Fishy Fed Frame-up, Or Anatomy Of A Money-Laundering “Sting”

Editor’s note: Attention and exposure is helpful via fax, letters, and telephone calls to the people at the end of this story to help protect George from “accidental” harm. This event may be part of a plan to have the “right” people in key positions before large Tsunamis begin to strike many coastal areas of the world in conjunction with greatly increased earthquake activity worldwide.

8/20/98 DR. PAUL KENYON
(Honolulu, Hawaii)

Target: Dr. George Pararas-Carayannis
An outstanding scientist and a caring family man

Employed for 25 years by the U.S. federal government in a cooperative United Nations scientific program, George’s reputation as an extraordinary scientist was well-known throughout the world. In 1991, when he was targeted for the first “sting” in Hawaii under a newly-enacted “money-laundering sting” statute, George was the Director of the International Tsunami Information Center under the auspices of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and the Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission.

Also, for many years, George had a part-time jewelry business, working evenings and weekends. He worked ardently and honestly to provide his teenage children with a secure living and, most importantly, with a good education. He was a single parent.

SUDAN AND AFGHANISTAN MISSILE ATTACK

From the INTERNET, 8/21/98: [quoting]

Here is an article from page 1 of The Australia today Friday 21 August 98 at 4:11 am Australian Eastern Standard Time, z + 10. So much for the US sources claiming it wasn't known until after the event?

Clifford M Dubery, 21 aug 98

The US was preparing to launch an imminent military strike against Osama bin Laden, the suspected mastermind of the US embassy bombings in East Africa, a senior Western military adviser said in Islamabad last night.

Mr. bin Laden is living in Afghanistan under the protection of the dominant Muslim fundamentalist Taliban militia and last night's prediction follows a directive by the UN advising all non-Muslim aid personnel to leave the war-torn country.

The directive, issued by UN headquarters in New York on Wednesday, follows the evacuation earlier this week of hundreds of US diplomats and their families from Pakistan.

"Some action is definitely going to take place," the senior military adviser said on condition of anonymity.

"The UN appears to be acting on the same threat appraisal as the US received."

Mr. bin Laden, a Saudi dissident who fled to Afghanistan in 1996, is wanted for his role in the twin bombings of the US embassies in Nairobi and Dar es Salaam that killed 247 people.

The adviser said the high risk of reprisals against Westerners in Afghanistan by the Taliban following a US strike prompted the unprecedented warning.

A UN spokesman in Islamabad said there were about 34 non-Muslim UN personnel in Afghanistan and about 80 workers with the International Committee of the Red Cross. No personnel had left yet, but all non-essential visits had been suspended.

Most other non-government organizations withdrew their workers last month following a stand-off with the Taliban over a directive to move their offices to a compound on the outskirts of Kabul.

Unconfirmed reports from Islamabad also spoke of the Taliban sealing the country's borders with Pakistan. [End quoting]

Again the elite are caught in their lie. Do we really believe anything they say? Remember, usually it's necessary to take the opposite of what they tell us to come near to the truth. The truth isn't part of them.

A SECRET MOVE TO EASE UP ON IRAQ?

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 8/17/98: [quoting] According to a shocking report in The Washington Post, the Clinton administration has surreptitiously interfered with the United Nations inspection effort in Iraq—pressuring the U.N. team in charge of determining the extent of Iraq's biological and chemical weapons capabilities not to mount surprise inspections.

The administration, you see, doesn't want trouble with Saddam Hussein. Well, it should get some trouble—from Capitol Hill. This is a matter so serious that Congress must take the matter up next week, before it adjourns. Secretary of State Madeleine Albright should be called to testify before the House International Relations Committee, chaired by New York's Benjamin Gilman, to explain herself.

Only nine days ago, according to the story, Albright telephoned chief U.N. inspector Richard Butler and urged him to cancel plans to mount two "challenge inspections" at sites where intelligence reports indicated they would find evidence of the secret Iraqi weapons programs and efforts to hide them.

The administration and the U.N. issued amazingly disingenuous denials of the story, both saying that Albright never "ordered" the U.N. inspectors to do anything—which she wouldn't have the power to do in any case. The phone call between Albright and Butler did take place—which is extraordinary in itself, given the discrepancy in their diplomatic standing. The two of them discussed "timing".

In other words, The Washington Post got it right. The administration has conducted an abrupt reversal of U.S. policy—and has done so in secret. America's Iraq policy was formed in the wake of a war that involved 500,000 U.S. troops. In exchange for being allowed to remain in power, Saddam Hussein agreed to surrender some of his sovereignty to the United Nations.

It was a stupid deal, but Clinton has decided to let a defiant Saddam Hussein off the hook while pretending to Congress, the American people and the world, that the administration is still an unconditional proponent of unconditional access to Iraq's military sites.

This would explain the mystery of the administration's failure to take action last week when the Iraqi dictator unilaterally put an end to inspections—despite the fact that the United States and Britain had promised an automatic military response if Hussein broke the last-minute deal made by U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan in February.

Rep. Gilman wrote Albright on Friday asking her to supply his committee with the internal guidance she gave to the U.S. official in closest touch with Butler and the inspectors.

That's fine as far as it goes, but it's not nearly enough. Clinton and Albright have apparently decided that the United States will accede to Saddam Hussein's possession of "weapons of mass destruction". For that irresponsibility, they should be made to answer—and the only way to get an answer, or to compel the administration to change course before things spiral out of control, is to call Albright before Congress this week. [End quoting]

Well, it looks like we have another hot potato to handle. How many more are going to be given to us before all hell breaks loose??—I mean literally!

IS THE U.S. BEING "RULED" BY PRESIDENTIAL/KING DECREES

Title 3—The President [Page 44121]

Notice of August 13, 1998

Continuation of Emergency Regarding Export Control Regulations. On August 19, 1994, consistent with the authority provided me under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), I issued Executive Order 12924. In that order, I declared a national emergency with respect to the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States in light of the expiration of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. App. 2401 et seq.). Because the Export Administration Act has not been renewed by the Congress, the national emergency declared on August 19, 1994, must continue in effect beyond August 19, 1998.

Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622[d]), I am continuing the national emergency declared in Executive Order 12924.

HEMP ACTIVIST APPEALS CHARGE OF CONTEMPT WHILE ON A JURY

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 8/17/98: [quoting]

The first juror convicted of contempt of court in over 300 years took her case to the Colorado Court of Appeals yesterday in a campaign to win legitimacy for the jury-nullification movement.

The three-judge panel heard arguments in the case of Laura Kriho, the hemp activist who was found guilty of criminal contempt in February 1997 after a judge ruled that she deliberately misled the court to gain a slot on the jury.

The court could take several months to rule on the case, which has become a rallying point for supporters of jury nullification. They argue that jurors should be permitted to weigh the legitimacy of the law before deciding the guilt or innocence of the accused.

"Jurors cannot be told what they must do in the deliberative process," said Mrs. Kriho's attorney, Paul Grant. "You can't have trial by jury where you throw out jurors who are independent thinkers."

Mr. Grant called her conviction a "frightening occurrence" that could leave jurors vulnerable to prosecution for acting on their beliefs. In Mrs. Kriho's case, she was summoned for jury duty in May 1996 in the trial of a 19-year-old accused of methamphetamine possession.

Mrs. Kriho, 34, was among the last jurors questioned, and prosecutors asked whether there was any reason she would be unable to render an impartial verdict.

She brought up a legal dispute with her contractor, but failed to mention her work for the legalization of industrial hemp and an LSD arrest 12 years earlier.

During deliberations, she argued in favor of jury nullification, saying the drug laws were unjust. Another juror sent a note to the judge, who declared a mistrial.

Two months later, Mrs. Kriho was charged with perjury, obstruction of justice and contempt.

Assistant Attorney General Roger Billotte said Mrs. Kriho had obstructed justice by refusing to elaborate on her background as a hemp activist, hoping to win a slot on the jury to push her political agenda.

"It's very clear that she's not revealing her opinions, her attitudes, her very strong feelings on jury nullification and drug laws," Mr. Billotte said.

Mr. Grant said the court should have questioned Mrs. Kriho in greater detail about her background instead of relying on her to decide what aspects were relevant.

"Mrs. Kriho forthrightly volunteered some information not required by the court, which was her most recent experience with the court. No one asked her anything else," said Mr. Grant. "If the court wanted more information, the court had to ask for it specifically."

He said upholding her conviction could undermine the legal process by encouraging prosecutors to pick "rubber-stamp" juries guaranteed of delivering convictions.

"What I disagree with is that we are requiring [courts] to remove all jurors who are suspicious of government power," said Mr. Grant.

Colorado Solicitor General Richard Westfall dismissed Mrs. Kriho's case as a "rare situation" that would have no effect on jury selection.

"This has only come up once in a very long time," he said. A fair and impartial jury is the cornerstone of the judicial system, he said. "If you have strong biases going into this process, you are not going to be fair and impartial," he said.

Mrs. Kriho was fined $1,200, which she has paid with donations from friends and supporters in the jury-nullification movement.

Experts believe the last time jurors were charged with a crime for failing to issue a guilty verdict was in 1670, when a jury was imprisoned and fined for refusing to convict William Penn of unlawful preaching.

Her case already has had an impact on Colorado courts, according to her attorney. "I know what's happening in Colorado today: Jurors are being asked, 'Have you heard of jury nullification? Do you believe in jury nullification?'" Mr. Grant said. "That is totally improper, and that is where this case goes," he said. [End quoting]

In original concept, a jury is supposed to be a most powerful assemblage of opinions who can nullify or modify laws as well as issue verdicts.

MARX LIVES

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

Unhappy Vermonters are learning just how left-wing their state's political elites really are. After the black-robed dictators on Vermont's Supreme Court claimed to discover that the long-established use of local property taxes for community schools was suddenly "unconstitutional", their pals in the legislature devised an obscene remedy based on Karl Marx's famous formulation, "from each according to his ability, to each according to his need". Known as Act 60, the new Soviet-style law redistributes property tax money from affluent towns to poorer ones so that families who worked and saved to send their kids to good schools won't be able to enjoy the fruits of their efforts. Affluent towns must now reduce their local school budgets and give as much as 70 cents of every property-tax dollar to schools in poorer towns. Vermont's Reds call it "justice". [End quoting]

I venture to say if the ones who don't like it would speak up, they could get the law rescinded. Other states best take heed because you're going to be added to the list if you don't get active in the prevention of this legalized socialistic robbery.

THINGS WE CAN LEARN FROM A DOG...

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 8/98: [quoting]

Here is some advice for everyone with hurt feelings. Pay close attention to the second to the last line:

- Never pass up the opportunity to go for a joyride.
- Allow the experience of fresh air and the wind in your face to be pure ecstasy.
- When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.
- When it's in your best interest, practice obedience.
- Let others know when they've invaded your territory.

