ECHELON

Snoops Wherever It Pleases

Editor’s note: The following superb information has been on our stack of things to share with you since its December 10, 1998 posting on the Internet by SPOTLIGHT newspaper. Longtime CONTACT readers are well aware of past discussions of the technologies described herein, but this particular outlay really brings the subject to life with a good array of down-to-Earth information. The idea that Big Brother is “watching” us this closely brings to mind disturbing questions beyond surveillance—to mind control itself! See p.11 for more on that subject.

A Note To Our Inquiring Readers

It has recently come to my attention that some readers mistakenly assume that Doris Ekker (Dharma) is responsible for any and all "received" messages in the pages of CONTACT. This error is partly my oversight from being "too close to the trees to see the forest" clearly. That is, I am very aware of who writes what, just from familiarity with writing styles and from processing the various messages, and I thus overlook the possibility that others may not be able to easily discern differences.

Let me make it very clear that Dharma has been in the Philippines and Malaysia since early August of 1998 and, unless otherwise noted, only those "received" writings which have a by-line of "Hatonn" have been scribed by Dharma.

The other Higher Teachers, whose messages you enjoy in these pages, choose who they wish to utilize as their scribe, and this varies from writing to writing and week to week, presently within a small group of "high-fidelity" public-message receivers who have long been in training for their job and have always wished to remain in the background—allowing the exquisite, multi-faceted messages from the various Master Teachers to speak for themselves.

This reminds me to remind any of you who are particularly interested that a comprehensive discussion of the "receiving" process occurs in several locations within the book called WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Volume I.

And that reminds me to let all of you know, who have been patiently inquiring about Volume II in the WISDOM OF THE RAYS series, that this project is very close to publication now—weighing in at around 500 pages of dynamite writings from many of the Master Teachers!

Stay tuned for more information concerning this new book as it finally becomes available. As those of you who know how the "physics" works can readily appreciate, there has been much in the way of adversarial intrusions to try to derail the finished product. But, just as with the production of Volume I, nothing will stop the Volume II project from reaching a successful completion—for NOW is the time for The Great Awakening. Hang on and enjoy!

GOLD BECOMES RUSSIA'S LATEST LIVE CURRENCY

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrldline@texas.net>, 1/29/99: [quoting]

Russia's largest bank has begun buying gold from the general public, offering people a new alternative to the ever-sagging ruble.

"We are the first (commercial bank) to begin buying gold from the general public. It has now become an absolutely liquid commodity on the market," said Andrei Chistikov of Sberbank, which has nearly 80 percent of Russia's private bank accounts.

Thursday, the first day on which Sberbank offered this new service produced no sellers, but Chistikov on Friday blamed intense media interest for that. Would-be sellers were unwilling to be filmed selling gold, he said.

The bank had advised sellers to return later, and bought its first 60 grams from an individual on Friday.

Until now Russians could buy gold from commercial banks—after paying a hefty 20 percent purchase tax. And it was theoretically possible to resell gold at a bank, but in practice none would take it.

An official at Rossiisky Kredit bank said costs incurred by the need to test that the gold was genuine meant they had not been prepared to buy. But Chistikov said Sberbank was large enough to be able to carry out the tests without charge.

"Until now there was nowhere to put gold, it just lay there," Chistikov said. "You could make gold teeth from it or give it to a jeweler to make gold jewelry, but now it has become a live currency."

The need for a haven for savings has never been greater in Russia as the ruble's value continues to slide.

Just over four months ago, little more than six rubles would buy a dollar. Now the same greenback costs nearly 23 rubles at the official rate, and more at the many exchange offices that have sprung up recently.

Russia's banking system was paralyzed when the ruble was devalued in August, and hundreds of banks went out of business.

Many Russians were already deeply suspicious of keeping cash in banks following the sharp drop in the value of the ruble in the years immediately after the breakup of the Soviet Union.

Throughout the late Soviet period a dollar was worth less than one ruble at the official rate. By the end of 1997 the dollar bought around 6,000 rubles.

At that point the government lopped three naughts off the currency and relaunched it in January 1998. But many Russians were already keeping their savings at home in dollars.

By some estimates, between $30 billion and $60 billion in dollar bills is in private hands in Russia. That compares with gold and foreign currency reserves of $11.6 billion held by the central bank on Jan. 22.

The launch of the euro at the beginning of the year led to a rash of speculation in the Russian media as to whether that currency would replace the dollar as the favored alternative to the ruble.

Gold's entry into the market as a fully tradable savings instrument provides yet another escape route.

Nobody knows how much gold is in private hands.

"In 1998 we sold in the order of 130 kg of gold," said Sberbank's Chistikov. "But other commercial banks have also sold gold. How much is in the hands of the public overall we just don't know." [End quoting]

Very interesting development.

MALAYSIA BOUNCING BACK, SAYS PM

From the INTERNET, 1/29/99: [quoting]

by Tan Kah Peng

DAVOS: Malaysia is bouncing back from the brink of an economic disaster because of the measures taken to protect the country against currency traders, says Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamad.

Imposing selective exchange controls and stopping the "stock market raiders" played a major role in this recovery, the Prime Minister told a working lunch yesterday at the World Economic Forum here.

"It cannot be a coincidence that the healthy economic indicators began to show almost immediately after (exchange and capital) controls were imposed in September 1998," he said.

Foreign reserves had gone up to US$27bil, the stock market had risen from a low of 260 to about 600 at present and interest rates lowered, said Dr. Mahathir, pointing to growing domestic business confidence.

He said apart from the currency traders and stock market raiders, the country had to contend with a hostile Western media, which was accused of distorting facts and also not above fabricating stories.

Dr Mahathir invited business leaders to visit Malaysia to see the situation for themselves and meet the managers of 100% foreign-owned companies to find out how they were doing.

He described the financial crisis as the "third great crisis" faced by the country, the first being the communist terrorist threat and the second, the May 13 riots.

Had the government not taken these measures, he said, Malaysia would have gone bankrupt and [been] forced to seek International Monetary Fund (IMF) aid, which would mean "allowing foreigners to take over Malaysian banks, privatised utilities and firms".

Dr. Mahathir criticised the IMF's economic prescriptions for Malaysia, such as using "its Malaysian cronies" to raise interest rates, tighten credit and shorten the period of classifying non-performing loans.

But two weeks before the crisis the IMF had praised Malaysia for "managing the pressures that result from high growth and of maintaining a sound financial system amid capital flows and a booming property market".

The financial crisis in the East threatened global trade, he said, and yet the IMF refused to act against the currency speculators because it wanted to uphold the capitalist system, seeing it as a religion.

"Those who do not condemn the controls outright ask us when we would lift it? They admit that controls have helped to stabilise and revive the Malaysian economy but they insist that they are retrogressive steps," said Dr. Mahathir.

"We see no reason to remove the currency controls now. The experience of Latin (American) countries show that as soon as their economies recover from the effects of attacks on their currencies, the currency traders would launch another attack with equally disastrous results.

"Clearly as long as the international financial regime allows the currency traders to devalue currencies, there is no guarantee that they will cease and desist simply because financial reforms have been carried out faithfully by governments.

"The controls will therefore remain in place until the international community devise a new financial regime which curbs the activities of currency traders.

"In Hong Kong in 1997, I blamed the currency traders. I have no reason to change my mind. The world can do without their destructive cattle-like behaviour.

"If they cannot be done away with they should at least be regulated. Governments which harbour them and claim that they cannot control them should resign or be overthrown."

Dr. Mahathir said Malaysia would not recover fully until the global economy was revived, but the world would not be able to do so until it destroyed or curbed currency trading. [End quoting]

PENTIUM III CHIP WILL ID YOU

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 1/29/99: [quoting]

If you buy a Pentium III and you value your privacy, consider turning off the ID feature in the chip.

Intel To Embed Serial Numbers On Pentium III Chips

An Arizona lawmaker is proposing a ban on the sale or manufacture of Intel's upcoming Pentium III processors in that state, arguing that identification numbers in the chips would undermine Internet privacy.

State Rep. Steve May (R-Phoenix) said in a prepared statement Wednesday that he plans to introduce legislation that would ban the sale and manufacture of computer chips and components "containing individualized identification systems" in Arizona. Intel has two fabrication plants there.

The bill also would bar the state and its cities and counties from buying equipment containing such systems, he said.

"Technology is advancing faster than our laws," May said. "Consumers deserve basic privacy rights—even on the Internet.

"This technology will launch a new era of information mining and allow anyone to build detailed profiles on individuals," he said. "It will drive consumers away. Who likes being watched while they shop?"

Santa Clara, Calif.-based Intel unveiled last week its plan to include processor serial numbers when it launches the Pentium III later this quarter. Since then, the security feature has caused an uproar among privacy advocates, who argued the ID numbers would erode Internet privacy and make it easier for companies to track users for marketing purposes.

However, Intel said the serial numbers, which application vendors could use to identify a PC, would make the Internet and e-commerce more secure.

Privacy groups launched this week a boycott of Intel products until the chip giant drops the feature from the Pentium III. The vendor then decided to change the security feature so it would be automatically disabled unless the user turns it on.

An Intel spokesman said May does not appear to understand how the security feature works and how the company changed it this week. Company executives were scheduled to meet with May on Wednesday.

"We think once he understands the full picture, he'll probably change his position," the spokesman said.

May said many websites already have announced plans to incorporate the processor serial numbers into their products and services. He said use of the processor serial numbers, in effect, will not be optional.

"Imagine if every time you went to the mall, you were required to provide a fingerprint at every shop you entered, for every purchase you make, even every time you went to the bathroom. This is what Intel is asking you to do," May said. [End quoting]

The "elite" manipulators always try to use their lame excuses for more control of us, but it looks like they may come up against a brick wall on this one and let's sure hope so. We've gotten along well without it up until now and we can continue to do so! Let these nousey hounds know that you won't take this—contact your politicians and Intel and tell them so!!

POISONING CIVILIANS IS LEGAL!

From the INTERNET, 1/28/99: [quoting]

Someone just asked me if I had any proof that the Feds have declared war on the American people. Ian Goddard has just dug up proof—right in the U.S. Code.... the military can LEGALLY spray us with biological weapons as long as local civilian officials are notified 30 days in advance. Check this out... Nice, eh?? Now, damnit, if you don't take precautions, don't say I didn't try to warn you.

I'm still waiting for USCMike1@aol.com to get us more info on how we can defend against Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical attacks. Hopefully he'll get back to us soon with more information. A gas mask isn't sufficient.

There's some sort of protective full-body suit that you have to also wear, but USCMike still hasn't told me where to get these, and I'm hoping he will and that he'll provide more information about this.

From: I-am@symmetry.net

U.S. Code 50 (Chapter 32, Section 1520[b]1) states that the Department of Defence MAY "conduct any test or experiment involving the use of any chemical or biological agent on civilian populations" only if the DoD notifies "local civilian officials" 30 days before testing chemical or biological agents on U.S. civilians.

So you have the right to have some "civilian officials" notified before you're used in bio-war experiments.

So we all have the legal right to be a Guinea pig without knowing, so long as some officials know.

Read this law at the Cornell University library: <<http://www4.law.cornell.edu/uscode/50/1520.html>>

This law was added to the U.S. Code in 1996. Why would federal law define a right for the DoD to "conduct any test or experiment involving the use of any chemical or biological agent on civilian populations" (granted a few officials know) if no such tests and experiments were planned? It stands to reason that they are planned!

Is this connected to reports of sickening USAF-jet-spray?

USAF Jets Said To Be Spraying Something That Sickens: <<http://ens.lycos.com/ens/jan99/1999L-01-12-01.html>> <<http://ens.lycos.com/ens/jan99/1999L-01-08-05.html>> [End quoting]

Haven't we had enough of the "elite's" legalized poisoning—it's been going on for many, many years. And we have written about this for years in these pages.

WEIRD WEATHER TO GET WEIRDER

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 1/28/99: [quoting]

Mexico City is the chosen location for weather experimentation apparently. Electrified antennas will shortly be established there and used in an attempt to alter existing rainfall and wind patterns by ionising the atmosphere. The hope is that the anticipated effect will reduce the heavily polluted air currently shrouding this high-altitude city. Who knows, perhaps this experiment is also designed to rid the skies of other kinds of atmospheric pollution too—in the form of UFOs?

The seemingly bizarre circular weather patterns noted across various parts of the U.S. in recent months may in fact represent a not-unknown phenomenon. Checking UK doppler radar websites I discovered that these circular structures would appear to be what is described as representing 'Kelvin-Helmholtz billows'. [End quoting]

Those who watch the day or night sky regularly are going to be more frequently observing strange phenomena resulting from the experimentation Soltec was discussing last week.

NORTH NORWAY SHIVERED THROUGH THE COLDEST DAY THIS CENTURY

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 1/29/99: [quoting]

Thursday temperatures plunged to a bone-chilling minus 51.2 Celsius (minus 60.2 Fahrenheit).

People in the northern county of Finnmark, high above the Arctic Circle, were advised to stay inside, keep well wrapped up and stay moving if obliged to go out.

Temperatures measured in Karasjok overnight at -51.2 Celsius were fractionally short of the all-time -51.4C (60.5F) record in 1886.

"This is the coldest day since then," meteorologist Haakon Melhuus told Reuters, saying that temperatures were likely to creep higher in coming days with less frigid air coming from the Norwegian Sea.

In extreme cold, people are advised not to wash their faces around the eyes—the only part of the body exposed—to help keep a natural protective layer of grease.

One television report showed a man in North Norway throwing a cup of warm water in the air—it turned to a cloud of ice crystals without a drop reaching the ground.

Melhuus noted that people in northern Finnmark lived in far better insulated homes than in 1886. "It's only a problem if your car breaks down or you fall through the ice," he said. "And of course it's a strain for the elderly."

The hardiness of people in the north of Scandinavia is legendary.

One joke tells of a reporter telephoning a woman at home in Karasjok, saying:

"I hear the temperature's at a record low today." The woman goes away to check her thermometer, comes back and says: "No, it's only minus 14."

The reporter says: "Minus 14? I heard it was minus 50." The woman replies: "Oh, you mean outside?" [End quoting]

More signs of global warming?

SMART SURVEILLANCE

From the INTERNET, New Scientist, 10/17/98: [quoting]

Researchers in California have created an Autonomous Observer, (AO) robot that could be developed into a surveillance system that follows a target wherever it goes. Currently, other systems can't follow moving objects that are trying to evade detection; if an object disappears from view, the tracking system loses it.

To overcome this, computer scientist

Jean-Claude Latombe at Stanford University has developed small mobile robots that not only watch targets but also work out their potential escape routes. The robots can then position themselves for an optimum view. [End quoting]

You've probably heard one of the "elite's" favorite phrases: "Nowhere to go and no place to hide." This is pounded into their brainwashed slaves (US) so that they don't try to escape. Here's another phrase: "Smart as the fox, but gentle as the dove."

IMPLANTS ALLOW HUMANS TO CONTROL COMPUTERS

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 1/29/99: [quoting]

An American scientist has entered the world of science fiction by implanting electrodes in the brains of disabled people so that they can control a computer by the power of thought.

The implants have enabled two paralysed people to move the cursor on the screen simply by thinking about moving part of their body. They were able to convey messages such as "I'm thirsty" or "Please turn off the light" by pointing the cursor at different icons. The hope is that eventually patients will be able to communicate complex ideas just by thinking about them.

"If you can run a computer, you can talk to the world," said Dr. Ray Bakay, of Emory University in Atlanta, whose team developed the implants.

British Telecom Laboratories near Ipswich, UK, have also done research into implantable chips, including a memory chip which could take data from the eye and store it for a computer. [End quoting]

This is a very useful technology when used for good purposes, but can you imagine how it can be used for the dark forces' benefit?

PRESIDENT AL GORE?

The following several items are from THE SPOTLIGHT, 2/1/99: [quoting]

Vice President Al Gore is speaking at the annual meeting of the World Economic Forum in Switzerland, a multi-national, Bilderberg-type affair in which various world leaders gather to discuss such concepts as free trade and globalization. According to reports, he will then fly to London to meet with fellow-globalist Tony Blair. [End quoting]

This sounds like foreboding news for Pres. Hillary and her husband—on second thought, maybe it's good news for Hillary and she'll be able to shed Willy boy.

