Setting Up The Middle East FOR WAR!

Israeli Journalist Speaks Great Truth

Editor's note: The following information has spread like wildfire across that nasty Internet which the crooks in high places are trying to bring under control without you noticing. This is from <para-discuss@tje.net>.

Longtime CONTACT readers will immediately appreciate the Truth this daring Israeli journalist speaks.

To those dark ones who aim to rule the world through the New World Order, the common Israeli people are as expendable a collection of "pawns on the chess board" as are people anywhere around the world. And pay particular attention to this journalist's caution—right up front—about the mainstream media. That's why CONTACT exists!

We Need YOUR Help!

I'm sure there are plenty of people "out there" who take one look at CONTACT and instantly pronounce that we sure do need "help". But they're probably referring to the psychiatric kind.

The kind of help that CONTACT is actually in need of is financial help.

It is well over a year since the last time I wrote a note like this to specifically ask for your financial support. At that time, the floodgates opened and we were blessed with the results of your generosity and continued encouragement.

We were able to upgrade our computer equipment from something closer to the vacuum-tube era forward into the silicon-chip era. We were able to deal with an untimely roof-leak and flood in the newspaper storage room. We were able to put new (well, actually used, but in good condition) steel shelving in that room to better utilize space for the ever-growing back-issue newspaper population. We were able to help those serious seekers of Truth who are destitute or in prison receive CONTACT when they have made a particular effort to ask. We were able to begin a most important CONTACT-on-the-Internet project. And the list goes on, thanks to you.

However, right now the matter is much more fundamental: We need to be able to pay basic bills like office-space rent and phone and electricity and, of course, the printer and Post Office. I can personally assure you that my staff is the stingiest...ah...I mean most fiscally responsible, and penny-pinching...ah...I mean thoughtfully frugal team around.

However, due to some problematic circumstances beyond our immediate control (which I may talk about in more detail at a later time), the array of financial obligations CONTACT has recently had to address has grown quite a bit past our usual parameters.

It becomes a question of what obligations must be met in order that the Prime Directive—to get THE WORD out to the four corners of the world—can continue. And thus this specific call for your help.

I must here quickly acknowledge how some of you readers have been a source of constant, often monthly financial assistance. It is because of that kind of reliable generosity that I have not had to beg, until now, for help to keep this pipeline of Truth open for those who hunger for what is Real.

We have already reduced the paper size (number of pages) in recent months in order to better achieve a financial balance. According to the dominant feedback from you readers, this size works well. You are thankful to be able to finally "get through" the paper in a week, before the next one arrives, and you appreciate the balanced presentation of different materials.

The down-side of the smaller papers (and reduced staff) is that we cannot cover as many areas simultaneously. However if, at minimum, you keep an eye on SPOTLIGHT and several other daring print-media sources, and you focus a critical ear on Art Bell's late-night talk-radio program, you will be doing pretty good. Art's format, in particular, can handle fast-breaking information, and thus can be most useful—if you can tolerate the ever-growing number of commercial interruptions riding along with his ever-growing popularity!

Thank you for the daily stream of thoughtful notes and calls of heart-felt encouragement which boost our spirits and lighten our load. I am hoping we can continue to provide the same for you!

RUSSIA, IMF, EBRD DISCUSS GOLD-BACKED BONDS

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 1/27/99: [quoting]

Russia, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) on Tuesday discussed the possible issuance of Russian gold-backed bonds, the finance ministry said.

The ministry said in a statement that the bonds were one of the first questions discussed during talks with the IMF. The bonds are aimed at financing gold producers and the Fund has been reported as having some objections over the project.

"The head of the IMF mission, Jorge Marquez-Ruarte, told the participants of the talks that after further consultations on the project with IMF specialists, the IMF would send the Russian finance ministry an official declaration on this question," the statement said.

The ministry said the head of precious metals reserve Gokhran presented a report on the project and that the discussion involved the EBRD, WestDeutsche Landesbank, the government and the Association of Russian Commercial Banks.

The EBRD had earlier said it was considering a plan to lend money to pre-finance gold production by buying certificates or bonds backed by gold.

The loan would be used to finance production, on the basis that the companies would deliver a specified amount of gold at the end of the period, which would be sold to pay off the loan.

The amount being discussed was 50 tonnes of gold with the loan for a period of 11 months to one year, roughly equal to the gold production cycle.

Russian media had earlier reported that the IMF had objections to the scheme as it was worried it would impact the dwindling gold and hard currency reserves of the central bank.

An IMF mission is currently in Moscow, discussing whether and on what basis it would give more credits to Russia. [End quoting]

It's not surprising that the IMF doesn't want any kind of real backing for any "paper notes"—it will destroy their game-plan and let we-the-people keep a fair share of our earnings!

ROOTS OF THE BRAZILIAN CRISIS

Excerpted from the INTERNET, 1/18/99: [quoting]

Just when it seemed the worst was over for Asia, a new and potentially huge crisis has developed in Brazil. The devaluation of the Brazilian real last week marked the failure of the IMF-style policies in that country, and raised the spectre of a financial meltdown in the world's eighth largest economy. Martin Khor gives the background to the crisis.

The devaluation of the Brazilian real last week caused shockwaves around the world, raising fears of a new round of financial instability that could delay a recovery in Asia.

The Brazilian crisis is also a blow for the International Monetary Fund and the Group of Seven developed countries, which had insisted that developing countries, like Brazil, should still allow the free flow of capital into and out of their economies, despite the damaging effects.

With the IMF's free-market model even more in tatters, there could well be a shift of world opinion in favour of Malaysia-style exchange controls for countries wanting to insulate themselves from volatile capital flows.

The developments in Brazil are a blow to hopes that the global economy was beginning to become more stable, following the roller coaster ride that began with the Thai crisis 18 months ago, spread to other Asian countries and hit Russia last year.

Throughout this period, Brazil had also been subjected to speculative attacks. Its central bank spent US $9 billion of foreign reserves to defend the real in October 1997.

Twelve months later, it faced another serious round of capital flight.

The real would have been devalued then, except for a pledge by the IMF and the G7 countries that they would provide a US $41.5 billion loan for Brazil.

It was meant to be a new kind of IMF deal, one put in place for a country in trouble before a crisis strikes, so as to prevent a financial meltdown and devaluation, rather than previous IMF deals which were made after the breakout of crisis.

It was crucial for the IMF's already tattered reputation (and more importantly, for the credibility of the free-market policies it advocates) for Brazil to stand up, stick to the IMF's usual conditions, and avoid a financial crisis.

Another big failure would bring the free capital mobility model, already being blamed by so many experts for the Asian debacle, crashing down.

There were already voices within and outside Brazil that called on the government to impose some controls on the exit of funds and prevent an impending and uncontrollable exodus of capital.

But the authorities decided to stay faithful to the IMF-style policies of maintaining free capital flows, cuts in government spending and other reforms, and at the same time defending the value of the real. [End quoting]

Things will never get better until the politicians quit dealing with the "devil himself": the IMF and world banking gangsters.

MULTICULTURALIST TEACHERS PUSH FOR REVOLUTION

Excerpted from the INTERNET, 1/19/99: [quoting]

The professional educators working to design an ideology for the new multicultural America often pose as advocates of "tolerance". But speeches delivered last November at the sixth annual conference of the National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME) show that the real goal is to consolidate the left-wing's political dominance.

Notes taken by education researchers at the NAME conference in St. Paul, Minnesota, reveal that multiculturalist teachers, far from endorsing tolerance, condemned private property as an instrument of "White supremacy" and vowed to start a revolution in the U.S. against the American people and their way of life.

NAME is the professional teachers' association that seeks to replace normal public school courses with multiculturalist curricula. Courses endorsed by NAME teach the notions of "global citizenship" that are being promoted in schools and commercial advertising by multinational corporations as a way to enhance international trade. By indoctrinating public school students with an ideology that deconstructs the tradition of liberty established by America's founders, NAME's multiculturalist educators hope to foment a revolution against middle-class values.

Far from being a course of study to teach tolerance for "ethnic diversity", the goal of multiculturalist schooling, the speakers said, is to achieve power for some groups at the expense of others. Geneva Gay of the University of Washington told one conference workshop that multiculturalist education demands the destruction of the American political and economic system.

Multicultural education is about power. Multicultural education is about the reallocation of power, said Gay. Multiculturalism is about creating a revolution. She said people of different cultures shouldn't have to adjust to life in the U.S. Why should they adjust to a society that "isn't any good for any of us", she asked. Gay urged multiculturalist educators to be cautious about revealing their goals to the public. "The way I am talking to you here, I would never speak with people outside the field," she said. [End quoting]

The elite talk a good talk but act the opposite. It's not what they say but what they do—especially behind our backs—that counts.

ESTRADA TO INSIST ON 75-25% WEALTH DEAL

Excerpted from the INTERNET, 1/18/99: [quoting]

The government wants a 75 percent share of the recovered wealth of the Marcos family to indemnify human rights victims during martial law and to provide funds for pro-poor projects, President Joseph Estrada said yesterday.

He said his administration is already set to negotiate formally with the heirs of the late dictator for a sharing of the fabled Marcos wealth believed to have been ill-gotten during his 20-year presidency.

Mr. Estrada said he has been informed by Marcos' son, Ilocos Norte Gov. Ferdinand "Bongbong" Marcos Jr., that former First Lady Imelda Marcos has given her children the signal to sit down with the Estrada government.

"We'll start with a claim of 75 percent of the wealth. I am also pushing for this because there is already some $580 million in an escrow account at the Philippine National Bank," the President said during his weekly radio program.

The money at PNB were funds deposited by Marcos in Swiss banks. These funds were ordered released and transferred to an escrow account in the Philippines by the Swiss Supreme Court in 1997. However, the money cannot be withdrawn unless Mrs. Marcos is given her day in court.

Mr. Estrada pledged that he will ensure that any deal with the Marcos family was "favorable" to the government.

"I told him (Ferdinand Jr.) that it is my duty to make sure any negotiation favors the government. This was my pledge when I assumed the presidency," he said.

Mr. Estrada and the Ilocos Norte governor met Friday night at Malacañang, where Ferdinand Jr. reiterated his family's offer for a "global" compromise deal.

"He visited me yesterday and we talked about a possible negotiation," Mr. Estrada said.

"But I told him whatever negotiation that may happen ... it must be lawful and, it must be advantageous to the government," he added.

Ferdinand Jr. had offered to share the Marcos wealth on condition that the government would drop all pending cases against the Marcoses.

Mr. Estrada surmised that what Bongbong meant by "global" is the extent of the Marcos family's wealth. "That's why we need these negotiations so that the Marcoses can point to us where these assets are located," he said.

According to Mrs. Marcos, the government need not go abroad to look for her family's wealth because several of these assets can be found in many of the country's largest corporations. "I have documents to prove (we own) it," she added. [End quoting]

They must have come to the conclusion—no matter right or wrong—it's better to have part of the loot rather than none.

NEARLY 9,000 DIE IN EARTHQUAKES DURING 1998

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 1/23/99: [quoting]

Nearly 9,000 people died worldwide in earthquakes during 1998, triple the number that died the year before and a twenty-fold increase from 1996, the U.S. government said.

Despite the rise in deaths, the number of people killed by earthquakes last year was still under the long-term average of about 10,000 annually.

"This is the fifth consecutive year in which the death toll has been below average worldwide," said Waverly Person, a director with the U.S. Geological Survey, which recently compiled the earthquake data.

The agency's analysis showed that 8,928 people died from earthquakes around the globe in 1998, compared to 2,907 the previous year and just 419 people in 1996....

The strongest earthquake in the world last year registered an 8.3 on the Richter scale and took place March 25 in the Balleny Islands region between Australia and Antarctica.

The only other earthquake above an 8.0 occurred on Nov. 29 in the Ceram Sea near Indonesia, registering 8.1 and killing 34 people....

The impression that more earthquakes are occurring could be due to the agency's ability to detect more earthquakes thanks to the growing number of seismograph stations around the world, Person said. [End quoting]

Does this last paragraph sound to you like double-speak—if they didn't know because of poor recording previously what are they comparing with? Keep cool, peasants—the "elite" don't want you to get upset!

There have been at least four over 6.0 already this year that I've read about but didn't hear them mentioned on the TV or in the newspaper—they really don't want you to know.

This was written before the disastrous Colombia quake on Monday which you probably have already heard about. BE PREPARED!! The West Coast of the U.S. is predicted by some to be hit shortly. Mt. Hood in Oregon has been having quite a bit of rumbling. Also see Soltec's article later in this paper.

OZONE THINNING OVER NORTH POLE

Excerpted from the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 1/19/99: [quoting]

Portions of North America and Europe could face the threat of increased ultraviolet radiation if ozone loss over the Arctic resumes.

Ozone in the upper atmosphere blocks the Sun's harmful ultraviolet rays from hitting the Earth. Thinning of that layer over the Antarctic in the 1980s led to the ban on ozone-damaging chemicals.

But chemicals already released linger in the air for years, and researchers now are reporting potentially serious thinning of the ozone layer over the Arctic. [End quoting]

It's time for the "elite" to quit blaming fluorocarbons and other nonsense for this and to own up to the large amount of nuclear radiation particulate in the atmosphere, and to destruction from high-tech weapons systems.

FOOD-POISONING SCAMS AT TAJ MAHAL

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 1/21/99: [quoting]

NEW DELHI, India—Heading to the Taj Mahal? Be careful where you eat.

Police say unlicensed guides and shady restaurant owners are teaming up with unscrupulous doctors to sicken foreign tourists with tainted food and then divvy up their medical insurance money.

A Scottish man and a South Korean woman told police in November that a cheap restaurant near the world-famous monument served them food that made them ill, then took them to a doctor who charged huge amounts to cure their diarrhea.

Police believe once the tourists' insurance company had paid the inflated medical bills, the profits were split among the doctor, the restaurant owner, and the guide. In some cases, police say, even the tourists themselves participate, agreeing to file false insurance claims in exchange for cash.

In the case of the Scot and the South Korean, police have arrested six people, including the restaurant owner and a guide, on charges of serving adulterated food, Agra senior police superintendent Subesh Kumar told The Associated Press this week.