- Take naps and stretch before rising.
- Run, romp and play daily.
- Eat with gusto and enthusiasm.
- Be loyal.
- Never pretend to be something you're not.
- If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.
- When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by and nuzzle them gently.
- Thrive on attention and let people touch you.
- Avoid biting when a simple growl will do.
- On hot days, drink lots of water and lay under a shady tree.
- When you're happy, dance around and wag your entire body.
- No matter how often you're scolded, don't buy into the guilt thing and pout—run right back and make friends.
- Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.

Peace to all [End quoting]

WHEN WEAKLINGS GET POWER

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

To achieve equality at all costs, the Massachusetts Youth Soccer Association is staging tournaments without keeping score. That means no winners and no losers. In addition, all players get "trophies" regardless of performance. The new rules are guaranteed to demoralize the skilled and talented kids while artificially sustaining the self-esteem of those too weak to endure even the loss of a soccer game. The rules are nutty beyond reason, but nonetheless appropriate in the new Bill Clinton/Jerry Springer/Ruth Bader Ginsburg era of affirmative action, mass immigration, homosexual TV shows and killers on parole. In Dallas to curry favor with the League of United Latin American Citizens, Bush praised English/Spanish bilingualism, and warned against "policy and rhetoric that will wall Mexico off from America". THE TRIUMPH OF AQUARIUS

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

The angry leftists who took over America's educational institutions in the fabled "Age of Aquarius"—the 1960s and 1970s—have succeeded beyond their wildest dreams. Thanks to the goofy progressive education reforms they implemented in the People's Republic of Massachusetts, 60 percent of about 2,000 college-educated candidates failed the state's teacher certification test. One third of the hopeful pedagogues couldn't even pass the basic literacy portion of the exam. People who criticized the poor performance of the college graduates were denounced by local left-wingers for "teacher bashing". [End quoting]

GOP PUSHES LAND CLAIMS ACT

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Aug. 1998: [quoting]

As Mexicans and other immigrant groups overpopulate the American southwest, Republican political leaders eager to maintain their federal perches are pushing legislation tailor-made to cultivate the resentments of what will soon be the country's largest minority group.

House Speaker Newt Gingrich, appearing at a news conference on the Mexican holiday Cinco de Mayo, denounced what he called a "historic injustice" allegedly inflicted by Americans on Spanish settlers more than 150 years ago, and endorsed pending legislation that he and other GOP leaders hope will convince the growing number of Hispanic immigrants to cast votes for Republican candidates.

He's backing The Guadalupe-Hidalgo Treaty Land Claims Act, which will create a commission to consider claims by Hispanics who believe their ancestors were "swindled" out of land after the Mexican-American War ended in 1848.

Gingrich's endorsement readily won applause from Raul Yzaguirre, president of the racist National Council of La Raza, a radical Hispanic organization funded in part by U.S. corporate wealth.

Yzaguirre understands why the GOP is pushing the legislation.

"To win elections, you need big states like California, Texas, and Florida, and you need some Hispanics to win those states," Yzaguirre said.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Bill Redmond, R-NM, who modeled it after legislation proposed by his Democrat predecessor, Rep. Bill Richardson, an Hispanic appointed by President Clinton as the U.S.

ambassador to the United Nations.

No one knows exactly how many land claim disputes the proposed commission would face, but a group representing the claimants has compiled a list of 316 claims in New Mexico alone.

Descendants of the Spanish settlers say their ancestors received land grants from the Spanish crown dating back to the 17th century. Jurisdiction over the land passed from Spain to Mexico after the latter's independence, and changed hands again after the U.S.-Mexican War through the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo. In that agreement, Mexico sold to the U.S. the territory that is now California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, and parts of Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico.

The claimants, who call themselves Hispanos, say the treaty was supposed to recognize the Spanish land grants, but that Americans "tricked" the owners out of thousands of acres of land, some of which is owned by the U.S. government as well as by private American citizens.

Yzaguirre told the Washington Post that the issue is a good one for the Republicans to use among Hispanic voters. Even though most are Mexican and not necessarily related to European Spanish settlers, they tend to identify their interests with the Spanish-speaking claimants.

"Yes, it is good for [the Republicans]," he said, because he thinks it reflects conservative values. "We're talking about the return of public lands to private hands. . ." [End quoting]

Again we find an example of the homogenization of the North American Continent, with the "wealthy" United States brought down to the levels of the countries which border her on the North and South.

RUBLE RUMORS HAVE RUSSIA IN TAILSPIN

[Dr. Al, 8/18/98: The news has now reported that Soros and his gangsters have already accomplished this.]

...Standard & Poor's, the international credit-rating services, downgraded Russia's foreign debt, which already had been ranked as "junk", or speculative. They also lowered ratings on some banks.

"The risk of currency devaluation has grown," Moody's said, adding that such a move "would have severely negative consequences" for the economy.

Also rattling the financial markets was a call by billionaire-investor George Soros for the government to devalue the ruble by 15 percent to 25 percent and to introduce a currency board.

"The meltdown in Russian financial markets has reached the terminal phase," he wrote in a letter published Thursday in London's Financial Times, an international newspaper. Soros' investment moves are closely watched on global currency markets...

... "The only normal way to respond to the market condition, the investors' panic, is to strictly implement the program we have approved," he said.

The IMF and other international lenders have fashioned a $22.6 billion bailout package for Russia. In exchange, they have demanded tough economic reforms, including better tax collection. [End quoting]

FISHER-PRICE ISSUING PARTS FOR CAR SEATS

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 8/18/98: [quoting]

Mattel's Fisher-Price division will provide replacement parts for 54,500 child car seats because of a strap adjuster that may loosen, providing less-than-adequate protection in a crash, a spokesperson said Thursday.

The model 79700 Safe Embrace Convertible car seat has a single Strap that adjusts all the others that go across the child's body. This strap may loosen if a spring shifts or breaks, said Fisher-Price spokeswoman Lori Oravec.

She advised owners to continue to use the seat but to check it each time to make sure the shoulder belts do not loosen.

"Under no circumstances should the seat be returned to the retailer," Oravec said.

Owners of the seats should call (800) 355-8882 to have a modification kit sent to them free of charge. Owners who have registered their seat with Fisher-Price will automatically have a kit sent to them. [End quoting]

Well worth checking your child car seats, don't you think?

WAS CLINTON SHOT??

From the INTERNET, 8/15/98: [quoting]

On the night of July 20th, 1998, Richard C. Hoagland gave a lecture at a fundraiser for Frances E. Barwood [political candidate running on UFO exposé ticket] in Tempe, Arizona. I attended that event. As part of his presentation, Hoagland told the audience that he had heard from 'reliable sources' that Bill Clinton did not "stumble on some steps at the estate of Greg Norman" on the night of March 13, 1997 ... the night of the Phoenix Flyover. That, Hoagland said, was a cover story. We recall that Bill Clinton was on crutches with his knee bandaged, and that he was sent to Bethesda Naval Hospital. Hoagland said that his 'sources' told him that immediately after the Phoenix Flyover on the night of 03-13-97, President Clinton was shot through the knee ... and all of the secret service agents with him at that time were murdered. Hoagland also said that his 'sources' told him that a special physical therapist was flown to Bethesda Naval Hospital to treat Bill Clinton. This physical therapist was chosen because he had "top secret clearances" AND because he had developed his own therapy regimen from the time he was young, for the treatment of gunshot wounds to bone joints. [End quoting]

I have no verification of this. Richard Hoagland is a well known scientist exposing government lies and especially NASA's lies, about our space program, to the public.

He has many very high contacts in government and business for information. He has been on TV and radio many times.

DOC SAYS CIRCUMCISION IS CRIMINAL

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy <John.Ray.1776@worldnet.att.net>, 6/7/98: [quoting]

An international symposium is recognizing one of Canada's top medical ethicists for her declaration that circumcising baby boys is criminal assault.

Dr. Margaret Somerville of McGill University was scheduled to receive a human rights award Wednesday at the fifth international symposium on sexual mutilations at Oxford University. The award recognizes her courage for stating last year that male circumcision is as ethically wrong as female circumcision.

Somerville's stand prompted a variety of letters and calls to her office at McGill University's Centre for Medicine, Ethics and Law.

"Either they love (her position), or they hate it," says her assistant, Eileen Parle, who opens the mail. "Some of the nastiest ones weren't signed."

However, support has come from surprising quarters, such as young Jewish mothers reluctant to see their son's foreskins sliced in a sacred rite among Jews. [End quoting]

It's about time some professional spoke out about this barbaric custom.

METHOD AND APPARATUS FOR TUNNELING BY MELTING

From the INTERNET, 8/13/98: [quoting]

If you like, you can download the article from my Alien Astronomer web site under Secret Projects: <<http://www.geocities.com/Area51/Shadowlands/6583>>

Hello:

In light of all the talk about the Tunnel and Reservoir Plan (TARP) by the EPA, which involves a much slower and more tedious process of excavating underground tunnels, I thought I would share with you a more efficient and evidently a highly guarded secret way of doing this.

To prove the reality of these more advanced Nuclear Subterrene machines, at the end of this message you'll find the patent. Gee, I wonder why they are more than willing to show us the old fashioned way of tunneling (TARP) rather than the much better hi-tech way of doing it?

If you're interested in learning more, go to my web site, click on Secret Projects and scroll down to Miscellaneous Projects where you'll find a great article on Nuclear Subterrenes. It's well worth a 5-minute visit.

The short message below, that was previously posted by the LATE Col. Steve Wilson, is just a taste of the article listed on my site:

Nuclear Subterrenes:

Robert Salter, of the RAND Corporation, has suggested building a subway from New York to Los Angeles magnetically levitated above the tracks. The trains would zip through the evacuated tunnels at speeds faster than an SST, crossing the country in less than one hour. Building such a train presents no special technological problems, but the cost of tunneling from coast to coast would. To be economically feasible, engineers would have to develop a new way to dig. The federal government's Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, in New Mexico, however, may have an answer to this challenge.

Called the Subterrene, the Los Alamos machine looks like a vicious giant mole.

The beauty of the Subterrene is that, as it burrows through the rock hundreds of feet below the surface, it heats whatever stone it encounters into molten rock, or magma, which cools after the Subterrene has moved on. The result is a tunnel with a smooth, glazed lining. For power, the Subterrene can use a built-in miniature nuclear engine or even a conventional power plant.

NOTE: I have seen this machine, and watched it in action. Normal rate of speed is approximately six and one-half miles per hour [emphasis mine] depending on type of rock, sand etc. —Col. Wilson

GOLDEN RULE ORGANIZATION— Children of the Law of One

Shangri-La Newsletter #2, August 14, 1998

Many of our readers are concerned that there will be a major crisis this fall. They aren't alone. Also, some people have suggested that a major solar event, or meteor shower may require underground living to survive. But what if nothing happens? It seems that it would make sense to be ready for either eventuality. But what is the point of physical survival? If not to have more time to spiritually grow and return to Oneness with God, or to be here to help others, there is no point.