JAILBIRD

Landmark Legal Foundation, an ethics watchdog group, has asked the Justice Department to investigate Larry Flynt and his "investigator", Dan Moldea, for obstructing justice in regard to the so-called "outing" of a number of prominent Republicans. The complaint reads in part: "We believe Larry Flynt and his private detective . . . are, and have been, attempting to stop Republican members of Congress from criticizing [Clinton] during impeachment-trial proceedings by threatening to disclose embarrassing personal information purchased by Flynt." If convicted, Flynt stands to be fined $250,000 and/or serve up to five years in jail. [End quoting]

Messing around with these professional crooks is a dangerous game—even for Flynt!

PERSIAN GULF SYNDROME II

A Navy sailor on his way to the Persian Gulf was kicked off the USS Abraham Lincoln, and eventually out of the military, in early January for refusing on several occasions to be inoculated with three anthrax vaccines. After a sailor advocacy group became involved, however, Hunter Bried's discharge from the military was changed to a "general under honorable conditions" certificate. The Pentagon admitted to the press that only a few servicemen have refused the shots, but activists put the figure at close to 100. [End quoting]

There have been quite a number of similar reports, worldwide, by military people who are daring to resist.

CONFISCATION

According to an ad placed by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), 75 percent of U.S. banknotes are contaminated with trace amounts of cocaine. Drug-sniffing dogs are reportedly trained to detect even small amounts of drug residue, entitling law enforcement, under current federal forfeiture laws, to confiscate any cash the dogs detect. The German government has announced that "American citizens" interned in World War II German concentration camps will receive reparations totaling between $14.4 and $24 million. According to published reports, "The deal will benefit about 230 Jews who have not received money from any previous reparation settlement." [End quoting]

Reread previous comment! Just how much extortion will these ones get away with?

CULTURAL STATEMENT

The most popular boy's name in Texas and California these days is not Joseph, Robert or Michael. It's José Pollsters account for the popularity of the name due to the increase in immigration from Central and South America and high birth rates over the past several years. Latinos are now the fastest growing minority in the United States, expected to outnumber Blacks as the largest by the next century. According to President Clinton, by 2050 Whites will be a minority in the United States. [End quoting]

The bigger question is what kind of a world will José be living in?

"PC" TALK

The Internet version of Merriam-Webster Inc.'s thesaurus was pulled from American Online (AOL) recently while pejorative synonyms for the word "homosexual" were removed. Merriam-Webster, which markets the computer version of its thesaurus, said this was in keeping with their policy of eliminating any words for groups that might be viewed as "offensive". As this paper went to press, the thesaurus was still down. However, in spite of Webster's claims to being "politically correct" on their AOL site, "whitey", "cracker", "redneck" and "honkey" were included in their on-line dictionary, referring to White men—offensively. [End quoting]

The "elite" have their hand in every portion of our society through subtle mind-control techniques.

A FEDERAL MARKET? ARE YOU NUTS?

Excerpted from THE MODESTO BEE, 1/27/99: [quoting]

For reasons known but to God, the value of Amazon.com's stock dropped by more than 6 percent last Thursday, which meant it was worth almost 50 percent less than it was a week or so ago. Yahoo dropped almost 8 percent the same day and is worth 40 percent less than it was a week ago.

Welcome to your new Social Security plan.

I was almost as surprised as Alan Greenspan when President Clinton, ticking down a laundry list of something for everybody in his State of the Union message, said he wanted to invest

Social Security trust funds in the stock market. "America is working again," said the president, sounding like anything but an impeachee. "The promise of our future is limitless."

Please stop that. Nothing is limitless in the mass of electrons we call home. For once I found myself in agreement with the aggressive anti-government stance of the most conservative Republicans. Bill Archer, the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, spoke for me this time when he reacted this way:

"Government-controlled investment in the market is contrary to free enterprise, and it will open the doors to all kinds of mischief involving government dictates, favoritism and cronyism."

"Dangerous," added Greenspan, the holdover conservative chairman of the Federal Reserve, reappointed by Clinton to calm markets and the gamblers who invest in them. "I do not believe that it is politically feasible to insulate such huge funds from government direction."

"Nuts" is the word I would have used. The plan to invest $700 billion of Social Security money in the market rather than in Treasury bonds would, over 15 years, give the government 4 percent of the shares in all of American business, beginning with the largest of our corporations, Microsoft and General Electric. [End quoting]

Surely we want those "good and ethical" politicians to have their clutches on all of our billions of dollars of retirement funds so they can go to the stock market and gamble with it and buy all the influence they want by parceling funds to all of their broker friends. Doesn't that really sound like the "perfect" solution?

U.S. TROOPS URGED FOR KOSOVO FORCE

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 1/30/99: [quoting]

President Clinton's top national security advisers decided Friday that the United States should commit several thousand ground troops to an international force in Kosovo to monitor any eventual cease-fire there, said administration officials and members of Congress.

Administration officials were promoting the plan around Capitol Hill on Friday before discussing it with Clinton on Monday.

At the same time, the United States and its allies, meeting Friday in London, ordered Yugoslavian President Slobodan Milosevic and leaders of the ethnic Albanian majority in Kosovo to sit down to a tight schedule of peace talks. NATO is expected to vote today to authorize airstrikes against the Serbs if they do not agree to a political settlement of autonomy for Kosovo. [End quoting]

Another one of the "elite's" methods to distract us from the Washington Soap Opera? Or maybe to get more troops out of the U.S. for a big y2k bug disaster—possible takeover??

GOGGLE BOX DRIVES APE FAMILY APART

From THE LONDON TIMES, 1/6/99: [quoting]

A television, intended to provide help for an orangutan couple in St Petersburg Zoo, has turned them into telly addicts, the Moscow Times reported yesterday.

Monika and Rabu had failed to be model parents to their male baby, Ramon, so a Samsung executive, himself a new father, gave the set in the hope that educational videos might teach the orangutans how to care for their offspring.

Rabu, the family's patriarch, has become so obsessed with the television which hangs outside his cage that he has started to ignore his mate, who in turn is feeling rejected and miserable. Zoo officials have now curtailed viewing hours, in the hope that Rabu will regain his attentive nature and that Monika will resume her painting career, cast aside in favour of the box.

Aleksandr Karpov, chief psychologist at the Russian Ministry of Health, admitted that any addiction to a lifeless object "can easily result in a strong separation from reality". He added that anyone who spends a disproportionate amount of time watching television or playing computer games is likely to cut himself off from communication with others, including his own family, and he may become a defective personality with one-sided development.

Rabu arrived in St. Petersburg from Antwerp Zoo in 1997 and he and Monika had their offspring on November 20. However, being reared in captivity both parents had lost the nurturing instincts necessary to raise their baby, so he was removed to an incubator where he was fed and looked after by zoo staff.

The zoo plans to appeal to American primate centres for help. It also hopes to bring in human mothers to demonstrate their skills to the hapless orangutan. [End quoting]

And we think it doesn't harm us or our children? Maybe there's a lesson here!

WOLFE HELPS SALES OF ROMAN PHILOSOPHER

From THE MODESTO BEE, 1/24/99: [quoting]

Epictetus is not likely to become a best-selling author, but, thanks to Tom Wolfe and his best-selling A Man in Full, the first-century Roman philosopher is enjoying a revival of sorts.

HarperSanFrancisco has gone back to press on two of Epictetus' books—A Manual for Living and The Art of Living.

In an interview in New York in November, Wolfe said he got the idea for using Epictetus after reading about an American pilot who was shot down in Vietnam and sent to a POW camp. "He mentioned that the only thing that had kept him going in prison was the sketchy knowledge of Epictetus that he'd gotten from a course at the Naval Academy."

Like the American pilot, Wolfe's character Conrad Hensley uses the teachings of Epictetus to help him survive imprisonment. Reading a copy of The Stoics, Hensley is profoundly affected by Epictetus' simple message: Each man alone is totally responsible for his deeds [emphasis mine].

The words were written 2,000 years ago, but they are especially timely today, says Sharon Lebell, a San Francisco writer who modernized Epictetus' archaic language for the two new volumes.

"Suddenly it's become fashionable to be a decent person," Lebell said. "The use of self-restraint and judgment are being considered, especially in the wake of the Clinton and Lewinsky debacle. There's a collective moral conversation going on now and people are less interested in a spiritual search. They're searching for a moral compass."

Epictetus, who was born a Roman slave, offers a formula that sounds as if it were taken from a New Age self-help book or Poor Richard's Almanac.

"Know what you can control and what you can't," he advises. Other bits of wisdom: "Seeking to please is a perilous trap"; and, one that seems to discourage more sales of Wolfe's big novel, "Stay away from most popular entertainment". [End quoting]

Wouldn't it be best to stick with the spiritual search since the moral compass is part and parcel of the spiritual path.

WE SEE A POSITIVE INFLUENCE IN YOUR FUTURE

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 1/29/99: [quoting]

Random Acts of Kindness Week is coming soon, so start thinking kind thoughts. Spearheaded by Sentinel columnist Dave Porter, this worthy annual event arrives February 8.

Now's the time to plan ways you can help make Central Florida an even better place to live for neighbors, friends, family and total strangers. Who knows? If we all work together, Random Acts of Kindness Week might last all year-round. [End quoting]

Sounds like something all communities should promote. What a change this could make if all would join in this effort to promote love and brotherhood!

FLORIDIANS SEEK TO STOP SALE OF LICENSE PHOTOS

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 1/29/99: [quoting]

But many are finding it hard to contact the company that bought the pictures from the state.

You can ask to have your Florida drivers license photo removed from the database of a company planning to deliver it electronically to retailers and others to prevent fraud.

But there's no guarantee the New Hampshire company that was the first to buy those pictures—or any buyer to come later—will comply with your request.

That's because the state law that permits the sale of photos from about 14 million Florida drivers licenses and state identification cards makes no provision for withholding any of them for privacy reasons or otherwise.

The first company to take advantage of the law—Image Data Corp.—has promised to remove voluntarily the photo of anyone who requests it, Janet Dennis, a spokeswoman for the state Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, said Thursday.

But contacting Image Data at its Nashua, NH headquarters was an exercise in frustration Thursday, when numerous attempts to reach it by telephone failed to connect.

The company is also running into problems in South Carolina, where its purchase of drivers license photos is drawing fire from the state's new governor. [End quoting]

Don't think this won't happen to the remaining states if it hasn't already. The answer, as you know by now, is to SPEAK UP!

BAD DAY

From the INTERNET, 2/2/99: [quoting]

From: C D Associates <cdassoc@frontier.net>
So you think you've had a bad day. The following is taken from April 23rd edition of the Tampa Tribune Style Section: Charlie Wertheimer was working on his motorcycle on his patio in Plant City and his wife Wendy was in the house in the kitchen. Charlie was racing the engine on the motorcycle and somehow, the motorcycle slipped into gear. Still holding on to the handlebars, he was dragged through the glass patio door and the motorcycle dumped on the floor inside the ranch-style house. Hearing the crash, Wendy ran into the dining room, and found her husband lying on the floor, cut and bleeding, the motorcycle next to him and the patio door shattered. She ran to the phone and summoned an ambulance. Because they lived on a fairly large hill, the wife went down the several flights of long steps to the street to direct the paramedics to her husband. After the ambulance arrived and transported Charlie to the hospital, Wendy uprighted the Harley and pushed it outside.

Seeing that gas had spilled on the living room floor, the wife got some paper towels, blotted up the fuel, and threw the towels in the toilet. Mr. Wertheimer was treated at the hospital and released that afternoon. Arriving home, he looked at the shattered patio door and the damage done to his new $20,000 Harley-Davidson. Despondent, he went into the bathroom, sat on the toilet and smoked a cigarette. After finishing the cigarette, he flipped it between his legs into the toilet bowl while still seated. Wendy was in the kitchen when she heard an explosion and her husband screaming. She ran into the bathroom and found her husband lying on the floor. His trousers had been blown away and he was suffering burns on the buttocks, the back of his legs and his groin. The wife ran to the phone and once again called for an ambulance. The same ambulance crew was dispatched and the wife met them at the street level. The paramedics went back up the stairs, loaded the husband onto the stretcher and began the trip back to the street level. While going down the stairs accompanied by the wife, one of the paramedics asked the wife how the husband had burned himself. She told them. The paramedics were hysterical with laughter. They were laughing so hard, one of them tipped the stretcher and accidentally dumped the husband out. He fell down the remaining steps and broke both arms. And you think you've had a bad day? ICE OVER ALABAMA

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Sep/Oct, 1998, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

I started flying when I was 16, and stopped logging my hours in the cockpit after reaching a thousand. In the late seventies I practically lived out of a plane, covering five states investigating aircraft claims for my insurance companies. Flight controllers at most of the airports recognized my voice the second I checked in. People who knew me well called me Johnny, but those guys nicknamed me the Flying Adjuster.

Early on the morning of January 31, 1979, I was prepping my Cessna 182 Skylane at the Mobile, Ala., airport for the 300-mile flight home. I was looking forward to this time alone. Just me and the birds of the air.

It was an absolutely beautiful day, bright blue sky and fluffy cumulus clouds. Everything on the plane checked out perfectly, and I walked over to base operations to verify the weather forecast. "Clear all the way," I was told.

A cool wind had kicked up by the time I returned to the Skylane and climbed into the cockpit. I let the plane run for a few minutes till the engine was warmed up and I was satisfied with the preflight tests. Ground control taxied me out to the active runway and then handed me over to the tower for departure. The wind was increasing as I lifted off.

About 10 minutes into the flight the Mobile tower handed me over to nearby Pensacola Air Naval Station. The guys there made sure I stayed north of Interstate 10 and out of naval air space. Then we said our farewells and I was on my own.

I like to cruise above 9500 feet, higher than most other general aviation planes, because it gives me plenty of glide time if the engine should lose power. One of the first things you learn as a pilot is to be aware of possible landing places in case of an emergency. At a high altitude I know I can glide for 25 or 30 miles till I spot a pasture or some other place to set down. That morning I went up to 10,500 feet and settled back, relaxing for the first time in days. Hard work was behind me. I popped a piece of chewing gum in my mouth.

After a while the plane began to act sluggishly. I pumped some heat in the carburetor and noticed an increase in RPMs, and the engine smoothed out. Then I saw that those fluffy clouds I'd spotted earlier had become a weird, enveloping mist. The cabin was warm and cozy, and visibility was still okay. The windshield defrosters will take care of it.

But the mist got worse, and the defrosters couldn't clear it all. I had to strain to see. The plane was more than sluggish now—it seemed heavy. I looked out and saw white, rough-looking stuff covering the edges of my wings.

I panicked. Ice in the Deep South just doesn't happen. My plane wasn't equipped to handle it! It would build up on the wings, adding weight, disrupting airflow. The engine could stall and cut out completely. My chewing gum turned to cotton in my mouth.

The wing struts weren't yet totally iced over, but the windshield was covered with ice. I pumped in more carb heat to keep the engine going and increased the power. Virtually all the gauges were still safely in the green: cylinder head temperature, oil pressure, everything. But I could feel something wasn't right. For one thing, it was getting dark—at ten o'clock in the morning. The plane has lights on the wing tips, red on the left, green on the right. I couldn't see them anymore. Glare from the plane's strobes and rotating beacon reflected off the thick clouds. I could barely see the wings!

I was halfway between Monroeville, Ala., and Dannelly Field in Montgomery. I clicked the mike button and contacted Dannelly.

"Is that you, Flying Adjuster?" the controller asked. "You got a problem?"

"You bet," I said. "I've got ice!"

"You've got what?"

He couldn't believe it any more than I. I gave him my altitude. "Okay, I see you on my radar," he said. "Let's get that bird down lower and lose that ice."

I was told to descend 500 feet per minute. My hands were shaking as I set my controls. I couldn't take my eyes off the instrument panel. This was the first time I'd flown by instruments alone. Flight instructors tell you to trust your instruments, but I'd always relied on my instincts more. I'd spent so many hours in the air I thought I could see my way out of anything. But now I was flying blind. I couldn't see anything but disaster ahead. God, I can't do this on my own. Will you make this trip with me?

I started my descent from 10,500 feet. I knew we had some tall towers in my flight path. The controller assured me he'd keep me clear of them. I dropped to 8500, 6500, 4500, 3500. The engine felt smoother. But what's that noise? It sounded like somebody was beating the plane with a sledgehammer. I glanced up. The ice was melting in the warmer air! Massive sheets of ice broke loose from the wings, projected backward and smashed against the tail. The danger hadn't passed.