Police have identified dozens of doctors, restaurants and self-styled guides involved in such scams and have warned them, Kumar said.

Dr. Sudhir Gupta, who has investigated such cases for foreign insurance companies, says the doctors charged between $465 and $1,400 for treatment—substantial sums in India.

The Taj Mahal, built by the Mogul emperor Shah Jahan as a tomb for his queen, Mumtaz Mahal, attracts three million tourists a year. It is located in Agra, 125 miles south of New Delhi. [End quoting]

The real importance of this story to CONTACT readers is that if this is going on at the Taj Mahal, it is probably going on in many areas of tourism in the world—BEWARE!! Man thinks up many forms of scams and especially for tourists.

FEINSTEIN CAMPAIGNS AGAINST GAS ADDITIVE

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 1/27/99: [quoting]

Sen. Dianne Feinstein has asked Congress to drop California from a federal order requiring the use of gasoline additives such as MTBE, saying the chemicals are unnecessary and pollute the state's drinking water.

Feinstein, D-Calif., noted in introducing three bills this week that some experts have named methyl tertiary butyl ether a possible carcinogen to humans.

Environmentalists claim the odorless oxygenate has contaminated thousands of the state's drinking water wells through leaky underground tanks. But representatives of the chemical industry have defended MTBE, saying it's essential to help gasoline burn more cleanly and has not been linked to cancer.

Feinstein's proposed legislation would let California oil refiners make a gasoline without MTBE, as long as they meet the state's strict air-quality emission standards.

"It makes little sense to continue using a chemical additive that is unnecessary, is polluting the general drinking water supply in California and may well have other health implications," she said.

A federal mandate now in place prevents refineries such as Chevron, Tosco and Shell from selling an oxygenate-free gasoline in high-smog areas, including Southern California and the Sacramento region, even though the gasoline meets state air quality standards.

Similar legislation submitted last year failed to make it out of committee. Feinstein's bill is a companion to an identical bill introduced earlier this month in the House by Rep. Brian Bilbray, R-San Diego.

This year, the bill has the support of U.S. Sen. John Chafee, R-R.I., chairman of the Senate Committee on the Environment and Public Works. [End quoting]

This is really a bad chemical—just to get whiffs of it while filling the tank is horrible and certainly the words from the suppliers aren't worth the paper they're printed on. I don't think California is the only place this is used and if this isn't stopped you'll probably be next. Let's

MOBIL OIL IMPLICATED IN INDONESIAN ARMY MASSACRES

From THE JUBILEE, Nov/Dec/98: [quoting]
Mobil, the giant U.S. oil multinational, is keeping a low profile as investigators probe allegations that it helped Indonesia's armed forces carry out massacres near Mobil drilling sites in the province of Aceh in northern Sumatra.

Business Week, one of the most widely read magazines in the United States, published a six-page late December feature on the company, titled: "What Did Mobil Know? Mass graves suggest a brutal war on local Indonesian guerrillas in the oil giant's backyard."

The revelations came shortly after two other U.S. companies—Freeport McMoRan of New Orleans and CalEnergy of Omaha—were accused of business malpractice in Indonesia by investigative reporters at the Wall Street Journal.

All three exposés were published in the months after the fall of Gen. Suharto's 32-year regime, which has allowed new light to be shed on the role of foreign multinationals in the southeast Asian country's affairs.

Mobil owns 35 percent of PT. Arun, a liquefied natural-gas producer in Aceh, while Pertamina, Indonesia's state-owned oil monopoly, holds the controlling 55 percent stake. Aceh provides an estimated 30 percent of Indonesia's total oil and gas exports and 11 percent of the country's total exports.

Mass killings and disappearances near the Mobil drilling site had been rumored for a decade, ever since the Gerakan Aceh Merdeka (Free Aceh Movement), a local separatist group, began attacks on Mobil installations in 1980. [End quoting]

It's about time these robber barons and murderers are called down for their actions.

FEDERAL I.D. CARDS POSTPONED

From THE PHYLLIS SCHAFLY REPORT, 12/98: [quoting]

When Social Security was started, the government promised that the Social Security number would never be used for identification. But the 1996 Illegal Immigration Reform Act requires that state drivers' licenses after October 1, 2000 must contain Social Security numbers as the unique numeric identifier. This is clearly an attempt to convert drivers' licenses (a state matter) into national I.D. cards that will soon also include fingerprints and a magnetic strip containing all sorts of other information (retina scan, DNA print, voice print) to enable the government to track everyone's movements.

The Omnibus Spending Bill passed in October prohibits the government from issuing final regulations about this during the current fiscal year, which ends September 30, 1999. The stage is set for a battle next year. [End quoting]

We've had a number of victories lately so don't get complacent—let the politicians know what we want!

Let's stop this before it goes any further. Remember this is another nail in the coffin for our freedom!

POLICE STATE SEIZES HEALTH EDUCATOR

Excerpted from THE JUBILEE, Nov/Dec 1998: [quoting]

"They're after me because in my charity work as the author of Oxygen Therapies for the past ten years I spent all my time teaching people how to beat cancer and AIDS..."

Here is yet another nightmare story of the imprisonment of a patriotic American who has earnestly fought for our right to use Yahweh's most precious gift of life for our healing.

You know him as Ed McCabe or "Ask Mr. Oxygen". He is the person who introduced Oxygen Therapies to North America and to many countries around the world through his book Oxygen Therapies—A New Way Of Approaching Disease. He is the person who got a lot of alternative healers started in Oxygen Therapies through his endless encouragement.

In the spring of 1997, the United States Justice Department and the IRS launched an inquiry on Ed, putting his life under a magnifying glass looking for dirt. In the first two weeks of April 1998, the IRS indicted and arrested Ed. Since that time, Ed has been in jail without a hearing or without a trial!

Ed McCabe is not a criminal. We know him as a researcher and a journalist, having authored the book Oxygen Therapies in 1988. Some know Ed as a radio talk-show guest or much requested conference speaker [who] has traveled internationally, often on his own dime, to further the cause of personal choice in health and healing. How many people were touched and how many hours were spent reflecting the oxygen therapy lifestyle?

Now it is Ed who needs the help! Some 5-plus years ago, Ed's studies led him to a personal choice. Standing on the letter of US law, he insisted the IRS did not have jurisdiction over him. Negotiations progressed from cordiality to violent words and confiscation.

Ed has been held on federal detainer since April 7, 1998, having been taken into jail once he appeared for his arraignment. [End quoting]

This man really needs our help and his book is well worth reading!

For more info see Ed's Web site: <<http://oxytherapy.edmccabe/index.html>> I don't have any more information for contacting him.

INTEL BLINKS: ID TRACKER WILL BE OFF INITIALLY

From the INTERNET, <<http://zdnet.com>>, 1/25/99: [quoting]

Intel Corp. has blinked in the growing controversy over its plans to include ID technology in its new chips.

Even as several advocacy groups were calling for a boycott of Intel products, the company announced it is backtracking somewhat in how the technology, which could be used to track chip users over the Internet, will be deployed.

Several privacy groups were scheduled to announce on Monday a boycott of products made by Intel.

The boycott was called by the Washington-based Electronic Privacy Information Center, a consumer advocacy group, and of Green Brook, N.J., a high-tech lobbying group.

Intel announced last week that it would put several security features in future processors, starting with the Pentium III later this quarter. One plan is to put processor-specific IDs on each chip that can be accessed by software and transmitted over the Internet.

"Intel's proposal to put a unique ID code inside of every computer it sells will significantly reduce the level of privacy available to computer users around the world."

But in an apparent bow to its critics, Intel announced Monday a change in how the ID technology will be used. Spokesman Chuck Mulloy said Intel has reversed an earlier decision, and that each machine will default to having the ID inactive. Before, Intel said the ID would automatically be activated unless turned off by the user.

Still, early shipments of the chips will still have the earlier configuration, meaning users will have to opt out manually.

An EPIC spokesman said the boycott will continue until more assurances come from Intel addressing privacy concerns.

Intel has pushed the tracking technology as a way to foster e-commerce and other online activities. Companies could require remote users to use the technology, while banks may offer more features to its customers that have processor IDs turned on. The ID could also help enable the ultimate in software copy protection, tying applications to a specific machine.

But groups including the American Civil Liberties Union raised red flags over the technology, saying it could be used to track consumers over the Internet. Intel has said it has no plans to match the processor IDs with names in a database. [End quoting]

If we believe that Intel—or the government, or etc., wouldn't use this feature to track all users, you need to have your sanity checked.

This is ANOTHER win for those of us who want freedom. You know it's bad when the ACLU is involved on the side of freedom!!

Again it shows the power we have to stop what we don't want IF WE USE IT!! Keep up the good work, PLEASE!!

GIVE AND TAKE

From THE SPOTLIGHT, letter to editor, 1/25/99: [quoting]

Israel has rejected a plea to have a Jewish man extradited to Poland to stand trial for "atrocities against German prisoners after WWII". The request for Solomon Morel's extradition, who ran a prisoner-of-war camp in southern Poland and is accused of being responsible for the deaths of some 1,500 prisoners, was refused because Israel said the statute of limitations had run out. [End quoting]

Isn't this what you'd expect from the Israeli gangsters?

HEAD TURNER

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 1/25/99: [quoting]

It's obvious the original Zapruder film was tampered with—probably by the CIA shortly after the assassination (Jan. 4). Twenty-one eyewitnesses said the limousine came to a complete stop after the shooting began. You don't see that in the Zapruder film. Also, frame 316 shows driver William Greer looking back at JFK but in the very next frame Greer is looking forward. Such a quick head turn is physically impossible. —Chip DeNure, La Crosse, Wisconsin [End quoting]

Very interesting—I haven't seen anything about this in all of the material I've read and seen before.

HATE-CRIMES

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 1/25/99: [quoting]

The Los Angeles community is reportedly miffed over news that two young Jewish boys were responsible for painting Swastikas and "White-power" slogans on a school in the area. The two 16-year-old boys told sheriff's officials: "They thought it would be funny and get a rise out of the community . . ." They were right. The sheriff's office said they would ask the attorney general to seek "hate-crime" charges against the two. [End quoting]

It wouldn't surprise me to find that the ADL was behind this.

ROYAL ROUT SLOWED

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 1/25/99: [quoting]

The Australian government rejected demands to speed up constitutional changes to make the country a republic in order to allow a president, rather than a prime minister, to open the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games. A referendum will be held in November. If the people vote "yes," Australia will become a republic on Jan. 1, 2001. [End quoting]

I wish them luck, but if they get Presidents like we do, they aren't going to be any better off. Changing forms of government without cleaning up the political corruption won't help in the long run.

DERELICTION OF DUTY

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, 1/99: [quoting]

On the last day of the 105th Congress, the GOP-run Senate okayed 17 of President Clinton's judicial appointments—without a roll call vote and without even identifying the lifetime appointees by name. It isn't justice that is blind, but the U.S. Senate. Playing "pin the tail on the donkey" with judicial appointments isn't exactly what the Framers had in mind when they wrote the "advise and consent" provisions of the Constitution. [End quoting]

Does this make it clear what we're paying for?

MINDLESS VACCINATION BUREAUCRACY

Excerpted from THE JUBILEE, Nov/Dec '98: [quoting]

BELKIN REPORT

My daughter Lyla Rose Belkin died September 16, 1998 at the age of five weeks, shortly after receiving a Hepatitis B vaccine booster shot. The following comments are intended to be a heads-up to parents and potential parents about the risks of the Hepatitis B vaccine (HBV), and a firsthand report questioning the scientific legitimacy of the vaccine industry, which provides $800 million of annual revenue to Merck—the company which makes the Hepatitis B vaccine distributed in the US.

Lyla Rose Belkin was a lively, alert five-week-old baby when I last held her in my arms.

Little did I imagine as she gazed intently into my eyes with all the innocence and wonder of a newborn child that she would die that night. She was never ill before receiving the Hepatitis B shot that afternoon. At her final feeding that night, she was agitated and feisty—and then fell asleep and didn't wake up. The autopsy ruled out choking. A swollen brain was the only abnormal finding. Most doctors I spoke to at the time said it must have been Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), a catch-all diagnosis for unexplainable childhood mortality. The first instinctive reaction in such a situation is for parents to blame themselves. For many weeks, my wife and I agonized over what we might have missed or could have done differently. Meanwhile, the logical part of my brain kept returning to the obvious medical event that preceded Lyla's death—and that internal voice kept asking the question "could the Hepatitis B Vaccine that Lyla received that afternoon have killed her?" Most doctors I asked scoffed at the notion and said the vaccine was perfectly safe. But I began to search around on the Internet and Medline and discovered disturbing evidence of adverse reactions to this vaccine.... [End quoting]

I hope this helps to bring home the dangers of vaccinations. Don't let this happen to you. There are alternative methods to use to strengthen your immune systems. Do research.

NEW PLOY TARGETS AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

From The Bakersfield Californian, 1/27/99: [quoting]

Group threatens to sue university trustees

The Center for Individual Rights (CIR), the conservative legal group that successfully challenged affirmative action in Texas law school admissions, unveiled a new legal strategy Tuesday of threatening to seek personal damages from trustees of universities that give admission preference to minorities.

"I would think that trustees would be well advised to get on this problem now and start reforming these practices now, so CIR does not have potential clients come to us down the road," said Terence Pell, senior counsel at CIR.

Pell spoke at a news conference held Tuesday to publicize two new CIR brochures, one advising students how to challenge school admission policies and the other advising trustees of public schools of their personal liability in racial discrimination cases. That brochure argues that trustees of private schools are similarly liable if their schools receive federal funds.

Former Education Secretary William Bennett, joining Pell, said affirmative action programs are "a serious social and moral problem" on par with the legal barriers to African Americans before the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Janelle Byrd, the lead NAACP Legal Defense Fund lawyer who faced CIR attorneys in the Hopwood case in Texas, responded with accusations that CIR is "trying to create an atmosphere to frighten trustees into dismantling legal affirmative action programs".

Byrd said she hoped that lawyers for public universities would counsel their trustees that "Bakke is still the law of the land, not Hopwood".

