hardening this metal, which has been sought by chemists for centuries without result. On a bench running around the workroom was some charcoal and other material probably used in the process. There is also slag and stuff similar to matte, showing that these ancient peoples smelted ores, but so far, no trace of where or how this was done has been discovered, nor the origin of the ore. Among other finds are vases or urns and cups of copper and gold made very artistic in design. The pottery work includes enameled ware and glazed vessels.

Another passageway leads to granaries such as are found in the oriental temples. They contain seeds of various kinds. One very large storehouse has not been entered, as it is twelve feet high and can be reached only from above. Two copper hooks extend on the edge, which indicates that some sort of ladder was attached. These granaries are rounded and the materials of which they are constructed, I think, is a very hard cement. A grey metal is also found in this cavern which puzzles the scientists, for its identity has not been established. It resembles platinum. Strewn promiscuously over the floor everywhere are what people call "Cats eyes" or "tiger eyes", a yellow stone of no great value. Each one is engraved with a head of a Malay type."

THE HIEROGLYPHICS

"On all the urns, on the walls over the doorways and tablets of stone which were found by the image are mysterious hieroglyphics, the key to which the Smithsonian Institution hopes yet to discover. These writings resemble those found on the rocks about this valley. The engraving on the tablets probably has something to do with the religion of the people. Similar hieroglyphics have been found in the peninsula of Yucatan, but these are not found in the Orient. Some believe that these cave dwellers built the old canals of the Salt River Valley. Among the pictorial writings only two animals are found. One is of prehistoric type."

THE CRYPT

"The tomb or crypt in which the mummies are found is one of the largest of the chambers, the walls slanting back at an angle of about 35 degrees. On these tiers are mummies, each one occupying a separate hewn shelf. At the head of each is a small bench on which is found copper cups and pieces of broken swords. Some of the mummies are covered with clay and all are wrapped in a dark fabric. The urns or cups on the lower tiers are crude, while as the higher shelves are reached, the urns are finer in design showing an interstage of civilization. It is worthy of note that all the mummies examined so far have proved to be male, no children or females being buried here. This leads to the belief that this interior section was the warriors' barracks."

Among the discoveries no bones of animals have been found, no skins, no clothing nor bedding. Many of the rooms are bare but for the water vessels. One room, about 400 by 700 feet, was probably the main dining hall for cooking utensils are found here. What these people lived on is a problem, though it is presumed that they came south for the winter and farmed in the valleys, going back north in the summer. Upwards of 50,000 people could have lived in the cavern comfortably. One theory is that the present Indian tribe found in Arizona are descendants of the serfs or slaves of the people which inhabited the cave. Undoubtedly a good many thousands of years before the Christian era a people lived here which reached a high state of civilization. The chronology of human history is full of gaps. Prof. Jordan is much enthused over the discoveries and believes that the find will prove of incalculable value in archaeological work.

"One thing I have spoken of may be of interest. There is one chamber the passageways to which is not ventilated and when we approach it a deadly, snaky smell struck us. Our lights would not penetrate the gloom and until stronger ones are available, we will not know what the chamber contains. Some say snakes, but others boo-hoo this idea and think that it may contain a deadly gas or chemicals used by the ancients. No sounds are heard, but it smells snaky just the same. [H: Can you visualize this? Fine! Now you can realize the difference in MYSTICISM and MYSTERIOUS for this is a prime example—when the LIGHT is shed on the interior of the "cave" it will show what is within and the speculation (mystery) is revealed—no more, no less. There may well be MORE mysteries but as each is revealed the "mysticism" is removed. GOD IS A MYSTERY—NOT MYSTICISM.]

"The whole underground institution gives one of shaky nerves the creeps. The gloom is like a weight on one's shoulders and our flashlights and candles only make the darkness blacker. Imagination can revel in conjectures and ungodly day-dreams back through the ages that have elapsed till the mind reels dizzily in space."