"Johnny, you'll be okay." It was a woman's voice, sweet and reassuring. I tapped my headset, but the voice hadn't come from there. It seemed to come from the passenger seats. "You'll be okay, Johnny," I heard again. I pulled off my headset and twisted around. The cabin was empty. I turned back to the instrument panel and settled into my seat. Somehow I knew I was going to make it home.

A few minutes later, after spotting I-65 down below through a break in the clouds, I regained control of the plane. "Thanks, buddy," I said to the controller at Dannelly. "Thanks for the excitement," he replied.

The rest of the trip was uneventful. I landed at my hometown airport and chatted with the line boy while he refueled the plane. Then we pushed it into the hangar, and I loaded my gear into my car and drove home. The phone woke me the next morning. "You'd better come look at this," the aircraft inspector said.

Several people were examining my plane in the maintenance hangar when I arrived. The cowl had been removed, and the inspector showed me the engine, or what was left of it. Fighting the weight of the ice had caused a fire. The carburetor intake was completely melted, and the wiring burned away. The number four jug was split wide open, exposing the piston. Oil was everywhere, dripping off the tail skid, covering one side of the hull. Since I landed safely I hadn't inspected the aircraft. I never suspected any kind of damage. "We can't believe you made it," the inspector said.

I couldn't have without help—from someone who knows me well enough to call me Johnny. [End quoting] financial transactions to communications between senators and congressmen to cables between foreign officials.

Vast High-Tech Spy System

EXCLUSIVE TO

by Christopher Petherick

Accusations that the U.S. government spies on foreign governments, or even its own citizens, are certainly nothing new. However, within the past decade, advances in what is called signals intelligence (SIGINT) technology in high-tech surveillance have radically changed the way the system works and its potential for abuse. With the end of the Cold War, the world's intelligence agencies have taken a new direction, focusing surveillance on "unpopular" political groups and economic activity by directing their surveillance networks to intercept any form of communication anywhere around the world. According to Patrick S. Poole, deputy director at the Center for Technology Policy in Washington, D.C., and an authority on advanced spy networks, one of today's most powerful global signals intelligence systems is Echelon.

Poole says that Echelon is the primary system of surveillance utilized by an alliance of five nations in a still-secret agreement called UKUSA. The agreement brings together the intelligence agencies, under the direction of the National Security Agency, from the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand. The UKUSA agreement was rooted in an alliance ratified on May 17, 1943, between the United States and the United Kingdom called the BRUSA COMINT (Communications Intelligence). However, it was not until the formation of the Commonwealth SIGINT Organization in 1946 that the remaining three countries, Australia, Canada and New Zealand, were brought together. One year later, the UKUSA agreement was established, and set its all-seeing eyes on Communism and, more specifically, the former U.S.S.R. And, with the establishment of the National Security Agency (NSA) in 1952 under Harry Truman, this notorious U.S. agency took the lead in the alliance, which it has resolutely held on to ever since.

Other members reportedly joined shortly thereafter as third parties, including Germany, Japan, Norway, South Korea and Turkey. However, according to John Pike, the director for cyberstrategy projects at the Washington-based Federation of American Scientists, they are only included through specific intelligence alliances and do not have direct access to the system.

SPY
LEAKS

Within the past decade, a number of disclosures by intelligence leaks have confirmed this incredible system, and brought the pandemic misuse of it into limited public view.

The London Observer, on June 18, 1992, received confidential information from six British spooks confirming the existence of a giant base in the UK that houses a significant number of NSA staff. The agents told the Observer, "We feel we can no longer remain silent regarding that which we regard to be gross malpractice and negligence within the establishment in which we operate."

The spies spoke of Menwith Hill and disclosed how, among other things, the surveillance equipment is directly tapped into phone lines in Britain and is focused on satellites, listening to all the world's communications, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

In order to prove their claims, the agents then provided intercepted messages from the organizations Amnesty International and Christian Aid.

Later, an article published by Covert Action Quarterly (CAQ) in the winter of 1996-97, by Nicky Hager, exposed New Zealand's intelligence agency, the Government Communications Security Bureau (GCSB), whereupon an inside source detailed a great deal of specific intelligence information on their involvement in Echelon.

Several U.S. newspapers also received tips and, in some cases, documentation from spies relating similar information.

In two separate instances in the United States, a senator and a congressman expressed their concern in major establishment newspapers when they learned of transcripts of their telephone conversations and intercepted diplomatic cables leaked by the NSA.

Former Maryland Rep. Michael D. Barnes (D) recounted to The Baltimore Sun how his conversations to Nicaraguan officials were recorded by NSA and then leaked to the press.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer reported that Sen. Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.) was recorded by NSA officials at Menwith station in the UK in 1988. An agent told the Plain Dealer that she had real-time intercepts of conversations that the senator had with other government officials. A source in the NSA told one reporter that "We'd listen to senators, representatives, government agencies, housewives talking to their lovers. . . ."

Officials concede that there is very little a person can do to insure privacy and hide from the likes of spy networks, especially one so effective as Echelon.

ECHELON

Echelon is composed of a complex network of "listening and reception" stations strategically placed around the world. These bases are responsible for intercepting civilian and commercial traffic, as well as communications from foreign governments.

In the United States, there are two primary facilities. One is located in Yakima, Wash., code named "Cowboy", which picks up transmissions from the Pacific Ocean in the Northern Hemisphere, as well as from parts of the Far East. The other is located at the NSA facility in Sugar Grove, W.V., which intercepts communications from both North and South America. Other stations have been placed in such locations as New Zealand, Australia, Canada, Germany and Japan. The largest of the bases, however, is located in the UK at Menwith Hill.

Besides being able to pull communications directly from tapped phone lines and radio transmissions, the Echelon facilities focus their radar toward a group of satellites which literally suck electronic communications, cell-phone and radio transmissions out of the air. Many of the radar are enclosed in structures known as "radomes," which protect the satellite dishes from inclement weather and also keep civilians—specifically, nosy reporters and activists—from seeing where the radar are aimed.

Recently, with the massive proliferation of satellites, it has become easier for Echelon to tap into all sorts of global communications. According to the United States Space Command, there are presently 2,548 satellites orbiting the Earth. Government agencies, including the Department of Defense, and private contractors spend billions of dollars annually improving and replacing the existing systems.

The two primary "downlink" stations, intercepting communications via satellites, are located at the Menwith Hill facility in the UK and at Pine Gap, Australia. These stations are under the strict control of the NSA, with all employees reporting directly back to the United States.

According to Poole, the most important part of this surveillance system, however, is not the series of satellites that the radar home in on, even though the sheer number of satellites in the sky have certainly made spying easier for governments. The key component of this spy network is the extensive computer system known as Dictionaries.

These supercomputers have the ability to sort and flag messages based on certain criteria that have been entered into the system. The radical technology lies in the system's ability to "decrypt, filter, examine and codify" huge amounts of information.

Pike told The SPOTLIGHT the computers even have a voice recognition system in place, allowing them to identify specific voice patterns from a database, so as to target certain individuals. This last element, however, could not be verified by Hager's New Zealand leak.

The Echelon dictionaries work 24 hours a day, seven days a week, looking for critical information to steal and deliver to agents. Messages are then sorted and given a four-digit code signifying the source or subject. Hager's insider gave examples of number coding, such as 3848 for political communications from Nigeria or 8182 for encryption information.

NSA-trained analysts are present at all facilities and go over the daily intercepts, red flagging the most important transmissions, forwarding them on to superiors at NSA in the United States.

EUROPEAN BACKLASH

There has been an outcry in Europe. European officials have been especially critical of their own intelligence agencies spying on "behalf of the United States."

Unlike American telecommunications companies who have enabled spying by U.S. intelligence agencies, European satellite companies have reacted quite differently to UKUSA's indiscriminate surveillance.

A French lawyer representing a group of French defense, aerospace and telecommunications companies remarked: "What is Great Britain, as a member of the European Union, doing participating in a program which, since the end of the Cold War, has concentrated on spying on her European neighbors on behalf of the United States?"

In Italy, the head of the parliamentary committee for information and security services, has demanded an explanation of Menwith Hill's activities from the Prime Minister Romano Prodi.

Yet despite all of the growing criticism, the NSA and the Department of Defense (DoD) still will not admit the existence of Echelon, as illustrated by their unwillingness to even address the matter, hiding behind an impenetrable wall for the sake of "national security".

In a recent DoD briefing, the press questioned Capt. Mike Doubleday, a DoD spokesman, about a report in the European parliament concerning Echelon. He curtly responded: "I'm sorry I have absolutely nothing on that."

Press: "Thank you."

Editor's note: To fulfill the legal requirements, we are presenting the following as a Legal Notice for four consecutive weeks. This is the third of four presentations. Contact information for Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) is: 5300 W. Sahara Ave., Suite 101, Las Vegas, Nevada 89102; phone: 702-873-3488.

—LEGAL NOTICE— CERTIFICATE OF DEBT

The CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and the UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE (international) provide a procedure for the legal authentication of a debt in the case of the Debtor refusing to acknowledge such debt. This procedure includes the notification of the Debtor of the details of the debt and a notice of intent to collect. After a period of ninety (90) days from the date of the notice and if there has been no response from the Debtor the debt is made authentic and collection procedures may begin. There is no appeal from this procedure; it is final.

On April 28, 1998 the then owner, Rick Martin, of a debt (described in detail later) of the UNITED STATES TREASURY/FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM (UST/FED) assigned the debt to GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION (GAIA), a Nevada corporation. GAIA immediately initiated the procedure by informing UST/FED of the nature of the debt and of GAIA'S intent to collect. GAIA then took the additional step of running the legal notice in a weekly newspaper of world-wide circulation four consecutive weeks beginning May 5, 1998. UST/FED has made absolutely no response and the statute of limitation for countering the legal notice has run its course. Now, this document and its publication in the same newspaper four consecutive weeks serve as adequate and final verification of the UST/FED debt to GAIA. Nothing further is legally required; no denial or appeal is possible.

The debt referred to is described as follows: The principal and interest accrued to Bonus Contract-Certificate Number 3392-181, approved by Legislative Resolution on April 24-27, 1875, Duly Authorized by the President of Peru, April 26, 1875 and Acknowledged and Accepted May 1, 1875, Re-affirmed, Re-confirmed and Reconformed on behalf of the government by the Consulate General of Peru, August 21, 1989, Order Number 7309, Document Number 046, Duly Sealed by said Counsel General of Peru at Los Angeles, California, United States of America, assumed and guaranteed by the United States of America pursuant to Presidential Order confirmed by the US Senate per petition of Elihu Root, Secretary of War, in 1906, further assumed and guaranteed by the Federal Reserve System pursuant to the Federal Reserve Act of 1913 and recorded August 1, 1994, by Deed, Instrument Number 1893, Book of Deeds Number 433, Page 849, City of Nashville, State of Illinois and subsequently recorded August 10, 1998 at 8:35 A.M., Clark County Recorder's Office, Las Vegas, Nevada, Official Records 980810 Instrument 00323.

The principal and interest are payable in gold coin or gold bullion and portions thereof may be assigned, sold, loaned or leased to others as collateral, but only as collateral, and no claim will be entered by any holder directly to the UST/FED without the express written consent of GAIA. Further, no holder, including GAIA, will in any way use the asset to the detriment of the national security or economic stability of the United States of America. The assignor of the debt to Mr. Martin, Russell Herman (also spelled Herrman and Herrmann), a very patriotic American, requested of Mr. Martin that Herman's business partner, V. K. Durham, be given a certain amount of time to implement his wishes and, if unsuccessful, to use the asset to the benefit of all people, reserving forty-eight percent (48%) of its value for the express benefit of the citizens of the fifty States of the United States of America. When appropriate, the granting of such an asset to the citizens of America (we-the-people) will result in an era of enormous prosperity which will, when also distributed to other nations, buoy up and expand all of the world's economies for all of its people, not just the rich as is now the condition.

Mr. Martin and his associates have worked for years, first in an attempt to assist V. K. Durham and later as the direct assignee, to find a way to work with the UST/FED within the United States to effect the use of this asset for the benefit of the American people FIRST. That effort was given no aid by the UST and was steadfastly blocked by the FED, even though at least four different "offers" have been made to Mr. Martin and GAIA ranging from $5 million to many billions "to go quietly away". The FED has been on notice for some five years that the debt would be perfected through public notice and they have arrogantly ignored that warning. It is authenticated and validated and will be used as collateral in as many ways and situations as possible for the benefit all of the people without any mindfulness of race, religion, creed or color.

For GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION by its BOARD OF DIRECTORS this twenty-fourth day of January, 1999 at Manila, Republic of the Philippines.

Wisdom Of The Rays: The Masters Teach

1/21/98 #1 HATONN

WISDOM OF THE RAYS

I want to comment on the new publication, WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach, Vol. I.

You have moved into "Big Time" now, readers, and if you do not understand the SPIRITUAL connections, you are never going to be able to participate wisely in anything else taking place, for it is a time in your world where Spiritual RIGHTNESS is GOING TO COME THROUGH and the LIES ARE GOING TO BE REVEALED IN THE LIGHT OF GOD.

This volume is published by America EAST Publishers, Inc. (never to be confused with America West and George Green).

We cannot sufficiently offer appreciation to the party making this work available, so for now we will simply say that this is a blessed individual who has grown so greatly within Truth that it does a Father's heart to be filled with Joy—for we must never use pride as a term, for that indicates a lessening of the gift of the one by replacing a part of that tribute to self.

This volume will be offered soon in French, and eventually in other languages.

I would suggest that you first go to your local bookstore(S) and ask for a copy. When they don't have it, demand they carry it, for it will be a BEST SELLER on all listings very quickly (ISBN: 0-9661921-0-9; Library of Congress Catalog Card Number: 97-77792). The volume was printed in Canada. The only way we will get "our" books recognized, from such as this, to the Phoenix Journals themselves, is to DEMAND that they be carried in bookstores. This is an easy one with which to begin for it is both copyrighted and listed.

I know there will be separate information regarding this book elsewhere in the paper [below] and I am sorry that the full-color presentation of the cover cannot be reproduced here. ALL IS LIGHT, READERS, AND IN EACH RAY THERE IS POWER BEYOND YOUR RECOGNITION, AND THROUGH THE PERFECT PRISM COMES PERFECT REFRACTION, AND EACH RAY BECOMES DISTINCT (AS WELL AS ALL COLOR TONES IN BETWEEN). FURTHER COMES THE BLACK COVER, FOR FROM THE BLACK COMES THE PULLING OF ALL LIGHT—LEAVING THE VOID OF NO COLOR, NO POWER, NO ABILITY TO HAVE LIFE.

We are humbly grateful for the hours and hours (nearly a year in preparation) spent by individuals making sure everything is properly done and stated so that only TRUTH is borne forth. Dr. Young has also contributed a Preface and Introduction spanning some 100 pages, and made sure that all compiled information is factual and verified.

You, as readers, will find great peace and joy in the experience of this volume. If you have to let something else go in the interim, do so, for this is truly a book you will want for the long-haul in the hard times to come.

Since the very first book has been presented with love to Dharma and E.J., and thus to myself, I can only, on behalf of them, say we are humbly grateful. To Ekkers it was a total surprise in every way and shall be forever treasured among the priceless gifts. And to our friend at America East Publishers, there are no appropriate words, of course, beyond "thank you". You have presented something which CAN go public in a time of acceptance of Angels and Guides without great quibbling over possibilities and harangue from the adversaries.

We must bring information to the world, yes, in our effort to offer possibility of change. However, the real mission, and that which each must confront, is the connection of SELF to/with/within GOD. And, you need a little help no matter who you might be. Dharma read it, cover to cover, the very evening she received it and frankly, because of it, we can go on with the task at hand, which is consuming days of nothing but presentation of nasty information, hour after hour. This is borne out by an 84-page CONTACT last week just beginning to summarize and tie up ends in the task in point.

These are "impossible" presentations, readers, but note: IT IS POSSIBLE FOR THIS TEAM, AND THE SUPPORT TEAM CREATES THE MIRACLES—THE HARD WAY; WE WORK FOR IT. There is no magic, no mysterious things or beings—just hard work with abundant backup for each thing we bring forth—and hours and hours on the part of every member to see that this is the most perfect work we can present to our best ability as human beings under the firing line.

We can do this, however, because of the willing-to-risk truth-bringers who have come before. Just know, friends, that the grapes are ripe and the baby full-term. THE TRUTH WILL CONFRONT THE LIES AND THE LIARS WILL FALL. SO BE IT!