"Bakke" is the famous 1978 U.S. Supreme Court ruling that struck down racial quotas in higher education admissions, but which also held that colleges and universities could consider an applicant's race as one factor in determining admission. "Hopwood" is the 1996 ruling by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which the Supreme Court let stand, striking down "diversity" as a rationale for considering race in college admissions.

At his news conference, Pell charged that affirmative action programs similar or identical to those struck down at the University of Texas are widespread in public universities throughout the country.

And while he insisted that CIR is "not looking for more lawsuits" to file, it is set to go to trial in Ann Arbor in May on a suit challenging the University of Michigan's affirmative action policies—"if potential clients find their way to our door, we'll consider that". [End quoting]

The education of students is taking more and more of a back seat to addressing legal potholes and pitfalls.

GAMBLING'S NEWEST FOE

HIGH-TECH STAR FORSAKES JOB FOR BRIGHT LIGHTS OF UFOs

From THE MODESTO BEE, 1/13/99: [quoting]

A Silicon Valley executive who has propelled several high-tech companies to starry heights is quitting the business to pursue his own planetary passion: extraterrestrial beings.

"There is a bigger picture out there than just tomorrow's stock price," Joe Firmage said last week. "I've had explicit confirmation that the UFO phenomenon is in fact occurring, and I'd like to be a part of this fundamental revolution in our society."

Firmage, 28, said he decided to quit being the chief strategist at the Internet consulting firm USWeb-CKS Corp. to save the company from "public relations complications".

It's a big step for this Silicon Valley wonder boy, who began his high-tech life at 17 by founding Serius Corp. The company, selling object-based programming tools for personal computer developers, was acquired by Novell in 1993 for an estimated $24 million. Firmage was acquired as well, becoming Novell's vice president of strategic planning.

He left Novell and co-founded USWeb in 1995 with several other Novell executives. Last month the company merged with CKS Group Inc. to form a company with $260 million in annual revenues.

Firmage said his priorities shifted 15 months ago, after an encounter at his Los Gatos home with a "remarkable being, clothed in brilliant white light...".

"I don't call them aliens. I call them teachers," he said.

USWeb-CKS officials said they will miss Firmage and regretted the loss. [End quoting]

I'd say he had a very en-Light-ening experience and hopefully he will have a fulfilling life of helping others to see The Light. This is a dedicated, highly intelligent man. We wish him well.

CIVIL SUIT ACCUSES FBI AGENTS AND DOCTORS OF COVER-UP OF FOSTER MURDER EVIDENCE

"As far as the mainstream media covering this case, it's gotten to the point now that I could have a video tape showing the body being dragged through the park and they wouldn't report it." —Washington D.C. Attorney John H. Clarke

There is a long article in THE JUBILEE, Nov/Dec '98 newspaper, by Pat Shannan, giving the details of this. This might be just the right time and method to start bringing out a lot of the covered-up murders attached to Clinton and his gangsters. God said that in the endtimes—now—the truth will come out. Let's hope and pray that more and more is uncovered so people can have truth to feed their awakening.

WORDS THAT MADE A DIFFERENCE

From GUIDEPOSTS, Jan. 1998, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

While I was cleaning out an old storage box

I picked up a large envelope and emptied it onto the floor. Ancient bills, canceled checks, cards from people I barely remembered. Why did I save all this stuff? I wondered. Then a bent, tattered business card caught my eye: Queen City Casket Company, Springfield, Mo. I turned it over. There, in faded ink, was a hand-scrawled message. Immediately my mind traveled back decades.

I was nine years old, trudging down the cold, wet streets of Springfield, with a beat-up leather satchel of popular magazines over my shoulder. My ragged coat was two sizes too big and the weight of my bag dragged the collar to one side. I stepped carefully over the puddles on the sidewalk. I didn't want the cardboard lining in my shoes to get any wetter.

Selling magazines was what I did to earn money for my family. One of five boys, I had lost my mother to pneumonia when I was five. My father had initially sent me and my two younger brothers to an orphanage. After several months we returned home. Dad worked two or three jobs to keep a roof over our heads. We did whatever we could to help out: harvested walnuts, gathered trash, collected scrap metal to sell by the pound.

Most of the time, I sold magazines. I had my regular route and regular customers. Once, I was hanging around a local nightclub trying to scrounge up business, and a stranger called out, "Hey, kid! How many magazines have you got in that bag?" I counted them out. Making a show of it, he bought them all!

But the week before Christmas, 1939, business was not good. On my rounds that day, I stopped at the barber shop. The men talked about whether it would be a white Christmas, as though that would somehow make the holiday better. I knew snow wasn't going to make a lot of difference at my house.

I listened for the sound of the twelve o'clock whistle, then headed for the Coca-Cola Bottling Company. I had my report card with its good marks in my pocket. All I had to do was present it for a free Coke. Then I visited Mrs. Wells, an elderly lady who lived a few blocks away. She offered me some cookies from her cookie jar. The cookies and soda were my lunch. Not bad.

I came to the Queen City Casket Company on Clay Street. The owner, Mr. Rader, always took me back to his factory to ask his workers if they wanted any magazines. They teased me, saying, "Come on, Jimmy, climb into one of our satin-lined caskets and take a little nap." I shook my head. I didn't want to have anything to do with a casket.

Shaking off the rain like a wet dog, I went into Mr. Rader's office. After a quick glance he led me, shivering, over to the stove. He frowned when he noticed the hole in the top of my shoe. "Jimmy, let me see your soles."

Hopping on one foot and then the other, I showed him. "You can't walk around like that," he said. "Come with me."

Before I could protest, he whisked me into his pickup truck. Where on Earth is he taking me? I wondered. We pulled to a stop in front of a shoe store. Inside, a salesman fitted me with the finest pair of shiny black oxfords I had ever seen. When I stood up in them I felt about 10 feet tall. "We'd like a pair of new socks too," Mr. Rader said.

My feet warm and dry, I got into the pickup truck and Mr. Rader drove us back to his factory. I didn't know what to say. No one had ever done anything that nice for me—not old Mrs. Wells, not the people at the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, not even the big shot who bought all my magazines at the nightclub. Mr. Rader had done it because he really wanted to help. I was afraid I wouldn't be able to hold back the tears if I tried to talk, and I didn't want to be a crybaby.

As I stood in his office, fingering the strap on my bag, Mr. Rader took out a business card and wrote something on it, then handed it to me. With teary eyes, I read, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." He put his hand on my shoulder. "Jimmy, I want you to know I love you." Never in all my nine years had I heard those words. Maybe my mother had said them to me, but I had been too young to remember.

I said good-bye, my hand closed around the business card in my pocket, and went back out into the cold winter evening. Yet for the first time in my young life I sensed a flicker of hope that somehow things would be all right. Maybe not that Christmas, maybe not even the next year. But with people like Mr. Rader in the world, there was hope. There was kindness and love, and that would always make a difference.

All those years later I stood with Mr. Rader's card in my hand. The card had migrated into that old envelope; its message I had carried with me ever since that day in 1939. —by Jim Sowards, Lampe, Missouri [End quoting]

The Alpha Memorandum

1/11/99 #1 HATONN

THE "ALPHA" WRITING

This is a bit of an inside code, "Alpha", because our file numerals are 01111. You won't want to change that but you will want to make this writing easily accessible. I am going to explain what is taking place in the Philippines and with the Asian central bankers, along with Greenspan and the Bank of International Settlements in Hong Kong.

The "Global" "thing" has become that hot potato with which nobody wanted to deal but could no longer bury. And no, I don't speak of elderly certificates or cute contracts—but criminal activities. You can't do anything with paper if it is deemed in the world to be no good. However, if you utilize the PLAN there is much you can do with leverage.

I am obligated to not give details of any ongoing negotiations or structured, in structuring, or conclusive agreements. However, I am not going to HIDE or further secret away the methodology of the Plan itself and how it is being both wisely and unwisely utilized.

This will be a big focus at the "informal" bankers' meeting in Hong Kong today. We will just wait to see what the outcome of those "top secret 'informal'" meetings might produce but it is hard to call all that stuff in the fan anything other than what it is and, my goodness, there is a lot of "Oh shit-ing" going on on the merry-go-round.

Rumors are correct: the Global "stuff" has been qualified and a lot of worst-case banking games are being uncovered as buy-offs and outs have been attempted but there is something about the criminal mind—you can't shut up everyone all the time. And, further, it is not due to filching that brings the house of cards down—it is the boasting big shots right through their mouths.

Does Greenspan have a problem? Not if he works with the global community but otherwise his problem ranges, in the counting of one to ten, somewhere about 197.

THE PHILIPPINE GAME

The "game" in the Philippines is as expected, a cute "try to filch" gamble. Can they pull off a big coup, get money FREE from the scoundrels without having to pay anything (as is being promised by the Elite brokerage players called British Israel Elite [City of London]). How? Well, kids, "Where did all the gold bars go? Long time mi-iss-ing. Where did all the gold stuff go—a long time ago?" 2nd chorus: "To the Devil all of it—a long time ago." Well, you get my meaning.

Now for a tiny tale, but one of which great movies are made: "One day a long time ago—there were some men who thought they could gain the world and take the property, the gold AND control, while owning the people."

So, these men set about finding the perfect way to accomplish this feat. That wasn't too hard, what with everyone in POWER in the highest political places, so they set about their task with great gusto and macho mayhem.

Since the major gold and currency criminals had a big network and their own "gain the world" plan working it became an easy thing to merge parts of both plans into a big loop over which control could be exerted, THEY THOUGHT, until the end of time. But oops, they didn't take into consideration, GOD. Oh darn it! Neither did they take into consideration that once they started murdering Russell Herman, the holder of these precious documents, he wouldn't play ball with them and would see to it that they were CAUGHT in the act of sticky-finger rape and plunder with ever so little an amount of pillage.

Russell Herman called on ME, Yeorgos Ceres Hatonn, who happened to hold a pretty high position up the ladder—almost to the Cosmos, as a matter of fact. He placed the whole package, hook, line, and corporation into my CARE AND NURTURING.

All things were then registered and entered into the LEGAL BOOKS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Now for you inquiring minds: Mr. Bentsen of Texas took over the mandated qualifying and hiding of said stuff, HE THOUGHT. Oh, elaborate plans were carried out and even Col. Ollie North got to lie, cheat and steal, under the shelter of National Security, about those little deals—about most of which he knew NOTHING (at first). By the time Russell was dying, however, he knew how serious this mess had become. But after all, it became his problem of just how to extract information and signatures from Russell without getting Bush and brigade caught—you know, SPECIAL FORCES methods of information gathering. But, I could help Russell go through that phase of his ordeal by removing "him", basically, from the experience except to observe.

All good students of history will recall that Mr. Bentsen remained into the next administration (Clinton's) for some strange reason, beyond that of ordinary changeover. Further, at about that same time the Secretary of Treasury was being paid by the IMF and all the transfer of the U.S. Judicial System along with the Treasury Department was being finalized within the Federal Reserve System, IMF and World Bank. All the gold reserves had been shifted out of the vaults of the U.S. and into the vaults of the NEW system. The gold remaining in the United States went to the British Israel operations (through the brokerage houses and Elite banks) in New York, or was shipped for storage abroad.

I marvel at the limited scope of your realization, people. You know all that gold wealth being paid to Holocaust victims from here, there and everywhere? Why don't YOU apply, citizen? Have you not been HURT by that old and nasty Holocaust? No, I mean YOU, whoever you are or whatever you claim as race, creed or color. YOU HAVE BEEN HURT, YOU MUST REALIZE THAT—DON'T YOU?

The rest of the gold available was stashed hither and yon—yea, even with Saddam you-know-who.

Things went along fine except that, even after the recovering of the corporation and reconfirming and reconfirming the documents into legal negotiable CONTRACT, the BOYS didn't want to give up their lop-sided game.

By this time Rubin was in the Treasurer seat and Janet Reno was in the judicial seat of power—BOTH ARE PAID EMPLOYEES OF THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND (you will find that so too are such as the Sec. of State, Defense, etc., paid by FOREIGN POWERS THROUGH THE SAME SYSTEM). WITH NOTHING TO DO WITH THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA EXCEPT AS POWER-WIELDERS FOR FOREIGN POWERS. You will note that these people do not use the U.S. Constitution nor do they actually use the U.N. Charter—they use the Talmudic Law of the Elders of Zion.

Ah, but even with the ongoing security IN PLACE, the “Boys” didn’t quit. They came along and did their own thing—AGAIN. But it is quite unlawful and invalid—ISN’T IT? But by now a lot of collapse, horrendous fall-out and a lot of bad management have passed under the bridge of LIGHT and LIFE. In addition, a LOT of very important (at least to themselves) people were not aware of the game being shoved off onto their “responsibility” shoulders by those with access to “Plausible Denial”.

So came Soros and the money banditos snatching and snitching while dealing in currencies and gold reserves, gold in general, derivatives, options trading, rollovers and anything with multi-100 + percent pay-back per WEEK (or day), whichever was good on a given day and transaction.

Now, back at the farm, I could just watch and wait for I have a lot of patience and plenty of “time” to wait—until everything got into as big a mess as it appears to be today. So, we will just leave it there for now.

Our program is not to cash out anything, ladies and gentlemen, with undue coverage or non-restraint. The only way you can balance anything and bring any kind of order back into your world programs is to back that currency in your hands, now run into chaos, through a substantial “backing” with value. That is usually gold as the accepted commodity.

But, the grabbers are still in there “everywhere” doing their insane interest-gaining fiddling. And, moreover, most of the Elite politicians, who think themselves so very important, work right along with them. Both play games of intrigue and lies. They don’t even know any other way to play. AND, THEY ARE FEAR-FILLED COWARDS OF THE WORST KIND.

The brokerage butchers, i.e., Morgan, Smith Barney, et al., offer and give backup, agree to do loans on bond floats and lower interest than the IMF and hope to save face out there some five years minimum before they are found out as having bought the whole offering themselves. But, it seems there is nothing else they could have actually done.