While physical survival planning may be prudent, spiritual development should still be the first priority. No matter how good a physical survival plan you have, it can always go bad. And our bodies are all going to die some day anyway. But your spiritual development can never be taken away, and you can never lose it unless you choose to.

If you work hard and attain enlightenment, if the world as we know it doesn't come to an end, the worst that happens is the world gains one more saint. And if something does happen, and you survive, you'll be here to help others.

In any case, if you put your eggs in the basket of your spiritual body instead of your physical body, when the time comes you are free. Like the lyrics of the beautiful old Bread song If says, "if the world should stop revolving, spinning slowly down to die... Then you and I would simply fly away".

Whether or not unprecedented disaster strikes, natural disasters and emergencies are always occurring. It seems wise to have a "back to basics" lifestyle and skills. Growing food, putting up food, and having shelter that works during emergencies in which normal services are cut off, just make good common sense. This was demonstrated well during last year's ice storms. We heard one story about people panicking in markets. When all the bread was gone, one mother was hysterical and was screaming, "I have to have bread! My kids have to have bread!". The grocer suggested buying flour (which was still on the shelf) and making her own. The woman said, "Is that what bread is made of?"

That story tells me a couple of things. One, people should do some short-term fasting for self discipline and to demonstrate to themselves that they can survive quite a while without food. This drastically cuts down panicking in such emergencies as those mentioned above. Next, people need to learn the "basic" skills. We've become too disconnected from nature in the basics of life and living. [End quoting]

PHONE BILL "HIDDEN TAX" RESCINDED

The telephone companies have been adding a hidden tax to our phone bill under the label Universal Connectivity Charges. This supposedly is to wire all schools and libraries for the Internet—which was being done on a private donation basis. We did not vote for this tax and they were purposely trying to hide it on your bill by making you make a phone call to find out about it.

I have heard that there was enough flak over this "sleight-of-hand" that it has been rescinded.

Mark this down as another win—because enough people did something other than sit on their tails and complain.

GO FLY A KITE

From GUIDEPOSTS magazine, May '98: [quoting]

Just outside my window the trees were breaking into bud. In years past the sight would have sent my heart soaring. But that day, in the spring of 1992, my spirit was earthbound. Incapacitated for a year and a half with an undiagnosed illness that had crippled me, I had lost my job. For the first time in 23 years of marriage it had been necessary for my wife, Nadine, to take a job outside our home. That hurt. I was desperate to find a way to provide for my family.

I didn't even say hello when I heard my sons, Kyle, 20, and Lee, 24, arrive. Instead, I stewed at the unfairness of my situation. Hadn't I worked hard as an engineer, sometimes 80-hour weeks? Hadn't I started a prayer ministry? Served as an elder in my church? Why did I now feel so abandoned and forlorn?

Kyle came in and sat on the couch. "Dad, Lee and I have something we want to show you—a stunt kite. Why don't you come out to the lake and fly it with us?"

Fly a kite? When I shook my head in annoyance he gave me a pleading look. "Lee and I thought you'd enjoy flying a kite." He showed me the rolled fabric and the slender sticks he held. "C'mon, let's give it a try."

Somehow they convinced me to go. Soon we arrived at nearby Longview Lake. I used my cane to pick my way over patchy grass to a spot that was clear of trees and overhead power lines. The boys unfolded a lawn chair for me, and I settled back to watch.

What Kyle assembled was nothing like the old diamond-shaped kites I used to make from newspaper, wood dowels and twine. Instead, yellow and turquoise nylon fabric and fiberglass rods formed a sleek wing at least seven feet wide. The enticing contraption rattled in the light breeze as Kyle, holding a flying handle in each hand, pivoted to find the best launch angle. Suddenly the kite caught the wind and soared off like a living thing. Silently the thin lines spun out, and the kite swayed against the blue sky.

Kyle passed the flying handles to me. With the late afternoon Sun on my face, the wind at my back, and the kite tugging at its moorings, I forgot the searing leg pain that had become a constant in my life.

Seeing how I responded to the exercise and fresh air, the boys coaxed me out again and again. Sometimes Nadine and our daughter, Dawn, came along and we made a picnic of it. When they took me to a kite store, I met other enthusiasts. Soon we were going to kite-flying gatherings every weekend.

It was great to get out of the house, but I continued to be frustrated by my disabilities. If the wind was low I couldn't get a kite aloft; if the wind was high I wasn't strong enough to hold it. And even when conditions were ideal, sooner or later my kite would take a nosedive and the boys would have to interrupt their own activity to return downed kites to me.

Kiting was helping lower my weight and blood pressure; unfortunately, our finances were going down too. So I took on an at-home job assembling industrial electronic parts. For little more than minimum wage, I sat at my garage workbench hour after hour doggedly stripping, wrapping, soldering and cleaning widgets.

Visiting our local kite store one day, I learned that David Bui, one of the few friends I had made through kiting, was part of a group making plans to participate in the East Coast Stunt Kite Championships in Wildwood, N.J. I longed to go. I envisioned hundreds of kites dancing in the wind along the beach.

When I talked it over with Nadine, she had only one reservation: "How are you going to endure such a long trip?"

"I'm always in pain anyway," I said. "And I always feel tired. I might as well be that way on the road instead of here." Plus, something I couldn't quite explain was drawing me to Wildwood. My kiting friends and I took turns driving our minivan without an overnight stop. Nadine had packed food, and we made the trip in twenty-four hours.

An electric cart had by then replaced my cane. On the second morning of the festival I bumped along Wildwood's boardwalk and positioned myself about 200 yards south of the main activities on the beach. Only a few early-morning skaters and bikers rolled by quietly. A cool mist hung over the water and beach. I let my gaze stretch into the vastness of the gray-green ocean and azure sky and inhaled the brisk salt air.

Nearby, a team with twin stunt kites practiced a balletic routine as the surf lapped at their feet. The image made me think of Jesus walking on the water. What was it he had called to his disciples? "Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid." (Matthew 14:27)

I looked at the kites and my heart rose with them as a new lightness of spirit swept over me. I smiled. Being a corporate engineer never felt like this. The idea startled me: In despair over my crippling illness, it had been a long time since I had thought of myself as an engineer. I am an engineer, I thought, I can design a kite for myself and others who are disabled.

An idea began to form in my mind. I envisioned a kite light enough to be held by someone weak, someone unable to walk. This kite would have a guiding system, what kite people call a bridle, so precise that its flier could set it down on its wingtips and then relaunch from that position. A kite so responsive it could even be flown indoors, where a person restricted to a wheelchair or electric cart might be.

I looked at the expanse of the ocean. How odd that I, a man from Missouri who could barely walk, should find myself at the water's edge thinking of Jesus' urgings to be of good cheer. Am I crazy? God, have you brought me to New Jersey for this message?

We all were in high spirits on the way home. My mind raced with ideas and questions about building kites. For the first time, when I prayed I did more listening than talking.

A few months later I had a workable design for what I called my Synchro kite, but the problem of fabricating it remained. It would be of Icarex fabric, Spectra carbon-fiber spars—all so light as to feel like nothing weighed in the hand. Yet the cost of those materials was staggering.

Then a friend came forward and offered to buy the supplies if I would pay him with a kite. Another friend introduced me to a sewing-machine-shop owner, who told me about a machine that sewed not only the perfectly flat stitch I needed but other useful stitches as well.

My kiting friend David Bui helped me sew my first kite. When we took it outside the air was still and the leaves on the trees barely stirred. As other flyers stood waiting for a breeze, I gingerly played out some line—and when I gave the string a tweak the kite slowly rose in the still air, as if by magic.

A bystander I knew to be an experienced kite flyer approached, thumbs hooked in his overall straps. "How'd you get that thing up with no wind?" he asked.

"Lack of weight," I told him. "Its only four point four ounces."

"I want one like that!" he said. "Will you sell it?"

Excitedly I agreed. From that point on, as soon as I finished a new kite, someone always turned up to buy it. As others saw the kites flown, often indoors, word spread.

I now have orders for months to come, and my kites sell all over the world. The kites have won several championships, and one is on permanent display at the Japan Kite Museum.

I haven't regained my health, nor has my strange and painful malady been diagnosed. Yet, as far as I'm concerned, God has healed me. I love what I'm doing, and eventually my kite-making business will help support my family.

The marvelous serenity that visited me in Wildwood has remained. As a reminder of all God has done for me, I handwrite "I Corinthians 9:22" on each of my kites. ("To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.") That's where I am now ... weak, but strong. It's more than enough to keep me soaring. —Herb Weldon [End quoting]

Anatomy Of A Money-Laundering "Sting"

Why George? Across the world many people ask the same question: "Why was George targeted for a sting?"

To this date, this question has never been answered as George was not involved with any criminal activity to justify becoming the focus of an elaborate "money-laundering sting". The overall campaign against George was orchestrated by the U.S. Attorney's office in Hawaii. It is estimated that over 4 million dollars ($4,000,000) in taxpayers' money was consumed by federal authorities to conduct the elaborate "money-laundering sting" and subsequent prosecutions. No money-laundering ring was eradicated as a result of George's prosecution and "conviction", and no illegal activity was closed down because there was none to begin with.

POSSIBLE REASONS

Perhaps one possible reason is quite simple: George was readily available and an easy target for an "experimental application" of the newly-enacted "anti-drug legislation" and its accompanying "money-laundering sting" statute. (Abuse would be a better word.) These laws had never been used in this manner by prosecutors and federal authorities in Hawaii. With George having an office in the same building as the U.S. Attorney, the FBI, and other federal agencies, perhaps he seemed like an "easy target" to test the "sting" statute laws and provide federal authorities some experience with its "application".

Misapplication (abuse) of the "sting" Money Laundering Statute: Regardless of the nebulous targeting reasons, George was charged with violating the "money laundering sting" statute, 18 U.S.C. § 19 5 6 (a)(3). This is the only statute in the U.S. law books that allows federal prosecutors to fabricate a crime, create its evidence, and guarantee conviction, accompanied with high sentencing. Moreover, all this can be accomplished by federal prosecutors with very little work and without having to prove the elements of the "crime". In effect, this is a statute which allows for a relatively easy charge and conviction because the target does not need to be a person who is actually involved with any criminal activity, never mind if any laws are truly being violated. Almost anyone, conducting any normal financial business transaction, can become the target of a money-laundering "sting" prosecution and can be charged, arrested, and convicted for "laundering" the government's own money.

Since enactment of this statute in November

1988, many federal prosecutors have ignored Congressional intent and have gone "wild" with its misapplication. The ease of prosecution and the high sentencing levels appeal to them. Targets have included car salesmen, real estate agents, attorneys, politicians (of the opposition), First Amendment advocates, tax protesters, or anyone perceived remotely to be a threat to the established socioeconomic order. Targets are usually individuals from minority groups, people struggling to make a living and support families, individuals without resources to defend themselves. (Real criminals are much more difficult to target and prosecute.)