ABOUT THE BOOK

This large collection (over 400 pages + 4 color photos) of popular spiritual writings from the CONTACT newspaper includes a detailed introduction to the 14 Higher Authors, plus several commentaries unique to the purpose of this volume.

The expansive yet compassionate nature of the messages delivered in WISDOM OF THE RAYS: The Masters Teach not only challenges those already firmly committed upon the spiritual path, but also provides a serious first step to help ones who are just awakening to (and inquiring about) the magnificent Spiritual Transformation now sensed by many to be in progress upon this planet.

FROM THE BACK COVER

"Our Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation are attempting to communicate with ALL of us at this time. Why? Take a look around you. The old ways of doing things aren't working. Our planet is entering a time of massive, turbulent change and renewal. To put it bluntly: we NEED help! And that's where this book comes into the picture. Yes, eventually 'the Phoenix will arise from the ashes' after this Great Cleansing process, but the ride could be quite a bumpy one, especially for those ill-prepared for what is to happen.

"Just how we choose to deal with such change is THE question each of us must confront. Yet confusion swirls everywhere upon Earth at this time. And restless searchers cry out for that which may help them cope with these truly challenging times ahead. Thus these messages courtesy of our most loving Elder Brothers from the Higher Realms of Creation who are but further along the same spiritual path we all must eventually walk."

Microwave Harassment And Mind-Control Experimentation

Editor's note: On the Front Page of the 11/24/98 issue of this newspaper was the story headlined: Hidden Battle To Control YOUR MIND. An Expert Speaks The Truth. This was a discussion of very basic mind-control techniques by a longtime practitioner in the field who was "cleansing" a guilty conscience.

The response by many readers to that outlay was overwhelming. Apparently we either have a lot of new readers or a lot of forgetful readers—or both. (Heaven knows, these days, I can't often even keep track of what day it is, so a situation of airy amnesia is surely understandable!)

The inquiries from many readers made me think back to the information we are sharing below. This is reprinted from almost six years ago now, the 4/6/93 issue of CONTACT to be exact. It requires no further introduction. Enjoy—if that's really the correct word for such dark, diabolical shenanigans!

3/30/93 #2 HATONN

I have been sent a document with request for sharing in the CONTACT. It is titled: Microwave Harassment & Mind-Control Experimentation by Julianne McKinney, Director, Electronic Surveillance Project, Association of National Security Alumni, Silver Spring, Maryland.

NO, SHE DID NOT SEND THIS TO ME.

Because our recent "really serious" presentations are in the lines of CONTROL, either through mental-washing, reprogramming or genetic/DNA manipulation, we need these bits and pieces to give you an overview of what is going on—and how it is planned to take-over! You are already at the "end of the line"; it is simply a matter of how many of you will fall into the pit for the pit is prepared and waiting.

MICROWAVE HARASSMENT AND MIND-CONTROL EXPERIMENTATION

WHITHER THE KGB?

In February 1974, Georgetown University's Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) hosted discussions on the plight of dissenters in the Soviet Union, and on the means by which the U.S. Government might most effectively intervene. Highlights of these discussions are reported in Understanding The Solzhenitzyn Affair: Dissent And Its Control In The USSR (CSIS, 1974).

KGB strategies were addressed in some detail during these discussions. It was noted that the KGB's success depended on the extensive use of informant networks and agents provocateurs; and, following Brezhnev's rise to power, on the use of drugs and psychiatrists for further purposes of manipulation and control. Shadowing, bugging, slandering, blacklisting and other related tactics were also cited as serving KGB purposes. Participants in the conference agreed that the KGB's obvious intent was to divide and isolate the populace, to spread fear, and to silence dissenters.

Agencies of our own government are on record as having employed precisely these same tactics on recurrent basis. The Church and Rockefeller Committee Hearings in the mid-1970s purportedly put an end to these practices. Based on recent developments, it would appear that the CIA's and FBI's Operations MKULTRA [H: Yep, you sure have heard of this before—and recently so if you have read this newspaper and-or Journals. In fact, all of these. This mess in Waco, Texas is a direct expansion of those ongoing, unceasing projects.] MHCHAOS and COINTELPRO (the focus of these Senate Committee and Vice Presidential-level Hearings) were instead merely driven underground. We are now in contact with a total of 25 individuals, scattered throughout the United States, who firmly believe they are being harassed by agencies of the U.S. Government. Others have been brought to our attention whom we will be contacting in the future. The majority of these individuals claim that their harassment and surveillance began in 1989.

The methods reportedly employed in these harassment campaigns bear a striking resemblance to those attributed to the CIA and FBI during Operations MKULTRA, MHCHAOS and COINTELPRO. The only difference now is that electronic harassment and experimentation also appear to be (more blatantly) involved.

The Berlin Wall is down, Communism is in the midst of a death rattle, and the KGB no longer poses the threat which purportedly served to justify the U.S. Government's resort to such operations as MKULTRA, MHCHAOS and COINTELPRO. The KGB, since 1989, has been reduced to an increasingly distant memory. [H: Remember, this is not a "patriot" document for the benefit of mankind, readers. Further remember: there are more KGB operatives in the CIA than Americans!]

Reactivation of surveillance-harassment-mind control operations in this country suggests that the KGB, as an institution, was never the real threat.

A KGB "mentality", with its underlying pragmatic contempt for civil liberties, appears, instead, to have been the driving force behind MKULTRA, MHCHAOS, COINTELPRO, and the operations now being reported to us.

The KGB "mentality" is a matter of personal predilection, not ideology. Its objective is power and control, regardless of human cost. It is a corrupting, cancerous influence, which feeds on fear, conformity and government funding.

Four months ago, when this Project commenced, we approached these complaints of government harassment and experimentation with an admitted "high degree of caution". We are no longer skeptical. The growing numbers of independent complaints and the similarities between those complaints cannot be ignored. Under the circumstances, the KGB should be proud of itself. As a "mentality", the KGB appears to be accomplishing more in "burying this country" from within than it could ever have hoped to have achieved as an institution. It would appear that this country has a serious problem on its hands which needs to be resolved.

Part I of this report, which is reprinted from the June-July 1992 edition of the Association's publication, Unclassified, preliminarily addresses the complaints brought to our attention as of July 1992. Our objective, as noted, was to weight the legitimacy of those complaints in terms of the directed-energy technologies reportedly involved. Part II discusses the overt and covert patterns of harassment identified as a result of our investigations, to date. A part of our objective, here, is to limit the success of such operations in the future, by according them widespread publicity.

In Part II, we do not identify individuals by name, both to honor their privacy and because our investigations have not been completed. Part II, like Part I, is a preliminary finding. Our focus is on the similarities of the complaints being received—similarities which Federal and State legislators, the courts, the FBI, local law enforcement agencies, the medical and psychiatric professions, and organizations such as the ACLU and Amnesty International have so far chosen to ignore.

We frankly find it curious that more attention and credibility is being accorded purported victims of UFO experiences and spectral visitations than to persons who complain of systematic harassment and experimentation by the U.S. Government, involving technologies which the U.S. Government is only now grudgingly admitting to possess. These complaints require investigation. In due course (and provided financial support is obtained), we hope to be able to acquire the technology and supportive medical expertise needed to substantiate the claims being made. We also hope to alter the institutional mindset that U.S. Intelligence can be trusted. History, repeatedly, has proven otherwise.

PART I

THE PROBLEM SURFACES

(Reprinted from the June-July 1992 edition of UNCLASSIFIED (Vol. IV, No. 3), published by The Association of National Security Alumni, Washington, D.C.)

The August-September 1991 issue of UNCLASSIFIED reviewed Hamline University's Public Administration report on the resolution of MKULTRA cases in 1988. Although the shocking details of medical ethics abuses by the U.S. and Canadian governments were amply detailed, Washington and Ottawa—citing national security and government privilege—stalled for so long that the cases never came to trial. The surviving victims settled for a pittance of an out-of-court settlement.

Since no individuals or agencies were held legally accountable, the door was left open for possible resumption of similar "mind-control" activities.

In the context of that article, we mentioned briefly that some half-dozen people had contacted us with appeals for assistance in ending what they believe to be electronic harassment and mind-control experimentation, possibly involving the CIA. We decided to take a closer look at this situation.

We are now in touch with approximately a dozen individuals located throughout the United States who appear to be targets of harassment and mind-control experimentation involving directed-energy technologies. (By mid-November 1992, that number had increased to 25.)

Typically, persons who complain of being "zapped by radio waves" and of "hearing voices" are stigmatized as psychotic, delusional or schizophrenic. Being mindful of this, as well as aware of the treatment accorded UFO and psychic phenomena "freaks", we approach this subject with a high degree of caution. Based on our preliminary investigation, including interviews with the affected individuals, we conclude that the matter is serious and should be pursued further.

THE EXISTING DIRECTED-ENERGY ARSENAL

Our first step was to determine what, if any, technology exists which might be used for electronic harassment. That information was found in a "white paper" published in 1991 by the U.S. Global Strategy Council—a Washington-based organization, under the chairmanship of Ray Cline, former Deputy Director of the CIA, who maintains very close ties with the U.S. Intelligence community. The "white paper" describes the foreign and domestic uses foreseen for laser weapons, isotropic radiators, infrasound, non-nuclear electro-magnetic pulse generators, and high-power microwave emitters.

The term, "non-lethal", used to describe this technology is misleading. The energy emitted from all of these weapons can kill when appropriately amplified. At lower levels of amplification, they can cause extreme forms of physical discomfort and debilitation.

The Department of Army (DA) identifies these same weapons as "non-conventional". They were so identified in an exhibit at a DA-sponsored symposium on "The Soldier As A System", in Crystal City, VA, on June 30, 1992. Beta wave incapacitators were separately mentioned during the symposium as being of particular interest to the U.S. Marine Corps.

We discussed these "non-conventional" directed-energy weapons with Mr. Vernon Shisler, manager of the exhibit and the Army's delegate to NATO in matters pertaining to "The Soldier As A System". Mr. Shisler acknowledged not only that directed-energy weapons are in DoD's arsenal, but also that the American soldier will remain vulnerable to their effects, should they be employed in the battlefield.

The U.S. Global Strategy Council recognizes the issue of vulnerability, as well, and urges ongoing research into effective countermeasures.

Interested readers may want to send for the U.S. Global Strategy Council's complete project proposal on this subject (Title: Nonlethality: Development of a National Policy and Employing Nonlethal Means in a New Strategic Era, prepared by Janet Morris). A number of references in this Proposal to unidentified, elusive "enemies" of the U.S. Government and to the potential domestic applications of this "non-lethal" technology invite serious consideration by the public at large.

The Council's address is 1800 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006, (202) 466-6029.

BIOEFFECTS OF MICROWAVE RADIATION

Research into the biological and psychological effects of exposure to microwave radiation is voluminous. The U.S. public has been led to believe that the former Soviet Union leads in this research. The fact is, the CIA and DoD (Department of Defense) have jointly pursued precisely the same research since commencement of Project Pandora in the 1950s. The current primary users of this research appear to be the CIA, DoD, the National Security Agency (NSA) and the Department of Energy (DoE).

The Walter Reed Army Institute of Research (WRAIR) has participated in this research since Project Pandora. In 1973, WRAIR discovered that externally-induced auditory input could be achieved by means of pulsed microwave audiograms, or analogs of spoken words' sounds. The effect on the receiving end is the (schizophrenic) sensation of "hearing voices" which are not part of the recipients' own thought processes. [H: NOW--does it still seem that my own transmissions to Dharma are STRANGE and IMPOSSIBLE!?! The big difference is that she receives a very organized and REASONABLE set of pulse patterns which represent "language" needing translation of which she has been "programmed" to decipher. THAT takes a LOT of "time" in the learning but I'd say she has done a good job—as have many other translators, i.e., Soltec's receiver, others who are involved with necessary information as in "our Editor", etc. It is not only NOT magic or "channeling" from some 64,000-year-old crackpot E.T.—but is reasonable and very, very "logical". Yes indeed, ANY KIND OF MESSAGE CAN BE TRANSFERRED AND THEREIN LIES THE REASON FOR SO MANY "JUDAS-GOATS" IN THE "BUSINESS" OF CHANNELING. THEY ARE RECEIVING AND TRANSLATING THE INPUTTED INFORMATION OF THE ADVERSARIAL TROOPS THEMSELVES!]

The experiment prompted the following comment in The Body Electric: Electromagnetism and the Foundation of Life, by Robert O. Becker, M.D., and Gary Selden (Wm. Morrow & Company, NY, 1985): "Such a device has obvious applications in covert operations designed to drive a target crazy with 'voices' or deliver undetectable instructions to a programmed assassin."

This research has continued, and the results are published in various publicly available scientific and technical journals. Interested readers might consult, for example: Lin, James C., Electromagnetic Interaction With Biological Systems (Plenum Press, NY, 1989). Professor Lin, then with the Department of Bioengineering, University of Illinois, Chicago, has published a number of books and articles on this subject. (He has more recently informed us that he had designed the experiment referenced in Dr. Becker's book.)

WRAIR has more recently been studying the biological effects of exposure to high-power microwave radiation. WRAIR presented a paper on this subject to a DoD-sponsored symposium on "MW (microwave) Weapons" at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA, in mid-1989.

A matter of interest to us is why WRAIR should be experimenting with auditory effects of pulsed microwave audiograms. Also, recent statements by an Army psychiatrist assigned to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center (WRAMC) suggest that WRAIR may be experimenting upon select psychiatric inpatients with microwaves. This, too, is a matter of interest to us.

CONGRESSIONAL OVERSIGHT

[H: This writing follows directly on from the prior offering where we left off with Bioeffects of Microwave Radiation.]

The Government's past record of abuses in the area of civil rights is well documented. Within the past 30 years alone, we have witnessed the effects of Operations MKULTRA, MHCHAOS and COINTELPRO.

Primarily because of MKULTRA, MHCHAOS and COINTELPRO, Executive Orders and implementing regulations were published which prohibited military and CIA domestic covert intelligence operations. Experiments on involuntary human subjects and the surveillance of/collection of personal information on U.S. citizens, except under strictly regulated conditions, were also prohibited.

Congressional committees were created to oversee compliance with these (quasi-) prohibitions. We have evidence that this is not being done. Moreover, where there are laws and, in this case, no laws enacted, there are loopholes as well as individuals and institutions who deliberately capitalize upon the existence of loopholes. Iran-Contra is one of the more blatant recent examples. Loopholes are also found in government resorting to “black” intelligence and weapons programs, in the use of contractors, and in the absence of clear definitions of such terms as “national security” and “national security risk”.

Executive Orders and regulations which currently limit official U.S. Intelligence activities do not extend to non-intelligence government agencies or to their contractors. In fact, Executive Order 12333 specifies that government contractors do not need to know that their services support U.S. Intelligence objectives.

In its report of July 8, 1992, the Senate Subcommittee on Oversight of Government management addresses the problem of tracking funds granted to government-contracted research and development (R&D) centers. The report notes that the problem is compounded by DoD’s penchant for creating hard-to-monitor “shell” contractors as disbursement centers for funding programs.

Neither shell contractors nor their subcontractors are directly accountable to Congress. Being beyond Congressional oversight, they have the license to operate as Government surrogates in intelligence operations about which, “officially”, they know nothing.

In this context, a publication disseminated at DA’s “The Soldier As a System” symposium noted that the Army’s Research and Technology Program sponsors 42 laboratories and R&D centers, employing approximately 10,000 scientists and engineers. The annual budget of $1.3 billion is only a small part of overall DoD research spending.

Weapons research, which includes the development and testing of “non-lethal” weapons, is not governed by laws restricting the activities of U.S. Intelligence agencies, though it may be presumed that these agencies contribute to and benefit from such research.

PRELIMINARY FINDINGS

1. The technology exists for the types of harassment and experimentation reported to us.
2. About a dozen U.S. citizens have informed us of continuing experiences with effects which directed-energy weapons are designed to produce.
3. U.S. Government-sponsored research into the bioeffects of exposure to microwave radiation is extensive and continuing.
4. The U.S. Government has a past record of having engaged in mind-control experimentation and various agencies of the Government have a record of circumventing legal restrictions upon their activities.
5. Neither Congress nor the courts appear willing to look closely into “black” intelligence and weapons procurement programs.
6. A number of U.S. Government agencies might have interests in testing directed-energy technologies on U.S. citizens under non-clinical/non-controlled circumstances—DoD, to test ranges and degrees of “non-lethality”; DoE, to explore “safety” limits; CIA, to test “mind-control” capabilities, and NSA, for technological refinement.