Fine. But who would invest under such circumstances? Nobody. So, what has happened? SIMPLE: The Central Bank is backing the bonds with GOLD. Now, know that the Central Bank is the ONLY BANK that can even handle gold in the Philippines, so that gave the Central Bank the inside edge on this deal. The Philippines has NO INTENTION WHATSOEVER OF PAYING BACK THE IMF, PAYING OFF THE NATIONAL DEBT, OR PAYING ANY INTEREST BEYOND “SHOW”, AND NEVER THE PRINCIPLE INVOLVED. Never did and never will!

Ah—BUT BIG FLUB IN THE THINKING! THAT LEAVES NOTHING UPON WHICH TO BASE THE FUNDING AND, LATER, WHAM, BAM, AND THANK YOU MA’AM, THE GOLD WILL BE SEIZED, IF THINGS CONTINUE AS THEY ARE NOW MOVING, BY THE ELITE FORCES (ARMY) OF THE WORLD GOVERNMENT—AND THE PHILIPPINES BECOMES A THING (NATION) OF THE PAST HISTORY OF THE DOWNFALL OF THE WORLD KNOWN AS EARTH SHAN.

Are you with me so far, readers? Isn’t this a cute tale of intrigue and nastiness?

Cogs began to fall into the spokes, however, when George Bush bought a bunch of stashed gold from Saddam. They were just running a really smooth game and it is still in progress. That nice Inter-American Development Bank (Bunko) has just set up little nice banks all around, you know, the little Asian Development Bank, European Development Bank, Hong Kong Development Bank, East Po-dunk Development Bank, and ever so many more. This sprang out of Inter-American Investment Corporation—MINE—originally set up by the Bush Boys but never through Incorporation—OOPS, BIG GOOF!!

This also was pretty much inclusive of the DEPOSIT TRUST outfit who runs all the stocks, etc., yours included. Names are changed on investments and never do the investors even be able to FIND their accounts and all those that can be located NOW will not be around after y2k for that is why y2k was invented in the first place.

Several banks were set up specifically to run this money into arms, drugs, whatever, among which were BNL AND THE OLD AND FAMOUS BCCI.

Now comes along goodie-two-shoes with golden wings or something and thinks a change can be wrought? Yep, and these boots are gonna walk all over the spooks.

Can it be done through established banks? Of course, but not if they won’t play fair and just.

It WILL be done through non-interest bearing banks which have been kept as big dark secrets from you nice Judeo-Christians—and are generally recognized in the bank circles as ISLAMIC-TYPE BANKS.

Now, anybody who has gold can play in this game and they don’t even need us—UNTIL they find that the world forces can come forth and simply take their gold reserves up, up and away to their secret hiding places.

IF, HOWEVER, THERE SITS A DEBT AGAINST THE TAKERS, WHOEVER MIGHT REPLACE THE IMF OR WHATEVER—THE BANK SIMPLY HANDS THE AMOUNT OF OBLIGATION OVER TO THE TAKERS IN LIKE FORM—RIGHT OUT OF THEIR OWN POT.

Now, I ask, IS THIS HARD TO UNDERSTAND? I didn’t think so! And, are there banks enough, nations enough, and people enough to use such a strange idea as gold for currency? The U.S. did until the Federal Reserve took over the U.S. and then the World—thanks to Mr. Wilson.

Oh indeed, Global has truth and the right-real stuff. Who will dare to use it? The better question is: WHO DARES NOT TO USE IT IN THIS COLLAPSING WORLD ECONOMY?

The silly shysters put outrageous “market” numbers up for your attention. People, wake up, anyone with a net-line can put up any numbers they want you-the-dreamy-eyed to see and be fooled all the time. The Big Boys are out of their minds with concern and panic.

Do they want to “deal”? Well, as Bush said once, “...not at this time”. Actually they do but I wanted to remind everyone of the original offering of cooperation at the beginning of this odyssey. Let’s just call it the Yellow Brick Road Odyssey.

Can “they” play in the game too? Yep, and it would make everything so much easier on EVERYONE. THE WORLD WANTS A WAY TO RECOVER STABILITY, NOT HANG CRIMINALS. THE POLITICIANS AND THIEVES WILL HANG THEMSELVES, OR ONE ANOTHER.

Does my little Team know all this and/or the details of my negotiations or the twirp-games being put forth? No, and they don’t need to know. They just need to keep on plugging away and hold strong in the face of great difficulties. But always remember something: GOD’S DELAYS ARE NOT GOD’S DENIALS.

And the “Philippines” or anyone else can play any game they want to play—and it simply will only be a momentary relief—sort of like soothing the stomach ulcer pain—but the ulcer is just getting bigger and bigger and bigger and it will again hemorrhage without ability to put a cork in the hole.

The bandits may well be able to contain some of the people some of the time—but they cannot, nor shall they ever, contain ME.

I would in fact like to just sign off this little message as:

George C. Hatonn, C.E.O., C.O.O.,

GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION (GLOBAL) (aka GAIA)

I am also recognized as Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn (^hATON_n) (but unless you have a Greek or Aramaic-Arabic keyboard you can’t actually spell it correctly).

You may call me “Aton”.

Any questions may be directed to the Federal Reserve, IMF, World Bank or U.S. Treasury (but they will lie to you for the heads of those organizations have their orders and being good Talmudic Kol Nidre-disciplined children, will do so under oath). Look it up. ☸

Setting Up The Middle East FOR WAR!

It is not for me to argue in favor of the existence of the New World Order conspiracy. What is unarguable is that literally every American politician who left a profound legacy on the Middle East, and especially Israel, was and is a member of the Manhattan think-tank considered the headquarters of the NWO, the Council On Foreign Relations (CFR). A short list of some of the better known characters would include Henry Kissinger and his deputy Joseph Sisco, Cyrus Vance, James Baker, Warren Christopher, Walter Mondale, Madeleine Albright, et al. Beneath this level of public exposure lies an insidious cabal of CFR members such as Edgar Bronfman, head of the World Jewish Congress and Henry Seigman, chairman of the American Jewish Congress, who exert a powerful influence on Israeli and diaspora leaders and ultimately on Jewish public opinion. All the evidence more than just indicates that the current Middle East peace process was hatched by the CFR and is promoted with all the necessary weapons at its disposal.

This peace process is a surefire formula for war...and soon.

The year 2000 will most likely see Israel and its neighbors caught up in bloody turmoil.

THE OSLO ACCORDS— MADE IN NEW YORK

In August 1993, the Israeli government headed by Yitzhak Rabin announced that it was on the verge of signing a "peace" accord with the PLO. The American public was told that Washington was completely caught off guard by the announcement and was even angry for being left out of the negotiations held in Oslo.

Later testimony by actors in the Oslo Accord tell a very different story. In February 1994 I interviewed one of the two Israeli Oslo negotiators, Ron Pundak. He told me that "From the first day we arrived in Oslo we coordinated our negotiations with the State Department. At the end of each day's sessions, we reported back to Washington. Warren Christopher was very skeptical at first, but later became most helpful to us."

In August 1995, Rabin told NY Times columnist William Safire that he never wanted to become involved with this peace process.

He admitted that he was ordered to by President George Bush at a meeting in Kennebunkport, Maine in September, 1992. Bush demanded that Rabin "prepare the Israeli public for some painful withdrawals".

The CFR had long before corrupted Rabin, in large part through his "friendship" with Kissinger and now was calling in its cards. The same grooming and corrupting process has taken place throughout the top rungs of the Israeli political leadership, including with Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu who has now isolated himself from his government by carrying on what Rabin was forced to begin: Israel's weakening and then demise.

GOALS OF "PEACE"

Although Rabin was the tool to sell Oslo to the Israeli public, the ultimate goals of this peace process were taken over by Foreign Minister Shimon Peres and his deputy, Yossi Beilin. Ron Pundak noted, "Beilin doesn't believe in borders. He thinks they are the root cause of conflict and doesn't care if Israel loses hers."

Shimon Peres advanced such thinking with a program he called The New Middle East. In his vision, Israel would give up its present borders, including its most vital strategic positions, to join in an economic union with its Arab neighbors.

To secure the pullback of Israel's present borders to those of 1948, some 200,000 Jews would have to be removed from their homes. The Israeli government, through Beilin, obligated itself to carrying out a plan of delegitimization, in fact demonization, of the Jewish residents of the Administered Territories and later the Golan Heights, as a prelude to their forced removal.

The secret clauses of Oslo were leaked by an alarmed employee of a government ministry, first to Jerusalem Post reporter Steve Rodan. After a three-month fact-checking period, the Post printed the less frightening details on its front page and suffered expensive government retaliation immediately after.

Through an intermediary, I was given the details of what the Post backed off printing, which I published in my newsletter Inside Israel. Beilin's plan called for a covert war against the "settlers" or Jewish residents of disputed territories, which included incriminating the innocent in timely outrages and murdering public figures to instill terror and uncertainty. This plan ultimately led to the assassination of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin.

When these charges were first published, there was widespread disbelief that the political leadership of Israel could be so evil. Today in Israel, thanks to the bungled Rabin murder, perhaps a third of the public accept that this covert war did take place and is still taking place.

It is inevitable, that by the year 2000, the festering coverup of the Rabin assassination will finally break down. When the truth comes out, that Rabin's convicted assassin was a minor fall guy for a high-level international conspiracy, and that the leaders of the ruling Labor government carried out the hit, a sense of utter dismay and abandonment will erode the very foundations of Labor Zionism. The effects will be profound beyond immediate comprehension. One would hope that the ultimate result will be a massive reform of the Israeli political system.

WHAT THE OUTSIDERS WANT

In July 1997, the CFR finally revealed its plans for Israel in its Middle East Task Force report, headed by Henry Seigman. All doubts about the CFR's intentions evaporated in the report. It was recommended that Israel withdraw to its 1948 lines, that Jerusalem be divided and that half the city be the capital of a Palestinian state. The world now knew for a written fact what were the ultimate goals of the diplomacy of CFR members Albright and Clinton. The task force report was a formula for guaranteed war.

And, in fact, on a global plane, what has been done to Israel is no different than what was previously and subsequently arranged for Bosnia, Croatia, Rwanda, Somalia, Kosovo, et al. Bitter enemies were armed to the teeth and through diplomacy, forced to cooperate with each other elbow to elbow. One spark was all that was needed to explode numerous peoples placed in this situation recently and that spark will fly in Israel before or during the year 2000. Probably several months before.

Superficially, Israel is just another in a long line of nations chosen for chaos in preparation for the international change of status quo called the New World Order. But there is far more to the story and it centers around Jerusalem.

There is much symbolism surrounding Jerusalem and the end of the millenium and not a few people want a piece of the city when the flames die down. First among them is the Vatican. In a story broken first by La Stampa in Italy and Shishi in Israel, and later verified with documented proof in Haaretz, in May 1993, Shimon Peres promised the pope hegemony of the Old City of Jerusalem by the end of the year 2000. In October of 1998, the Vatican forced out Hebrew University, the tenants of a large property they own in West Jerusalem and are now building an embassy to be opened prior to the millenium. Barely a month later, the Holy See demanded a say in the final status of Jerusalem as dictated by the first Oslo Accord.

If the Vatican gets its way and inherits political control over the holy sites of Jerusalem, it will be greeted by many hundreds of thousands of Protestant groups from America and Europe who are planning to descend on the city prior to and during the year 2000 in anticipation of a messianic return. To satisfy these hopes, prophecies of Gog and Magog may have to be self-fulfilled.

THE WAR OF THE MILLENIUM

War is a near certainty and numerous scenarios could presage it. Most likely it boils down to the PLO and its sister organizations creating some atrocity too big for Israel to ignore. Troops will try to crush the Palestinian Authority and neighboring Arab states will attack Israel on land or with missiles to defend Islamic honor. Israel, now withdrawn from many of its most strategic defensive positions, and with an army of 50,000 PLO "policemen" standing mere meters from its cities, will be overwhelmed and forced to use unconventional weapons. The big powers will then step in, send foreign (i.e. UN) troops enmasse to keep the peace, dictate terms over the sovereignty of Jerusalem and greet the new millenium with a New World Order.

PRIVATE, PUBLIC OR E-MAIL?

Well, at the least this will be e-mail. It is personal and yet so non-PERSONAL as to require your thinking about this writing very, very carefully, and make sure that the ones needing this input—GET IT AND STUDY IT.

In order to “make sense” I have to name names and perhaps the very recognition of the personal connections will allow YOU to feel included in our family brotherhood circle of humanity for WE ARE ALL ALIKE, JUST TRYING TO FIND GOD AND TRYING, EVEN IF IN CONFUSION, TO FIND BALANCE, HARMONY, JOY AND LIFE OUT OF THIS CHAOS OF BOMBARDING INSANITY.

I am going to speak TO Debbie and Ron (Doris' daughter and son-in-law) for they confront a difficult time of dreaded “life is what happens while you are making other plans”. Children, it is alright and IT IS FINE, whatever the doctors might tell you or whether or not the answers seem negative or positive. You are NOT a lump in a breast or a blister on your toe. YOU ARE THE SPIRIT OF GOD WITHIN YOU—SOUL IN THE PRESENCE OF LIGHT—OR SOUL IN THE PRESENCE OF SEMI-DARKNESS. LET US PLEASE TURN ON THE “LIGHT”.

Mother doesn't know anything about this problem—just a little note, a paragraph—not to worry. NOT TO WORRY? WOW! But the fact is that the Mother has learned how to deal with severe and debilitating confrontations—but the CHILD is WORRIED, so how can the Mother not be concerned? So, what do we do as she asks me if we couldn't just speed this job up a bit and get her back home to at least be some kind of “Mother” after ten years of ONLY attending MY focus.

NO. Why? Because it WILL BE FINE any which way it works out at home and with Debbie. This will collapse if I remove Dharma from this task. Ah, indeed, the adversary is at work ALL THE TIME, eh what?

A Mother or Father would have the surgery FOR the child—but alas, the Mother or Father do not have lumps in the breast that might be the big C-word. OR DO THEY? They certainly have some things which are far more debilitating and dreadful as bodies and brains age instead of being allowed to simply MATURE.

Debbie will say: “I didn't ask for anything...”. And, correct, right, and right-on. SHE DIDN'T and that is why I feel free to give this lecture today and make an effort to offer REALITY into this plot of distracting call back to human affairs.