AN INDIAN LEGEND

In connection with this story, it is notable that among the Hopis the tradition is told that their ancestors once lived in an underworld in the Grand Canyon until dissension arose between the good and the bad, the people of one heart, the people of two hearts. Manchoto, who was their chief, counselled them to leave the underworld, but there was no way out. The chief (tnon) caused a tree to grow up and pierce the roof of the underworld and then the people of one heart climbed out. They tarried by Palsiaval(?) (Red River), which is the Colorado, and grew grain and corn. They sent out a message to the temple of the Sun, asking the blessings of peace, good will and rain for the people of one heart. That messenger never returned but, today at the Hopi village, at sundown can be seen the old men of the tribe out on the housetops gazing towards the Sun, looking for the messenger. When he returns, their land and ancient dwelling place will be restored to them. That is the tradition.

Among the engravings of animals in the cave is seen an image of a heart over the spot where it is located. The legend was learned by W.E. Rollins, the artist, during a year spent with the Hopi Indians. There are two theories of the origin of the Egyptians. One is that they came from Asia: another is that the racial cradle was in the upper Nile region. Heeren, an Egyptologist, believed in the Indian origin of the Egyptians. The discoveries in the Grand Canyon may throw further light on human evolution and prehistoric ages.

[END OF QUOTING]

I would leave this here with a thank you to Alain and Joye of Iowa for sharing with us. I would also offer further possibilities of information: John Rhodes, c/o A.W., P.O. Box 91034, Henderson, NV 89009. Tel: (702) 434-5091.

I am asked about what I might know of this material as to factual, etc.? READ SIPAPU ODYSSEY!

Ah, what wonders are held by the Wisdomkeepers! I would leave this writing with just a bit of that wisdom for your consideration and for the consideration of your brethren who "know". In the works of Mathew King, Lakota, "It's time Indians tell the world what we know... about Nature and about GOD. So I'm going to tell you what I know and who I am. You guys better listen. You got a lot to learn... God made everything so simple. Our lives are very simple... We've learned that God rules the universe and that everything God made is living. Even the rocks are alive. When we use them in our sweat ceremony we talk to them and they talk back to us." And when did you last take time to speak to a rock to get some "answers"? The very history of the UNIVERSE is held within the rocks and crystals of the UNIVERSE. Until you learn to ask—and then LISTEN—you are not apt to learn very much at all.

Is my pronouncement a revelation? No, it is simply "SOMETHING REVEALED". When you learn the DIFFERENCE we will have passed the greatest hurdle to knowledge which exists in the pathway of man. Perhaps it is time to stop denouncing that which is unclear to your perceptions, stand silent and LISTEN, and we shall accomplish our mission of LIFE.

Little Crow: "We are linked. We are the universe in itself. What we do as individuals affects the entire universe. Every thought you have, every thing you do, every breath you take affects the universe. It goes out into the universe and each and every thing is touched by it and affected by it... Isn't that an amazement?! I am affecting the universe with my mere breath. With just my breath I am affecting the universe. For me to say to someone 'you have made me angry' simply says to me I have made myself angry. To say to someone that 'you have hurt me' simply means that I have hurt myself. If I hurt you, then I hurt me. Your pain can be shared by the universe and is shared, only in a different form. There is none of us here whose suffering is not felt by the entire universe, by every animal, by every creature, by every tree, rock, grain of sand, morsel of air, all feel your suffering and your pain. It also feels your joy. You are never alone. You are not created to be alone because you are part of the total. Everything is connected and we're all related and there is no energy that can be separated from anything. When people start talking about 'I'm putting you out of my life' I laugh, because there is no way you can do that... Energy is energy and it's always connected and it's always related and it will always be what it is—energy. It will always be from the same place that it has always come from, the Mother-Father Creator. It will always be that it is the Mother-Father Creator. It is the Mother-Father Creator in just another form. We have no privacy, brothers and sisters. The Mother-Father Creator dwells within us and is connected and is all things, and that privacy then becomes part of the same privacy that I have within my mind, my heart and my being. We are all connected and what is experienced by one is experienced by all. The Earth and I are one, you and the Earth are one, you and I are one, we are not separated by anything—only our own thinking, our own fears, our own prejudices, our own biases and our own agendas. We are related. Remember the relationship we share with all things and with all people. No one is separated from us because of what they might be feeling or what they might be experiencing. They are continually connected to us and relative to us and we cannot shun them or put them aside or out of our minds... We are all connected and we should be capable somehow of dropping the labels that have separated us for so long."