In so doing, some of these government attorneys have artificially created the illusion that "crime" is being successfully fought and eradicated. They are able to show high conviction records and that they are successful at their trade—largely because the targets are unsuspecting individuals, who can easily become framed for such "sting" operations.

George—An Easy and High-Profile Target: As a Director of the Hawaii-based International Tsunami Information Center (ITIC), operated as a United Nations scientific organization under international agreement, George's office and salary were provided by the U.S. government. George was a federal employee.

The office of the Center which George directed was on the fourth floor of the Federal Building, next to the the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), down the corridor from the Central Intelligence Agency's (CIA) Honolulu field station, and two floors below the U.S. Attorney's office. George had an "open door" policy.

It was quite common for other federal workers to "drop by" to say hello, to inquire about the Tsunami Center's activities, or to simply invite George out to lunch or for coffee. Among these "friendly" visiting co-workers were agents of the FBI, CIA, and other federal agencies.

HOW THE "STING" OCCURRED

One day, in early 1992, a female "undercover agent" using the assumed name of "Lori McEwan" telephoned George at his office. Mentioning that his phone number had been given by a mutual friend, she asked to meet him at a nearby park after work.

Government agent "Lori" claimed to be a Canadian from Vancouver getting financial help from "mom" and "dad" and also stated she was breaking up with her boyfriend, that she was financially stranded, and that she needed help in processing a few credit card slips from her newly started "business". "Lori" indicated that her friend had suggested that George be contacted because he had a part-time jewelry business and credit-card merchant accounts with American Express and Diners.

"Lori" asked George for the favor of processing a few credit card slips from her newly-started "escort service" and to give her the money when the checks from the credit card companies arrived. She represented to be in the process of opening a merchant credit card account of her own, that she had planned to advertise the "escort service" in the Yellow Pages, but that she had missed the February deadline. "Lori" informed George that her "escort service" was a legitimate business. As instructed by the government prosecutor, she made NO OTHER REPRESENTATION.

George Questioned the Legalties: George agreed to help, however, concerned that she was Canadian, he asked her for clarification of her immigration status, whether she had a work permit, and he questioned her on the legality of conducting a business in the United States. "Lori" was vague about a work permit and immigration status, but assured George that her business was legitimate and was registered with the State of Hawaii.

Essential audio recording crudely "erased": Subsequently, ninety seconds (90 seconds) of the audio portion of the recorded conversation from this first meeting were found to be erased from the surreptitiously obtained videotape—which served as the government's primary "evidence". "Television station interference" was blamed for the crude erasure which affected only the audio portion of the videotape pertaining to George's questions.

If this important audio recording had remained intact, George's statements and questions and Lori's answers would have nullified continuation of the government attorney's "sting", and no charges against George could have been fabricated. Unfortunately, the government attorneys had invested already a lot of time and taxpayers money. They did not want their "sting" to fail.

Government agents unsuccessfully tried to fabricate "work-related misconduct": Although the money-laundering "sting" was concluded after the second meeting, the government attorney further coached undercover agent "Lori" to continue on with other objectives of the "sting".

Government attorneys instructed "Lori" to help create "work-related" misconduct for the purpose of terminating George's government employment. On one occasion, undercover agent "Lori" and "her cousin Lisa, visiting from California", wired with a recording device, showed up uninvited and unexpectedly at George's office for a brief visit. Transcripts of the recording from all the orchestrated phone calls and that visit show the conversations to be of innocuous social nature pertaining to George's scientific research, functions of his office, and his children. Nonetheless, the orchestrated telephone calls and Lori's uninvited visit became the "evidence" of creating "nexus" for George's alleged, "work-related misconduct".

The elaborate "sting" operation included "Lori" encouraging further George to meet with her for lunch and dinner in restaurants and her mentioning she would introduce George to her parents who would be visiting from Vancouver, Canada.

Subsequent Indictment and Charges: Subsequently, George was arrested, charged, and indicted for "money laundering", alleging that he "believed" that he "disguised and concealed proceeds from some form of unlawful activity"—this meaning the few hundred dollars in credit card slips of the fictitious customers of the government's hypothetical escort service operated by "Lori".

Government agents succeed in having George suspended from his job: Shortly thereafter, and after 25 years of outstanding government service, George was indefinitely suspended without pay from his work as Director of the International Tsunami Information Center. The letter of suspension stated that this was necessary "to promote the efficiency of the service".

THE ARGUMENTS AT TRIAL

At trial, the government prosecuting attorney argued that George was not guilty of any underlying offense, therefore there was no need to prove that any such offense had actually occurred. There was no underlying offense. The underlying offense, a hypothetical, state petty misdemeanor was only "definitional" for the purpose of the sting. The government prosecutor claimed there was no need for undercover agent "Lori" to specifically inform George that her "credit card slips" were derived from any form of unlawful activity. Testimony of Government witnesses was allowed at trial that "all escort services are fronts for prostitution", therefore there was no need for representation of unlawful activity for conviction purposes.

It was argued by George and his attorney that such "representation" did not meet Due Process of the Constitution and was contrary to Congressional intent in legislating the money-laundering "sting" statute. Furthermore, an "escort service" business, such as that portrayed by undercover agent "Lori", was not illegal and that no state or federal laws had been violated. The Yellow Pages contained dozens of escort services, all advertising acceptance of credit cards. Furthermore, banks were routinely issuing merchant credit card accounts to escort services and were processing their proceeds,

ADDITIONAL DEFENSE ARGUMENTS

In his defense, George's attorney further argued that George had specifically asked "Lori" about the legality of her business. He pointed out that key sections of the audio recording which would have cleared George from any wrongdoing had been crudely "erased" and that contrary to the government attorney's claim, the crude erasure of George's key statements affecting only that critical portion of the conversation could not have been caused by "television interference".

IS JUSTICE "BLIND"?

Federal prosecutors argued that there was no need to prove "representation" of unlawful activity or that there had been any underlying state law violation, even a petty misdemeanor. The representation of an escort service was sufficient to convict George for "definitional" money laundering. Allegedly, George profited a total of $35 from this theoretical "money-laundering" transaction.

AFTER HOSPITALS AND HEART ATTACKS, NOW FACING PRISON

Subsequently, after he suffered his third and most devastating heart attack and underwent heart surgery, George was sentenced to 41 months of imprisonment and two additional years of probation. Two more points were added to his sentencing for "obstruction of justice". At trial, George had insisted that the government's evidence had been tampered with and that the jury should have been told that government witnesses were removing, illegally and daily, the court's admitted record, often during trial and while the court was in session, to the hotel room of another government witness, an audiovisual expert, which [room] had been converted into an electronic laboratory during the entire duration of the five-week trial.

For six years, since 1992, George has been detained in Hawaii under the direct authority of the federal judicial system. His passport has been taken and he has not been allowed to travel to visit sick members of his family or participate at professional scientific conferences. Now, six years later, and in spite of doctors warnings that imprisonment will result in George's death, the prosecutors, in trying to justify the waste of taxpayers money, insist on his imprisonment.

George's original schedule, for being imprisoned in January 1998, was postponed until after an essential operation was performed at Kaiser Hospital in Honolulu. In March, George was notified to report to the federal prison in Fort Worth, Texas, on April 16. This is the same facility known for many "prison deaths" and, most recently, where James McDougal of "Whitewater" fame died. McDougal, a man with a chronic heart condition "cared for" at that facility died of a "heart attack" while in "solitary confinement".

Korton: If Not You, Then Who Shall Lead?

8/13/98 KORTON

Good morning, my scribe. Commander Tomeros Maasu Korton here in Light and service unto Aton of the Creator Source, and unto you, my brothers and sisters. It is this condition of service unto others which is so absent from daily affairs on your planet and yet is so central to the spiritual good health of all. Fear has bound many from action and thus further darkened a most beautiful planet.

As world events heat up, more and more changes in your daily lives will be felt through those things in which you used to find comfort—as to stability of work, economy at the “middle-class” level, medical care security, police and military protection, and what you believe are quiet communities in which to unwind after your daily exertions.

Your adversary is giving you clues as to what they are doing and, make no mistake about it, friends, war will come to U.S. soil—not just claimed or borrowed pieces of land where your embassies sit—but right in your own backyards, streets, and neighborhoods.

No one will be unaffected by what is coming to pass. However, due to your efforts toward personal and individual family preparedness, and the efforts of others you deal with who are of like mind and interests, you can weather the coming upheavals in relative calm.

As with a fierce storm or “eye” of a great hurricane, lulls in the squall will come. Prepare yourselves sufficiently to be able to withstand initial storm “fronts”, and know that blue sky will come through. “Rays of Light” do eventually penetrate the murk and mire, and uplift the spirit. However, if you are not around to enjoy it when it happens, it makes no difference how long the space of time is between intervals.

Soon, as the effects of tampering and misuse of electrical conditions in your environment (that affect the weather) cause serious and drastic changes in weather patterns, sustained winds of 100+ M.P.H. will become the norm. Only hardened domed and below-ground dwellings can prevail under such conditions.

God’s precious creations (you) are indeed worth the extra precautions; do not allow your evil controllers of the EPC (Elite Parasite Class) to seduce you into a sense of false security. Go within and make your own determinations as to what the “news” is or is not telling you. Are you not freewill, thinking, reasoning beings? Or have you been convinced (conditioned) to let others do your thinking for you?

You are not children anymore as to capability of understanding what you are up against. However, your adversary is continuing to spoon-feed you lies and confusing half-truths—conditioning you into a feeling of helplessness in areas such as regards to “global terrorism” and your ability to handle it. Recognizing these things they distort, and the truth they outright keep from you, can mean the difference between life and death.

Right now the asleep ones comprise nearly 98% of your population. I would like to see many more of you awaken to your potential in time to help avert (or lessen) the impact of the plans of the manipulators. It can be done, chelas, and we can help.

“THOU SHALT MAKE WAR
BY DECEPTION”:
ISRAELIS BOMB AMERICAN
EMBASSIES IN AFRICA

In order to bring together a world under a global dictatorship, unspeakable acts of terror have to be staged for your consumption. The first wave of such terrorism is to come from earthly “enemy” nations and lone, wandering terrorists. These are ones who, from our vantage point, look a lot like HIGHLY TRAINED contract agents of Mossad, GRU (Russian military intelligence), CIA, MI-6 (British intelligence), etc. They are all merged into one group now.

The second and final terrorism wave is to falsely accuse your space brothers of evil deeds. These ones are here only to assist you as you go through a major transition of physical and spiritual proportions.