This is a time for prayerful SUPPORT, a sharing of love and compassion WITHOUT judgments, without conclusion and without any thought to “self”. It is a time for family TO BE FAMILY—BROTHERS AND SISTERS TO JOIN HANDS AND BECOME SIBLINGS WHILE SETTING ASIDE ALL THOSE NASTY QUARRELS AND OBSERVATIONS AS TO SELF. It is time for those with whom there is contact—just quietly give support to Parent and CHILD.

I don't want to seem to come across with more focus than a lump deserves for it is the YOU that is my mission, and not some perceived possibility that you are apt to turn into whatever you choose.

I want to remind you of something very important: A patient is usually so much WORSE off after the hounds of the scalpel get through with the “treatment”—but we can't do anything about THAT because the strength in the child's “self” is simply rarely strong enough to refuse anything—especially in the face of a physician father, a practical step-father, a bevy of doctors looking for a paycheck, and on and on and on.

There ARE some reasons that “some” surgery might well be very beneficial in this one instance—but not for the “lumps”. If there are lump(s) then the prognosis is very probable that there is nothing “serious as to big C” going on but I don't think there will be time allowed for checking that out with Vit-E, colloids and so forth.

I am more interested in the lumps under the armpits, if there are any—and what is planned for them. The lymph system is structured BY GOD to take up and handle those little cells that go nuts, and when you remove the very system structured to take care of malfunctioning cells and microbes, et al., you have lowered your capacity to handle the rest of the processing of said malfunctioning circumstances. Surgery just causes spread of any contaminate because if there is a lump—the body has already “walled-off” and is trying to contain its multiplying mutant cells.

By the way, what you refer to as “cancer” is nothing more than a natural, normal process of the body—which unfortunately you let get out of control. A cancer cell is a mutation of a body cell—no more and no less. There is only ONE kind of cancer—MUTATION OF CELLS. The only difference is in what kind of cells are involved. Now, with this all in mind, let us toss the immediate focus aside. You confront whatever is next, like the bridge, when you get to it. You can't cross a bridge until you at least get to the bridge. And worry? Why WORRY? Worry makes you much sicker than a normal disease like cancer.

People do NOT DIE OF CANCER—they may allow death BECAUSE of the process, but death itself ALWAYS comes from some other impact on the body. YOU CONTROL THAT PROCESS AND THAT IMPACT—NOT CANCER CELLS.

So, we have confronted THE WORST, while still in ignorance, so let us work from there.

If results are the worst, then you start there where you have already faced the beast—at the worst possible possibility. It is then all the way UP from there! But, don't lie to God or to self—THE WORST IS WHAT YOU ALWAYS TURN TO FIRST ANYWAY, SO LET'S GET IT OUT OF THE WAY FIRST. Then you blame self for whatever you can dig up that you might HAVE DONE to deserve this new bat-across-the-bean. NOTHING! GOD DOES NOT PUNISH—MAN PUNISHES—and usually that punishment is thrust inward unto SELF. HOW ARROGANT OF YOU AND HOW INSULTING TO GOD.

The past is something GONE, chelas. It WAS, and it now is gone—so why can't you LET IT GO? Why do you harbor regrets, guilt, negative deservings, and choose to just say “God's will”? No, it is NOT God's will for GOD IS PERFECTION—NOT DISEASE AND MALFUNCTIONS.

YOU have this tiny moment of time called “present” to choose to let go of those bombarding thoughts which become your reality, or move into hopelessness of being thrust upon the whims of whatever you are going to now believe and consider your lot in life.

Yes indeed I AM SPEAKING TO EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU.

Remember that the Phoenix comes up from the ashes of what WAS, into a wondrous lifeform that IS, and bears with it the HOPE of Man's relationship toward perfection WITHIN GOD.

Ah, but you still need a bit of help in the hard spots? Of course you do. So, go forth to the bookstore and get TWO books by Dale Carnegie: How to Stop Worrying and Start Living AND How to Win Friends and Influence People. Then even before you get the books—HAVE A LITTLE TALK, HOPE, AND UNDERSTANDING WITH GOD!

THIS IS THE ONLY WAY TO HANDLE ANYTHING FROM A LUMP TO A NUCLEAR HOLOCAUST.

Now, for the onlookers or individual insight seekers: ISN'T IT TIME YOU SOLVED YOUR OWN PROBLEMS? Isn't it TIME, and past time, that you get with the program of LIFE, forgiveness, love and sharing that you want to espouse but not make change enough in self to accomplish? You know what I mean: “Let them make the first move...”? They make the first move and you STILL LIVE IN RESENTMENT AND NEGATIVE OPINIONS, AND IF YOU OF MINE ARE NOT BIG ENOUGH TO GROW

FROM THIS NEGATIVE TRAP—HOW EXPECT YOU TO HAVE ANYTHING ELSE IN YOUR LIVES AS YOU WANT IT? Until you get right with SELF, you can't experience success in any field of endeavor for it will NEVER be quite enough. You can't or won't lose weight or gain weight or move to any solution to your misperceptions that you ARE these things, and you will continue to punish selves until you let the damned demons drown in the hot-spot.

How can we LEAD a world of change—if we carry so much baggage, unmade beds, guilt, and keep ourselves PRISONERS in our own chosen cell? LIFE IS EXACTLY WHAT YOU MAKE IT—PERIOD. NOBODY ELSE CAN MAKE YOUR WORLD, YOUR LIFE, YOUR CHOICES—ONLY YOU.

You choose your own perceptions and attitudes. You keep your little addictions and habits as if they are your only friends in life. They are NOT your friends and they will too late let you realize that they are your deadly enemy and that all the while you COULD HAVE CHANGED THEM OUT AND DUMPED THEM. But you didn't? WELL, WHAT STOPS YOU NOW? God presented YOU in HIS PERFECTION, so how dare you be so arrogant as to deny His perfection? How dare (most of you) to claim weakness too great to change? The facts are that you are too STRONG in hanging onto that which you call weakness to step out there and shed the skin of the serpent. And NO, you don't run hither and yon to find someone else, some other place, some other anything—YOU ARE IN WHAT IS. TAKE CONTROL OF THIS MOMENT AND THE REST WILL TAKE CARE OF ITSELF—IF YOU DO SO IN SINCERE WILLINGNESS TO WORK WITH GOD INSTEAD OF AGAINST HIM. AND PEOPLE WATCHING AND COMPARING YOUR OWN FAULTS AND FEARS WITH ANYONE ELSE'S CIRCUMSTANCE—STOP IT.

You will enjoy the flowers sent as people find love and a moment of desire to cheer you in your misfortunes? NO—go get yourself some flowers and ENJOY them NOW. You want others to produce that filling for the holes in your blankies and heart—NO, FILL THEM UP WITH GOD—AND GO GET SOME FLOWERS TO CELEBRATE THAT RELATIONSHIP! LET US FEAST ON BEAUTY, HUMOR, LAUGHTER, JOY AND YES, SOME FLOWERS FOR YOURSELF FOR YOU DESERVE IT—TODAY! YOU DON'T NEED IT WHILE THE PAIN IS GREAT OR THE BODY FADING—YOU NEED IT RIGHT NOW TO WALK WITH YOU THROUGH THE DARKNESS TO BEAR THE LIGHT WHEN YOU NEED IT. BOTH ARE NICE!

I remind you of myself that NOW is not the time to be cutting out on old Dad. THE VERY BEST OF ALL TIMES AND WORLDS IS NOW HAPPENING AND WILL BECOME. Don't punish self by insuring you don't get to share over some foolish perceptions tossed onto you by anyone—especially SELF. YOU MUST BE STRONG ENOUGH TO STAND SQUARELY ALONE—FOR YOU ARE NEVER ALONE NO MATTER HOW HARD YOU TRY TO ACCOMPLISH THAT CIRCUMSTANCE. WHEN YOU CAN STAND STRONG ON YOUR OWN TWO FEET—YOU WILL FIND THAT YOU DON'T NEED ANYTHING ELSE AND ALL THOSE THINGS YOU THOUGHT YOU NEEDED ARE NOT “NECESSARY”—ONLY NICE FROSTING. What usually happens is that you realize that all those things you FEARED are GONE!

Are the best years yet to come? How can you even ask? The other years ARE GONE, KITTENS. So, the best must be yet to come. (???) It is obvious to me that the best MUST be yet to come for I don't see any of you stopping the complaining and moaning about this or that and begging for something to be changed. But, you are going to have to get interested in that which is OUTSIDE yourself, with bigger importance and interest, or you just wallow around in your trap. If you don't wish and work for the stars, you can never achieve the gaining thereof for you ARE WHAT YOU THINK AND BELIEVE.

So, what am I saying, in summary? Get with the program I offer, friends. Stop tossing my writings aside while you continue to live in your limitations just because that is what is available. GET CONTROL OF YOURSELF! And, when you see that living and sharing JOY is so much the better than dwelling on the gossip of negative “stuff”, you will find growth and abundant living flooding over you like a warm blanket of security. Then, you will find that whatever happens is but an interesting experience through which you are free to choose from myriads of alternatives in the acting out of the play regarding THAT experience. KNOW THAT FOR EVERY PROBLEM THERE ARE INFINITE SOLUTIONS—YOU ONLY HAVE TO FIND THE ONE THAT SUITS YOU—POSITIVE OR NEGATIVE. THE NEGATIVE SOLUTIONS ARE ALWAYS AVAILABLE—YOU HAVE TO CREATE THE BEST POSITIVE SOLUTION.

I am told that I am too harsh? TOO HARSH? YOU HAVE PERFECTION AND ALL OF CREATION AROUND YOU IN UNLIMITED MEASURE—AND YOU JUST CHOOSE TO THINK OF ME AS TOO HARSH? WELL, I GET TIRED OF YOU COMPLAINING WHEN YOU HAVE EVERYTHING IN CREATION JUST WAITING FOR YOU TO RECEIVE IT.

Let me example this: Just last evening my people met with the management and council of advisors of PAL. The management representative argued that what is offered is “just too good to be true” and “we don’t even want to waste time on it”. Waste time on something “too good to be true”—WITHOUT LOOKING? Oh, a secret fact not shared, is that THAT party had already declined, in his great wisdom, last September, this “too good to be true ‘thing’”. There have been months of heartache, pain and agony over his disallowance of this program to be considered as offered. What do you think he can do but defend self and cost the players more pain and agony to save his own self-image and save his job?

Does this mean that YOU drop it, toss it and/or bury it? No, you pick a positive alternative plan and GO FOR IT while working toward the PERFECT SOLUTION. And yes, there WILL be a “perfect” solution even though it will take some effort to accomplish the perfection that goes WITH a perfect solution.

Indeed, I am going to ask my secretary/speaker to trust me, have faith that I will keep my promises to her, and we will attend the rest of our job HERE. Each day we will consider WHAT IS and be flexible enough to work from that KNOWING and not from “what if”. A world rests waiting on our shoulders, friends—truly, for positive change. And yet, not one of the masses is more important than the ONE in focus. KNOW IT. GOD WILL ALWAYS KEEP HIS PROMISES—WHEN YOU KEEP YOURS. I WILL ATTEND MY CHILDREN’S NEEDS IF YOU ARE ATTENDING MINE—EVERY TIME—ALWAYS.

So, what do I suggest for Debbie, lest we forget why this writing? Get whatever you choose over with, child, for you are needed greatly—in the days upcoming, if you can only think and write. We don’t need you to lift the furniture or even the computers—we need your presence, your mind and your hands so that we can get the opportunities out there in the next step following the “getting”. Let us look forward to the success and the abundance and THE VERY JOY of success, building of lives and businesses, and the camaraderie of family and love within our brotherhood.

I do suggest that Deb and Ron join some of the friends so that you are not alien faces when we get “home”. We need to be able to RUN, not have to “catch up”. We need each talent and every talent because we must blossom quickly and we start with OUR OWN.

What do YOU want to do with your abundance? Indeed, you had best have a thought about it. What are your talents and how best can you serve AND RECEIVE? Get a dream and let us get on with accomplishing it as IF GOD WERE TOTALLY WITHOUT LIMITS AND YOU, WITH GOD, ARE WITHOUT LIMITS. THINK BIG—AS BIG AS THE UNIVERSE FOR WHAT YOU THINK IS WHAT YOU WILL BECOME AND HAVE.

Is this too much for all of you to accept? Well, I’m sorry that you are so late in catching up with us. And, is there something you find that holds you back? Ah, education? Does it really? No, for if you believe you can achieve, you will get whatever you need to accomplish the goals. So, I will let you off the one hook you always hang-up on—that old saw of “no funds for building what I need or getting that shop (or house, or business, or garden)”. I intend to make very sure you who have spouted that at me while working on my projects—are buried in funds, if for no other reason than to take that argument away from your “guard-dog” of ticking selves. But I expect you to attend YOUR BUSINESS and never mind the business of another—personal or public. The business of one is NOT THE BUSINESS OF ANY OTHER.

I know that you think otherwise, but over in the “dying fields” of reality—it is ALL BUT IMPOSSIBLE TO GIVE MONEY AWAY! NO, I MEAN IT—IT IS ALL BUT IMPOSSIBLE TO GIVE THE STUFF AWAY. NEW CONCEPT? INDEED. BUT WE ARE GOING TO GET IT DONE AND MY PEOPLE ARE GOING TO REAP THE HARVEST OF PLENTY, SO DON’T BARRIER THE DOCK IN FRONT OF OUR ONCOMING SHIP LOADED WITH GOD’S BLESSINGS.

I remind you that what you ask for in sincere petition in need—will have both response and that which you really do need. You must only assemble the physical manifestation for GOD EXPECTS A PARTNER—NOT A WELFARE RECIPIENT.

I am not here to give you the lash of wet noodles except against your negative perceptions and expectations. GOD IS POSITIVE EXPECTATION, JOY, LOVE, LIGHT AND LIFE. Release those negative perceptions UNTO HIM and let go. Healing (cure) is assumed so. You must assume healing—and then stop trying to RE-cure, RE-heal and RE-OPEN. If you turn something OVER TO GOD—stop taking it back the minute you get up off your assets. Stop carrying the weight of all things upon your head lest it always be bent from the load and the back humped from the baggage. There are some things you must learn from which to turn and burn—and refuse to longer carry. Isn’t it time you actually started believing in GOD? And remember:

The greatest gift we can give to others, is a good example!