PART II OVERT AND COVERT HARASSMENT

[CONTINUE QUOTING:]

Electronics Surveillance Project
December 1992

Since publication of the preceding article less than four months ago, the Association of National Security Alumni/Electronic Surveillance Project has heard from an additional 13 individuals who report both overt harassment and a range of symptoms which coincide with the known effects of exposure to microwaves, electromagnetic/radio frequency (RF) radiation and/or infrasound.

The similarity of these symptoms will be addressed in greater detail in future Project reports. Suffice it to say, at this point, that the physical and psychological symptoms being reported to us are consistent with the effects which directed-energy weapons are designed to produce. Indeed, the numerous afflictions (or “inflictions”) being reported appear to parallel standard torture “sequelae” (after effects).

[H: Dharma, you ones will pay particular attention to this subject for it will answer a lot of questions for you personally, chela. Does George Green actually get thought projections or “voices” or something which legitimately makes him think Hatonn is communicating all this junk? Indeed he does! Remember, you ones come under protection as long as you abide by the rules of our Command. When the intent falters—the impact begins—THIS IS THE ONLY WAY THE ADVERSARY CAN GET AT YOU, PRECIOUS—THROUGH ONES SUCH AS GEORGE, ETC. HE IS BEING FED INSTRUCTIONS AND MANIPULATIONS FASTER THAN WE CAN COUNTER THEM AT THIS TIME. YOU WILL ALSO HAVE TO WATCH YOUR OWN ATTORNEYS FOR THEY WILL BE RECEIVING PROGRAMMING AS WELL. DEMAND THAT THEY DO THEIR JOB “OUR” WAY—BECAUSE THINGS WILL BE CAUSED TO FALL THROUGH CRACKS AND CONTACTS WILL BE MADE TO THREATEN JUDGES AND LAW FIRMS. IT IS A TIME FOR THESE THINGS AND THE SOPHISTICATION OF THESE TECHNOLOGIES ARE MIND-BOGGLING IN THEIR CAPABILITIES. This is not funny except that it “fits” so well: We must have God-respecting attorneys—and it is all but IMPOSSIBLE to find such! So be it, we simply have to research and search until we can do so.]

OVERT HARASSMENT

Overt harassment—which obviously is meant to be observed—may be intended to “precondition” individuals for eventual long-term electronic harassment. Persons terrified by unexplained overt harassment are not likely to cope with the sudden onset of electronic harassment in any more reasoned fashion. This phased pattern of harassment is apparent in all of the cases now being investigated. The fact that the overt harassment continues in these cases even after the electronic targeting commences suggests that the objective is to maintain long-term extremes of stress.

Many of the overt harassment tactics discussed below are surfacing in cases which (so far) have not involved discernible forms of electronic harassment. These are cases involving so-called “whistleblowers” who, because of their inside knowledge of certain potentially newsworthy events, pose particular threats of embarrassment to the Government or to government-affiliated employers. We have noticed that electronic harassment is beginning to surface as a form of retaliation against persons who try to assist electronic “harassees”. Retaliation suggests loss of control. Under the circumstances, we are not entirely confident that “whistleblowers” will continue to be exempted from this type of harassment in the long term.

The individuals now in touch with the Project describe their circumstances as involving most, if not all, of the following overt forms of harassment:

* Sudden, bizarrely-rude treatment, isolation and acts of harassment and vandalism by formerly friendly neighbors.

* Harassing telephone calls, which continue even after the targeted individual obtains new, unlisted telephone numbers.

* Mail interception, theft and tampering.

* Noise campaigns.

While unrelenting harassing telephone calls might be considered in this context, other tactics are employed. Blaring horns, whistles, sirens, garbage disposals (run concurrently in apartment settings, for excessively prolonged periods of time), and amplified transmissions of recorded “general racket” have been used on a recurrent basis under circumstances intended to persuade the individual that he or she is under surveillance.

In all of these cases, the individuals’ neighbors apparently pretend to be oblivious and/or indifferent to these sudden, continuous explosions of noise.

Door slamming is also a popular pastime, particularly in apartment buildings. One individual reported that, during a peak period of harassment, the neighbor across the hall began entering and leaving his apartment every 10 minutes, slamming his door loudly on each occasion. This was a daily occurrence, encompassing periods of several hours, over a period of several months.

It apparently served to trigger a door-slamming “chain reaction” on the part of neighbors both on that floor and on the floors immediately above and below. When our contact politely asked her immediate neighbor to close his door more quietly, he slammed the door in her face. Prior to commencement of this harassment, that neighbor had apparently been quite friendly and courteous.

In another case, the primary door-slammer is an employee of Radix Systems, Inc., Rockville, MD, a DoD contractor engaged in the “super-secret” research and development of some type of electronic equipment.

Several individuals reported recurrent, loud, strange noises in their ventilation systems during the preliminary stages of their harassment. One individual complained of being recurrently awakened in the middle of the night by the sound of wires being fed into his (independent) ventilation system. On checking further, he found that a tubular construction had been built into his vent system which appears to lead to the apartment upstairs. His upstairs neighbor is employed by the Department of Justice.

A number of individuals report that occupants of upstairs and downstairs apartments appear to follow them from room to room, tapping on the floor or engaging in other activities which appear intended to advertise an ongoing surveillance.

The Justice Department employee mentioned above went so far as to offer an unsolicited apology to her downstairs neighbor for the all-night "pacing about" in her bedroom (in the event he had happened to notice it). She claimed to be an insomniac. That pacing-about continued during her recent 36-hour absence from the area. When our contact politely alerted her to the fact that her apartment had apparently been entered during her absence, she told him, in effect, to mind his own business and then immediately complained to the building manager that he was stalking her.

She conveniently forgot to inform the building manager that she had assiduously "courted" this individual for several months, without success; and that she had been stealing his newspapers on a regular basis. (On one occasion, she handed him a week's accumulation of those papers, claiming that they had been left outside the door of another apartment. Her reason for collecting and saving newspapers which had not been delivered to her directly is unknown.)

 Recurrent confrontations by unusually hostile strangers; and comments by strangers which appear intended to evoke "paranoid" reactions.

In this context, we note that several individuals have reported confrontations with "homeless" people who, on closer examination, were found to be fastidiously clean, though garbed in offbeat fashion (wigs included). The same "eccentric" confronted two of the individuals in contact with us, at separate distant locations. He is reported as having feigned mental illness on both occasions, and as having apparently enjoyed creating a public scene.

 Entries into the individual's residence, during late-night hours while he-she is sleeping, and-or during the day when the individual is elsewhere.

In virtually all such cases, the burglars leave evidence of their visits, such as by relocating objects, or by committing petty and not-so-petty acts of vandalism. In two cases, the burglar's "calling card" was to slaughter caged pets, leaving the mangled carcasses inside their locked cages.

In one case, the burglar stole several pieces of correspondence and left a packet of crack cocaine behind as a "calling card". Our contact in this case—an individual who has no criminal record and no history of experimentation with drugs—is also being harassed (stalked) by a police officer in her community. One of his recent acts was to "frame" her with a drug possession charge. After pulling her off the road (a frequent pastime) and subjecting her to an illegal search (done twice, so far), he conveniently managed to find a glassine packet of cocaine eight feet away, in front of his squad car. He retrieved the packet with his fingers and then charged her with Possession. Our contact found this packet of crack cocaine in her apartment shortly after this investigator reminded the attorney handling her case that the police officer had smudged his only piece of evidence with his own fingerprints. It would appear that someone is interested in correcting that police officer's oversight.

In another case, the individual reports that a tremendous amount of money had been stolen from a hiding place in her apartment, within hours after she had withdrawn the money from her bank. There were no obvious signs of entry into her apartment. The police conducted a cursory inquiry which failed to produce evidence of a crime worthy of investigation. (This case is an anomaly. Money is not usually stolen. Documents appear to be the preferred objects of theft, when thefts occur.)

In another case, the burglars replaced installed lightbulbs with "exploding" bulbs, many of which were Made in Hungary. The lightbulbs are now in our possession.

 Rapidly deteriorating health, generally of a digestive nature.

In two of the cases reported, massive rectal bleeding accompanied the sudden onset of severe gastrointestinal disturbances. One of these individuals abruptly terminated the deteriorative process simply by changing the locks on her door.

 Sleep disruption/deprivation.

This is achieved by means of both overt and electronic harassment. Sleep deprivation, as a tactic, invariably surfaces when the targeted individual begins exhibiting a strong emotional and irrational response to the other forms of harassment.

 Vandalism of privately-owned vehicles.

Vehicles invite peculiarly ferocious attacks in these harassment campaigns—slashed tires, smashed windows, oil drainage, oil contamination, destruction of electronic components and batteries (frequently involving wildly fluctuating, grounded fuel gages, often within range of weapons research facilities and/or other microwave emitters); and suddenly failed brakes and clutches (possibly involving anti-traction polymers, which are also in DoD's "non-lethal" weapons arsenal). Recurrent auto thefts have also been reported.

Two individuals reported finding their oil contaminated immediately after having the oil changed by reputable mechanics. In one of these cases, the oil viscosified (thickened) while the individual was driving through a remote rural area. Her car ground to a halt. Getting the "gunk" cleaned out of her engine proved to be an expensive ordeal. (Viscosification agents are also lauded by the U.S. Global Strategy Council as serving "non-lethal" strategic purposes—a topic discussed in Part I of this publication. Had this woman been assaulted while awaiting help in the said isolated area, the "non-lethal" attributes of viscosification agents might have required redefinition.)

Most of those who have experienced these attacks on a recurring basis have abandoned driving altogether—an objective apparently sought by their tormentors as a means of increasing the isolation.

 Staged accidents.

The majority of those in touch with us have reported these types of experiences. One individual, for example, was tailgated at a high rate of speed by two vehicles, while concurrently being threatened with a gun by one of the vehicles' occupants. Two others narrowly avoided what appeared to be deliberately attempted collisions by drivers who quickly sped away from the scene. One avoided three attempts in four days at being run off the road. One survived being run off the road in two incidents within a one-week period, which resulted in "totaling" of her two vehicles. Another narrowly avoided being crushed into an expressway retaining wall, on four occasions, by an off-duty metro bus, as well as, within the same time frame, being "fried" by two suddenly-malfunctioned household appliances which subsequently repaired themselves.

It should be noted that, in some of these cases, "accidental" deaths do occur. One individual in contact with us reported that his mother drove off a cliff to her death, during a period when he was researching evidence that a still-respected, high-level State Department official had passed A-bomb secrets to the Soviet Government during World War II. The accident occurred shortly after her car had undergone routine maintenance. She was returning from a dental appointment when the accident occurred. Witnesses state that it appeared that she had suddenly stepped on the accelerator before running off the road. The accident served to terminate this person's research project.

We are also currently looking into the recent death of a woman in Lexington, MO, who was killed when the brakes on her tractor failed. We are informed that she had been collecting affidavits from persons who believe they are the targets of government harassment and experimentation when her "accident" occurred. We are also informed that those affidavits have disappeared.

Suicides might also qualify as "staged accidents", particularly where "plausibly deniable" government involvement has been surfaced. We are currently looking into the recent suicide of a man in Trappe, PA, who, as early as 1981, had asked the FBI and CIA to intervene in his case. We have copies of that early correspondence. The man, a former U.S. Army radar technician, had a highly technical and—given the date of his correspondence—"precocious" grasp of the experimental objectives apparently being sought in his case. It is apparent from his correspondence that he had wanted to believe that the Soviets were conducting these experiments. The FBI and CIA, of course, did not intervene. We are informed that members of his family have also been targets of this experimentation.

 Isolation of the individual from members of his/her immediate family—virtually assured when highly focused forms of electronic harassment commence.

The exception to this is when elderly parents and young children in the family become targets for apparent purposes of intimidation. This situation has been reported in eight of our cases, to date.

One individual (driven to extremes of stress by ongoing electronic harassment focusing on her children) killed one child in an effort to protect her from further pain (The Plain Dealer, Cleveland, OH, June 28, 1991, p. 4-B ["Psychiatrist Testifies at Mom's Hearing"]); November 6, 1991, ("Woman Ruled Competent for Trial"); and December 21, 1991, p. 4-C ("Ruling Expected Monday on Sanity of Parma Mother/Woman says she stabbed her 3 children to protect them"). It appears that lasers were being used in this individual's case. The targeting intensified after she called the Soviet Embassy to report the harassment, which she believed to be U.S. Government-sponsored. It became even more deadly when, in a further show of defiance, she then called a representative of the Iraqi Government to portray the U.S. Government's war in the Middle East as "hypocritical". She is now hospitalized in a midwestern psychiatric facility, where, apparently, the experimentation is now continuing.

(That psychiatric facility is in a State where a disproportionate number of complaints of electronic harassment are beginning to surface. It is also within range of a U.S. Air Force base which houses a "super secret" research facility. We are currently looking into information that spouses and children of persons employed on that USAF base may be the targets of involuntary experimentation involving directed-energy weapons technologies.)

Another individual, during a telephone conversation, was told by an employee of a local power company that, if she valued the lives of her children, she would drop her public opposition to the company's installation of high power lines. Since receiving that threat, the individual's 11-year-old daughter has been reduced to extremes of pain, resulting in her recurrent hospitalization for treatment of illnesses which cannot be diagnosed. It is now also apparent to this individual that her three-year-old son is on the receiving end of externally-induced auditory input. (DoE figures prominently in this case.)

 Progressive financial impoverishment, brought on by termination of the individual's employment, and compounded by expenses associated with the harassment.

The majority of those now in contact with the Project—educated, white-collar professionals—have lost their jobs. Termination of employment in many of these cases involved prefatory harassment by the employer and co-workers, which coincided with the other overt forms of harassment discussed above.

These overt harassment tactics are being described as recurrent, non-sequential and overlapping. As noted above, the overt harassment continues even after the electronic harassment commences.

FAILURE OF "ESTABLISHMENT" SUPPORT SYSTEMS

Those individuals who have tried to resolve their respective situations through resort to "establishment" channels have invariably encountered the following:

 Apathy, indifference and/or professed helplessness on the part of members of Congress and state legislatures.

 Dismissal and/or attempted discrediting by psychiatrists who refuse to include the terms, "government harassment", "mind-control experimentation" and "torture" in their vocabulary.

Several individuals, thinking that psychiatrists might help to alleviate the extreme stress associated with their harassment, were accorded "treatment" which clearly pointed to cooperation between their psychiatrists and members of the U.S. Intelligence community. One such psychiatrist, in fact, bragged about being a member of the U.S. Intelligence "inner circle", informing our contact that her harassment was a "Pavlovian Experiment", intended to "break" her.

 Lack of interest, courage and/or competency in legal circles.

Few of those in contact with us have been able to acquire legal assistance—not helped by their straitened financial circumstances. Most have found that few attorneys are willing to risk their careers by pursuing cases involving what is believed to be government-sponsored harassment and experimentation.

A few attorneys reportedly engaged in egregious violation of codes of professional conduct, in what appear to have been deliberate efforts at sabotaging our contacts' cases. Subsequent attempts by two individuals at obtaining legal redress were met with stonewalling, obstruction, and high-level denials of wrongdoing.

 Refusal of mass media to address this topic, except in those cases where suspected experimentees have been driven to the point of committing murder or suicide.

Such cases (particularly where an individual has claimed to be the victim of CIA-directed mind-control involving auditory input) are treated by the press as "curiosities". An example of this is the individual who shot a Navy officer outside the Pentagon in mid-1991. (The Washington Post, June 1, 1991, p. C-1 ["Voices" Led to Tragedy for 1 Man/Pentagon Suspect's Mother Says "Institutions Should Have Held Son"] and December 14, 1991 p. D-3 ["Suspect in Pentagon Killing Is Found Unfit to Stand Trial"]). He claimed to be a victim of CIA mind control, involving auditory input. According to the press, "he worried 'about being run over by trains'..." (ref. incident described in following paragraph). He is now permanently residing in a psychiatric facility. He, being institutionalized, and others in the preliminary stages of his predicament are no longer of interest to the media.