The staged extraterrestrial “threat” (AGAIN I STRESS: YOU HAVE NO ENEMIES COMING FROM THE HEAVENS TO EAT YOU OR TAKE OVER ANYTHING!) is to unify your planet under total and absolute control of the EPC of satanic beings, utilizing such as the “Jews” and a UN-type of umbrella organization.

Keep in mind that, as we tell of their plans for your enslavement, they will change those plans in order to continue fooling you—until such time as they can subdue the lot of you before enough realize in time to stop them. Historically speaking, “yesterday” it was Nazis and Hitler’s Thousand-Year Reich; today it is Zionism and the United Nations; “tomorrow” it could be any one of a dozen New World Order labels and machinery that all achieve the same thing. That goal is domination of you-the-people through deception.

Let us not forget the Mossad’s most revealing motto of “Thou Shalt Make War By Deception”. The Israeli government set up and carried out the bombings in Africa, together with their cohorts within your American FBI.

Did it not seem strange to you that, immediately afterwards, the sites were swarming with Israeli soldiers and “rescue workers”? The faces they presented on your television boxes could not conceal the disdain they feel for the Black people they have conspired to eliminate from your Earth.

Gentiles (EVERYONE not of Khazarian “Jewish” lineage) are non-human to these “Jews”—who believe they are the inheritors of your world. Moreover, Black “gentiles” are, to them, the lowest form of life of all. Then, next to the Black people, the FIRST ones on the list to get rid of are the legitimate “Jewish” people, labeled Judeans, from the tribe of Judah—with which the Khazar “Jews” (remember that the term Jew was not invented until the sixteenth century) share no historical or blood connection.

Why are these eliminations so important? Well, let us reason together a bit: The Khazarian Zionists do not wish it known that what is being done in Palestine (sanctioned by the British Crown and American fundamentalist religious leaders, regarding the rebuilding of King Solomon’s Temple in a place it never existed, and blowing up the Dome of the Rock Mosque at al-Aksa, igniting your “Holy War”) is perpetrated by the very “false Jews” your tampered Bible speaks of.

Moreover, when the Israelis sponsored a covert “rescue mission” (???!?) of Ethiopian Jews that lasted 45 days, between November 1984 and January 1985, called Operation

Moses, a U.S. Navy base in Sudan, Africa's largest country, was used to shanghai (kidnap) thousands of Blacks. They were rounded up in the middle of the night and flown out of their country, to Israel, where nobody has heard from or mentions them since.

What happened to them? They couldn't speak Hebrew (Judean) or Yiddish (Khazarian—purposely intended to be confused with the Hebrew language), and had no idea what was going on. Did these "Jews" suddenly believe the Blacks were their "soul brothers" and now offered to give them equal footing on their stolen lands and occupied territories in Palestine—even above their Christian benefactors?

Hardly! Those Africans, spirited away from their homes, are bond slaves being treated worse than the slaves who were brought to America. And by the way, who do you think was responsible for the slave trade in early America? The transoceanic portion was also a Jewish "operation", using mostly Jewish-owned ships and companies.

So, one might suspect the instant and ubiquitous presence, so quickly on the scene of the embassy explosions, of the Israeli soldiers and "rescue workers" was hardly of any humanitarian nature. The carelessly carried out search for survivors was more for "looks" than to painstakingly find people. However, you can be sure great efforts were focused upon "cleaning up" any incriminating evidence which Mossad agents may have accidentally left behind.

Funny thing, though, about "leaving no footprints". As is said in your spy cults, God seems to always have a way of making sure Satan leaves his clues for those who are supposed to find them.

Why am I focusing on the Mossad-Israeli groups as being THE major ones behind these atrocities, when there are others acting as accomplices? Because you ones seem to forget that YOU ARE ISRAEL'S CHIEF ALLY, AND IN THE EYES OF THE WORLD IT IS THE U.S. WHO WILL PAY DEARLY FOR THEIR CRIMES.

Always you turn a blind eye to the murder and state-sponsored terrorism blatantly carried out by the Bolsheviks who control the Israeli government, while touting that it is because they are "God's chosen" you should support their actions. Chelas, YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT ISRAEL'S ACTIONS ARE, much less what the rest of the world thinks of you for allowing AND SUPPORTING them with BILLIONS OF DOLLARS ANNUALLY—NO QUESTIONS ASKED!

Indeed, you look very foolish to those who are not under total censorship as you are in America—though you know it not. Does Larry King of Larry King Live (THE Zionist propaganda mouthpiece of the airwaves) speak of Frames, the secret Jewish "self-protection" units set up by the Mossad all over the world? How about Hets Va-keshet (meaning "bow and arrow") youth camps, which bring Jewish children to Israel for the summer and, after filling their heads with a large dose of militant Zionism, the Mossad sends them back as spies of the future? No? I thought not.

Has it filtered down through your Israeli-controlled major media about AIDS being genetically manufactured in Tel Aviv, Israel's second largest city and chief manufacturing center? Although AIDS (along with a host of other man-made PLAGUES) was created to thin the "goyim" herds—IT IS THE AFRICAN AND BLACK POPULATIONS which have been ravaged the most—SO FAR. (By the way, "goyim" is a Yiddish word meaning "cattle" and, in an only thinly disguised usage, is meant to denote "CHRISTIAN" in their secret writings of how they plan to do away with you.)

The Black race has played right into the hands of the 2000 Genocide Plan by allowing the major media to dictate sexual behavior and also by believing the perpetrated LIE that condoms help to prevent the spread of the disease. NOTHING CAN BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH!

AIDS is a retrovirus that replicates much faster than the common cold. That means YOU CAN CATCH AIDS EASIER THAN YOU CAN CATCH A COLD! And somehow an unimportant bit of information repeatedly gets left out of AIDS "education" teachings that this crystalline lifeform is small enough to "jump through" the natural holes present in latex condoms, surgical gloves, etc.

The only "problem" with AIDS is that it has proven to be a very lazy critter. There are at least 9,000 different versions of this virus and, unknown to you-the-people, NEARLY ALL THE WORLD'S POPULATIONS HAVE SOME FORM OF THE DISEASE! There are strains that kill you in a matter of weeks; there are some that take years to bring the body's immune system down to life-threatening levels; others just lie dormant until awakened through your complete neglect for your body's basic health needs.

That is why your medical "experts" are efforting to "regulate" (that is, remove) colloidal minerals and especially bug-killing metals such as gold, silver, copper, titanium, and the like, from your reach—so you have no recourse to counter what is being done to you. (For those of you who may not know about such things, colloidal "liquids" are comprised of finely divided particles of a material, like silver, suspended in a liquid medium, such as distilled water, from which the particles do not settle out rapidly and cannot be readily filtered. Due to the fineness of the particle size, colloids are efficiently absorbed and utilized by the body for rebuilding and sustaining itself.)

What words do you have for ones who sponsor and sanction such atrocities against mankind and are themselves capable of carrying out such wanton and indiscriminate acts? I would say humans whom you classify as falling under your definition of the word "evil" sums it up quite nicely. This is the adversary at work through the many puppets who operate under this dark control.

OKLAHOMA CITY BOMBING AND BOMBINGS IN AFRICA DONE BY SAME GROUP

The same methods employed to bring down the Murrah federal building in Oklahoma City—a truck bomb filled with ammonium nitrate as cover blast, high brisance (shattering power) charges placed on INTERNAL SUPPORT STRUCTURES, and in an attempt to flatten the entire building, PULSED-BEAM EQUIPMENT OUTFITTED IN HELICOPTERS HOVERING HIGH OVERHEAD—were repeated in Africa.

(By the way, has anyone found the 25 TONS of ammonium nitrate "missing" in America a week prior to the Oklahoma City bombing that has not been mentioned since? As with the "missing" stockpiles of biological weapons "discovered" in Virginia shortly before turning up in Saddam's backyard, someone is setting you up for a most hard fall. Pay attention, people, or you will miss clues that could save your necks!)

Ragtag "Arab terrorists" do not have the means for such an operation; we are talking about very sophisticated technology that is in the hands of only a few, and those few consist exclusively of intelligence agency experts who already have the equipment because they developed it—FOR JUST SUCH USES AS THESE!

Witnesses at both the U.S. bombing and in Africa describe a "back-and-forth swaying motion" of the building in the moments immediately before the BLASTS (PLURAL), as well as the presence of "mysterious, authoritative-looking men" in BLUE UNIFORMS prior to the explosions.

Another clue left behind by your adversary? Remember: Satan's workers must always wear a "mark" (clue). Moreover, the Khazarian element of the EPC is notoriously known for their Achilles' heel—that seemingly small but fatal weakness—in that, the more power they amass, the closer they inevitably "rise to the surface" of public visibility. Their massive egos cause them to want to literally advertise their s(l)ick accomplishments over their "inferior" gentile hosts.

In the cloak-and-dagger business, much is done through signals, props, gestures, and color cues—AND THE COLOR BLUE REPRESENTS THE BLUE TURBAN-FLAG OF ANTICHRIST PROPHECY IN YOUR "ENDING TIMES". Shades of UN-Israeli blue have been appearing quietly in your country for decades, usurping your own "red, white, and blue" symbolism from government and school building displays, post offices and post office vehicles. EVEN YOUR PREEMINENT AIRCRAFT, AIR FORCE ONE, SYMBOLIZING AMERICAN POWER AND INDEPENDENCE, FLIES UNDER THE COLORS OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND THE UN! HOW MUCH CLEARER DO THEY HAVE TO SPELL IT OUT FOR YOU CONCERNING WHO IS RUNNING YOUR NATION???

American rescue teams were ready within a couple of hours to fly to embassy sites BUT WERE MYSTERIOUSLY DELAYED FOR ALMOST 48 HOURS before being "allowed" to leave the U.S. Mossad operatives, posing as Israeli "rescue workers", and Mossad-trained FBI agents were on the scene FIRST TO MAKE SURE THEIR HIGH-TECH HANDIWORK WASN'T DISCOVERED, like they attempted to do at the Oklahoma site a few years before.

Isn't it possible that the federal-level conspirators responsible for the federal building bombing are not loyal Americans, but "card-carrying" foreign agents instead? Americans, just like you, could carry out such an act on your own wives and children and coworkers—but would you, really? And on such a scale?

Maybe, but it is more likely (and easier) to have ones carry out the job who HAVE NO LOVE OR AFFINITY FOR THOSE THEY ARE TO ASSASSINATE. That is why the BLUE HELMETS OF THE UNITED NATIONS troops are going to be brought in to enforce the global government structure on you nice citizens in the U.S.—because AMERICAN SOLDIERS AND NATIONAL GUARDSMEN AND WOMEN HAVE REFUSED TO DO SO. AND THEY HAVE EMPHATICALLY STATED SUCH IN NO UNCERTAIN TERMS!

United Nations troops are notoriously known for their brutality and utter lawlessness “in the field”, especially in the war-torn countries of the African continent. These MERCENARY soldiers, collected from around the world (as well as being manufactured in various underground locations), live for the “thrill and excitement” of the “kill”.