But, listen carefully: You cannot PRETEND a facade in example lest everyone know you are pretending. When the good example is actually YOU—then it is already perfection in the classroom.

If you perceive you have somehow failed along the way—you have! Therefore, forgive self, love self so you can love God, turn it out from you and MOVE ALONG for you can’t go back, you cannot change that which was—and if you want to say “I’m sorry for...” then do so—for SELF but do not longer wail or gnash teeth over what WAS for there is no way to change that past—only allow recovery in the best advantage. But move on either way. What you did—you did. There is nothing more to be said about it. If others can’t get beyond your past—then they are indeed to be given compassion until they know better and then, at best, if they change not their own attitudes, pity them but do not attend the silliness.

You can become ANYTHING you desire—but not until you stop punishing yourself for your perceived “stuff”. GOD IS NOT PUNISHMENT—GOD IS FREEDOM FROM PUNISHMENT. If you can’t understand this, then you need far more lessons than you are “accepting” from your guides, teachers, gurus, or positive-thinking giants. “I’ll just hang on to this one thing...” is not THE answer. THAT is the very “one” thing that you HAVE TO GET RID OF, CHELAS. It is that ONE THING which is placing such limitation on your being as to stop you dead in the bog. NOBODY HAS DONE ANYTHING TO YOU UNTIL YOU ACCEPT IT UNTO SELF. THINK ABOUT IT.

And, Debbie and Ron, know that I LOVE YOU and that I take this opportunity to use your immediate circumstance to share this necessary information and observation for, as we move into the days ahead—ALL MUST GET STRAIGHT IN THEIR THINKING LEST THEY BE LEFT DRAGGING ALONG “WISHING”. LET US HAVE NO MORE “REGRETS” BUT ONLY HOPE AND KNOWING OF THAT GOODNESS AND ABUNDANCE WAITING FOR YOUR RECEIVING. BUT, IF YOU USE THAT CARELESSLY IN IGNORANCE, THAT TOO WILL GIVE YOU WORSE NIGHTMARES. SO ALLOW GROWTH AND LET’S GET THE DREAMS OUT THERE FOR THE SHARING AND EXPECTATION OF REALITY.

In ABSOLUTE love, not unconditional feelings, do I take leave from this keyboard and offer the shelter of truth, knowing and realization of capability of creation and, with GOD—ALL things are possible and therefore, WITH GOD, you have only one truth—with you all things are possible as well. We are not working in Dharma’s plan, E.J.’s plan, Rick’s or Charles’ plan—WE ARE ALL WORKING IN GOD’S PLAN AND THEREFORE, THAT MEANS “MY” PLAN AND EACH BEING IS EQUALLY IMPORTANT IN CONTRIBUTION AND RECEIVING. YOU MUST WORK WITHIN YOUR PLAN—BUT WITH THE INCLUSION OF MY PLAN, PLEASE. I MUST USE EACH CIRCUMSTANCE THAT EACH AND ALL MUST RELATE AND GROW, LEST OUR LITTLE TROOPS ARE STRAGGLED ALL OVER THE LANDSCAPE INSTEAD OF BEING AT READY TO BUILD AND GROW.

Now, Mothers everywhere, I offer this support that you may make choices in REALITY of circumstances and not on assumed anything. Turn it over to me and I shall see to it, please. The call compels the answer and this is your answer! This never means that there is no grieving, no sad moments, no loneliness—just know that what you turn over—is in good hands even without Allstate. When we have confrontation of problems, just to make silly jokes is not a solution to anything, but rather an indication of foolish ignorance. Serious things deserve serious consideration and thorough input while also realizing that each individual has a right to their own perceptions and perspectives which may well be totally in opposition to yours. That is fine for yours are not always RIGHT. But then, the stubbornness of the child must also be considered for an abyss between is the manufacture of BOTH. Relationships must be built on mutual RESPECT and, therefore, BUILD THAT RESPECT—STARTING WITH SELF.

Salu, Dad.

Editor's note: To fulfill the legal requirements, we are presenting the following as a Legal Notice for four consecutive weeks. This is the second of four presentations. Contact information for Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) is: 5300 W. Sahara Ave., Suite 101, Las Vegas, Nevada 89102; phone: 702-873-3488.

—LEGAL NOTICE— CERTIFICATE OF DEBT

The CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and the UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE (international) provide a procedure for the legal authentication of a debt in the case of the Debtor refusing to acknowledge such debt. This procedure includes the notification of the Debtor of the details of the debt and a notice of intent to collect. After a period of ninety (90) days from the date of the notice and if there has been no response from the Debtor the debt is made authentic and collection procedures may begin. There is no appeal from this procedure; it is final.

On April 28, 1998 the then owner, Rick Martin, of a debt (described in detail later) of the UNITED STATES TREASURY/FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM (UST/FED) assigned the debt to GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION (GAIA), a Nevada corporation. GAIA immediately initiated the procedure by informing UST/FED of the nature of the debt and of GAIA'S intent to collect. GAIA then took the additional step of running the legal notice in a weekly newspaper of world-wide circulation four consecutive weeks beginning May 5, 1998. UST/FED has made absolutely no response and the statute of limitation for countering the legal notice has run its course. Now, this document and its publication in the same newspaper four consecutive weeks serve as adequate and final verification of the UST/FED debt to GAIA. Nothing further is legally required; no denial or appeal is possible.

The debt referred to is described as follows: The principal and interest accrued to Bonus Contract-Certificate Number 3392-181, approved by Legislative Resolution on April 24-27, 1875, Duly Authorized by the President of Peru, April 26, 1875 and Acknowledged and Accepted May 1, 1875, Re-affirmed, Re-confirmed and Reconformed on behalf of the government by the Consulate General of Peru, August 21, 1989, Order Number 7309, Document Number 046, Duly Sealed by said Counsel General of Peru at Los Angeles, California, United States of America, assumed and guaranteed by the United States of America pursuant to Presidential Order confirmed by the US Senate per petition of Elihu Root, Secretary of War, in 1906, further assumed and guaranteed by the Federal Reserve System pursuant to the Federal Reserve Act of 1913 and recorded August 1, 1994, by Deed, Instrument Number 1893, Book of Deeds Number 433, Page 849, City of Nashville, State of Illinois and subsequently recorded August 10, 1998 at 8:35 A.M., Clark County Recorder's Office, Las Vegas, Nevada, Official Records 980810 Instrument 00323.

The principal and interest are payable in gold coin or gold bullion and portions thereof may be assigned, sold, loaned or leased to others as collateral, but only as collateral, and no claim will be entered by any holder directly to the UST/FED without the express written consent of GAIA. Further, no holder, including GAIA, will in any way use the asset to the detriment of the national security or economic stability of the United States of America. The assignor of the debt to Mr. Martin, Russell Herman (also spelled Herrman and Herrmann), a very patriotic American, requested of Mr. Martin that Herman's business partner, V. K. Durham, be given a certain amount of time to implement his wishes and, if unsuccessful, to use the asset to the benefit of all people, reserving forty-eight percent (48%) of its value for the express benefit of the citizens of the fifty States of the United States of America. When appropriate, the granting of such an asset to the citizens of America (we-the-people) will result in an era of enormous prosperity which will, when also distributed to other nations, buoy up and expand all of the world's economies for all of its people, not just the rich as is now the condition.

Mr. Martin and his associates have worked for years, first in an attempt to assist V. K. Durham and later as the direct assignee, to find a way to work with the UST/FED within the United States to effect the use of this asset for the benefit of the American people FIRST. That effort was given no aid by the UST and was steadfastly blocked by the FED, even though at least four different "offers" have been made to Mr. Martin and GAIA ranging from $5 million to many billions "to go quietly away". The FED has been on notice for some five years that the debt would be perfected through public notice and they have arrogantly ignored that warning. It is authenticated and validated and will be used as collateral in as many ways and situations as possible for the benefit all of the people without any mindfulness of race, religion, creed or color.

1/29/99 #2 HATONN

A GOLDEN WORLD?

Hatonn: (GP)—I am diligently making every effort to meet needs and still function as an example of species development beyond the dark ages. Life is not hugging trees OR chopping them down. So, when playing in a role in this game of human endeavor, I have to fit the needs of WHAT IS and not be all things to each and all men. You either now recognize me as a journalist or you don't, and that is your problem and none of my own. You may perceive anything you wish regarding myself—BUT I SUGGEST YOU BE VERY CAREFUL WHEN YOU THRUST NEGATIVE INFORMATION AGAINST ME FOR I AM FULLY OUT OF PATIENCE WITH THE ADVERSARY.

And, ah, I find that a change in my "heading" brings confusion. STOP IT! I present identification and YOU get clearance—or not, as you wish. I am dealing with a very human, physical environment and not your little security blankets. Harsh? I hope not because we need mature and thinking people and not children robots with their cuddly little blankies. It is a big and hard world and you can be more easily misled by the giant gurus than by any INFORMATION shared with you from the level of REALITY.

"But, aren't we apt to lose readers if you don't stick to totally 'spiritual' pathways?" I DO STICK TO SPIRITUAL PATHWAYS—TOTALLY AND IN TRUTH. You most often deal with idealistic fantasy tours of non-duty. This is not a NON-DUTY operation, chelas, and that may as well be faced now because you have had a decade with me to learn fact from fiction. I am many things and many faces, but as we share here: I am a journalist and information is my game—not necessarily PERFECTION. My intent is to bring before you, as in "information", things which often SAY far more by the presence of the article than the information contained in it regarding the topic which may appear to be uppermost.

I am going to example that idea NOW, readers, and let's play a little game and see what YOU find in this presentation. My Team found the facts, the confirmation of ongoing work and an incredible sense of accomplishment.

The following article, which I take the liberty to use here, with much appreciation and CREDIT to source, is interesting and, as to what it means to YOU? Possibly nothing, possibly "everything". No, I won't explain it or its relationship to me or any of my people.

Since the article flowed through Cal Burgin to, we assume, Dr. Al, we will probably be disrupting something intended for the CONTACT this week but I don't think either will mind my usurping this one.

[QUOTING:] GOLD EAGLE, http://www.gold-eagle.com/editorials_98/taylor112598.html

[H: Jan. 21, '99. Date of the article or publication is not available but seems to be the end of Nov. 1998. In further using description of the item in point we will note that we will be referring to the Islamic DINAR which bears the likeness of two wondrous towers which Jordan Maxwell might better describe than myself. And, please don't let Jordan think we have in any way deserted our commitment to him for assistance for we have not. Neither have we forgotten Norio H. or other instrumental personages in our growth and education to this point. Others I will leave without publicity for obvious reasons.]

THE ISLAMIC (GOLD) DINAR

[H: PLEASE PAY ATTENTION, NOT JUST TO THE TOPIC BUT TO THE COUNTRIES LATER NAMED. YES, IT IS VERY IMPORTANT.]

Pakistan, a Muslim country, recently exploded an atomic bomb following the same action by its Hindu neighbor, India. These bombs everyone has heard about and the potential for these and other countries to end the existence of mankind on Earth certainly is frightening to everyone except perhaps stock market-crazed westerners who are simply not sober enough to care. Frightening as the atomic bomb is, another kind of bomb, namely The Islamic Dinar, could pose an even bigger threat to our existing financial system which I believe would be enormously bullish for gold. Although I believe the Islamic Bomb may be a threat to the status quo, almost no one has yet caught on to this very recent development. [H: Emphasis mine and I shall take this liberty along the way throughout this article.]

The Islamic Dinar is a newly created 100% GOLD currency that its backers hope and believe will become the currency of more than ONE BILLION MUSLIMS. [H: Now, that beats the Euro backed by NOTHING, doesn't it?] The organizers of this currency see the Islamic Dinar as an eventual rival to the U.S. Dollar as a reserve currency, and are hopeful it will usher in the demise of the U.S. Dollar. So far, I have learned most of what I know about this movement from the Internet. The Internet is very often used to spread misinformation as well as truth. So, it may be possible that this movement is not all that it is cracked up to be on its web site (www.users.dircon.co.uk/~netking/murabitn.htm). However, I believe the movement is real and, for reasons noted below, I think it could indeed pose a threat of devastation to the U.S. Dollar and existing world order. Following are a couple of the reasons I think this could be true. [H: Well, it IS true and it can actually destroy "the dollar" as you know it but our own intentions are to simply move out from under the "dollar" anyway, except as a measure for value. There must always be something of equal or better value to utilize with any changing "order" and our intent is to allow things to flow naturally in our endeavors toward insight and use IN CHANGE. You would be actually AMAZED at how far along this project has moved.]

ENORMOUS CARNAGE TO ASIAN MUSLIMS RESULTING FROM OUR FLOATING RATE SYSTEM

One of the reasons given for the continued insane rise in Wall Street has been the flow of money OUT of the Asian countries into the U.S. markets in search of a safe haven. But this makes no sense to the tens of millions of Muslims in Indonesia who are now suffering through a fate worse than we faced in the 1930s. Indonesia, which is comprised virtually 100% of Muslims, contains the 4th largest population in the world. Those people blame Suharto but they also blame the U.S. because Suharto was financially tied into the U.S. and our internationally dominant fractional reserve banking system. This underlying anger, which has been caused by enormous devastation suffered by hundreds of millions of Muslims throughout Asia, is likely to provide a powerful incentive for Muslims to "stick it to the Great Satan" by selling dollars and buying Islamic dinars. [H: Still wonder why the Khazarian banksters are so p—articulated off at the Arabs and Islamic nations? Doesn't this perhaps explain why the Iraq hotshot trials and tribulations when it is realized that the banks, as are, along with the dollar, are about to go down. And NO, this only strengthens our program every way from last Friday—remember, GOLD backing.] At the same time, these people see this as a way to protect themselves by holding real money rather than the fake paper IOUs which have, overnight, lost up to 70% of its purchasing power. The dominant theme of the sponsors of the Islamic Dinar is the liability aspects of paper money and that as a result it is dishonest money. Moreover, as recently seen in Asia, when the promise to pay fails, the dollars fail, the system collapses, and human misery is compounded. This may be little more than theory to most of us in the U.S. but it is a harsh reality for hundreds of millions of Muslims who live in Indonesia and elsewhere in Asia. It may be safe to say these people are mad as hell and they may not take it much longer. [H: Pretty well stated, I believe.]