Another recent case which received short-lived press attention involved a woman diagnosed as having "suffered from periods of confusion" who climbed over a fence onto a railroad track and walked into an oncoming train. Because the incident occurred in a community in which an unusually large number of these mind-control experiments have been reported, we are looking into the situation. The woman was reportedly "under a physician's care" because of her "periods of confusion". A family member described the physician to this investigator as "a psychiatrist". We find that the alleged "psychiatrist" is a General Practitioner, otherwise non-accredited, practicing out of his home. We find also that the suicide may have been witnessed under peculiarly-timed circumstances by an alleged "homeless" person who has since disappeared. Needless to say, our interest has been whetted.

 Refusal and/or inability of local police to intervene.

The tendency of local police is to dismiss an individual's complaints of government harassment as the ravings of a "fruitcake". In one case, discussed above, it is apparent that one police officer is actively cooperating in the harassment. Some police agencies, while acknowledging the reality of the situation, hesitate to intervene in cases involving what they believe to be U.S. Intelligence. On a few occasions, certain police officials did attempt to intervene, based on what they perceived to be evidence of a systematic harassment/illegal surveillance campaign. Absent a clear mandate to prosecute "stalkers" acting under the aegis of U.S. Intelligence, the police obviously have their hands tied.

 Refusal of the FBI to intervene in any of the cases brought to our attention, thus far.

FBI spokesmen do acknowledge that they have received a large number of requests for assistance from "mentally disturbed persons" who believe that they are being "zapped by radio waves" and/or "are hearing voices"... "from Mars, that is."

In one case, an FBI spokesman reacted in an angry, defensive and bizarre fashion when our contact briefly alluded to PROJECT SLAMMER as possibly being related to her surveillance. (PROJECT SLAMMER is a CIA-funded study, managed by CIA and FBI behavioral scientists, which explores the "mental make-up" of alleged security risks, along with their family members and close associates. Participants in PROJECT SLAMMER include NSA, DIA, and Army, Navy and Air Force Intelligence.)

Until PROJECT SLAMMER was mentioned, the FBI spokesman's approach in this case was to politely and redundantly explain that the law, as currently constructed, prevents the FBI's intervening in this individual's case. When she briefly pointed out that the surveillance activities might fall under the purview of PROJECT SLAMMER, the spokesman's response was to abruptly and angrily declaim, "You don't know who is conducting that surveillance! You don't know if that is a state police surveillance!...or a local police surveillance! It could be a totally unrelated operation! You don't know who is conducting that surveillance! [etc., etc.]"

It was apparent from this response that the FBI was at least acknowledging the existence of a surveillance, if in somewhat emotional fashion. The individual in question subsequently furnished acquired evidence to the local police, who made it clear that they are not participants in the surveillance which, based on the evidence, pointedly suggests that our contact is the target.

 Refusal or inability of the ACLU and Amnesty International to intervene.

Both organizations acknowledge receiving many complaints from persons claiming to be the targets of some type of electronic harassment. An ACLU spokes-woman characterized the complainants as appearing to be rational, except in a few cases. The complaints are not being investigated, she said, because of "limited resources". We have to wonder, of course, why the ACLU could recently find resources to defend the rights of prostitutes and the Ku Klux Klan, yet remains incapable of intervening in cases such as we are now pursuing.

Amnesty International recently informed one of our contacts that they could not intervene in her case because their focus is on the U.S. Government's treatment of prison inmates. While incarceration does appear to be one sought-for objective in these harassment/mind-control experiments, we would like to think that protections by such organizations as Amnesty International can be achieved beforehand.

WHAT YOU REALLY WOULD RATHER NOT KNOW

As we move on into the continuing outlay of mind-control information, you are going to be shocked! Even hardened ones who think there "can't be more" will find there IS. You will come to realize that the whole illusion of "alien abductions" are NOT—they are ongoing experiments of an ongoing action by your adversaries right here on old "terra-firma". What are you going to do about all this? I really don't know. Some of you will come within the Lighted places of protection by God while severing those things and contacts which allow these things to take place. Most, I assume, will go your way unimpressed—right down the primrose path with the beast.

You will also find that the 13th Protocol (short version) of the Protocols of Zion, will also be making more and more sense as you see that it has been accomplished according to their plans for your citizenry:

“13: We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim with lawyers and doctors; the lawyers are au courant with all interests; doctors, once in the house, become confessors and directors of consciences. And,

“15. If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many witnesses as he needs to save him from his judges, until we become judges ourselves.”

Also there is a letter, remember, where a Jewish Rabbi of Arles in Provence, wrote to the Grand Sanhedrin, which had its seat in Constantinople, for advice, as the people of Arles were threatening the synagogues. What should the Jews do? This was the reply:

“Dear beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the anxieties and misfortunes which you are enduring. We are pierced by as great pain to hear it as yourselves.

“The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis is the following:

“1. As for what you say that the King of France obliges you to become Christians: do it, since you cannot do otherwise, but let the law of Moses be kept in your hearts.

“2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your goods” (the law was that on becoming converted, Jews gave up their possessions); make your sons merchants, that little by little they may despoil the Christians of theirs.

“3. As for what you say about their making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may TAKE AWAY CHRISTIANS’ LIVES.

“4. As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

“5. As for the many other vexations you complain of: arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix themselves up with the affairs of State, in order that by putting Christians under your yoke you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

“6. Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach the actuality of power.

“Signed V.S.S.V.F.F., Prince of the Jews, 21st Caslue (November), 1489.”

So this is “just old stuff!”? How interesting to note that the CIA is now predominantly KGB (Soviets) and Mossad (Israel Secret Service) and ALL are branches of the British-Israel EMPIRE.

MICROWAVE HARASSMENT
AND
MIND-CONTROL
EXPERIMENTATION

RELATED COVERT
METHODOLOGIES

The persons engaged in this harassment tend to become careless, possibly the result of arrogance born of an assumption that nobody can stop them. “Harassees” who have noted this carelessness have furnished us with the following insights into the covert side of these harassment activities.

 Impersonation of military officers.

One individual found that her next-door neighbor had claimed to be a military intelligence officer, assigned to a space technology unit in California, on year-long “TDY” (temporary duty) in the individual’s apartment building. It was subsequently determined that this alleged officer is not in fact a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, and that he had used this bogus status to acquire information from a major defense contractor. Our contact is certain that this person’s apartment was used as a base of harassment operations.

 Use of concealment devices, and emitters detected to date.

Several individuals and supportive associates report having seen some of the electronic devices being used in these harassment campaigns.

One saw electronic equipment concealed inside a false-front upright piano being moved out of her apartment building. She had previously noted that all of her surrounding neighbors had identical upright pianos in their apartments, not one of which was ever played.

Other suspected participants in the harassment may be concealing devices in oversized stereo speakers, measuring approximately 5' in height x 3' x 3'. Several of our contacts have noted the presence of such speakers in adjacent dwellings.

One individual was told by a resident of her building that her upstairs neighbor has “microwave ovens” in his bedroom and livingroom, but none in the kitchen.

Another individual, while standing outside, looked into her neighbor’s window to find that her bedroom appeared to be the target of a gray-colored, elongated box-like device, measuring approximately 1' in length x 5" in height (side view). A large, black-framed lens protruded from the end facing her window. The electrical cord, if any, was not visible from that vantage point. The equipment was being operated by a stranger in a three-piece suit, who appeared to be quite startled to find that he was being observed.

Another was given strong reason to believe that portable emitters are being concealed in oversized, extremely heavy, sometimes expandable “briefcases” for use in places of public assembly, such as meeting halls, auditoriums and restaurants. Smaller varieties are apparently being used on aircraft.

On one 3-hour flight, our contact noticed that the man sitting next to her seemed peculiarly intent on keeping the attache case on his lap propped open with his fingertips, while he gazed “blankly” into the distance during the entire flight. She believed that she was being electronically harassed while on the flight (a common complaint, in most of the cases now being investigated).

Our contact reports that, when they prepared to land, the man opened his attache case to hastily check its contents, thus disclosing the presence of a raised, built-in “concealment device” covering the entire bottom surface of the attache case. The low-slung, lift-off cover did not appear to be capable of concealing a laptop computer. At one point during the flight—apparently aware that his “reverie” was inviting attention,—the man devoted approximately ten minutes to scribbling assorted entries on a sheet of line paper, which he had placed on top of his briefcase two hours previously. He devoted roughly ten minutes to the effort (obviously preferring a pen to a laptop computer). His attache case remained ajar during this process. Jane’s Security and Co-In [Counter-Insurgency] Equipment, (Surrey, UK, 1991-92), as a preliminary source, contains a number of references to attache-case concealment devices, for use in surveillance-communications operations. The electronic components are built into the bottom interior of these cases. Obviously the man just described could NOT have carried a “microcircuitried” attache case aboard a U.S. airliner WITHOUT FIRST CLEARING SECURITY. We are advised by a former CIA, DDS (Security) employee that credential-carrying members of U.S. Intelligence can bypass airport security checks of their carry-on luggage.

One individual reports that mobile emitters may be installed in certain oversized, non-attributable medical emergency vehicles, possibly for eventual use in civil disturbances. Her unsuccessful attempts at following the “medical emergency” vehicle which had surfaced in her case ended with a high-speed chase.

The phony military intelligence officer, when recently moving out of our contact’s apartment building, was found to possess a device which resembles an oversized microwave oven, measuring approximately 4' in width x 2' in height x 2-1/2' in depth. A subsequent examination of his apartment revealed that he had tapped numerous additional lines into existing, in-house telephone and TV cables; and that he had gone to great pains to conceal a major excavation into one wall abutting the “harassee’s”. Judging from photographs taken immediately after this person’s departure, the wiring suggests that he was hooked by modem into a computer network, and that at least some of his electronic equipment was situated in a large walk-in closet, again abutting the “harassee’s”.

When the alleged officer moved out, his equipment (except for the oversized “microwave oven”) was packaged in boxes identifying the contents only as stereo components. During his year-long residency in this building, no sounds emanated from his apartment to indicate use of this “stereo” equipment.

 Use of modified license plates and vehicle look-alikes.

Some individuals have noted that their neighbors’ vehicles are periodically replaced (during peak periods of harassment) by others which qualify as “rough look-alikes”. The tags on these latter closely resemble those of the homeowners’ vehicles, with a difference being noted in only one digit or one letter. These modified plates appear to have been acquired through State DMV channels, thus suggesting government intelligence agency involvement.

In one case, where the individual has obtained police assistance, tracking of one plate surfaced evidence of a drug connection. That plate rapidly disappeared from the vehicle in question, to be replaced by another, again bearing a one-letter modification.

 Use of neighbors’ residences as bases of operation and training.

One individual recently saw a team of “technicians” in the house behind hers—a consequence of the team’s failure to close the curtains and/or use dim lighting when puttering around in the kitchen at 5:00 in the morning. The three men (strangers to this individual, all stripped down to their T-shirts) behaved as if they were unaware that they were being watched. Their observer had long suspected that this house was being used as a base of electronic harassment operations. The harassment had been ongoing throughout the night.

To provoke a response from these men, the individual eventually commented by turning the lights off and switching to the use of flashlights. Why they failed to close the curtains is unknown.

This individual is working with the police in an effort at ending this surveillance and harassment, with mixed results.

Another individual, paying a surprise visit to the apartment upstairs, overheard one of her own telephone conversations being played on a tape recorder inside that apartment. Lacking both a legitimate pretext to enter the apartment and the support of the building's management personnel and-or the police, she was prevented from pursuing this further. Her upstairs neighbor is purportedly employed by Stanford University Hospital, in Stanford, CA.

The target of surveillance and harassment in this case is still also trying to recover from the effects of exposure to potentially lethal doses of radiation, administered in the 1970s by a dangerously "incompetent" dentist. This might explain the involvement of alleged Stanford University Hospital personnel in her situation.

The government is on record as having experimented on unwitting U.S. citizens with radioactive material during the 1970s (and earlier) (St. Paul Pioneer Press Dispatch, October 15, 1986, p. 1-A ["U.S. Used Humans for Radiation Guinea Pigs"].) The House Subcommittee on Energy and Commerce based their investigation into this matter on a 30-year accumulation of documents maintained by the Department of Energy. Under the circumstances, it will come as no surprise if it is ultimately found that DoE has been involved in this woman's surveillance and harassment.

Another individual paid a surprise visit to the apartment immediately beneath hers, in an attempt to identify the source of a tremendous racket in her ventilation system. Standing outside the door, she could hear an individual moving around, a short distance from the door. She also heard the sound of rustling paper and the steady, sonar-like "pinging" of some type of electronic device. In response to her repeated knockings on the door, the person inside simply stopped moving about. The sound of rustling paper (perhaps a printout of some type) and the steady "...pin-ng!...Pin-ng!" sound continued. The occupant of this apartment resumed moving about only after it was (incorrectly) believed that our contact had departed the area. Typically, this situation could not be pursued further.

All of those who live in apartment buildings report unusual patterns of occupancy in the apartments surrounding their own; i.e., upstairs, downstairs and on all sides. They have become quite convinced—if only because of the highly focused nature of the symptoms being experienced—that these surrounding apartments are being used as bases of operation. Perhaps this encirclement facilitates studies of holographic human telemetries; or perhaps it is intended to increase the prospect of brain entrainment by electronic means ("entrainment" being one published objective sought in mind-control experiments). See, for example, Weinstein, Harvey M., M.D., Psychiatry and the CIA: Victims of Mind Control, American Psychiatric Press, Washington, D.C., 1990; Marks, John, The Search for the "Manchurian Candidate": The CIA and Mind Control, Times Books, New York, 1979; Delgado, Jose M.R., M.D., Physical Control of the Mind: Toward a Psychocivilized Society, Harper & Row, New York, 1969,; and Hutchinson, Michael, Megabrain: New Tools and Techniques for Brain Growth and Mind Expansion, Ballantine Books, New York, 1986.

In examining this situation more closely, a number of individuals have found that surrounding apartments are either permanently vacant, for unknown reasons, or that they have been "sub-let" by the original occupants to persons who are purportedly unknown to the buildings' management personnel. In one case, the surrounding renters all list two residences in the local telephone book. Not one lives in the apartment building in question, though the address is identified as one of the renters' places of residence. One individual suspects that the original occupants of apartments surrounding hers have simply been relocated to other apartments in the same (large) building. Another suspects that an adjacent apartment, which has been permanently rented to the U.S. Government for use by "visitors" is also being used as a base of operations.

One individual found that an immediate neighbor's housemate has the same (unusual) name of a university professor who has engaged in extensive research on behalf of the government, studying the bioeffects of exposure to microwave radiation.

 Use of informants-agents provocateurs, frequently members of the opposite sex.

As noted in the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs' draft report, Alyeska Pipeline Service Company Covert Operation (July 1992), the Wackenhut Corporation's Special Investigations Division adopted this tactic when pursuing Alyeska's critics.

A number of the individuals in touch with us report a range of experiences with new "friends" who—apparently posing as confidants—used acquired personalities to abruptly end these "friendships" under deliberately degrading and humiliating circumstances. When taken in the context of the ongoing surveillances and harassment, these exercises appear intended to heighten emotional trauma, perhaps to provoke an uncontrolled response and-or to enforce isolation.

 Misuse of covert intelligence personnel (possible former case officers).

One individual, while under contract to the U.S. Government, properly reported what he believed to be an approach by a hostile intelligence service. Within a few weeks, alleged U.S. Intelligence officers contacted this individual. In addition to questioning him about his background, these alleged intelligence officers asked that he keep in constant touch with them, particularly when planning to travel.

It soon became apparent that the alleged intelligence officers were intent only on forcing this individual to report to them as directed, and to account for his activities. He was not asked to assist the U.S. Government in any form of intelligence operation; he was not asked to execute any form of secrecy affirmation statement acknowledging the classified nature of these meetings; nor was he told why these meetings—involving a total of seven alleged case officers—were necessary.

When he began to balk at a continuation of this process, one of his "handlers" conveyed a threat, suggesting that his continued compliance might be "enforced". Finally, when this individual adamantly refused to cooperate further, massive overt harassment commenced and is currently ongoing.

The operation (clearly intended to bully this individual into submissive compliance for purposes which are still unknown) involved crude tactics formerly prized by the KGB.

Whether or not legitimate U.S. Intelligence case officers were involved in this activity remains to be determined. Some private firms retain former U.S. Intelligence case officers for contracting out as "security specialists". The founder and CEO of one such firm (Girard P. Burke, The Parvus Company, Silver Spring, MD) has informed us that the activities of contract case officers are neither monitored nor subject to formal restraint.