Do you think these “professional killing machines” will do all they can to peacefully resolve your street-gang disputes? How about noncompliant gun-owners with itchy trigger fingers, soon to be ordered to surrender all guns? I think not.

These soldiers are training—constantly—for the opportunity to test their skills against worthy opponents. If you feel you want to “volunteer” for the job of opponent, so be it. However, you should keep in mind that they have unlimited supplies and ammunition, as well as helicopters, tanks, armored personnel carriers, missiles, machine guns, laser and scalar weaponry, military-grade anthrax—shall I continue or do you so-called patriots get the picture?

What kind of “warrior” am I, Korton, if I speak of winning the war against your enemy, yet I say it can be done without using guns and violence? Simple: I am the kind who wins!

Whose side am I on? The side of Truth and Peace. I am of service to you ones who are brave enough to stand up and reclaim what was once a great nation, and intelligent enough to not fall for the traps which can get you killed.

Just remember to remain humble in the midst of your indignation, for all of you have been influenced by evil at some time. There is no one person or race responsible to single out and lay the blame at their feet. Satan uses whoever provides the greatest opportunity, at any given moment, to nab the rest of you.

Yes, the so-called minorities are at the bottom of the barrel, as most perceive it; but those whom “the oppressed” think are the ones holding them down, are in that barrel too—AND ARE JUST AS IGNORANT ABOUT WHO PUT THEM THERE.

Learn Truth and know your enemy, ye of the blind and lied-to flocks, for your enemy certainly knows who you are. “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge” is a statement from your Holy Book that should be considered most carefully.

Commander Tomeros Maasu Korton to clear, please. Salu.

Aton: Choosing To Become A Wayshower For Humanity

8/22/98 ATON, THE ONE LIGHT

Good evening, little one. It is I, Aton, The One Light. I am Creator. I am the Alpha and the Omega that make up the Infinite Sacred Circle.

You there in the physical are on a journey that begins and ends this infinite cycle. The experiences in between are the lessons of growth and responsibility that will bring you full circle. You will inevitably begin again another similar journey on other planes of “reality” and awareness. The journey is without limits and is TRULY infinite!

I have come to remind you ones of the responsibilities that you have accepted prior to coming into your current experience. There is an old and almost overused expression which states: “Many are called, but few are chosen.” All of you who are reading these words have been “called”! This is to say that you all are sensing, within, an inner sensation (indicator) of foreboding change and that this “change” is “somehow” important and the reason why you are there.

The experiences that are coming are an accumulation of past choices and decisions that you have either made yourselves, or you have accepted into your experience. Please note that the above use of the word “past” is not limited to your current life experience. You are responsible for ALL of your thoughts and there is no “time” limit on this responsibility.

I have great (infinite) patience with all of My creations. You each need one another for your growth, and you are all connected to one another through ME! When you each, as individuals, demand truth from yourselves first, and stop your inner deceit and denials (self-imposed limitations based on LIES!), you will be in a better mental space from which to observe and help others to do the same.

Truthbringers are ALWAYS rejected at first. ALWAYS! This is because they (you?) will cause ones to confront the inner lies which ones cling to in order to NOT feel responsible for the errors they have made. This is a strong and powerful emotional battle that ones must (and will, eventually) confront. As more and more of you ones face and confront your limiting beliefs (inner lies), you will stand as examples to your brothers and sisters who are more reluctant to do so.

Your actions will speak in terms and in a manner that words will not be able to describe. You will, as a result, be able to control your own physical and emotional states, for there will not reside within you the fear-based reactions of the primitive ego-self. These inner fears are the subtle apprehensions that cause you to hold back (restrict) the natural flow of My energy, both to you and through you.

Take a look around you when you are out among “strangers”. Do you see the majority of ones smiling? Do they make eye (the “window” to the soul) contact with you?

The majority of your population has been suppressed emotionally and physically to a point of near spiritual starvation. There is a great need to remind many ones that it is THEIR responsibility and THEIR challenge to overcome such programming (mind control).

You, as potential guides and wayshowers, have chosen to participate in such a capacity as to overcome the perceived limitations of your past, so that you can stand up AS EXAMPLES for the world to see. This is the most effective means possible of teaching!

How many of you find yourselves in “bad” health? Do you not see that it is because of a persisting out-of-balance inner condition? MORE BLUNTLY: YOU ARE HOLDING ON TO ANGER, GUILT, FRUSTRATION, FEAR, AND SUCH TO A POINT OF NEAR DISCONNECT FROM THE NURTURING (BALANCING) ENERGY OF MY LIGHT (LIFE FORCE) THAT COMES FROM WITHIN.

If you cannot "save" yourself, then are you not "choosing" to not participate at this time? Can you rid yourself from the inner negativity generated out of the fear of being wrong? You cannot be a victim without first agreeing to play the role of the victim. In truth, there are NO victims! If you choose to wallow in the misperception that you are less fortunate than another, or less educated, or less able in some way than another, then you are indeed holding onto the inner LIES!

NONE ARE LESSER THAN ANY OTHER! HOW COULD SUCH BE WHEN ALL ARE CREATIONS OF MY THINKING?!

The ones who appear to have greater abilities are the ones who simply do not hold onto the same limiting beliefs about self as those who constantly limit themselves. You are all borne of MY perfection! I created you uniquely so that you would see, within one another, examples of infinite possibilities.

YOU ARE ALL MAGNIFICENT AND POWERFUL BEINGS WHO ARE EFFORTING TO RECOGNIZE AND UTILIZE THIS INNER POWER!

I am calling upon each of you to go within and find those beliefs which limit you. When you catch yourself saying anything that means "I can't...", then realize there is a LIE behind such words. All of the rationalizations with which you may want to "argue" are based upon not wanting to accept the fact that you may be wrong in your limiting beliefs about self.

YOU CAN DO ANYTHING—if you simply get out of your own way long enough to allow MY energy to manifest within and subsequently flow through you, out into the manifested universe that I (WE) create.

I monitor the response (in many cases REACTION) to these words. PLEASE KNOW THAT IT IS INDEED THIS SIMPLE!

You are taught to believe that it is difficult to become empowered (enlightened). The correction mechanism is to simply observe any limiting beliefs, and then replace them with empowering (truthful) ones.

However, many of you place such great emotional certainty and energy into the lies that it literally pains you to have to admit you may possibly be wrong. So, for you "bound and shackled" ones, it will simply be easier to say: "This does NOT apply to ME, because I don't have any limiting beliefs!"

YOU ALL HOLD ONTO LIMITING BELIEFS TO SOME EXTENT! Else you would not be in the physical, efforting to overcome them.

All of you who are participating in a physical body have chosen to participate in such a manner because YOU need to work on an area of understanding and responsibility that you have been less than successful in MASTERING so far. MORE BLUNTLY: YOU HAVE ERRORS OF THOUGHT (BELIEFS) WHICH LIMIT YOUR UNDERSTANDING AND ABILITIES TO MANIFEST AND MASTER YOUR TRUE CREATIVE POTENTIAL.

So, if you feel that this message does not possibly apply to you, then KNOW that you are the one WHO NEEDS IT THE MOST!

I CALL UPON YOU EACH TO REMEMBER AND AWAKEN TO YOUR

PURPOSE IN BEING HERE AT THIS TIME!

WILL YOU BE THE ONE WHO GETS UP OFF YOUR DEATH BED AND SHOWS THE WORLD THE INNER POSSIBILITIES OF CONNECTING WITHIN?

WILL YOU BE THE ONE WHO STOPS SAYING "I CAN'T" AND STARTS DOING THE "IMPOSSIBLE"?

YOU are the ones who choose to participate! Will you be among the "few" who are "chosen"? The choice is yours, and you will have to also choose to pull self up out of your own misperceptions and limiting beliefs.

In doing so, you will recognize that which YOU CAN DO to help. If you refuse to help yourself, then you will surely be looking in the wrong places for your "answers" and you will surely miss your opportunity to assist your brothers in need.

ALL of the answers to ALL of your questions lie within YOU. Will you recognize this FACT or will you deny it and hide behind your own irresponsibility?

I am Aton, THE ONE LIGHT! I am Creator God. I am the One who created YOU! I know you each, as I know Myself. We are ultimately One in the same.

I love and cherish you each. I know and feel your heart intent and desires.

Blessings to you all! Salu!

The Shocking Case Against Vaccinations

Editor's note: You may have heard recently on Art Bell's late-night talk-radio program that a large number of military around the world are now refusing vaccinations. In light of that news and an anthrax "scare" in Kansas this past week, we thought this would be a good time to re-run a most shocking article from the 1/31/95 issue of CONTACT.

1/25/95 #1 HATONN

CLINTONISTA COVENANT

Now the Democrats have taken another of the usually goodly terms and destroyed its original meaning. Perhaps you don't see it in the same light that I witness but, nonetheless, I wonder if you will ever get fed up enough to see that you cannot change the parasitic group of leeches in the feeding frenzy. A "covenant" is naught but a "contract". However, Clinton spoils the word for, when he says: "Covenant WITH the American people", what can he MEAN? You have made no contract WITH him—or have you? You voted him in? No, he failed the election test—"they" just "fixed" the election. They will do it again, every time. A one-sided proposal—in political circles is dictatorship. In this instance it is NOTHING—period.

I am going to push right on with my subject however, because Clinton DOES PROMISE to also get all your children and the population as a whole—immunized. God have mercy on your sleepy heads.

Since our writings are based on the subject of serums and inunctions in THE AGE OF TREASON, I will share some "other" opinions. I realize our original topic is not limited to this subject but it becomes far more interesting and worthy to allow other than one viewpoint.

In this particular case I will offer the Introduction from a book called VACCINATION, by Viera Scheibner Ph.D., copyright 1993, New Atlantean Press, P.O. Box 9638, Santa Fe, NM 87504, 505-983-1856. (Published in Australia). Dr. Scheibner: "This book is dedicated to those babies and their parents who suffered from vaccination." Certainly Goethe was correct when he observed that "Boldness has genius, power and magic in it."

There is another volume of work which I recommend to EVERY parent (actually, every person), MEDICAL HERETIC, by Dr. Robert Mendelsohn, Practitioner and Professor of Pediatrics. He honestly states: "I do not believe in Modern Medicine. I am a Medical Heretic ... I haven't always been a Medical Heretic; I once believed in Modern Medicine." This is truly one of the most IMPORTANT BOOKS EVER WRITTEN.

There are many bold writers and I am amused at my secretary who says: "Yes, and it is good thing that you (Hatonn) are an 'angel of sorts' because you certainly tread where we mere mortals would be too wise to go..." I am in GOOD company, however: try MURDER BY INJECTION by Eustace Mullins. You will again see that over and over and over again THE SAME PARASITIC FLUKES ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEATH OF YOUR SPECIES AND CIVILIZATION.