[H: PLEASE PAY CAREFUL ATTENTION TO THESE NEXT PARAGRAPHS.]

Islamic Religious Beliefs: Not unlike Christians who have forgotten the basics of their faith founded on biblical teachings, so too have many, if not most, Muslims forgotten the basics of their faith based on the Qur'an. One of the main pillars of the Islamic faith is the observance of Zakat, which dictates that Muslims must give at least 2-1/2 % of their income to the poor. Wealthy people are encouraged to give more. The important factor to keep in mind as far as gold is concerned is that these gifts are to be paid ONLY with tangible merchandise and that it cannot be paid with a PROMISE TO PAY, which is, in fact, all that paper money IS. The Zakat is to be paid with honest money or actual substance, not a promise to pay. The Islamic Dinar, which is a 100% GOLD COIN and unit of currency, fits this Islamic requirement.

HOW SUBSTANTIAL IS THE MOVEMENT?

At this stage, the movement to convert from paper money to real money in the Muslim world is small, but if information I have is accurate, it could be about to explode in size driven by the reasons noted above. [H: It is actually moving along to be able to achieve this change within, say, a couple of months and, as it stands, your Big Boys of the Banksters' dollars will pay for it.] Here are some of the recent developments which suggest the movement may be well on its way to becoming a monetary force to be reckoned with.

The State Government of Kelantan, the northeast Sultanate of Malaysia, has a week ago officially adopted the ISLAMIC DINAR [as] its economic policy. This means that the ISLAMIC DINAR will circulate through the hands of hundreds of thousands of people in a physical form. It seems possible that as word of this movement travels among Muslims, demand to open accounts and begin using this medium of exchange could grow very rapidly in the Muslim world. [H: Then goodbye IMF and World Banks in these communities. And, when it is realized that the DOLLAR IS BASED ON NOTHING, there will be no payback because the receivings, in the first place—HAD NO VALUE.]

The ISLAMIC DINAR IS NOW BEING PRIVATELY USED IN MORE THAN 22 COUNTRIES AND IS CURRENTLY BEING MINTED IN FOUR COUNTRIES. Eventually, the list of countries where it is traded is likely to grow to a much larger number given the large number of Islamic Countries who are members in the Islamic Development Bank, which includes some 51 countries. During 1982, the Islamic Development Bank was prescribed by the IMF as a holder of Special Drawing Rights (SDRs). SDRs are a unit of IMF currency tied to gold. The Islamic Dinar, which is the unit of account at the Islamic Development Bank, is equal in value to one SDR. MEMBER COUNTRIES OF THE ISLAMIC DEVELOPMENT BANK ARE AFGHANISTAN, ALBANIA, ALGERIA, AZERBAIJAN, BAHRAIN, BANGLADESH, BENIN, BRUNEI DARUSSALAM, BURKINA FASO, CAMEROON, CHAD, COMOROS, DJIBOUTI, EGYPT, GABON, GAMBIA, GUINEA, GUINEA-BISSAU, INDONESIA, IRAN, IRAQ, JORDAN, KAZAKHSTAN, KUWAIT, KYRGYZ REPUBLIC, LEBANON, LIBYA, MALAYSIA, MALDIVES, MALI MAURITANIA, MOROCCO, MOZAMBIQUE, NIGER, OMAN, PAKISTAN, PALESTINE, QATAR, SAUDI ARABIA, SENEGAL, SIERRA LEONE, SOMALIA, SUDAN, SYRIA, TAJIKISTAN, TUNISIA, TURKEY, TURKMENISTAN, UGANDA, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES AND YEMEN. [H: And this only the visible parts of the ice cap (glacier in motion). Note geographic locations as named and think then about Southeast Asia and then move right on over to a coalition of intent, in practical minting, of Asia and Russia. Remember something, you sleeping babies: MUSLIM IS A "CHRISTIAN BASED" RELIGION AND NO, I DID NOT SAY "JESUS". THE "JESUS" RELIGION HAS NEVER BEEN A "CHRISTIAN" RELIGION, OH SHOCK, SHOCK! AND THE POOR TEACHER WHO GOT LABELED "JESUS" IS ABOUT TO STRIKE BACK AS IN "THE" EMPIRE STRIKES BACK.] With a total Muslim population of 1.1 BILLION (19.2% of the world's population), if even a small percentage of Muslims begin to demand Islamic Dinars as their medium of exchange instead of paper, it could have a dramatic effect on the price of gold. [H: Umm Humm and so, NOW, who wants to help us during this work phase? AND WHY, AMONG OTHER REASONS OBVIOUS, DO YOU THINK GEORGE SOROS PREDICTED THE COLLAPSE OF THE U.S. ECONOMY—NEXT?]

An Islamic Agency has been set up to handle accounts and payments between accounts in the city of Dubai. [H: And to P. Creech: Why do you think L.M. was in Dubai when I was looking for him and no, he never made that call back after the first contact when he "couldn't talk" right then.] This will allow the use of Islamic Dinars to spread in the Muslim world as a medium of exchange. At present, this undertaking is quite modest, with only $200,000 worth of gold deposited in Dubai. Dubai is viewed as an attractive place to keep money away from the taxation authorities since there are no taxes on individuals, corporations or merchandise sales there. This spokesman for the Islamic Dinar mint also claims his organization has a good relationship with the Royal Family in Dubai, which should help the group's efforts. After the summer a campaign aimed to the Muslim world to open accounts in dinars is anticipated and the goal is to open 10,000 accounts within the first year of operation.

The organization may link up with another new and exciting development in the modern world as far as gold is concerned. They may soon be trading gold Islamic Dinars globally on the Internet through an organization located at www.e-gold.com [H: BE VERY CAREFUL OF THIS, READERS.] Readers are encouraged to visit this web site for more information, but essentially, the technology now exists to enable you to buy and sell gold right from your computer. It will be quite easy to make compatible our Islamic Agency, which will be operated by a Web Site to your e-gold Web Site.

[H: STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN: THIS IS EXACTLY WHAT WILL DO YOU IN, LITTLE GOLD SEEKERS. THE U.S. HAS FULLY LAID PLANS TO CONFISCATE GOLD, AGAIN, JUST AS IN THE BEGINNING OF THE 1930s. WHEN THAT HAPPENS YOU WILL HAVE TO TURN IN YOUR GOLD "ANYTHINGS" AND THE DINARS WILL ALSO BE TAKEN AND SO WILL ALL BANK ACCOUNTS WHEREIN GOLD IS THE SOURCE OF THE WEALTH WILL BE FROZEN AND CONFISCATED. NO, YOU WON'T BE ABLE TO DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT BECAUSE SINCE ALL YOUR DEBT IS BASED ON NOTHING—

EVERY OUNCE OF GOLD WILL BE REQUIRED AND YOU STILL WON'T BE ABLE TO SAVE THE U.S.—FED/IMF/WB COLLAPSE. BUT, YOU WILL LOSE THE ASSETS—EVERY ONE OF THEM.]

The sponsors of the Islamic Dinar will suggest to Muslims that they convert their paper-currency-denominated accounts into Islamic Dinar in DUBAI. In addition to tax aspects, Dubai is an appropriate place from which to launch this new banking enterprise because it is forbidden for Muslims to deposit their money with non-Muslims. In the Qur'an itself, ALLAH makes this prohibition (which is a command for us) clear precisely when referring to the Islamic Dinar.

On May 22 through May 24, directors of the Islamic Mint from all over the world were scheduled to meet in Dubai to move this project forward. Stay tuned. I plan to tell you more about this story as it unfolds and how you may be able to begin buying gold by way of e-gold. [H: I REPEAT: BE CAREFUL THIS IS SIMPLY NOT A GOOD IDEA.]

At this juncture, the western world could care less about gold because it has convinced itself that man can control his own destiny. Life has been so grand for us in the U.S. and most of the western world over the past 50+ years that we have given ourselves the credit for our prosperity rather than giving God the credit. Given this delusional thinking, we are convinced there is nothing, including matters of money, that we cannot fix. This of course is pure rubbish, especially when you consider that the depression now faced by Asia was created by excessive international liquidity made possible by the post-Bretton Woods floating rate exchange system. Even as the West experiences a moral decline that will inevitably lead to its destruction, Muslims acknowledge man's true need to live by a higher order. Accordingly, they detonate bombs and build their economies on real money rather than IOU's. Timing is difficult to figure here, but 1 billion++ Muslims beginning to opt for real money rather than the fake stuff, could portend well for the price of gold in the near future.

Perhaps we should look at this a bit longer but it would appear that enough said is enough said.

Herein, however, I would offer another quotation which also may or may not be so but is certainly worthy of attention. I will not bother with all the "transmission" information but the transmission itself was sent to us in Manila by a gold dealer in Texas.

[QUOTING:]

T HOARE:
EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK
LEDGER IMPLIES END
TO EUROPEAN OFFICIAL
GOLD SALES.

London—Jan 15, Spot gold is set to average U.S. $320 per ounce in 1999 T Hoare and Co. Analyst Rhona O'Connell said today. O'Connell also suggested the first weekly financial statement from the European Central Bank implied that ECB gold sales a “thing of the past”.

“With short covering a potential additional element in this equation, we believe that the erosion of European Official sector selling, and the growth in the market perception thereof, will be enough of a catalyst to cause this market to bottom out over the coming weeks and to re-rate into a higher range thereafter,” she said.

The ECB financial statement carried the implication that no gold would be sold from the European Central Bank for at least this year, and probably not thereafter, she argued. Once that became widely accepted, sentiment was expected to improve.

The ECB used “consolidated accounting” to bring together the full European system of Central banks... This implies that the individual national central banks are under the control of the ECB for all important decisions.

“Since the ECB is controlled by Germany, France and Italy, with over 55% of the votes, and these have all stated that they will hold their gold—the implication is that any significant sale of gold by the ECB is unlikely,” the report argued.

[END OF QUOTING]

No further comment.

Now, let us just look around at a few things taking place here and there on an international scale.

As you may be reading about the arguments and a drive to structure a method of getting, holding, whatever, the Marcos gold here in the Philippines, this next little notation MEANS FAR MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE—EVEN OF THE PARTICIPANTS.

When these other things swing into place the U.S./IMF/etc. will be in the hotseat for sure. And what happens when the U.S. gets into a financial hotseat? They look at their worthless currency foisted off onto everybody, study the assets, and try to RUN WITH THE GOLD. This means that the intended “steal again” the gold as was done in those early 1930s is right at the top of the list for, again, confiscation. This also means that your gold will be BOUGHT IN THE BEGINNING, AS BEFORE, WITH WORTHLESS CURRENCY OF THE FED.

How will this effect such as the Phoenix Institute for Research and Education, Ltd.? Well, Green, Tuten, et al., saw to it that it really wouldn't matter much anyway—but that is another tale for another writing. Right now if you had LOANS against that gold as in “collateral” it would be safe in the vaults of the holders, nicely tucked into the coffers of the bank issuing the loan and would, of necessity, have to retain the value if not the gold itself. But as to present circumstances? Look at realism as it IS. There is a binding on the Institute through the legal cases of both receivership pressure and Betty Tuten. There is no ability to even do business in the Institute PRIOR to those cases being filed so it becomes quite moot. However, to borrow against gold for projects, etc., is STILL THE MOST REMARKABLE AND SECURE WAY TO GO BECAUSE THE NICE BANKERS WILL NOT CONFISCATE THEIR OWN COLLATERAL. Not only is it a good way to go but you will find that it is going to be about the ONLY security around because until the price from time of lending (to the Institute, for instance) doubles, it retains its collateral status. If, however, the slugs and grabbers aren't put away—you have continual assault eating away at the very fiber of the whole program—if nothing else, through legal fees which already exceed the price of gold which might be returned and which the adversary team seeks to get. I'm sorry, people, I can only tell you how it is; YOU have to attend your own recourse.

Will any other gold holdings be secure? Perhaps jewelry in some measure but all other “stores” will likely be confiscated by force if you don't turn it in. We only could offer a “better way” until that “better way” was taken away. Corporations are STILL the BEST way to go and gold collateral for use is still the “better way”—BUT, this program is Grandfathered to US at this time as the big traders got out of the program (remember that we had to change out brokers, dealers and banks as changes came in banking and GEORGE GREEN TRIED TO WIGGLE INTO OUR PROGRAM, causing a shutdown of that particular BIG dealer). No and Yes, we are not stopped and yes we have recently checked our capability standing. Can that change? Instantly, but that is life and wherever we ARE at change there is an obligation to honor contracts. The banks CAN make a “call” on the notes and that would balance the books. Under current circumstances we have no control over what came prior to these suits but the Institute has every intention of covering any loans—and we are hard at ASSURING that statement and it will be in a place where NOBODY can get at the assets—INCLUDING THE BLACK SHEEP OF THE GREEN BRIGADE. You will have to be patient—but you also realize that gold has not doubled YET and we are better able to secure individual accounts outside the ability of Green, et al., to touch a farthing. So, please be patient with us. GOD returns His rewards in greater measure than that given as input. EVERY TIME—IN KIND. I DID NOT INSIST THAT THESE MANAGERS COME HALF THE WORLD AROUND THE GLOBE TO JUST BE AWAY FROM HOME.

Now, let us look at the Marcos notation from none other than Zobel who knows (because he structured an Umbrella program FOR F. MARCOS). Could he be wrong? Of course, but it isn't likely that he would be very much wrong.

[QUOTING:] The Philippine STAR, January 29, 1999, excerpt from an article on page 2 entitled:

ERAP: SALONGA GROWING SENILE ON $580-M FM (Ferdinand Marcos) WEALTH

[H: The whole article is interesting but I leave that to others for my only focus is on what Mr. Zobel states. I won't even describe who Mr. Zobel IS, but let me assure you that he is just about the most wealthy businessman outside any loop of the recognized political scoundrels around.]