 Use of psychotropic drugs by cooperative physicians.

Shortly after resigning from the CIA, one of our contacts underwent a range of experiences which suggested that she had been massively drugged. One of the alleged perpetrators, whom we have met, alternately claims to be employed by NASA and-or by a firm in Miami, handling "microwave equipment". NASA has no record of this person under the name furnished.

The "experimentee" ultimately sought the assistance of a psychiatrist, whom her parents had located as a referral. The psychiatrist treated her reported "flash-backs" by immediately placing her on a regimen of Stelazine, which quickly aggravated her condition. He also made comments to this individual which suggested that he had a foreknowledge of her situation, and that he was cooperating with U.S. Intelligence. On one occasion the psychiatrist intimated that our contact might be employable as an assassin; and he repeatedly urged her to move to Great Britain where, he said, she would be put in touch with an unidentified Member of Parliament.

Interestingly, he had a tremendous computer system in his office suite, which he explained as being connected by modem into a national level system which, in turn, connected into private residences. When showing her this equipment, this psychiatrist informed our contact that she had been "CATscanned", pointing out that she was the subject of the vast series of "A's" and "B's" being printed out by one of the many terminals at his disposal.

Our contact also found that this psychiatrist kept a military uniform in his closet which bore the rank and insignia of a three-star general.

The individual ultimately sought psychiatric support elsewhere. Her new psychiatrist, formerly employed by DoD, immediately put her on a regimen of Haldol Decanoate, Klonopin and Benzatropine. The combined effect of these drugs was loss of memory and a state of mind which, under other circumstances, might be diagnosed as Depersonalization or Dissociative Disorder. All three drugs proved to be highly addictive. Our contact, since severing contact with the psychiatrist as well, has finally successfully overcome the addiction.

Another individual—the one whose psychiatrist had informed her of her role in a "Pavlovian Experiment"—was subjected to attempted drugging by Trazodone, one of the strongest sedatives on the market. The psychiatrist in question kept no record of the individual's outpatient visits, nor of her Trazodone prescriptions. Being unaware that the individual was not adhering to his regimen, the psychiatrist urged her to rapidly increase her dosage, renewing her 30-day prescription after a period of only 11 days.

Though aware of her heart condition, he failed to monitor her condition, dismissing her complaints of (electronically-induced) pains in her heart as inconsequential. Trazodone is known to aggravate heart conditions. Perhaps the intent was to have this individual succumb to a "heart attack" as the result of "imagined" government harassment. Neither the appropriate psychiatric society nor the FBI would touch this case.

Another individual (a clear target of retaliation) sought medical assistance to counter sudden massive headaches and recurrent attacks of vomiting—effects which can be produced by infrasound. The physician to whom she was referred (an alleged specialist in Internal Medicine) placed her on a combination of Compazine and Xanax, prescribing dosages which the Physicians' Desk Reference warns against.

Compazine, in addition to being an anti-emetic, is used in the treatment of psychotic disorders. It can also cause tardive dyskinesia, an irreversible syndrome involving loss of motor control. Xanax is known to induce vomiting. Both drugs can lead to dependency and a worsening of the patient's condition. The effects of all such drugs, in fact, can be mutated in high-energy fields, thus increasing the likelihood of adverse reactions.

We have recently found that this prescribing "physician" is not licensed to practice medicine in the state in which she has been practicing since at least 1989.

Our contact, being concerned about the long-term effects of Xanax and Compazine, consulted another physician in that same office. This physician immediately prescribed Prozac, failing to concurrently recommend that her patient discontinue the Xanax and Compazine prescriptions. When our contact refused to take any psychotropic drugs, the doctor became upset and asked, "Don't you want to get well?"

This second physician is a licensed practitioner in Internal Medicine, with no background in Psychiatry. We have also found that she apparently refers her patients to yet a third physician in the office who claims to be a psychiatrist. She, too, is licensed to practice Internal Medicine, only. Her receptionist described this third physician as having a psychiatric "sub-specialty", ... "as an internist". The receptionist also informed us that this internist "is treating a number of psychiatric patients".

On pursuing this further, we find that these physicians are in a small "medical group" which is not listed by specialty in standard regional telephone directories. The group bears the same name as one of the IA's most infamous recruited physicians (perhaps best described as "the Mengele of MKULTRA").

The doctors' offices are located in a bank building, which, we have found, is a favored hiding place for security-oriented businesses and government agencies. Two computer firms, co-located with an attorney who represents "Island Resort Development, Ltd.", are situated immediately beneath the doctors' offices. The prospect of our finding Island Resort developments within 500 miles of this attorney's office is limited.

Our contact, being apprised of these findings, is seeking medical help elsewhere.

In two of our cases, urologists took it upon themselves to play the role of "psychiatrist"; i.e., they rendered psychiatric diagnoses and prescribed psychotropic drugs. One of these urologists, employed by The Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN, prescribed Haldol, informing our contact that he perceived her to be "psychotic". His efforts at getting a Clinic psychiatrist to confirm this diagnosis were unsuccessful. The psychiatrist, apparently a rare individual who subscribes to codes of medical ethics, found nothing wrong with this woman, even given the nature of her complaints. The urologist's response to this was to issue his own Haldol prescription. Sensing that something was amiss, the woman refused to have the prescription filled.

Yet another individual ended up in the hands of a psychiatrist who, as a purported means of ending the stress associated with her harassment, offered to put her under hypnosis. She described the hypnotic state as "equivalent to floating" and (based on her overall experiences with this physician) has not ruled out the possibility that drugs may have been surreptitiously administered. The psychiatrist claimed to be interested in psychic phenomena and demonstrated an apparently remarkable ability to read this individual's mind.

While in her "hypnotic state, the individual felt a sharp, painful pressure inside her nose, as if something were being shoved up her nostrils to the sinus cavities. She awoke to find blood pouring out of her nostrils. The psychiatrist casually dismissed this as owing to a probable cold. [H: Anyone see the correlation between this and what is reported in so-called "abductions"? You had best be thinking about these things because "abductions" are B.S. as far as "space-aliens" are concerned. I think you ones have NO IDEA how far along your hostile One Worlders really ARE!]

Shortly after that experience, the individual began to hear loud tones in her head, followed in due course by auditory input. Brain scans have failed to yield evidence of an implanted device. (We have recommended that she undergo a scan by means of a suitably adapted non-linear junction detector, as a preliminary.) Suffice it to say, this individual has severed contact with the psychiatrist and is continuing to cope with ongoing overt and electronic harassment by other non-medical means.

 Use of medical implant devices.

The situation just described is not our first encounter with the apparent use of medical implant devices in these harassment-mind control cases. Another of our contacts began receiving auditory input roughly 15 years after she had 4 mm cochlear implants placed in her ears. The "voices" claim to be affiliated with the CIA and, among other things, expressed intentions of running this woman as an agent in denied areas by "piggybacking" their audio transmissions onto standard FM frequencies to avoid detection.

We have been unable to locate the surgeon who implanted these devices, though we do have copies of his operative reports. A recent CATscan of this individual failed to disclose the presence of the cochlear implants.

Several years ago, the individual (now a psychologist) applied for a position with the CIA. She was interviewed by four Langley-based, purported psychologists, who allegedly informed her that her job would involve the assessment of certain criminals for purposes of weighing their prospects for loyalty to this agency.

During these interviews, she was told to read several books by such persons as Philip Agee, Stansfield Turner and Ralph McGehee, all of whom were unknown to her. The alleged psychologists claimed that these authors had described the CIA "as it really is". Our contact was not asked to execute a secrecy affirmation statement acknowledging the classified nature of these proceedings.

The unconventional manner of this interview process suggests that this individual was being toyed with, for reasons which remain to be determined. She did not get the job and in fact more recently lost her job with a state penitentiary. She was fired, on the recommendation of the prison's psychiatrist, because of her insistence that she is receiving auditory input from CIA personnel who persist in feeding her classified information.

Interestingly, though this individual was deemed unfit to function as a psychologist in the penitentiary system, the State has rehired her, assigning her to a mental health facility where, apparently, she is to develop a behavioral modification program for retarded adults with diagnosed mental illnesses.

This individual claimed to be receiving and responding to externally-induced auditory "advice" while working with prison inmates. Under the circumstances, we have to wonder if this case qualifies as a benchmark in mind-control experimentation; i.e., employment of a mind-control psychologist to run the equivalent of mind-control experiments on mentally-ill retarded adults. We will continue to monitor the situation.

I would guess you are about ready for a break and a breath for some of you will be "holding" your breath by this point in the reading. I would also guess all those nice, warm and cozy thoughts about aliens, abductions with "devices" and denial of auditory and sensory implications and bombardment will be sinking in a bit as to the REAL CULPRITS of downfall of a civilization at the hands of the One World Order. So be it.

MICROWAVE HARASSMENT
AND
MIND-CONTROL
EXPERIMENTATION

CONTACT REPORTS,
CONTINUED

The individual whom we previously identified as having challenged a local power company also appears to have been "tagged" by some type of implant device. During a recent symposium, she was approached by a man whose business card identifies him as "Program Manager, Electromagnetic Radiation Division", DoE. His approach was suitably sympathetic. Our contact ultimately accepted the man's invitation to continue discussing their common ranges of interest in his hotel room. During this meeting, she accepted the offer of a drink, blacked out after consuming it, and awoke four hours later, still in this man's hotel room, to find that the back of her ear had been punctured and was bleeding. There was no evidence of a sexual assault. The man glibly evaded this woman's requests for an explanation. She has since found two adjacent puncture marks behind her ear, which are not healing properly, and between which she can feel the presence of a "wire" measuring approximately 1/4" in length. We are pursuing this further.

The said DoE Project Manager has more recently initiated contact with yet another activist in touch with this Association. His call was unsolicited. He apparently wanted to know if this woman would be attending an upcoming conference. We have warned the individual to avoid any form of private meeting with the said Project Manager.

To date, we are aware of three cases involving clandestine behavior on the part of alleged DoE employees. The CIA figures prominently (if peculiarly) in the majority of our other cases. Two of those have been discussed above.

In another, also involving auditory input, the individual is certain that the current Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) participated in the "voice transmission" process on at least one occasion. She claims to have recognized his voice. When she commented aloud on the DCI's perceived involvement in this experimentation, the "voice" responded with stuttered and stammered denials. We are told that this particular "voice" has not been heard from since.

In yet another case involving auditory input, the individual has allegedly been informed by her "voices" that the technologies being used against her were stolen from the CIA by a maverick employee, whose group is now targeting her from a distance of 2,000 miles. She reported this to the DCI's office and was allegedly informed by the deputy DCI that she will be awarded millions of dollars if she can produce the equipment and any of the personnel involved in her harassment.

One unusually-candid CIA spokesman also allegedly informed this individual that, "while the CIA does not deny having this equipment", they "do not use it in this country". Perhaps this explains why a number of our contacts have also been electronically harassed while traveling overseas.

This woman has also been repeatedly assured by CIA DDS (security) personnel of the Agency's sincere concern for her welfare. During a recent telephone conversation with that Office, we confirmed that she is indeed known to the CIA. Based on this, we asked that the Agency "put its money where its mouth is", so to speak, by conducting a long-term electronic sweep of this individual's premises. That was two months ago. No sweep has been conducted, though CIA spokesmen continue to "sympathize" with her predicament.

Another individual, a target of harassment and experimentation since 1952 (apparently singled out because of his student activism while at Penn State University) began hearing "voices" after having most of his teeth capped. He has more recently been informed by his "handlers" that implanted devices are no longer used for purposes of inducing auditory input. No explanation was offered. He was quite visibly surprised when informed by this investigator that auditory input can be achieved solely by means of pulsed microwave audiograms (discussed in Part I of this report).

This individual's "handlers" allegedly have also stated that their experiments on U.S. citizens are in pursuit of a variety of objectives; viz.,

1. develop an effective means for creating a perfect, "robotized" soldier;
2. alter individual sexual preferences, such as by turning heterosexuals into homosexuals (they allegedly claim to be having "difficulties" reversing the process); and
3. enhance or destroy levels of academic achievement, at will, such as by degrading the performance of otherwise brilliant students, and by drastically improving the performance of poor students.

Given the technology at the government's disposal and a predisposition on the part of certain governmental agencies to "play God" in experimental fashion with citizens' lives, these purported projects do not come across as being totally far-fetched.

Another case involves a woman whose experiences suggest that she, too, is an MKULTRA experimentee being kept on the books, so to speak. The woman, apparently a "pet" experimentee, found herself being introduced to a wide array of prominent individuals whose connections with the CIA she believed to be quite apparent. One of those, she states, was Robert Jay Lifton, a well-known author and expert on brainwashing, whose books include The Nazi Doctors: Medical Killing and the Psychology of Genocide (Basic Books, 1986).

Her experiences included a voluntary ("referral") admission to Hollywood Hospital, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, in 1973, during an era when MKULTRA experiments at the Allan Memorial Institute, McGill University, Montreal, Canada, were only beginning to capture the attention of the U.S. Senate. According to a Vancouver Sun archivist, Hollywood Hospital, Ltd. (a privately-owned institution), went out of business in 1975, two years after this woman's hospitalization and after approximately 30 years of doing business. The event coincided with findings by the U.S. Senate Church Committee concerning the CIA brainwashing experiments under MKULTRA. Our contact also identified the Director of Hollywood Hospital as Dr. Ross MacLean—information also confirmed by the Vancouver Sun. Nothing in these records, copies of which are being obtained, points to CIA involvement with the hospital. Perhaps a portion of history has been overlooked. Cornell Medical Center's role in MKULTRA is a matter of public record (See, for example, Thomas Gordon, Journey Into Madness: The True Story of Secret CIA Mind Control and Medical Abuse, Bantam Books, New York, 1989).

More recently, in 1990, she was transported to New York University's Cameron Medical Center, in Westchester, NY (under circumstances which qualify as an abduction), where she was forcibly wrestled to the ground by approximately six Center staffers and forcibly confined for a period of approximately three weeks. She was neither psychiatrically counseled nor formally tested while in that facility. The psychiatrists assigned to her case appeared more intent on forcing her to take a combination of neuroleptic drugs, to include Haldol, Navane and Cogentin. (Haldol and Navane can cause tardive dyskinesia.) She resisted those attempts.

[H: Does anybody remember what happened to Mr. Bush when he was on similar drugs and visited the Japanese for a nice "pass-out" dinner and collapse?? Is all this making more sense now to you, chelas? Where do YOU think we are in the state of evolvment to the New World Order and the Armageddon of ancient predictions?]

A court ultimately ordered this woman released from the Center, stipulating that she was not to be administered drugs. On subsequently acquiring her medical records, under conditions which prevented censoring or doctoring of those records, she found that her psychiatrists had planned to inject her with drugs (in defiance of the court order) on the day of her release. As luck would have it, she was released a day early.

This woman states also that she has met Budd Hopkins, of the Intruders Foundation, and that she had had a long-term, confiding relationship with John E. Mack, Professor of Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School, and founding Director of the Center for Psychological Studies in the Nuclear Age (previously named Research Program for the Study of Human

Grin & Bear It

By Fred Wagner

"Tell me again about global warming."

Continuity; and, still previously, rumored to have cooperated with the CIA in studies of "human ecology").

At one point in their relationship, Professor Mack apparently accompanied this woman to a "support group" meeting of UFO abductees, who, she observed bemusedly, "spent their time comparing (extraterrestrially) implanted devices." Professor Mack is ON RECORD AS PROMOTING the perception that UFO ABDUCTIONS ARE LEGITIMATE. The Roper Organization, Unusual Personal Experiences: An Analysis of the Data from Three National Surveys, (Bigelow Holding Corp., Las Vegas, NY, 1991). Contributors lending "credibility" to this publication include John Mack and Budd Hopkins.

[H: If you are not scared spitless by this time, chelas, THERE IS SOMETHING SERIOUSLY WRONG WITH YOU!]