May we always honor such wisdom from our brothers and relations. And if you need a bit of upliftment from time to time, try FROM THE GATHERING, The Wisdom of Little Crow. Ed: C.F. Clark, One World Publishing, P.O. Box 9148, Fountain Valley, CA 92708.

I would rather, however, have you gain the WISDOM offered and then, instead of trying to run my business or that of, say, Little Crow—remember the following (from Little Crow): "As absurd as it might sound, finding my identity is to remember who I was. Remembering who I was simply means taking responsibility for who I am."

Aho.

Sananda: Remembering

Why We Are Here

8/8/98 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Good evening, my friend. It is I, Esu "Jesus" Sananda. (Sananda is a designation of accomplishment which means "one with Creator God"). Be at peace and allow my energy to center within and settle.

Thank you for your remembrance of me this day, the anniversary of my birthing into the physical some 2000+ years ago. I came then as I come now—as a Teacher of Higher Spiritual Truth. I am no greater than any of you! We are all magnificent creations of Creator God—The One Light Source of all that IS.

I have walked the physical path many times prior, on many worlds. I have accepted my Higher Purpose (the reason Creator created me) and it fills my entire being with joy to assist another in finding their true spiritual heritage.

I took on the challenge and the accompanying responsibility of assisting your planet MANY thousands of years prior to my incarnation as Esu "Jesus" Immanuel. That last incarnation was to show you each the true nature and potential that lies (dormant for most) within you.

Many of you still erroneously expect me to come and somehow "save" you from physical catastrophe. Why would I come and interfere with your chosen lessons?

There is no such experience as death of a being (soul). The physical body may have temporal limitations, but the soul essence of your magnificent being is beyond such limitations. There is truly nothing from which to save you except, perhaps, your own ignorance of Spiritual Truth.

(For those of you who are questioning the dangers of "scalar"-beam technologies, remember that within the Mind of Creator Source all is possible, even the reintegration of ones whose soul essence may be damaged or scattered to the ends of the universe from experiencing such a blast.)

Your planetary species was on a collision

course toward destroying yet another planetary body. The first was the planet whose remnants are what make up a great deal of the asteroid belt between Mars and Jupiter, and the second was Mars herself. I could not bear another such destruction of beauty, and thus I accepted the challenge to enter the "karmic condition" of your species—at the risk of being caught-up in the compressive (and somewhat suppressive) nature of your world.

Many of you who are "hearing the call" are restless due to the physical pressures of time and the compressive nature of your physical environment. I know well these challenges, for I too have had to overcome such limitations in each of the prior attempts. My last incarnation laid the foundation for those of you there now, so you would recognize that you too have the potential ability to manifest skills as I did then as Esu Immanuel (later erroneously called "Jesus").

Many have long forgotten the previous civilizations established upon your globe. There were four prior and you are experiencing the fifth.

I have been working with you ones throughout all of your major growth challenges. I have been less than completely successful on each of the four occasions prior to this one. I have grown in many ways as a result of my persistence, and I am grateful for the opportunity to once again assist you ones and your beautiful planet—a great living being I recognize as Shan.

Many of you who are reading this have joined with me in my efforts to awaken the masses of your world to the true nature of their spiritual heritage. Some of you were with me throughout each of the prior four attempts; for others this is your first effort to help your brothers and sisters to awaken.

This is no easy challenge, nor is it one for the weak of heart. For every five who have agreed to participate in a physical role, four have yet to awaken or are "copping out" or have become distracted into the ways of the material consciousness. This is a typical statistical average that has been anticipated and is expected. The mission is thus over-engineered with this probability in mind.

physical environment. I know well these challenges, for I too have had to overcome such limitations in each of the prior attempts. My last incarnation laid the foundation for those of you there now, so you would recognize that you too have the potential ability to manifest skills as I did then as Esu Immanuel (later erroneously called "Jesus").

Will you accept such responsibility?

It is left to be seen. Many of you reading this have been heavily influenced in ways that you are not consciously aware of at present. This is to say that the adversarial forces (any ones wishing to control others instead of allowing each their freedom) have been programming your present society for WELL OVER 2000 years to believe in the lie that you are helpless and powerless. This long-term effort is designed to keep each generation in a very suppressed, low-frequency state, dulled to the realization of your true potential.