Marcos' gold still in US—Zobel

....Meanwhile, former industrialist Enrique Zobel went on television Wednesday to insist that a large hoard of gold bars listed under the name of the late dictator Ferdinand Marcos remains deposited in secret accounts in the United States.

Zobel, now physically incapacitated after a polo accident, told ABS-CBN that the US government regularly sends Mrs. Imelda Marcos, the widow of the former dictator, a “regular pension” from the interest on the gold deposits.

Without baring any proof, he claimed that Mrs. Marcos herself had told him that even though she had no business interests, she will always be able to maintain her lavish lifestyle due to the millions of dollars she receives annually.

[H: NOW PLEASE MAKE A NOTATION: ZOBEL WOULD KNOW ALL ABOUT THE PLAYERS IN THE RING OF THIEVES. HE WOULD ALSO KNOW ABOUT THE “CERTIFICATE” AND THE “CONTRACT” AS WELL AS RUSSELL HERMAN. WHY? BECAUSE THEY CAPTURED ALL THAT NICE GOLD, AND NEVER HAVE TO GIVE IT BACK EVER AGAIN—JUST PAY IMELDA A BIT AND STEAL THE REAL STUFF. SEEMS TO ME IT WOULD BE A NICE GESTURE ON THE PART OF SOME PEOPLE I KNOW TO POINT THIS OUT TO THE LADY AND HER LOVELY FAMILY. I also hope that all of you nice people who just can't believe the government, Fed, IMF, etc., would either cover up, give a “wall of silence” or DENY everything—you had better take a very good hard look and stop playing naive.]

The deposits, Zobel claims, were initially worth $26 billion and may have reached $35 billion at present.

Mrs. Marcos refused to comment on Zobel's allegations.

[END OF QUOTING]

So, how is your day? Dharma says that raising parrots in a sanctuary in the jungle sounds pretty good right off the top of her head. Could be so. And I remind her: She has been offered, along with a standing military guard for protection.

There is no trouble in what WE DO but it is the confounded greedy sticky-wicket fingers that make it so difficult—but isn't that the way of all things of God?

This, I believe, is enough to digest for the moment. I suggest that my Team get this scattered around to appropriate parties—like at those major weekend meetings. We can offer all sorts of things but an informed audience is the only way to go in honor and integrity. We cannot help, currently, and pledge never to interfere with the laws or legislation, even if left over from Martial Law days—in any nation, people or international affairs, political or religious.

GOD BLESSES ABUNDANTLY THOSE WHO HOLD HIS LIGHT. AHO!

Soltec: Follow Your Heart-sense And Let Others Do Likewise

1/30/99 SOLTEC

Good morning, my friend. It is I, Commander Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec, come in the Radiant One Light of Creator Source. Be at peace.

Allow for the unfolding of the "drama" at hand. We of the Hosts have all the details "covered" with regard to ensuring that all have a fair opportunity to awaken and realize the condition and position they are in. This is to say that there will be given ample opportunity to the ones who play irresponsibly with the gifts they are given. You need not concern yourself with another's challenges or lessons.

When there is overlap (of sorts) you should effort towards recognizing the lesson that is being presented to you. You each play a very intricate role with regard to each others' lessons. When you ignore the clues that are in front of you, there will always be a greater (in terms of impacting your awareness) clue offered. This is often one that is much more UNcomfortable to deal with.

[Editor's note: The matters about which Soltec is commenting upon above are the same ones I kindly and circumspectly have referred to, in my page-2 editorial, as "some problematic circumstances beyond our (CONTACT's) immediate control". You can be sure that, should there be continued bad judgement exercised by the parties involved, which continue to jeopardize the existence of this conduit of Truth, I will not hesitate to bring details of the situation into a public forum! There have been more than ample clues and guidance supplied in recent writings of this nature, beginning with Esu "Jesus" Sananda's first "housecleaning" proclamation (of two) in the 12/29/98 issue of CONTACT, and continuing right on through Aton's cogent advice last week, and into this present wise counsel.]

You each are being guided down pathways that will garner you the experiences you need in order to bring forth the awareness and viewpoint you need the most. When ones blindly follow another, there will always be the stumbling of the one who is leading and the one who is following. Both are responsible for creating the condition and allowing it to persist.

One is no more at fault than is the other, and each will grow and learn from the experience. Follow your own path and discern always the correctness of each situation for yourself. Observe each situation from the largest perspective you can conceptually grasp, and you will be well on your way to seeing where you might be "fitting-in" to the equations which precipitate life experience.

There is value in every experience, for each involved directly and for those who observe from afar. You can learn much from the actions of another and the subsequent results. Be thankful that THEY are walking the path YOU are observing, rather than you. Likewise, be forever willing to step out of your current situation and take a look at the path you are projecting forward.

Wisdom comes from being able to see your own mistakes and understand how and why you chose what you did. There are very few who truly awaken to the point of seeing such. Most simply sit in the same old "rut",

"condensed" version is often working from a similarly condensed version as well.

Knowledge is free to any and all. One must simply "tune-in" and recognize that there is no real excuse for ignorance. God will give you the answer to any and every question you can pose. Let not your limited perceptions about self stop you from utilizing this Inner Gift.

We of the Hosts see the reasons behind all of your actions (and reactions) taken in the physical. We also know very well the challenges that you are facing and why you have chosen to face such challenges. We offer you the Guidance that you seek on a continual and personal basis. Often our messages go ignored or "filtered" so that you ones can avoid the personal responsibility (and human ego embarrassment) of showing to the world that you have somehow made a mistake. As Aton said in last week's message, "Again, if the adversary gets you one degree off course, and though from day to day you notice not the 'drifting', you may very well 'wake-up' one day and see that you have wandered several miles off your intended course—only to be too embarrassed (another tool often used by the adversary) to admit to yourself (or others) that you have been 'played' by the adversary."

If your current path is making you physically ill, then you can know that you have ignored your Guidance at some point and you are currently off the path your Higher Self has plotted for you.

All illness and dis-ease come about as a byproduct of inner conflict. Inner conflict here is defined as a battle between the physical, fear-based, reactionary ego and the Higher-Knowing Soul-you. Whether the illness is in the form of a "small" headache, or a life-threatening cancer, you can know that there has been a divergence from your intended path. When there is continued resistance to the natural tendency and "signals" for balance, the small "headaches" often grow and grow and become the cancers at a time 20-40 years down the road.

Learn to recognize the inner signals offered to you, and learn to take seriously even the smallest of inner annoyances. Left unchecked or ignored, these small "things" will grow—every time! If your body needs rest, then give it rest. You ones have the ability to override the physical machinery and push it to extremes, but this is often not a wise thing to walking in a slow, tight spiral that takes many lifetimes to achieve forward progress. Look within and find the ruts in your own life first, and worry about another's ruts only after you have gotten yourself out of your own.

YOU EACH ARE CREATED IN GOD'S IMAGE. THIS IS THE SOUL-YOU, NOT THE PHYSICAL-YOU. YOU HAVE THE ABILITY TO CREATE STARS AND PLANETS, YET MANY OF YOU CHOOSE TO LIMIT YOURSELVES WITH BELIEFS THAT YOU ARE HELPLESS BLOBS WITH ONLY THE POWER TO AFFECT WHAT YOU CAN PLAINLY SEE IN FRONT OF YOUR PHYSICAL NOSES.

Never follow, but rather, walk side-by-side in the journeys of life. Be willing to assist another who asks for assistance, and be allowing of another to find their own way when this is their choice. Many wish to have insight and knowledge, yet few are willing to take responsibility for finding it for themselves. There are many helpful "rule books" written, yet few will take the time to read them.

Your world is full of ones who want someone to give them the condensed version of the rules, and this often lends to their confusion, for the one passing on the do on a regular basis.

INNER BALANCE IS THE KEY TO THE HAPPINESS THAT YOU ALL SEEM TO BE SO EARNESTLY LOOKING FOR "OUT THERE" SOMEWHERE!

While on this subject of seeking balance, your planet is likewise seeking her own balance and she has been making quite a few adjustments lately. There has, once again, been a substantial increase in the earthquake activity around your world. This increase is both in amplitude and frequency.

There are great pressures being applied to her outer skin due to "secret" testings of atomic and advanced scalar weaponry. There is also a great electromagnetic torque being generated and applied to the Earth's crust, through a magnetic field "coupling", from the intense electromagnetic pulse-waves that are being generated from these tests.

The electromagnetically induced weather modifications that affect greatly the barometric pressures around the planet also contribute to the abruptly changing pressures on Mother Earth's crust, and thus upon her tectonic plates. Add into the equation tons of water (snow and rain) deposited in great quantities where it is not usually deposited, or not deposited in normal quantities where it should be (droughts), and you, again, change the pressures on the tectonic plates.

Now, perhaps, you can see a bit more clearly how these "invisible", so-called secret tests may be affecting you ones. There are ignorant, ego-driven ones who are destroying themselves in their "struggle" for power. They would have already destroyed your entire planet, in terms of being able to sustain life as you know it, several times over if it were not for extraterrestrial intervention. And yet, these ones continue to repeat the same insane, selfish scenario all over again.

These experiences are all for a reason. The majority of you were on the planet at the time of Atlantis, when the same insanity and lack of respect for life existed. Most of you are here to face the same challenge today that you faced then. You have each grown since you last faced this challenge. Many on your planet have made the same choice they made then—to sit back and claim that the problem is too big, and therefore there is nothing they can do about it.

YOU EACH ARE CREATED IN GOD'S IMAGE. THIS IS THE SOUL-YOU, NOT THE PHYSICAL-YOU. YOU HAVE THE ABILITY TO CREATE STARS AND PLANETS, YET MANY OF YOU CHOOSE TO LIMIT YOURSELVES WITH BELIEFS THAT YOU ARE HELPLESS BLOBS WITH ONLY THE POWER TO AFFECT WHAT YOU CAN PLAINLY SEE IN FRONT OF YOUR PHYSICAL NOSES.

You are each much, much more than a physical body bumping around in a physical world. One person can change a world. Look to the many Christed teachers of just your known past. Look also to the so-called "evil" ones, such as Genghis Khan or Hitler. Even when only acting as figureheads for behind-the-scenes idea-makers, ones came forth and made great changes. They projected forth goals and manifested around them the realization of a vision.

YOU TOO CAN DO THIS! You must first

YOU become the example and the wayshower by walking the uncharted or forgotten path; it does not "just happen" by your sitting in a rut of repetitive familiarity. In fact, the rut path is likely to generate the "kick in the behind" from your Higher Self to get you moving in a more productive direction!

drop those self-imposed limitations and beliefs.

You are Creator manifest!

There are many out there who have long been using their own minds to modify weather patterns and create favorable situations for themselves. This is "merely" ones using their God-given right to CREATE! This ability is not to be feared, nor is it to be worshiped; it simply is part of who you ALL are—an extension of God's creative thinking.

YOU CAN! You can make a difference! You can bring about change. You can bring to the masses an awakening vision of what is taking place on your planet. You alone can initiate the necessary energy in order to manifest change in physical space and mass consciousness. YOU CAN DO IT!

You do it by going within and connecting to Source and finding inner balance, peace,

YOU CAN! You can make a difference! You can bring about change. You can bring to the masses an awakening vision of what is taking place on your planet. You alone can initiate the necessary energy in order to manifest change in physical space and mass consciousness. YOU CAN DO IT!

understanding, and knowing WHO you really are. And then, from this position of great certainty, you make determined and powerful decisions that summon forth and create the "miracles".

This is as much a physics lesson as it is a spiritual lesson. There really is no difference other than, perhaps, the terminology.

Let not another distract you from your goals. Allow for ones with like goals and focus to walk with you, SIDE-BY-SIDE in your journey.

But never insist, at one extreme, on being the "leader" of a group, or at the other extreme, become overly dependent upon instructions from another. It is YOUR life and YOUR journey. Even those who function well as a team respect each team member's individuality.

If your focus is conflicting with another's, then without judgment or ego reaction, allow each to go their own way. There are infinite pathways to reaching any goal, and all are a "right" path from the Greater Perspective.

From a position of balanced confidence, be always daring and let not another's ego-reaction opinion of you, or ultimatums to "control" you, influence what you know to be true within your heart energy center. Be true and honest with yourself first, and never compromise your own integrity in order to remain outwardly "popular".

YOU become the example and the wayshower by walking the uncharted or forgotten path; it does not "just happen" by your sitting in a rut of repetitive familiarity. In fact, the rut path is likely to generate the "kick in the behind" from your Higher Self to get you moving in a more productive direction!

Look beyond the physical illusion of mirrored reflections and know that what you experience is a result of what you are projecting forth in terms of energy flow.

Are you building up with your energy flows? Are you sucking dry the energy from others? Are you simply re-creating what already is? How is it you are flowing your energy this day?

How do you feel? Tired? Worn out? Invigorated? Full of energy and life and determination and joy? Do you complain a lot about what is, or do you focus more on your dreams and goals?

You can always ask yourself these questions. The answers will generate a correlating emotional response that will help you to honestly evaluate yourself.

If you know you feel chronically tired, but try to convince yourself otherwise because you understand the implications are that you are "off course", then you will surely generate an uneasy feeling within that will sort of "gnaw" at you.

You can never hide from your inner feelings! You can ignore them if you like, but then we get back to the earlier discussion, and these "small" announcements will grow into the bigger and more pronounced "problems"—such as chronic fatigue, strings of illnesses that seem to hit one after another, cancers of some sort, or whatever is your stress-induced preference.

If your excuse is old age, then so be it. You are not necessarily older than the young child who runs and plays and looks forward to every day with an eagerness to explore the gift from God of that day. Your soul enjoys exploring and creating in a focused, yet playful, manner. When was the last time you "played" in such manner?

I am Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec. I come in the Lighted Oneness of Creator God. My intent is that of a Messenger to those who are seeking Insight and Guidance.

Take within this message and discern for yourself the usefulness of these words. Monitor closely any reactionary responses, for this is surely your Guidance (Conscience) communicating with you.

In Light, blessings to you ALL!

Salu.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