IMMUNIZATIONS AND HYPER-ACTIVITY

I am offered a petition from a precious friend who is having great difficulty with a child (school age) who demonstrates learning disabilities because of hyper-life activities. The child is extremely bright but too hyper to allow learning or allow anyone else any peace who happens to be around him. This, placed together with other underlying PROBLEMS of emotional nature, makes it all but impossible to deal with the child(ren) in almost any setting. I am asked if there is “something” among our helpers to HELP? Specifically, no. The damage happened right along with the immunizations. There are millions of children in varying stages or levels of REACTION to those required immunizations. You not only give ONE—but several at the same time which in itself causes interREactions. Then you make it on through a bit longer with no major life-threatening seizures—but in many, many cases the brain electric is reacting constantly. This keeps a child or adult right on the “edge” all the time—and even during sleep the brain is being triggered more and more constantly causing dream distortion and causing people to become socially unacceptable in their behavior patterns—but unable to change or cope properly. This is nervous system damage which is sometimes outgrown if toxins are reduced or removed—but the usual approach is to continue to compound the problem by ongoing “health” requirements. I don’t know what to tell you frantic parents other than to try to keep your own sanity, remove known irritants and offer emotional stability. This is a blast because the parents of these children are about to emotionally destruct already. IT IS BUT PART OF THE EVIL PLAN TO TAKE YOUR WORLD AND ROBOTIZE YOU PEOPLE. IN ALL INSTANCES OF HYPER-ACTIVITY, HOWEVER, I RECOMMEND INCREASED SUPPLEMENTS OF CALCIUM/MAGNESIUM/ZINC. SOMETIMES THE GOOD RESULTS COME IN LESS THAN TWO DAYS. You cannot longer get along without supplementation—the chemical bombardment against the body from everything from sugar bars to imitation soup are working diligently AND EFFECTIVELY AGAINST YOU.

Here comes a problem, however, for you are GOING TO HAVE TO CLEANSE THE BODY OF PARASITES FOR THE PARASITES ARE THE CARRIERS OF THE IRRITANTS. This is difficult in children because they will refuse to take the nasty substances such as wormwood. I suggest that you drop the wormwood and use increased (by double) the walnut extract or tincture in Gaialyte (or juice mixed with an electrolytic solution like Pedialyte). YOU MUST CLEAR OUT THE CONTINUOUSLY REPRODUCING PARASITES, ESPECIALLY THE FLUKES, WHICH LATCH ONTO THE VERY BRAIN ITSELF.

I am telling our crew to GET THE PRODUCTS!! I shall wait no longer—this is too important to forever be in waiting for the perfection of our own product if it cannot be obtained timely. I do not need to write further on it—you are capable of putting together a program but it must be NOW. The sensitivities in coalition with the pulse frequencies are going to blow you out, readers. THE ATTACK IS ON. WORSE, THE ATTACKS ARE FAR MORE INTENSE ALONG COASTLINES AND MAJOR FAULT LINES.

Readers, if you are planning to be moving [changing locations] physically, now is the time to seriously consider same if you live in major cities or near fault lines. The game is getting very serious indeed and things are going to be happening which will be devastating. Cities are going to be the WRONG place to be, very soon. THE WAR TO CAPTURE YOUR MINDS IS UNDER WAY AND THE ENEMY OF MANKIND WILL USE EVERY DIRTY WEAPON THEY HAVE. AND NO, THE PROOF OF OUR PRESENCE IS NOT IN “FIXING” IT—IF IT IS FIXED, YOU WILL FIX IT!

FORWARD

Dr. Peter Baratosy, M.B., B.S.: Fifteen years ago, when I graduated from medical school, I would have been surprised to be writing a forward to a book against vaccination. I was a conservative orthodox doctor just off the medical school production line. I have changed greatly. My ideas have changed. Like Dr. Mendelsohn I have also become a medical heretic. The more I read and study, the more I believe that medicine is heading in the WRONG direction.

I am not denying that modern medicine has done some marvelous things—acute emergencies and trauma management are unparalleled, but that is where its usefulness ends. Modern medicine is trying to control Nature. This is totally wrong—we should be working with Nature.

Medicine today is CONTROLLED partly by Government bureaucracy but mostly by the influence of the pharmaceutical multi-national corporations. No wonder that any move away from the status quo is being resisted.

This book has come at a critical time in the history of medicine. A time of change. The population is now better educated, more informed and making their own decisions about their own health. This change, this revolution, is not from the top but from the base, that is, the people, and it is slowly filtering upwards.

People are no longer blindly accepting what is told to them by doctors. More are asking questions, more are gaining information, more and more are turning towards natural therapies (working with Nature) because of disillusionment with orthodoxy.

Vaccination, until recently, was a one-sided story: “Vaccinate or die” seemed to be the catch-cry of the orthodoxy. Some began to question this.

There was a gut feeling amongst many that vaccination was not as safe or as effective as claimed.

This book is the culmination of years of research. Dr. Viera Scheibner has hunted through thousands of articles, read between the lines, reviewed the raw data—all of this information published in orthodox medical journals—and has found facts that piece together to form a terrifying picture. What was thought to be safe—isn’t.

This book has the references to back the case against vaccination.

Any parent who is concerned about the safety and effectiveness of vaccination, and who is concerned about the welfare of their children, should read this book. It is ultimately the parents of the children who should decide whether to vaccinate or not. This decision must be made only when the parents are fully informed.

After reading this book, I feel that more and more people will decide against vaccination. Peter Baratosy, M.B., B.S.

[H: There is no way of which I am aware to reach out and REALLY touch you and bring you into the consciousness of the moment wherein you are! You are trained to go passively about doing whatever is ordered that you do, and in that “doing” you believe that you are both caring for your child and self (“or ‘they’ wouldn’t order it..”) or you simply don’t KNOW or don’t give a damn. In the latter instance it is the “DUMBING OF CIVILIZATION”. This is wherein you “just do it” for any number of miserable excuses—number one, in the poorer people, to stay on assistance so that you can “make it”. This just continues the downward spiral into final “moronization” (per Fichte and Bertrand Russell) and the plan of the PROTOCOLS OF ZION that is, THE PLAN FOR THE ONE/NEW WORLD ORDER.]

AUTHOR’S FOREWORD

On 12th October 1985 my life changed profoundly. On that day I met Leif Karlsson, a biomedical electronics engineer specializing in patient monitoring systems. After only a few hours’ acquaintance, on learning of his professional specialty, I asked him to develop a breathing monitor for babies.

He said yes.

One year and one day later, the first Cotwatch went to the first parents wishing to monitor their newborn baby’s breathing. We had decided to rent the first 150 units and to keep in close contact with the parents who used them. Soon, some twenty units were out there working and some time later parents started ringing us to report that the Cotwatch was sounding alarms.

A few questions soon established that alarms occurred at certain hours while babies were deeply asleep. Clusters of five to seven short alarms sounded within about a 15 minute period. These occurred after the baby had been exposed to stress, or happened a day or two before the child went down with a common cold or cut its first tooth. An important fact about the vast majority of these alarms was that the babies had not actually stopped breathing, but, rather, were breathing very shallowly. In most cases no intervention was needed to interrupt the type of breathing that triggered the alarms as the babies spontaneously resumed normal (deeper) breathing.

All new parents who monitored with Cotwatch were given a questionnaire on which to record all alarms for two weeks. By chance, 28 of the monitored babies were ‘near-miss’ (babies who stopped breathing, were found in time and successfully resuscitated). A further 22 newborn babies were monitored by choice of the parents.

Records by parents of near-miss babies showed substantially higher numbers of alarms compared with the number of alarms reported for newborn babies. We realized that the alarms were an important indicator of stress level in the babies.

We concluded that when babies are under stress (whether due to insult or while cutting teeth or incubating illness), their breathing changes to what we named the stress-induced breathing pattern and they experience episodes of low-volume breathing in clusters at critical hours while asleep.

We could not find a pediatrician who would undertake independent research to elucidate and further develop our ideas, based on the initial observations with Cotwatch, so we decided to do the necessary data collection and research ourselves.

It was a long and rocky road to travel. One task was development of a microprocessor-based breathing monitor, to ensure that the data collection was completely objective and scientific. It took over six months' full-time work before we were able to produce computer records of babies' breathing.

Without endeavoring to do so specifically, we recorded the breathing of babies before and after they were vaccinated. The pattern of breathing that emerged over the days and weeks was extremely interesting and highly significant. It showed that babies' breathing was affected in a certain characteristic manner and over a long period of time following diphtheria-pertussis-tetanus (DPT) injections.

At this time, (1988), we did not know that the merits of vaccination were being hotly debated and we did not know that a lot of evidence on its dangers and ineffectiveness had been published in very reputable medical journals. We saw only that DPT vaccinations caused babies a lot of stress, reflected in sometimes major flareups of stress-induced breathing over a period of at least 45 to 60 days following the injections. The dynamics of these flareups showed a remarkable uniformity: even though the amplitude of the flareups differed, the days on which they occurred following injection were the same.

Pediatricians to whom we showed our first records pointed to the arrow indicating day-zero (when DPT injection was administered), and commented without hesitation: "This is the CAUSE." Then pointing to the summaries of stress-induced breathing patterns over several days, each unflinchingly followed with "This is the EFFECT." They, of course, knew that the day-zero arrow indicated the DPT injection.

We also learned from parents who monitored a subsequent child after a cot death that most commonly the previous child had died after DPT injections and we felt we had to address the issue. However, when we approached a few pediatricians with this observation and conclusion, we realized that we had touched a very sensitive and contentious issue. Once again, we were forced to start our own search for the truth.

Several years later I had collected just about every publication written on the subject of the effectiveness and dangers of vaccines. Supported by data from our continuing research with the Cotwatch breathing monitor, I decided to write a concise and brief summary of my literature search, reviewing the many thousands of pages of scientific journals and other publications I had studied.

I did not find it difficult to conclude that there is no evidence whatsoever that vaccines of any kind—but especially those against childhood disease—are effective in preventing the infectious diseases they are supposed to prevent. Further, adverse effects are amply documented and are far more significant to public health than any adverse effects of infectious diseases.

Immunizations, including those practiced on babies, not only did not prevent any infectious diseases, they caused more suffering and more deaths than has any other human activity in the entire history of medical intervention. It will be decades before the mopping-up after the disasters caused by childhood vaccination will be completed. All vaccination should cease forthwith and all victims of their side-effects should be appropriately compensated.

INTRODUCTION

If you raised the subject of immunization with any medical doctor they would probably tell you that vaccination is the most effective intervention of modern medicine which prevented more suffering and saved more lives than any other medical procedure.

They would also tell you that the demise of epidemic diseases like small pox or polio is one of the success stories of mass vaccination programs. However, this claim is totally unsubstantiated.