We frankly doubt that extraterrestrials who have a means to commute intergalactically would stoop to implanting comparatively primitive devices in human beings. However, should it be proved that the psychiatrist, surgeon and DoE Project Manager discussed above are extraterrestrials posing as humans, we will be happy to weigh that information. [H: NOT LIKELY, GOOD BUDDIES.] If it is similarly established that the vehicular "abduction" of the woman discussed above was the work of an extraterrestrial named Kaplan, who is posing as a human with Cornell Medical Center connections, we will be happy to ponder that as well. [H: Hot dog! Now, finally, we are beginning to get some truth and perspective into this nonsense. This DOES tell you, however, that "they" are ready to spring a "biggie" on you very, very soon because they are softening you up to believe anything. Dharma sits here right now with a folder from Paramount Pictures regarding FIRE IN THE SKY. (By the way, it was sent to George Green for his comments—NOT MINE!) So what are we to think? Sorry, watchers, it is a fun story but it "ain't extraterrestrials"!]

In the meantime, it would seem reasonable that the government would want the public to believe that extraterrestrial visitations are on the upswing. Mind-altering drugs, externally-induced auditory input, holographic projections (also a DoD capability), appropriately focused directed-energy targeting, device implantations, special effects and abductions are all within this government's capabilities and can be used for purposes of creating illusions of UFO experiences. Persons not cognizant of this might be more inclined to fall for the UFO mythologies now being officially "legitimized". (Defense Week, October 19, 1992, Vol. 13, No. 41 pp. I and II ["Pentagon, State Department Collaborate on Counterterrorism Gear"].)

[H: Does this mean there are not any nice cute aliens running around or flying around or just hanging around? No—it means that we are of a higher intelligence and DO NOT PLAY STUPID TRICKS WITH PRIMITIVE IDIOTIC B.S. YOU HAVE BEEN "HAD", PEOPLE!—EVERY WAY INCLUDING UPSIDE DOWN!]

Other cases, possibly involving U.S. Navy Intelligence, NSA, the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) and, peripherally, members of former Soviet Bloc intelligence services will be discussed in future reports.

HARASSMENT OBJECTIVES

In his book, Psychiatry and the CIA: Victims of Mind Control, Dr. Harvey Weinstein quotes the following passage from a book entitled, Battle for the Mind: A Physiology of Conversion and Brainwashing, by William Sargant (Greenwood Press, Westport, CT, 1957):

"By increasing or prolonging stresses in various ways, or inducing physical debilitation, a more thorough alteration of the person's thinking processes may be achieved. ...If the stress or the physical debilitation, or both, are carried one stage further, it may happen that patterns of thought and behavior, especially those of recent acquisition, become disrupted. New patterns can then be substituted, or suppressed patterns allowed to reassert themselves; or the subject may begin to think or act in ways that precisely contradict his former ones.

"...If a complete sudden collapse can be produced by prolonging or intensifying emotional stress, the cortical slate may be wiped clean temporarily of its more recently implanted patterns of behavior, perhaps allowing others to be substituted more easily.' "

Dr. Weinstein then comments: "The parallel with (Dr. Ewen) Cameron's theory of differential amnesia is striking, and the relationship to brainwashing is abundantly clear." (Op. cit., Weinstein, pp. 140-141) Dr. Cameron, employed by McGill University's Allan Memorial Institute in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, between 1943 and 1964, conducted brainwashing experiments upon select, non-volunteer psychiatric patients on behalf of the CIA. Dr. Weinstein's father was one of Cameron's victims.

Sargant's theorems and Cameron's associated experimental findings appear to be the driving force behind the harassment and experimentation now being reported to this Association. All of these individuals are being subjected to a series of overlapping circumstances which apparently are meant to induce and sustain long-term extremes of stress. All of these individuals have been effectively isolated. Unethical psychiatrists and physicians are involved in the majority of these cases. Mind-altering prescription drugs are being used for clearly non-therapeutic purposes. Evidence of LSD use is also beginning to surface (one of Cameron's favored mind-altering substances). And "psychic driving" techniques—Cameron's pet brainwashing method—are involved in all of these cases, to a much greater and more potentially effective degree where auditory input is involved.

The long-term objectives of these harassment and experimentation campaigns appear to be quite fundamental; viz.,

1. induce a sense of perverted "loyalty" toward the very agencies engaged in the individual's harassment, to confuse his or her priorities where the possibility of obtaining legal redress might be concerned;

2. redirect the targeted individual's feelings of hopelessness, anger and frustration toward racial and ethnic groups, and toward select, prominent political figures, to include the President of the United States; and

3. force the individual to commit an act of violence, whether suicide or murder, under conditions which can be plausibly denied by the government.

An operation's ultimate success apparently hangs on this latter objective. We have successfully obstructed this process in a number of cases now being investigated.

THE "STALKER" PHENOMENON

In recent weeks, considerable publicity has been given the trauma suffered by victims of "stalkers" (persons who obsessively surveil, harass and, in some cases, kill targeted individuals for assorted, unfathomable reasons). Movie stars who have been stalked recurrently make the news. Stalking, as a problem, is in fact becoming widespread, to the point where, in some States, the activity has finally been specifically proscribed by law.

The individuals in contact with our Association are reporting the same terrifying ranges of experiences as are now being reported in the press on behalf of other victims of stalkers. The only difference in the cases reported to us is that the stalkers operate in groups over extremely prolonged periods of time, and (it would appear) with the blessing of certain agencies of the U.S. Government. The laws being passed to protect victims of stalkers are clearly being selectively applied. We hope to put an end to this situation; that is, in addition to achieving the objectives discussed above.

It should be noted that the FBI, though unwilling to intervene in the cases described above, recently intervened on a massive scale to protect Joy Silverman, a Bush-appointed trustee of the J.F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, from the ardent "stalkings" of her estranged paramour, Sol Wachtler, Chief Justice, Court of Appeals for the State of New York. (The Washington Post, November 10, 1992, p. A-1 ["An Unlikely Suspect for Scandal; Top N.Y. Judge Accused of Breaking Law in Secret Life"].) [H: Please note that this story is recently making big news, still.]

Wachtler had apparently threatened to kidnap Silverman's daughter if not paid $20,000. Since no kidnapping had occurred, and the case qualified merely as an attempted extortion, a question arises as to why the New York State Police could not have handled this investigation. Mrs. Silverman resides in New York.

It would appear that the FBI devoted more than 100 agents and technicians to the effort, resolving the case within approximately 30 days. On November 7, 1992, the day of his arrest, Wachtler ran a gauntlet of 80 FBI special agents on the Long Island Expressway. Apparently the FBI does not have enough to do, if staking out a lone stalker is their top priority. We have to wonder, of course, if the FBI's massive response was prompted by what was perceived to be Wachtler's usurpation of governmental stalking prerogatives.

Mrs. Silverman's $300,000 donations to Republican Party causes could be considered a basis for the FBI's solicitous concern for her welfare. It would appear, under the circumstances, that the "stalking victims" discussed above—being by now quite poverty-stricken—should abandon all hope of FBI intervention in their respective situations. FBI protection appears to have a price tag, which not one of our contacts can afford.

I certainly hope you go forth and spend some meditation time upon this matter. HERE IS WHERE YOU ARE TODAY, CHELAS!! THE PICTURE IS PRETTY SORDID AND BLEAK. IT IS TIME YOU TURN YOUR ATTENTION TO GOD AND THE HOSTS OF LIGHTED PASSAGE, FOR THE TECHNOLOGIES OF THE DAY ARE NOT IN YOUR FAVOR IF YE DO NOT PAY ATTENTION.

SALU.

NEWS DESK SPECIAL REPORT

Canada's Lethal "Paper Recycling" Program

2/6/90 DR. AL OVERHOLT

CANADA'S
PAPER RECYCLING PROGRAM

From A FAX, 2/2/99: [quoting]

A paper "recycling" program initiated in 1993 by Canada's Ministry of environment has received bad reviews by farmers and rural residents.

A farmer in Beaverton, Ontario, Don Whitcombe describes health issues as a result of the spreading of paper sludge.

Initially the ministry was using a hormone replacer called monothenaloxotholete (not sure of the spelling) this chemical was used to take the ink off the paper—residents investigated the chemical and discovered this was a very toxic chemical. In fact, it was so aggressive that it has the ability of changing the sex of fish from male to female. The ministry acknowledged the dangers and have said that they are no longer using this chemical and that they are now using an extract from coconut.

The ministry tried to sell this "recycling idea" as a "soil benefit program". It is actually a waste disposal program.

Reports out of the Department of Health in Wisconsin demonstrate this process to affect cattle, cheese, and wheat. Wisconsin's standards seem to be a lot higher than ours in Canada. And ironically 80 percent of wastestream comes from the States to be recycled here on our farms...and 80 percent goes back to the states.

We seem to be managing an American problem!

This process, actually called a certificate of approval, allows people to spread this paper sludge material on farmland. It comes up for renewal this week. It is very likely it will be renewed again though.

The way the Ministry has sold this idea to farmers is this: The farmer is given this material made out of clay, paper fiber, lime and water. The also give the farmer an amount of nitrogen to break this stuff down and of course, fertilizer (what farmer doesn't need fertilizer?). One farmer was offered $17-thousand worth of fertilizer free plus this material, an offer he couldn't refuse. $17-thousand is big bucks for a farmer here in Ontario.

(The way the Ministry gets away with not disclosing their contents of the material is that they are giving the material to the farmers. If they were shelling it then they would have to tell them what they are getting.)

The health effects are evident in the areas that process the paper sludge. Many times the sludge is being spread where the cattle are still grazing in the field.

Without a doubt the ministry will be granted another renewal of this program.

I'll keep my ears open .

Please review releases to follow.

PRESS RELEASE

February 1, 1999

HEATH RISK FROM PAPER
SLUDGE UNDER REVIEW

Farmers and rural resident are complaining about health problems related to the spreading of paper sludge on farm fields. "When they spread it on the fields near me I can feel my lungs close up," said Don Whitcombe, who runs a tree nursery and landscaping business in Beaverton. "My daughter has asthma, and she really suffers." Residents are describing their symptoms in letters to the Medical Officer of Health in their district in order to document health problems they believe are related to the "Soil Enrichment" program run by Atlantic Packaging and Courtice Auto Wreckers.

But the concern about health risks is not limited to breathing problems. Chemicals in the sludge are also a concern. This paper-mill sludge, the waste from the Atlantic Packaging paper mills in Scarborough and Whitby, contains calcium carbonate, short paper fibers, kaolin clay, ink and dye residues and chemicals used in deinking and processing. It also contains dioxins which are some of the most toxic chemicals known to man.

In a letter to the Ministry of the Environment Dr. Alex Hukowich, Medical Officer of Health for Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge district, questions the Ministry assumptions when it comes to dioxins. "I believe the Ministry's position should be to carefully examine the amounts of such substances (PCB's and dioxins) which continue to be released into the environment in an effort to reduce the amount and to determine the potential for or actual degree of contamination of the food chain so as to decrease human exposure."

Recent such tests from the Ministry of the Environment determined that the laboratory used by the mill was not using acceptable methods of dioxin detection. Ministry officials found that the real levels of dioxin were far higher than those reported by the mill. Ministry audits revealed a level of 3.5 parts per trillion total toxic equivalents. While this amount of dioxin is within current Ministry standards, it is above the levels reported for average Ontario farm soil. Dioxins are persistent organic contaminants and they tend to accumulate in the soil. Rural residents would like to see a dioxin audit of farms that have been receiving sludge for the past five years.

Health risk assessments from the Department of Health in Wisconsin demonstrate that a significant cancer risk is associated with grazing livestock on land that contains more than 0.5 parts per trillion of dioxin. Since most of the human exposure to dioxins comes from food sources, especially meat and milk. Pastures and application of paper sludge may be creating unacceptable risks.

Townships have also expressed concern about the lack of research from the company. Brock town council has asked for testing for health impacts such as asthma as a condition of the program. Manvera Township has written to the Ministry about pasture land application and stated that they "STRONGLY OPPOSE the spreading of paper sludge on agriculture lands in our municipality as this is NOT considered to be a soil enhancement program"

The ministry of the Environment will decide whether to renew the program sometime this week.

Anytime the "elite" are allowing this in Canada don't be surprised if it is being done in other places in the world.

This sounds like mass destruction of farmlands to me or why would they be paying the farmers to do it? The "elite" aren't known to give us something free if they know it is good for us in any way. Think about it!

Congratulations

It's A Miracle!

Claudia and John's daughter, Alysia, delivered a healthy baby boy, Robert Francis, on Sunday February 7, 1999 at 7:52pm. He is 7lb 2oz and 21 inches long. Since Claudia & Alysia are my "vast" newspaper production staff, and since Sunday is an important paper production day, you can imagine how much of a miracle this week's paper is. I think a new journalist was anxious to join the team! Wish Alysia and proud father Jeff congrats % CONTACT's mailing address. —E.Y.

Rise Of Antichrist Vols. 1-4

THERE IS NOTHING THAT THE INTERNATIONAL JEW FEARS SO MUCH AS THE TRUTH, OR ANY HINT OF THE TRUTH ABOUT HIMSELF OR HIS PLANS. AND, AFTER ALL, THE ROCK OF REFUGE AND DEFENSE, THE FOUNDATION OF ENDURANCE FOR JEW OR GENTILE MUST BE THE TRUTH.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO CHANGE THIS CIRCUMSTANCE UPON YOUR WORLD AND TURN ABOUT INTO GOODNESS—BUT YOU MUST FIRST LEARN AND KNOW WHAT IS THE FUNDAMENTAL TROUBLE OR WRONG INVOLVED. ONLY THEN CAN YOU “FIX” THAT WHICH IS BROKEN OR CORRECT THAT WHICH IS WRONG.

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 1

$6.00 198 Pages #227

I would like the next series of Journals to be listed as RISE OF ANTICHRIST.

What will I use to kick off this next information? Some Essays on Antichrist as offered by Rev. Charles E. Coughlin. If you know of him, fine; if not, never mind. He served well, he understood, and he can have what rest can be gained by his work's purpose and his alliance with God. You will NOT find this book available anywhere, probably, so don't waste your time searching. This was sent to us to assist Dharma in her own work, by excellent summarizing which gives YOU published backup and confirmation. Is it not amazing how “when the student is ready, the teacher appears”? And, isn't it wondrous that when we are ready to begin a new and touchy topic—the information flows like a fountain from the mountain?

Some topics:

- Killers Of Women And Children!
- Sananda: It Is Time To Awaken From The Lie
- Vatican III Quickly Needed
- War In The Heavens
- War On Earth
- The Militiamen
- The Mystical Body Of Satan In Action
- Bill Clinton And The Rockefellers
- Jerry Falwell, Christian?

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 2

$6.00 207 Pages #228

This Journal concludes the Rise Of Antichrist Essays begun in Vol. 1 of this series and introduces a 3-part series entitled Plot and Plotters, Anti-Gentilism. Also in this Journal we begin the series entitled GLOBAL PARASITES—reprinting the information presented in The Dearborn Independent in the 1920s entitled The International Jew.

Some Topics:

- The Great Betrayal
- The Jew In Character And Business
- Jewish History In The United States
- The Last Ends Of Masonry

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 3

$6.00 201 Pages #229

In this Journal we continue the series entitled GLOBAL PARASITES [Parts 7-14]—reprinting the information presented in The Dearborn Independent in the 1920s entitled The International Jew and other related topics.

Some Topics:

- Vince Foster; More Zipper Update?
- Princess Di
- Anti-Semitism—Will It Appear In The U.S.?
- Patriot Groups And Biological Agents
- Jewish Question Breaks Into The Magazines
- Clinton Hoodwinked On Iraq Disinformation Campaign By Mossad
- Arthur Brisbane Leaps To The Help Of Jewry
- Does A Definite Jewish World Program Exist?

RISE OF ANTICHRIST

—VOL. 4

$6.00 227 Pages #230

In this Journal we continue the series entitled GLOBAL PARASITES [Part 15-24]—reprinting the information presented in The Dearborn Independent in the 1920s entitled The International Jew.

Some Topics:

- “Jewish” Plan To Split Society By “Ideas”
- Did The Jews Foresee The World Wars
- “When Prophets Speak”
- Is The Jewish “Kahal” The Modern “Soviet”?
- How The “Jewish” Question Touches The Farm
- Does Jewish Power Control The World Press?
- Does This Explain Jewish Political Power?
- The All-Jewish Mark On “Red Russia”
- Jewish Testimony In Favor Of Bolshevism

Why don't the Jewish controllers make a big play for shutting down such as CONTACT and these Journals? One major reason is that there have been so many years of publicity on their activities via these routes that any assault NOW would end up with worldwide attention to the work in progress, namely, giving away their secret PLANS. A major court confrontation would undo THEM, not us, this time.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