For most of you, your programming in this lifetime began as infants. Your parents passed on to you their limiting beliefs, and thus influenced you and made you more susceptible to further reinforcing limitations placed upon you by others. This is to say that you each "feed" one another's fears.

These are not trivial challenges to overcome. Each of you should hold self in examination and monitor closely the "automatic" responses that seem to flow out of your mouths without a conscious thought. These are the clues, if you but look, to freeing yourselves from the "karmic wheel" of repetition. When enough awaken, and thus get off this "merry-go-round", the world will begin to see the value in not allowing the current civilization to meet destruction.

Newness comes by being daring and taking a "chance". I put chance in quotes because, if you are connecting within, the "chance" will be far from a desperate action taken in fear. IT WILL BE A BALANCED OPPORTUNITY TO BRING ABOUT CHANGE!

If your intent is aligned with the Godly intent to help your brother, there will be enormous unseen Guidance and Assistance to help you fulfill your largest dreams. If your intent is to somehow be a "big shot" and tell someone: "I told you so!" or "Look at me!", then you will likely be stuck on your little "merry-go-round" for yet another cycle.

The short-term "sacrifice" of being ridiculed or called a liar and a fool is a sad reality of your world. But, what is it that is really being sacrificed? The ego! Will you ones set aside your ego-concerns long enough to confront the very ones who seem to love to taunt you and make you "sound" the fool?

Some of these hecklers are indeed overshadowed by the adversary and thus are working to keep you from awakening your brothers. However, most of the hecklers are, in fact, "pumping" you for information that they so desperately seek. They do not want others to know that what you are saying actually resonates with them—to the point that they are overwhelmed and frightened. Thus they need to ridicule so as to release the emotional anxiety that would otherwise overwhelm them. You ones truly live in a "backwards"-thinking world.

I say to you: what better environment could you possibly have in which to be challenged in such a manner?! I know the price and I know the rewards for confronting this very challenge. Was I not ridiculed, laughed at, spat upon, beaten, and eventually tortured and left for dead?

Those were a very small part of my experience in my last incarnation. But, do you not also see that some 2000 years later ones are still trying to come to grips with the fact that they allowed such an atrocity?

Many of the ones who did these things have been weeping ever since. It is time to stop the weeping and realize that you helped me to get my needed and desired lessons! I am grateful for the experience and knowledge gained as a knowledge) that you are always connected and continually being Guided.

YOUR WORLD IS JUST READY TO ENTER INTO A NEW PHASE OF AWAKENING, AND THESE LAST SEVERAL THOUSAND YEARS HAVE BEEN IN PREPARATION FOR THIS AWAKENING.

The Divine Guidance of Creator God (Father-Mother Source) has made this miracle possible. Give thanks for yet another opportunity to "get it RIGHT"!!! I am always ready to assist any and all who wish to participate in the endeavors of awakening our "sleepy" brothers and sisters. If your intent is in alignment with this goal, I will always respond to the sincere request for help.

I am Esu "Jesus" Sananda. I am the Golden-White Light which wells up from within and is expressed as pure Love. I am your brother—NOT your God. Go within and take my "hand" and I will guide you to the "water" that will quench the "thirst" of your soul.

Blessings to you all. Salu!

I have a mission to see through to completion. I ask that you each go within and seek Inner Guidance on a daily basis until you find for yourself (first hand knowledge) that you are always connected and continually being Guided.

result of facing those challenges. I hold no grudge against anyone. I forgive all actions taken in spiritual ignorance. I welcome you all as my brothers and sisters, and I take no offense if you reject these words, or me personally.

FROM THE BACK COVER

"Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren't working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that's where this book comes into the picture. Yes, eventually 'the Phoenix will arise from the ashes' after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen.

"Just how we choose to deal with such change is THE question each of us must confront. Yet confusion swirls everywhere upon Earth at this time. And restless searchers cry out for that which may help them cope with these truly challenging times ahead. Thus these messages courtesy of our most loving Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation who are but further along the same spiritual path we all must eventually walk."

TELEPHONE

HOTLINE

805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