The documented truth is that the incidence of and mortality from any infectious diseases which used to decimate populations of Europe only some one hundred years ago declined by up to 90% BEFORE any vaccine has been used in mass proportions. Also, diseases, like bubonic plague or scarlet fever, disappeared without any vaccination programs at all. The mortality from the dreaded diphtheria declined decades before Corynebacterium diphtheriae had even been discovered and isolated.

Immunization against diphtheria was introduced in 1932-35 and on a mass scale in 1940, by which time the annual death rate was negligible (less than 300 deaths per million). It is amply documented in medical literature that this mass vaccination was followed by unprecedented diphtheria epidemics—in fully vaccinated subjects.

The 1940s saw also the introduction of mass vaccination against tetanus and whooping cough which in many countries, including Australia, led to outbreaks of the so-called provocation poliomyelitis.

In 1950 Dr. McCloskey published evidence that there indeed was an association between administration of pertussis and/or pertussis-diphtheria toxoid and provocation poliomyelitis within one to ninety days after the injections. The majority of paralysis occurred in the inoculated limb. Leake in England reported cases of poliomyelitis closely following pertussis vaccination administered within days before the onset of symptoms. This is the same famous polio epidemic of 1949-50 which is used to push parents into vaccinating their children, especially against polio. The provocation poliomyelitis is a well-known phenomenon which may follow administration of any vaccine, but especially DPT and polio. It is officially admitted that all cases of polio in the US, since the introduction of the vaccine, are caused by the vaccine. The same has been seen in Australia and other countries like England. So the occurrence of the same phenomenon all around the world would be asking too much of coincidence.

The truth about polio and smallpox vaccines is that they are heavily contaminated with animal viruses, being produced on monkey kidneys and calves respectively. This gave us AIDS which started in central eastern Africa in those states where the WHO (World Health Organization) conducted the eradication campaign against smallpox and polio. The batches of vaccines used here were heavily contaminated with both SV 40 and SIV (Simian Immuno-deficiency Virus) and bovine retrovirus, another AIDS-related virus. One syringe was used on 40 to 60 people and contributed to the spread of AIDS to hundreds of thousands of innocent unsuspecting people. It is beyond coincidence that the present raging epidemic of AIDS is affecting mostly those states where the polio/smallpox eradication campaign was conducted.

It should not come as a surprise that a new syndrome of immune incompetence or immunosuppression developed in babies too. High incidence of child leukemia and cancer has been linked to vaccines by many authors who attributed this to inappropriate antigenic stimulation provided by vaccines and to the presence of contaminating SV40 virus. Respiratory syncytial virus, or more befittingly, the chimpanzee coryza virus, causes lingering upper and especially lower respiratory tract disease in babies. These are only the viruses which were discovered and are now, perhaps, looked for. [H: No, they were manufactured.] What about the myriad of other, unknown animal viruses lurking in the vaccines?

It has also been documented that vaccine against tuberculosis had no impact whatsoever on the incidence of the disease, which is essentially a disease of malnutrition and overcrowding.

The best evidence of ineffectiveness of vaccines comes from two facts: firstly, such deadly diseases as bubonic plague disappeared without any immunization programs, simply because of better sanitation and nutrition and uncrowded life styles and, secondly, the countries which do not vaccinate against certain diseases, like pertussis, report amelioration of the disease and the incidence which compares favorably with the incidence of whooping cough in those countries which claim an almost complete pertussis vaccination cover. West Germany's Hamburg enjoys freedom from vaccination push since 1962 without the incidence of infectious disease exceeding the incidence in countries that claim more than 90% vaccination compliance.

In 1975 Japan raised the minimum vaccination age to two years; this was followed by the virtual disappearance of "COT DEATH" and infantile convulsions. Sweden stopped vaccinating against whooping cough in 1979, due to ineffectiveness of the whole-cell vaccine and adverse effects which far exceeded the adverse effects of the whooping cough illness. After trialing two Japanese acellular pertussis vaccines, Sweden rejected these also, and for the same reasons.

While studying thousands of pages written on vaccines I have not found a single paper which would demonstrate that in epidemic situations only unvaccinated children contracted the diseases. Even during vaccine trials many children contracted the disease against which they were vaccinated, often within a few days. Although the initial target of all vaccination programs was to eradicate the infectious diseases like whooping cough, polio and measles, when it became all too painfully clear that it is an unrealistic goal, the proponents of vaccination started telling parents and the public that at least the vaccines alleviate the disease.

Not even this is true. Not only diseases like whooping cough can affect seriously both vaccinated and unvaccinated children (based on hospital admissions), but there is a new disease—atypical measles—which is an especially vicious form of measles only affecting vaccinated children and has a considerable mortality rate.

After studying the extensive literature demonstrating ineffectiveness of vaccines and their dangers, I concluded that the call for suspension of all vaccination programs is not inevitable.

Instead of relying on a “magic bullet” (one injection solves it all), the orthodoxy should start learning the dynamics and importance of infectious diseases and effective treatment. It is absurd to set out to eradicate infectious diseases which play an important role in the maturation of the immune systems of our children.

It has been documented in medical literature that people who contracted cancer and other chronic degenerative diseases in later years have remarkably few infectious diseases of childhood to report. A proper development of rash during such infectious diseases as measles is apparently important for the prevention of cancer and other serious disease in later life.

The sordid story of vaccination programs reveals the enormous gaps in the knowledge base of the orthodox medical establishment, especially a profound lack of knowledge of the dynamics of health and disease and functioning of the human body. It is this same medical industry which enjoys the protection of the institutions of the State in most industrially developed countries.

The attention of medical professionals and the State should turn to such scientific medical systems as homeopathy which is not only based on sound knowledge of human physiology but also on a profoundly scientific knowledge of the healing processes and the testing of thousands of specific remedies. It should concern us all that scientific healing systems like homeopathy or naturopathy enjoy a substantially higher rate of success and a substantially lower rate of side-effects from their remedies than do those of allopathic medicine. The cost effectiveness of these, today still called ‘alternative’, medical systems is another good reason for the State to look seriously into them as viable alternatives to play an important part in the national health system. [H: God forbid!]

THE VACCINATION HYPOTHESIS— HOW ARE THE VACCINES SUPPOSED TO WORK?

According to orthodox medicine, the purpose of vaccination is to eradicate infectious diseases. These diseases are considered bad and a nuisance, rather than the way Nature primes and challenges the immature immune systems of our children. “Measles is misery” scream the posters in doctors’ surgeries and try to tell you that one injection will do away with the problem. They do not tell you that measles and other infectious diseases of childhood have AN IMPORTANT ROLE TO PLAY.

A group of Swiss medical doctors formed an action group which questions the MMR (measles, mumps, rubella) vaccination of children. In their 18-page document they write that in a famous pediatric clinic in Basel until recently (1969) they used to induce measles in children with serious renal diseases (nephritic syndrome) as a means of healing or at least improving substantially the condition.

Auto-immune diseases like asthma, lupus erythematosus or eczema also either disappeared or greatly improved after the child contracted and overcame measles.

They also questioned the wisdom of relentlessly trying to suppress natural expressions like fever instead of recognizing its importance in the natural healing process. Also, [regarding] infectious diseases of childhood is a well-documented fact that the immune system must be primed and challenged in young individuals if it is to function properly and protect the individual against the far worse auto-immune disease of later life, such as cancer.

All medical systems—except orthodox or allopathic medicine—look at the human (and animal) body as a whole and interconnected system. Homeopathy understands disease as a need of the body to rid itself of toxins and it does so in an orderly and meaningful fashion. Although homeopathic science looks at individual symptoms for guidelines in understanding the diseases and selecting a remedy, it does not attempt to suppress the symptoms, rather initially accentuates the symptoms to enhance the natural healing efforts and mechanisms of the body.

Hering’s ‘law’ holds that as a disease passes from an acute to a chronic form the symptoms move from the surface of the body to the interior, from the lower part of the body to the upper and from the less vital organs to the more vital ones. Under correct (homeopathic) treatment this movement is reversed and the symptoms move from the more vital organs to the less vital, from the upper part of the body to the lower, and from the interior to the skin. This is also true for the movement of symptoms in acute disease. In cases of the so-called fixed miasmatic diseases, like measles, the rash first appears on the forehead and moves onto the trunk and extremities. In contrast, the rash of atypical measles in vaccinated children first appears on the extremities, moves to the trunk and attacks the lungs and other internal organs.

Vaccination, by introducing viruses directly into the blood stream, far from preventing diseases, actually pushes the disease into a chronic form and deeper into the body where it then attacks vital organs. The results of suppressing measles and other infectious diseases in this manner are cancer and other auto-immune and chronic diseases.

Medical assessment of alleged effectiveness and efficacy of vaccines centers around the production of antibodies. Modern immunologists studying the biologic significance of the secretory gamma-A immunoglobulins hold that immunity is classically concerned with resistance to infection. This is based on the well-known fact that individuals who recover from an infectious disease almost never succumb to the same disease again. Today we know that the functions of the immune system are more diverse and include not only defense but also homeostasis and surveillance.

In the vertebrates (which group includes humans as we too have a backbone), a diverse cell system has developed—the lympho-reticular system which is distributed throughout the body and lines the lymphatic and vascular systems. Its cells occur within the thymus, lymph nodes and spleen, forming an internal secretory system and an external secretory system in those body tracts exposed to the exterior—the respiratory, gastrointestinal and genitourinary systems.

The tissues of the lympho-reticular system contain a variety of cells performing separate functions, either directly or through producing a variety of antibodies. These are activated by a variety of influences recognized as foreign by the host. The internal secretory system produces serum immunoglobulins. Of these, the gamma-G immunoglobulins are a major, indeed a predominant, part. The external secretory system produces a specific group of antibodies—the secretory gamma-A immunoglobulins. The precise function of the secretory component is not yet understood.

A study evaluating the relative roles of serum and nasal antibody in protecting against parainfluenzae type-1 infection showed that the nasal antibody played a very important part—much higher than the serum antibodies. This casts doubt on the importance of the serum antibodies produced following vaccination, and hence doubt on the conferring of immunity. Indeed, we see this proven when vaccinated children contract the diseases against which they have been vaccinated.

Vaccinated children commonly exhibit a deranged immunological response by developing atypical measles, mumps and possibly many other atypical manifestations of the diseases targeted by vaccines. It is far better, then, to allow the natural processes to proceed without harmful interference.

[END OF QUOTING]

How can I come to express the IMPORTANCE OF THE ABOVE? Readers, YOU ARE PEOPLE OF THE LIE—and what you DO NOT KNOW WILL MOST SURELY KILL YOU OR MAKE YOU WISH IT DID. But what is happening here—IS A DELIBERATE KILLING OF YOUR OWN IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER AT SOME STAGE OF YOUR LIFE-SPAN. I consider these chapters on such topics AS MANDATORY STUDY FOR ALL MY PEOPLE. THANK YOU.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
